'65 GALA WEEK PLANS DISCUSSED Hope to Alter Date SPECIAL LIGHTING FOR XMAS?

A public meeting to discuss the 1965 Gala Week in Dungarvan was held in the Courthouse on Thursday night of last week. It was representative of the majority of the leading business houses in the town and after lengthy discussion it was decided to alter if possible the June 27 to July 4 week already set out for the Gala.

The general feeling of the meeting was that this date was too early in the tourist season and it was decided to contact Bord Fáilte in an effort to have the date changed. The problem facing the Gala Committee is that Bord Fáilte's annual booklet outlining the big events of the year may now be printed and if that is so it will be impossible to alter the date.

The meeting also discussed the possibility of "lighting up" the main streets of the town for the coming festive season and the following committee was set up for this purpose: Mrs. Joan Bailey; Messrs. John Mansfield, Tommy Power, Con Roche, Severin Baumann, Christy Coleman, Michael Moloney.

Speaking at the outset of the meeting, the Gala Week Chairman, Mr. James Foley, welcomed those present. Referring to the '64 Gala he said the idea was first born in February last. Their first meeting was not well attended but after that the response of the many social, sporting and cultural bodies in the town was most encouraging.

Mr. Foley continued: "The purpose of the Gala Week was to stimulate business, publicise the town as a tourist centre and to provide entertainment for the visitors and tourists. It was generally agreed that our '64 gala was successful and there was no untoward incidents. The leadership of the Gala Committee stimulated a community effort of which all the townspeople may be proud."

Mr. Foley thanked the clubs who helped out, their sponsors, stewards, hotels, certain firms, public bodies, members of S.E.R.T.O., the Development Association and their Finance sub-committee. They showed a profit of £160.

The Chairman then speaking on next year's event said that at a meeting of the committee recently it was agreed with good grace the idea of non-elected members.

Mr. M. Harty said the various Committees of Agriculture were willing to accept 25% non-elected members.

Mr. Curran said he was very proud of the type of men in public life in County Waterford. If the new Act was enforced half of the 16 members of the Waterford Committee of Agriculture would be sacked provided of course they were all returned at the next election. The men in public life in Co. Waterford showed unselfish interest in public affairs and they were a honourable men.

Mr. M. Galgey said he knew of certain people who wanted to get into public life but the public would not vote for them.

Mr. Curran then proposed that Mr. N. Walsh seconded that they ask the Minister not to enforce the new Agricultural Act. This was carried unanimously.

behind the idea. Deputy T. A. Kyne said the Urban Council was entitled to put 3d. in the £ on the rate for decorations. If they were prepared to put up 2d. would bring in £120. He asked if the meeting would commend that to the Council. The Town Clerk, Mr. P. Doyle, said that could be done but there was nothing left for it in the estimates.

Deputy Kyne said the Council would not put up the 2d. unless the people of the town put it to them. He had in mind the erection of a crib for a Christmas tree and preferably a crib. He was thinking of the Urban Council giving lead in this respect.

Mr. P. Breen then proposed and Mr. P. J. Gordon seconded that the Urban Council put 2d. towards lighting the town for Christmas.

Deputy Kyne said the Council would consider this recommendation at the Council's monthly meeting. He was frequently travelling to and from Dublin and in every town or village on the way they had some kind of lights or something to attract people. When he came into Dungarvan there was nothing and he thought the shopkeepers of the town were very shortsighted in this respect.

Mr. Foley—The general feeling now is that it should be later in the summer.

Finally it was decided to change the date to around the end of July provided Bord Fáilte have not yet published their Publicity Programme for next year.

LIGHTING OF TOWN FOR CHRISTMAS

When the meeting commenced discussion on the proposed lighting of the town for the festive season, it was stated by Mr. Con Roche that the shopkeepers would have to make a big effort in this project.

Mr. James Foley said they should really have gone about this during the summer. It would be very good for Christmas but could also be very costly. However, he was fully

Late James Timmons

Abbeyside
It is with regret we record the unexpected passing of James Timmons, Abbeyside, which sad event occurred unexpectedly on Sunday morning last. The deceased was out and about as usual on Saturday. He was the well-known station master at Duroy terminus and retired only last March having completed the allotted span of faithful service with C.I.E. and came to live in Abbeyside. He was a great admirer of Gaelic games being father of well known Killoxan footballers John and Jim Timmons and father-in-law of Jimmy Power. He was an honest and charitable man and much sympathy is extended to his bereaved family in their sad loss.

The funeral followed by a large cortege took place on Sunday evening at Abbeyside Parish Church where Very Rev. Fr. Roche, P.P. and Rev. Fr. Walsh C.C. officiated. Following Requiem Masses on Monday morning the funeral took place to Killoxan for interment. Very Rev. Fr. O'Donovan officiated at the graveside.

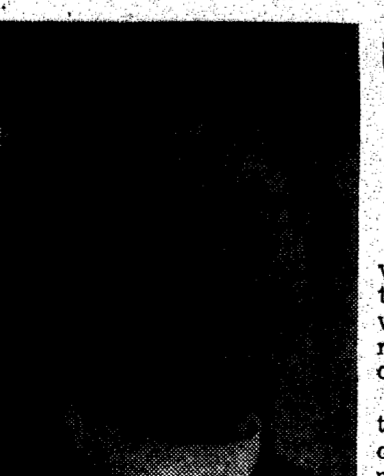

The chief mourners were: Mrs. Timmons (wife); Toddy, John and James (sons); Mrs. J. Power (daughter); Miss M. Timmons, Kilkenny (sister); Jack and Tom Timmons, London (brothers); Jas. Power (son-in-law) etc.

LATE MRS. MARY McGRATH

Keating Street, Dungarvan
We regret to record the death of Mrs. Mary (Molly) McGrath which sad event occurred during the early hours of Wednesday morning, Nov. 18th at her residence, Keating Street after a short illness and in her early fifties. The deceased lady was a great favourite in her native Dungarvan. A cheerful and charitable woman, she was a loving mother and wife and her highly respected family are an example of her true guidance. The family were always interested in G.A.A. affairs and her son, Mossie, a former well-known Dungarvan senior footballer now a popular referee. Her passing is deeply mourned not only by her family but also by her many friends in the district.

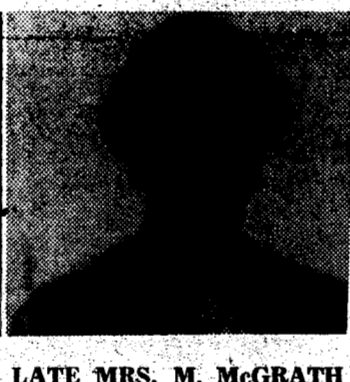

Her removal took place on Wednesday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church followed by a large cortege consisting of all sections of the community. The coffin was received and blessed by Rev. W. Power, C.C., assisted by Rev. R. O'Shaughnessy, O.S.A. Dungarvan. Requiem Mass was celebrated on Thursday morning for the happy and eternal repose of her soul and the interment took place in the adjoining family plot. Another very large concourse was present, Rev. D. Byrne, C.C., assisted by Rev. R. O'Shaughnessy, O.S.A., imparted the final absolution at the graveside.

The chief mourners were: Denis McGrath (husband);

REV. J. A. POWER, M.A., O.S.A., son of Mrs. and Mrs. Patrick Power, Lr. Main Street, Dungarvan, of the Good Counsel College, New Ross, the choir-master of the 21 singing New Ross children who made a big impression at the Kennedy anniversary ceremonies in America during the past week.

Committee Wants Power Over Increases

LATE MRS. M. McGRATH

Maurice and Patrick, Dungarvan; Raymond, Cambridge (son); Mrs. Betty Bellingsley, Manchester; Mrs. Eileen Bourke, Cambridge; Mrs. Mary Page, do. (daughters); Thom's Atkins, Western Tce. (brother); Mrs. Annie Standen and Mrs. Lizzie Cooper, England (sisters); Mrs. M. McGrath, Dungarvan; Mrs. P. McGrath, do; Mrs. R. McGrath Cambridge (daughters-in-law); Albert Billingsley, Daniel Bourke and Ron. Page (sons-in-law); Mrs. T. Greany, Mrs. J. Houlihan, Mrs. T. Atkins, Dungarvan; Mrs. J. Bell and Mrs. B. Swindon, Cambridge (sisters-in-law); Mr. J. McGrath, Liverpool (brother-in-law), and a large circle of grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

(J. Kieley and Sons had charge of funeral arrangements).

At the monthly meeting of Waterford Committee of Agriculture on Saturday last, a resolution was unanimously passed, calling on the Minister for Agriculture to restore to the members of the Committee the powers of rejecting or granting salary increases.

Mr. Norman Walsh said the remarks of the Minister for Finance, Dr. Ryan, during the week, when he stated that he was appalled by the effects of salary increases on the nation, should be observed by everyone.

Mr. Charles Curran said the Committee had been the subject of reversion for years by certain sections of the Community because of the attitude they adopted on this matter.

Mr. Wm. Dower said this Committee had always been against the principle of granting big salary increases.

On the proposal of Mr. Milo Galgey seconded by Mr. Charles Curran the Committee unanimously agreed to ask the Minister to restore to the Committee the powers of granting or rejecting increases.

The new Agricultural Act whereby half of the Committee of Agriculture in future will consist of non-elected members was strongly criticised by the members of Waterford Committee of Agriculture at their monthly meeting on Saturday last. The Committee after discussion unanimously passed a resolution calling on the Minister to bring in amending legislation to counter act this.

Mr. Norman Walsh said he hoped the Minister would reconsider this matter. The new Minister for Agriculture, he said, might be more realistic and realise how important this matter was.

Mr. Charles Curran said this new act would introduce politics into the Committee of Agriculture. It would result in members competing with each other to get friends on to the Committee.

URGENT

Time is running short. Only eight more "giving" days to Sale of Work Time! If you haven't sent us a gift already, please send us one now. To the country people we make a special appeal for potatoes, butter or eggs. The vegetable stall at the Mission Sale is VERY stall.

Return all ticket counterfoils before the 4th December. Many will be trying to buy or order Christmas fruit cakes at the cake stall during the sale. But if you may be too late, as only a certain number of orders can be taken. Order your cake now with the stall no later.

Tickets for all the raffles are available at the Priory and in the shops.

This year during the matinee for the children there will be carnival games at all the stalls, luscious Hot Dogs with sausages that go all munchy, at the "Hot Dog Grill Room." A Continental Chef will be in charge. Teas will be served non-stop. On the stage a grand new attraction for the children: Childrens Bazaar. You can fill in your card for only a penny. A lot of course, thousands of Santa Claus parcels, The Doll and Cot will be raffled in the afternoon. The doll presented by Princess Grace will be auctioned on Saturday night.

Santa Claus will be driven from the Square on Saturday afternoon and this year's special attraction through the town will be a Dog in a Prizm Race. All you need is a dog in a prizm and be able to run fast and a crisp pound note is yours. This is at 2 p.m.

All the usual displays of hand-knit goods, little kiddies frocks, boys suits and shirts; tea-cosies; ladies wear etc. will be on show.

We need more and more comics for the Book Stall and all kinds of novelties. We need more objects for the Religious Stall. We are having a bigger than ever Book Stall and this time on the Wheel of Fortune we have tea-sets, new electric fires, Christmas cakes and turkeys. What more could you ask for, and all this and more, on Friday and Saturday, 4th and 5th December.

It is your personal help that counts. Help our Missions.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir—

In a letter which appeared in your paper, Deputy Treacy made a vicious and uncalled for attack on me. He accused me of obstructing him in the carrying out of his Parliamentary duties in West Waterford. This accusation is completely untrue and very hurtful to me to have such an accusation made.

Anytime that I referred to Deputies from outside this county, I did not mention any Deputy in particular and any reference I made referred to all parties and when I see T.D.s trying to cash in on the achievements of my colleagues regardless of their politics, I will take a stand on the side of my colleagues when I know they have been wronged.

Anyone who has followed the case of the telephone for Ballysaggart will see what I mean. Councillor Quirk was the first to make application to the County Council for the phone and it was agreed to provide it for Ballysaggart and straight away we had T.D.s trying to cash in on it but due to the difficulty about where the phone was to be installed, it had to come back to the County Council again, and this brought home to the people of that area that for the most of their needs they must rely on their local representative on the County Council. I can say that I was the first to ask at a County Council meeting to have the houses in New Street, Talloow repaired and this was followed up by the local representatives. This is the co-operation we have on the County Council and we are not going to let T.D.s from outside the county fool the people into thinking that they are responsible for what has been achieved and that we are responsible for the failures and delays.

I am now coming to the end of my fifteen year term on the County Council and I have a record I am proud of. I was elected at 21 years of age with a small vote and at each subsequent election I was returned at the head of the poll in my area and during all those years the workers have been conscious of my work on their behalf, to name some of it many increases in Council workers' pay were granted on proposals of mine. I also brought before the Council the question of a tea break and got the resolution granting it passed by the Co. Council. The most recent proposal being made in my name and that of another Fianna Fail member, Councillor Paddy Cahill, was the seeking of weekly pay for Council workers which we have been promised will be implemented before Christmas.

Deputy Treacy said I was rejected by the people at the last General Election. I wish to point out that I was proud of the vote I got in view of the fact that I was one of four standing for Fianna Fail three of which were outgoing and the fourth was shared between us a total of 16,101 votes against 7,260 votes for Labour.

At the General Election previous to that, Sean Treacy, to use his own words, "was rejected" by the people of South Tipperary who had a better opportunity of following his political career on the South Tipperary County Council and Clonmel Corporation. Reports of those meetings are not read to any extent in West Waterford. —Yours sincerely, JOHN FAHEY, M.C.C., Lvrn-e-garla, Clonmel, 23rd November, 1964.

Mr. Wm. Dowler said Miss Mullins name was a household word amongst the poultry keepers of the County. The Chairman (Mr. John Fahey) said he also regretted Miss Mullins' resignation. She had given outstanding service to the people of the County for a long time and she would be a great loss.

Mr. Charles Curran said Miss Mullins' job was particularly difficult in recent times because the poultry industry was in the doldrums. He complimented her on her service to the people of the county.

Mr. P. O'Shea, Horticultural Instructor, said Miss Mullins had left her imprint on County Waterford.

Mr. Michael Harty said he hoped Miss Mullins would reconsider her decision and stay on with the committee for a longer period.

Miss Mullins said she would consider Mr. Harty's suggestion.

Molleran's Capture Hurling Crown

Controversial Goal Played Vital Part

ST. MOLLERAN'S 1-8; ARDMORE 1-3

JUST as in the senior football final a month previous, Ardmore were again dogged by ill luck when going under by a five point margin to St. Molleran's in the County junior hurling final at Dungarvan on Sunday last. The Western champions experienced cruel luck in this keenly fought and breathlessly exciting decider, and if Molleran's are worthy champions they are also very fortunate ones indeed.

It was not a good day for hurling as the heavy underfoot condition was a deterrent to both sides. But they made light of this handicap to turn in an hour of countless thrills that certainly gave the fair-sized attendance plenty to enthuse over.

But whenever this decider is recalled—as it most assuredly will—the chief talking point will undoubtedly be Molleran's lone goal scored in the second half. It was a score that was very doubtful. It came at a stage when Ardmore were leading by a point and playing like prospective champions. Then the winners' midfielder D. Foley attempted to lift the ball and having failed to get it "to come up" he picked it straight off the ground and sent it to the net. In fact, the Ardmore defence and goalkeeper stood up awaiting the referee's whistle and made no effort at all to prevent the ball entering "their house."

The effect of that score on the Seaside's was shattering to say the least. They never recovered their composure thereafter and Molleran's went on to record their five point victory.

Molleran's with fewer chances chalked up a winning tally and for that alone deserve the highest of praise. But the more one reflects on the chances Ardmore had over the hour the more crystal clear it becomes that they threw away this final just as they did against Kilrossanty in the senior football decider in October. On five occasions alone they failed to score from close-in frees—adopting the foolish gambit of trying for goals without any apparent justification.

The opening half was very evenly contested, although Molleran's were not flattered by their 0-4 to 0-2 interval lead. Then on the restart, Ardmore enjoyed their brightest period and when they jumped into a one point lead looked all set to take the title. Then came the Molleran's goal which changed the entire complexion of the game and from there to the end Ardmore were struggling to rid themselves of the disastrous effect it had on them.

The winners opened the scoring in the sixth minute when Nicky Fitzgerald sent all the way for a point from a seventy. Then Ardmore hit back within a minute with a point by Jim Rooney but in the subsequent minutes they should have streaked into a big lead but Thomas Hallahan, Jim Rooney and Eddie Mooney all shot wide with an open goal at the mercy of all three. A brace of points by Sean Reid restored the Molleran's lead and before the interval Rooney and Jim Fitzpatrick exchanged minors.

On the resumption points were again exchanged by Fin Hallahan and Reid but then Ardmore jumped into the lead for the first time when Eddie Mooney placed Thomas Hallahan for a great goal. Then came the controversial goal for the winners and after that they were well in command. To make victory certain Reid added three further points without an Ardmore reply before the end.

Best in the winners defence were goalie Michael Gilman and Nick Fitzgerald, J. Walsh and Paddy Crotty. They had a good midfield pairing in Davy Foley and P. Murphy and in attack, Reid, Norris and Paddy Finnucane were best. Although beaten, Ardmore put up another great display. Their heroes in defence were John and Maurice Colbert, Noel Power and Mickey Carleton. At midfield Bertie Hallahan and John Joe Carleton never gave up trying and in an attack that missed some great scoring chances Jim Rooney and Joe O'Brien were best.

St. Molleran's—M. Gillman; T. Kennedy, J. Walsh, P. Crotty; N. Fitzgerald, J. Duggan, D. Doocey, D. Foley, J. Murphy; M. Walsh, P. Finnucane, J. Fitzgerald. Sub.—B. Maher, for Hickey.

Ardmore—J. Colbert, J. Mulcahy, N. Power, M. Colbert; F. Hallahan, M. Carleton, T. Power; J. J. Carleton, B. Hallahan; J. Rooney, P. Carleton; D. Lennane; E. Mooney, J. O'Brien, T. Hallahan. Subs.—M. Cronin for Lennane; Lennane for Cronin; A. Carleton for Mooney.

Referee—John Barron (De La Salle).

1963 SARGENT CUP FINAL

Two buses will leave Kieley's Corner, on Sunday at 1.40 p.m. for 1963 Sargent Cup final at Cappoquin: Abbesside v. Erin's Own, returning immediately after match. One bus will stop in the Square, Fare, 4/-.

SPECIAL MEETING AT PIKE

A special meeting will be held at the Pike on Friday, 4th December, in connection with forming a football club to compete in the 1965 junior football championship. All interested are earnestly requested to attend. The meeting will commence at 8 p.m.

The Pike was once a football stronghold boasting of such "greats" as Paddy Daly and the Fennell brothers, and it would be good to see them back in competitive football.

NEXT SUNDAY'S WINTER LEAGUE GAMES

Now that the championship year has concluded main interest will centre on Phelan and Sargent Cup games whilst the winter league games will be held at the Pike on Friday, 4th December, in connection with forming a football club to compete in the 1965 junior football championship. All interested are earnestly requested to attend. The meeting will commence at 8 p.m.

AT DUNGARVAN

The meeting of Shamrocks and Ardmore in the hurling semi-final should produce a good hour's hurling.

Like Affane, Ardmore were defeated in a County final on Sunday last, but they were most unfortunate to be beaten 1-8 to 1-3 by St. Molleran's in the junior final. Following on their senior football defeat, this was another cruel set back but it remains to be seen if they can muster up enough enthusiasm to do themselves justice on Sunday next.

Shamrocks are having a great run in this league and in their last outing scored a great five-point victory over Tourin. They will be without at least three of their championship side for this game, but men like Frankie Corcoran, Billy Tobin, J. J. Murphy and the Nicholsons should be good enough to get them safely over this hurdle.

FARMERS ASKED TO AVAIL WARBLE FLY SCHEME

Waterford Committee of Agriculture at its monthly meeting on Saturday last, appealed to the farmers of the county to avail of the services of the Agricultural Instructors to implement the Warble Fly Eradication Scheme.

Mr. P. Conroy (C.A.O.) said the progress in County Waterford was as good as in any other county. Recently there had been quite an improvement in applications to have cattle treated and as a result they would be put to the pin of their collars to deal with all enquiries.

Mr. Wm. Foran said the Committee should appeal to all farmers in the county who had not already co-operated, to do so immediately. The people who did not co-operate were very foolish, he added. The discussion then ended.

N.F.A. NEWS PRESIDENT'S APPEAL

A further appeal for restraint in reference to the present N.F.A.-I.C.S.M.A. situation was put forward by Mr. Rickard Deasy, President of N.F.A. He was convinced, he said, that the best interests of farmer unity would not be served by further public discussion of the situation.

The full text of Mr. Deasy's statement is as follows: "I regret that my previous appeal for restraint on the current N.F.A.-I.C.S.M.A. situation has not been fully observed, and that a number of provocative and misleading reports have since appeared.

"It was mutually agreed that a confidential draft agreement, consisting of three parts, should be put to both National Councils.

"On November 6th, the N.F.A. National Council considered at length the entire document including the third part containing ten points fundamental to the whole agreement and the Council reached a unanimous agreement. However, only the first two parts of the document were put before the I.C.S.M.A. National Council. It is not therefore, for N.F.A. to suggest that his omission is now to be put right.

"I am convinced that the best interests of farmer unity will not be served by further public discussion of this issue and I would again appeal for restraint."

"FARMER'S BUDGET" LABEL RECALLED

April 14th last is a date few farmers in this country will have difficulty in recalling. Their joy at Dr. Ryan's announcement of increased prices for milk and pigs and relief on the rates was immediately diminished by the "Farmer's Budget" label given to Dr. Ryan's statement.

Farmers were justifiably angered at the insinuation that the rest of the country was being penalised for the sake of the farmers.

The label-merchants shrugged aside the fact that all industrial workers had received a 12% wage increase some months earlier. Also forgotten was the fact that while industrial and State employees were receiving round after round of wage increases over the year, farmers' incomes were sliding and sliding.

At a packed meeting last week of N.F.A. in the Sney Hotel, Tuolum, Dr. Ryan's Budget statement, announcing further aid of £2,000,000 a year to agriculture was contrasted with his recent speech to the Institute of Bankers.

In his speech Dr. Ryan confessed to being appalled at the cumulative effect of pay increases to State employees. These increases alone will mean a bill of £15,000,000 to the Exchequer this year.

The much talked-about farmers' £5,000,000 lades into complete insignificance compared with this figure.

The N.F.A. should not allow these statements to be forgotten when next year's Budget comes around, said Mr. Edward Kennedy, Chairman, Carlow County Executive. "Whenever farmers get an increase it is made to appear as if the city man alone is bearing the burden.

"The same attitude never seems to be taken when the industrial worker gets his successive rounds of wage increases. But we know that it is the farmer who pays for these increases by higher prices for all his commodities."

FINANCIAL AND ORGANISATION

The major portion of the three-hour meeting was devoted to a discussion on finance and organisation. All present agreed to make an all-out effort to meet the 1964 Budget.

A special appeal was made to branches which have not yet submitted the balance of their 1964 fees to do so at once. A Finance sub-Committee meeting has been fixed for Monday next, November 30th. At this meeting plans will be laid for increasing the present 80% membership of all farmers in the county to 100%. (Other counties, please note.)

WARBLE FLY

The warble fly campaign has been very successful in Carlow and a special tribute was paid to the county's C.A.O. Mr. Tom Murray and his staff. The Secretary, Mr. Denis McGrath was instructed to communicate the Executive's sentiments to the chairman of the County Committee of Agriculture.

LAND BILL

The County Executive also endorsed the observations of the N.F.A. National Council on the Land Bill 1963 and requested the Council to pursue the matter with vigour.

RECOMMENDATION ON SOW AND REARING UNITS

The National Pigs and Bacon Committee of the N.F.A. has recommended to the Department of Agriculture that a grant of £50 per sow and rearing unit or 10/- per square foot to a maximum of five sows be paid to farmers who wish to build such units. The recommendation which emerged from last week's meeting of the Committee followed upon the Department's request for the committee's views on the matter.

In a letter to Mr. J. Loan, B.Agr.Sc., Senior Inspector, Department of Agriculture, the Committee has outlined the reasons for the necessity for the grant. These are: the lack of capital among small farmers and the high mortality rate among bombas resulting from poor housing conditions.

A working paper on expanding pig production in small farming areas was read to the meeting by Mr. Michael Whelan, secretary to the Committee. The paper, which was drawn up by Mr. S. A. Sherry, and Mr. Whelan, requests the Pigs and Bacon Commission to centralise purchasing of pigs and outlines why this should be done. The paper also deals with grants for housing of pigs.

After a full discussion on the paper was accepted by the Committee who urged that action should be taken along the lines recommended therein.

A resolution from County Monaghan calling for an announcement cae-HYJ stated all increase in grants for pig-rearing in line with the recommendations made in "Farm Income and Agricultural Development 1964-70" was adopted by the Committee.

MARKET EXPLORATION

Every means possible should be used to seek markets and to develop existing markets for Irish lamb and mutton. This is the opinion of the N.F.A. National Sheep and Wool Committee which met at NFA House last week.

The Committee chairman, David Doan, read a letter which dealt with the possibility of promoting exports of mutton and lamb to East Germany. This led to a full discussion on the whole subject of exports of Irish agricultural produce. The meeting considered that trade fairs and important agricultural gather-

KILMAC' NOTES

Visit.—These very popular Downey brothers, John and Michael, St. Anne's, Tee, who are attached to the Dept. of Posts & Telegraphs, Dublin, visited their father and sister over last weekend. Both are looking in the proverbial pink.

Congratulations to Mrs. Wall L'snageragh, Bonnahan, who recently won £160 in the pool.

Meeting.—Members of Ballynecan F.F. Club are requested to attend at Seaford, on tomorrow night, 28th inst. Mr. Sean O'Connell, D.T., will address the meeting.

The usual monthly meeting of St. Anne's Guild, Muintir-na-Tre, took place at the Perceval Hall, Ballynecan, on Tuesday last week. Mr. John Veale, Carrigastie, was in the chair.

The Late Mr. Thomas Casey, Tramore, who died last week, was a native of Gawn, Kilmacmachomas, and served as chief clerk at Waterford Mental Hospital for 40 years, before taking up the post of Town Clerk of Tramore. He is survived by his wife (nee Hannigan, native of Strabally), two sons and daughter.

We offer our heartfelt sympathy. R.I.P.

Mr. Thomas Holden has taken up duty at Currahaha National School, Kilmacmachomas. Mr. Holden comes to us from Kilkenny. We come!

E.S.B. workmen have been busy along the route, cutting branches of trees which have a tendency to grow near the wires. All houses connected with E.S.B. were visited.

At the commemoration ceremony honouring the late Mr. Sean Moylan, former Minister of Lands, whose seventh anniversary occurs, Mr. Sean O'Connell, D.T., Kilmacmachomas, addressed the large attendance in Irish spoken English.

Card Drive.—Don't forget tonight (Friday, 27th inst.) is the final of the card drive for the Conquer Cancer Campaign which the ladies of the Kilmacmachomas I.C.A. Guild are promoting, and are most anxious for its success. A worthy cause surely.

Meeting Adjourned

As a mark of respect to the late Mrs. Johanna Collins, Waterford Health Authority adjourned its monthly meeting on Monday last. The late Mrs. Collins was mother of Mr. Edward Collins, a member of the Health Authority Committee.

Mr. Norman Walsh, Acting Chairman, said this was the second bereavement in the Collins family in the space of a few months, and for his family it was a double tragedy. He proposed the meeting be adjourned as a mark of respect.

Mr. Charles Curran second-

ing said it was a sad occasion for them all. They were all shocked and appalled that their colleague, Edward Collins should suffer this bereavement after the death of his uncle some months ago.

The other members of the Health Authority and the Co. Manager, on behalf of the staff and his own behalf, joined in the expressions of sympathy.

Replying Mr. Collins thanked the members and the officials who attended his mother's funeral, and also for their kind remarks and nice gesture of adjourning the meeting.

It was learned that the Contracts of the 40 and 10 house scheme for Youghal have been completed and the work will start in the course of a few weeks.

HOUSING DEVELOPMENT

It was learned that the like Youghal housing is a most important factor and in addition to the two new schemes of 50 houses many more are needed. There are many suitable sites for building now on level grounds both at the south and north ends of the town. In the South a half mile of sewer and water services are being laid on from Ballyvengan to the town boundary in accordance with the Planning and Development Act of 1963. The new houses at Kilmoran who have already got water service will be the first to be connected to the new sewer.

WEATHER CONDITIONS

Youghal fishermen are taking advantage of the present mild and dry weather conditions and many can be seen on the quays and the Mallick mounting their nets for the 1965 salmon season. Usually mounting nets is not done until January when work is hampered by bad weather.

Sargent Cup Final On Sunday

ERIN'S OWN AND ABBEYSIDE SHOULD PROVIDE THRILLER

ABBEYSIDE, for whom 1964 has proved so fruitful a hurling year, will attempt to reap compensation for their championship final defeat by Mount Sion when they meet Erin's Own in the 1963 Sargent Cup final at Cappoquin on Sunday next. The

This undoubtedly is one of the most attractive pairings possible, and given even reasonable weather conditions, the Cornerstone venue should be thronged for this decider. This competition is second only to the championship in importance and has acquired for itself the reputation of being productive of quality hurling in most of its games. And Sunday's encounter should be no exception.

At the moment there is razor keen rivalry between Sunday's finalists, Erin's Own's pride has already been hurt this year by the Villagers and they will not rest easy until adequate compensation has been received. Thus this decider has been given added appeal by this Erin's Own desire to atone for a championship defeat this year by Abbeyside and the eyes of Waterford Gaeldom will be sharply focussed on Cappoquin on Sunday to see if they can do just that.

SHOCKED

When the sides met in the first round of the senior championship in June few gave Abbeyside even an outside chance of toppling the City men. But to the surprise of all who considered the matter, they did in the most convincing manner imaginable and there wasn't a trace of fluke about their eight point victory. Erin's Own supporters have ever since contended that but for the dismissal of John Meaney on that occasion the outcome would have been very different but whilst accepting that the issue would have been much closer the writer remains firmly convinced that with or without Meaney, Erin's Own would not have succeeded in altering the result.

Needless to remark that defeat still rankles them and they are dead bent on victory on Sunday next. But likewise the Villagers are equally intent on repeating that championship victory — all of which adds up to a thrill-packed decider.

Since that victory Abbeyside have scaled new heights of greatness and their heroic fight against Mount Sion in the county final will be long remembered. They were distinctly unlucky to lose that game and it would be some measure of deserved compensation for them were they to annex this Sargent Cup. They were to have played Fourmilewater in the '64 competition on Sunday last but received a walk over thus being deprived of what would have been a very valuable outing for them. They have not been in action since the county final and the real danger is that some of the edge may well have gone from their play in the subsequent weeks of inactivity.

Erin's Own are fortunate that their interest in the Intermediate football championship will have kept them fully fit. On Sunday last in that final against Affane the bulk of their side was comprised of the men that will do duty on Sunday next and were superbly fit and will lack nothing in this vital respect.

FULL STRENGTH

Neither team has been announced yet, but certain it is that both will field at full strength in this final in which prestige also is of paramount importance.

The Erin's Own defence will as always be built around Jackie Condon, Willie Walsh, Jim Irish and goalkeeper Percy Flynn. At midfield a bang in form John Meaney will be their big man and in attack there is plenty of scoring ability in Peter McGovern, Mick Murphy, Charlie Ware and John Duggan. Incidentally magificent trophy—donated by the Sargent family in memory of the late Willie Sargent, has not yet been won by the Villagers, but there is supreme optimism that Sunday's side will improve that unhealthy state of affairs.

will be fronted by John John Browne, Austin Flynn and Bernard Shields. Mick Kiely will again occupy the centre-back berth where his due's with Carlow inter-county man Peter McGovern should be well worth seeing. He will in all probability be flanked by John McGrath and Rogie Cashin. It is a solid defence with no apparent weak links and Erin's Own are unlikely to be presented with many soft scores. Their key midfielder will be Liam Enright, presently considered worthy of inter-county recognition. His likely partner is Danny Barry, although it is not certain, but whoever will partner Enright he will have to be given better support than he got in the county final.

The Village half-line of attack will again be spearheaded by Donal Wheilan on the forty flanked by Pat McGovern and Tony Mansfield. In the full line John Hogan and full-forward Ned Moore seem automatic choice but the remaining corner position seems to rest between Denis Flynn and Jack Elstead. Erin's Own by virtue of their superior fitness at this time of year may be fancied by many but this is a game the Villagers want to win badly. And in that frame of mind they are going to take a deal of beating. Certainly if they reproduce their County final form then they are good enough to capture the trophy.

But whatever the outcome it promises to be one of the best Sargent Cup finals in years and he expected big attendance should witness a fitting finale to our competitive hurling year.

Affane Go Down In Football Final

ERIN'S OWN 2-10; AFFANE 0-2

AFFANE'S dream of appearing in senior ranks next year was disastrously shattered at Walsh Park, Waterford, on Sunday last when they took a severe drubbing from a highly-skilled Erin's Own side in the Intermediate football championship final that lamentably failed to scale the expected heights—a game that saw the Western champions utterly outclassed in all rudiments of the game from start to finish.

It was a disappointing final in every respect. The football never came up to standard, whilst the one-sidedness of the exchanges resulted in an evaporation of interest long before the end. It is difficult to explain adequately the reason for Affane's total eclipse. True so polished a side were Erin's Own that the Western champions, even at their best would not have taken the title, but it was surely something of a football calamity that they should hit rock bottom form when their greatest effort was needed.

It must have been a galling and bitter experience for the Affaners to come so long a road entertaining such high hopes, and then to go under so heavily. But it is my belief that defeat may now serve a better purpose when viewed for a long term policy, for, truthfully, Affane would have made no headway in the senior grade. But theirs is a young side, not without ability, and another year at least in the Intermediate grade will have moulded them into a more mature and efficient force.

And yet, though their defeat was complete in every sense, Affane accepted it with a graciousness and dignity that did the club proud. The occasion and opposition proved much too great for them, but they certainly upheld their reputation as being sportsmen to the very core. Nor did they at any stage cease to continue battling away even when it was all too apparent that they were fighting a lost cause.

INTERVAL LEAD

When Erin's Own had the assistance of the first half breeze they literally encamped in the Affane half for practically thirty uninterrupted minutes. But their attack was

NO ALIBIS

For this crushing defeat, Affane can offer no alibis. They were beaten by a far superior footballing force, that I confidentially expect will justify itself in senior ranks next year. The winners defence was seldom troubled by an Affane attack that never moved as well as followers had hoped. Goalkeeper Michael Farrell had a trouble free afternoon and in front of him defenders Joe Coady, Paddy Hannigan and Willie Walsh starred.

But as predicted in our preview of this decider last week, the game was well and truly won at midfield. Here the Erin's Own pairing of John Meaney and Peter McGovern were well nigh unbeatable, and they ensured that the flow of exchanges in the main went towards the Affane goal area. And up front their attack, after an indifferent first half, really found their scoring touch on the change over and all six presented a constant threat.

What of Affane? Even when the tide of battle flowed strongest against them they refused blankly to give up. That in itself was commendable, yet utterly futile against so competent an Eastern opposition. It was of course ironic that so many of their established men should wait until Sunday last to strike their off day, but that is how things turned out, and more than half the side played well below their best form.

Pat Stapleton did nothing wrong in goal and was blameless for the two goals that were conceded.

Star of their defence was without question, centre back Paddy McGrath. He played more than one man's part to halt the winners frequent advances, and fielded and kicked superbly throughout. Not far behind him was full back John Healy, another star performer, but of the remainder, Bill Flynn alone caught the eye.

At midfield, Pat Denn and Paddy McGrath, were completely outplayed. They were never found wanting for lack of endeavour but they just could not match strides with Meaney and McGovern.

The forwards were starved for long periods, yet when scoring chances presented themselves for a period in the second half, they were not availed of. Best of the sextet were Jimmy Cahill and Tony McCarthy, but key men, Jimmy McGrath and Eddie Shea never got going.

Gaelic Jottings

WHERE THE TITLES HAVE GONE

On Sunday last the county championships came to an end and of the ten titles won six went to the East and the remaining four to the West.

PHELAN CUP FINAL ON SUNDAY WEEK

The final of the 1963 Phelan Cup will be played on Sunday week December 5th at the Fraher Field, Dungarvan. The finalists are Ardmore and John Mitchels who figured in such an exciting championship tie this year. Ardmore unexpectedly scored a one-point victory on that occasion. This will be Ardmore's third appearance in a final this year, but they will be bidding to win their first trophy.

DOUBLE DEFEAT FOR WEST ON SUNDAY LAST

The Western Division suffered a double defeat on Sunday last, when Affane and Ardmore were defeated in the county finals at Waterford and Dungarvan respectively. Affane were literally swamped by Erin's Own in the Intermediate football final at Waterford and the 2-10 to 0-2 scoreline gave a fair indication of how one-sided a decision it was. Affane to their credit credit were gracious in defeat, but just hadn't got the ability to beat a top-class Erin's Own side.

But the story from Dungarvan was an entirely different one. St. Molleran's took the junior hurling title on a score of 1-8 to 1-3 but they were decidedly fortunate to take the title. Ardmore missed numerous scoring chances over the hour, particularly from close-in trees and failed to turn a territorial account to the best advantage.

One of the big talking points of this game however, came in the final quarter when Ardmore's forward, picked the ball straight off the ground and crashed it to the net. Referee John Barron obviously did not see it and despite the appeals of the Ardmore defenders, the score was allowed. Thereafter Ardmore seemed to lose their composure and Mollerans went on to record their five point victory.

That controversial goal, will however, be one of the major topics for a considerable time to come. There was no question but the ball was picked straight off the ground and that score completely changed the trend of the game for the remainder of the hour.

Thus it has turned out to be a heartbreak year for Ardmore. Few will ever forget how they were beaten by Kilrossanty in the senior football final and now has come this further hurling set back. But knowing Ardmore as I do, I feel sure they will try as best they can to cast aside the memories of '64 and redouble their efforts in the year that lies ahead. Everyone will accede it was. Affane to their credit claim them if they do.
