Local Choral Society's New Year Production

On December 17th, 1961, the newly established Dungarvan Musical and Choral Society offered the town its first production in a strict choral presentation. These earlier concerts were interspersed with solo items and ballet. The enthusiastic praise which this first effort received, spurred the Society to yet another similar production the following Easter. This was the concert in which our own Thomas Hurley captivated the audience with his brilliant violin playing. Anxious to bring to Dungarvan nothing but the best in music, the Society invited Charles Lynch to play at its 1962 Christmas concert and this production majestically ended with the full choir singing for the first time, Handel's Hallelujah Chorus, accompanied by Stanley Bowyer at the organ.

In its last presentation of Christmas 1963 the Society endeavoured to bring more movement and colourful decor into its annual concert. This ambition was realised in the beautiful settings and lovely singing of excerpts from the Merry Widow and Oklahoma. During these successful year of production, the large choir was augmented by the orchestra under the talented and enthusiastic baton of Mr. Michael Henneberry. Since its beginning, the Society has been singularly fortunate in having a brilliant musician, Mrs. Gertrude O'Shaughnessy, as its musical director. Mrs. Mary O'Gorman-Nagle was the choir's excellent accompanist at its annual concerts. At all times, the Society and its productions had the enthusiastic and untiring support of Rev. Fr. Raphael O'Shaughnessy, O.S.A., and the inspiration of its great president, Mr. James Patterson who will now, well, has the continued prayers and good wishes of his friends and of all the members of the Society. The town can well be indebted to the choir members and orchestra for helping to keep Dungarvan's head held on high in the world of good musical entertainment. Remembering the great success of the Gala performance at the Town Park last summer, and the encouragement and praise showered upon the Society by the Gala committee and the townspeople for this open air effort, the Musical and Choral Society is now launching forth in the New Year into an entirely new and lavish production—a Minstrel Show. This particular type of Minstrel Show is new to show business in Ireland and will only have been seen by those who have visited the Palace

REV. R. O'SHAUGHNESSY,
O.S.A. Vice-President

Theatre in London, or viewed the weekly Black and White Minstrel Show on B.B.C. Television. The Choral Society in Dungarvan can boast of being 'one of the first groups in the country to present such an ambitious and intricate production, involving some sixty song items and continuous dance routines. This show stands out as the perfect example of simple melodies, beautifully sung, pretty girls, handsome Minstrels wonderful spectacle and imaginative and fast-moving choreography. It's the type of entertainment to which you will say "That's the kind of Show I want to see!" This production gives a vast collection of songs, old and new, covering a wide range of feeling and mood, all of them delivered with vitality and precision, as well as tremendous feeling for the songs themselves. The show is essentially fast-moving with the accent on melody. Its musical content is designed to appeal to all tastes and ages, concentrating on the type of songs which are tailor-made for community or party singing, and the audience at this show will be invited to 'join in'. There's a well-known axiom to the effect that "old songs are the best songs." The Minstrel Show will try to prove this to be true.

Much of the show's vitality will be attributed to the slick production, the colourful colour routines and effective lighting. Despite these contemporary factors, there is no doubt that the show's highly artistic musical content is of paramount importance. Always easy-on-the-ear, continually provoking memories, the Minstrel's singing is guaranteed to keep feet tapping, to banish cares and to create an atmosphere of bonhomie and carefree relaxation. There is an obvious trend of carefree approach and light-hearted happy-to-lucky delivery. The programme is sprinkled with novel musical items, humour, pathos, sentiment and charm and will contain some of the most dynamic singing ever heard in Dungarvan.

You will have the 'quality evergreens' which happily recall the names of Stephen Foster, and nearer to our own day, those of Leslie Stuart, Eugene Stratton, G. H. Elliot and Al Jolson. Musical direction is again in the capable hands of Mrs. Gertrude O'Shaughnessy. The Minstrel Show opens in the newly decorated Friary

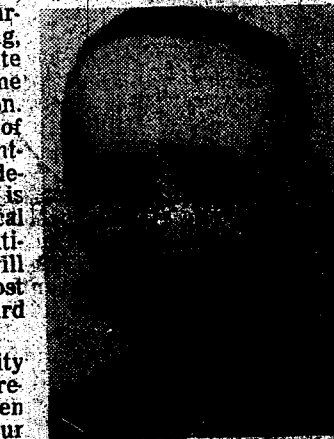

MRS. M. V. MORRISSEY
Musical Director

Hall on Sunday week, Jan. 10th, with performances again on the 11th and 12th January. Booking is now open at John Casey's, Main Street.

We wish the Society and its many members every success.

It takes a genuine critic to recognise the eternal value of simplicity and nothing could be simpler or more basic than the appeal of 'The Minstrel Show'—beauty, colour, movement and the fine singing of great old songs. You at the Friary Hall will be more fortunate than television viewers at home—you will see the live show—in colour!

MR. PATRICK JOHN, a native of the City who has recently been appointed to an important post with a well-known London construction company.

KILMACTHOMAS YOUGHAL NOTES

NOTES

This was a mild Christmas, and the customary celebrations were carried out.

The Christmas dances held locally were well-attended and enjoyed.

Much Regret was caused during the Christmas period by the death of Dick ("Saddler") Walsh.

To his widow, Mrs. Mary Walsh, his daughter Kitty, his sons, Patrick Maurice and John and to his relatives we offer our deepest sympathy. R.I.P.

In the Newtown G.A. Club Card Drive, held recently, the first prize was won by Messrs. Billy and John Dee.

Card Drive.—By the way, don't forget the Muintir na h-Éire Card Drive, which is going to be held on 10th January.

Her many friends in Kilmacthomas, offer sincere congratulations to popular Miss Breeda Walsh, S.R.N., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Walsh, Ring P.O., Dungarvan.

Employed as Student Nurses in one of Birmingham's top class hospitals, are Misses Joan Kiely, Ballylonean and Patricia Cleary, Coolturrid.

Prizewinner.—Miss Josephine Kiely, of Ballylonean, Leamybrien, was a recent prizewinner in a Christmas painting competition.

Her many friends in these parts will be pleased to hear of Miss Anne Conway's success in her preliminary nursing examination.

Clayton, formerly of Ballylonean, Kilmacthomas, and who is a student nurse in Victoria Hospital, Cork.

Kil Musical Society recently held a bumper Christmas draw. The lucky winners were Mr. J. Dunphy, Ballybough, Kil; 2. Kathleen Kiely, Rathany, do.; 3. Mrs. Sammon, Ballyfistein, Bannahon.

Mr. James W. Dalton, Slievekeel Road, Waterford, has just been presented with a beautiful coffee and tea set.

Council pass Local Happenings Vocational demand

Waterford Co. Council approved a demand of £17,390 by Co. Vocational Education Committee for the financial scheme for 1955-56, at a special meeting in Dungarvan on Wednesday.

The demand on the County Council will have an impact of 14.25d. in the £ on the rates which is an increase of 3d. in the £ over last year.

Mr. J. G. Dowling (Secretary) said it was necessary for the rating authority to approve of the demand when it exceeded 1d. in the £ on the rates.

Mr. Milo Galgey pointed out that the C.E.O. (Mr. Sean Rushe) was not present at the meeting. The members were being asked to approve of an increase of 3d. in the £ on the rates while they were ignorant of details of the increase in the demand by the Vocational Education Committee.

The Chairman (Mr. C. Curran) said that there were four main reasons for the increase in the demand. Salaries had gone up during the year and a new school had been opened at Tallow. New equipment had been purchased for all technical schools in the county and Dungarvan Technical School Dungarvan Technical School was being renovated.

Mr. Norman Walsh said that the Co. Councilors on the Vocational Education Committee had rejected the increase in salaries until they were forced to grant them. The increases were the result of an Arbitration Board.

Mr. Curran said that the Vocational Education Committee would have to carry a debit balance of £7,000 during the year but it was hoped that the Minister would provide the money under certain circumstances.

Mr. M. Harty said that the C.E.O. was on holidays and the Dungarvan Technical School was closed. The demand being made by the Vocational Education Committee was the lowest in Ireland.

The Co. Secretary said that salaries came to £2,792, one-third of which was recouped from the Department by way of an increase in the basic grant. The increase in salaries applied to 17 whole-time teachers.

Mr. Curran said that no reduction could be made by the Co. Council. The members of the Vocational Education Committee went into the matter fully.

Mr. Foran said a special meeting of the Co. Council had been called to discuss this matter and the C.E.O. was not present. He should have been invited to the meeting as it was his business to be there.

Mr. Galgey said he was aware that the members of the Vocational Education Committee went into this matter fully and he was also aware that many of them would not vote for salary increases.

Mr. Curran said that if the Vocational Education Committee did not increase expenditure by 3d. in the £, it would not qualify for the £7,000 necessary to clear the debit balance. Vocational Education was a big benefit to the children of the ratepayers and it was a thriving thing in Co. Waterford.

Mr. Milo Galgey said that work on farms had now reached a semi-skilled status and if they turned down the demand being made by the Vocational Education Committee, they would be taking a retrograde step. They would deprive the younger generation of education that was necessary in life.

Mr. Richard Walsh said that according to the figures, Co. Waterford had the lowest standard of vocational education in Ireland.

Mr. John Fahey said that the standard of vocational education in Waterford was up to that in any other county. The reason for the low figure was that a large number of Co. Waterford students were being catered for by outside vocational education committees. Co. Waterford students were attending classes in Clonmel, Youghal and Waterford city.

Mr. Curran said that the pupils in Co. Waterford were the best in the country. The Co. Council had no alternative but to pass or reject the demand.

Mr. K. O'Ryan said a large number of people in his area would not benefit from vocational education, but still they would have to bear up with the cost.

The Chairman: There was a full attendance at all technical schools in Co. Waterford. Tallow was very crowded as was Dungarvan and a new day class for young farmers at Ballinameela.

Mr. Michael Harty said that vocational education should be a national charge as it was getting out of control. The financial resources of the ratepayers were not big enough to meet the demands of them.

Mr. F. Roche proposed and Mr. D. F. Madden seconded that the demand be adopted.

Mr. Wm. Foran said he could not agree with the increase demand of 3d. It would be a mill stone around the necks of the ratepayers. He proposed an amendment that the same figure as last year be adopted. This was seconded by Mr. K. O'Ryan.

Mr. S. Whelan said if they did not put up the money they would underline vocational education in Co. Waterford. He was satisfied with the explanation given by the members of the County Council, who were on the Vocational Education Committee.

The amendment was put to the meeting and defeated by 11 votes to 2. The proposal was then put to the meeting and carried by 11 votes to 2.

Príomh Oifigeach Feidmúchaim.

THE popularity of Affane G.A.A. Clubs was spotlighted on Wednesday night when over 100 guests attended their annual social and dinner. As last year, the function was a wonderful success and reflected great credit on the Club committee and its members.

The excellently prepared dinner gave the attendance the right environment for the remainder of the night.

Mr. Tom Murphy, the Club Chairman welcomed the guests.

Very Rev. Fr. Hally P.P., proposing the toast of Ireland, paid tribute to the club's great sportsmanship whether in victory or defeat.

Mr. P. McGrath thanked the players, the Parish Priest and Curate; Mr. and Mrs. Connors for the playing field; the Press; the Dramatic Soc.; St. Patrick's Ceilí Band and their supporters for their wonderful co-operation during the year.
Maurice Tobin, Dramatic Club; Rev. Fr. Coughlan C.C. and Denis McGrath also spoke.
Finally, a dance rounded off a really first-class night. The music was by the very popular St. Patrick's Ceilí Band.

N.F.A. NEWS National Council Demand Action for Application to E.E.C.

The N.F.A. National Council has demanded immediate action on Ireland's application for membership of the Common Market. At the December meeting of the Council in N.F.A. House, Dublin, the statement made by Mr. Rickard Deasy, President of the Association, in Nenagh. The Council demanded that the Government, as a matter of first priority, develop relations with the E.E.C. with a view to the closest possible relations and our earliest membership. The progress on agricultural policy in E.E.C. meant that Irish farmers would be losing heavily on the delay in pressing for Irish membership.

Anglo-Irish trade did not show sufficient growth nor price prospects for Irish agricultural exports. The Council also held the view that any future agreements with the British would be no more binding than those recently broken.

"LIVINGSTONE PROJECT" LEAVE FOR INDIA
"This is a beginning," said Mr. Rickard Deasy, President N.F.A., brought the gathering—happy with the sense of accomplishment—back to earth. The occasion was the informal reception at the B. and I. Offices, North Wall, Dublin, to mark the dispatch of the Irish pedigree bulls on the first stage of their journey to India.

Compliments were flowing freely, as happens on such occasions, and the air was warm with the contented feeling of a "job well done" when the reminder came from Mr. Deasy that far from western parts of Offaly and Westmeath. At present the nearest station to these farmers is thirty miles distant, and their only means of getting rid of their animals is by selling at fairs.

"In addition to rationalising the marketing system in the region," said Mr. Dolan, "we hope to be able to provide credit and advisory facilities for the farmers of the area. We would also welcome some sort of a link-up with the co-operatives in Clonsilla, Co. Laois, and the one in Co. Kildare—probably under a central authority."

The idea was first mooted at an N.F.A. Co. Executive meeting two years ago when a Development Committee was set up to advise on the diversification of agricultural production in the county. "It wasn't difficult to come to the conclusion that in a small farm area such as this, the most economical system of production was by intensive yard enterprises. That is what we now want to develop," said Mr. Dolan.

WARBLE FLY CAMPAIGN AND COMPENSATION
"There is still a lot of confusion throughout the county on the question of compensation for cattle losses following treatment for warble fly. To clear the air, Mr. Joe Bruton of the National Livestock Committee made the following statement at the National Council of N.F.A.: "The position in our area is that the Dublin District Milk Board has taken out an insurance policy which covers the death of cattle following treatment for the warble. They have not taken out an insurance policy on the best."

"The farmers who have lost a beast much seek compensation and he much also produce evidence. All veterinary surgeons have been circulating telling them what to look for." He had heard of twenty claims being made, and of these less than twelve had

WEST WATERFORD NOTES

CHRISTMAS
The Christmas season was celebrated in traditional manner in this area. On Christmas Day huge congregations packed the churches for the Masses and record numbers received Holy Communion. Big numbers in employment away from home, returned for the Festive Season and there were many family re-unions.

ST. STEPHEN'S DAY
The big annual Christmas season joint meet of the West Waterford's and the Dungarvan Harriers, took place at Clashmore, on St. Stephen's Day and from an early hour, hundreds of motor cars converged on the popular sporting centre from all parts of west Waterford and east Cork. Prior to the move-off, the village streets and the entire scene was both impressive and picturesque. About fifty riders, including many ladies, turned out and despite the bitter cold, everyone seemed to enjoy the afternoon's sport.

GARDA'S DEATH
Garda Patrick J. Ryan, who died suddenly at Ballinacree, Co. Longford, served for about fifteen years at Clashmore. During the Emergency he took an active part in the organisation of the L.S.F. and L.D.F. He was a native of Athlone.

KINSALEBEG G.A.A. CLUB REVIVED
Kinsalebeg is to have a G.A.A. Club next year and will compete in the junior football championships. It is of interest to note that Kinsalebeg was one of the first clubs to be affiliated to the G.A.A. and won a number of Waterford senior football championships in the early years of the Association. A combined Kinsalebeg-Clashmore team, organised by the late Mr. Moss Conroy, won the senior football title in 1925. We join in wishing the new Kinsalebeg team success in their efforts.

PROMOTED
Sergeant Donald O'Keefe, Ballinacree House, Clashmore, has been transferred on promotion to Adelphi Quay, Waterford. Sergeant O'Keefe, who is a native of Co. Cork, was formerly in charge of Villierstown Station.

WATERFORD MEN'S ASSOC. A.G.M.
A large gathering of Waterfordmen's Association attended Hoy Mass at the Irish Centre, which was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Enright for the members and deceased relatives and friends of the Waterfordmen's Association. After Mass all assembled for the annual general meeting. The Chairman, Willie Barron, in an opening address, welcomed the new members, He wished every success to the Birmingham and Dublin Associations, and hoped for much closer contact in the future.

PEANS FOR CO-OPERATIVE PIG-FATTENING STATION
"Sinn Féin," the spirit of self-help, is strong in County Westmeath. One hundred and sixty farmers—the majority of them in the small-farm category in the Moate area of the county, have gathered together to build a £700,000 Co-operative Pig-Fattening Station.

Confidence is high that negotiations now going on with the Land Commission for the purchase of a farm at Castle-daley will be successful. If the group succeed in buying the farm, building of the station will get underway within the next couple of months and "we will be in production by next autumn," said Mr. David Dolan, Secretary of the Interim Committee, and a member of the National Council of N.F.A.

At a meeting this week of the shareholders a full "go-ahead" was given to the Committee and it was also decided that a loan would be sought from the Agricultural Credit Corporation. "The share capital has already been gathered up but as you can imagine, with an enterprise of this size we will still need some financial assistance," said Mr. Dolan.

The Station, which will produce 6,000 fattened pigs a year when in full production, will serve the farmers of the been authenticated and they would be paid.

Mr. C. O'Reilly, Chairman of the Livestock Committee reported that about 50% of the cattle in the country had been treated during the campaign.

Mr. Jim Kehoe reckoned that about 90% of the cattle in his county had been treated and much of the credit for this was due to the Co. Committee of Agriculture. Tributes were also paid to the County Committees of Agriculture in Kilkenny and Galway.

Wexford County Executive N.F.A. has decided to press the Department of Agriculture to make dressing against the warble fly compulsory next year. Mr. E. J. O'Reilly, Co. Organiser, told a meeting of the Executive that from the figures supplied by the Dublin District Milk Board, the number of cattle treated in Co. Wexford was the highest in Ireland. About 115,000 of a estimated total of 150,000 cattle were treated in all.

HERE AND THERE
"The N.F.A. has done a lot of its finest days and finest hours are yet to come," said Mr. John Rushe, C.E.O., Waterford Vocational Education Committee.

There must be something to farming in Indonesia! Hadji Mohammad Rais, who farmed in North Sumatra, has just died—aged 194. He leaves nine children, about 300 grandchildren, an unknown number of great grandchildren and a youthful widow of 120.

The Irish Freedom from Hunger project in Tanganyika is making wonderful progress. Already 180 farmers have been settled on 25-acre farms at Mlali. This is to settle 250 farmers in all. A total of £150,000 is needed for the project, which is being promoted by the Irish and Tanganyikan Governments.

"If Macra na Feirme had done nothing else but given us the N.F.A. it would have done a lot for the country," said Rev. Dr. M. Carroll, St. Kieran's College, Kilkenny.

Canada has pledged an additional 2,000,000 dollars to the World Food Programme, raising her total contribution to nearly 7,000,000 dollars.

LATE MISS M. A. McGRATH
CLASHMORE

We regret to announce the death of a moderately advanced age, of Miss Mary Ann McGrath, Knockanore, Clashmore. A member of one of the oldest and most respected families in west Waterford, deceased was very popular and was noted for her many outstanding qualities. Her passing is much regretted and sympathy is extended to her bereaved relatives.

The remains were removed to the Parish Church of Our Holy Lady of Good-Counsel, Clashmore and the accompanying cortege was one of the largest and most representative ever seen in the area. There was again a very large gathering of mourners at the interment in the adjoining cemetery. Very Rev. David Canon Power, P.P. Clashmore; Very Rev. Denis McGrath, P.P. Kilsloght (cousin of deceased) and Rev. Fr. Moran, C.C., Clashmore officiated.

The attendance of the general public included Messrs. C. Curran, Chairman, Waterford County Council; Norman Walsh, Vice-Chairman, Co. Wm. Dower M.C.C., and Mr. Harty, M.C.C.

XMASTIDE

The religious significance of the great feast of Christmas was uppermost in the minds and hearts of the people, was obvious from the crowded congregations and the spirit of harmony which prevailed over Christmas. There was the customary Midnight Mass, which was preceded by carols sung by the choir and the procession of priests and acolytes to the crib, in which the image of the Divine Infant was held by Very Rev. J. Canon Kennelly, P.P. The church was filled to capacity and practically every member of the congregation approached the altar.

TREAT FOR SCHOOLBOYS
The customary Christmas treat for the boys of St. Michael's Orphanage, and held on the Sunday preceding Xmas, took place in the Boathouse. The organisers were the ladies of the I.C.A. and the members of the Rowing Club. The ladies and gentlemen treated their little guests quite royally and a happy time was had by all.

Through this column the Sisters of Mercy return sincere thanks to the organisers and donors.

COURSING SUCCESS

Congratulations to the members of the Coursing Club on the success of their Stephen's Day Meeting. The extensive programme of five stakes, was run through in record time and there were no unpleasant delays. A feature of the meeting was the dual success of the Club President, Mr. P. Kiely, whose charge, 'Dear Mike' won the All-Aged Stake, and whose promising dog, 'Dear Pain', divided the Dog Puppy Stake. Two local owners, Miss B. Keating and Mr. P. Morrissey, qualified for the final of the No-Course Maiden Stake and divided the stake.

LATE MISS BRIDGET MCCARTHY

The death took place on Wednesday, 23rd December, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, of Miss Bridget McCarthy, Moonvee, Cappoquin. She had reached her late seventies and was a lady of much refinement, who was held in much regard. Among those bereaved are: Sr. M. Anne, Presentation and her nephew, Rev. John Hallahan, who ministers in the U.S.A. The remains were removed to Cappoquin parish church on Thursday and the burial in St. Declan's Cemetery, took place after last Mass on Christmas Day. Very Rev. J. Canon Kennelly, P.P., and Rev. M. O'Meara, C.C., officiating on both occasions. Public sympathy was reflected in the very large and representative attendance.

The chief mourners include the members of the Hallahan family, Moonvee, Kerr family, Dublin. (Funeral arrangements by A. Walsh and Sons, Cappoquin)

Touraneena Notes

TEACHING APPOINTMENT

Dungarvan-born Mr. Thomas Dalton, N.T., has been appointed Principal teacher Touraneena national schools. He replaces Mr. Sean Cronin, N.T., who has taken up a similar post in his native county, at Ballinacollig, Co. Cork. Mr. Dalton will take up duty on the re-opening of the schools following the Christmas vacation.

We wish him a "cead mile failte" amongst the people of Silah gCua.

CHRISTMAS

The Feast of Christmas was celebrated in Touraneena with the old-time-honoured customs—grand old customs which are joyfully upheld in Ireland. Many local homes were gladdened by the arrival of absent members of the family, who made long journeys to spend the Christmas among their own folk. The "Wren Boys" were out as usual on St. Stephen's day but were not so numerous as in previous years. The days of the big, well-organised "Wrens" seem to have gone. This is a pity since they provided good entertainment, and they helped to preserve an old custom.

CHRISTMAS TRADE AT YOUGHAL

The Christmas trade at Youghal was the best for years, due in no small way to the fine weather, the beautifully decorated main streets and plentiful supply of Christmas fare in the shops. The decorations, which were erected by the Traders Council, were more elaborate this year, and after dark visitors came from far and near to see them. This scheme of decorations has enhanced the Christmas trade, and the large multi-coloured lanterns have all been made locally by Youghal Shades. The Christmas mail was heavier than usual

LATE SISTER M. AIDEN (BUTLER)

CONVENT OF MERCY, DUNGARVAN

We deeply regret to record the death of Sister M. Aiden, Convent of Mercy, Dungarvan, which sad event occurred at the Convent, on Sunday night, December 20th, after a period of protracted illness. The deceased Sister spent most of her forty-four years of profession as Assistant Matron of St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, where in the course of her duties she won the admiration of all. She was a native of Cloughkeating, Clough Jordan, Co. Tipperary.

We extend our deepest sympathy to the Rev. Mother and Community on their very great loss. Requiem Office and High Mass was celebrated in the Convent Chapel on Tuesday morning, at which a very large choir of clergy were present and the internment took place in the Community Cemetery, Rev. M. Power, C.C., Dungarvan, who was celebrant at the graveside. A very large concourse of relatives and the general public were present.

The chief mourners were: Michael Butler, Cloughkeating (brother); Miss Margaret Butler, do. (sister); John Ryan, Knocknacree, Thurles, John O'Meara, Ballycasey, do. (nephews); Miss Mary Ryan, Knocknacree, Miss Madge O'Meara, Ballycasey (nieces); Mr. and Mrs. Con Spain, Thurles, Mrs. Margaret King, Ratheny, Clough Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. P. Maher, Tallow St., Youghal (cousins). Large sheaves of spiritual tributes were received by the Community and relatives. (Funeral arrangements by James Kiely & Sons, Shannon, Dungarvan).

LATE JOHN MURRAY

AGLISH

Deep regret has been caused in the parish of Aghlish by the death of Mr. John Murray, which occurred unexpectedly on Tuesday, 22nd December. He was in his 68th year and was a well-known and much liked figure. A fisherman by profession, he was familiar to all river men. The remains were received at Aghish Church by Rev. J. F. Morrissey, C.C., who, with Very Rev. D. Quinlan, P.P., officiated at the internment on the following day in the adjoining cemetery. There was a very large attendance at the obsequies. The immediate chief relative was Miss Catherine Murray (sister) to whom much sympathy is extended. Other relatives include the Keating family, Cappoquin, and the Cahill family, do. (Funeral arrangements by A. Walsh & Sons, Cappoquin) and were efficiently handled by the P.A. staff, under the capable master, Mr. Dan Conroy.

The Festival was observed in the usual traditional manner. On Christmas eve Midnight Mass was celebrated at the chapels attached to the Presentation and Loreto Convents. On Christmas day the Masses at the Parish and our Lady of Lourdes churches were filled to capacity and practically all the congregations approached the altar rails. A feature of Xmas was the large number of people who returned from England to spend a few days with their families.

A feature of St. Stephen's Day was the almost complete absence of wren boys and girls due to the heavy rain backed by a severe north-east wind.

CHIMNEY FIRES

During the holidays, the local Fire Brigade, under Station Officer Michael Roche, was called to two chimney fires, one Mrs. Green's house in Mary Street and the other at Mrs. Jones house in the Market Square. The brigade had both fires under control in a very short time.

YOUGHAL HOUSING

Many residential houses are being erected at Youghal and the local Urban Council are arranging to purchase building sites on the hill overlooking the town, as sites are not available in the Urban area fields. The Council will be erecting 50 houses, ten for ten of which have already been received and referred to the Architect, and the tenders for the remaining 40 houses will be before the Council early in the new year. The value of house property in Youghal may be gauged from the fact that recently a small two-storey house adjacent to the Strand, was sold for £3,500.

LATE MR. M. P. BLAKE

Deep regret was occasioned at the announcement, on Monday last of the sad death of Mr. Michael Paul Blake, which took place at his residence Boreenmana Rd., Cork. A native of Youghal, the late Mr. Blake was attached to the Fermoy Office of the E.S.B. and was younger son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. Blake of Strand Street, Youghal.

He is survived by his wife, two children, three sisters and a brother, to whom sincere sympathy is extended. The remains were removed to the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes, Ballinlough, Cork, and the funeral took place after Requiem Mass to St. Joseph's Cemetery, Cork.

LATE JOHN WALL

LAURAGH, CAPPAGH
The death of Mr. John Wall, of Lauragh, Cappagh, took place on December 24th in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Twohig (niece). He was in his eighties and was imbued with strong patriotic principles. He took an active part in the struggle for Independence and was proud of his association with the I.R.A. Large numbers were present when the remains were removed to Ballinacolla Church on Christmas Day. They were received by Rev. J. F. Morrissey, who, with Very Rev. D. Quinlan, P.P., officiated at the burial on the following day. There was again a large attendance at the burial.

The surviving relatives include: the Twohig family, Lauragh; Twohig family, Knockana; and the O'Brien family, Ballinacolla. (Funeral arrangements by T. Walsh & Sons, Cappoquin).

LATE SEAN CROTTY

BOHADOON, DUNGARVAN

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Sean Crotty, which occurred on Tuesday, 29th December, at Ardkeen Hospital. Internment took place at Colligan Cemetery, on today (Thursday). (Full report of ob-sequies will appear in next edition).

GRANTS FOR RING ARE REQUESTED

Colr. Harry Points Out Urgency
Waterford County Council at their meeting on Wednesday last, approved unanimously a resolution proposed by Mr. Michael Harry. That the Gaeltacht Department be requested to immediately forward grants for road works in the Ring area, because of the large number of men becoming unemployed in the area.

LATE DECLAN CUNNINGHAM

GRALLAGH, GRANGE.

The death occurred, on Christmas eve, at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, after a rather short period of illness, but at the illness of years, of Declan Cunningham, late of Grallagh, Grange. The deceased gentleman was very well-known and was a most likeable person, and a man who was most industrious and hard-working all his life.

We tender our deepest sympathy to his family and relatives at this sad time.

The removal of his remains took place on Christmas eve to Grange Church, followed by a huge cortege, and were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. Draper, C.C.

Requiem Masses were offered on Christmas Day for the intentions of his soul and the internment took place after last Mass in the adjoining cemetery. Very Rev. Fr. Cahill, P.P., officiated at the graveside. Another very large concourse were present.

The chief mourners were: Patrick and Declan, Grallagh, John, Newtown, Grange (sons); Mrs. Margaret McVey, U.S.A., Mrs. Mary McVey, U.S.A., Miss Ellie Cunningham, London (daughters); Mrs. Mary Hennessey, U.S.A. (sister); and a large circle of grandchildren. (Funeral arrangements by J. Kiely & Sons, Dungarvan).

LATE MRS. MARY TOBIN

KILNAFARNA, DUNGARVAN

We regret to record the death of Mrs. Mary Tobin, Kilnafarna, which sad event occurred at the District Hospital, Dungarvan during the early hours of Christmas Day after a rather short duration of illness. The deceased lady was wife of John Tobin, who is very well-known and popular resident in the Brickey area. The late Mrs. Mary Tobin was a most charitable and gentle lady, a loving wife and a kind mother. May she rest in peace.

The removal of her remains took place on Friday (Christmas Day) to Ballinacolla Church, followed by a very large cortege, and were blessed and received by Rev. J. F. Morrissey, C.C., Aghish.

Requiem Masses were celebrated on Sunday morning, 27th December, and the internment took place in the adjoining cemetery. Rev. Fr. Carey, C.C., imparted the final absolution at the graveside. Another large and most representative concourse were present.

Large sheaves of Mass cards and letters of sympathy were received by her family.

The chief mourners were: Mr. John Tobin, Kilnafarna (husband); Mr. Declan Tobin, do. (son); Mrs. Martin Curran, Shanakill, Dungarvan, Mrs. Francis Aherne, Knockain, Cappagh (daughters); Mr. Martin Curran and Mr. Francis Aherne (sons-in-law), and a large circle of grandchildren.

(Funeral arrangements by J. Kiely & Sons, Dungarvan).

WISHING ALL MY CUSTOMERS A HAPPY NEW YEAR

LOOKING BACK ON 1964

AS I write, the remaining days of '64 are numbered. The year is drawing inexorably to a close as a new one dawns and beckons. Gaelic-wise what '65 will bring remains unknown, but now surely is the appropriate time to pen the highlights of the year that in many ways was spectacularly eventful. It was a year that brought success and failure, a year of thrills, spills and bitter disappointments.

Perhaps the final ten minutes of the Munster senior hurling semi-final against Cork at Thurles produced the most memorable happenings for Waterford men. Those were moments of unforgettable drama and merit detailed mention in any preview of the year that sportswriters may decide to undertake. On the local front we had the emergence of Abbeyside as Mount Sion's strongest challengers whilst the football year belonged to the men of Kilrossanty who regained the senior football crown after a lapse of four years.

But let us start at the beginning of the year when the senior hurlers sought to retain their National League title and earn a trip to the United States.

In November of the previous year they had made a disastrous start to their campaign when falling to Dublin in Croke Park, and consequently their opening game of the new year against Cantow at Walsh Park was a vitally important one. But the Deise men gave their followers little cause for anxiety and they had little difficulty in cruising to a decisive 6-8 to 1-5 victory.

The following Sunday at the same venue, Waterford faced Wexford in a game that the homesters just could not afford to lose. But from the opening whistle, it was Wexford all the way and the homesters were excellent value for their 2-13 to 2-5 victory. That defeat greatly impeded league progress and yet because of unexpected results to other games in the same Division, Waterford were still in with a chance of reaching the semi-finals when they met Limerick at the Fen's Ground.

FOOTBALLER OF THE YEAR

NOEL WALSH (Kilrossanty)

Road Grounds on March 22nd, Wexford had already ensured themselves of a place in the first four and now Limerick and Waterford were to do battle for a similar right. The outcome of that game is now history.

For practically the entire hour it was Waterford who dictated the exchanges and with three minutes remaining deservedly led by four points. It looked all over—a fact accepted by Limerick followers as they trooped dejectedly homewards. But then the impossible happened and in a blinding final few moments, Donie Flynn crushed two balls to the net to put paid to Waterford's hopes of retaining their title.

That defeat was indeed a bitter pill to swallow, and the championship outlook did not look too bright. Tipp, at this stage were sweeping all before them and their complete annihilation of Wexford in the National (Home) League final made them odds on favourites for the major title.

Waterford's next outing was in the O'Kennedy Shield Final against Wexford at New Ross and they had no difficulty in inflicting a four goal defeat on an under-strength Wexford side. In June 14th, they won the dose at Dungarvan in a game in aid of the C.B.S. Building Fund, and at last it seemed as though they were running right into top form just when it was required of them.

Two weeks later came the real test. The Munster senior semi-final against Cork at Thurles, and the Leesiders thirstily for a morale-boosting victory sought to dethrone the champions. It was a game not likely to be forgotten in the Decies for many a long day.

For the first time in many years, Cork were without the peerless "Ringey" whilst Waterford introduced newcomers to championship hurling in goalkeeper Pat Flynn, centre-back Tommy Hearne and midfielders John O'Brien and John Hearne.

The opening half was good without being great and at the interval it was all square at 2-3 each.

But what a transformed side the Rebs were immediately after the restart. They swarmed to the attack and the scores came fast and furiously and entering the last quarter there was a clear ten points between the sides. Then, belatedly, sideline mentors realised that the mid-field battle was being lost and when frustration point had been reached, it was decided to introduce John Meeney. No credit to them, for this was a move that should have been made many minutes before.

With Meeney's introduction came one of the greatest fights ever witnessed in the Thurles Sportsfield. In the 20th minute Grimes started it with a pointed free and within another minute an overhead flick by Mick Flannelly, wound up in the Cork net. John Hayes reacted with a Cork minor but with six minutes still left in the game, Grimes belted home another Waterford goal. Now only four points separated the sides and the tension was well nigh unbearable. Two minutes later Meeney burst on the scene, and he culminated a dazzling solo run with a truly great goal. Almost from the puck out the Erin's Own star gained possession and from a full sixty yards, lofted over a great equaliser. It was unbelievable, it was incredible, it was enthralling. There it was, the sides level and Cork had surrendered their near unassailable lead.

But then came tragedy in the nature of a dubious free given against Austin Flynn by referee Gerry Fitzgerald and Patsy Hart made no mistake from the placed ball. But Waterford still surged on and in the dying seconds were awarded a sixty yard free. Phil Grimes was the taker and as his effort appeared to sail dead on target the wind freshly carried it to the left of the upright and Waterford had surrendered their championship crown by a matter of inches. That defeat marked the end of the road for the current year, but as has been proved, was by no means the end of Waterford as a hurling power.

HURLER OF THE YEAR

LIAM ENRIGHT (Abbeyside)

The current league campaign has commenced and at the half way stage are joint unbeaten leaders with Wexford. Dublin and Carlow have been their victims to-date and in the new year, Wexford and Limerick will have to be encountered.

FOOTBALLERS DISAPPOINT

The senior footballers, like the curate's egg, were good in patches. They were most impressive in winning group honours in the National football league, and lost no caste in a quarter-final defeat by Kerry on a score of 1-21 to 2-6.

The championship outlook was bright, but few could possibly have envisaged the subsequent loss in form. They were hammered by Tipperary in a challenge and when they freed Cork in the championship semi-final at Dungarvan on June 14th, went under by 2-8 to 1-2, after putting up a dismal performance.

In the current National league, they are still in with a chance, having lost to Clare and beaten Tipperary, whilst they must travel to play Limerick in the New Year.

MINORS MAKE NO HEADWAY

As in former years the minor hurlers and footballers proved easy meat for the other counties, and up and coming prospects seem to be at a minimum.

Likewise in the Intermediate hurling and junior football grades, the county fared very poorly and suffered a double defeat at Clare's expense in these grades.

ABBEYSIDE'S HURLING UPSURGE

Not surprisingly the hurling story on the home front has been the rise to greatness of Abbeyside. This was undoubtedly the villagers' greatest year to-date in the senior grade winning their first ever Sargent Cup and only losing narrowly and unbecomingly to Mount Sion in the championship final.

In the opening round, the Villagers scored a tremendous eight point victory over Erin's Own and followed it up with a similar victory over Bricekeys in the semi-final. But when they faced the might of Sion in the decider at Dungarvan, few gave them even a remote chance of toppling the champions. But, confounding general belief, the Villagers rose to the occasion in style and lost a thrilling first only in the closing stages. They were good enough on the hour's play to have won, and only lack of trust near goal prevented them from doing just that.

But compensation awaited them when they faced Erin's Own in the Sargent Cup final and they left no doubt in the minds of anyone with yet another eight point victory over Erin's Own.

KILROSSANTY'S YEAR

The football limelight was undoubtedly captured by the men from the Comeraghs, who, after a four year lapse, regained the senior football crown. Their opponents in an unforgettable final were Ardmore, who were equally thwarted by a Kilrossanty goal, scored by team captain, Tom Walsh in the dying seconds. Until that belated goal the Seasiders, having outplayed Kilrossanty in practically every sector of the field, looked certain to win their first ever title in the grade, but then came that last second goal and the trophy found a home in the Comeraghs for yet another year. The Phe'an Cup final also involved Ardmore, and after a great tilt with John Mitchie's, the sides ended level. The replay will not now take place until the New Year.

The Intermediate hurling final was a unique one to say the least with the two Ballyduffs—Upper and Lower—vying for the honours. It was a tremendous battle between them, with the men from the Blackwater prevailing by a two-point margin.

In the corresponding grade in the football code, Affane, to the surprise of many, proved supreme in the West and added the Divisional title to their previously won Divisional and county primary titles. But they never produced top form in the county final against Erin's Own and suffered a crushing 2-10 to 0-2 defeat.

In Junior hurling, Ardmore suffered yet another unfortunate defeat, Molleran's (Carrickbeg) being their conquerors, whilst the Junior football title went to Rathgormack, at Ballyduff Upper's expense, after one of the most degrading and disgraceful finishes ever witnessed at Walsh Park, Waterford. This decider may well have serious repercussions yet as the Ballyduff captain, together with the Chairman and Secretary of the Club have been summoned to the next meeting of the County Board in connection with the incidents at that game.

Although the County junior hurling title went to Mount Sion, this championship will be best remembered for the three stinging games between Dungarvan and Abbeyside, in the Western final. These were games that praiseworthy activities could not do adequate justice to and at the end of a memorable three hours, Dungarvan were champions by a bare point.

In minor football, Stradbally marched triumphantly through the West, and in the county final against Mount Sion pulled out all the stops to record a great victory.

And now to my individual choice of the year. In football Kilrossanty's Noel Walsh is my unanimous choice, capping a great year with a superb display in the county final against Ardmore.

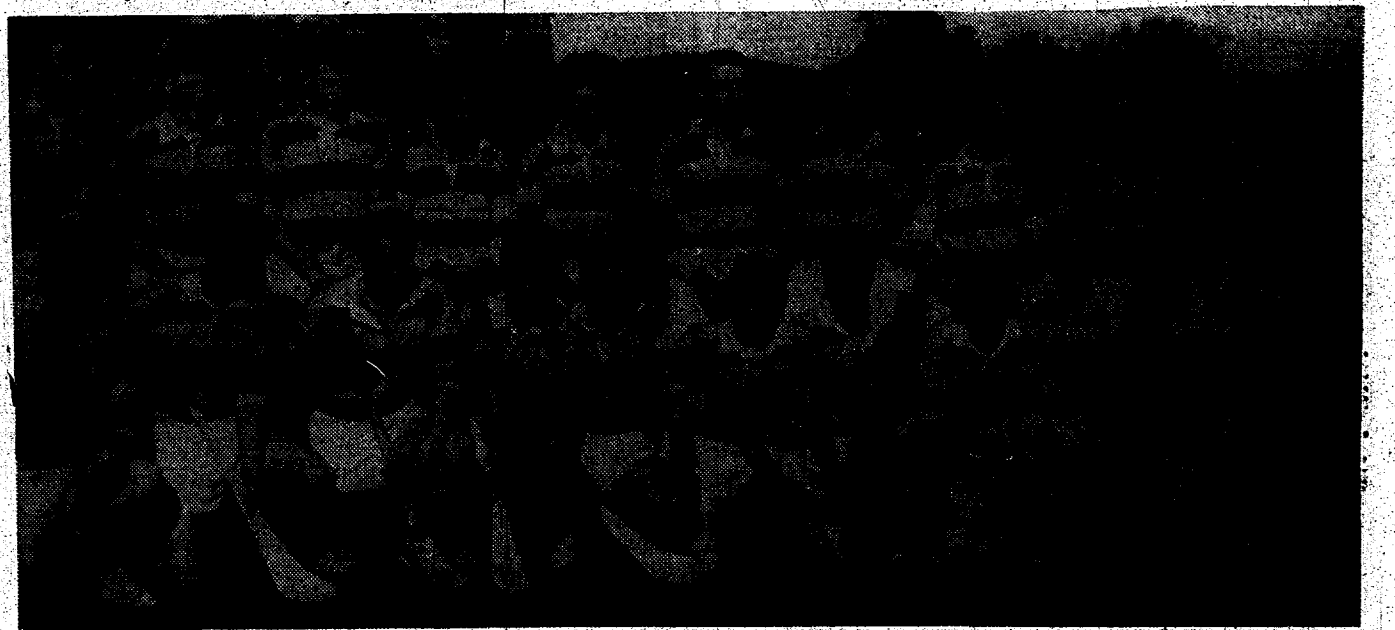

The hurling choice, however, is not quite so clear-cut. There are several in line for the honour, but after careful consideration, I opt for Abbeyside's youthful midfielder Liam Enright.

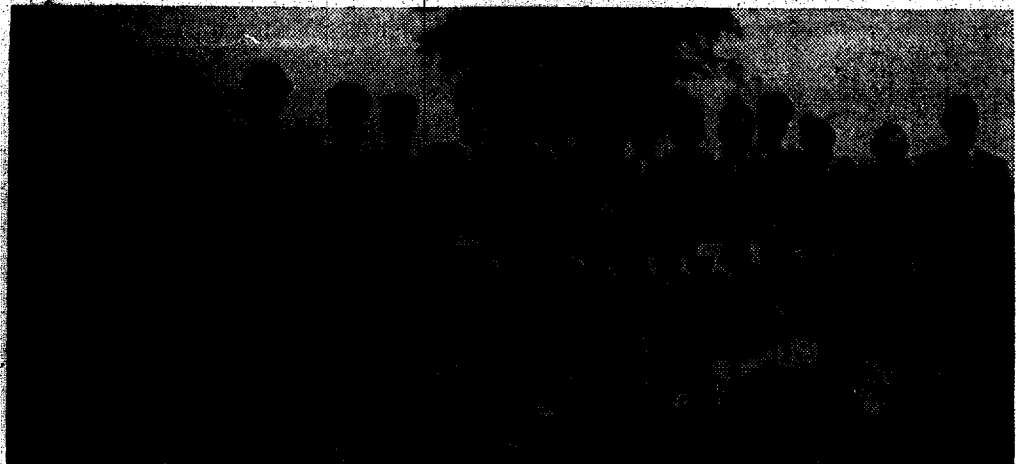

KILROSSANTY — Senior Football Champions

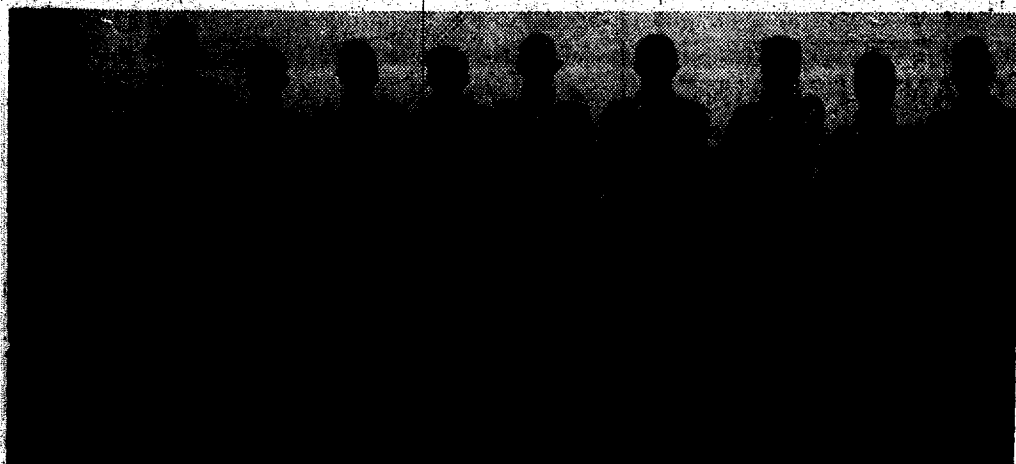

ST. MOLLERAN'S — Junior Hurling Champions

ABBEYSIDE — Sargent Cup winners

BALLYDUFF Upper. — Intermediate Hurling Champions

ERIN'S OWN — Intermediate Football Champions

DUNGARVAN — Juvenile Hurling Champions
