Proposed Home for mentally retarded children

The project for the establishment of a five-day residential and day school for mildly retarded children by the Sisters of Mercy, at Cappoquin, was given an unqualified measure of support by a large and representative public meeting held in the Desmond Cinema, Cappoquin, on Thursday night last. It is intended that the proposed school should serve the region of West Waterford, South Tipperary and East Cork and clergy of all denominations, representatives of public bodies and local authorities, the teaching profession and general public from all those areas attended.

A resolution was unanimously adopted calling on the Minister for Health and the Minister for Education to approve of the establishment of the new school.

Ven. Archdeacon Power, P.P., V.F., Dungarvan, presided and other members of the platform party were Rev. Dr. Olden (representing Rt. Rev. Dean Barron), Very Rev. J. Canon Kenneally, P.P., Cappoquin; Very Rev. Gilbert Mayes, Dean of Lisdoonahara; Mr. J. Bermingham, M.C.C., Secretary of the Cork Polo and General After-Care Association; Mr. M. Dougan and Mr. D. Murphy, Chairman and Secretary of the County Tipperary Association for Mentally Handicapped Children; Mr. C. Curran, M.C.C., Chairman Waterford County Council; Mr. N. Walsh, M.C.C., Vice-do.; Mr. J. G. Dowling, Secretary, Waterford Co. Council; Mr. F. J. O'Leary, Accountant, do. and Dr. P. K. Murphy, Asst. Co. M.O.H., Waterford.

Mr. J. Bermingham paid tribute to the Sisters of Mercy at Cappoquin, for agreeing to undertake this work. He had, he said, studied the methods of the care of mentally retarded children in Holland, Denmark and France and on the Continent, generally, and he felt that by comparison they were tackling the problem very well in Ireland. He dealt extensively with the methods adopted and the success which had attended the work of his own association in Cork and stressed the importance of the part played by organisations such as the National Association for Mentally Handicapped Children of Ireland and the National Organisation for Rehabilitation. A project such as was intended at Cappoquin needed a community effort.

one in which every member played his part in helping the children to become normal members of the community. Mr. M. Dougan said that the primary aim of any local organisation must be to educate the public by placing the facts of the problem before them in their proper perspective. It was important that the idea that mental illness was a shame or a stigma should disappear and the region was fortunate that the nuns were ready and willing to undertake the work. They would gain no kudos from it and it was the bounden duty of all to help them in their labour.

Dr. P. K. Murphy spoke of the medical problems involved and of the vital part the proposed District Committees would play in stimulating interest in the problem. The assistance of public health nurses, the County Medical Officer's department and teaching organisations would always be available. It would be the duty of the

The lay-out plans will be sanctioned shortly, and unless something fantastic happens in the meantime the Committee will be in a position to give the working plans to the Architect by the March meeting, said Mr. J. Rushe, at last Tuesday's meeting of Waterford Vocational Education Committee.

Mr. John Fahy said that was good news. He was in Kilmachomas on Sunday last and he had numerous enquiries about the new school.

temporary committee which would be appointed to eventually call a general meeting to elect a permanent committee whose main duty would be to supplement the work of the health authority.

Rev. Dr. Olden conveyed Dean Barron's blessing for the project and the assurance of his good wishes and support. It was said, Dr. Olden a very encouraging thing to see the increased awareness of social problems which increased prosperity was bringing. All must help in their various ways to solve the problem and he would like to think that the reason for giving help was we were Christians whatever our denomination.

Offering his unqualified support for the work, Very Rev. Dean Mayes said that they must care as a community for the children and they owed a deep debt of gratitude to the Sisters who would undertake the work at Cappoquin.

During the open discussion which followed, Mr. M. Ebney, N.T., Ballyduff, speaking from the hall, promised the full support of I.N.T.O. members for the work.

Speaking on the vote of thanks to the speakers, Colrs. Walsh and Curran reaffirmed the support of Waterford County Council for the project.

The following temporary committee was elected: Chairman, Mr. N. Walsh, M.C.C.; Vice-do., Mr. H. R. Dowd, M.C.C.; Secretary, Miss M. Kiely; Treasurer, Mr. A. Walsh.

Railway Closing Still under Consideration

Mr. Charles Curran, Chairman of Waterford Co. Council, has received the following letter from Dr. C. S. Andrews, Chairman of C.I.E. arising out of rumour that the Waterford-Mallow line was going to close. "I am to inform you that the closure of the Mallow-Waterford rail line is still under consideration. I regret I am not able to give you any more information at this stage."

FIRST PLACE IN IRELAND

Mary Barry, Treacy's Hill, Kilmachomas, who secured first place in Ireland in the Department's examination in Commerce was congratulated by the C.E.O., Mr. J. Rushe, and members of Waterford Vocational Education Committee at their monthly meeting on Tuesday. Mary is a pupil of Dungarvan Technical School.

CO-OPTED ON CO. COUNCIL

Declan Ahearne (39), of Ballyphilip, Knockanore, Co. Waterford was co-opted to Waterford Co. Council at a meeting in Dungarvan on Monday, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Colr. D. Montayne.

He was co-opted on the proposal of Colr. H. Dowd, and seconded by Colr. C. Curran (Chairman). A member of the Fianna Fail Party he is a well-known farmer and has been associated with farming organisations and Shamrocks hurling club for many years.

Welcoming Mr. Ahearne to his first meeting, Colr. Dowd said he felt sure he would be a worthy successor to the late Colr. Montayne. He knew Mr. Ahearne for many years and he would be a first-class public representative.

Mr. G. Heskin said he would like to welcome Mr. Ahearne who was taking the place of a very good friend of his. If Mr. Ahearne was half as good as the late Colr. Montayne he would be a very good public representative.

Mr. Ahearne thanked the members of the Council for co-opting him. It would be very hard to fill the shoes of Colr. Montayne who had been a very dear friend of his. He would try and please everybody and to represent the people of his area.

On behalf of the Co. Manager and staff, the Secretary (Mr. J. G. Dowling) welcomed Mr. Ahearne.

No Reduction in Water Rate

At last Tuesday's meeting of Waterford Vocational Education Committee, a letter from Mr. P. J. Doyle, Town Clerk, Dungarvan, was read by the C.E.O., Mr. J. Rushe, in regard to the Committee's request for a reduction in the Council's charge of 1/6 per 1,000 gallons of water.

Mr. Rushe said the water charges were increased 50% from April 1st '64 by the Urban Council. At the request

Fined for Careless Driving

Dr. Mary T. Neale, Abbey-side, an employee of Waterford Health Authority, appeared before Justice L. B. Skinner at the local District Court on Wednesday on charges of careless driving at the Burgery, Abbeyside, on November 24th, last and with exceeding the speed limit on the same occasion.

Garda E. Doherty said on the date in question he was driving the official car towards Waterford. At the Burgery, there was a continuous white line, and the defendant who was ahead of him cut corners and crossed the white line. She was doing sixty miles an hour and at one corner had to swerve to avoid a car. He tried to pass her out but she put down the boot and he followed her for five miles. In the forty mile zone she was doing sixty miles an hour and when he stopped her she denied driving dangerously or exceeding the speed limit. She gave no indication either that she was going to stop. The defendant, Dr. Neale, said that to her knowledge she only crossed the white line once and then she was obliged to do so to get by a stationary car. She admitted doing over 40 miles inside the 40-mile zone but was not doing 50.

Judge Skinner imposed a fine of £5 for careless driving and £10 for exceeding the speed limit and he fixed recognisances in the event of an appeal.

At the conclusion of the Court, however, Mr. M. J. Lardner, Solr., defended said this was the defendant's first offence and it might be a lesson to her. He would ask the Justice to reconsider his decision with regard to the amount of the fines. This case would remain with her at a session.

Judge Skinner then reduced the careless driving fine to £2 and the fine for exceeding the speed limit to £4.

COMMITTEE'S SYMPATHY

At the conclusion of the day's Vocational Education meeting in Dungarvan, a resolution of sympathy was passed with the clergy of the diocese on the lamented death of Dr. Daniel Cohalan, Bishop of Waterford and Lisdoonahara.

The resolution of sympathy was proposed by Deputy Kyme and seconded by Michael Harty.

MR. DICK BURKE, Cappagh, and MISS JOAN KEANE, Springmount, Dungarvan, who were married recently in St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan.

Deputation Objects to £282,000 Water Scheme

A twelve-man deputation representing the combined parishes of Modeligo, Kilbrien-Colligan and Touraneena, led by Rev. Fr. Noel Coughlan, C.C., Modeligo, strongly protested to Waterford County Council on Monday last against the proposed Regional Water Scheme for these areas at an estimated cost of £282,000.

At the outset, the Chairman, Colr. Charles Curran said he did not want to have misunderstandings in the minds of the deputation or the people about the Council's water policy. About three years ago, he said, the County Council carried out a water survey of the county and they gave an amount of consideration to Regional schemes. To implement this type of scheme in the county however, would have cost £2,750,000 and they decided against it. This had been the most economy minded Council in the country, and because of this has had head-on collisions with Government Departments. They did not need pressure groups to make them realise this. They then decided, he said, to do everything possible to encourage the people to avail of private and group schemes for which there were generous grants available. The County Council then on its own decided to implement a few minor schemes.

The Chairman went on: "The Rathgormack and Modeligo areas were deemed not suitable for minor schemes because of the demand for water in these areas. The estimated cost of implementing the Council's policy for water schemes in the county was £620,000, but that is far short of the £2,750,000 which would have cost to implement Regional schemes. There has been stiff opposition to this Modeligo scheme even by people who had the hypocrisy to sign their names to petitions previously to have the scheme implemented."

"I attended meetings of the N.F.A. and meetings in the areas concerned in this matter, but I want to make one thing quite clear. It is the County Council that has the final say in this, and anything that will be done it is the Council that will be responsible to the people and the Dept. I also wish to correct a few fallacies. A rumour has been deliberately put out that very few people have been connected in the Affane-Tourin scheme, but the truth of the matter is that there have been 45 domestic connections out of a possible 62, whilst there have also been 15 non-domestic connections."

Rev. Fr. Coughlan said it was his privilege to lead the deputation. They were not trying to form a pressure group, but to present some figures which they got from a survey they carried out in the combined parishes. When the County Council carried out their survey of the areas three years ago they counted 540 houses. They only counted 516 houses.

In Modeligo there were 152 houses, 56 of which had water and 96 without it. In Touraneena there were 202 houses, 52 with water and 150 without it. There were 162 houses in Kilbrien-Colligan, and 42 of them had water and the remaining 120 had none. Of the total number of houses, 70% of them had no water.

Fr. Coughlan went on to say that in all, 366 houses were without water and it could be assumed that 300 of them would accept water. The proposed capital outlay was £282,000 and that seemed a ridiculous figure to supply 300 houses. A farmer could instal a pump that would give him a never ending water supply for £200.

Rev. Fr. Griffen, C.C., Touraneena said he would like to endorse everything Fr. Coughlan had said. They had meetings in all three areas and personally he was pleased to see the N.F.A. pulling their weight in this matter. He believed this scheme could be done much more economically.

Mr. J. Dunford said he wished to speak on behalf of the Colligan area. He attended all the meetings and they decided to reject the proposed Regional Scheme, in favour of Private and Group Schemes. For the Colligan area alone the Regional Scheme would cost an estimated £30,200, but he believed water could be installed in every house in Colligan for £5,800, and similar savings could be made in every other area. He hoped that when the Councillors decided to reject or accept the Regional scheme, they would do well to remember that the people they represented rejected the Regional scheme.

Mr. D. J. Coughlan, one of the two N.F.A. members on the deputation (the other was Mr. Brian Pearce), said the N.F.A.'s case in this matter was very simple, although they had got a lot of abuse over this. It was said that they did not want this scheme. They did, but the farmers, as the biggest rate-payers, would have to bear the brunt of the cost and it was only reasonable that they should see that the schemes were done as economically as possible. He said approximately 150 houses in these areas had water and 350 had not. Divide that number into £282,000 and it would come to £800. That was not a fair assumption either, however, he added, as all 350 would not take the water. If 200 houses took water the cost would come to over £1,400 per house. Taking also into consideration the interest that would have to be paid and the overall cost would be about £2,500 per house. They thought that was ridiculous and it would be better to build houses rather than supply water to existing houses at this ridiculous cost. They would back every move to instal water supplies but they could not see how it was necessary to spend £282,000 on water for three parishes.

Colr. Thomas Lannon said there was something radically wrong someplace. This whole matter would have to be examined.

Colr. Milo Galgey said he would like to have heard the Deputation before they agreed in principle to the regional scheme. He would like to ask the members of the Deputation how many of them had their own water or tap supply in their own houses.

Four members of the twelve man deputation raised their hands indicating that they had no water.

Colr. Kieran O'Ryan said the deputation had carried out an up to date survey of the parishes. Yet at a meeting of the County Council, the County Engineer stated that such a survey would cost £4,000 to carry out.

Colr. Lannon: There is something wrong with the price of the water.

Colr. O'Ryan: It is a fantastic price.

Colr. M. Hartly: I was also told a survey of the parishes would cost £4,000.

Colr. John Fahey said he was one that put in his own water supply, but he did feel that the day had come when everyone in rural Ireland should have water. They did think that the regional schemes were very costly and they asked their County Engineer assured them that if they were to supply areas with minor schemes they would cost more than the regional schemes eventually. If someone could prove to him that the Modeligo scheme could be done a cheaper way he would gladly support it.

SALMON FISHING
The first week of the opening of the salmon season as far as netting was concerned was said to be the worst for many years. This was no doubt due to the cold and harsh weather conditions prevailing for some time. On the first day the all-in catch for all boats was eight salmon with four on the second day. On the opening days this week when conditions were somewhat milder there was a decided improvement when one bay boat accounted for five salmon on Monday. Rod anglers are said to have a fairly good opening. Last week a man from Lismore landed a 19 1/2 lb. fish and further up another man landed three salmon, 24lbs., 25lbs. and 30lbs. The price price last week and this week to fishermen was 12/6 and it is hoped that with weather improvement there will be an increase in the catches by nets.

SALMON BOATS BLESSED
On Saturday last in the presence of a large gathering some 28 salmon yawls manned by their crews and bedecked with bunting were blessed in McDonagh's Dock by the Very Rev. Canon Sheehan, P.P. This ceremony was to have taken place on the previous Saturday but was postponed due to weather conditions. During the blessing the local lifeboat with full crew under Coxswain Dick Hickey joined the boat in the dock.

LATE J. J. AHERNE
Deep regret was occasioned last week at the announcement of the sad and unexpected death of a well-known personality, Mr. James J. Ahern, which took place at his residence, Homeville, Knockaverry, Youghal. For many years and up to the time of his death he was a popular manager of the local employment exchange. He took a keen interest in all forms of sport such as hurling, football, bowl playing, darts, bridge, as well as being a prominent member of the Youghal Coursing Club and director of Youghal Greyhound Track. He served with distinction during the War of Independence being a member of the 4th Batt. 1st Cork Brigade I.R.A., and later joined the Army with rank of Lieutenant. During the Emergency years he was in charge of the Local Defence Forces. The remains were removed to the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes where following Requiem Mass celebrated by Rev. E. G. O'Dwyer, C.C., the funeral took place to North Abbey Cemetery. The cortege which was the largest seen in the district for many years bore testimony of the popularity and esteem in which the deceased and his family were held in Youghal and surrounding districts. The coffin was draped in the Tricolor and a guard of honour of Old I.R.A. veterans flanked the hearse. The attendance included the Chairman and members of the Urban Council, the Garda, Lismore Board of Fishery Conservators, Fishermen's Association, Youghal Coursing Club, Handball Club, Pigeon Club, I.T. & G.W. Union, the Chairman and directors Youghal Track, and Military Authorities from Collins' Barracks.

Cork. The firing party comprising of comrades of the Old I.R.A. was in charge of Commdt. Mick Kearney and the Last Post was sounded by Corp. P. Savage of Middleton F.C.A. The chief mourners were Mrs. E. Fitzgibbon (daughter); Capt. G. J. Fitzgibbon (son-in-law), Messrs. Peter, John, Jim and David Fitzgibbon (grandsons); Mr. and Mrs. D. Fitzgibbon, Dublin; Mr. and Mrs. W. Carroll (relatives). Very Rev. Canon Sheehan, P.P., officiated at the graveside, assisted by Rev. D. O'Connell, C.C., Rev. E. G. O'Dwyer, C.C., Rev. D. Gould, C.C., Rev. E. O'Riordan, C.C. Rev. C. Twohig, St. Colman's, Fermoy.

LATE RICHARD AHERN
We regret to announce the death which took place unexpectedly of Mr. Richard Ahern at his residence, Summerfield, Youghal, on Saturday. Of an old and long established Youghal family, the deceased was a gardener by occupation. LATE CORNELIUS O'SULLIVAN

Western Tee., and Mary St., Dungarvan. Widespread regret was expressed at the announcement of the death of Cornelius (Con O'Sullivan, Western Tee., and late of Mary Street, which occurred at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, on Friday morning, February 5th, after a short duration of illness, but at the fullness of years. He was well known throughout the entire county and was a noted craftsman at his trade. The deceased was father of Very Rev. James O'Sullivan, P.P., Stoke-on-Trent. He was a founder-member of the National and Commercial Club at Mary St. The deceased was one of the first people to introduce hurling to this particular area as previous to that football was the popular game played. He was a wonderful hard-working, industrious gentleman and a true Irish husband and father, and reared a family who are a credit to the town and county. The deceased was a life long member of the Sacred Heart Sodality attached to St. Mary's Parish Church. R.I.P.

Players and Clubs Warned By Chairman

BALLYDUFF "ESCAPE" WITH CAUTION

"I warn all clubs and players that will come before me in future for misconduct on the field of play that they will be dealt with very severely as I intend to clean up the game in the County." So stated County Board Chairman, Mr. J. Moloney, at a meeting in Dungarvan on Monday night last, when the Chairman, Secretary and Captain of the Ballyduff Upper Junior Football team appeared as a result of incidents during the County final at Waterford against Rathgormack. Mr. Michael Feeney (Ballyduff Upper) at the outset said he wished to apologise to the Board for the conduct of the Ballyduff players at that game. He wished however to criticise the referee for his handling of the game as he lost control of it and his report was not correct.

In his report the referee stated: "Every time I looked behind me I saw fisticuffs." The referee (Mr. Hugh Donnelly, Dungarvan) also stated that it was the most unsporting game he had ever handled as a result he would not referee any more games in the County.

Mr. Feeney said it takes two to have fisticuffs, yet not even one player was warned during the game. Three of his players, he said, were struck in the face and no action was taken by the referee. The trouble after the game was caused by spectators.

Mr. Charlie Ware (Erin's Own) said there was no gate crashed. There were spectators in the sideline that day and they were a disgrace to the Association.

Mr. Feeney said the gate next to the stand was broken

NO DECISION ON REPORT OF CONSULTANTS

Road-workers may be Let Go

ONCE again Waterford County Council at its monthly meeting on Monday last deferred a final decision on whether or not to implement reports of Industrial Consultants, which it is stated have been compiled with a view to effecting economies in the County Council. Part of the report however, stated that during the next four years it would be possible to make planned reductions in the labour force of over 60 men who have reached retiring age and in addition some men were likely to leave the Council's employment of their own accord.

Colr. P. Cahill said he had read the report and from it it appeared that the only way they could make savings was at the expense of the working man. They were the men that were rearing families and that was no way to make savings.

Colr. K. O'Ryan said he agreed completely with Colr. Cahill. How is it he asked that officials were not asked to retire at 65 but the working man was asked to retire even before he reached 65. Replying to Colr. O'Ryan, the Co. Accountant, Mr. F. J. O'Leary, said the cost of having the Industrial Consultants submitted to the Council alone was £2,531.

Mr. Hally: I have no knowledge of it.

Colr. T. Lannon asked the County Engineer if he or any of his engineers were carrying on private work.

Colr. Lannon—Do you, Mr. Hally, carry on private work? Mr. Hally—I do no work outside my County Council duties.

Colr. John Fahey said he could not agree to have the number of workers employed by the Co. Council reduced in force or force them to retire at 35. He believed they were not adequately staffed in the County Council and these men could never be replaced by machinery. He would not agree to a reduction in staff but he would agree to an improvement in efficiency.

The Chairman (Colr. C. Curran) said the human element was an important consideration in this matter. No one wanted to see redundancy. Colr. Cahill said that seven or eight years ago they had about 700 working on the Council staff (outdoor). At present that number was reduced to about 360 and in a few years time they would have only about 50.

Mr. Tate (a member of the firm of Industrial Consultants) said they did not recommend redundancy, and besides there would be no immediate redundancy. Deputy Kyne said he had read the reports of the Industrial Consultants very carefully and the one thing that he saw was that there would be a reduction in the man power.

Colr. Foran said that surely it was a fantastic idea to suggest that the working men should retire at 65 after giving long years of service to the Council.

Colr. Dowd said they did not want to see any men laid off and he would not be a party to saving by cutting down on the number of working men in the Council's employment. From the human and realistic points of view he did not think the Council could vote for economy merely by cutting down on labour.

Colr. Roche said the two main points of the report were the reduction of labour force and the collection of the rates through the Office. To him they formed the bulk of the savings.

Colr. Curran said it was the unanimous desire of the Council members that there be no reduction in the working staff and that the workers be allowed to stay on until 68 and longer in some cases if they wish.

Colr. Lannon said he saw nothing in the report about the possible reduction in travelling expenses of the officials and members of the Council.

Mr. O'Callaghan (another member of the Industrial Consultants firm) said they could carry out an investigation into that if asked by the officials.

Colr. Lannon—in my view the travelling expenses are too high at present. The Engineers are getting between £400 and £500 a year travelling expenses.

Colr. Curran—The rate for travelling expenses is laid down by the Dept.

Colr. Lannon—I disagree. The Manager gave increases in travelling expenses himself.

Mr. Tate said they were recommending an additional Engineer with the status of Chief Assistant and also an Assistant Engineer for Planning.

Colr. Lannon—We will have all officials and no men. Colr. Curran said they were told these additional appointments would be made at no extra cost.

The members continued to discuss parts of the reports but when the Council clock ticked on towards 6 p.m. it was decided to defer a final decision on whether or not to implement the reports to another meeting.
