Manager Will Not Accept Rate of 56/6

COUNCIL MEETS FOR THIRD TIME

ON Friday evening last Waterford County Council held its second session in an effort to strike the County Rate for 1965/66. Finally following a series of defeated proposals, a rate of 56/6 in the £ — an increase of 5/- on the current figure was agreed to on a 9-8 vote. However, the County Manager, Mr. S. J. Moynihan, said this rate was not an acceptable one and now a third meeting has been called for to-day (Thursday) in Dungarvan, the last day which the Councillors have to strike a rate.

Friday's meeting was not as exciting as expected, as quite obviously the members realised that in most cases their hands were tied. However, an unexpected proposal by Mr. Thomas Lannon was unanimously passed asking that when the time came to appoint a new and separate County Manager, a post of Manager/Secretary be made instead, thereby saving in the region of £4,000 a year. A Deputation will now go to the Minister for the Environment to present this proposal and will include the County's Dail Deputies.

At the outset, Mr. Norman Walsh said at the first estimates meeting they succeeded in cutting the proposed estimate by 51d. That was the net result of their four hours' work.

At this stage the Council was considering the estimates under General Purposes and it was proposed that £100 be taken off the estimate for the Fire Chief. It was stated that the County Accountant and the Fire Officer discuss and the Fire Officer discussed it during the week and he was agreeable to this cut.

Mr. Lannon said to clip this particular estimate was a bad job. Fire, he said, was a very dangerous thing.

The Chairman, Mr. Charles Curran, said they had a very competent fire service in the County. In Dungarvan recently the siren went at 4 a.m. and the brigade was out ten minutes later.

The estimate for scholarships rose from £9,800 to £12,000 and Mr. Milo Galgey said that any student that got three years in the university should be very glad. They got very little financial return from most of the boys they sent to University. Three years should be sufficient for any student and after that he should be prepared to put his shoulder to the wheel himself.

Mr. Michael Harty said there was no faculty in Cork University where boys going for teaching could finish their course in three years. If they did they would not receive their higher diploma in education. The years had been increased by the University Authorities for Medicine and Engineering courses as they felt students were not trained properly in three years.

PUBLIC WORKS

Dealing with Public Works the County Engineer (Mr. J. Hally) said if the Council put up £2000 for amenity schemes they would get £7,000 worth of work for it by way of grants. He strongly recommended the Council to put up the £2,000.

Mr. Norman Walsh said they were being faced with a rate increase of at least 5/- and he felt they should do without this expenditure.

Deputy T. A. Kyne said it would be madness to throw away so much money simply by not putting up £2,000.

Mr. N. Walsh proposed and Mr. K. O'Ryan seconded that they delete the £2,000 from the estimates.

Mr. Hally said that would mean a reduction of only 11d. on the rates. There were a number of places around the County where this money could be spent and it would increase tourist potential.

Deputy Kyne said it seemed a backward step in this tour-ist age to be cutting out amenities that would be helping tourism.

An amendment by Deputy Kyne seconded by Mr. F. Cahill that the £2,000 be put up was then carried by ten votes to nine.

COURTHOUSE FIGURE REDUCED

On the proposal of Mr. Norman Walsh it was agreed to reduce from £5,500 to £5,000 the amount provided for the upkeep of Courthouses. It was stated that Waterford Co. Council was compelled to help in the upkeep of the Clonmel and Waterford City Courthouses, something which Mr. John Fahey described as ridiculous.

MANAGER-SECRETARY

Mr. Lannon said he was going to propose something that would mean a saving of £3000 to £4000 a year. This year they were going to have a separate Manager for the County but this was only a small county and as it was the people could not pay the rates demand. He was going to propose that they combine the positions of County Manager and County Secretary and create a post of Manager-Secretary. They did not want big staffs.

Mr. Curran said he did not think the Department would agree to this.

Mr. Lannon—Why not? We know what the people can afford to pay. We are trying to save and if we did not think this could be done adequately we would not suggest it.

Mr. K. O'Ryan seconded.

Mr. M. Galgey said he was in complete agreement with Mr. Lannon.

Mr. Lannon said in Waterford City the Manager was also the Town Clerk.

Mr. J. Fahey asked if the proposal was feasible. Did it mean that their present Co. Secretary would become Manager-Secretary.

Mr. Curran said that would be included in the terms of the proposition. It was a big issue, he said, but the proposal, however, was contrary to the County Managers Act.

Mr. Fahey said they were all in agreement with the proposition if it could be done.

Mr. O'Ryan suggested the deputation go at its own expense.

Mr. Curran said there had been no deputation from the County Council during the past five years.

The following terms were agreed to for Mr. Lannon's proposal: "When the position of County Manager becomes vacant the new holder shall carry out the duties of Manager and Secretary and that the Council's present Secretary be given the post."

NO INCREASE FOR CORONER

By 11 votes to 7 a proposal by Colr. H. R. Dowd that they increase the salary of the Coroner for West Waterford (Dr. D. Healy, Lasmore) from £285 a year to £300, was defeated. The Council had previously brought the East Waterford rate here.

Mr. D. F. Madden said he was bombarded by groaning ratepayers in Tramore. In 1939 the total rates were less than 11/- in the £. When the farmers rolled up in their thousands they got attention, so he would not vote for any rate here.

Mr. Galgey said that owing to the attitude of the Minister in increasing salaries they should propose no rate. Let the Minister strike it, he added.

Mr. Lannon said if public bodies united and stood as one the Minister would not be ruling everything.

At this stage the County Accountant (Mr. O'Leary) said the original increase on this year's rate was 7/8. The estimates committee met and reduced this by 1/1 whilst the Council at their first rates sitting reduced it a further 51d. To-day's estimate brought another cut of 3/8d., leaving the total increase on the current rate at 5/9 3/4 and this would mean striking a rate of 57/4.

The Chairman then read a letter from the Assistant Medical Officer seeking three beach guards in Tramore instead of two as decided by the Council previously. The letter stated that it was a deplorable decision of the Estimates Committee not to employ three guards. He also read a letter from the County Engineer regarding the Planning and Development Act, 1963, and stated that no planning would be done until a staff for that purpose had been made available.

The County Manager said he felt that the County Council should survey their decision to cut the Library Estimate.

Mr. Dowd said he did not blame the County Council for this cut but he blamed the Library Director and his Council for it.

Mr. Galgey said at the meeting of the Estimates Committee he opposed three beach guards for Tramore because the public were ignoring the warnings that were being put up. The public had the right to commit suicide if they wanted to and he had no sympathy for them if they did not obey the warning signs that were erected on the beach. In Tramore last year he counted 64 swimming including parents and their children when warning signs had been put up.

Mr. Dowd then proposed a rate of 57/4 in the £.

Mr. Curran—You have great moral courage, Mr. Dowd.

Mr. Dowd said this was the difficult period for every councillor. We Irish people had said in one year spent £47,000,000 on pipe and cigarette tobacco that was really unnecessary. Deputy Kyne seconded the proposition.

The Manager said he would accept that proposal. It was a feasible rate.

Mr. Lannon proposed a rate of 57/11. They owed £57,000 to the Bank at present, he said, and if this rate was passed they would owe only about £18,000 next year.

There was no seconder for this proposal.

Mr. Dowd's proposal for a rate of 57/4 was then put to the meeting but was defeated 13-4.

Against—Colrs. Curran, Dowd, Harty, Lannon, Drohan, Whelan, Fahey, Foran, O'Ryan, Heskin, Ahearne, N. Walsh and Galgey.

Mr. W. Foran proposed a rate of 55/- but this also failed to find a seconder.

Mr. F. Cahill proposed and Mr. J. Drohan seconded a rate of 57/-.

Mr. Fahey asked as a guide what increase would that be for a farmer of £20 valuation.

The County Accountant said the increase would be £11.7 and £2 for a man in a fully serviced cottage.

Mr. Cahill's proposal was defeated 11-6.

Mr. R. Walsh then proposed a rate of 57/8 seconded by Mr. Cahill. Mr. Walsh said what they would have in excess by striking this rate could be put on the County roads.

This was defeated by 12-5.

Mr. Galgey then proposed a rate of 56/6 and this was seconded by Deputy Kyne. This proposal was carried by nine votes to eight.

The voting was—For: Colrs. Curran, Dowd, Kyne, Drohan, Fahey, Dowd, Heskin, Cahill, R. Walsh.

Against—Colrs. Lannon, Harty, Whelan, Foran, Galgey, O'Ryan, Ahearne, N. Walsh.

When it was announced by the Chairman, Mr. Curran, that 56/6 was the new rate, the Manager (Mr. Moynihan) said this rate was not acceptable and he would not accept it.

Minister's Letter on Road Safety

Mr. Charles Curran, Chairman of Waterford Co. Council, has a letter from the Minister for Local Government on Road Safety.

Mr. Blaney said the response to his appeal last December during Road Safety Fortnight received the active support of local Authorities. Next December it was hoped to hold a further large scale national campaign but he considered it desirable in the intervening period to take sufficient steps to ensure that the good work already done was not lost. For this reason he proposed that an interim road safety campaign should be conducted from May 26th to June 2nd.

The campaign he said, would be directed specifically to two main features: (1) Speed and its attendant dangers, and (2) keep children safe this summer.

Mr. Blaney asked Mr. Curran to have the matter placed on the agenda for a County Council meeting as soon as possible and he felt sure he could rely on the Council's wholehearted support.

DUNGARVAN URBAN DISTRICT COUNCIL

SALMON FISHING

All through last week the catches of salmon by nets all over the area were very poor and in fact many boats did not land a single fish, while others did not operate. However, on Monday of this week there was the long awaited change when the wind went to the South West and brought the desired results. Amongst the Youghal boats some 70 salmon were landed.

LATE MR. P. CROWLEY

We regret to record the death of Mr. Patrick Crowley which took place on Sunday last at his residence Redmond's Row, Youghal, after a protracted period of illness. In his late sixties, the deceased was a member of an old Youghal family and for some years was employed at Morgan's Picture Theatre.

WON QUESTION TIME

Kilmacthomas were winners of the Co. Question Time held in Ballinacoola last week. The successful team was: M. Harney, R. McKenna, T. Hennessy, E. Cullinane, Mr. R. Cullinane was presented with the cup for the best lady.

OBITUARY

We regret to record the death (suddenly) at his residence, Island Straddally, on Friday last week, of Mr. William Sullivan, a worthy and well-liked neighbour. He is survived by his wife and family, to whom we tender our deep sympathy.

GRANT FOR SCHOOL GAMES

County Waterford Vocational Education Committee at its monthly meeting on Tuesday last decided to give a grant of £10 for each of four technical schools in the County for the promotion of games.

YOUGHAL HOTEL CHANGES HANDS

The well known Esplanade Hotel, Youghal, has changed hands and the new owner is Mr. D. Kely, formerly of Ra. Bert, Co. Kerry. The price was £20,000 and the hotel will be managed by the new owner's brother, Mr. T. Kely. The new proprietor is well known in the States, where he is the proprietor of the Irish Centre, a combined bar and ballroom, on 173 St. The Bronx, which he acquired some five years ago and which is now run with the help of his three brothers, and three sisters.

YOUGHAL HOUSING

Housing in Youghal is certainly looking ahead. Private housing building seems to be the order of the day and the tendency is to build on the outskirts of the town. Practically all sites chosen are on the hillside overlooking Youghal Bay, without fear of the town's expansion.

YOUGHAL WIN HURLING LEAGUE FINAL

The replay of the Intermediate hurling league final of 1964, took place on Sunday last in Middleton and resulted in a great win for Youghal. In a very exciting game, Youghal produced some very exciting hurling and the final score was: Youghal, 3-10; Ballincollig, 3-6.

Additional Clerk Typist Appointed

I do not think there is anyone working for a local authority to-day who is over-worked or underpaid, stated Mr. Norman Walsh at a meeting of County Waterford Vocational Education Committee when it was decided by eight votes to five to appoint an additional wholtime and permanent clerk typist in the Dungarvan offices. The application came from the A.T. and G.W.U. and from Mr. Richard Johnson, the present clerk.

Mr. Michael Morrissey said the wishes of the ratepayers. The C.E.O. said the cost of the additional clerk was already included in this year's estimates. Mr. Curran said in the Committee of Agriculture one girl was doing all the work efficiently and without undue pressure.

Mr. M. Harly said that rather than have a contest over it they should adjourn it for six months when they would have a new Council. Mr. Fahey said he was very reluctant to oppose the additional appointment but the cause their senior permanent clerk (Mr. Johnson) was not an increase of over 5/- this year.

Mr. Morrissey said the appointment would not effect this year's rate. A vote was then taken and it was decided by eight votes to five to make the appointment. The voting was as follows: For the appointment: Messrs. Morrissey, O'Donnahill, O'Leary, Power, Kyne, Rev. Fr. Butler, Ven. Archdeacon Power, and Mrs. C. Griffin. Against, Messrs. N. Walsh, Fahey, Harly, Downer and Curran.

LECTURE ON WHEAT GROWING

County Waterford Committee of Agriculture
LECTURE ON WHEAT GROWING
 — in —
 Courthouse, Dungarvan
Friday, 19th March
 at 8 p.m.
 Mr. Eamonn Gallagher, M.Agr.Sc., Lecturer in Cereals Production, University College, Dublin, will give an illustrated talk on wheat growing and describe the practical work which is being done by the college to investigate problems such as the selection of a suitable variety of wheat for growing time of sowing, fertilisation, and harvesting. These investigations have been going on for the past five years and have resulted in much useful information becoming available which should be of interest to all wheat growers.

THE CHAIRMAN (Vn. Archdeacon D. Power, P.P.)

Mr. Walsh said he did not think anyone working for a local authority to-day was either overworked or underpaid. He proposed they do not make the appointment. Mr. M. O'Donnahill said the C.E.O. was the man in charge and he said there was need for the additional worker. In that case they should agree to it.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

CONRADH NA GAELIGE

The usual national collection for the language fund will be held at the churchgate, Cappoquin on La Fheil Padraig. All are asked to show their good will for the new revival effort by giving generously this year.

Plans to help implement the State plan for the revival, set out in the White Paper on the Language, are now being drawn up by Conradh na Gaelige all over the country and funds are urgently needed. Bialiste na Teangan ma sea.

LATE MR. J. MEADE We announce with deep regret the death of Mr. James Meade, which occurred at his residence on Saturday, 6th inst. The passing of this townsman, who was justly held in esteem and regard, has caused general sorrow.

For a long number of years as a postal servant, he had contact with the general public and was noted for his courtesy and urbanity in his official capacity. He was a well-read man and a delightful conversationalist, with a keen interest in world affairs.

In his youth he excelled as an oarsman and won many trophies with the local club, in which he took a great interest. As a mark of respect the club flag was flown at half-mast during the obsequies and members of the club acted as coffin-bearers. Proof of public sorrow at his passing was reflected in the very large attendance at the obsequies, many making a long journey to pay a last tribute.

The remains were removed to the parish church on Sunday, and on Monday the interment took place in St. Declan's Cemetery. Very Rev. J. Canon Kenneally, P.P., Rev. M. O'Meara, C.C.; Rev. Dr. Olden officiated on both occasions.

The chief mourners included: Mrs. E. Meade (widow); Joseph and J. Benedict, M.B.F.R.C.S. (sons); Gretta (daughter); Mrs. J. B. Meade (daughter-in-law); Miss N. O'Leary, Kinsale (sister-in-law); Mr. D. O'Leary, do (brother-in-law); Eamonn and Mrs. Coleman (nephew and niece); Mr. P. and Mrs. Barry Mallow (cousins); Mrs. Hoare Miss C. Hoare, Ballyferriter, Farrell family, Ballyduff, Cahill family, Cappoquin, Flanagan family, do. (relatives). (Funeral arrangements by A. Walsh and Sons, Cappoquin.)

LATE MR. WM. MAHER

Deep regret has been caused in the town and surrounding district because of the death of Mr. William Maher, which occurred at the District Hospital, Dungarvan last Saturday. He was resident here for many years, prior to his going to Clashganny, Newcastle. Well-known and much-liked, his passing is deeply regretted. Following High Mass in Newcastle Church on Monday, the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery.

LOURDES INVALID FUND

We are pleased to report that the Shrove Tuesday night dance in aid of the Lourdes Invalid Fund was generously patronised. Because of this success and extra subscriptions received, the members of the committee are happy to state that two invalids will be sent on the forthcoming pilgrimage. Through this column, the thanks of the committee goes to all who helped this deserving cause.

DEATH OF MR. J. SMYTH

The death of Mr. J. Smyth took place in the early hours of Wednesday morning. A complete obituary will be published in our next issue.

Dungarvan Bakeries Before Court On 'Novel' Charge

A CHARGE, the first of its kind to be brought before Dungarvan District Court and the first ever heard by District Justice Skinner since the Act was passed in 1936, was heard at Wednesday's Court in Dungarvan. The defendants were: A. Moloney & Sons, Ltd., Dungarvan; Joseph A. Power, O'Connell St., and Richard Dee, Mitchel St., and each was charged with permitting adult workers to carry on bakery work in their bakeries during the period of the night (10 p.m. to 6 a.m.) as prohibited by the Bakeries Act, 1936.

Bread was being baked and he spoke to the foreman, M. Sandford and he admitted that they were baking bread. He also inspected the bakery of Joseph A. Power at 4 a.m. and again observed bread being baked. Later that day he spoke to the owner and he said it was essential for them to work during those hours in order to compete with Messrs. Rank. At 4.55 a.m. he visited Dee's bakery and also saw bread being served.

Replied to Mr. A. R. Farrell (who appeared for A. Moloney & Sons and Joseph Power) Sgt. Hayes said he had been in Dungarvan for 2 1/2 years and there had been no complaint since the act came into force in 1936. He did not hear of any prosecutions of this kind.

Judge Skinner: In all my years as Judge I have heard of none either. Witness, further replying to Mr. Farrell, said the complaint was made by an outside source and he admitted that the workers involved made no complaint about their conditions. They told him the work had to be done in order to compete with big combined bakeries. The owners also told him that the hours were agreed to by themselves and the workers, who were being paid extra for the work. There was a total of 15 bakers in the 3 bakeries and it was said to him that they would have to close down if this early work was not allowed.

Supt. S. Fanning said the complaint came from the Irish Association of Master Bakers. Mr. Farrell said the bakers were quite satisfied that this work had to be done and they were being paid extra for it. There was no complaint over the years about this.

Mr. Farrell went on: "The position is that into this country have come big bakery combines. They have taken over a number of Irish bakeries. They have put in hundreds of thousands of pounds into buying huge storage plants to store the bread and it is not necessary for them to work these prohibited hours. Then in the morning their bread seems fresh. The local bakeries can only compete with these people by also turning out fresh bread in the mornings, making these working hours necessary. If this is not allowed, they will have to close down and that will be vast unemployment, not only in Dungarvan, but all over the country. The locals say the local bread is nicer, and the bakeries involved in this case intend to make representation to the Department to see if they can get concessions. This act does not apply in England."

Judge Skinner said his hands were tied by law, but he would adjourn this case to enable the bakeries involved to make representations to the Department.

Don't let your calves die

This Spring more calves will be born on our farms than ever before. Keep them alive. Scour is the most frequent cause of death. Modern drugs can help but the real answer lies in good management. For healthy, thriving calves watch these points:—

- Make sure they get biestings for the first few days after birth.
- Feed milk at body temperature and feed at least three times a day. Never over-feed.
- Keep each calf in an individual pen, if possible, for the first ten days — or at least in small groups.
- Isolate Bought-in calves.
- Make sure that all buckets are scrupulously clean.
- Thoroughly clean and disinfect each pen after the calf leaves it and before any other calf is put into it.
- Give the calf room to move.
- Prevent draughts, dampness and changes of temperature.
- Make sure each calf has a warm dry bed.
- Isolate immediately any sick calf. Have it treated without delay.

Aid to Agriculture

"23 million More in Aid to Farmers," the recent newspaper headlines called and the "knowing" ones again shrugged their shoulders and thought: "be got a bit there any end to what these farmers get?"

How true is the State aid to Agriculture picture? The Vote on Account for 1965/66 reveals that to spend on agriculture will be up by £4.5 million on 1964/65, but this figure includes £1.5 million which will be devoted to the administration of the Department of Agriculture. The exact breakdown of the allocation to agriculture will not be known until the Estimate for the Department is introduced in the Dail. But at this stage it might do no harm to have a look at the 1964/65 position.

Discounting Supplementary Estimates, which amounted to between £3m and £4 million, it was claimed that State aid to agriculture during the present year amounted to £43 million with the obvious implication that this money went into the farmers' pockets. The claim becomes utterly ridiculous when subjected to close examination as many items included should not be charged to the agricultural account at all. Included in the published breakdown of the £43 million we find grants for industry, grants for education, expenditure on social services and remission of tax. In addition there are several other forms of expenditure which affect farm income very remedially.

If the same yardstick was used in relation to State aid to industry, it would mean that the Exchequer was backing Irish industry to the tune of £300 million.

THE FACTS

This year £107 million was given in subsidies for bacon, butter and other milk products, but it was paid out so that these products could be sold on export markets where they had to compete with dumped goods from other countries. It was not paid as a bonus to Irish farmers whose produce sells at lower prices than that obtained in most continental countries.

Subsidies to reduce production costs amounted to £4,540,000. The ground limestone subsidy is paid to C.I.E. and not to farmers. The subsidy on phosphate fertiliser is to a great extent a subsidy to the Irish fertiliser industry to enable that industry to remain in production.

A sum of £533,000 was devoted to research and advisory and technical services. These facilities which are available on a more extensive scale to industry, are not officially classified as subsidies to industry. It therefore, seems unreasonable that these services should be called a subsidy to agriculture.

Amazing as it may seem, the entire amount of Government assistance—£1m.—to wards rural electrification is charged to agriculture. Yet towns, villages and industries throughout the country also benefit from rural electrification.

Also charged to agriculture was a capital for the Agricultural Corporation which amounted to £1,100,000. By no stretch of the imagination can this sum be regarded as a subsidy to agriculture. Investment by the State in the A.C.C. is a very sound business proposition. The A.C.C. lend money to farmers at a slightly less than prevailing bank rates and there is no element of "handout" involved.

"Subsidy" has come to sound like a dirty word to farmers because of all the misunderstanding it connotes. The Government should not be a party to or condone such misleading conceptions.

"UNFORGETTABLE MOMENTS" FOR AN IRISHMAN IN INDIA

The arrival of the seven Irish pedigree bulls in India is now part of history. They arrived safely in Bombay thanks to the care and attention of N.F.A. employee and agricultural student, 21 years old Frank Young of Athlone. Sometime later they were handed over with due ceremony to the Government of Andhra Pradesh.

But what were the feelings of the man who inspired the whole project? The Rev. B. G. Livingstone, M.A., is Director of Agricultural and Economic Projects in the State of Andhra Pradesh. It was his request to Ireland for a nucleus herd of pedigree cattle which brought the spontaneous response from the N.F.A. and the Ulster Farmers' Union.

He has his impression as he watched the arrival of the gift from Ireland: "All of us have moments of deep emotion which are impossible to describe and equally impossible to forget. The arrival of seven Irish bulls at Bombay is one of those experiences for which memory will always hold the door open. As I stood on the quay watching the 'Vista Kirtan' move slowly towards the landing stage the lump in my throat rose and a tear escaped the eye. If I had been asked to explain why, I could not have given a logical answer. It was one of those moments which transcend logic. The crates on the deck of that cargo ship were in some mysterious way sacramental. They were more than pieces of wood enclosing four foetal animals. Somehow a bit of Ireland had come; the outward and visible sign of affection, effort and achievement. To give it the flesh and blood of people, an Irish agricultural student (Frank Young) stood waving on the deck.

With customs formalities completed and the bulls safely loaded on the trucks for the four hundred miles journey to Hyderabad I had another brief moment for reflection: Was it all a dream? On St. Patrick's Day, less than a year ago I had suggested the possibility of Ireland's sending the nucleus of a small Jersey herd.

"And here they were on the soil of India, with two Kerry bulls thrown in for good measure. Waves of delight went through my mind; delight in a bold venture triumphantly completed; gratitude for the confidence, the companionship and the co-operation by which the victory had been won.

"The crowning moment came three weeks later, when, in the presence of the Irish Ambassador to India and of a distinguished gathering I had the privilege of presenting the bulls to the Government of Andhra Pradesh.

"As the Minister for Public Works laid his hand on the head of one of the bulls in token of grateful acceptance, I felt at that moment that the love and prayers of thousands of Irish people united above political and religious differences, were flowing through me for the blessing of God on India's needy millions.

"That was one of the unforgettable moments of a lifetime."

WAS IT A DREAM

Efficient marketing facilities, adequate drying and storage accommodation and the supervision by a Grain Board of oat imports are the most urgent requirements of the Irish oat industry. This is the view of Mr. John Orpen, Vice-President, N.F.A., and a member of the N.F.A. National Grain Committee; he was commenting on the Report of the Survey Team on the Oatmeal Milling Industry.

Mr. Orpen pointed out that the oatmeal milling industry dealt with only about 6% of the total oats production, the rest being used as feed either on the farms where it was produced or to horses.

"The Report," said Mr. Orpen, "stressed that Irish oats, if properly harvested, dried and milled is capable of producing oatmeal of the highest quality. The problem facing both millers and farmers today is that since the introduction of the combine harvester, no proper provision has been made for drying and storing the requirements of the oatmeal milling industry. The Survey Team's recommendations to improve facilities for making the necessary drying and storage accommodation available, are timely and necessary."

He pointed out that for a number of years the N.F.A. had suggested that there

What is urgently needed is some officially appointed body, commission or otherwise charged with exploring the ways in which local financing can be reformed, not simply engaging in research but working under mandate to provide a positive plan. Its guiding lights must be equity and efficiency. And it must brook no delays.

"Every farmer who marries in his early twenties should get a special medal, because he is a national asset and anyone who hinders or impedes him in doing so should be treated as a social menace."—Mr. C. Haughey, Minister for Agriculture.

DEATH OF MR. DECLAN GEAZLEY

The death occurred recently of Mr. Declan Geazley, a native of Clashmore. A member of a well known family, deceased, who spent some of his life abroad, was a leading exponent of Irish traditional music and was a gifted performer on the accordion and harmonica.

The funeral to Clashmore Cemetery was of a large and representative nature. Rev. E. Tobin, C.C., Clashmore, officiated.

HARRIERS' GOOD DAY

The Kinsalebeg-Clashmore Harriers, who are having a good season's sport, met at Lickey on Sunday last, when a big field turned out. Foxes were plentiful and a few exhilarating runs were secured.

HIGH COST OF WATER SCHEME

Much of local government's public image must be attributed to Mr. Blaney and his Dept. The current controversy surrounding the water scheme in the Mordello area of Co. Waterford leaves a bad taste in many mouths. While a local deputation claimed that the scheme could be completed at a cost of £100,000, the Co. Council were quoting a cost of £282,000—a most £100 per house connected.

Even councillors were perturbed after the deputation had made their submission. Some of them acknowledged that there was something "radically wrong" with the cost of the scheme.

The alarming inconsistency in the estimated costs forced Mr. R. Deasy, President, N.F.A., to comment last week: "I am bound to point out that as long as the Government goes on taking out of the national resources for national economic development and at the same time allows the Department of Local Government to push Regional Water Schemes regardless of economic considerations, local circumstances and of the suitability of the supply for such purposes as milk cooling, the Government remains open to accusations of insincerity."

But Mr. Orpen would have liked to see the Survey Team giving more attention to the problems raised through importing oats. Even though these imports were strictly limited, they were a hazard to the home-grower in that they were used to impede the marketing of the home-grown crop.

"We think," said Mr. Orpen, "that if these imports were supervised by the Grain Board this abuse could be prevented."

WORKING GROUP APPOINTED

The N.F.A. Rural Development Committee has appointed a seven-man Working Group which will act as a steering body to the Committee. A ten-point programme, ranging from grain projects to tender his courses, was agreed to during the four-hour meeting and will be pushed during the coming months. Those appointed to the Working Group are: Mr. J. Dunphy, Sligo; Mr. Hugh Leddy, Leitrim; Mr. Cyril Booth, Kildare; Mr. T. Finnehan, Roscommon; Mr. D. McCarthy, Cork; Mr. B. Donohue, Cavan; and Mr. E. Duggan, Galway.

SALMON FISHING

So far the salmon fishing season in this area has been rather slack and all crews report poor catches. Unfavourable weather conditions are stated to be mainly responsible for the scarcity of fish and it is confidently expected that there will be an improvement with the advent of milder weather.

ON THE LAND

Ploughing operations are now well advanced due to the long spell of dry weather. An increased tillage acreage is expected following the granting of prices for wheat, barley and beet. Grass is still rather scarce and as a result milk yields are still low.

PROPOSED NEW ROADS

The Secretary of Waterford County Council has addressed the following letter to Mr. C. Curran, M.C.C.:

"I wish to acknowledge receipt of your letter indicating your proposal to have road at Ballymacart and road known as 'The Commons' at Villersstown taken over by Waterford County Council. I am referring the matter to the County Engineer for his recommendation in the matter, which will be laid before the Council in due course.

Your proposal to have extension of back road at Drogheda taken over has already been submitted to the County Engineer."

Slander Case Settled • KILROSSANTY FACE U.A.C.

The President of the High Court (Mr. Justice Davitt) was told on Monday morning that an action brought against a Cappoquin publican, claiming damages for breach of promise of marriage, and slander, had been settled on terms of a public apology, and the payment of sums for damages, costs and expenses.

The publican is James Colender, Cappoquin, and he was sued by Miss Helen Wall, who is employed as a nurse in New York, but who is at Kibree, Cappoquin.

Mr. Wall complained that Mr. Colender had refused to fulfil his agreement to marry her on August 22, 1963. She further complained that he had falsely and maliciously published on her that she was unchaste, which she knew to be untrue, and had purported to use this allegation for justifying the breach of his agreement to marry her.

When the case was called, Mr. J. A. D'Arcy, S.C. (for Mr. Wall) said it had been settled on the terms that Mr. Colender would pay £1,000 damages, £212 expenses and £450 costs and that, by his counsel, he would make an apology in open court in terms which had been agreed upon. The terms of the apology would be scheduled to the formal consent which would be filed in the court.

Mr. Niall McCarthy, S.C., said that he had been instructed by Mr. Colender to make the following apology: "I hereby, unconditionally and unreservedly, apologise for believing an alleged charge and imputations which were wrongly made against the plaintiff or her character. All such charges are a disavowal of fact."

"My client," said Mr. McCarthy, "desires me unconditionally to express his apology to the plaintiff by such means as she may see fit to accept."

Mr. Frederick Morris (instructed by Messrs. Farrell & Morris) and Mr. D. F. Sheehan (instructed by Messrs. E. A. Ryan and Co.) were with Mr. McCarthy.

At the time of writing, the Kilrossanty team has not been chosen, but needless to say, they will field their strongest possible fifteen. Matly Loneragan's return after a lengthy lay-off seems imminent and his presence will boost the defence still further.

But if the Comeragh men are to entertain any hopes of victory, their attack will have to show considerable improvement on their championship display of last year. The attack is undoubtedly the weakest sector of this side, and Sunday's success will have to make use of every scoring opportunity to "remain in the hunt."

One cannot look beyond a U.C.C. victory, but we feature Kilrossanty will uphold the prestige of club and county in this competition.

INTERESTING CHALLENGE GAME

Abbey's hurling team will play U.C.C. in a challenge game at the Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on St. Patrick's Day, at 5 p.m.

FOOTBALLERS FLOP

Waterford senior footballers struck rock bottom form in their vital N.F.L. game against Limerick on Sunday last, when they were defeated on the score 0-10 to 0-6. This defeat ends Waterford's interest in the league.

ALL SET FOR KILMAC SCHOOL

At last Tuesday's meeting of County Waterford Vocational Education Committee the C.E.O. (Mr. Ruhe) said the revised sketch plans for Kilmacross technical school were passed as satisfactory by the Dept. and the working plans were now being prepared.

Mr. Fahey said they had at last got the green light for Kilmac school.

The committee decided to instruct their architect to go ahead with the working plans.

MEETING RE MENTALLY RETARDED SCHOOL

A further meeting in connection with the establishment of a five day residential and day school for Mentally retarded children, under the care of the Sisters of Mercy, Cappoquin, was presided over in the Mercy Convent, Cappoquin, on Monday night by Mr. Norman Walsh. The attendance included: Rev. Fr. O'Meara, C.C., Cappoquin; Rev. D. Byrne, C.C., Abbey; Dr. McMahon, M.O., Cappoquin; H. R. Dowd, M.C.C.; F. O'Leary, C.C. Accountant; J. A. Hayes, Secretary, Waterford Health Authority; Nurse B. Egan, Public Health Section, Mission; Mr. K. Kelly, Secretary, representatives of different areas of Co. Waterford, and east Cork.

It was decided to set up area Committees to promote the project and to raise the necessary funds.

Then in all the circumstances proposed by Mr. J. McCarthy, B.A. and seconded by H. R. Dowd, M.C.C., to Mr. N. Walsh, for presiding.

OUTSTANDING PERFORMANCE BY BALLROAD PLAYERS

On Sunday last, 7th inst., Ballinroad Parish Hall Players staged that well-known comedy "Love and Land" by Lynn Doyle, in Ballinroad Hall. It was their first show of the season and they played to a capacity house. In the past eight years this well-known and talented group have been producing plays, and this year's production is one of their best to date.

Thomas Keating, Sean O'Brien and Tom Curran, who have been with this group since its foundation, gave a first-class and flawless performance on Sunday night. They played their respective parts to perfection and drew rounds of applause and drew rounds of laughter from the audience by their witty and humorous asides. Michael Power, who first played with this group last year, was a great success and gave an outstanding performance in his role as farmer Peter O'Hara. Joe Sheehan, who has been a great back-stage worker for some years past, was of stage for the very first time and gave a very good account of himself as Billy Rourke, a postman.

The Walsh sisters, Vera and Marcella and Ann Tyrrell gave their usual first class performance; their acting and diction left nothing to be desired.

In the supporting programme Sean O'Brien and Martin Walsh sang, while Mary Morrissey, Noeen O'Connell and Brenda Eisele danced. These little stars all under 10 years, delighted the audience, while the senior actresses Ann Cashin, Maureen Power, Brenda Power, drew rounds of applause from the thronged hall. Music was supplied by Willie White and his group.

At the end of the show, Fr. M. Walsh, C.C., President of the Hall Committee, congratulated the members of the cast on the excellence of their performance. Such a high standard of acting, he said, could not have been achieved without much hard work and serious preparation. These young people had sacrificed much of their free time in preparing for this show, and their efforts have been richly rewarded here to-night, for the spontaneous laughter and applause from the audience, are proof positive of the excellence of their performance.

Fr. Walsh next went on to thank the singers, dancers, musicians and all who contributed to the success of the night's entertainment. He had a special word of thanks for Richie Walsh, a very capable M.C., who called him a "us" for Thomas Morrissey, the Producer of the Play. Thomas Morrissey was an "old stager," said Fr. Walsh, he had acted in many plays in Ballinroad in the past, and from long experience of the stage, was the ideal producer.

Fr. Walsh went on to thank the Hall Committee, Chairman, Jim Morrissey; Declan Foley; Dick Kelly; Jim Coughlan, for their great interest in the affairs of the hall and their unstinting loyalty. He thanked the lady members, Mrs. D. Foley and Mrs. Richie Morrissey, who said Fr. Walsh, were busy at the moment preparing refreshments for the members of the show.

Lastly, but not least, he said, would like to thank you the audience, for your moral and financial support. You were the perfect audience, you clapped at the right time, and laughed at the right time. Your presence here, tonight, in such large numbers, from many surrounding parishes, is a clear indication of the high reputation the Ballinroad Players have established for themselves in these parts.

The night's entertainment was brought to a conclusion by the singing of the National Anthem.

LATE MRS. B. MEANY (nee Morrissey) TALLOW NOTES

CLONEA, DUNGARVAN

It is with deep regret that we record the passing of Mrs. Bridget Meany, which sad event occurred at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, on Tuesday, March 2nd, after a short period of illness and at a comparatively early age. She was the wife of a well-known member of the farming community. She was a member of a very well known mid-Waterford family and was sister of the late Michael Morrissey, T.D. Her charming and delightful manner won for her very many lifelong and true friendships. Much sympathy is extended to her heartbroken husband and daughter, Mrs. Daniel Looby, Clonea.

The removal of her remains took place on Wednesday evening to Garranbane Church, followed by a huge cortege, consisting of all sections of the community, and the coffin was received and blessed by Rev. M. Walsh, C.C.

Requiem Mass was celebrated on Thursday morning for the repose of her gentle soul and the coffin was then placed in the family vault. Rev. M. Walsh, C.C., assisted by Very Rev. J. Roche, P.P., officiated at the interment. Another very large concourse were present.

The chief mourners were: Pierce Meany, Clonea (husband); Mrs. Daniel Looby, do. (daughter); Thomas Morrissey, Augustine Morrissey, Harbour View, Dungarvan, James Morrissey, Ballyvoile (brother); Daniel Looby (son-in-law); grandchildren and a large circle of relatives.

Very many sheaves of Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy were received.

WEDDING BELLS: RYAN-BARRY

The wedding took place at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Tallow, on Tuesday, 2nd March, of Mr. John Ryan, son of the late Patrick Ryan, and Mrs. Bridget Ryan, Aragon, Co. Cork, and Miss Margaret Barry, daughter of the late Patrick Barry, and Mrs. Hanora Barry, Ballyduff Upper.

The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, was performed by Very Rev. H. O'Brien, P.P., Tallow, Miss Joan Barry was bridesmaid and the best man was Mr. Patrick O'Keefe, Dublin.

Following the reception, which was attended by fifty guests, the happy couple left on their honeymoon.

(Funeral arrangements by J. Kieley & Sons, Shandon, Dungarvan.)
