WEST WATERFORD NEWS

SYMPATHY Kinsalebeg-Clashmore Harrier Club tendered sympathy to Mr. William Kelleher, on the death of his brother.

HUNTING The Kinsalebeg-Clashmore Harriers met at Ballycurran on Sunday last and had a good day's sport. The Mill Wood yielded two foxes. Foxes, hounds were in charge of Mr. James Fitzgerald, Master.

THE ELECTION So far the General Election campaign has been remarkably quiet in this area. On Sunday last, both E.G. and Labour were particularly busy and the latter party held a number of successful after Mass meetings. Great interest is being taken in the candidature of Mr. John Fahy M.C.C. who is the only Co. Waterford man contesting the West Waterford/South Tipperary constituency. G.A.A. On Sunday last, Aglish (Geraldines) met Clashmore in a challenge football game. Following a good display by both sides, a draw (four points each) resulted.

SUNDAY LAST Summerlike weather conditions prevailed in this area on Sunday last and there was heavy traffic on all roads. Quite a number of people visited the seaside.

ROADS REMOVED Two sharp bends at road junctions on the main road at Ballinure and Creggs have been removed. This will contribute to road safety at the points mentioned.

TALLOW NOTES A BIG DAY AT TALLOW Tallow had a big day on Sunday last when, after weeks of voluntary effort in putting the finishing touches to the new gaelic field, two hurling games were played there. A few years ago the outlook for hurling in Tallow was indeed a gloomy one as they had no gaelic field in which to practice or play the games of the gael. A committee was formed, and luckily for them, a field was for sale near the town. This was acquired despite the price of £2,000, and the Committee, led by Ned Power, N.T., Waterford county gaelic, got to work to reduce the debt. Non-stop draws were run; plays were staged by the local Drama Group, and exiles were circulated, and in this way the debt was greatly reduced. The Committee must have felt a sense of pride on Sunday when they saw the fruits of their labours over the past six weeks blossom. A gloriously fine spring day with brilliant sunshine favoured them, and the large crowd present saw some good hurling. The curtain-raiser was a meeting of St. Laurence's Ballynoe minor hurling team and Tallow. The Ballynoe lads, however, could not match the more stylish and fast Tallow team, who ran out winners on the score 5-1 to 2-2. Tallow: M. Curley (goal); T. McSweeney, P. McNamara, P. Sheehan; J. Curley, A. McCarthy, J. Hartigan; T. Cotter, M. Curley; T. Frazer, J. O'Brien, M. Pratt; J. Tobin, J. Hogan, T. Daly Subs, T. Beecher and P. McNamara. St. Laurence's: J. Aherne (goal); F. Leahy, J. Cronin, W. Hayes; B. O'Connell, W. J. Fitzgerald, D. Hynes, A. Kelleher, R. Carr; M. Hegarty, D. O'Neill, W. O'Connell, E. Walsh, J. O'Mahony; G. Roche, Referee: John Lyons, Tallow. The big game was the clash between Abbotside and Holy Cross, and a full report of this game appears elsewhere in this issue.

Kyne Criticises Inadequacies of Health Service, Old Age and I.R.A. Pensions, Education

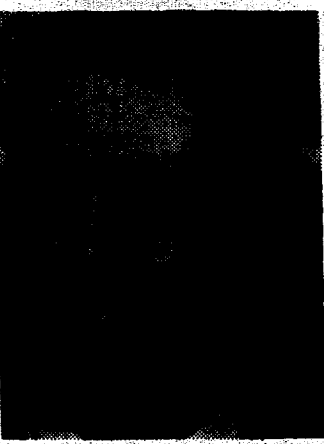

LABOUR'S PLAN TO REMEDY ILLS

Deputy Kyne, speaking at Ballinacourty during the week said that all who deplored the present method of administering the Health Services should remember that the officials carrying out the regulations were only doing what the Government decided was to be done. The probing into the means of every member of a family before issuing a medical card, arose from a direct Ministerial order or regulation. The Labour Party proposed to press for the early amendment of this clause and to make the Health Services free to all the people, as in Gt. Britain. The choice of doctor, where available, was another desirable amendment that the Labour Party were committed to if they had the balance of power.

Everyone now agreed that Social Welfare benefits were disgraceful and both Fine Gael and Fianna Fail were lavish in their promises to have them increased. It was only last year that a Labour Party motion to have this done was defeated by a large majority of the Dail every Fianna Fail deputy voting against the motion and not even showing any sympathy with the Old Age pensioners by abstaining. The Labour Party alone had pledged their support for increased taxation on luxury goods to provide the necessary monies to carry out the increases that would give the Social Welfare Non-contributory groups something decent to live on.

Old I.R.A. men in receipt of a special allowance should remember that it was the present Government that had given them the disgraceful increase of £4 per year to compensate for the 12th round wage increase got by the organised workers.

Free secondary education was an objective of a Labour Government as a first step towards all children being entitled to the education their intelligence permitted and not have it limited by their parents income.

If Fianna Fail refused to accept the task of forming a Government if they were the largest Party returned at the polls, then they would have to accept the responsibility for Fine Gael coming into power, as the Labour Party had made it clear they were not entering into any Coalition, but at the same time recognised that the country must have a government.

"FAHEY FOR WATERFORD"

Addressing week-end meetings, Mr. C. Curran, M.C.C. appealed to the people of West Waterford (South Tipperary Constituency) to forget politics for one day and vote for the ONLY candidate who was a Waterford man, MR JOHN FAHEY, M.C.C. "In their own interests," said Mr. Curran, the people of West Waterford should forget their political affiliations for one day and vote for Mr. Fahey who could be relied upon to work zealously and unselfishly for them."

He said West Waterford was a depressed area due, chiefly, to the fact that the area had been denied direct representation in the Dail. While other areas progressed under the Programme for Economic Expansion "this part of Waterford was sadly neglected, with disastrous results—emigration, unemployment etc."

Mr. Fahey, who was an outstanding and dedicated public representative, had also the advantage of being the only candidate who was a member of the Waterford Co. Council and Health Authority in which capacities he was in a position to give immediate advice and assistance to those he represented.

A practical farmer, Mr. Fahey had a very special interest in the workers and the sick, and weaker sections of the community. West Water-ford's only hope to secure an industry was to elect a Waterford man to represent them in the National Parliament. Too long they had been dependent on others.

If elected, Mr. Fahey could be relied on to visit each area at regular intervals to meet the people, to discuss their problems with them and assist them to resolve these problems.

The people should realize that their own welfare was more important than any political party and if they were concerned with their welfare, they should support Fahey. Their slogan on Polling Day" should be "Fahey for West Waterford."

KYNE No. 1

Late Mrs. Mary B. Morrissey (NEE DUNLEA)

Ballycoe, Dungarvan

It is our sad duty to record the death of Mrs. Mary B. Morrissey, which occurred at Ardkreen General Hospital, on Monday, March 29th, after a short duration of illness, but at the allotted span. She was wife of Patrick Morrissey who is very well known in agricultural and horticultural circles in the county. The deceased lady was a member of a very old Dungarvan family, who traded in the business life of the town for a long number of years. Her popularity was widespread, as she was the possessor of many outstanding qualifications, gentleness, retiring disposition and Christian charity.

We express our deepest sympathy to her husband Patrick, sons, daughters, sister and relatives, on this sad occasion.

Her remains were removed on Tuesday evening to Ballinacourty Church, followed by a very large and impressive cortege and her coffin was blessed and received by Rev. M. Walsh, C.C., assisted by Very Rev. Fr. Butler, O.S.A., Rector, Dungarvan.

Solemn Requiem Office and High Mass was sung on Wednesday morning for the repose of her soul and the interment took place in the adjoining family plot. Another large concourse were present. Rev. Wm. Dunlea, C.C., Rathnew, Co. Wicklow (nephew), was celebrant of the Mass and also officiated at the graveside, assisted by Ven. Archdeacon D. Power, P.P., V.F., Dungarvan; Very Rev. D. McGrath, P.P., Kilgobinet; Rev. D. O'Byrne, C.C., Dungarvan; Rev. W. Power, C.C., do.; Rev. J. Murphy, C.C., do.; Rev. M. Walsh, C.C., Abbey-side; Rev. M. Farrell, C.C., Kilgobinet, and Very Rev. Fr. Butler, O.S.A., Rector, Dungarvan.

The chief mourners were: Patrick Morrissey (husband); Patrick, Canada; John Ballinacourty and Liam Morrissey, B.D.S., Waterford Health Authority (sons); Gay Morrissey, Canada; Kathleen Morrissey, Dublin (daughters); Mrs. E. Sheedy, Tramore (sister); Donal Sheedy, do. (nephew). Large sheaves of Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy were received by her family. (Funeral arrangements by J. Kiely & Sons, Dungarvan.)

- More jobs and people better off
- Salaries and wages increased
- Farm Income up by £21 million last year
- An increasing population
- Output in agriculture and industry at record levels

GAELIC JOTTINGS

LETTER TO THE EDITOR A COLOURFUL CANDIDATE

TALLOW HAVE SET EXAMPLE TO BE FOLLOWED

On Sunday last I made the journey to Tallow for the game between Abbeyside and Holycross to mark the opening of the Tallow Club's new ground. Straight away let me say I was impressed almost beyond belief at what I saw. Here is a pitch situated in the midst of scenic beauty, and within a stone's throw of the town itself. With the exception of a small area in one of the goalmouths the playing surface is perfect, whilst all around the pitch a timber railing has been erected. There is also a sideline, capable of holding quite a sizable number of spectators.

The acquiring of this splendid ground has undoubtedly set the Tallow club back a pretty penny but such is the spirit and dedication of the men behind it all that this will not deter them in any way. In fact mentors are not just satisfied yet and further improvements are envisaged in the not too distant future.

Having seen the ground, I can fully appreciate the amount of hard work that has been put into it. It took courage to undertake so great a venture but then courage is one thing these Tallow men possess in abundance. They must be feeling justifiably proud of their work to date, as quite candidly their new ground is fit to stage a game of the greatest importance.

The Tallow men have truly set an example, that every club without their own ground would do well to follow.

LIMERICK ARE WELCOME VISITORS

There was a time when a visit to Dungarvan by Limerick's senior hurlers would arouse tremendous County wide appeal. That was the era of the Mackeys, but today the Shannonsiders have fallen on lean times, and it has been many a long day since Limerick has made its mark on the hurling scene. But of late they have been making strides in the right direction, and because of the importance of their clash with Waterford on Sunday next, there should be a big crowd at Dungarvan's Fraher field.

Likewise, it is not often that Dungarvan stages a big game such as this, and it is good to see this once famous venue, where All-Ireland finals were played, back in the "big time".

Elsewhere in this issue the game will be fully previewed. Waterford however, with the major share of vocal support, are confidently expected to take the league points, and thus earn for themselves a place in the semi-finals of the competition.

PROGRAMMES ON SALE Incidentally, there will be programmes on sale at Sunday's match, the proceeds of which will be in aid of the Christian Brothers (Dungarvan) Building Fund.

THE PIKE'S SUCCESSFUL FOOTBALL DEBUT

The Pike, once a football stronghold in the county, are back in "business" with a bang. Having lapsed for a number of years, it was only a few short months ago that it was decided to revive it and on Sunday last the Club made its debut in the junior football winter league against Cappoquin at Dungarvan.

And what a debut it turned out to be. Their opponents, though below full strength, were from the intermediate grade, but they had no answer to a Pike team that scored a great 4-4 to 0-4 victory. In fact, so clear cut was this victory, that it is extremely doubtful if Cappoquin would have reversed the result even had they been at full strength.

Yes, make no mistake about it, this Pike team under their able trainer Monnie Maguire, could be quite a force in the coming junior championship. On Sunday last they started slowly, and for the opening ten minutes it was all Cappoquin, at which stage the Cornerstone men seemed to be heading for an easy victory.

But the Pike had entirely different ideas. Soon they succeeded in breaking that Cappoquin dominance and for the opening ten minutes it was all Cappoquin, at which stage the Cornerstone men seemed to be heading for an easy victory.

After the break the Pike, now playing in inspired fashion, continued to dictate the trend of the game, and they ran out thoroughly deserving winners.

This was a splendid team effort by the winners. Every man played a noble part in their great win, and it would be grossly unfair to single out any player for particular mention.

Cappoquin, below strength though they were, gave a most insipid display. They played like winners for the opening ten minutes, but once the Pike scored their first goal, they faded completely from the picture.

TUG-O-WAR NEWS

On Friday night, the 26th inst., a revolutionary Meeting was held in the Devonshire Arms Hotel, Dungarvan. The purpose of the meeting was to form a County Tug-o-war Association. A strong contingent of giants showed up, representative of the county at large.

Delegates came from Ballyduff, Waterford, and practically every corner of the County. The delegates attending were most of all concerned with the formation of a County Association to put tug-o-war on its recognised status so that one day they may be in a position to compete at top level. A County Association was formed and the following officers were elected, Chairman, Mr. Jeremiah Hickey, Ballyduff; Vice-Chairman, Mr. John Brown; Sec., Mr. John Carroll, Ballyvoile and Mr. P. J. Gordon, treas. Big events will be forthcoming at both ends of the rope and the committee will be very busy preparing their programme for 1966. It is expected that a number of local clubs will now affiliate with the parent body and the coming season should see tug-o-war at its best in Co. Waterford.

There appears to be some misunderstanding arising out of the proposal to put forward three Fianna Fail candidates for Waterford constituency. The facts are as follows:—

On the afternoon of Tuesday, 23rd March, I received a telegram from Mr. Joe Roome, F.F. Headquarters, asking me to meet him in Waterford that evening. When I arrived in the City Mr. Roome explained the position to me and invited me to stand as third F.F. candidate for Waterford. When I consented he gave me full instructions re nomination etc. and told me that F.F. Election Headquarters in Waterford would be notified of the decision. I am aware that Election H.Q. was in fact so informed within an hour.

Mr. Groome's statement to me was clear and unambiguous and left no grounds for any misunderstanding.

On the afternoon of the following day, after I had completed my nomination papers and set my election machinery in motion, I received a telephone message from election H.Q. in Waterford that I was not a candidate and later in the same day got the following telegram, "Change made—Groome."

It would appear that there is some confusion in F.F. H.Q. as to what actually transpired and I may mention that the Taoiseach has sent me a kind and courteous personal letter in connection with the matter. (Signed) CHARLES CURRAN

Late Rev. Mother Margaret Shaw

The death occurred on the 27th March, of Rev. Mother Margaret Shaw, O.C.S.O., Lady Abbess, of St. Mary's Abbey, Glencairn, County Waterford.

Mother Margaret, a native of Birmingham, was a member of the Community of the Holy Cross Abbey, Staplehill, Dorset, when in 1932 she was designated as one of the foundresses of Glencairn. She held office as Abbess from 1944 until 1950, and again from 1958 until her death. She had been re-elected last year for a further term of six years.

The sudden death of this saintly nun at the age of 68, has come as a shock not only to the bereaved community of Glencairn, but to all who were privileged to have met her.

Two of Mother Margaret's sisters are Poor Clare nuns, one in Workington and one in Edinburgh.

Feature of the week's Election campaign have been the rousing speeches both in Irish and English of MR. RICHARD A. WALSH, one of the two Fine Gael candidates. We also learn that he was engaged in negotiations with two German industrialists during the week regarding setting up of a highly concentrated food factory in the town.

how many chickens can you rear for fourpence?

For fourpence you can rear 3 chickens from day-old to maturity with an electric infra-red lamp—at your service, at the touch of a switch. You can also use electric infra red heating to keep bonhams and indeed any small, young animals warm and safe. This is just one of the ways in which electricity cuts the cost and adds to the efficiency of your farming. Your local E.S.B. representative is at your service to advise you on the best and most economic equipment to meet your needs. Electric infra red lamps are available from 19s. 6d.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

A. Chara,
Through the medium of your paper, I wish to thank very sincerely the many people from different parts of Co. Waterford, who have either called on or written to me concerning a recent political decision. The decision referred to will in no way retard any work for the people of Waterford, irrespective of any political affiliations. It is encouraging to know that my policy of economy and efficiency on the County Council is appreciated by the general public, especially the farmers and workers in whom I have a very special interest. Needless to say, I shall continue to support the F.F. Policy, which policy is, I am satisfied, the best for the people and the nation. I was most anxious to take an active part in support of F.F. in the Waterford constituency, but I have been obliged to confine my activities to assisting the F.F. candidates in West Waterford—South Tipperary and East Cork.

Is mise le meas,
C. CURRAN, M.C.C.

SALMON FISHING
Last week the catches of salmon by nets in the tidal area were rather poor. The majority of boats had a disastrous week and a few boats had some luck. The same applied upriver: at Ardmore and Knockadon. One boat took 20 salmon for the week in the Bay and prior to that had only one single salmon since the opening of the season on February 1st. There was a marked improvement in the catches by rods as a result of recent rains which permitted the fish to travel to the upper reaches. The price last week to fishermen was 6/6 per lb.

FIRE OUTBREAK

At 3.30 a.m., on Sunday last the Youghal Fire Brigade was summoned to a fire at the fish store and office of Captain P. J. Walsh, situated in the Market Square, opposite the Fire Station. Fairly considerable damage was done before the outbreak was got under control after two hours. The alarm was raised by Mr. C. Hennessy, living next door. He was awakened by an explosion that blew out one of the front windows of the building. Station Officer, M. Roche, was in charge of the brigade.

SUCCESSFUL COURT APPEAL

An appeal against a District Court Conviction for assault came before Judge Meyler at Youghal Circuit Court. The appeal was on behalf of John Hogan of Sarsfield's Terrace, Youghal, who was sentenced to three months imprisonment for assaulting two men at Youghal on August 9, last. Having heard the evidence, His Lordship took the defendant to produce at the Moy sitting of the Court in Middleton a certificate of taking the pledge. He also made it a condition of the bond that he would undertake to keep away from the two parties involved, and he warned the defendant that if he broke these conditions he would go to jail.

PREPARATIONS FOR TOURIST SEASON

Recently a deputation consisting of Mr. P. J. Linehan, Chairman, U.D.C. with Colrs. Good and Lupton, and Mr. F. McInerney (Town Clerk), met officers of the Dept. of Local Government, in Dublin, when a full discussion took place on the improvements to the Strand area. The revised plan of the elaborate children's play ground at Claycastle was fully explained to the officers by the Architect Mr. O'Higgins. The members of the Department stressed on the Department the desirability of having the work in progress at an early date. It was agreed that Mr. Jackson of the Board of Works would submit a report on the erosion problem and if such report is favourable the Dept. will be prepared to give very favourable consideration to the Council's proposals for the development of Youghal as a sea-side resort.

YOUGHAL REGATTA

The Youghal Regatta and fireworks display will be on a most elaborate scale this year under the auspices of the Youghal Boat Club. Aquatic events will be included in the regatta for the first time in the town and the fireworks will be in great variety.

LIFE BOAT HOUSE ALTERATIONS

The plans of proposed alteration to the Life-Boat House on the sea front have been submitted to the Youghal Harbour Commissioners and have been approved of, subject to examination by the Town Surveyor. The present house is to be enlarged considerably to make room for a larger boat. Due to arrive in Youghal in the next few months. In addition to the house alterations the present iron skids are to be raised so that the boat can enter the water at the lowest possible tide.

RECENT WEDDING

The wedding took place at St. Michael's Church, Clonmel, on St. Patrick's day, between Miss Herbert and a young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Evans of North Main Street, Youghal, and Mr. Martin Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Murray, of Knockmore. The bridesmaid was Miss Annetta Reilly, sister of the bride, and the best man was Mr. John Murray, brother of the groom. The reception was held at Lismore Hotel.

Lismore Notes

DEATH OF MRS. N. MADIGAN

Deep and widespread regret has been occasioned by the death of Mrs. Nora Madigan (nee Nugent) which sad event occurred at her residential New York home last week. The deceased lady who was a native of Ballysaggart Lismore, was a member of a very old and highly esteemed family. She is survived by her husband and was sister of Jack Nugent, South Mall, Lismore, and Tom Nugent, Ballysaggart, and also has a sister a nun, to whom our deepest sympathy is tendered.

The remains were removed via Shannon airport to St. Carthage's Church, Lismore, on Sunday evening and were received and blessed by Very Rev. Canon Dunphy, P.P., V.F. assisted by Rev. Fr. Queally, C.C., and Rev. Fr. Slattery, C.C. and the burial took place on Monday in St. Carthage's cemetery, the same clergy officiating at the graveside.

Large and representative corteges attended both funeral and burial.

LISMORE MAY GET CATTLE MART

A very largely attended public meeting representative of business and farming interests in the area was held at Lismore recently to consider the possibility of establishing a cattle mart in the town. The meeting was sponsored jointly by the Lismore Macra na Feirme and Lismore Development Association. Mr. Brian Pearce was in the chair. A final decision was deferred pending the result of a livestock census of the area which it was decided to undertake. The meeting was advised that the Committee of the Dungarvan Mart were anxious to meet representatives from the meeting to discuss the situation and a committee of ten was appointed to meet the Dungarvan representatives.

SUCCESSFUL CONCERT

Packed and appreciative audiences attended both the matinee and night performances of the concert sponsored by the Lismore Junior Presbytery of the Legion of Mary in the Courthouse, on Sunday last. It was an excellently produced concert, in fact one of the best ever presented in the town.

There were vocal items by Mrs. Margaret Madden, and the Misses Elaine Glass and Mary Walsh, Clonmel. Dancers, Wm. O'Leary, John and Bob O'Leary, Jimmy Patten, Bert Cunningham and Willie O'Hara also gave some rousing "Clancy Brothers" numbers.

The Prendergast Quintet from Tallow (four brothers and a sister), plus their two-year-old member of the family (on baby guitar) Martin, gave a great performance. Concluding the programme were the popular Bridesiders Showband.

Exhibitions of Irish step dancing were also given by the senior pupils of the Presentation Convent whilst a hilarious one-act comedy was one of the highlights of the night. The cast of this comedy was: Eileen O'Brien, Bette Howard, Jimmy Geoghagan, Sean Sullivan, Padu Pollard and Jarleth Daly.

Mr. Frank Walsh was an excellent master of ceremonies.

At the conclusion of the night's performance, Mr. Matt Gough, thanked all the artists who had taken part and also the public for their wonderful support.

Lismore C.B.S. 5-1. Templemore C.B.S. 4-4.

A great second half rally enabled Lismore C.B.S. to draw with Templemore CBS in a thrilling final of the Dr. Kinane (J.H.) Cup at Cashel on Wednesday.

At half-time it looked as if Lismore would be heavily defeated, but inspired by their brilliant midfielder Ml. McGrath they rallied magnificently and fully deserved to draw.

Besides McGrath, Lismore had stars in goalkeeper O'Sullivan, defender Fleming, Scanlon and Cotter and forward Jimmy Geoghagan, Frazer, Buckley and Sheehan.

Abbeyside Sparkle in VITAL TEST AT DUNGARVAN

Defeat of Holycross Waterford taken to qualify for League Semi-Final

Abbeyside 6-5 Holycross 4-4

IN a game to mark the opening of the new Gaelic Field in Tallow on Sunday last with a sparkling display to defeat Tipperary county finalists of last year, Holycross. Even though below full strength, the Villagers were too good for the Tipp. men and gave further warning to all and sundry that '65 could well be their year of glory.

The weather conditions were simply glorious for this memorable occasion and the big crowd basked in the summer like conditions. The pitch was in perfect condition, a real credit to the Tallow Club members, and was beautifully railed off all the way round. There was also a splendidly comfortable sideline on Sunday and very little improvement would make it one of the best venues in the county. The pitch deserves recognition by the appropriate Boards within the County, and we hope it will stage many a Western championship game this year.

Certainly Sunday's attendance got excellent value for money. There were scores aplenty, some great individual performances and a top class all round display by Abbeyside in the closing quarter. Holycross failed principally because their inter-county stars, notably John Doyle and Mick Maher were well below their best. Doyle could not curb an exuberant Duck Whelan on the forty, whilst full-back Maher has scarcely if ever played a poorer game. With the failure of this pair to dominate, the Tipp. defence was extremely vulnerable, and the Villagers' attack went to town as it were in notching winning scores.

Abbeyside, after a shaky opening few minutes, settled down to the task on hands, and within minutes built up a seven point lead. Their first goal was scored by Holycross defender who deflected a Duck Whelan drive past his own goalkeeper, and number two was scored by fullforward Ned Moore, himself a Holycross native but now domiciled in Abbeyside. But from there on it was a ding dong struggle for supremacy and at the interval the sides were level—3-2 each.

At this stage, however, the odds favoured Holycross. As that first half drew to a close they appeared to be getting the upper hand of the Villagers, and in the second half would be favoured by wind advantage. An Abbeyside point within minutes of the restart restored their lead, but Holycross soon hit the front with a great goal by their inter-county centre-forward Seamus Mackey. But then most unexpectedly the Holycross effort petered out. Abbeyside began to assert a clear-cut dominance all over the field, and with unmistakable certainty regained the lead, which they never subsequently surrendered. Right up to the call of time it was all Abbeyside, and except for a brave John Doyle effort seconds before the end, they never looked like increasing their scoring tally.

Adding further lustre to this Abbeyside victory is the fact that in addition to Rogie Cashin, now in England, their defence was also without corner back John Browne, whilst Brian O'Connor took over in goal from Pat Enright who was moved outfield. Early on O'Connor had some fine saves to his credit but it would feel to be a retrograde step to take Enright permanently from between the posts. In the full-line Austin Flynn starred and outplayed the Holycross veteran Pat Stakelum, although the latter did score a great goal. But it was centre-back Mick Kiely who emerged — not for the first time, as Abbeyside's man of the match. Opposed by Seamus Mackey, who starred the previous Sunday for his County against the Rest of Ireland, Kiely was the complete master for most of the hour. He started slowly enough, but improved as the half wore on and throughout the second half was the best defender afield. His display strengthened further the belief of many that he is being blatantly wronged by the County selectors.

At midfield, Liam Enright was undoubtedly their most effective player and he got good assistance from Danny Barry. In attack the biggest success was Duck Whelan, who gave John Doyle a most exacting hour long task. This was Whelan's best game for a long time and on occasions he rounded Doyle with comparative ease and if Waterford meet Tipp. in the championship there is one problem solved for the selectors. Ned Moore who was opposed by another Tipp. defender in Mick Maher, also turned in a great display, scoring two goals, whilst Johnny Hogan and Pat Enright also shone.

Doyle and Maher greatly disappointed in the Holycross defence and the Ryans, Mick and Eddie were best in the sector. Roger and Liam also played well at midfield but in attack only Seamus Mackey and Phil Cahill made any headway. The Abbeyside team was: B. O'Connor; J. Flynn, A. Flynn, B. Shields; J. McGrath, M. Kiely, P. Howan; J. Enright, D. Barry; P. McGovern, D. Whelan, P. Enright; J. Hogan, E. Moore, T. Mansfield, Mr. Moss Pollard, Lismore, the Holycross veteran Pat refereed.

WATERFORD are but one hour away from a place in the National Hurling League semi-finals — a competition that for the second year in succession carries with it the glittering prospects of a trip to the United States for the ultimate winners. And on Sunday next at Dungarvan's Fraher Field, they are confidently expected to dispose of Limerick's challenge and thus ensure themselves of a place in that final quartet. It is, of course, an old and wise maxim that "there's many a slip twixt the cup and the lip" and Limerick, for whom victory is so vital, will not spare themselves in endeavouring to shatter Waterford's hitherto unbeaten league record.

This National League has to-date done much to boost flagging Waterford morale. They enter the fray with a 100% record—the only side in the group to boast of such. A draw would suffice against Limerick to ensure their place in the last four, but this factor is unlikely to impair in any way Waterford's resolve to wind up their group campaign with an unblemished record. Limerick, on the other hand have not fared quite as effectively in their outings so far. Victories over Carlow and Dublin have been offset by defeat at the hands of Wexford and they cannot afford to drop a further brace of points. Not surprisingly they have selected the strongest fifteen at their disposal and despite conceding ground and despite conceding ground advantage will undoubtedly be quietly confident of taking the vital points. It has been far too long now since the Shannonsiders hit the hurling headlines and right through the forties, fifties and the present decade they have had but the memories of their early hal-con days to cheer them. No longer do they appear to be bred men of the calibre of the Mackeys, Paddy Scallan, Paddy Clohesy, Timmy Ryan, Jackie Power and Mick Cross and indeed many have despaired of they ever breaking the championship or league barriers.

Yet, despite their defeat by Wexford, this league has given Limerick hope for the future. A win on Sunday next would bring them right back into the league reckoning, and because of that factor alone they come steel-willed to the Old Boro venue. Outsiders they may be, but with so much at stake for them in this game, it would be the height of folly to discount their chances.

Waterford's victory over Wexford in particular has done the world of good for them. That win came at a time when many had justifiably begun to have doubts concerning their potential, and another convincing victory at the expense of Limerick on Sunday would really herald the County's upsurge to the top.

Despite the impressiveness of their display at Wexford Park, the selectors have made personal and positional changes. Ned Power retains his goalkeeping berth, having replaced Jim Power for that game and into the defence comes Jimmy Byrne in place of John O'Donnell. Midfield remains unaltered but in attack John O'Brien and Mick Flannelly are involved in a positional switch.

With Ned Power between the posts and Byrne back at corner back, the defence is the experienced unit that has had such epic performances to its credit. Cunn., Flynn and Byrne will give Power all the protection in the world, but one must hope more than expect the half line of Guinan, Morrissey and Joe Condon to perform as we know they can. The writer has no fears about the former, but the other pair have still to go some way before reaching their brilliance of '63.

TOM CUNNINGHAM

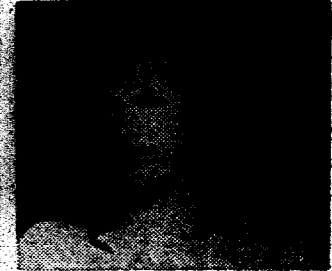

Against Wexford, the new midfield partnership of John Meaney and Tommy Hearne hit it off successfully, but Limerick strike me as being strongest hereabouts and top class displays from both will be imperative if they are to gain a definite advantage in the sector.

In attack the only change sees Mick Flannelly moving to top of the right with John O'Brien taking over from the Sign man in the half line. Limerick are well served in most sectors; their defence and midfield being particularly strong on paper at any rate.

Jim Hogan is among the top goalkeepers in the game and his net will not fall easily if given adequate protection. Full-back J. J. Bresnihan is unlikely to stand on ceremony and his flankers John McDonagh and Tony Rea are experienced defenders.

At centre-back they have a ford are at home, one cannot look beyond a Deise victory. As far as midfield Limerick seem capable of matching strides with the opposition, but I cannot see the Limerick attack wearing down that experienced Waterford defence for enough scores to give them victory. They will undoubtedly enjoy an advantage in speed but this will I think be more than nullified by the experience and craft of the men opposing them.

So on practically all counts, Waterford appear to hold the trump cards and I confidently expect them to qualify for a semi-final tilt with Tipp. or Kilkenny on the first Sunday in May.

Waterford—Ned Power, T. Cunningham, A. Flynn, J. Byrne; L. Guinan, M. O. Morrissey, J. Condon; J. Meaney, T. Hearne; J. O'Brien, T. Cheasty, F. Walsh, M. Flannelly, S. Power, P. Grimes.

Limerick—J. Hogan; J. McDonagh, J. J. Bresnihan, A. Rea, T. O'Brien, J. O'Donnell, K. Long, J. Quaid, P. J. Keane; A. Roche, B. Hartigan, E. Cregan; R. Prendergast, D. Flynn, P. Murphy.

comparative newcomer in John O'Donnell, but wing-halves Tony O'Brien and Kevin Long need no introduction.

But it is on the shoulders of Seamus Quaid and P. J. Keane at midfield that Limerick followers will place greatest hope and trust for the winning of this game. On their day both are match-winners and they will set formidable opposition for Meaney and Hearne.

In attack the Shannonsiders are banking for the most part on youth. Roche, Cregan, Flynn and Murphy are all ex-minors of last year and a few years ago, and completing the sextet are Ralph Prendergast, now back in his native county after some years in New York and centre forward Bernie Hartigan.
