LATE WILLIAM COLEMAN

The death occurred recently at Colindale Hospital, London, of William Coleman, 48 Gloucester Grove, Burnt Oak, and formerly of St. Bridget's, Tce., Dungarvan. Billy, as he was popularly known to his many friends, was a member of the Dungarvan team that won the 1934 senior football championship of Waterford and round 1950 he was a leading player with Erin's Hope football team London.

Sincere sympathy is extended to his wife and young family in their bereavement.

Mass for the repose of his soul was celebrated at the Church of the Annunciation, Burnt Oak and the funeral took place immediately afterwards to Hendon Cemetery.

The chief mourners were: Mrs. May Coleman (widow); Anthony, Patrick, William and Richard (sons); Bernadette (daughter); Miss A. Kilmacthomas Notes

P.P.A.A.—A meeting was held in the Parish Hall, Bonmahon, on Friday night, of the Pioneer Total Abstinence Association, at which many members and probationers were in attendance.

Pilgrimage.—This year's Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes, which will take place in the near future, is already being planned and one of the nuns chosen to attend the patients on the pilgrimage is Sr. M. Ursula, St. Joseph's Hospital, Sisters of Mercy, Dungarvan. Sr. Ursula is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Walsh, Ballingizla, Bonmahon, and sister of Mrs. Nicholas Dunphy, do.

Holiday in sunny Spain at present are playwright Mr. P. Walsh, and his wife of Cahir, Co. Tipperary. Mrs. Walsh is a native of Ballinabogue, Kilmacthomas, where her mother, Mrs. Alice Walsh, resides.

Meeting.—On Thursday of last week a meeting was held in the Parish Hall, Kilmacthomas, at which plans for the provision of bathing facilities for Kilmacthomas were discussed. It was proposed to avail of the Grants offered by the State and Bord Fáilte for the development of a safe bathing place on the Mahon. Adults and children alike look forward eagerly to further news of the scheme.

Holiday.—Among the holidaymakers in the locality during the Easter period we noticed Miss Kathleen Cleary of Bonmahon, who is a Civil Servant in Dublin.

We wish Mrs. P. Lalor, Walsh Place, Kilmac, a very speedy recovery. All her friends were very sorry to hear that she is indisposed. She is undergoing treatment in a Waterford hospital at present.

Closely associated with Clonea G.A.A. Club is popular Mr. Seamus O'Meara, P.C. St. John's Park, Waterford, who will be a F.F. candidate in the next Waterford Municipal Elections. —Christus Rex Congress.—Headed by Very Rev. J. Canon

Harty, P.P. Cahir, seven priests of the Diocese of Waterford and Lismore constituted the organising Committee of this year's Christus Rex Congress, which opened in the Galtee Hotel, Cahir, last week. Rev. Fr. Harty, prior to his being made a canon, was popular parish priest of Kilrossanty and Fews; and it was he who re-modelled the parish church of St. Brigid's, and who arranged for the building of a new national school, which is currently being erected.

Wedding Bells.—Here's wishing good health, happiness and many years of connubial bliss to Mr. J. Begley and Miss Eily Power, both of Stradbally, who were united in matrimony in the Church of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, Stradbally, recently.

Mission.—A Mission will be held in Stradbally, Ballylaneen and Faha parish during the first fortnight of May. The conductors of the Mission will be two Passionist fathers, Rev. Fr. Dermot, O.P., and Rev. Fr. Oswald, O.P.

Wedding.—The marriage took place recently at St. John's Church, Waterford, of Mr. Timothy Dalton, son of Mr. Richard and the late Mrs. Dalton, Carrick-on-Suir, and Miss Ann Power, daughter of Mr. Richard Power, Bonmahon.

The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, was performed by Rev. R. Keane. The bridesmaids were the Misses Eileen Cullinan and Rosaleen Penkert. Messrs. Billy and Bernard Dalton acted as groomsmen.

The bride was charmingly attired in a full length gown of white embroidered satin; and she wore a veil and diamante tiara. She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. The bridesmaids wore full length gowns of turquoise, with a white satin rose head-dress. They carried bouquets of pink carnations.

The reception, at which about eighty guests attended, was held in the Hotel Majestic, Tramore. Going away, the bride wore a pink coat and hat, over a navy frock, with navy accessories. The honeymoon is being spent touring Scotland.

We wish the happy couple every joy and blessing in their new life.

G.A.A.—At Carrick-on-Suir last Friday, Kilmac' under-16 footballers defeated Windgap by 5-7 to 0-4. At Cooltubrid on Sunday, Bonmahon minors defeated Kilmacthomas in a very exciting game, and John Mitchell defeated Kilmac' juniors.

The Death took place unexpectedly during the week of Mr. Tom Fitzgerald, 50, of Brennan, Stradbally.

WEST WATERFORD NEWS

LATE MR. SEAN DOWNEY
 The recent death of Mr. Sean Downey, Ardmore, the well known gaelic scholar, caused deep and widespread regret. The deceased, who was of a refined and cultured nature, had a deep love for everything Irish—the language, gaelic games, etc. To his bereaved relatives sympathy is extended.

CLASHMORE CONCERT
 On Friday night last the Clashmore Dramatic Class presented a very successful concert and dramatic and variety entertainment. The programme consisted of two short plays, vocal and instrumental items, stentancing, etc. There was a large and appreciative audience. On tonight (Friday) a similar concert will be presented at Pittown (Kinsalebeg).

LOCAL COMPLAINTS
 Some months ago an underground cable was laid along the side of the main road from Youghal Bridge to Clashmore. About four feet of the roadside was affected by the operation and when the excavation was filled in heaps of rubble were left on the surface. In addition to being very unsightly, these mounds are a hazard to traffic and should be removed at once. It appears that unexpected difficulties have arisen with regard to the building of the new houses at Clashmore. It is hoped, however, that the problem will be resolved without any undue delay as there is an urgent need for houses in the area.

The building of the new dispensary at Clashmore has also been held up.

GARDA TRANSFER
 Garda M. Lynch has been transferred from Newtownmountkeniry to Villierstown. Garda Lynch is a native of Co. Cork.

G.A.A.
 The Clashmore hurling and football teams hope to give a good account of themselves in the forthcoming championships. The football team has been particularly impressive in recent competitions. There is a great wealth of talent in the area. The recently-formed Kinsalebeg team is also expected to give a good account of itself in the championship. Big numbers of players attend for practice and the greatest enthusiasm prevails. In the early days of the G.A.A., Kinsalebeg was famous and was one of the leading teams in the county.

LATE SEAN DOWNEY

BALLINERNANE, ARDMORE
 A great gloom was cast over the Ardmore district on the announcement of the passing of Sean Downey, which sad event occurred at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, on Saturday night, April 17th, after a duration of illness and at the allotted span. The deceased's popularity was widespread, especially in the Ardmore area, where he was better known. He had served his country well in the times of the "Troubles."

The greatest of public sympathy is extended to his brother, sister, nephews and nieces on this sad occasion. May the sod of the land he loved so well rest gently upon him.

His remains were removed on Easter Sunday evening to Ardmore Church followed by a very large cortege consisting of fellow-members of the Old I.R.A. and the general public and his coffin, draped in the Tricolour was blessed and received by Very Rev. W. Cahill, P.P.

Requiem Mass was celebrated on Easter Monday for the happy repose of his soul and the interment took place later in the day in St. Declan's cemetery. Rev. T. Draper, C.C. imparted the final absolution at the graveside and recited the prayers for the dead amid manifestations of very sorrow from the large concourse present.

The chief mourners were: Co-nelius Downey, Cruschea, Ardmore (brother); Mrs. Bridget O'Driscoll, U.S.A. (sister); Patrick Downey, Ardo, Ardmore; Laurence Downey, London (nephews); Mrs. Maureen Coyle, London; Mrs. K. Wall, London (nieces).

(J. Kiely and Sons, had charge of funeral arrangements).

LATE MRS. ELLEN WALSH (nee Condon)
Doon, Ballinamult
 The death occurred rather suddenly at her residence, Doon, Ballinamult, of Mrs. Ellen Walsh, on Monday morning, April 19th. She was a daughter of the late Laurence Walsh and mother of Mrs. P. Hally, Doon. The deceased was the possessor of very many fine qualities and her passing will be highly regretted.

Her removal took place on Tuesday evening to Touranena Church followed by a very large and representative cortege and her coffin was received and blessed by Rev. J. Griffin, C.C.

Requiem Masses were celebrated on Wednesday morning for the happy and eternal repose of her soul and the interment took place immediately after the last Mass in the adjoining family plot. Another large and sympathetic concourse were present consisting of relatives and friends of Rev. Fr. Griffin, C.C. imparted the final absolution at the graveside.

The chief mourners were: Mrs. P. Hally, Doon, Ballinamult (daughter); Mr. James Condon, Canada (brother); Mrs. M. ennessy, Keylhaun, Ballinamult (sister); Miss Mary Hally, Doon; Miss Nellie Hally, do.; Master Frank Hally, do. (grandchildren); Mr. Patrick Hally, Doon (son-in-law).

(J. Kiely and Sons, Shandon had charge of funeral arrangements).

LATE EDMOND KIELY

Rice's Street, Dungarvan
 Edmond Kiely, Rice's Street, passed to his eternal reward at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, on Wednesday, April 21st, after a rather short illness but in the fullness of his years. He was a well-known man locally, a wonderful conversationalist and an authority on local history. His hard-working and industrious scattering, his wit and jovial manner made him legions of friends. To his daughter, Mrs. Noonan, grandchildren and son-in-law, now domiciled in London, sincere sympathy is tendered.—R.I.P.

His removal took place on Thursday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church followed by a large cortege and his coffin was blessed and received by Rev. J. Murphy, C.C.

Requiem Mass was offered on Friday morning for the happy repose of his soul and the interment took place later in the day in the adjoining family plot. Rev. J. Murphy, C.C. imparted the final absolution at the graveside.

The chief mourners were: Mrs. Stella Noonan (daughter); Mr. Joseph Noonan (son-in-law); Helen Noonan and Patrick Noonan, London (grandchildren).

Clashmore Gymkhana

Clashmore Gymkhana, held on Sunday at Laurentum, was an outstanding success from all angles. The weather, the course, the entries, and most of all, the hard work of a dedicated committee all contributed to a really great day's sport.

There were thrills and spills, the greatest thrill being to see a Co. Waterford, owner-rider slam the field of internationals among them the great Dundrum—to win the main event of the day—the Open Jumping competition for the O'Brien Cup. The course for this event was a most spectacular one of thirteen fences including a water jump and was a real test of both horse and rider. The fences (belonging to the Dungarvan Show Society) were colourful, well presented and varied. The whole course and layout was the subject of much favourable comment and was described by two international riders as an ideal school for the Spring Show. The committee were lucky in having Capt. T. D. Mo'gan, of Lisamore, as their course builder. Sunday's course was a tribute to his ingenuity and hard work.

The local novice competition for the Golden Year Cup confined to members of the Kinsalebeg harriers resulted in a triumph for the master of this sporting little pack, Mr. Jimmy Fitzgerald. His horse Clashmore, was very ably handled by Miss Terry Ledingham, won the event in a closely contested finish. Another popular winner was E.S.B. owned by well-known Dungarvan amateur rider, Mr. John E. Kiely. This horse won the Grade B competition and also shared in the spoils of the local novice event.

There were almost 40 entries in the pony events and some very popular local winners were acclaimed among them, Brenda Roche of Aglish, whose pony, Silverwings, tho' often in the line out before, secured her first-ever first prize. Autumn Star owned by Mr. L. Fennell of Dungarvan and ridden by M. Keane also

Increase For Store Assistants

By 11 votes to 5, Waterford Health Authority decided at its monthly meeting on Monday last, to increase the salary of Store Assistants employed by the Authority to the same scale applicable to Engineers Clerks. At present, Store Assistants earn £9-11-6 per week, whilst the salary scale for Engineers Clerks is £9-18-3 to £11-8-6 per week.

Mr. J. Griffin proposed and Mr. James Power seconded the resolution.

Mr. Norman Walsh said he was strongly opposed to it, more particularly to the proposed increase of 10 per cent on October 1st. How any sane member could vote for that he did not know.

Mr. Griffin said the men in question were responsible and their work was not underpaid at the moment.

Mr. Norman Walsh said he would agree with the claim, I do not agree with the retrospective.

The increase was then passed by 11-5 and the voting was: For—Messrs. Curran, Fahey, Roche, Cahill, Power, Kenneally, Gallagher, E. Browne, P. Browne, Griffin, Collins (11); Against—Messrs. Lannon, N. Walsh, Dower, Foran, Galgey (5).

INCREASE FOR STOREKEEPERS
The meeting also passed by 11-5 and the voting was: For—Messrs. Curran, Fahey, Roche, Cahill, Power, Kenneally, Gallagher, E. Browne, P. Browne, Griffin, Collins (11); Against—Messrs. Lannon, N. Walsh, Dower, Foran, Galgey (5).

nine votes to seven, salary increases for Storekeepers attached to the county's general hospitals and the mental hospital. A total of four men were involved.

Mr. J. Griffin said it was an arbitrator's award and the most they could do here was delay it for a while. He proposed the increase be given. Mr. E. Browne seconded.

The Secretary (Mr. J. A. Hynes) said the salary for a Storekeeper in a general hospital varied from £12 to £18 a week and it was proposed to give a man with £18 an increase of £125 a year.

Mr. W. Foran said they were all well paid. Bring them to rural Ireland for a while, he said, and they would be grateful for the increase.

Mr. T. Lannon proposed the increase not be given. Mr. N. Walsh seconded.

The increases were passed, however, by a 9-7 vote.

New Boiler For Co. Home

Waterford Health Authority decided on a 7-5 vote on Monday last to purchase a boiler from a Gloucestershire firm at a cost of £875 to replace the existing one at the County Home, Dungarvan.

Mr. Thomas Lannon said an Oil Burner Boiler would be the cheapest but the Dept. would not sanction it. They wanted them to use turf.

The Secretary, Mr. J. A. Hynes said it was Government policy to use turf where possible. The present boiler in the County Home was very old and the insurance on it would expire on May 10th next. After that date they would not be able to use it and certain cooking facilities would have to stop. The Consultant recommended a boiler that would cost £875 and that had an output of 1,200 pounds an hour. After May 10th they would be out of business and they had very little choice in the matter.

Mr. Lannon: I wonder have the Department officials, turf fires in their houses. Like hell they have! That system is well outdated.

Mr. W. Kenneally then proposed and Mr. P. Cahill seconded that they purchase the one in Gloucester and this proposal was carried 7-5.

New Office Agreed To

Waterford Health Authority, on Monday last, approved of the creation of the Office of Wholesale Assistant Chief Medical Officer.

The Secretary, Mr. J. A. Hynes, said the Health Authority first agreed to this appointment on June 24th, 1963. Today it was intended to reaffirm the creation of the post. Mr. Thomas Lannon said there was no meaning to this. He proposed the post not be created.

Mr. W. Kenneally, T.D., said the peoples health was more important. Mr. Lannon said they had working class houses in the town of Dungarvan that would be going up 10d. a week in the rent, and if this Authority kept going on as it was, they would increase the rents of those houses by another 10d. next year.

Mr. P. Browne (Chairman) said the present Medical Officer in the City had stated that he could not cope with all the work that was to be done.

A vote was then taken and the creation of the post was agreed to by nine votes to seven. The voting was: For—Messrs. Roche, Cahill, Power, Kenneally, Gallagher, Griffin, E. Browne, P. Browne, Collins; Against—Messrs. Lannon, Curran, Dower, Foran, N. Walsh and Galgey.

Mr. Lannon then remarked: The Dungarvan Urban Council this year has paid £5,000 more to the Board of Health and this is due to Salary increases. Ye will kill these people by the way ye are putting a burden on them. It is like putting a ton weight down on them."

No Seconder

Because of his failure to get a seconder, the following motion in the name of Mr. P. Cahill, was ruled out at last Monday's meeting of Waterford Health Authority: "That the salary of Student Nurses at Ardkeen Hospital be increased by 250 a year."

Mr. Cahill said the student nurses were badly treated and they should get some increase.

Mr. Hynes (Secretary) said their salary was decided by a national scale.

Mr. Lannon, opposing the motion, said people would have to realise the value of money.

Mr. M. Galgey said at the moment the student nurses had about £4 a week spending money. If they gave any more than that to a slíí of a girl they would only spend it on entertainment and if they failed their exams then the members of the Committee would be blamed. They would not have their whole minds laid down to be nurses and would only be failures. If they could increase the number of nurses to be trained, however, it would be a good thing.

Mr. Cahill said these girls could not be going out every night because they had not got passes to do so. He believed they were entitled to some increase.

Mr. Cahill, however, failed to get anyone to second his motion.

Colligan man on Founder Members' Committee

At an executive Committee meeting at the New Irish Centre in Liverpool, it was decided to invite Mr. Martin Foley, a native of Colligan, to serve on the Founder-Members' Committee of the Irish Centre. Mr. Foley later said: "I am happy about it all, the good work must go on for the Irish in this city."

By the way, Mr. Foley is also a member of the G.A.A. Committee in Liverpool.

All the best of good luck to this outstanding Irish man.

Psychiatric Unit Opening on June 1st

Mr. Charles Curran stated at last Monday's meeting of Waterford Health Authority, that the dispute in the opening of the Psychiatric Unit in Ardkeen hospital had now been resolved and the Unit would be open in June.

Mr. J. A. Hynes, Secretary, said the Unit would be open on 1st June.

The Committee decided to appoint two deputy Charge Nurses (male) by eleven votes to three.

N.F.A. WANT ADDITIONAL STAFF

A letter from the County Secretary of the N.F.A., Mr. Brian Pearce, was read at a meeting of the County Committee of Agriculture on Friday last, stating that his Organisation felt an additional Instructor in Agriculture should be appointed within the county.

When the N.F.A. made this suggestion some time ago, Sen. Jack Butler asked if they would agree to it in view of the expense and this letter it was stated was confirming their agreement of the additional appointment.

Mr. P. Conroy (C.A.O.) said there had been urgent calls recently and he had to drop what he was doing to attend to them, because they had not enough instructors.

Mr. Richard Walsh said he would double the number of instructors if he could.

Mr. Kieran O'Ryan said it was his opinion that they lacked an adequate number of instructors.

Mr. W. Dower said they would have a new Committee of Agriculture before long and it would be as well to leave the matter over until then.

Mr. M. Galgey said the farmer of to-day had to be every thing. The future farmers would be as well advanced in ideas and knowledge as their present day Advisory Instructors, and that was when they would see farming in all its splendour and glory.

It was then decided to defer the matter to the next meeting.

Effort to Save Poultry Industry

Packing Station For Dungarvan?

Since the post war period, the poultry industry had been completely wiped out as far as the small farmer was concerned, said Mr. Richard Walsh at a meeting of County Waterford Committee of Agriculture on Friday last. Finally, after lengthy discussion, it was decided to ask the Co-operative Societies of the county to attend a meeting to discuss the possibilities of establishing a packing station in Dungarvan.

Mr. Walsh said that the last war a revolution had taken place in the country. The poultry keeping industry had been gone into more intensely by the big commercial combines, who had completely wiped out the industry as far as the small farmer and cottier was concerned. This had happened over their heads and his idea was to try and put back the industry so that the small farmer and cottier could get their share from the industry.

Miss Walsh, Poultry Instructor, said she agreed with what Mr. Walsh had said, but saw no reason at all why the small poultry keeper should be pushed out. More than anything else distribution was the problem and whilst they were not in a position to do anything revolutionary, they could try and set up a packing station in Dungarvan. If this station was established, the station, having brought in the eggs from the surrounding areas and having them tested and graded there, they could be put in opposition to the big commercial combines who were putting eggs on the market. If got under way this packing station would be the only way to save the people Mr. Walsh had referred to. There were a number of people increasing egg production every day and if they had no difficulty in getting a sale for their eggs, the small poultry keepers around the county should be able to do the same. If things were properly organised.

Miss Walsh went on to state that she believed a meeting should be called with representation from the Committee of Agriculture and the Co-operatives in the county, together with the two existing egg wholesale companies in the county. If the Co-operative Society could be persuaded to come in to this the cost of egg production would be reduced considerably within 12 to 15 months. If this suggested scheme was put into operation there would be a future for the small producer in the industry.

Mr. John Fahey, T.D. (Chairman) said Miss Walsh's suggestion seemed to be an excellent idea. It seemed to be the only way of saving the small producer.

Mr. M. Galgey suggested they appoint two members of this Committee to meet the Co-op. Societies at one of their meetings and put the suggestion of a packing station to them. It seemed an excellent idea to him.

Mr. W. Dower said the kernel to the whole problem was price incentive. If the right price was to be had, the people would produce.

Finally, it was agreed that Messrs. R. Walsh, M. Galgey, M. Hart and W. Dower, together with Miss Walsh, represent the Committee of Agriculture at a meeting with the Co-op. Societies.

DEATH

WYLEY (April 26th) at her residence, Canty, Capinagh, Mrs. Annie Wyley, R.I.P. Deeply regretted by her husband, son and relatives. Remains were removed to Ballinacree Church on Tuesday 27th. Burial took place in the adjoining cemetery after Requiem Masses, on Wednesday, 28th April.

Mr. O'Reilly put the whole matter very succinctly when he stated: "We must get for farmers the best possible price, but we must also give the factories what they want."

The factories argument at the moment is that supplies are so short that they cannot cope with orders for particular types of meat. "This is the type of thing our meat factories will have to do in order to capture a bigger share of the export market."

It should be possible to achieve such a development with the large increase in cattle numbers expected during the next few years. But success can only come with the exchange of views at regular meetings between the producer and the processor and the ultimate establishment of a Meat Marketing Development Authority.

A vital first step in this direction was taken this week. It is to be hoped that it was the prelude to bigger things.

TOWN PLANNING
Permission is being sought for the construction of Machinery Shed and Workshop, at Spring (Duke), Dunganarvan, for Thomas Coffey.

N.F.A. NEWS MEAT MARKETING

A joint committee, composed of members of the N.F.A. Livestock Committee and representatives of the meat factories may soon be formed to investigate the possibility of establishing a Meat Marketing Development Authority in this country.

A "most constructive" meeting was held between the two bodies this week at which the proposal for such a committee emerged. While no definite decision was reached, the proposal got a most favourable reception and it is almost certain that the joint committee will become a reality at the next meeting between the two sides.

Those present at this week's meeting were: Mr. C. V. O'Reilly, Chairman, N.F.A. National Livestock Committee; Mr. David Dolan, Chairman, N.F.A. National Sheep and Wool Committee; Mr. Joe Bruton; Mr. Pat Fittbert, M.R.C.V.S.; and Mr. F. Young. The meat factories were represented by Mr. J. J. Bastow, Secretary, Irish Fresh Meat Exporters Association; Mr. Terry Kennedy, Irish Meat Packers; Mr. Denis Crowley, Rescra Meat Coy.; and Mr. Y. Harnett, M.R.C.V.S.

A few days before the meeting with the meat factory representatives of the N.F.A. National Livestock Committee heard a full report from the N.F.A. Survey Team which carried out an investigation of marketing methods in London, Liverpool and Manchester about three weeks ago.

Commenting on the tour, Mr. Tony Sherry, Secretary, to the Livestock Committee said: "The first thing that hits you is the vastness of the market potential for Irish meat. It is there for us if we want it. Our meat is regarded as top-class and the only criticism levelled against us is lack of constancy of supply; and the fact that we have not been able to send a graded or classified product to particular places."

Mr. O'Reilly put the whole matter very succinctly when he stated: "We must get for farmers the best possible price, but we must also give the factories what they want."

The factories argument at the moment is that supplies are so short that they cannot cope with orders for particular types of meat. "This is the type of thing our meat factories will have to do in order to capture a bigger share of the export market."

It should be possible to achieve such a development with the large increase in cattle numbers expected during the next few years. But success can only come with the exchange of views at regular meetings between the producer and the processor and the ultimate establishment of a Meat Marketing Development Authority.

The paper also contains an interesting quotation from the influential French financial paper, Le Monde: "In the opinion of the leaders of the Lafayette meat group of agriculture co-operatives, it is not enough to convert cereals into meat, bread or biscuits. It is necessary to sell them. Where agriculture sells 5,000 billion francs worth of raw products, housewives buy 10,000 billion francs worth of foodstuffs."

"Agriculture does not benefit in any way from the availability of 5,000 billions, yet rights to obtain a 10% increase in the prices fixed by the Government (the effectives of these claims is still further reduced by the fact that farm income depends less upon the prices fixed than upon market conditions). In other words, the farmers cling to claims which, even if fully satisfied, would bring them an additional income of only 500 billions while ignoring 5,000 billions, of which part at least is within their grasp."

While the vertical integration problem was assuming major proportions in other countries, we in Ireland were able to watch from the sidelines with a certain amount of equanimity. But Ireland is now very much involved as the problem has begun to appear in the poultry industry here.

N.F.A. must be satisfied that the specific form of vertical integration proposed in this case will not hinder in any way the independence of the Irish farmer. To ensure itself of the full facts, the Association has set up a study group, under the chairmanship of Mr. John Monee, Ashbourne, Co. Meath, to examine all the pros and cons of the situation.

The National Council of the Association is now anxiously awaiting the report from this group.

During four days of exquisite charm and efficient diplomacy, Mr. Fred Peart, the British Minister of Agriculture, learned a lot about Irish agriculture and gave away nothing. Nevertheless, he created the impression that Ireland has a friend among the corridors of power at Whitehall.

With the utmost of tact, he refused to be drawn on any of the ticklish issues in the Anglo-Irish agricultural trading pattern. To questions on the possibilities of better quotas for our butter and bacon he replied with a smile: "I am afraid that I cannot comment on those matters as yet."

Neither did he take advantage of the opening offered by Mr. Deasy when the President stated: "Good trade agreements make for sound friendships."

He was delighted that "Sean Flanagan—a colleague whom I met at the Council of Euro—was appointed a junior minister."

A charming speech delivered in charming manner—but not even a hint of welcome news for Irish farmers in the new Anglo-Irish trade agreement.

What a week it's been for Limerick N.F.A. Nearly fifty meetings throughout the week have been addressed by members of the National Council, staffmen and county officers who have explained the policies and aims of the Association.

One thing emerged like a clarion call from all the meetings—a desire for unity... a desire for one overall organisation to represent farming interests.

Mr. Jerome Buttner, Vice-President of the Association, referred to this at Ardpatrick, when he said that there was only one effective way of representing the needs of a profession or an industry and that was by one organisation catering for every facet of that industry. "Such a development would do away with wasteful and needless overlapping and would inevitably lead to increased efficiency."

He went on to explain that N.F.A. was at present the only national organisation representing Irish farmers. It was the organisation with which the Government decided to conduct the Annual Review of Agriculture.

Speaking at Kilmee, Mr. T. J. Maher, Chairman of the National Dairy Committee spoke of sectional groups or organisations as being obsolete in present conditions. "The best interests of the dairy farmer are served by being in an united organisation with all other farmers," he added.

He believed that the quality payment for milk, effective from May 1st, should be 2d. Dairy farmers needed this increase to enable them to grapple with the problem of raising the quality of milk generally. Another aspect of the scheme came in for criticism from Mr. Maher. He considered it very unwise for the Department to formulate the scheme without ensuring that creameries would all be in a position to have the testing equipment from the starting date. Many of the creameries were unable to get the equipment because of the increased demand.

Referring to the small farmer Mr. Maher said: "We are suggesting that the man with less than five cows should get a bonus of £25 per heifer for each additional cow heifer up to a maximum of five; the man with between five and ten cows should get £20 per cow heifer; and the 15 cow bonus should operate for the farmer with above 10 cows."

"If you have a home in Ireland and a reasonable job, do not let the prospect of higher pay entice you to leave it and go to England," Rev. Eamonn Casey, National Director, Catholic Housing Aid Society, London.

About 2,000 British farmers are believed to have left the industry every year. This was stated by Mr. John Monee, Parliamentary Secretary to the British Minister of Agriculture in the House of Commons.

Farmers in Ireland became their own shopkeepers last week when they sold their produce direct to the consumer. It was a "practical" protest against the prices they had been receiving for their produce compared with much higher prices being charged in the shops. Eggs were selling at 3/6 a doz.; milk—5d. pint; potatoes under 2d. a lb.; cream—2/- a carton; chickens—5/- each; and honey: 2/6 and 4/6 a jar.

Four hundred and seventy three years of service on the land will be honoured by the Royal Dublin Society at this year's Spring Show when nine farm employees who total this amount of service between them will receive awards. Each will receive a return voucher for rail or bus to and from Ballsbridge a complimentary ticket to the show and a small gratuity. The oldest farm worker this year is eighty-one years old. Mr. Timothy Maher, Raheen, Kilmalee, Ballon, Co. Carlow, who has sixty-five years service. Each of the other workers has fifty or more years service to his credit.

The Department of Agriculture has been officially informed by the British Ministry of Agriculture of an outbreak of foot and mouth disease at Dargate, Paversham, Kent. The British Ministry has made an order prohibiting the movement of animals over a large area surrounding the infected place.

SALMON FISHING

The severe weather conditions prevailing for the past few weeks has played havoc with the efforts of net fishermen all around the coast line. At this time of the year salmon are conspicuous by their scarcity and it has all the appearance of being recorded as the worst three months of any season in living memory. A few of the crews are just barely making a living, while the rest are having a very lean time.

DEATH OF MISS K. LYNCH

Her many friends in Cappoquin learned with great regret of the death in England last week of Miss K. Lynch. A native of Ballinacoola, she had lived for very many years in Cappoquin before going to reside in England. She had been home on holidays in Cappoquin only last year. She is survived by her sister, Mrs. O'Mahony, Ballinacoola, and her brother, Mr. Maurice Lynch, Kereen, to whom sympathy is extended in their bereavement.

POSTPONED

We understand from G.A.A. Secretary John Fraher, that the presentation of their variety concert and play at Tallow scheduled for May 5th has now had to be further postponed to 12th May, as some of the artists are not available on the 5th. The proceeds are being devoted to the funds of St. John's Association for Parents and Friends of Mentally Handicapped Children.

CAROL SINGERS GENEROSITY

We understand that the Cappoquin Carol Singers have devoted the balance of the funds resulting from their Christmas performances, to the purchase of groceries for distribution to those in need at Easter time. Their generous action is much appreciated and we hope this fine work can be continued.

G.A.A.

Our minor footballers went out to Ring in a first round championship game at Dungarvan, on Sunday evening, though the final score of 2-1 to 0-1 flattered the winners. This was a very young Cappoquin side and the majority will be competing in this year's under 16 grade.

There were three games at the Sportsfield, all in the minor grade. In the opening game in the afternoon Tallow minor hurlers rather surprisingly beat Ardmore who had been fancied and in the second game, a minor football fixture, Lismore made their exit from the current year's championship, at the hands of Collihan.

In the second minor football game in the late evening, Affane continued their good run in the minor grade by beating Aghish. This was a very hard fought encounter.

SCHOOLS BUILDING FUND

At a meeting of the organizers of the School Building Fund which was attended by the Prefects and Collectors a plan of the new school at the Presentation Convent was exhibited. In his opening address, Very Rev. C. Canon Sheehan, P.P., thanked all concerned for the very excellent work they had put into the project. The total collection for the first six months was £3,976-10-3 and it is proposed to start the building in July of this year. Rev. D. O'Connell, C.C., gave the Jan/Feb figure at £1,200-17-11, which was a substantial increase over that for the previous two months. It was stated that the church was to be used for the school building and that the school would be built in the Presentation Convent Garden. The Department of Education is to pay 50% of the cost of the building and the Parish Fund is to pay the balance.

SYMPATHY

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Wall, Killeen, on the death of her sister, Mrs. Whelan, which has taken place in New York.

POSTPONED

We understand from G.A.A. Secretary John Fraher, that the presentation of their variety concert and play at Tallow scheduled for May 5th has now had to be further postponed to 12th May, as some of the artists are not available on the 5th. Successful County Fleadh Cheoil

Fleadh Cheoil na nDeise held at Dungarvan on Saturday and Sunday last, proved an outstanding success. Entries in every competition were well up on previous years which look like a bright future for Fleadhanna Cheoil in the Deise. All competitions were run in a smooth and efficient manner. Much of the credit for this was due to Eamon O Cathain, the Fleadh Cheoil Secretary, who worked hard and earnestly throughout the Fleadh Cheoil. His ability to organise and direct and well-balanced concert which he produced from the prize-winners at the Friary Hall. Across the road, the cell was thronged where music was supplied by the Cucullain Ceili Band. During the Fleadh several impromptu music sessions were held throughout the town. GAELIC JOTTINGS

UNDER 21 HURLERS ...FACE GALWAY

Waterford's under 21 hurlers who last year reached the Munster final only to be hammered by Tipp's all-powerful combination, make their championship debut on Sunday next at the Ennis Road grounds, Limerick, when they meet Galway whom they defeated in the first round twelve months ago.

This year great things are expected from the hurlers in this grade and if one is to judge the merits of the side by the fact that John Moylan (Dungarvan) and J. O'Brien (Cappoquin) who were regulars on last year's side but cannot find first team favour this time, then it is doubtful if Galway will stop them on this occasion.

However, if it doubtful also if the side is that all-embracingly powerful. In fact there are players chosen that I consider inferior to both Moylan and O'Brien, so it is difficult really to predict how things will go on Sunday.

Strongest sector of the team seems to be defence, where centre-back Ollie Wilkinson, Phil Fanning and Frankie Whelan are the mainstays. Certainly the Galway forwards will not find scores easy to come by.

Not knowing the strength of the opposition one is left in complete doubt as to the team's chances. But certainly if they display the same determination as last year's side displayed then they should be good enough to advance a stage further in the championship. The Waterford team is: T. Flynn (Ballygunner); P. Fanning (Mount Sion), M. Kirwan (Butterstown), B. Shields (Abbeyside); P. Carlton (Ardmore), O. Wilkinson (Tourin F. Whelan (Ballyduff-Portlaw) J. Whelan (do.), P. Enright (Abbeyside); D. Duggan (De La Salle), M. McGrath (Lismore), J. Rooney (Ardmore); S. Greene (Mount Sion), F. Moran (De La Salle), D. Fitzgerald (Portlaw-Ballyduff).

Subs.—M. Dowling (Erin's Own), T. Flynn (Mount Sion), J. O'Brien (Cappoquin), M. Power (De La Salle), F. Pinkert (Erin's Own), P. Clancy (Stradbally)

There is only one championship game down for decision on Sunday next and that is the first round junior hurling 'clash' between Ballinameela and Ballysaggart at Cappoquin (2 p.m.). This promises to be a close and exciting encounter and quite candidly a game that is wide open. Both sides can give a variety of reasons why they should prevail but that is of little help to the writer, and this is one game that could go either way.

Ballysaggart are invariably good solid hard-hitting hurlers. Unspectacular they may be, but in a championship are exceedingly difficult to beat. This year they are reputed to on Friday night last at the Seaside's own venue, and they went under by 0-7 to 0-3. But despite the four-point margin between them, it was a keenly fought decider and the final scoreline hardly did justice to a Dungarvan side that rose to the occasion in splendid style.

Ardmore had first use of the breeze and at the interval led by 0-5 to 0-1. However, Dungarvan missed some very feasible scoring chances and with better luck could have been in a more favourable position. For ten minutes of the second half it was all Dungarvan but they failed to turn a territorial advantage to maximum use. Then Ardmore tacked on a brace of points that that seemed to put the issue beyond doubt. But then came the real controversial point of the game. Dungarvan full forward Mick Fitzgerald was hauled down inside the square and a penalty was blatantly conceded. But to the amazement of all the referee awarded a fourteen yards free which yielded no score. After that Dungarvan continued to pile on the pressure and added a brace of points before the close.

Best for Ardmore were: Eddie Mooney, Paddy Carlton and Bertie Hallahan in defence; Tommy Power and Donal Linnane at midfield, and John Joe Carlton, Jim Rooney and Fin Hallahan in attack. For Dungarvan, Donal O'Brien played well in goal whilst Pat Noctor gave a superb display in defence, and was in fact the best defender afield. Others to star in this sector were Martin Farrell, Conor Curran and Eddie Doherty.

John Moylan was the better of their midfielders and Tom Cunningham, and Eamonn McCarthy (when moved up in the second half) were best of their attack.

Three games have been listed for Dungarvan on Sunday next, two in the afternoon and one on Sunday night. The afternoon games are both Sargent Cup fixtures. In the opening game Brickey Rangers meet Erin's Own and here the City side will be strongly fancied to advance. They will be without some regulars but even so should be too strong for a Brickey side that will also be without some of their established players.

The second game marks the debut of Intermediate champions, Ballyduff Upper, in the senior grade when they meet the hard-hitting men from Dunhill. The men from the Blackwater will be without Mikey Quirke (under suspension) whilst some dissention within the club also makes it probable that they will be without one or two other key men. It would be a wonderful feather in their cap if they could start off on a winning note, but Dunhill certainly provide formidable opposition.

The night game brings razor keen rivals Ardmore and Geradines into opposition in this year's Phelan Cup competition. Ardmore appear to have the edge over their Aglish rivals in recent times and although they will be without Jim Rooney, it will be a major surprise should they fail to win readily.

The only other game on Sunday next is the Phelan Cup meeting of Valley Rovers and Ring at Cappoquin, timed for 3.15. There is a problem here for the Harty brothers, Tommy Joe, Pat and Jim as they also assist Brickey Rangers in hurling and the latter will be playing Erin's Own in Dungarvan. It is an unfortunate clash of fixtures and should this trio be absent it should be relatively easy for the Valleys. Even at full strength I still would not fancy Ring, although the Valleys would have a much harder task.

The Phelan Cup game at Kilmacthomas recently between Kill and John Mitchels which was abandoned early in the second half when Mitchels were leading by a point, has been re-fixed for the same venue to-night (Friday) at 7.30. These are obviously very evenly matched sides and this game should be well worth seeing. Let's hope the misbehaviour of the last game is not repeated.

WATERFORD FAIL WATERFORD Divide The Honours

Waterford ... 2-7 Kilkenny ... 2-7 Waterford ... 1-7

Although defeat was Waterford's lot in the Express Cup final at Tramore on Sunday night last against a near full-strength Kilkenny side, their display was one of their best for many a long day, and the big Waterford following in the attendance of 7,000 must have gone home eminently pleased, and happy in the knowledge that the County, on this showing can stand up to the best in the land.

Certainly this display gives a tremendous fillip to their League semi-final chances against All-Ireland champions, Tipp, on Sunday week, and some who were so readily prepared to discount the team's chances in that game, must now be giving serious thought to revising that viewpoint.

This was a game of hurling thrills, in the best of championship traditions. Both sides as near full strength as was possible in the circumstances, made it quite clear from the very start that victory was their ulterior goal, and that nothing less would suffice. Well the laurels went to the Noreiders after a truly pulsating struggle, but the honours must be divided in equal proportion between sides that made this a game to remember.

Kilkenny were without the left flank of their attack, Eddie Keher and Tom Walsh — the remainder of the side was as selected. But Waterford were not free of trouble either and both Tom Cunningham and John Meaney were late with draws.

Kilkenny it must be stressed were not unworthy winners but if ever there was a game Waterford did not deserve to lose this was it. They were at worst worth a draw and in fact had not lady luck turned her back on some of their efforts, they might well have snatched a victory that would not have been undeserved. But the most significant fact is that Waterford matched strides with this Kilkenny team that only recently humiliated Tipp, on Thurles soil, and were the equal of the Leinster champions in practically every rudiment of the game. The pace of Sunday's game was a cracker, that never subsided until the long whistle had sounded. And packed into those sixty minutes were passages of quality hurling, thrills and near misses that unexaggeratingly earn for this game the title of "epic."

AN EXPENSIVE CALF!

JOHN QUINN, Blackchurch, Rathcoole, Co. Dublin appeared before Judge L. B. Skinner, at Dungarvan District Court on Wednesday on a charge of stealing a Friesian bull calf valued at £205.0, the property of Mr. Tim McGrath, Manager, Dungarvan Livestock Mart, on March 1st last. The defendant pleaded not guilty to the charge and was not legally represented.

When asked by the Judge at the outset whether he wished to be tried there and then by the Justice or by a Judge and jury the defendant replied: "I don't mind."

Judge Skinner: You are not as simple as all that. How do you wish to be tried? Defendant: By you.

Mr. Martin Kelly, Kilgobinet, said on March 1st last, he brought a Friesian bull calf to Dungarvan Mart to be sold. The calf was given the number 119 at the Mart and was sold for £20. It was a six day old calf.

Mr. John Dwanne said he was employed as an Auctioneer's clerk at the mart on that date. The calf was sold to a man named Michael Comerford.

Mr. Chambers of Rathcoole. He later returned to the defendant's home and Mr. Chambers arrived there also with the calf. The defendant said he bought it in Dungarvan but got stuck in a traffic jam there and could not get back to pay for it. He intended to pay for it the following week.

Mr. M. Galgey said he also wished to support it. The people that would receive this money would not spend it outside the county and because of that he believed it would be money well spent.

Mr. John Fahey, T.D., supporting the motion, said these people were the poor ones of the county and deserved the increase.

The Defendant, Mr. John Quinn, in evidence, said he bought five calves in Dungarvan on March 1, and paid for them. He saw this calf on the way out and he bought it from under the Auctioneer's hammer. He took the calf to his car, but got caught in a traffic jam and could not get back. He intended to pay for it the following week.

Mr. Hynes (Secretary) said to implement the motion would cost £26,000 a year, whereas the overall estimate for Home Assistance (exclusive of this proposed increase) was £28,000.

Mr. John Griffen said he knew of Home Assistance recipients who had not even a fire and were really very hungry. He believed they would have to give this increase even if only to awaken the country to the plight of the poor.

Supt. Fanning said the defendant had a previous conviction in 1956 for the larceny of milk.

Mr. Hynes said if he introduced a scheme treating all those involved individually and the Committee then approved of the over-expenditure, they could then pass it.

It was decided to adjourn it for one month when Mr. Hynes would have a report on all those currently receiving Home Assistance.

J.H.—WATERFORD 4-9; J.F.—KERRY 2-9; WATERFORD 0-8

CLARE 3-5; WATERFORD 0-8

WATERFORD experienced mixed fortune at Dungarvan on Sunday last when the County commenced its onslaught on two of this year's Provincial championship crowns. The Intermediate hurlers accounted for Clare easily if unimpressively whilst the junior footballers, as expected made their exit against Kerry. The games attracted quite a large crowd, and were played under ideal conditions, but the standard of the fare in both games left more than a little to be desired.

The opening football tie failed to produce a shock Waterford victory, although, in truth to tell, Kerry were not nearly as potent as their lineup suggested on paper. Be that as it may, they were far too good for a Waterford side that tried hard all through, but still never looked like causing an upheaval.

Waterford's best chances came in the opening half, when they played with the strong wind behind them. But the forwards failed to turn to profitable account many good chances, whilst to make matters worse, John Meaney blazed a penalty kick wide in the 10th minute. At the short whistle, Waterford held but a solitary point lead, and even to partisan Waterford followers, this looked an entirely inadequate lead.

Waterford were well served in defence by Colin Bannan — their best defender in fact, and Ger and Eddie Mooney.

glaring weaknesses in several sectors, and the writer finds it difficult to believe that this is the strongest Waterford side that can be fielded in this grade.

The less said about Clare's challenge the better. They were for the most part a team without pose or purpose, and they themselves must have found solace in the fact that they were only beaten by a seven point margin. They were as poor as that.

Even when playing against the breeze in the first half, Waterford enjoyed a territorial advantage, and what they established a five point lead after twenty minutes, seemed set for an overwhelming victory. Then, however, they suffered during the hour, and in the minutes remaining before the interval, notched 2-3 to pull even leading 2-4 to 2-2.

But the second half was not long in progress before Waterford asserted complete dominance. Kieran Ryan kicked them back into the lead within four minutes with a goal scored from the full forward position, and within a minute he had scored a second goal. The result was a 5-1 victory for Waterford.

For Waterford a repetition of this form can only mean defeat in the semi-final. Some of the established players did not live up to expectations, yet in fairness to them it is difficult to visualise them being as bad again.

The form of Ned Power between the posts was alarming to say the least, and never did he inspire the slightest degree of confidence. Thankfully, however, he then went on to Tramore and in a more stern test proved that his lapses of earlier in the day were just one of those things.

In defence the half back trio of Ollie Wilkinson, John O'Donnell and Frankie Corcoran all played splendidly, and this line was in fact the sides best.

Both midfielders John O'Gorman and Frank Whelan were good without being great and in an attack that missed many feasible scoring chances, John Kirwan, Jackie Whelan and Kieran Ryan easily stood out.

ROOF REPAIRS TO ARDKEEN

"SOMEONE RESPONSIBLE" ONCE again the proposed expenditure of £14,000 on the roofs of Ardkeen Hospital, Waterford, was the centre piece of a lengthy discussion at last Monday's meeting of Waterford Health Authority, in Dungarvan. It was described by one member as a matter of public importance that should be raised in Dail Eireann, because someone, somewhere, was responsible for doing substandard work originally, or for being either incompetent or dishonest.

The Secretary (Mr. J. A. Hynes) said the roofs of the hospital were in need of immediate repair at a cost of £14,000. The Health Authority had sent a deputation to the Dept. seeking a 100% grant for this work, but they would not give anything more than a 50% grant! Mr. U. Curran said the rain was coming in through the roofs. He visited the hospital last Saturday and the roof was very bad. Attention should be given to them immediately, he said.

The Chairman, Mr. Patrick Browne said that it was made quite clear to the Deputation that Ardkeen was handed over to them in a state that it should not have been handed over. Mr. T. Lannon said no one knew the hospital was in this bad shape until the Co. Engineer, Mr. J. D. Hally visited it. Someone must be responsible, he said, for a building that was not up 20 years and now the public would have to pay £14,000 for it.

Mr. S. J. Moynihan (County Manager) said that felt roofs should never have been put on the building in the first place. Mr. Lannon said the Dept. was just trying to get out of this and he did not think the people of the county should be mulcted for something they had nothing to do with. The Co. Manager said that even a non-professional man would know that felt roofs should not have been put on. Mr. J. Griffen said it was stated at the time that they were being given Ardkeen as a gift, but it was wrong to say that. They were in fact given a liability because the hospital had inadequate roofs. The hospital was not properly built in the first place, and it was the Department's function to see that it was. Their key deputies should show the courage necessary in this matter. Having done that, they should make it a matter of public importance by raising it in Dail Eireann, because someone, somewhere, was responsible for doing substandard work or for being incompetent or dishonest. They (Health Authority) should not have to make financial provision because of that.

have strung an above average selection together and are quietly confident of advancing to the second round. But Ballinameela likewise, whilst appreciating the difficulty of the assignment, are satisfied that it is they who will prevail. Back in their ranks again will be Tony Corcoran and whether he will be played in goal or out field is bound to be a decided acquisition to them.

They appear to be very well served in defence where Pakie McCarthy, "Dodo" Cliffe, Fudge Joe Kilgrew and Tommy Reynolds will form the nucleus of that rearguard. Mick Cashman will be their key man at midfield and in attack main danger will stem from Tom Browne, John Joe Maher and Patsy Cashman. Predicting the outcome of this tie is a precarious task, but believing that Ballinameela are the better all-round balanced side they are given the vote to advance. But it promises to be a close thing.

When he was a patient there he saw basins on the floor taking the water that was seeping through. There was the danger that if they neglected them the timber would deteriorate and it would then become a much dearer job. He was not saying, however, that they should foot the bill for the job. It was then decided to defer the matter for one month and the two T.D.'s on the Health Authority (Mr. Fahey and Mr. Kennelly) will go to the Department of Health about it.
