PLEASE GIVE GENEROUSLY

With the awakening of the public conscience to the neglected plight of the mentally handicapped child, an all out drive is now under way to establish a five-day residential school in Cappoquin. Statistics show that there is an urgent need for such a school, which will serve a radius of twentyfive miles. Children will be able to spend weekends in their own homes, thereby keeping intact the link with their parents and families. To help defray the big expense in the setting up of the school and the many other aspects involved, a house-to-house collection will be held in Dungarvan and Abbeyside parish areas starting approximately Friday, 21st May. The local Committee of St. John's Association of Parents & Friends of Mentally Handicapped Children appeals with confidence to the public to give generously and wholeheartedly to this great cause. These children cannot help themselves but with specialised training and education many of them will be enabled to take their place as useful members of the community. No man stands as tall as when he stoops to help a little child.

PAUL MAKES THE CHARTS WITH "EILEEN"

It takes a lot to surprise television and radio compere singer Paul Russell, but even that imperturbable man of many parts was surprised this week when he had a phone call from Vincent Mooney of E.M.I.'s sales department, who had a message of congratulation on the great sales take-off of Paul's H.M.V. disc "Eileen."

It seems that "Eileen" now ranks next to Tom Dunphy's "Didn't Have a Dime" among the E.M.I. Irish single releases despite stiff opposition from such notables as Dermot O'Brien, the Airchords, Royal Blues and Banishes. Vincent then informed Mr. Russell that his "B" side "Lonesome I Couldn't Cry" was being re-quested in preference to the Frank Ifield version, so it looks as if the Russell boy is really hitting the jackpot. When you consider that he hasn't the great exploitation chances enjoyed by the bands through their country-wide tours this is quite an achievement.

Indeed, the future looks so bright and rosy that he has lined up two guitarists and gone into rehearsal with a very lively and slick act specially arranged for ballrooms. George O'Reilly, who will now represent Paul for his limited personal appearances, says: "I believe that he will be an enormous attraction because he has so much stage experience and has a personality-packed act."

I asked Paul himself how he felt about going on stage again in the ballrooms and he said: "I am making the time for these shows as I feel that the public who bought my record should have a chance to hear me in person. This and the lack of opportunities on T.V. to sing the songs I like to sing have increased my eagerness to get on with the engagements."

Paul, who is already an established name on continental T.V. Radio and Floorshows from the days of the fabulous Viscounts, is constantly turning down offers to travel to France, Italy, Germany, for engagements. He says: "I am a home lover, and my truest fans are in Ireland and that includes my wife Grace and 2 year old Gina." "Eileen" has already reached the top ten in Cork, Limerick and Waterford and has been voted "one to watch" by RE. His new release, which is scheduled for early June will feature an old Dean Martin hit.

Further Success for Dungarvan Karting Club

A club with a bright future—that is the Dungarvan Karting Club. Formed only last October, it had an initial membership of six, but now only seven months later that membership figure is mighty close to fifty. There are four karts in the club at present and its members are ambitious to envisage laying their own track in what they hope will be the not too distant future. That would undoubtedly be a mammoth undertaking, but the members regard it as essential and therefore they are determined to have it—and close to town.

On Sunday last four club members went to Carlow to compete in competitions in the Leinster town, and carried off the grand total of four cups and two cash prizes, which by any standards is splendid going. The competing members were Liam O'Donnell, Kiltrush; John O'Brien, Kilnafrehan Tom and Mrs. Joan Coffey, O'Connell St. The latter was second in the ladies race.

It is also worthy of note that this was only the second time club members competed in such competitions, making their achievement all the more creditable.

Incidentally Liam O'Donnell and Mrs. Coffey also collected trophies in Limerick over the Easter weekend. Congratulations are extended to all these—and all the club members in fact and Dungarvan and surrounding areas will watch their progress with even added interest in the months ahead.

Of a quiet and reserved nature, he was most popular and his death is deeply regretted.

The emains, accompanied by a large cortege, were removed to the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Tallow, and the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. Very Rev. H. O'Brien, P.P., Tallow, assisted by Rev. M. Condon, C.C., officiated.

To his bereaved widow, family and relatives we extend our deepest sympathy in their sorrow and loss.

Dungarvan Show Society's A.G.M.

The annual general meeting of the Dungarvan Show Society was held on Tuesday, 11th May, at the Ormonde Hotel. There was a good attendance.

The following is the President's (Mr. P. I. Power) address:—
 It gives me great pleasure to welcome you all to our annual general meeting. My pleasure, however, is mixed with sadness when I think of the missing faces and the gaps in our ranks caused by death during the past year. When going over in my mind the losses we have suffered, I was appalled at the number of good members and friends who have passed away since our last general meeting. The list is so long indeed that I hope the relatives and friends will not be offended if I seem to say less than I should about each and every one of them.

First and foremost I must mention the late Jimmy Lynch. I am sure I need not apologise for putting him first, for in my mind and in those of most members of the Society, the name of Lynch is forever linked with the Dungarvan Show. The brothers, George and Jack Cummins were also well known and loved by all of you. Another old friend and active committee member was the late Tommy Flynn of Grange.

In its own way, the most tragic loss of all was young Thomas Spratt, who was cut off in the prime of life, when he seemed to be headed for great success in his chosen walk of life.

I must also mention the bereavement of our esteemed committee member, Paddy Heskin, who suffered the loss of his distinguished brother Richard.

The list seems endless, but I must mention our great friend and staunch supporter the late James Bowen, who died suddenly last month. Although of late years resident in Cork, he never missed the Dungarvan Show.

We mourn them all and I am sure you will join me in renewing our sincere sympathy to their families and as a mark of respect I will ask you all to stand for a moment in silence to their memory. Should I have omitted anyone, I hope I will be forgiven as it is not easy sometimes to remember all our losses.

Once again blessed with fine weather, we can all feel well satisfied with our 1964 show. As you will have seen from the accounts, there were very substantial increases all round—nearly £700 in our turnover, and nearly £600. Satisfactory as these figures are, they are counterbalanced by a rise in expenditure, leaving a mere profit for the year of £11. The biggest item to consider is of course the increase in our prize money of £340, which, roughly speaking was over 70%. Against this, we obtained sponsorship for £222. We all know how difficult it is having made an increase, to reduce prize money. The expenses generally, will therefore require the close attention of your new Committee, but we must bear in mind that sponsors normally are committed for only 3 years.

In case the figure for gate receipts misleads you I should point out that we added 1/- to the admission charges last year, which indicates that while our attendance was up to 1963, we did not in fact have an increased attendance last year.

The entry fees show a small decrease, this may be due to the small number of entries of young horses. But so long as our show date falls so near to that of the R.D.S. Horse Show, this situation cannot well be expected to improve. Your committee has given a lot of thought to this unfortunate clashing of dates, but feel that there is nothing to be done about it in view of the congested nature of the list of other shows at that time of year. The one advantage of our date is that owing to the proximity of the August week-end, our local population is probably at its peak at the time of our show.

Our increases in prize money may well attract the necessary entries, as this fact was not widely known last year and gone word will no doubt have gone around in the meantime.

Since we formed the Society in 1961 we have secured a membership of nearly 300 and the very best thing a member can do for our Society is to get at least one new member. An increased membership would give us a large measure of security for the future. While on this subject, may I earnestly request all those members who did not pay their subscription for 1964 to do so now (and there is, unfortunately, a large number). Subscriptions at around £300 have doubled since we formed the Society and we have not increased the subscriptions for a very long time, if indeed ever. The new executive Committee, formed after last year's annual meeting has been working satisfactorily and has been of great assistance to us in the executive committee, where we now have a greater representation of the members, especially when making important decisions.

For some time before that it was felt by several members of the executive that there were too few in it. We now have nearly twenty on the executive committee instead of about eight, and what is more important, every section of the Show's activities is represented. There are now 81 on the general Committee, and there were in all, about 22 meetings held during the year by the various Committees.

The Trade Exhibition has now become a very extensive and interesting feature of the Show. The big increase in numbers can be seen in the revenue under this heading. We are, however, lacking in revenue in these stands would embarrass us and I feel this is a matter for consideration by the incoming Committee.

The Dungarvan Show now holds a high place in the country for prestige and high quality all round and we are grateful to the Press, both local and national for the helpful way in which they have always presented us to the public.

Yet another distinction has been conferred on us this year by the Show Jumping Association of Ireland's decision to nominate us as one of the few venues to hold the Guinness-Novice competition. This is a purely novice competition, not only for horse but for rider also and 1st and 2nd will be eligible for the final at the Royal Dublin Society's Horse Show in August.

Of course the big attraction continues to be the jumping and particularly last year in view of the big sponsorship given for this purpose. Capt. Morgan really went to town in presenting an outstanding jump course. Indeed, so formidable was it in the open that many of us gave a sigh of relief when the first horse to jump, ridden by a young American, had a clear round. One of the difficulties continues to be the hold-up in the presentation of cups in the parade of prize winners, due to a slowness in the communications of results. I would recommend to the incoming committee that another sub-committee be appointed to iron out the difficulties in this sector, in view of the fact that these sub-committees have been so successful in other sections of the Show, as I feel this Parade is a very important feature of the Show.

Once again our congratulations and best thanks go to the highly organised ladies committee for the delightful display they present in the Home Industries Section, which is one of the most popular features of our Show.

There if, of course, no doubt that the most difficult job connected with the show and the one which we depend mainly upon mainly for our revenue—gate receipts—and I refer to the Gate Committee, who were so ably organised by those two stalwart members of the clan Kelleher—Humphrey and Stephen, and we further thank Humphrey Kelleher for so kindly presenting us with a most comprehensive report dealing with this big problem, which should be very useful to the Gate Committee next July.

We were glad to see the return of the local Harriers Hunt so well turned out and we congratulate the Joint Masters for an impressive display.

Our ladies catering committee deserves our best thanks for doing a much bigger job than ever before, and for presenting profit and our best thanks to Miss Beresford who performed another miracle of the loaves and fishes in the judges tent.

I wish thank all our subscribers and sponsors and especially: Messrs. Guinness and their Associated Company, Irish Ale Breweries; our well known local firms: Dickens Leather; the Dungarvan Co-Op; Clover Meats of Waterford; Messrs. Bowman Jewellers; Waterford Glass; the Marquis of Waterford, and another well known gentleman who wishes to remain anonymous, and last, but by no means least, our best thanks are due to Mr. W. E. D. Allen, of Whitechurch, who has so generously given us so much free advertising each year and who last year excelled even his great generosity to us, by plastering the entire country with the biggest and finest posters ever used to advertise a show in Ireland.

I wish to thank all the stewards and all the members of the sub committees and all who helped in any way during the year.

We are very grateful to all the judges who come here from long distances, in most cases at their own expense, so generously each year.

My final thanks must go to the hard working Secretary. As some are aware, we recently lost Mrs. Crowley, who did so much for us since she joined us in 1963, when she very bravely took on the job of organising that year's show at very short notice. Now, in thanking her very sincerely and deeply conscious of the personal difficulties she had during the year, when her brother died suddenly and later her mother died, we renew our sympathy and our gratitude.

And it gives me very great pleasure to welcome to our ranks Mrs. Eunice Harkin, and Mrs. Coward, who have already done so much for us, as our new Secretaries, and I trust will receive every help and co-operation from us all. In helping to ease their difficult task may I once again ask for a very definite and early closing date for all entries and the help of our distinguished veterinary surgeons in the matter of getting cattle and horse entries and particularly having them filled in by the exhibitors.

Irish Dancing Competitions

The Presentation was the scene of crowds of Irish dancers and spectators on Saturday 15th inst., when the girls of the Presentation dancing school, as well as dancers from An Rinn, Ardmore, Grange, Mercy Convent, Abbeystead, Whitechurch, Old Parish, Garrarbane, Sligh Cua, Dungarvan C.B.S., Ballincourt and Villerstown schools, performed. The latter group were under the charge of Villierstown I.C.A., and performed a dance composed by Bean Uí Allachain, as was the tune for part of the dance. The subject of the dance was Ceardcha Micil de hOrda, a song composed many years ago by the late Padraic O Milleadhá, father of Bean Uí Allachain. The dance was performed beautifully by the above children, in spite of the fact that they had only two rehearsals.

VISIT BY WEXFORD F.T.T.A.

On Sunday last some two hundred people, including four priests and adult committee, left Wexford on an excursion which took in Waterford City, Dungarvan, Cappoquin, the Vee and the Rock of Cashel.

At the town hall, Dungarvan they presented the Chairman of the Urban Council, Deputy T. A. Kyne, with a letter from the Mayor of Wexford, on behalf of the citizens of the Borough of Wexford. Replying, Dep. Kyne welcomed them to the town on behalf of the Council. He said it was a pleasure and a privilege to welcome such a gathering from such a distinguished county as Wexford. All Ireland shared the pride of the people of Wexford in the fact that many of the leading figures in the world, particularly the U.S.A., were descendants of men who first saw the light of day in Wexford. Like Wexford, he said, Waterford, too, had sent out great men.

Referring to the late President Kennedy, Deputy Kyne said that by his life and death

FRIARY P.P.U. MEET

The 13th Annual Re-Union of St. Augustine's College Past Pupils took place on Sunday last. There was a record attendance of old boys.

Mr. Simon Murphy, Cork President of the Union, in his address, spoke of the crying need of a comprehensive plan on career guidance. They were all aware, he said, that opportunities existing to-day were not present a few short years ago. With our current rate of economic expansion, such opportunities are rapidly increasing. They might well ask themselves what was being done to ensure that future generations would be given every reasonable chance of being fitted into the most suitable occupation in adult life, and thereby ensure that each member of society could make a full and fruitful contribution to the betterment of all. The answer he suggested was to set up career guidance sections or classes in primary as well as in secondary schools, where children would be informed in a sensible and constructive fashion, with the use of all available aids, on careers in all aspects.

This would give young people some idea of what was involved in each and not have them rush blindly into one career because of social status, or studiously avoid another because of some imaginary stigma. Career guidance should also include the ability on the part of the school authorities to direct suitable pupils towards specialisation rather than confusing the young with masses of detail on: (a) subjects which have no interest or practical value for them; (b) detailed information on other matters, when pupils could be directed to the sources of this information.

In recent years there appears to be an increase in industrial strife and unrest of one kind or another. A considerable amount of this unrest was caused by lack of job satisfaction. Many young people had, through no fault of their own, no choice of occupation after leaving school and had to accept any position that offered itself. Job satisfaction was of paramount importance, and career guidance should, in time, prove very beneficial to society and the nation in general.

Very Rev. T. C. Butler, O.S.A., Rector, speaking at the dinner, welcomed the guests and referred to the many successes of the college both academically and on the sportsfield during the past year. This year they had a record number of boarders in the school, but the matter of accommodation was now a critical one. They had to turn down many applicants at the beginning of each year. He appealed to parents of prospective pupils to apply for entrance into the school.

While he paid tribute to various past pupils, who had earned distinction for themselves during the year, he had to single out one name in particular, that of Lieut. John Cummins, who had won not merely national but international fame for his prowess in athletics. He heartily congratulated him on behalf of the school and on behalf of the past-pupils.

Fr. Butler referred to a new subject which was being introduced into the curriculum of secondary schools — that of Civics. This was something that was long overdue. Briefly, it meant training our children to be good citizens. It was a lesson in patriotism in the widest sense of the word. To-day, we were not being asked to die for our country, but to live and work for her, to take justifiable pride in her achievements, past and present. Through Civics, children and young people would be shown how to obey lawful authority, to help to preserve law, order and discipline, to respect private and public property. He referred to the vandalism caused by irresponsible youngsters to public property of all kinds, decorative shrubs, roadside trees, signposts and telephone booths. We have neglected this aspect of education and our failure in this respect has had deplorable results.

Another point that came under the heading of Civics was the study of our locality. There was an untapped source of history in all our parishes — one need not travel more than five miles in any direction to find numerous links with the distant past. There was a tendency to belittle this attachment to local lore, to regard it as narrow-minded. Many of us walk through the country to-day as strangers. We don't even know the meaning of the place-names that we use. Too little was being done to preserve our existing monuments — castles, abbeys, raths, Celtic crosses etc. We have reason to be ashamed of ourselves for not alone our neglect of what remains but of our apathy, not to speak of our sense of destruction of public property. It was harder to fight our own apathy than a foreign enemy who provoked us to action.

Dealing with the introduction of the comprehensive school into the educational system, Fr. Butler said that we must hasten slowly in accepting the ideal of a comprehensive school. Were we concentrating too much on producing good technicians, good economists, top class tradesmen, highly geared to a technological plane, at the expense of other and more important values? There was a great danger of our education becoming secularised and of our schooling and teaching being reduced to serve practical ends required by an economic situation — in other words, making an economic necessity the be all and end all of education and forgetting that the acquisition of techniques and skills was only a means to a higher end, namely the equipping of man for life and hereafter. The basis of all education must be in the formation of character of the pupil coupled with a deep, personal religious outlook, which would serve as the chief guide of his conduct and the mainspring of his actions and his thinking.

Amongst the guests at the dinner were the Very Rev. T. A. Hunt, O.S.A., former Vicar General of the Diocese of Cairns, and first Provincial of the Australian Province; Rev. D. Gough, O.S.A., Nigerian Mission, Rev. T. Power, O.S.A., Australia.

A resolution congratulating Most Rev. Dr. Dalton, O.S.A., Bishop of Adamawa, and the foundation of the Nigerian Mission, was passed unanimously. Two of the pioneers of the Mission, the present Bishop and Rev. D. Redmond, O.S.A., are past pupils of the Friary, while 30 of the priests who have laboured on the Mission received their education at the Friary. Four other priests at present teaching there were on the staff of St. Augustine's.

Votes of sympathy were passed with Dr. John Kiely, Cork, on the death of his son, and with the widow and family of the late John J. Cummins, former Chairman of the Executive Committee of the P.P.U.

Before the meeting, a football match between Past and Present pupils took place in the Friary Field. The Past Pupils' team were winners by the narrow margin of two points.

Past Pupils team: Rev. B. Lawlor, O.S.A.; Rev. M. Kennedy, C.C.; R. Waide, A. Roche, P. Webber, P. Tierney, B. O'Keefe, D. Gleeson, P. Hartly, J. O'Mahony, S. McGrath, T. Curran, T. McCarthy, D. Buckley, P. Feeney, Sub-L. Buckley for A. Roche.

Later the perpetual challenge Cup and medals were presented to the winning team.

Letter to Constituents

Due to pressure of work arising from my election canvass when I collected some hundreds of complaints to be attended to as soon as possible. I find that I am unable to deal with them all as quickly as I would wish to do. I would like therefore to apologise to any one who has not as yet got a reply and to inform them that I hope to have dealt with all within the next two weeks. Should I fail to do so I would be obliged if the people concerned would write to me letting me know of the nature of their complaint. It is possible that during the canvassing I received verbal complaints which I may not have made a written note of and some of these may have been overlooked.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, in anticipation of your co-operation by publication in your next issue.

Sincerely yours,
T. A. KYNE, T.D.

Late James Foley

LAURAGH, CAPPOQUIN

The death occurred on Friday night, May 14th, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, of James Foley, after a rather lengthy duration of illness and at the allotted span. He was a gentle and most inoffensive person and his kind manner made him very many friends, especially in his own district of the Brickey country where he was better known and liked.

His remains were removed on Saturday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan, followed by a large cortege and were blessed and received by Rev. J. Murphy, C.C.

The last Mass on Sunday morning was offered for the eternal repose of his soul and the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery later in the day. Rev. D. O'Byrne, C.C., officiated at the graveside.

(Funeral arrangements by J. Kiely and Sons, Undertakers, Dungarvan.)

Lismore Notes

WOMEN'S CONFRATERNITY
The monthly meeting of the women's branch of the Sacred Heart Confraternity will be held on this (Friday) evening in St. Charthage's Church, at 7.30 p.m.

IMPORTANT MEETING
A very important meeting to promote further interest in the School for Mentally Retarded Children in Cappoquin, will be held in the Courthouse, Lismore on Tuesday night next, May 25, at 8.30 p.m. Many well known speakers will be in attendance and a film show concerning the project will also be shown.

LISMORE CRICKET TEAM DEFEAT WANDERERS
Lismore, the holders, retained their unbeaten record in the Cork Junior league by defeating Wanderers "B" at Lismore by 113 runs to 12. This was their second victory over the Cork club within a week as they had beaten Wanderers "A" on the previous Sunday. Lismore were much the stronger side, but their winning margin flattered them a little. Wanderers, faced by a total of 113, elected to play for a draw, but when Charniker and Baitman at two and three were unhelpfully run out, the side collapsed.

M. Thompson scored 55 for Lismore not out.

BALLINVELLA I.C.A.
At the May meeting of the above Guild, stress was laid on the implementation of Federation Proposals for the coming A.C.W.W. Conference. Guild members are busy raising funds for the Conquer Cancer Campaign, and the Rehabilitation Project was granted a sympathetic hearing. Miss M. McCarthy displayed some fine specimens of Irish lace and was congratulated on being awarded a brannra by Country Markets for three of these exhibits.

Mrs. Schiller, Hon. Treasurer, showed a favourable balance in her statement of accounts.

The Competition for the night was won by Miss M. McCarthy.

Mrs. O'Gorman, N.T., of the Lismore Guild was guest speaker. Her treatment of "Waterford Old and New" gripped the attention of her audience with an absorption parallel to that shown by the speaker herself. Reports, such as hers on the history of the Deise, the beauty and tradition of our county and the role of our people in promoting the welfare of our barony deserve to be put in print and circulated among our youth. Miss P. O'Donnell proposed a vote of thanks to the speaker and this was seconded by Miss M. McCarthy.

N.F.A. NEWS FARMERS BETRAYED

The 1965 Budget will go down in history as "the great betrayal." Farmers, listening to the continuous flow of statements from Ministers, committing the Government to the closing of the gap between urban and rural incomes, had rightly expected that progressive action would be taken in the Budget to continue this process.

Far from the process continuing it was actually reversed when the tax net was stretched to include a few farmers who sell produce direct to the consumer from their own farms.

The feeling of betrayal is stronger when farmers recall the undertaking given by the Government during the recent Review of Agriculture with N.F.A., to take action on the rates problem. Rates were not even mentioned in the Budget.

Dairy farmers are also aggrieved that no action was taken on the N.F.A. demand that the price of milk be increased by 2d. a gallon on the basis price and that the quality bonus payment be increased from 1d. to 2d. per gallon.

From the many telephone calls already received from members throughout the country one thing is patently clear: never has the farming community been so irate. Many wonder what the Minister for Agriculture, Mr. Haughey meant when he stated in the Dail recently on introducing the Estimate for his Department: "... a considerable gap (between urban and rural incomes) still exists and the Government are determined to bring about a progressive improvement in this situation."

Every N.F.A. Branch in the country will be meeting during the next week to assess the Budget and the National Council of the Association will announce its verdict after a special meeting on the 20th of this month.

C.I.O. REPORT

There is nothing really new in the Committee on Industrial Organisation's Report dealing with the fruit and vegetable processing industry. The main point of the lengthy report is contained in the word "co-operation." It preaches co-operation, not only between the firms engaged in the industry, but also between the processing firms and the producers.

N.F.A. is all for this. It has been preaching such a doctrine for many other commodities and during the past few months the Association has been actively engaged in trying to promote closed liaison between the producer and the processor in another vital sector of agriculture.

N.F.A. also agrees with the Survey Team's recommendation for the setting up of two representative committees, one for fruit and one for vegetables, under the auspices of the Department of Agriculture, for the purpose of working out a programme aimed at increasing the productivity of growers of produce for processing.

"Lack of outlets is the fundamental reason why the horticultural arm of agriculture has been slow to develop in this country," said Mr. Jim Quinn, Secretary of N.F.A. National Fruit and Vegetable Committee, commenting on the Report. "The position has improved in the past few years with the development of Erin Foods, but farmers are still inclined to be cautious."

He explained that this caution was due in some measure to disappointment in the past and cited the case of farmers who were encouraged to go into blackcurrants. "Many of them, heartened by the success of others, entered the field without the protection of contracts and found that they could not get rid of their produce."

CONTRACT PRODUCTION

He considered that contract production was the main need of the industry, "not so much contract with individual farmers but with groups."

The N.F.A. "Green Book" like the Survey Team recognised the vast potential for horticulture in this country. While pointing out that horticultural crop contributed less than 3% of the total output from Irish farm land, it went on to say: "Expansion of horticultural production in the future is desirable because it involved a labour of intensive use of land; it offers scope for improvement of incomes on small farms and for employment of more manpower in rural areas."

"There is also likely to be greater demand for horticultural products in all parts of the western world where urban spending power is increasing rapidly."

All sides are agreed on the needs of the industry... operation will supply the answer.

STATISTICS

"Lies, damned lies and statistics," said the man, thereby setting the tone of most people's attitude to statistics. But whether we like it or not every facet of our daily lives fits into a statistical notch somewhere, sometime.

Statistics are the root of most of the decisions that set the pattern of our daily lives. And in a sense statistics can be the making and the breaking of farmers' economic prospects in any one year.

N.F.A. was very critical of the lack of available statistical information earlier this year when the Review of Agriculture with the Government were being made. The Review Committee fully realised that only arrangements, backed by full statistical information would carry any weight with the Government. It was annoying then to find that much of this information could not be got and that even some of the available statistics seemed to be slightly off target.

But Ireland is not the only country handicapped by lack of adequate statistics, the European Committee of the International Federation of Agricultural Producers in Oslo last week revealed. An expert committee, of which N.F.A. Economist, J. Howley is a member, will study the whole question and will meet in Paris next October to discuss the members' findings. The Committee will then make recommendations to the European Committee. Governments of member countries will then be urged by the European Committee to adopt the recommendations so that there will be a standardised statistical procedure operating in every country.

Probably the most important item to come up at the Oslo meeting, which was also attended by Mr. Rickard Deasy, President, N.F.A., was the need for a more comprehensive system of statistics. "For older people who left the land forty years ago 'The Riordans' might revive nostalgic memories of hunting for eggs in the manger. For me it's an agony beyond bearing. The significance of two grown men pulping turnips, one using the left hand so that the turnips would need to be boiled to go through, while the other and more sensible man risks his fingers in the work, has put me off the programme," said Mr. Bruton.

HERE AND THERE

"We have reached the stage where the rates burden can no longer be borne."—Mr. Donagh O'Malley, T.D., Minister for Health.

"... the very speed of economic advance in recent years has widened the gap between the underprivileged and the rest of the community."—Editorial, Irish Press.

"Co-operatives are the ideal method for ensuring the widespread distribution of property and, coupled with State and private ownership, give the most stable base to a just economic system."—Mr. B. Halligan, M.A., Chairman, Community Development Movement in Ireland.

A non-committal Mr. Peart, British Minister of Agriculture, told the British House of Commons this week that the purpose of his visit to Belfast and Dublin "was to enable me to meet the Agricultural Ministers and to see something of the agricultural industry in both countries."

A telling comment on social conditions in the West of Ireland was made at the Church of Ireland General Synod in Dublin this week, when Mr. F. L. Jacob, Chairman of the Sparsed Populated Area Commission, said that in the nine years since the Commission the tourist trade and season had expanded and the permanent population had reduced so that the Church was faced with a problem which now had to be grappled with.

Transfered.—Sergt. M. Flynn a native of Kerry, who served as a Garda in Tramore until recently, has been notified of his transfer from Rathgormack to Kill.

Felicitation is extended to charming young lady, Miss Breda Foley, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Foley, St. Annes Tce., on her engagement to Mr. J. Regan, Kill.

Children of the combined parishes are eagerly looking forward to the annual Childrens Sports, sponsored by Muinir na Tire, which will be held on 20th June, in Bonmahon.

Sincere sympathy goes to the relatives of the late Mr. Wm. Galvin, Clonea, on their recent bereavement.

Conclusion of Mission.—The weeks Mission conducted in St. Annes Church, Ballylonean and Faha Chapel, on Sunday night last in the presence of a crowded congregation. The ceremony included rosary, sermon and renewal of Baptismal Vows, Papal Blessing and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, imparted by Very Rev. P. Farrell, P.P. The very successful mission was conducted by two members of the Passionist Order, Rev. Fr. Oswald and Rev. Fr. Dermot.

On Sunday week last the mission at the Church of the Exaltation of Holy Cross, Stradbally, concluded. It was conducted by the above-mentioned Fathers.

Silver Jubilee.—Her many friends send god wishes to Sr. Mary Ida Halpin, Holy Family Convent, France, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Halpin, Durrow, Stradbally, on the occasion of her Silver Jubilee.

A number of young men of the Stradbally parish accompanied a group of future employees of the new Kilmeaden Cheese Factory, travelled across Channel last weekend to undergo a course in cheese-making. The most up-to-date methods of production will operate at the new factory.

A Mission opened in the parish of St. Brigids, Kilrossanty, on Sunday evening last.

Bonmahon Slip.—Waterford Co. Council decided to contact the Fisheries Section of the Dept. of Agriculture in connection with the extension and repair to Bonmahon Slip.

At a meeting of the Council, the matter was raised by Mr. T. A. Kyne, T.D. In reply to question, Mr. J. D. Hally (Co. Engineer) said the work would cost £3,000. It would cost £12,000 to erect a sea wall. Mr. Milo Galgey said that shell fishing was one of the biggest exports from Ireland. If the extension and the repairs were carried out the fishermen of Bonmahon could operate on a bigger scale.

Two members of the Garda Force retired recently: Sergt. Connelly and Garda Donnellan, Kill, Co. Waterford. To mark their retirement a presentation was made on behalf of the combined parishes of Dunhill and Kill, at a social held recently. Both gentlemen spent many years of service in the area. We wish them many happy years in their retirement.

YOUGHAL NOTES

HIGH WATER WEEK-ENDING 29th MAY

Table with 3 columns: Day, Morning, Evening. Rows for Sunday through Saturday.

SALMON FISHING Salmon fishing by nets was fairly good last week when boats had their fair share of salmon. However the total catch for the week was not as good as the previous week, which was the best for the whole season. There are good reports from upriver from Ardmore and Ballycoolan, but Knockadon men had a very lean week.

According to fishermen, the salmon now being caught are a better type of fish than what has been taken for some time. The price to fishermen last week was 7/6 per lb. On the opening days of this week prospects were not too good due to a strong N.E. wind and heavy rains.

CIVIL DEFENCE EXERCISES The Youghal Civil Defence Unit, consisting of 27 members recently went on a weekend camping exercise at Camden Fort. The Youghal unit won the first fighting test in which 12 units took part.

HOLIDAY VILLAGE FOR YOUGHAL Recently, Mr. George Perks, the well known amusement caterer acquired some 50 acres of land at Claycastle, Youghal, at a cost of £50,000. This area is to be transformed into a holiday village with chalets, recreation centre, indoor and outdoor games, carnival attractions and an 18 hole pitch and putt course. It is hoped to have the project in full swing by next year.

LIFE BOAT STATION It is understood that the work of providing a new slipway and pontoons to the present life boat station on the Mall, is to commence on June 1st, during which time the life boat will be moored off the Town Hall. When the work is completed, the present craft will be replaced by a larger and more up to date life boat.

LABOUR EXCHANGE MANAGERSHIP Hearty congratulations are extended to Miss Sally Lynch, daughter of Mrs. and the late Mr. Pat Lynch, of 131 North Main Street, Youghal, on her appointment to Managership of the local Labour Exchange, where she was a clerical officer under the late Manager, Mr. James Aherne, deceased.

MEN'S RETREAT The annual Retreat for the men of the parish was opened on Sunday evening last and is being conducted by two Dominican Fathers, Rev. Dr. Morgan and Rev. Fr. Whelan, of Pope's Quay, Cork. There was a fine attendance at both the evening exercises and morning Masses. The retreat for women was closed with Papal Blessing and renewal of Baptismal Vows, at 3 p.m., on Sunday last. The closing for the men will take place on Sunday next, at 7 p.m.

FRIARY BURIAL GROUND Recently, workmen engaged in extending Sheehan's Garage at Devonshire Square, Youghal, unearthed a burial chamber, which revealed two skeletons lying side by side. The chamber was 5 feet below the surface, 3 feet wide and 2 feet high consisting of masonry walls, with stone slabs. This is part of the burial ground of the old Franciscan Friary at South Abbey, founded in 1224, and was the first foundation of the Franciscans in Ireland. Where this Abbey originally stood there now stands the Presentation Convent. This convent was erected in 1832 on the foundations of the old Franciscan Abbey, and in the course of evacuation, many relics of the Abbey were discovered.

Some few years ago, not far from the Abbey, the skeletons of three monks were unearthed, two had leather girdles and the other had the remains of leather sandals.

The remains will be reinterred in the Presentation Convent burial ground.

NEW GARDAI SERGTS. Sergt. John Gurney, a native of Cork City, has been transferred to Youghal Station as Serjeant in Charge, from Ballyduff, where he was stationed for the past eighteen months. Junior Officer is Sergt. J. Quinn who has been transferred from Killeagh. They are replacing Sergt. J. J. McCarthy, who has been transferred to Union Quay, and Sergt. P. McCarthy, who has been transferred to Fermoy.

WATER BUS FOR HARBOUR It is learned that water bus, costing £7,500, may be used to provide trips around Youghal Harbour and Bay during the coming months, in conjunction with C.I.E. bus tours. This is being planned by a number of Youghal men, whose identity has not been disclosed so far. They have already examined such a bus in Nanagh, which would accommodate fifty passengers. This is yet another effort to boost the tourist industry in Youghal. These buses are said to be the last word in comfort and have a great attraction whether the weather be wet or fine.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

DEATH OF VERY REV. DR. AHERNE Deep regret has been occasioned locally by the news of the death of Very Rev. Pierce Aherne, D.D., St. John's College, Waterford, which occurred at May Park Nursing Home during the week. Dr. Aherne's family home had been at Tintur near Mount Melleray. To his brothers, Very Rev. Patrick Aherne, Lima, Peru, and Mr. James Aherne, Fermville, Lis more, sincere sympathy is extended in their bereavement.

YOUGHAL DISTRICT COURT At Youghal District Court, before Mr. Justice Skinner, John Costigan and Maurice Walsh, both of Dungarvan, were charged with breaking and entering the lock-up shop of John Wyse, Dungarvan, and stealing scrap brass and copper to the value of £60. The Justice applied a P.O.A. in the case of Edward Connors, who was charged with receiving the goods knowing same to have been stolen. Connors and Walsh were fined £4 tigan and Walsh were fined £2 each, plus 18/- costs each.

John O'Brien of Mountcotton, Ballymacoda, was charged by John Hennessy, of the same address, with (1) common assault; (2) using threatening language likely to lead to a breach of the peace. The Justice adjourned the case for three months and said if O'Brien paid £3-3-0 on each summons, he would take a lenient view of the matter.

LATE MAURICE CURRAN KILRUSH, DUNGARVAN We deeply regret to place on record the sad event of the death of Maurice Curran, which occurred on Wednesday, May 12th, at his residence, after a period of indifferent health and at the fullness of years. He was a hardworking, industrious member of the farming community, and his gentle and unassuming manner won for him very many true and life-long friends. He was a keen G.A.A. follower and was father of the well known All-Ireland hurler, Thomas Curran, who brought honour to his native county in 1948.

To his heart-broken widow and family we tender our deepest condolence at the passing of a loving husband and kind father. The removal of his remains took place on Thursday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church, followed by a huge cortege consisting of all sections of the community and who had travelled from near and far, and his coffin was blessed and received by Rev. W. Power, C.C., assisted by Rev. J. Gough, O.S.A., Nigeria.

Solemn Requiem Office and High Mass was sung on Friday, celebrant being his nephew Rev. Fr. Thomas Curran, Kiltegan College, Co. Wicklow, and the interment took place immediately afterwards in the adjoining family plot. Rev. Fr. Curran imparted the final absolution at the graveside, assisted by the choir of priests. Another very large and most impressive concourse were present to sympathise with his family and relatives, and to pray for their departed friend.

Large sheaves of Mass-cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy were received by his widow and family. The chief mourners were: Mrs. Margaret Curran, Kiltush (widow); Thomas Curran, Hard-ware Merchant, Grattan Square, James Curran, England, Jack Curran, Kiltush, Michael Curran, C.I.E. Official, Wexford, Inspector Bernard Curran, Garda Síochána, Dublin (son); Mrs. Mary Walsh, Kilrossanty (daughter); Mr. M. Walsh (son-in-law); Mrs. T. Curran, Mrs. J. Curran, Mrs. M. Curran, Mrs. B. # Villagers go down in Sargent Cup

Mount Sion ... 6-7
Abbeyside ... 4-6

Mount Sion's dominance of the senior hurling scene continues. At Cappoquin on Thursday night of last week they captured the Sargent Cup from the holders, Abbeyside, in a game played under ideal conditions but which never lived up to expectations for the sizeable crowd present.

It was in fact a decider that disappointed to a considerable extent. It failed to produce a defeat of the county champions and Abbeyside can offer no excuses for they had chances galore to bring this about.

They were well on top during the opening half when terrorially they enjoyed a tremendous advantage. This half featured some great hurling by their midfielder Liam Enright who saw to it that their attack was plentifully supplied.

And when the interval was reached and the Villagers led by 3-3 to 1-3 there wasn't one amongst the attendance who could say it was an undeserved lead.

But the second half brought a big change and the half was almost completely dominated by Sion. They piled on the pressure and once they edged in front it was obvious they were heading for another victory. It is difficult to explain that second half Abbeyside fade out, when all but three or four of their side found the going beyond them. Mount Sion must be eminently pleased with their win in view of the fact that it was achieved without the services of such regulars as P. Grimes, Seamus Power, Larry Guinan and John Flavin. Abbeyside, it is true, fielded without Rogie John Hogan, a flu victim, yet Johnny Hogan, a flu victim, they were not nearly as handicapped as the Monastery side.

Most pleasing feature of the game from a Mount Sion point of view must have been the sparkling hurling served up by their young newcomers in attack. Stephen Greene and Danny Mahon, who together with Frankie Walsh took the honours in attack.

In defence, Martin Og Morrissey played powerful hurling well assisted by Tom Galagher and Phil Fanning.

For Abbeyside, Austin Flynn at full back stood head and shoulders over friend and foe—the best man on view in fact. Behind him, goalkeeper Pat Enright, though beaten six times, made many thrilling saves, but for once centre-back Mick Kiely seemed at loggerheads with his hurley and nothing would go right for him.

Liam Enright gave a thundering first half performance but faded after the changeover, and in attack Duck Whelan, not for the first time was easily best.

Senior Footballers Heavily Defeated

LIMERICK 4-10;

WATERFORD 0-6

WATERFORD football descended to an all time low level at Sear Treacy, Tipperary, on Sunday last when Limerick—of all counties—inflicted a crushing sixteen point defeat on an insipid Deise side in the first round of the Munster senior championship. There was a time—and in the not too distant past, when victory over Limerick would have been regarded as a mere formality, but after this display, the County is firmly rooted at the end of the football ladder. Where the County will turn to after this shattering reverse is as difficult to answer as the sixty-four thousand dollar question and certainly it would appear that there is no future just now for Waterford in senior ranks.

Making matters even more point and a ding dong finish seemed in store.

DEISE COLLAPSE

But inexplicably that balancing minor heralded a complete Deise collapse and they failed to raise another flag for the remainder of the hour. Thereafter Limerick literally went to town on a now dejected opposition and in the closing twenty five minutes their fantastic scoring spree yielded 3-7 without reply. During this era of ascendancy it must be admitted that the Shannonsiders did look good, although it is understandably inclined to have reservations about their worth in view of the feebleness of the challenge provided. It is difficult to pin-point the reasons for that Waterford disintegration in the second half. Practically every sector folded up, and long before the end the bulk of the sparse attendance had begun to file homewards.

In the end it was the Limerick forwards that carried the side to victory, and there can be no doubt that they did their best to raise another flag for the dual stars Eamonn Cregan, Pat Murphy and Mick Tynan. Their midfielders Tommy Carrig and John Ahern were on top for most of the hour despite the valiant efforts of Stradbally's Tom Walsh, and they had solid defenders in Tony Fitzgerald, John Meade and Bernie Hartigan.

The attack also was a big disappointment. John Martin was easily the best of the six and with Tommy Kirwan, accounted for their side's entire total. Monty Gairy played a lot of the ball without achieving anything of note, but the remainder made little impression.

Limerick's scorers were: P. Murphy (2-1); P. Reidy (1-3); E. Cregan (1-1); D. Quirke (0-2); M. Tynan (0-2); J. Ahern (0-1).

John Martin and Tommy Kirwan with three points each had Waterford's total.

Limerick — J. Maher; L. O'Shaughnessy, S. Cox, T. Fitzgerald, B. Fitzgibbon, J. Meade, B. Hartigan; T. Carrig, J. Ahern; E. Cregan, D. Quirke, P. Murphy; J. Mullane, M. Tynan, P. Reidy.

Waterford: P. Crotty; W. Connors, E. Mooney, M. Tobin; G. Mooney, M. Connolly, N. Walsh; T. Flynn, T. Walsh (Stradbally); J. Martin, M. Gairy, T. Riordan; J. Rooney, T. J. Harty, T. Kirwan.

Tourin — By a Point Great Shamrocks Rally Fails

TOURIN 4-3;

SHAMROCKS 3-5

TOURIN, whose phenomenal championship feats have earned County wide acclaim for more than a victory at Lismore on Sunday last, when they defeated Shamrocks by a solitary point in the first round of the Intermediate hurling championship, it was a game in the best tradition of these great rivals, and the truly pulsating and super-charged finish will surely be its most memorable feature for the huge crowd that turned up at the Castle Farm ground.

It is true that the hurling was not of the classic variety, but then that was hardly to be expected with such keen rivals in opposition. It was tough—too tough at times, and referee J. Kennedy had some difficulty on occasions in trying to prevent tempers from reaching boiling point. He did issue marching orders to Tourin's Stephen Scanlon in the 12th minute of the second half but this was a somewhat harsh decision as worse misdemeanours were left unpunished.

In victory, Tourin once again displayed courage, grit and determination in defying circumstances that initially looked as though they would be fatal for them. That dismissal of Scanlon really put the cat amongst the pigeons as it were, but magnificently, superlatively, the red shirted Tourin men rose to new heights of hurling stature and held on bravely for a one-point victory, that in every sense was truly laden down with merit.

But spare a thought for Shamrocks, who were really gallant in defeat. They lost no caste on Sunday last, and it must have been galling for them after pulling down a nine-point deficit in the second half they were still pipped by the narrowest of margins. Year in, year out, they are experiencing the cruellest of championship luck, and if it may seem indifferent to them just now as they suffer and bear the pangs of defeat, the wheel of success must surely turn full cycle for them very soon.

DOMINATED FIRST HALF
It was Tourin playing with the breeze who dominated the first half. True they fell into arrears early on when Ger McGrath flashed over a point for Shamrocks, but thereafter they ruled the roost, and were excellent value for their 2-1 to 0-2 interval lead.

It was by no means a substantial lead and the game was still wide open, and likely to go either way.

But what a golden start Tourin made to that second half. They took up the running immediately and soon had established a clear nine-points lead, and Shamrocks, dour battlers though they are, were quite visibly in serious trouble. But true to tradition they came battling back and by the 12th minute had reduced their deficit to six points. Then came the incident that left how it was going to end. Again Tourin put their noses in front with a point by Jimmy minutes left Shamrocks looked Gorman, but with only five as though they had booked their second round passage with a great goal. But almost immediately there was drama at the other end and a fierce Tourin attack ended gloriously for them when Liam Sullivan belted home the decisive goal. Try as they might thereafter, Shamrocks could find no loopholes in a great defence, although the final whistle must have been thankful relief for every with Tourin affiliations.

MANY STARS
In this great victory Tourin had many stars, in fact every man afield played his own particular part in their win. Goalkeeper Frank McGrath made some great saves, and at all times was the essence of confidence.

Fronting him the fulls kept a tight rein on dangerous opponents. In the centre, Wally Dooney, back in action after a twelve months lay off, showed no ill effects and Tom Sullivan and Tom Ducey were excellent flankers.

SHAMROCKS BEST
If defeat was Shamrocks bitter portion, they too had their heroes in this hour.

Between the posts Michael Hogan gave a great exhibition and in front of him Jim Nicholson, John Callaghan and Billy O'Keefe never erred.

But it was Frankie Corcoran in the half-line who emerged as their defensive star turning in one of his greatest ever displays with the club.

And it was nothing short of a tragedy that midfielder Billy Tobin should end up on the losing side. He was undoubtedly the most polished hurler afield and defeat was certainly no fault of his. His partner, Johnny Baldwin, also played his part.

The attack for the most part found score-getting a difficult task against so close marking a defence. They did hit a purple second-half patch, during which John Joe Murphy, Paul Allen and Enzo Tobin all starred.

Tourin—F. McGrath; T. Sullivan, W. Dooney, T. Dooney; T. Landers, O. Wilkinson, J. Gorman; Jimmy Gorman, T. Hickey; J. J. Scanlon, S. Scanlon, T. Regan; T. Barry, L. Sullivan, T. P. Barry. Sub.—P. Quinn for T. P. Barry.

Shamrocks—M. Hogan; W. Keefe, J. Callaghan, Jim Nicholson; M. Browne, F. Corcoran, M. Keane; B. Tobin, J. Baldwin; J. J. Murphy, P. Allen, M. Tobin; G. McGrath, S. Murphy, John Nicholson. Referee—J. Kennedy (Clonmel).

Waterford Minors Win

WATERFORD — 3-7;
LIMERICK — 2-4.

Waterford minors salvaged some degree of county prestige at Tipperary on Sunday last, when they successfully accounted for Limerick in the first round of the football championship.

There was never the slightest doubt about the Deise boys superiority and on the run of play were even more superior than the final score suggests.

They monopolised the first-half exchanges to a considerable extent, but they were certainly up against it in a big way, for in the championship there are no more formidable opponents than the Aghlish Geraldines.

Furthermore the Ballymac's side have been considerably weakened by the departure to the U.S. of Benny Walsh, whose drive and skill will be sorely missed from their attack on Sunday. Indeed without him the attack must now be regarded as the real suspect sector of the side.

Nor can Fourmilewater have happy remembrances of their first game in this grade since stepping down from senior. That was, against Colligan Rocks in the Winter League, when they went under by two points, whilst Colligan were subsequently decisively beaten by Dungarvan in the same competition.

It is true of course that Fourmilewater are invariably seen at their best in the championship and it confidently expect them to be at their best on Sunday. That defence of theirs backboned by Thomas Walsh, Jim Ahearne and goalkeeper Liam Brazil is a mighty solid one, and they are surely not being over optimistic in expecting a midfield pull from Mick Connolly and Kieran O'Ryan.

It has been quite some time since Geraldines hit the hurling headlines in any big way, but I have been assured from men close to the club, that big things are expected from them in this championship this year. It has long been an accepted fact that Geraldines are tremendously difficult to beat in the knockout competition, yet they have not been quite the expected force for the past few years.

Undoubtedly they will be hoping for a change of fortune on Sunday. They have many experienced campaigners notably the evergreen Billy Crotty, Paddy Kenneally, Billy Hallahan and the Downings and Mernins, and these are the men that will be looked to by followers for that long overdue victory on Sunday.

There can be no denying the fact that this game is a real "natural," the outcome of which is steeped in doubt. But whilst accepting the fact that it could go either way, I must suppose come clean and plump definitely one way or the other. So it is with reluctance—and not after quite some deliberating that I give a very hesitant vote to Fourmilewater.

BALLINACOURTY SHOULD OVERCOME CAPPOQUIN
Ballinacourty, the unlucky ones of the intermediate championship for the past few years, have avowed that they will break that hoodoo this year and go on to win the divisional title.

And on Sunday next they take the first—and decisive step in that direction at the Fraher Field when they meet Cappoquin, last year's beaten Divisional finalists.

Sooner or later Ballinacourty must succeed, and certainly the personnel that their side will contain, strongly suggests that '65 could well be their year. But first Cappoquin must be mastered, and if they play as well as last year, then they will find that a very difficult assignment indeed.

GAELIC JOTTINGS

ATTRACTIVE CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES ON SUNDAY
Gaelic followers will be torn between choice of venues on Sunday next, for equally attractive championship games are listed for Dungarvan and Lismore.

At the Fraher Field strong championship contenders Ballinacourty and Cappoquin meet in the Intermediate football grade and this game should be one of the best in the entire championship. As a curtain raiser Dungarvan and Tourin meet in the semi-final of the winter hurling league.

AT LISMORE
But just as on Sunday last, greatest attention I feel will be focussed on the Castle Farm grounds, Lismore, where two intriguing championship ties are down for decision. Opening the programme are the junior hurlers of Tallow and Clashmore a game postponed from Sunday last. As stated in last week's issue the men from the Brideside town look the better all round side, and they must be given the vote to advance to the second round.

FOURMILEWATER OR GERALDINES
But it is the meeting of Fourmilewater and Geraldines in the Intermediate hurling championship that undoubtedly carries greatest appeal and this is one game that I read having to make a forecast on.

Fourmilewater, after their unsuccessful and brief sojourn in senior ranks have again stepped down from the higher grade and doubtless will be hoping that Sunday next will mark the beginning of another successful campaign in the "Intermediate" grade. But they are certainly up against it in a big way, for in the championship there are no more formidable opponents than the Aghlish Geraldines.

Furthermore the Ballymac's side have been considerably weakened by the departure to the U.S. of Benny Walsh, whose drive and skill will be sorely missed from their attack on Sunday. Indeed without him the attack must now be regarded as the real suspect sector of the side.

WINTER LEAGUE FINAL
Geraldines justified their ranking of favourites in the winter football league final at Dungarvan on Sunday last when defeating Brickey Rangers by 1-6 to 1-4.

It was a closely fought decider throughout, but Geraldines possessed that greater degree of craft and finish, and were well worth their two-point victory.

BALLINAMEELA BEST IN J.F.C.
Although minus the services of such stalwarts of Michael Kelleher, Pakie McCarthy and John O'Donnell, Ballinameela overcame the great handicap to defeat Lismore 1-3 to 0-4 in the first round of the junior football championship at Cappoquin on Sunday night last.

The standard of football was very poor throughout. Lismore in particular failing dismally to put up any kind of respectable performance. It is doubtful if Ballinameela will go much further in this championship, but there can be no denying the merits of their win over the Cathedral town side.
