WED IN LOURDES

Impressive Ceremony at Carriglea

A beautiful and impressive triple ceremony took place at the Convent of the Bon Saurer Sisters, Carriglea, on Thursday last. At the Offertory of the Mass, which was celebrated by Very Rev. N. McCarthy (Gloucestershire) two young novices pronounced their religious vows, while another sister, having passed 50 years in the Congregation, celebrated her golden jubilee, renewing her religious vows with all the fervour of her first consecration.

Immediately after Mass, three young girls received the Habit of the Congregation. The ceremony was presided over by Rt. Rev. Mons. Dean Baron, P.P., Vic. Cap., assisted by Rev. W. Callanan, Waterford. Also present in the choir were Ven. Arch-deacon Power, P.P., V.F., Dungarvan; Very Rev. J. Roche, P.P., Abbeyside; Very Rev. Fr. Quinlan, P.P., Ballinameela; Rev. M. Walsh, C.C., Abbeyside; Dom Winoc and Dom Paul McDonnell, O.S.B., Glenstal; Rev. D. McCarthy, C.C., Askeaton; Rev. P. Flavin, Chaplain, Carriglea; Rev. J. Boyle, C.C., Waterford; Rev. N. Coghlan, C.C., Modeligo.

Rev. Mother Roumegoux, Superior General of the Congregation came from France to be present at the ceremony and a large attendance of relatives and friends of the young sisters filled the beautiful Convent Chapel for the occasion and afterwards spent a very pleasant day with them. Even the weather entered into the spirit of the celebrations and a radiant sun shone all day, making the grounds and gardens look their best.

Since the Irish novitiate was officially opened at Carriglea in 1960, a similar ceremony has taken place there each year. In these days of pleasure and progress when the world has so much to offer young people, should it not be an inspiration for us to see that so many of these young girls have the courage and generosity to sacrifice worldly goods and offer their young lives to God and devote themselves to His service in the person of His "least ones"—the sick, the poor, and little children.

The newly professed are: Sr. Anne O'Mahony (Kilmore, Tallow); Sr. Anne McCarthy (Churchquarter, Modeligo). The new Novices are: Sr. Mary Fitzgerald (Newtown, Modeligo); Sr. Margaret Mortell (Charleville, Co. Cork); Sr. Mary Gavin (Westport).

The marriage took place on May 15th, in the Crypt of the Parish Church of the Sacred Heart of Lourdes, of Mr. Michael Baker, and Miss Linda Coughlan, Clashmore. Rev. P. J. Flavin officiated, assisted by Rev. Michael Enright (Abbeyside) Archdiocese of Westminster. The bridesmaid was Miss Kitty Daye, representative of Richard Farrell Travel Agency, Waterford. Dr. Hugh O'Brien-Moran, M.O., Kilmeehan, Secretary of the Hospital of Our Lady of Lourdes, Diocese of Waterford and Lismore, was best man. Aer Lingus Appointment

Miss Helen Curran (18), second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Curran, Ballinure, Dungarvan, has been appointed to the hair dressing staff of Aer Lingus at Shannon Airport. Helen who is a past pupil of Dungarvan Presentation Convent did her training with Michaels of Grafton St., Dublin.

Passed Nursing Examination

Congratulations are extended to Miss Marie O'Shea, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. O'Shea, Two-Mile-Bridge, Dungarvan, on passing her final General Nursing Examination, at St. Andrew's Hospital, London.

Percentage Increase In Home Assistance Allowance BUT MOTION FOR £1 INCREASE FAILS

A motion by Mr. Patrick Cahill seeking a rise of £1 a week for all Home Assistance recipients failed at a meeting of Waterford Health Authority receiving only the support of Mr. Cahill himself, Mr. T. Lannon and Mr. E. Browne. Instead it was decided by 12 votes to 3 to adopt the recommendations of Mr. Richard Doyle, Supt. Assistance Officer that all recipients be treated individually with percentage increases given.

Mr. Doyle said that in April '64, they had 531 receiving Home Assistance, but the number was reduced to 478 in April '65. Yet in April '64 a total of £1921 was paid out as against £2030 in April '65. Each case was being treated on its own merits. Mr. Doyle said they were conscious of the need to help the really poor.

Mr. Lannon said that what was wrong was a man in this country in ordinary clerical employment, was on a maximum of £1,150 and a man in a similar position in England was earning only £950. But the poor in England were well looked after, but there were all kinds of provisions when it came to granting any kind of an increase for the poor here in Ireland. He was for helping the poor all he could. He could not see standing firmly behind a £1 increase all round.

Mr. Cahill said he was standing firmly behind a £1 increase all round. Mr. Thomas Lannon said they could give £20 a week increases to some people who already had more than enough but a 1/10 increase for the poor was being questioned inside down. Mr. Doyle said they were conscious of the need to help the really poor. Mr. Lannon said what was wrong was a man in this country in ordinary clerical employment, was on a maximum of £1,150 and a man in a similar position in England was earning only £950. But the poor in England were well looked after, but there were all kinds of provisions when it came to granting any kind of an increase for the poor here in Ireland. He was for helping the poor all he could. He could not see standing firmly behind a £1 increase all round.

Compensation Claim Adjudged

A workmen's compensation claim by Michael Maher, forestry worker, Ballylemon, Cappagh, was adjudged to the next session at Dungarvan Circuit Court on Tuesday to enable him to return to work as recommended by the doctors. In evidence the applicant Michael Maher, said he had been employed a forestry worker with the Dept. of Lands, in September, 1963, he got a certificate from Dr. Cusack and from Nov. 23rd '63 to Feb. 1st, '65, he was paid full compensation at the rate of £4.10 a week. He had not been paid compensation since. He was feeling bad now and he still had a rash on both legs up to his thighs.

He could not work now. Before the accident he was earning £7 a week. Replying to Mr. M. Feehan, B.L. (for the defendant—the Minister for Finance) witness said he could hardly walk now and could not work. He did not try to go back to work because he was suffering and still unable to return to work as recommended by the doctors. Dr. Winifred White said she examined the applicant on Thursday last. She had advised him to try to work and he said the itching was too severe. She thought he should try work the week after next. Judge Fawcitt said the applicant would have to go back to work the week after next to see if he was able to work. He adjourned the case to the next sessions to enable him to return to work. If he could not do the work, he (Judge) would hear all the facts again to decide the question of compensation.

COURT TOLD OF FRICTION OVER BALL ALLEY

A decree for £30 together with costs and expenses was awarded to Edward O'Brien and Sons, Building Contractors, Abbeyside, against Waterford County Council, by Judge S. Mac D. Fawcitt, at Dungarvan Circuit Court on Tuesday. The claim, which was for £36, arose following malicious damage to a wooden office and tool shed that Messrs. O'Brien had built at Cloneety, Dungarvan, where they are presently building 20 houses for the Urban Council.

Mr. Vincent O'Brien said his firm were building new houses at Cloneety and they built a wooden office and tool shed. The office was a sectional wooden hut with a chipboard sheeted roof. There were two windows. The tool shed was a galvanised one. Prior to the building of these houses there was some difference between the residents of the area and the local authority over the proposed demolition of a ball alley to make way for the erection of the houses. On the 3rd April, his workmen told him of it and he reported the matter to the Gardaí. When he went there the office was knocked to the ground and all the glass was broken. The roof was also broken in small pieces. The lock of the tool shed was broken and its door was torn off the hinges and broken. The tools were scattered all around and two compressors were found in nearby gardens. The material and labour time for the office would cost £30. The total amount of repair was £36.

Mr. Carroll, B.L. (for the Co. Council) said they assessed the total damage at £22. Mr. T. O'Donoghue, B.E., gave evidence of this. Judge Fawcitt said he was satisfied that there was malicious damage in this case and the ratepayers would have to pay for it next year. He then awarded a decree for £30 with costs and expenses against the Co. Council. He also made it a county-attorney's charge.

'Defendant met case in cavalier way'

— JUDGE FAWCITT

He approached the case in a most cavalier fashion, remarked Judge Sean Mac D. Fawcitt, at Dungarvan Circuit Court on Tuesday last when Thomas O'Sullivan, Ardmore, appealed against the decision of the District Court, disqualifying him from driving for six months. The disqualification was imposed for having no insurance at Pulla, Ring, on September 20th, 1964.

The appeal had come before Judge Fawcitt at the Circuit Court in February when Judge Fawcitt adjourned the case to enable the defence counsel to prove that the vehicle had in fact been insured at the time. Mr. F. Morris B.L. said the applicant was a farmer and did a milk round for Dungarvan Co. Op. Creamery. He did his insurance policies with Messrs. Spratts, Dungarvan, and his way of paying was in lump sums when he would have it.

The insurance company's attitude now was that they would not give the policy of insurance retrospective to cover the date involved. There were a number of facts which indicate the defendant was insured and there were doubts he thought the applicant should get the benefit of these doubts. This was a criminal case and all the facts should be put beyond reasonable doubt.

...Judge Fawcitt—I think the defendant approached all this in a very cavalier fashion. ...Mr. Morris' said appellant would be very hard hit if he was disqualified from driving for six months.

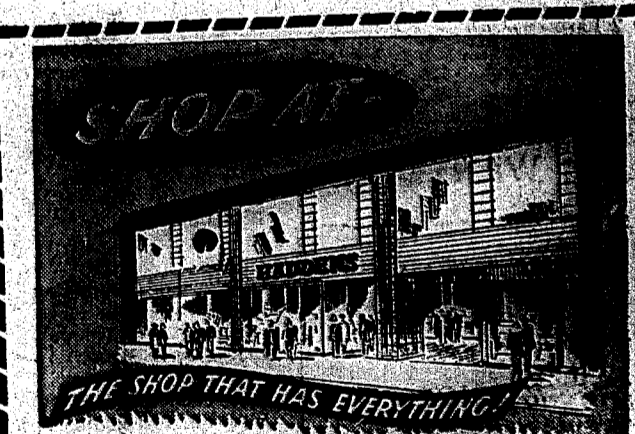

Judge Fawcitt—A man with a family would also be very hard hit if the defendant knocked him down.

Mr. Morris said this was the appellant's busy time, as he had a combine as well and disqualification from driving would be a great loss to him. He was not at all sure that it went to arbitration the case would go against the defendant.

Judge Fawcitt adjourned the case to the next Circuit Court sessions until the defence counsel had gone into the question of arbitration.

Ardkeen Always Full

They had been discussing the possibility of establishing a paediatric (children's) unit in Ardkeen with the Dept. but they insisted that the Health Authority would have to build it themselves, and there the matter rests at the moment, said Mr. Hynes at a meeting of Waterford Health Authority on Monday. The discussion arose when Mr. John Griffin said that two patients felt they were sent home from Ardkeen recently before they were really fit to leave. This was suggesting that there was some crisis on space. Was this so, he asked, and had they an adequate num-

Cappoquin Well Beaten in Championship

Ballinacourty ... 25 slightest hope of them toppling Cappoquin ... 6-4 the favourites.

Ballinacourty — current favourites to annex the Western Intermediate football championship crown, safely surmounted the first obstacle at Dungarvan's Fraher Field on Sunday last. But if many expected Cappoquin to stretch them to the full, they were sorely disillusioned, as Ballinacourty, with an ease and simplicity that was totally unexpected, literally "catered" into the second round.

But clear though their victory was, make no mistake about it, the winners will have to step up considerably on this Friday if they are to maintain their championship challenge. They were disappointing to put it charitably, for, in truth to tell, Cappoquin, minus no less than eight of the side that contested last year's Western final proved very feeble opposition.

The winners, no doubt, will quickly point out that they were forced to field without Mick Kiely and Liam Enright, and this, of course, is something that in fairness to them, can hardly be overlooked. But even making allowances for their absence, it is doubtful if this team would be good enough to give them that long overdue Divisional title.

As a spectacle, the game also fell completely flat. The standard of football never reached any great heights and whilst the final score-line might have been somewhat unkind to Cappoquin, there was never the play was unexpectedly sub-standard. In defence, Paddy Mason and Andy O'Keefe tried all they knew; midfielders John O'Donoghue and Ger Mason were tireless in their endeavours to cause an upset but only Eddie and Mickey Fraher and Colm Kiely looked like worrying the winners defence.

But that was just about that as far as they were concerned. Thereafter Ballinacourty took over complete control, and by the interval were well on the way to victory when leading by 1-3 to 0-3.

The second half was nothing more than a formality. Cappoquin got completely on top and almost unchallenged ran up their ten point victory.

Brian O'Connor had a very easy hour between the posts for the winners and their defence was seldom extended by a weak Cappoquin attack. John McGrath was an excellent pivot well assisted by Danny Barry and Bernard Shields.

At midfield they were also well served by Joe Flynn and Paddy Hogan, although Liam Enright's return will add strength to the sector.

The forwards got well on top in the second half and whilst all six had their moments, I was most impressed by Duck Whelan, the scorer of two great goals. Pat McGovern, Tony Mansfield and Jack Elstead.

With so depleted a side, it was inconceivable that Cappoquin could cause an upset, nevertheless their overall display was unexpectedly sub-standard. In defence, Paddy Mason and Andy O'Keefe tried all they knew; midfielders John O'Donoghue and Ger Mason were tireless in their endeavours to cause an upset but only Eddie and Mickey Fraher and Colm Kiely looked like worrying the winners defence.

SALMON FISHING

Salmon fishing last week in Youghal district showed no improvement compared with the previous week. A few boats had a good week while the majority of them accounted only for a few fish. The previous week's price of 7/6 per lb. was well as a better type of salmon. However, the fish taken were again of the light type. Angling in the freshwater areas is poor due to the river being in heavy flood.

TRANSPORT PROBLEM

It is understood that steps are being taken to provide transport from the Strand area to the town, a distance of about one mile. This is a long felt want which was brought to light recently when Strand residents had to walk to attend the Retreat exercises at the parish church in very bad weather. Visitors in the past have complained of the lack of transport in the town. Some years ago a private bus operated between the town and strand, but seemingly it was not a paying proposition.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MR. H. WATSON

The funeral of the late Mr. Hubert Watson, of North Main Street, Youghal, took place to North Abbey Cemetery, followed by a large and representative cortege. The late Mr. Watson took a deep interest in the commercial life of the town.

The chief mourners were: Mrs. T. Watson (widow); Dr. R. Watson, Messrs. J. and Basil Watson (sons); Capt. C. Watson (brother); the Misses D. and T. Watson (sisters); Messrs. John Myles, James, Paul, Peter, Adrian, Cecil and Jack Watson (nephews); Mrs. Maurice Watson, Mrs. Peter Watson, Mrs. J. Watson, and families (relatives).

RECENT WEDDING

The wedding took place recently at St. Mary's Church, Youghal, between Garda Sean Harkin, son of Mr. Charles Charles Harkin and the late Mrs. Hakin of Thurles, and Miss Anne Browne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Browne, South Abbey, Youghal. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. Robert Harkin (brother of the groom). The best man was Mr. Alex Harkin (brother of the groom) and the groomsmen were Mr. Albert Murphy, the bridesmaids were Miss Geraldine Browne and Miss Mary Fox. A reception was held at the Park View Hotel, Youghal.

RETREAT

The annual retreat for the men of the parish, conducted by two Dominican Missioners, Fathers Whelan and Morgan, concluded on Sunday night last. Throughout the week there were large attendances, both at morning Mass and evening exercises.

YOUGHAL SEA ANGLERS' CLUB

There was a large attendance at the annual general meeting of the Youghal Sea Anglers' Club held at the League Hall, last week, presided over by the outgoing Chairman, Mr. Michael Murray. The Chairman, after tendering a welcome to all present, stated that last year some new ideas were tried out such as fishing in groups in the vicinity of flag boats in the bay, which tends to be safer for Youghal boats. Another idea was the combined shore and boat competitions for bass, which proved a very successful judging from the number of entries they received.

The report of the Hon. Treasurer, showed that the club was in a sound financial position.

The election of Officers resulted as follows: Chairman, Capt. P. J. Walsh, Harbour Master; Treasurer, Mr. A. Muckley; Secretary, Mr. Paul Watton. Committee: Messrs. R. Heaphy, S. Howe and G. Greer.

It was later decided that the first competition for the season will commence on Sunday next, 30th May.

PARKING BY-LAWS

The Garda Commissioner has forwarded for the information of the Urban Council, a draft of parking by-laws and recommending that in the main streets that parking be on alternate days instead of on alternate weeks, as being operated for over two years. It was decided that as the by-laws is an elaborate document, a copy be circulated to each member so that it could be finally discussed at the next Council meeting.

SALMON FRY RELEASED

In addition to 50,000 Scottish eyed salmon fry, over one million salmon fry have been hatched out at the Salmon Hatchery situated at Bearforrest, Mallow. This hatchery, which is maintained by voluntary subscriptions, is operated by the Blackwater Hatchery Committee U.S.A.

LATE JOHN HOGAN

Thomas Tee, Dungarvan. Widespread sympathy was expressed at the announcement of the death of John Hogan, late of Thomas Terrace, which sad event occurred on Wednesday morning, May 19th, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, after a period of illness, but at an advanced age. He was a most popular person and had outstanding qualities of charity and willingness to help those requiring his assistance.

To his bereaved family we tender our deepest sympathy on the passing of a good father. May heaven be kind to his soul.

His remains were removed on Thursday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church, followed by a large cortege and were blessed and received by Rev. D. O'Byrne, C.C.

Requiem Mass was celebrated on Friday morning for the intentions of his soul and subsequently, the interment took place in the adjoining family plot, Rev. D. O'Byrne, C.C., officiated at the graveside. Another large and impressive concourse was present.

LATE MRS. C. POWER (nee Hennessy)

Ballinamona, Old Parish

The death occurred on Saturday, May 22nd, at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, of Mrs. Catherine Power, a comparatively early age, and after a rather short duration of illness. The deceased lady was a most industrious person and was a firm favourite with all, but more especially in the Old Parish area, where she was a better known. She was a member of a very old mid-Waterford family and a relative of John Power.

We wish to tender our deepest condolences to her daughter, brothers and relatives on their very great loss.

Her remains were removed on Sunday evening to Ring Church followed by one of the largest corteges seen in the district for a very long time, and were received and blessed by Very Rev. J. O'Donnell, P.P., assisted by Rev. M. Kennedy, C.C.

Requiem Masses were celebrated on Monday morning for the intentions of her soul and the interment took place in the adjoining family plot, Very Rev. J. O'Donnell, P.P., assisted by Rev. M. Kennedy, C.C., and Rev. D. O'Byrne, C.C., imparted the final absolution at the graveside. Another large and impressive concourse were present.

LATE DAVID O'SULLIVAN

Shandon St., Dungarvan

We deeply regret to record the death of David O'Sullivan, Shandon Street, which occurred at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, on Tuesday morning, 18th May, after a lengthy duration of protracted illness borne with true Christian fortitude. David was a most gentle and retiring person, a loving husband and kind father. He had spent the younger part of his life at sea. He was very popular with all sections of the community and was a wonderful conversationalist.

We extend our deepest sympathy to his sorrowing wife and family.

His remains were removed on Wednesday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church, followed by a cortege of very great dimensions, and his coffin was received and blessed by Rev. D. O'Byrne, C.C.

Requiem Mass was offered for the intentions of his gentle soul on Thursday morning and the interment took place later in the day in the adjoining cemetery. Rev. D. O'Byrne, C.C., also imparted the final absolution at the graveside.

Very many Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy were received by his family.

The chief mourners were: Margaret O'Sullivan (widow); Patrick O'Sullivan, Shandon (son); Mrs. Teresa Roche, London (daughter); Mrs. Helen Avanzino, U.S.A. (sister); Thomas Roche, London (son-in-law); Thomas, Jimmy, David, Margaret and Christopher Roche, London (grandchildren).

(Funeral arrangements by J. Kiely and Sons, Undertakers, Dungarvan.)

LATE ELLEN POWER

KILCOONEY, BALLINAMULT

In connection with the death of the late Ellen Power, Kilcooney, Ballinamult, which occurred recently, the following Mass cards were received: Trihy family, Youghal; Hanrahan family, Ballinamult; Kiely family, Kilmagabogue; Hanrahan family, Doon; McGrath, Parkmore; Jim Nugent, Touraneena; Nugent family, Lisleigh; Mary Power and Edmond, Touraneena; Mrs. K. His remains were removed on Thursday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church, followed by a large cortege and were blessed and received by Rev. D. O'Byrne, C.C.

Requiem Mass was celebrated on Friday morning for the intentions of his soul and subsequently, the interment took place in the adjoining family plot, Rev. D. O'Byrne, C.C., officiated at the graveside. Another large and impressive concourse was present.

Ballinamona, Old Parish

The death occurred on Saturday, May 22nd, at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, of Mrs. Catherine Power, a comparatively early age, and after a rather short duration of illness. The deceased lady was a most industrious person and was a firm favourite with all, but more especially in the Old Parish area, where she was a better known. She was a member of a very old mid-Waterford family and a relative of John Power.

We wish to tender our deepest condolences to her daughter, brothers and relatives on their very great loss.

Her remains were removed on Sunday evening to Ring Church followed by one of the largest corteges seen in the district for a very long time, and were received and blessed by Very Rev. J. O'Donnell, P.P., assisted by Rev. M. Kennedy, C.C.

Requiem Masses were celebrated on Monday morning for the intentions of her soul and the interment took place in the adjoining family plot, Very Rev. J. O'Donnell, P.P., assisted by Rev. M. Kennedy, C.C., and Rev. D. O'Byrne, C.C., imparted the final absolution at the graveside. Another large and impressive concourse were present.

LATE DAVID O'SULLIVAN

We deeply regret to record the death of David O'Sullivan, Shandon Street, which occurred at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, on Tuesday morning, 18th May, after a lengthy duration of protracted illness borne with true Christian fortitude. David was a most gentle and retiring person, a loving husband and kind father. He had spent the younger part of his life at sea. He was very popular with all sections of the community and was a wonderful conversationalist.

We extend our deepest sympathy to his sorrowing wife and family.

His remains were removed on Wednesday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church, followed by a cortege of very great dimensions, and his coffin was received and blessed by Rev. D. O'Byrne, C.C.

Requiem Mass was offered for the intentions of his gentle soul on Thursday morning and the interment took place later in the day in the adjoining cemetery. Rev. D. O'Byrne, C.C., also imparted the final absolution at the graveside.

Very many Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy were received by his family.

The chief mourners were: Margaret O'Sullivan (widow); Patrick O'Sullivan, Shandon (son); Mrs. Teresa Roche, London (daughter); Mrs. Helen Avanzino, U.S.A. (sister); Thomas Roche, London (son-in-law); Thomas, Jimmy, David, Margaret and Christopher Roche, London (grandchildren).

APPEAL BY LOCAL YOUTH ADJOURNED

A 17-year-old Dungarvan youth, with a total of twelve convictions against him, appealed against a District Court sentence of six months in St. Patrick's Institute, at Dungarvan Circuit Court on Tuesday. He was Gerald Hallahan, Emmer Street, Dungarvan, who met Judge S. Mac D. Fawcitt, adjourning the case until the July 23rd will depend on how the defendant would behave. He allowed Hallahan out on £20 bail bond. Dr. D. R. Counahan, State Solicitor, said on March 25th, the defendant pleaded guilty at Cappoquin District Court with stealing a total of £12.9 in cash from a parked car in Dungarvan. He was further charged with breaking and entering the warehouse of Mary Keane, Friary Street, Dungarvan, and stealing cigarettes valued £11-5-0, on August 20th, 1963.

Dr. Counahan said that although only 17 the defendant had been leading a life of almost continuous crime. Sergt. M. Hayes, Dungarvan, then read out a list of 10 previous convictions against the defendant.

Dr. Counahan said the defendant stooped to very mean crimes. The defendant, Gerald Hallahan, not legally represented, addressing the Justice said he did not think he should have got six months. They boy with him got off. Judge Fawcitt — Perhaps he had not 10 previous convictions against him. Mrs. Maureen Hallahan, mother of the defendant, asked Judge Fawcitt to give her son a chance to go back to his job in England. Anything wrong he ever did he gets justice in this case as the other boy involved had a very bad record also and he got off. She knew her son was wrong but right wrongs did not make a right. She would give him the money to go to England on Saturday if given this chance.

Judge Fawcitt — How many times before did you say that? Dr. Counahan — I would ask that the District Justice's order stand. Judge Fawcitt to the defendant — I will be sitting here again on July 23rd. I am going to give you a chance to behave yourself. What I will do on July 23rd will depend on your behaviour between now and then. These are very mean forms of crimes you have committed.

He then allowed the defendant out on £20 bail bond.

IN MEMORIAM

KATHLEEN MADE ME FEEL ASHAMED!

Caught me red-handed. Sheer carelessness of course. I should know that Irish quality goods send the money further. Help keep my two big boys in their jobs, too.

When you're shopping in a hurry it's so easy to pick up the nearest thing to hand. But I found that can be a mistake from any point of view. When you buy Irish QUALITY GOODS you're getting products that are exported all over the world. And it stands to reason they are not bought abroad because they're Irish — but because they're good! It also stands to reason that they will be better value here at home than the imported product.

AND I LOOKED CAREFULLY AT THESE IRISH JUMPERS. THEY ARE BETTER VALUE AND AS YOU KNOW, DEAR, THEY LAST MUCH LONGER.

For the future BUY IRISH QUALITY GOODS

WEDDING BELLS

MR. FRANK KING, Limerick, and MISS NORA HARNEY Ballydurn married recently in Clonea Church.

Sought Possession of Lismore Premises

JUDGE FINDS IN FAVOUR OF TENANT

George Heskin, Youghal, unsuccessfully sought a decree for possession of a two-storey premises owned by him at Main St., Lismore, and occupied by Peadar Hickey, his wife, and 13-year-old daughter, at Dungarvan Circuit Court on Tuesday last. It was stated in evidence that the Hickey family had been tenants of the premises since 1890.

Mr. Hickey, single, in evidence said Mr. Heskin held the premises from him under an agreement. He (witness) had been in England for 14 months but was employed in Youghal Carpets since January, 1963. He was presently living with his aunt as a lodger in Ballyduff Upper. He now wanted to live in his own premises in Lismore and he wanted to get married.

Cross-examined by Mr. D. P. Sheridan, B.L. (for Mr. Hickey) witness said the Hickey family had been in residence in these premises since 1890. It had always been the residence and business premises of the Hickey family. The tenancy agreement was renewed in 1960. If he got the premises he did not intend to sell them.

To Judge Fawcitt, he did say he intended to sell the premises after he had returned from England. He also admitted being the owner of five other houses in the town which were condemned.

Replying to his own counsel, Mr. F. Morris, B.L., witness said as far as he knew the Hickeys did not carry on any business in the shop.

Mr. James Campion, auctioneer and valuer, Lismore, said he examined the premises on May 18th. It was a two-storey building and was in good repair. He also inspected alternative premises at Tintur with Mr. Heskin, the rent of which would be 15/- to £1 a week and was available for renting.

There was also a house available to rent in Ballysaggart at 15/- a week and Co. Council cottages in Knockanore and Moneygorm. There were also four houses being built on the border of Lismore by the Co. Council.

Mr. Peadar Hickey, fitter, said he had been in England working for some time. He was the tenant of the house occupied by his wife and 13-year-old daughter who was attending the Presentation Convent in Lismore.

In the shop on the premises a light hardware and seeds business was carried on and had been carried on since the beginning of the century. For business purposes it was necessary for him to have the premises there and he would be prepared to buy out the building at a reasonable price. At the suggestion of Mr. Heskin's solicitor in 1960 a tenancy agreement was entered into and the rent at that stage was increased from 32/- to 40/- a week.

Replying to Mr. Morris, B.L. (for Heskin), witness said he came home twice a year from England for a total of three weeks holidays. He was not thinking of bringing his wife over to live in England.

Mrs. Eileen Hickey, said she was residing on the premises and was carrying on the light hardware business. The alternative premises mentioned by Mr. Campion would not be suitable because they were so far from the school in Lismore. Her daughter would not be able to cycle to school in winter because she suffered from rheumatism. She approached certain people in Lismore about a house but none were available.

Mr. Morris, B.L., — I would suggest your efforts to get accommodation were sparse.

Mr. Norman Walsh, auctioneer and valuer, Cappoquin, said he was quite familiar with the houses mentioned by Mr. Campion and he would not consider them suitable alternative accommodation. It was the practice of Lismore Estate to sell any houses they owned by auction. It would be very difficult if not impossible for Mr. Hickey to get suitable alternative accommodation.

He thought £750 would be an equitable price to charge Mr. Hickey for the house.

Judge Fawcitt said he had no doubt the premises were controlled by the rent restrictions Act. There must be some evidence given that there is suitable alternative accommodation available and that to put out the tenant would be reasonable thing to do. The applicant (Mr. Heskin) would also have to prove that there would be greater hardship on him than on Mr. Hickey if he did not uphold the decree. The Hickey family had been there since 1890 and although Mr. Hickey was living in England Lismore was still his home.

He was satisfied that Mr. Hickey had shown that the hardship on him would be greater than on Mr. Heskin and he would dismiss the application.

He also allowed Mr. Hickey the costs and expenses of the case.

Collision Between Car and Tractor

DECREE FOR £57

A decree for £57-18-9, together with costs and expenses, was awarded by Judge S. Mac D. Fawsitt, at Dungarvan Circuit Court, on Tuesday, to Joseph Whelan, Snr., Ballymacnaghe, Dungarvan, against Patrick Buckley, Dromana, Cappoquin. The actual claim was for £70 for loss and damage to the Plaintiff's car.

In evidence, Joseph Whelan, Jr., son of the plaintiff, said he was driving his father's car at Fruithill, on March 16th. Coming round a bend he saw a tractor about 50 yards away. The road was very steep and narrow. He went into 1st gear. The tractor was out of control as it was swerving and the driver was shaking his hand and shouting. The trailer struck the fence and the tractor hit their car. He was on his correct side of the road.

Mr. Joseph Whelan Senior, said he was a passenger in the car driven by his son. They were travelling very slowly going up the hill at Fruithill. The tractor came round the turn and the driver was waving and shouting. They knew he had lost control of the tractor. After the accident he paid £52-18-9 to Fennells Garage, Dungarvan, for repairs to the car. He later traded it in in Clonmel and got £240 for it against a new Morris Minor.

Miss Theresa O'Brien another passenger in the car, said they were on their correct side of the road, close to the grass margin. Their car was stationary when the tractor struck it.

Maurice Linnane, drive of the tractor, which was owned by the defendant, said he had a scaffolding load weighing between 2 tons and 50 cwt. He was doing between 6 and 10 miles an hour. Coming round a corner he saw a car on the crown of the road and when he came closer to it he saw that the driver was jerking the car. He (witness) slowed down, but as he came nearer the driver of the car made no attempt to keep in to his own side of the road. He waved to him to move in and also shouted as loud as he could for him to do so. He (witness) was about 20 yards away from the car at this stage. He was never out of control of the tractor.

Mr. Matthew O'Brien said he arrived on the scene after the accident. He saw mud and glass that had come from the car very near the centre of the road. It was a death trap of a hill and a tractor trailer could not stop coming down it with two tons on it.

Judge Fawsitt said there was a conflict of evidence between the parties as to the position of the car on the road. In any event it seemed the plaintiff must succeed and he gave a decree for £57-18-9. The tractor driver should have stopped when he saw them, instead of trying to barge his way through as he believed he did. He (Judge) believed the tractor was out of control because of the weight on the trailer, and he preferred the story of the plaintiff in this case. He also allowed the plaintiff costs and expenses.

Coming round a corner he saw a car on the crown of the road and when he came closer to it he saw that the driver was jerking the car. He (witness) slowed down, but as he came nearer the driver of the car made no attempt to keep in to his own side of the road. He waved to him to move in and also shouted as loud as he could for him to do so. He (witness) was about 20 yards away from the car at this stage. He was never out of control of the tractor.

Mr. Matthew O'Brien said he arrived on the scene after the accident. He saw mud and glass that had come from the car very near the centre of the road. It was a death trap of a hill and a tractor trailer could not stop coming down it with two tons on it.

Judge Fawsitt said there was a conflict of evidence between the parties as to the position of the car on the road. In any event it seemed the plaintiff must succeed and he gave a decree for £57-18-9. The tractor driver should have stopped when he saw them, instead of trying to barge his way through as he believed he did. He (Judge) believed the tractor was out of control because of the weight on the trailer, and he preferred the story of the plaintiff in this case. He also allowed the plaintiff costs and expenses.

ROOF DEFECTS AT ARDKEEN Doctor's Reply

A remark at the April meeting of Waterford Health Authority by a member "that no one was aware of the roof defects at Ardkeen until the Co. Engineer took up duty and discovered them," brought a written reply from Dr. Fintan Corrigan, R.M.S., Ardkeen, at the Authority's meeting on Monday last.

In his letter, read by the Secretary, Mr. J. A. Hynes, Dr. Corrigan said: "It was reported that a member of the Health Authority stated that no one was aware of the condition of the roofs at Ardkeen until the County Engineer took up duty and discovered them. The Co. Engineer took up duty in 1959 and as I had been Medical Supt. since December 1st, 1956, I feel that this statement is a reflection on my supervision.

"Two months after I took up duty at Ardkeen, a conference was called to discuss various defects throughout the hospital and in particular the condition of the roofs. This conference was attended by a Department Architect; Consulting Architect for the Co. Council; the Acting County Engineer, and the builders. Since then we have been in constant correspondence regarding the roof conditions and have continued to point out their deteriorating condition. Prior to my taking over the staff office had been writing about this since 1956."

After putting considerable pressure on the Dept., Waterford Health Authority has at last succeeded in obtaining a 100% grant for the repair of the roofs at Ardkeen hospital. The estimated cost of the repairs is £14,000, and the Department's original offer was a 50% grant, which the Authority were dissatisfied with. But at last Monday's meeting of the Authority, the Secretary, Mr. J. A. Hynes informed the members that the Dept. had decided to bear the entire cost of the work. Mr. Hynes said their two Dail Deputies on the Health Authority met the Minister about the matter and they were informed that a grant for the entire amount would be made available. Mr. John Fahey, T.D., said that Mr. W. Kennelly, T.D., and himself discussed it with the Minister. They also jointly put the question in the Dail and the Minister said he would be prepared to meet the entire cost. Acting Chairman, Mr. Norman Walsh said they were deeply grateful to their two T.D.'s for the part they played in this. Mr. John Griffen said they got such first class service from their two deputies that it gave one confidence in representative Government. They got the desired results by using the instruments at their disposal, and it was an outstanding service by them. They were also well served by their Officials in this case, who made a long chain of representations making the point that this was a special case. They and the Deputies were to be congratulated for their courage and efficiency. Mr. C. Curran said the T.D.'s did their job well and put the facts to the Dept. properly. Mr. J. Power said that whilst they should thank their Deputies they should not forget the Deputation that went to the Department originally seeking the 100% grant. Mr. J. Fahey, T.D., said great credit was due to the members and Officials who followed this matter up from the very first day. They only came in to clinch the issue. Mr. Kennelly, T.D., said he wished to endorse everything that Mr. Fahey had said. Mr. Thomas Lannon said it is an awful state of affairs that public money could be squandered and the public were then being asked to pay for it. In this case there was very little supervision in the building of the hospital and someone was responsible. Whoever was responsible should be made pay for it, and if they were not able to do so they should be brought to the right place. He was one who objected to their taking over Ardkeen the first day. Mr. Griffen said the repairing of the roof defects would now cost them nothing, and by that they had shown the wisdom of taking over the hospital. Mr. Lannon said it was very wrong to have taken over the hospital without it being put in proper working order first. Public money had been squandered on the building and nothing had been done about it. Mr. P. Cahill said the hospital which cost over a million pounds to build, was only built four years when it was in need of repairs. That proved beyond doubt that there was something wrong somewhere. Mr. Griffen said that had now been conceded by the Minister when he gave the 100% grant. Mr. Norman Walsh (Acting Chairman) said public money was definitely squandered on the hospital. Finally it was agreed on the proposal of Mr. Griffen that they agree in principle to the expenditure of the necessary money on the repairs of the roofs. Mr. Kynes (Secretary) said they would have to spend the money first before the Dept. would pay them the grant.

It is indeed very interesting to read of the report put forward by the Committee dealing with the starting of a development which may lead to a technical school in the Tramore area which would be an ideal position for such a school. This could be a great help to very many young people who wish to take advantage of further technical education. This, I feel sure, the committee dealing with this, are well aware of. I think the people of Tramore, parents and schools would give this full support, as the advantages to be gained are very many. Indeed, in time, Waterford's present tech. will become a College of Technology with all the modern ideas of present day progress to be fed by such schools as Tramore. Industry will require technicians, specialists and scientists to keep up with modern Irish industry expansion, such as the Waterford Glass Company and many others which will follow. Give your full support to all this and help to prevent emigration.

What about a 'New Name'? The Committee was given a full report on the discussions which took place at the Annual Review of Agriculture with the Government, Secretary, Michael Whelehan said that the Government had agreed to make an early announcement on pig prices; that further consultations on the actual amount of the price increase would take place when barley acreage is known; and to the further importation of high quality breeding stock. Acting Chairman, Mr. M. DeLahunty, made reference to the fact that we now commanded the second highest price for our bacon on the British market, being second only to Denmark. The campaign in Scotland was quite successful and 'exports to the West Indies amount to 75 tons per month. Here the subsidy is paid to one-third of that being paid for bacon exported to Britain,' said Mr. DeLahunty. On the question of sow distribution in the small-farming areas, the Committee felt that some form of subsidy to reduce the price of sows was necessary if farmers are to increase pig numbers. Mr. P. Harnett, M.R.C.V.S., N.F.A. Livestock Consultant referred to the fact that there was little stability within the industry itself and as a result of this farmers were getting in and out of sows rapidly instead of using the top quality sows made available by the Pigs and Bacon Commission to build up a top quality pig herd. The Committee directed the Secretary, Mr. M. Whelehan to do some research on this question. HERE AND THERE The first right of the farmer

N.F.A. is to seek an immediate meeting with the Government to discuss the recent Budget. This decision was reached at a special meeting of the National Council of N.F.A. in Dublin this week at which the Budget came in for the severest criticism. The Council unanimously adopted a resolution 'directing the President and Vice Presidents of N.F.A. to seek an immediate meeting with the Taoiseach, the Minister for Finance and the Minister for Agriculture in order to clarify the Government's new attitude to agriculture as revealed in the Budget. While welcoming the new social welfare concessions, the Council was adamant that the Budget was a completely negative document in so far as agriculture was concerned.' The N.F.A. spokesmen are to get clearcut answers to the following questions: (1) What practical steps is the Government going to take to help the small farmer and when? (2) What action is the Government going to take on rates and when? (3) What assistance is the Government going to give to the dairy farmer to counteract increased costs and when? (4) What incentive is the Government going to provide to develop horticulture, cash crops and expand employment and when? (5) Is the Government going to grant an immediate and adequate price increase to pig producers? The N.F.A. representatives will then report on their meeting with the Government to a special National Council meeting within the next month, at which the Association's position in the light of the answers received from the Government, will be considered. The National Council also requested that every Co. Executive call a meeting immediately to get a full report from their representatives who were present at this week's Dublin meeting.

NEW AGRICULTURAL CREDIT BILL WELCOMED The Agricultural Credit Bill, 1965, the text of which was issued recently is a very welcome measure. In brief, the Bill proposes to increase the existing borrowing limit of the Agricultural Credit Corporation from £10 million to £20 million and the authorised share capital from £2 million to £6 million, making an additional £14 million of resources available to the Corporation. In addition the Corporation will have available to them for lending purposes the repayment of existing loans. Another important proposal is that, enabling the Corporation to accept deposits from any source. Commenting on the Bill, Mr. Brendan Power, Assistant General Secretary, N.F.A., said: "We agree with the changes which are being made in the Corporation with a view to putting it in a position where it can speedily provide the credit requirements of farmer applicants. The additional powers provided in this Bill will enable the Corporation improve its service and become more and more involved with the farming community. We will support any measure which will lead towards the Corporation becoming a truly farmers' bank." N.F.A. believes that the move to appoint Credit Agents has been successful and we look forward to the appointment of additional Credit Agents on a planned basis. These agents should be given every opportunity of becoming specialists in agricultural credit, not alone concerned with the receipt and inspection of applications but involved also in advice and education on farm credit. It is most heartening that the Corporation's advances have continued to increase, under the guidance of Mr. Brendan Conside. In these circumstances the additional resources available to the Corporation are more than welcome. N.F.A. has one crib. The name 'Agricultural Credit Corporation Ltd.' is an outmoded nomen for an organisation with the 'Sixties' look. N.F.A. has been doing its utmost to convince farmers that the Corporation has changed and is being converted into a Body which can be of real practical help to those in need of credit. This is an uphill task and a change of name would clearly be of assistance in projecting a new public image of the Corporation. The Corporation is getting a

LATE EDMOND DALY
COONEEN, AGLISH
It is with feelings of deep regret that we record the death of Mr. Edmond Daly, Cooneen, Aglish, which occurred at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, on Thursday, May 20. A native of Cooneen, the deceased had reached the great age of eighty years, and was a most popular figure in his native parish. A gentleman to his fingertips, his passing indeed removed from the area a man who endeared himself to all who made his acquaintance. He was a noted fisherman and in the off season worked with local farmers. The remains were removed to Aglish Parish Church, on that Thursday evening and were received and blessed by Rev. J. F. Morrissey, C.C. The burial took place in the adjoining cemetery on Saturday, 22nd inst. after Requiem Masses in the presence of a large and representative gathering. Rev. Fr. Quinlan, P.P., assisted by Fr. Morrissey, C.C., and Fr. Carey, C.C., officiated at the graveside. The chief mourners were: Michael Daly, Cooneen (brother); Thomas Daly (nephew); Mrs. B. Kearns and Mrs. J. Cotter, Shanakill, Aglish, Mrs. Anderson, Lauraigh (nieces); Timothy Coleman, Cooneen (brother-in-law). (Funeral arrangements by A. Walsh and Sons, Cappoquin.)

£1,886 Award for Local Man
Michael Henneberry, a general foreman of Parkgate, Dungarvan, who fell through a platform trapdoor at the factory of the Dickens Leather Co., Ltd., Dungarvan, where he was employed on January 29, 1963, is to be paid £1,886 and costs in settlement of his personal injuries action against the company, the Master of the High Court, was told in Dublin on Wednesday last. Mr. Henneberry, who was removed in an unconscious condition to hospital, suffered fractures of right ribs. He was represented by Mr. T. A. Doyle, S.C. and Mr. D. P. Sheridan (instructed by Messrs. J. F. Williams and Co.), and Messrs. D. R. Pigo and Co., Solicitors, appeared for the defendant company.

Waterford Health Authority at its monthly meeting on Monday last approved of the raising of a loan of £2,907 for the purchase of an automatic oil fire burner for the County Home, Dungarvan. The loan will be considered as part of the County Home Improvements scheme.

Rumour Denied
Mr. P. Cahill stated at a meeting of Waterford Health Authority on Monday that he heard a rumour that cigarettes and passes to pictures were rationed in St. Otteran's Hospital, Waterford, since the budget was announced. The Secretary, Mr. Hynes, said he was not aware of it.

TALLOW NOTES

FORMER TALLOW RESIDENT'S DEATH

Mr. Andrew Lynch, who died at his residence Wellington Rd., Cork, last week, was a native of West Street, Tallow. A member of one of the oldest families in the town, he was a man of varied interests. He was for some time a bookmaker. He had been in failing health for some time.

There was a large cortege at the removal of the remains to St. Patrick's Church, Cork, and at the funeral to St. Finbarr's Cemetery.

To his widow, daughter, brother and relatives we extend our deepest sympathy.

PIPING SUCCESS

Miss Eileen Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murray, Kent Tce., Castletyons, was placed second in the Munster Senior Warpipe Competition at Newcastlewest. Fleadh Cheoil on Sunday last. Her younger sister, Patricia, was first in the same competition for under 14, whilst her brother Michael, was second in the same competition.

All three have now qualified to play at the All-Ireland Fleadh Cheoil in June. They are grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. P. Keane, Ballymote, Tallow, and of Mrs. E. Murray, Ballyneety, Knockanore.

HOME ON HOLIDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Beecher and family are presently holidaying in Parkdota, from England. It is their first visit home in twenty years. We wish them a happy time.

TALLOW WIN JUNIOR GAME

At Lismore, on Sunday last, Tallow junior hurling team had an easy victory over Clashmore, whom they defeated 3-10 to 1-1, in the first round of the junior hurling championship.

Clashmore, who are really more at home at the big ball game, were never in the picture with a chance of success. Tallow led 2-5 to 1-0 at half time, and on the change over Tallow still dominated and were worthy winners.

The Tallow team: Ned Power; R. McNamara, John Lyons, P. McNamara; Phil Cox, Sonny Healy, M. Condon; T. Flaherty, Jim Cox; J. Hogan, Claude Fitzgerald, E. Cunningham; John Henley, J. Condon, M. Mulcahy.

In the intermediate hurling championship game between Fourmilewater and Geraldines, the latter side had a very easy victory on the score: Geraldines 8-4; Fourmilewater, 2-5.

WON IRISH SCHOLARSHIP

Master Denis Heskin, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Heskin, Pike, Tallow, has won an Irish scholarship (value £48), tenable at a county Cork Irish College, for three months. Master Heskin is a pupil of Kilealf N.S.

WATER SCHEME FOR BALLYMOTE/TIRCULLEN

We would again request Waterford County Council to have the water scheme for the Ballymote-Tircullen area got under way as soon as possible. A Local Government Scheme for this area was almost in operation when Waterford County Council informed them that they, the Council, were going to provide a scheme for the area. In view of the new Clean Milk Scheme, we would again request the Council to expedite the matter.

WEST WATERFORD NEWS

ARDMORE TIDY TOWN'S COMMITTEE

The Ardmore Tidy Towns Committee has issued the following appeal to the local residents:—

"The members of Ardmore Tidy Towns Committee appeal to all the people of the village to co-operate with them again this year in making Ardmore clean and tidy and bright. As you know, we won an award in last year's competition and this money is being spent in providing public seating, placing a kerb around the plot containing the flower bed on Bothar na Trinne and improving the graveyard area. Other improvements have been promised by the Co. Council within the next three years.

"However, what counts more than anything else is the individual co-operation of each householder. It was this which helped to win an award in 1964 and we look forward to a still greater measure of co-operation in 1965. Ardmore is ours—let us be proud of it."

MARRIED IN LOURDES

The wedding took place recently in Lourdes of Mr. Michael Baker, Clashmore, and Miss Linda Coughlan, do. We join in wishing the happy couple many years of health, happiness and prosperity. Mr. and Mrs. Baker were taking part in the annual Waterford Pilgrimage to the world-famous Shrine.

Also included in the pilgrims was Mrs. J. Power, Clashmore.

GARDA TRANSFERRED

Recently transferred from Villierstown to Waterford City was Garda Robert Coughlan. A courteous and efficient officer of the peace, Garda Coughlan is a most popular young man and his many friends in this area regret his departure and wish him well in his new sphere of duty.

COTTAGE SITE APPROVED

The Department of Local Government have finally approved of the site purchased by Waterford County Council for the proposed new housing scheme at Clashmore. This decision will be welcomed by the people of the area, where several families are in urgent need of houses.

CLASHMORE DEFEATED

Clashmore were decisively defeated by Tallow in the J.H. championship on Sunday last. The losers gave a good account of themselves, but lacked the ability to score against a hard-tackling and experienced defence.

AGLISH WIN

Aghlish Geraldines impressed in defeating Fourmilewater in the intermediate hurling championship on Sunday last. Their supporters are confident that they are capable of fannexing the title.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

Mrs. A. McGrath, presided at the monthly meeting of the local Guild I.C.A., held recently. A welcome was extended to new members and to representatives of the Lismore and Ballinella Guilds. Apologies for non-attendance were received from Tallow. The "guest speaker" Miss E. Ryan, Worker, S.C.N., Medical Social Worker, Dungarvan, gave an interesting talk on health embodying habits exercise, attire, leisure, temperance and happiness. During the course of her address, Miss Ryan suggested that the I.C.A. should help in the care of old people living alone. The vote of thanks was proposed by Mrs. Conway and seconded by Mrs. O'Gorman, N.T.

REGATTA

Next Sunday will be Regatta Day and we learn with pleasure that entries received are numerous, practically every club in the "south" being represented.

The extensive programme caters for oarsmen of every class, ranging from schoolboys and "cadets" to seniors.

In view of the lengthy programme, the officials in charge will insist on crews reporting to the starters punctually, or else suffer disqualification.

Given fine weather, we look forward to seeing a large number of spectators for this popular fixture.

BAD LUCK

Bad luck attended the crews which travelled to Dublin on Friday to compete in the Regatta at Islandbridge. While launching their boat, the schoolboys had the misfortune to accidentally damage the motor and had to row by a borerower boat of unsuitable weight. The boys could not overcome the handicap. Our Senior Four was disqualified for being late at the start and this completed a day of disappointments.

NON-STOP DRAW

Will all holders of Non-Stop Cards in the St. John's Association Draw please return same on or before June 2nd, to Mr. Austin Welsh.

KNOCK PILGRIMAGE

Those intending to travel to Knock Shrine on Sunday, June 6th, are reminded that tickets may be had from any of the following: Mrs. J. Smyth, Miss M. Kerfoot, Miss B. Lalor, Mrs. K. Curran and Mrs. A. McGrath.

KILMACTHOMAS NOTES

Sympathy.—We join with her many friends in offering sincere sympathy to Mrs. Mary Walsh, Chapel Rd., Kiltrossanty, on the death of her beloved father.

The death took place at a Waterford city hospital, of Mr. James O'Sullivan, Kill. Remains were removed to Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, Kill, on Thursday evening of last week. Following the eulogistic Requiem Mass on Saturday, burial took place in the adjoining graveyard. R.I.P.

Dance.—Kill Social Club held a very successful dance at the Atlantic Ballroom, Tramore, on Thursday night. Guest star was Paul Russell.

Mission.—Amidst inspiring scenes of religious fervour and devotion and in the presence of a large congregation, the week's Mission for the members of St. Bridget's parish Kiltrossanty and Fews, was brought to a close on Sunday night last.

Congratulations are in order for Miss Monica Barron, Main Street, on obtaining the Gold Medal at the examination held by L.A.M.D.A., which were held last week in Dungarvan. The award of a Bronze Medal went to Miss Carmel Howard, Walsh Place, Kilmacthomas. In the 1st year, verse-speaking group and 1st year A. do., the following local girls took part: Maureen Sullivan, Walsh Pl.; Mary Kelly, Carroll's Cross, and Noreen Dunne, Ballyshunock. Both groups obtained honours. All are pupils of St. Mary's College, Dungarvan.

Their legions of friends wish much happiness to Mr. Nicholas Fitzgerald, Bonmahon, and Miss Helena Barron, Knockee, Waterford, on the occasion of their marriage which took place last week.

Weather Permitting, the Annual May Procession will take place at the Convent of Mercy, Stradbally on Sunday next, 30th inst.

Just a fortnight in operation is the Elgin Children's Day Nursery, Dublin, which is being run by S.R.N. Bridget Hearne, Seafield, Bonmahon, and S.R.N. Sheila Cosgrave, Enfield, Co. Meath. The nurses plan to have about 30 children in the nursery. They will cater for mothers who have part-time jobs or for those who want a few hours free for shopping.

Have it that a Jumble Sale will be held early next month in Kilmacthomas, proceeds from same in aid of the Kilmacthomas Swimming Club. A fund-raising raffle is in progress and a draw will take place in the Parochial Hall, on Thursday, 1st July.

GAELIC JOTTINGS

GERALDINES SWAMP FOURMILEWATER

Although the impossibility of being in two places at the same time, I have been told that the Geraldines fairly sparkled in the first round of the Intermediate hurling championship at Lismore on Sunday, in their 8-4 to 2-4 victory over Fourmilewater. This was Geraldines as they have not been seen for many a long day and I have been assured from several sources who saw the game, that it will take a great team to beat them this year.

They had star performers in every sector and gallantly though Fourmilewater tried, they had apparently no answer to the Aglishers who played brilliantly.

In fairness to Fourmilewater, however, it seems that an injustice was done them in being humiliated to the extent of six clear goals. They were inferior to the sure, but the final scoreline I am told does less than justice to their efforts. They had to field without regular goalkeeper, Liam Brazil, and from all accounts his replacement failed to come up to scratch.

This, of course, is said without detracting one iota from Geraldines superlative display. Fore and aft they appeared to be a splendidly equipped outfit, and in this form and humour they are going to be mighty hard to beat. The smell of championship victory must be firmly rooted in their nostrils just now, and knowing Geraldines as I do, I expect them to now go on from strength to strength. Certainly their second round meeting with Tourin should be worth travelling many a mile to see.

It would appear however, that the men from Ballymac have fallen on lean times. They were handicapped by Brazil's absence, and Benny Walsh's departure to the U.S. but even at full strength they would not have overcome a rejuvenated Aglish team. But as is their great tradition, I expect Fourmilewater to rise again and it is to be hoped that this great and sporting club will not long be in the wilderness, for without them the championship is hardly the same.

TALLOW WIN

In the junior hurling championship game at the same venue, Tallow greatly impressed in their 3-10 to 0-1 defeat of Clashmore and they too seem destined to enjoy a good championship run.

STRADBALLY OVERCOME GAULTIER

In a first round Phelan Cup competition ('65) that was far too robust at times, Stradbally scored a good and deserved 2-9 to 1-8 victory over Gaultier at Dunhill on Sunday last.

There was quite an obvious needle in the game, and Gaultier were reduced to fourteen men in the first half when one of their forwards was sent to the line. Then midway through the second half the numerical strength of the sides was balanced when Tom Hearne, this year's county minor football captain received marching orders.

Stradbally had slightly the better of matters in the first half and just about deserved their two points interval lead. But a big shock awaited them early in the second half when a quick goal and a point put the Barony side two points to the good. But again Stradbally seemed to gain the upperhand and a brace of points levelled matters.

Then came the vital score of the game. Following a weak Gaultier kick-out Tom Cunningham gained possession before deftly passing to Jimmy Guiry who rounded a defender and slammed the ball to the net for a great goal.

For the winners, Paddy Power, Terry Guiry, Tom Walsh and Tom Foley were excellent defenders. At midfield, Pat Clancy and Eugene Casey were very prominent and up front Tom Cunningham (he notched five points from frees) John Kiely, Jimmy Guiry and Billy Barry took the honours.

Best for Gaultier were John Martin, Willie Lodge, Tony Cummins, Bertie McNamara and Ned Flynn. They sorely missed their great full back, Mark Dingley however, who is now in England.

DUNGARVAN SHOULD MASTER KILROSSANTY

On Sunday night next (7.30) at the Fraher Field, Dungarvan and Kilrossanty meet in the first round of the junior football championship. This is a very open affair but Dungarvan who got a number of senior players regraded, should prove superior to the Comeragh men's second string.

BALLINAMEELA OR BALLYAGGART

The junior hurling championship proceeds a bit further on Sunday next with the first-round meeting of Ballinameela and Ballyaggart at Cappoquin (2 o'clock). This game was postponed a few weeks ago but now as then, the issue is wide open. Since the last day, however, I have learned something more of Ballyaggart and I have been told by one of their men that not alone will they triumph on Sunday but they confidently expect their men to be vitally concerned in the closing stages of this championship.

They are greatly strengthened by the advent from Ballyduff of Paddy Joe Feeney, who in all probability will occupy one of the midfield berths. They also boast of excellent hurlers in Fahey, Veale, and Willie Roche, and if this quartet really settle down to play the hurling they are so capable of, then Ballinameela will find it exceedingly difficult to advance to the second round.

But nevertheless the Ballinameela men remain unpeturbed. They have trained hard for Sunday's clash and are confident that with the chips down they will rise to the occasion again.

Their defence is solid, backed as it is by Paddy McCarthy, P. J. Killigrew, T. Reynolds and Leo McGrath, whilst behind them Jim Maher is a first rate goalkeeper.

Mick Cashman will again be at midfield and their key men in attack are likely to be Tom Brown, T. Murray, J.J. Maher. It promises to be a close exciting game that could go either way. Ballyaggart will I think be slight favourites and may just about get there but when underdogs Ballinameela have the happy knack of upsetting the odds. They could do so again on Sunday.

PHELAN CUP TIE AT CAPPOQUIN

The only senior football tie down for decision on Sunday next is the meeting of Valley Rovers and Ring in this year's Phelan Cup competition.

Neither of these sides has made any great impact on the senior scene of late, so they will be hoping for a change of fortune on Sunday. It is a difficult game to forecast but I think the Valleys should be good enough to win this one.

FOOTBALL CHALLENGE AT THE PIKE

A most interesting football challenge will be staged at the Pike, on this Friday evening (May 28), between old rivals of former days, the Pike and Stradbally. This game, which should be very exciting, is timed for 8 o'clock.

RICE CUP

Lismore C.B.S. enter the fray for the first time against the holders Dungarvan C.B.S. The match goes on in Lismore on Sunday next, at 7.30 p.m. Dungarvan were already beaten by Sion in Waterford and will be anxious to get back on the winning trail again. A close struggle seems likely.

COLLIGAN OR KILGOBINET ?

Arch Rivals In Opposition

FOR weeks now Gaelic followers have awaited with commendable patience the meeting of arch rivals Kilgobinet and Colligan Rockies in the first round of the Intermediate hurling championship. Well, Sunday next is the day of reckoning and when these sides line out at the Fraher Field, Dungarvan, sometime around 3.15, I confidently expect to see one of the biggest ever crowds for a game in this championship present.

Everyone well knows the rivalry that exists between these sides from the one parish. One considers it something ignominious to succumb to the other, and this parish pride and prestige gives this clash an even greater touch of piquancy.

Last year the sides also met in the first round of this same championship when the Rockies were warm favourites to carry the day. But look what happened. The Rockies had no answer to a brilliant Kilgobinet who gained a victory that must have been one of the sweetest they have ever recorded. In passing, however I feel compelled to mention that the standard of sportsmanship on that occasion was anything but exemplary and the repeated outbursts of firstcuffs and hurley swinging tarnished the good names of both. Let us sincerely hope there is not a repetition on Sunday. It is of course understandable that the exchanges will be keen but there is no necessity for any element of violence and if these rivals decide to put their minds down solely to hurling, then this should be a thriller from start to finish.

Yet, strangely enough neither camp seems anyway confident about winning. Kilgobinet men with whom I have spoken were dubious of their team's chances, yet defection or no defection, I expect that when the hour of reckoning is nigh, both chosen fifteens will try unsparingly for the honour of defeating the other.

But because of so many doubts about so many players neither camp has yet announced their teams and in fact are unlikely to do so until the eleventh hour. Thus at this stage all we can do is surmise—and that at any time is treading on dangerous ground. Just who the Rockies will place between the posts is anyone's guess—and incidentally Kilgobinet at this stage find themselves in a similar indefinite position.

But the Colligan defence, as I see it will be the sheet anchor of the side. Jack Kiely, Cyril Power and Christy Dower seem likely to form the full line, with Colm Bannion, Mickey Walsh and Jim Ahearne forming the outer line. This again I must stress is not definite but certainly that sextet would make up a very fine rearguard.

Should Paddy Walsh declare fit, then he may be placed at midfield or on the forty but if an absentee—as seems most likely then Jim Cliffe and Frank Tobin could well man midfield. Their attack, however looks—on paper at any rate—too be the suspect sector. Individually Dick & Jimmy Tobin, Shamie Kirwan (and Marty McGrath) are good enough for any of the Intermediate sides and how they will fare against what is certain to be an unrelenting rearguard is quite a different matter entirely.

And what of Kilgobinet? Like Colligan they have a big goalkeeping problem, and anyone of three players could be chosen for the position. Crippled as they are by defections their defence does not look nearly as powerful as twelve months ago. However, Mark Cummins Eamonn Byrnes John Woods and company will yield nothing easily.

What midfield partnership they will rely on is something I could not even guess on, but up front they will be re-lying most on the skill of Larry and Tomas Cummins and Tommy Woods, together with the drive and determination of full-forward Mick Keating.

So here you have it, a clash that is being awaited on all sides with ever-mounting interest. The result? Quite candidly I find it extraordinarily difficult to decide one way or the other. Both sides means absolutely nothing, are somewhat depleted, and That it will be a close and as already stated neither exciting game goes without camp is displaying any no-saying and the side fortunate ticeable degree of confidence enough to receive the breaks Kilgobinet will I imagine will surly pass safely into will be slight favourites, but the second round. Beyond in a clash of this nature that that I am not prepared to go.

LATE TOMMY PARSONS

AN APPRECIATION

Diminutive Tommy Parsons is dead. This superb footballer of the twenties and thirties died unexpectedly on Wednesday, of the inexpressible grief of his legion of friends and admirers.

One could fill a book relating the many fine features that hall-marked Tommy's character, but suffice for me to say in this humble tribute to him, that his like are all too rare in this modern world.

Tommy, until he so regrettably passed to his eternal reward, was a staunch, loyal and hard-working Fianna Fail supporter. But even those who did not share his political affiliations, also held him in the highest regard and respect. When merely a boy of tender years, he was out there playing a valiant part in Ireland's struggle for Independence.

A native of Co. Tipperary, he followed the fortunes of his county with avid interest right up to the last.

But it was as a footballer with Dungarvan—where he has resided practically all his life, and with Waterford that Tommy was best known.

THOUGH SMALL IN STATURE—

stood no taller than 5'3"—Tommy was regarded as one of the greatest forwards of his day. A colleague of his, Pakeen Whelan, summed up his genius when he said: "Once Tommy gained possession on or inside the forty yard line, the umpire could prepare himself to wave the flag." He represented Waterford, too, on countless occasions, and he wound up a speechee helped Dungarvan to victory in the '38 county final against Kilrossanty.

Now he is with us no more. That brief, but of, an definite sentence will bring sorrow and regret to all who knew and admired Tommy. He now lies beneath the clay of his native Tipp. (he was laid to rest this Thursday evening in Cashel), but memories not alone of his football greatness, but also of his many other outstanding features, will live on with the people of Waterford and more particularly those of the Old Boro.

Go ndeine Dia trocaire ar a nam. — JOHN A. MURPHY.

Dungarvan for Winter League Final

DUNGARVAN 3-1 TOURIN 2-1

NOT too surprisingly, Tourin minus the services of their star forward Stephen Scanlon, failed to master Dungarvan in the semi-final of the Winter Hurling League at the Fraher Field on Sunday last. The game did not reach any great heights but on the hour's play there can be no disputing Dungarvan's right to their place in the final of this competition.

Only once during the game were Dungarvan in arrears, although they were hard pressed to hold on to their slender advantage in the closing stages. This they successfully did, however, and their overall display was impressive enough to suggest that they will be a force in this year's championship.

Whilst Tourin may point to Scanlon's absence—and believe me he was sorely missed, Dungarvan were also far from being at full strength. In fact they were the more handicapped in this respect, as no less than one-third of the regulars — Mick Bowen, Jim Byrne, Michael Norris and the Crowley brothers, Tom and Brendan, were all missing. The losers drew first blood with an early point, but soon Dungarvan levelled and right up to the interval their half second goal—a score that left the issue seriously in doubt once again. But try as they might their Scanlon-less attack lacked the guile and penetrative power to crack a solid rearguard and at the call of time it was Dungarvan who had taken control of the exchanges.

Whilst Dungarvan must still show improvement in certain sectors, the return of the missing five should add greater all-round strength. By their recent victories over Colligan and now Tourin, they have proved how ever that the material is at hand, and if the proper championship preparation is undertaken I expect them to be vitally concerned in the closing stages.

On Sunday their defence was shown up in excellent light, Tom Cunningham at centre half was again the steady influence and he was well assisted by Mick Fitzgerald, Eamonn Kiely, Conor Curran, Eoin Goode and Tony Mountain. Surprisingly enough however, goal-keeper Michael Donnelly was below his best and might be faulted for both Tourin goals.

At midfield John Moylan and Raymon Lannon held sway for long periods and Tolly Queally

Mike Fitzgerald and "Ruby" Mahony impressed most in attack.

For Tourin Frank McGrath had a great game in goal but was unfortunate to be injured early in the second half when his head struck an upright.

Their defence did well also particularly Ollie Wilkinson, Johnny Gorman, Tom and W. Dooney. At midfield Tommy Hickey and Jimmy O'Gorman, when moved there, also had their moments, and Hickey also fared well when moved to centre-forward in the second half.

But without Stephen Scanlon, their attack bordered on a sector of shreds and patches. Individually the entire sextet tried hard, but more than ever before Scanlon's real worth was brought to light—oddly enough by his absence.

Dungarvan—M. Donnelly; C. Curran, M. Fitzgerald; Eoin Goode; E. Kiely, T. Cunningham, T. Mountain; R. Lannon, J. Moylan; R. Mahony, J. Mahony, S. McGrath; M. Walsh, S. Power, T. Queally.

P. Walsh for J. Mahony. Tourin—F. McGrath; T. Sullivan, W. Dooney, T. Landers; T. Dooney, O. Wilkinson, John Gorman; T. Regan, T. Hickey; T. P. Barry, Jimmy Gorman, J. J. Scanlon; T. Barry, L. Sullivan, P. Quinn.
