Minister Opens New School at Colaiste na Rinne

A NEW £25,000 five-classroom school was officially opened by Mr. George Colley, Minister for Education at Colaiste na Rinne, Dungarvan, on Wednesday. The new building was blessed by Right. Rev. Mons. Dean M. Barron, P.P., Ballybricken, Vicar Capitular of the Diocese.

Right Rev. Dean Barron also presided at Mass in the college, which was celebrated by Very Rev. J. O'Donnell, P.P. Ring.

Speaking in Irish, the Minister for Education described how, with the great success of Colaiste na Rinne, founded early in this century, the college directors had founded Scoil na Leabhaigh to cater for the children. From that day under the direction of the late Fear Mor (Seamus O hEochai), Scoil na Leabhaigh, year by year, had turned out crowds of children speaking fluent, lively Irish after a term at the school.

Rev. M. Wall, C.C., Newtown, Kilmacthomas, clerical manager of Scoil na Leabhaigh, welcomed the Minister. He said that successive Governments and Ministers and their officials had given practical demonstration of the work that was being done for Irish in an Rinn down the years. Children became fluent speakers of Irish there in a year, without, at the same time, interfering with their ordinary education.

Muiris Uas Bodhlaeir, principal, Scoil na Leabhaigh, traced the growth of the school since it was established by An Fear Mor and his assistant, Michael Uas O Clonfhaoilaidh in 1919.

At that time, he said, the Irish people were fighting for their country's independence and the authorities of Colaiste na Rinne knew that there was a demand for a school like this to give the young children of Ireland a chance of learning their native language.

FLUENT IN YEAR
An Fear Mor and those associated with him had proved beyond a shadow of doubt that children could get a fluent command of the Irish language in one school year.

The new Scoil na Leabhaigh, he said, was not a national school only. It was also a fosterage school. This was the first school of its kind in Irish history.

Michael Uas O Domhnaill, baineisteoir, Colaiste na Rinne, thanked Church and State for their co-operation. The State had been especially generous to the college and heads of the state had paid personal visits there. They had also many visits from Ministers of State.

CLERGY PRAISED

With regard to the Church, he could not praise too highly the interest of the late Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, Most Rev. Dr. Cohalan. The Lord Abbot of Mount Mellerey also visited them occasionally. A special word of thanks was due to the local clergy for their devoted service.

He referred to teachers in the early days of the college. For years they had worked for nothing to pay off the debt on the college at that time.

Stole Goods Value £102

Thomas O'Leary (15) of 49 Murphy Place, pleaded guilty at Dungarvan District Court, on Wednesday to a charge of stealing property valued £102-15-8 from Good Brothers, Drapers, Dungarvan, where he was employed as a messenger between January 1st, 1964, and May 22nd last. Five others, two of whom pleaded not guilty, were charged with receiving the goods from O'Leary knowing them to be stolen.

Supt. M. English said O'Leary was employed as a messenger in Goods and stole the property and sold it to the other defendants very cheaply. The defendant, Thomas O'Leary said all the defendants knew the articles were being stolen. They told him if he was caught not to mention their names.

Judge Skinner, at this stage, said it was a very serious case. They should all go to jail. He wondered if O'Leary was normal at all.

Charge of Stealing Winkles Dismissed

A charge of stealing winkles valued 10/- the property of Mrs. Mary Kiely, Davis St., Dungarvan, on April 13th last against Patrick Costigan, Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan, was dismissed at the local District Court on Wednesday last.

Mrs. Kiely said she bought and sold shell fish as a living. She had 10/- worth of winkles in the yard. She left and when she returned they were missing. She later recognised them at Mr. Thomas Brett's, Sarsfield St., when accompanied by Garda O'Mahony.

Mr. Brett said on April 13th, the defendant came to him with 7/- worth of winkles. He was a dealer in this business. Garda Mahony said he interviewed the defendant who said he picked the winkles himself.

RECEIVED BY MAYOR OF CHICAGO

Mr. Jerry Ormonde, Dungarvan Chief Assistant County Engineer, who is presently holidaying in Chicago with his son

John, was received in the City Hall by the Mayor of the City, Richard J. Daley, Mayor Daley it will be remembered, visited Dungarvan and Old Parish only last year, his ancestors hailing from Old Parish.

Mr. Ormonde, accompanied by his son John and granddaughter Anne Ormonde was greeted very cordially by Mayor Daley. He enquired about Dungarvan, and asked Mr. Ormonde to convey his good wishes to Mr. T. A. Kyne, T.D., Mr. R. A. Walsh, U.D.C., and through them to the people of Dungarvan, Ring and Old Parish, and to express his appreciation of the reception he received on the occasion of his visit last year.

Mayor Daley also invited Mr. Ormonde and his son to attend Arlington races on Friday last in the Mayor's box. Mr. Ormonde is returning home on Sunday.

MR. JERRY ORMONDE

Mr. P. Lavan (E. A. Ryan & Co., Solrs.) defending O'Leary said his client was only a young boy and was enticed by people that should have known better. He had a free market for his goods and as this was his first offence he would appeal to the Justice. To be as lenient as he could with him. He got very little for his goods, only a total of £6.10.0 and he now realised the folly of his acts.

Judge Skinner said this was a kind of thing that was going on wholesale. Someone of the other defendants should have told O'Leary to stop. If he applied the P.O.A. to the people that received the goods he could not send O'Leary away.

He then decided to give O'Leary the P.O.A. because it was his first offence. He adjourned the other charges against those who received the goods for six months to see what restitution would be made in the meantime.

LATE MICHAEL J. MCCARTHY

ABBEYSIDE, DUNGARVAN

The death occurred at Dungarvan District Hospital on Thursday, June 3rd of Mr. Michael J. McCarthy, ex-N.T., Abbeyside, after an illness of long duration but at the wonderful age of 98 years.

A native of Bantry, Co. Cork, he took up teaching duties in Abbeyside in 1894 where he served loyally for over forty years.

A man of many outstanding features, he was held in highest regard, by all who made his acquaintance.

He was Chairman of Abbeyside Boy Scouts since its foundation in 1930, a post he resigned from only a few years ago. He was also closely associated with the St. Vincent de Paul Society. He had thirteen great-grand-children.

At the removal of the remains to St. Mary's Parish Church a guard of honour was formed by the pupils of Abbeyside National School under their teachers Mr. M. A. Foley, Principal, and Mr. P. Veale.

The honours were performed by the Abbeyside Boy Scouts at the interment which took place in the adjoining cemetery after Requiem Mass on Saturday.

Rev. D. Byrne, C.C., assisted by Ven. Archdeacon Power, P.P., V.F., Very Rev. J. Roche, P.P., Rev. M. Walsh, C.C. and Rev. D. O'Brien, O.S.A. officiated at the graveside.

The chief mourners were: Dr. B. McCarthy, M.O., Johnstown (son); Mrs. A. M. Fennessy Dental Surgeon, Clonmel; Dr. Rita Mullen, England (daughters); Dr. Cecil Mullen (son-in-law); Mrs. B. McCarthy, Johnstown; Mrs. K. McCarthy, Abbeyside; Mrs. T. McCarthy, Ardmore (daughters-in-law); Dr. J. McCarthy, Dr. D. S. McCarthy, Dr. Nora (Millie) McCarthy; Mr. B. McCarthy, Rate Collector; Nurse Marie McCarthy; Mr. M. McCarthy, Dental Surgeon; Mr. T. F. McCarthy; Mr. Kieran McCarthy; Mrs. John Phelan, Mrs. Owen Cody; Mrs. Barry Roche, Miss Annabella McCarthy; Dr. John Fennessy, Miss Nora Fennessy; Mr. K. Fennessy, Mr. John Mullen, Misses Ann and Maeve Mullen, Miss Nora McCarthy (grandchildren).

Funeral arrangements were carried out by T. F. McCarthy, Undertaker, O'Connell St.

LISMORE GOLF CLUB

The Committee plan to open the course before the end of the month. In the meantime, much work requires to be done and the committee will be grateful if members and intending members will come to the course at 8 p.m. as many evenings as possible during the next two months to help with the work. Annual subscriptions are: men, £3; ladies, £2; families £5. As considerable expenditure is being incurred, early payment of same will be appreciated by the committee.

Villierstown Water and Sewerage Schemes In a letter to Villierstown Development Committee, Mr. Sean Treacy, T.D., enclosed the following letter from the Housing and Sanitary Section of Waterford County Council:—"A Chara,

With reference to your letter of the 25th ultimate regarding Villierstown Water and Sewerage Schemes, I am to advise you that the tender for the Water Supply Scheme was forwarded to the Department of Local Government for sanction on the 10th May, 1965 and the tender for the Sewerage Scheme was forwarded for sanction on the 14th May, 1965. To date, sanction has not been received. "In the circumstances, no indication as to when these schemes are likely to commence can be given. Le meas, E. Macneil."

Mr. Treacy adds that he is now raising the question in Dail Eireann to hurry sanction of the Scheme.

LATE MRS. C. HICKEY

Dungarvan and Ballinacott States accompanied by her son Nicholas, is Mrs. E. Dunphy, wife of Mr. Eddie Dunphy, Denver, U.S.A., and of Grawn, Kilmacthomas. Mrs. Dunphy is a native of Banteer, Co. Cork, and is renewing old friendships and enjoying every moment of her stay.

Proprietor of the Forge, Kilmacthomas, is likeable and most popular Mr. Sean Faulkner, Old Road, who was married on Wednesday of last week in Newtown Parish Church. His wide circle of friends wish him every blessing and joy in his married life.

Daughter of Mr. George Brown, retired sub-postmaster Kilmacthomas, is Miss Sadie Browne, Matron, Children's Nursery, Dun Laoghaire, who is holidaying here at the moment. Sadie will also visit her sister, Mrs. Claxton, Dungarvan.

In the Munster Colleges Athletic championship held recently, David Hill, son of Mrs Hill and the late David Hill, Dungarvan, came second in the 440 yards event. His many friends in these parts wish him the best of luck and warmly congratulate him.

Congratulations are offered to Miss Patricia Delany, younger daughter of Mr. James Delaney and the late Mrs. Delaney, Stranstruth, North, Dungarvan, on her engagement to Mr. John O'Meara, only son of Comdt. and Mrs. Sean O'Meara, 'Mugano', Well Rd., Cork. Patricia has many friends and relatives in the Bonmahon, Anestown, Dunhill area. Both her parents are natives of these parts.

Big Lordship, Most Rev. Dr. Hehilly, paid a visit to the Parishes of Killyrossant-Fews; Stradbally-Ballylaneen - Faha, and Newtown-Kill, to administer the Sacrament of Confirmation to the children of the Parishes. After Confirmation, His Lordship addressed the children and reminded them of their duties to their religion, parents and teachers. He also complimented the clergy, teachers and parents.

WEST WATERFORD NEWS

THE WEEK-END Reasonably good weather favoured the Whit Weekend in this area. Apart from some showers there were long periods of sunshine and big crowds flocked to the beaches, at Ardmore, Whiting Bay, etc. The most pleasing feature of the week-end in this area was that it was entirely accident free.

ON HOLIDAY Enjoying a holiday in her native Clashmore at present is Miss Mary C. Veale, S.R.N. Also on holiday is Mr. T. Griffen.

TIDY TOWNS As already mentioned in this column, Ardmore and Villiers town are entrants for this year's Tidy Towns Competition. At each centre the Organising Committee has put a lot of hard work into the full co-operation of the residents.

DEATH OF MR. PATK. FLEMING, CLASHMORE The death occurred recently, of Mr. Patrick Fleming, Creggs, Clashmore. A member of a well known family, deceased, who was a practical farmer, was a popular and respected figure, known for his many outstanding qualities and amiable character.

LATE MR. J. FOLEY, CLASHMORE The death took place in a Dublin hospital, of Mr. John Foley, Ballyeurran, Clashmore. A member of a well known family, deceased, who was of a quiet and unassuming nature, was a leading horse trainer and worked in some of the leading stables in this country and across the Channel. He was brother of Comdt. Robert Foley, Dublin and Capt. W. Foley, do., and Mr. Michael Foley, Clashmore, to whom sympathy is extended.

LATE JAMES MULLANEY CLONEA, DUNGARVAN It is with sincere sorrow we record the death of Mr. James Mullaney, Clonea, which sad event occurred during the early hours of Tuesday morning, 8th June, after a duration of illness, but at a comparatively early age, at the District Hospital, Dungarvan. The deceased was one of nature's gentlemen and his charming manner won for him legions of friends.

A member of a well known family, deceased, who was of a quiet and unassuming nature, was a leading horse trainer and worked in some of the leading stables in this country and across the Channel. He was brother of Comdt. Robert Foley, Dublin and Capt. W. Foley, do., and Mr. Michael Foley, Clashmore, to whom sympathy is extended.

The removal of his remains took place on Tuesday evening to Garranbane Church, followed by a huge cortege and his coffin was blessed and received by Rev. M. Walsh, C.C., assisted by Rev. Fr. Armond, Chaplain, Wilton College, Cork.

Requiem Mass was celebrated on Wednesday for the intentions of his gentle soul and the interment took place in the adjoining family plot amid manifestation of very great sorrow from the large concourse present. Rev. M. Walsh, C.C., imparted the final absolution at the graveside.

Tourist Organisation hold A.G.M.

The Second Annual General Meeting of the South-Eastern Regional Tourism Organisation Ltd., was held at the Royal Hotel, New Ross, on Friday, 4th June.

After the Secretary had dealt with queries on the Accounts, the Accounts for the period from formation to 5th April, '65 were adopted unanimously, together with the Directors' Report for the same period. Mr. Minihan nominated Mr. Donovan, representing New Ross U.D.C., as a Director of the Company under Article 34. The Secretary pointed out that nomination must be made by a representative of a Local Authority qualified under that Article. After some discussion concerning the position generally, Mr. Donovan, as the only nominee of a qualified Local Authority under Article 34, nominated himself as Director and was declared elected by the Chairman.

Several members raised the question of farmhouse holidays and Mr. Cusack gave particulars of progress to date in this respect and of standards required. Mrs. Grace mentioned that the Bord Fáilte requirement that three bedrooms should be available was a major difficulty in obtaining suitable farmhouses, and Mr. Cusack informed the meeting that he had made representations to Bord Fáilte on this point. Mr. Hayden suggested that the minimum number of bedrooms for Guesthouse registration should be reduced from ten to five or six and Mr. Cusack undertook to discuss this matter with the other Regional Managers and Bord Fáilte.

Mr. Minihan and Mrs. Dolan raised the question of publicity of the South-East Region abroad. Mr. Cusack emphasised that the Region was under-sold up to now and that, in particular, lack of suitable photographs of the area was a handicap. However, the Bord Fáilte photographer was commencing a tour of the Region shortly. Mr. Murphy, Graigueanamaugh, suggested a photographic competition with the publication rights of all winning photographs to belong to the Regional Organisation and the Chairman undertook to bring this suggestion before the Board at an early date.

The Secretary informed Mr. Leonard that the total number of ordinary members was 236 and he gave a short statement of the relative representation of the different counties. Mr. Cusack stated that subscription collections had not been started yet this year, but a considerable improvement was hoped for and expected. The Chairman emphasised that, regarding Local Authority contributions, the Company would not be satisfied until all Local Authorities were contributing the maximum sums permitted by statute.

Mr. Murphy asked for the Board's policy concerning Festivals. Mr. Cusack and Mr. Breen stated that the Regional Organisations were not prepared to support a Festival financially if Bord Fáilte were already contributing to the Festival. In other cases the tourist potential of the Festival would be the deciding factor in consideration of financial support. The Regional Body would be happier to receive recommendations of such Festivals through Local Tourist Bodies than from individuals.

The Chairman paid tribute to Mr. Cusack and Miss Coffey for the work since their appointment and to the Directors of the Company for the work they had put in since its formation. Mr. Donovan expressed pleasure with the work achieved to date.

CHAIRMAN'S ADDRESS

The Chairman's address was as follows:—
The work of the Organisation got under way this year with the appointment of a Regional Manager, Mr. A. L. Cusack. Unfortunately, he was not appointed until mid-November, 1964. After his initial Training Course, the Regional Office was equipped, staffed and opened in January, 1965.

The first task which your Company undertook was the establishment of a efficient system of Information Offices throughout the Region. Accordingly, offices were opened in Waterford, Tramore, Dungarvan, Clonmel, Cashel, Tipperary, Kilkenny, Carlow, Enniscorthy and Wexford.

These offices will be providing detailed local information in addition to the normal information, re trains, buses, and local directions. An important feature of the offices will be the operation of a Room Reservation Service. This is the first time that this service will be operated on a national scale and your Company will be co-operating with the other Regional Companies to do this. The value of the services, not only to the visitor, but also to the hotel, guesthouse or other registered premises cannot be overstressed.

Many meetings of local Associations and Development Groups were attended and the working liaison established. The setting-up of these initial contacts are most important in the establishment of the local-Regional-National Chain. The County ordination with the County Tourist Councils has been most valuable in this connection.

The introduction of the new drive-on drive-off Car Ferry on the Fishguard Rosslare route is a significant development in the South East and the importance of the mobile tourist is becoming increasingly apparent. This poses an accommodation problem and with the co-operation of Bord Fáilte, the Irish Countrywomen's Association and local Committees, extra premises have been added to the Supplementary List.

On the development side we have instigated and advised and assisted in the promotion of many projects, several of which will be operational this season. A Regional Guide has been commissioned and will be available in 1966. A Promotional Brochure on the Region is at present in the course of printing.

One of the disadvantages which we have in the Region is that we are grossly under-sold. This problem we are attacking vigorously, both on our own account and with the co-operation of Bord Fáilte. It should be recorded here that the Press, especially the local papers in the Region, have given us excellent coverage in a most fair manner. There appears to be a greater awareness in the area of the important part tourism plays in our economic development. It is becoming more generally appreciated that the effect of tourist spending is not confined to the hotels, but reaches into a great many sections of the community. This is having the effect that more capital is being invested in accommodation and tourist plant. It is the task of this Organisation to foster and develop this trend so that we may be properly equipped to attain the target set in the Second Programme for Economic Expansion.

CHARGES DISMISSED

A collision between a motor cyclist, John Fitzgerald, Ballycoe, Dungarvan, and a van driven by Mr. Donal Whelan, 50 O'Connell St., Dungarvan, had a sequel at the local District Court on Wednesday, when both were charged with dangerous driving at Mitchell St., Dungarvan, on April 18th last. The charges against both were dismissed.

Mrs. Fitzgerald, wife of one of the defendant said she was travelling on a motor cycle with her husband. The van was in front of them being driven by Whelan. She did not remember anything after that.

Garda P. Nactor said that when he arrived at the scene of the accident the van was almost in the centre of the road and the motor cycle was embedded in the front of it. There was a pool of blood five or six feet from the front of the van. Fitzgerald was unconscious.

When in a statement said he was turning to go down St. Bridget's Tce and had his indicator working. He did not see anything until he heard a crash and then saw two people falling on the road. He stopped his van immediately.

LATE MRS. M. O'DONNELL

Feddaun, Mt. Mellera

Widespread regret has been occasioned by the death of Mrs. Margaret O'Donnell, Feddaun, Mount Mellera, which took place on Monday, 7th June, at Dungarvan Hospital. The late Mrs. O'Donnell was the widow of Mr. John O'Donnell, who had reached an advanced age. One of the "old stock" and a lady of many estimable qualities, her presence will be much missed.

The remains were removed on Monday to the parish church Cappoquin, where they received by Very Rev. J. Canon Kenneally, P.P., and Rev. M. O'Meara, both of whom officiated at the burial in Old Affane, on Tuesday. There was a very large attendance at the obsequies, testifying to the high esteem in which the deceased lady was held.

The immediate mourners were: John, Feddaun (son); Mrs. D. Beadle, St. Alban's, Herts.; Miss Peggy O'Donnell, (daughters); Mr. Derek Beadle (son-in-law); Mrs. John O'Donnell (daughter-in-law), and grandchildren.

Floral tributes from her grandchildren were laid on the coffin and grave.

(Undertaking by A. Walsh & Sons, Cappoquin.)

N.F.A. NEWS Government Figures give wrong impression

In these days of changing patterns of production the small family farm should be regarded as part of a bigger unit. It should be seen in the context of the local co-operative creamery, co-operative livestock mart and other co-operative enterprises.

He saw great opportunities for Inishowen not just as a dairying area but also as a sheep district. "To my mind the men of Inishowen are obviously good sheepmen but the area could carry a much greater stock of sheep. If the majority of the farmers in the peninsula engaged in intensive sheep production they could increase their incomes considerably."

He suggested that any development plans which they might be envisaging should be on the basis of what was best for the peninsula as a whole.

MR. RICKARD DEASY CRITICISES MARKETING SET-UP

Some of the anomalies in Irish agriculture were referred to by Mr. Rickard Deasy, President, N.F.A., in Mullingar, this week. He was speaking at a public meeting in the County Buildings, which was the finale to a day-long tour of the county by Mr. C. J. Haughey, Minister for Agriculture, at the invitation of the Westmeath County Executive of N.F.A.

The greatest anomaly in agriculture, said Mr. Deasy, is in the field of marketing. Here again we had increased production in cattle and sheep running alongside, what could only be described as a medieval marketing machine. "While the best elements of our meat trade are as good as you will find in any country in the world, their efforts are being frustrated by the outdated attitudes of the remainder," he said.

The situation was even more chaotic in wool marketing. The industry was faced with falling prices and an atmosphere of uncertainty and yet there was no word from the Government Investigatory Committee which began its investigations nearly three years ago into the handling and marketing of Irish wool. N.F.A. in its submission to the Committee had called for the establishment of a Wool Marketing Board. This call had been repeated many times since but still the only response from the Government was that the report of the Committee was being prepared and could be "expected shortly."

Replies such as that were poor consolation to progressive farmers such as those in County Westmeath where the investment in livestock on their farms was over £2 million greater than ten years ago.

N.F.A. would not be satisfied until all Irish agricultural produce was sold as Irish produce at a premium price commanding premium prices. "The question is" said Mr. Deasy "are we prepared to aim for the top and to take the necessary steps to get there or are we willing to settle for second best, which means that we will end up second last. I am confident that the Minister for Agriculture is a man who is not satisfied with second best."

He called attention to the greatly increased production on Irish farms which was taking place in response to Government encouragement. But the Government with one voice, was urging the farmer to improve his economic position and at the same time with another voice it was proposing to hit him with a ethal weapon, which appeared in the Dail recently as Financial Resolution No. 18. This resolution by making the Revenue Commissioners sole arbiters of whether a farmer, in making a family settlement was trying to evade death duties, hit at the progressive farmer who worked hard in order to make a decent settlement on his family.

"The most nonsensical thing about the Resolution is that it inhibits a farmer from doing exactly what the Succession Bill advocates—the making of family settlements," said Mr. Deasy. "The community can do much to make an apparently dull countryside a bright and enjoyable place in which to live."—Miss Mary Hegarty, President, Irish Agricultural Officers' Association.

The young farmers of Europe have been urged by Prof. Walter Hallstein, President of the European Economic Community Commission, to take an active part in the construction of a new Europe. Prof. Hallstein, who was speaking at the closing rally of the International Provincial Youth Festival in Stuttgart, also appealed to young people from rural districts to adapt their life and work on farms to a modern rhythm.

Ballinavilla will hold a group meeting on Friday, 18th June, at 8 p.m. A talk will be given on Voluntary Health Services. Under the chairmanship of Federation International Officer, Mrs. S. O'Carroll, a meeting of Guild International officers will be held on Thursday, 24th June at 8 p.m. at Lawlors Hotel, Dungarvan.

Friday morning marked the Official Opening of the Pilgrimage. At 8.45 a.m., the pilgrims, led by Rev. F. Hopkins, Chaplain of the Sick; Rev. W. Callanan, Diocesan Secretary, and Rev. Laurence Walsh (Farnane), S.P.S., Kiltegan, went in procession to the Grotto from the Statue of Our Lady Crowned.

Three new guilds were recently opened at Ballinacart, Ballyheaphy and Mt. Mellera.

Kilmac' Tech.

Messrs. William Kenneally, T.D. and John Fahey, T.D., asked the Minister for Education if he will state the present position regarding the proposed vocational school at Kilmacthomas and when work on this school is likely to commence.

The Minister replied that Co. Waterford Vocational Education Committee were authorised on the 3rd March, to prepare working drawings for the proposed new vocational school at Kilmacthomas. Pending the preparation of these drawings, it is not in a position to say when work on this school is likely to commence.

SUCCESSFUL CLAIM BY CONTRACTOR

A claim for £40 brought by Maurice Hunt, Agricultural Contractor, Rhinecrew, Yougal, against Michael McCarthy, Grocer and Well Borer, of Mitchell St., Dungarvan, in respect of reaping and harvesting of 16 acres of barley, was upheld by Judge L. B. Skinner at Dungarvan District Court on Wednesday. The Justice also allowed Hunt £5 expenses. He allowed a stay in the event of an appeal by the defendant.

In evidence Mr. Hunt said he had been an agricultural contractor since 1955. On the evening of August 28th, 1963, he was driving home with his workman, William Dalton. They had stopped work that day at 1 o'clock because it was such a wet day. He met the defendant on a narrow road and asked him if he had any corn to cut, and that he would do it as reasonable as he was doing it for his other customers. The defendant asked him what he would charge and he said as a take 35/- an acre that day. He said that because it would be impossible to cut it then because of the bad weather. On Saturday, Sept. 7th the defendant called him and he agreed to cut the corn. It was carried out the combining of 16 acres of barley for the defendant. He also did combining of three acres for the defendant's brothers at 55/- an acre. He never did that work in his life for 35/- an acre. William Dalton said he was employed by Mr. Hunt, on August 28th, '63, he was in the car with Mr. Hunt when they met the defendant. It was a very wet day and Hunt told the defendant he would cut his corn for him at 35/- an acre now.

The defendant, Michael McCarthy, said when he met Hunt he asked him what he was charging per acre to cut the barley and Hunt said 35/- per acre. He (witness) replied "all right, the job is yours." He told Hunt he could not start however, for a week or ten days until it was ripe. When he (witness) got the bill he told the defendant it was incorrect and Hunt told him he was only coddling when he quoted 35/- an acre. He also told Hunt he would be prepared to split the difference between the two prices and he would not agree to that.

Replying to Dr. Counahan, witness said 35/- an acre would be a reasonable price to cut the barley. On granting the full decree, Judge Skinner said he believed there was some mistake about the chat between the two men.

7TH ANNUAL PILGRIMAGE

THE seventh Diocesan Pilgrimage began in glorious weather on Thursday, 13th May. From all parts of the Diocese our invalid pilgrims came to Waterford Station to join the 8 a.m. train to Dublin.

C.I.E. officials and the members of the Hospitalite ensured a comfortable journey for them in the specially equipped coaches. At Kingsbridge members of the Dublin Red Cross had ambulances and coaches ready for the transfer to Collinstown. The flight to Lourdes was in perfect weather and in the early evening our invalids were in their wards in Asile Notre Dame.

On Thursday, the 10.30 Mass in the Cathedral, Waterford, was celebrated for the welfare of the pilgrims and for all the benefactors of the Hospitalite. At 2 p.m., a special train brought the ordinary pilgrims to Dublin for their flight to Lourdes at 8 and 9 p.m. Right Rev. Monsignor M. Barron, Vicar Capitular and Patron of the Pilgrimage, was at the station to bless the pilgrims on their departure.

Friday morning marked the Official Opening of the Pilgrimage. At 8.45 a.m., the pilgrims, led by Rev. F. Hopkins, Chaplain of the Sick; Rev. W. Callanan, Diocesan Secretary, and Rev. Laurence Walsh (Farnane), S.P.S., Kiltegan, went in procession to the Grotto from the Statue of Our Lady Crowned.

pilgrimage were directed by Dr. John Balot, assisted by Dr. Hugh O'Brien-Moran, Secretary of the Hospitalite, Nurse Mary Sheedy, Waterford, Matron of the Hospitalite, was assisted by 18 nurses from various hospitals in the diocese. In the regretted absence of the President of the Hospitalite, Mr. Eamon Enright, Mr. Mark Jacob acted as Chief Brancardier. Mrs. Eamon Enright was Chief Handmaid. Their devotion and efficiency in serving the sick was an inspiration for those privileged to witness it.

Every afternoon after dinner and a rest, our invalids were taken again for bathing. At 4 o'clock they were ranged on both sides of the Rosary Square under the trees. There they awaited the Blessing of the Sick at the end of the Eucharistic Procession, which began at 4.30. Then they returned to the Asile for the evening meal; recreation night prayers and bed. This is the pattern of an invalid's day in Lourdes. They are allowed to remain up one night to see the Torchlight Procession (8.30 to 9.30). It is customary to have a torchlight procession through the wards of the Asile, conducted by the clergy and pilgrims from the diocese. In addition, because the invalids could not face the rigours of the outdoor Way of the Cross, the Stations were conducted in the wards one evening by Rev. Fr. Hopkins, Chaplain of the Sick. The Special Pilgrimage Exercise on Saturday morning 15th inst., was the Way of the Cross, with the celebration of Mass at the XI Station. Rev. W. Callanan read the prayers, and Rev. F. Hopkins celebrated the Mass.

On Sunday morning the Special Pilgrimage Mass was celebrated in the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception at 8 a.m. At 9.30 the Pontifical Mass for the Sick was celebrated in the Basilica of St. Pius X. Thirty priests, including our own, distributed Holy Communion. To Fr. Callanan fell the honour of preaching the short sermon in English during this Mass. He was preceded by a French priest and followed by an Austrian priest. It is customary to have a short sermon at the Mass in the league of the pilgrimages present in Lourdes.

On Sunday evening, immediately after the Blessed Sacrament Procession, the pilgrimage photograph was taken before the Altar of St. Bernadette. On Sunday night at 11 p.m., Father Callanan conducted the Holy Hour in the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception. At midnight and the other priests of the pilgrimage celebrated Mass. On Monday, at 1.45 p.m., the Farewell Ceremony took place. Our invalids were ranged, as on

£100 Stolen from Priest's House

Close on £100 was stolen from the residence of Rev. J. Murphy, C.C., Dungarvan, on Friday night last. The money was part of the Easter Dues Collection. The thief—or thieves—gained access to the house through a scullery window at the back and took the money from a room upstairs. The theft is being investigated.

Elected to Seanad

Congratulations to Mr. Sean Ormonde, N.T., Kilmacthomas, who headed the poll in the Labour Panel of the Senate Elections. Mr. Ormonde was a T.D. in the constituency for 18 years, but lost his seat narrowly in this year's General Election.

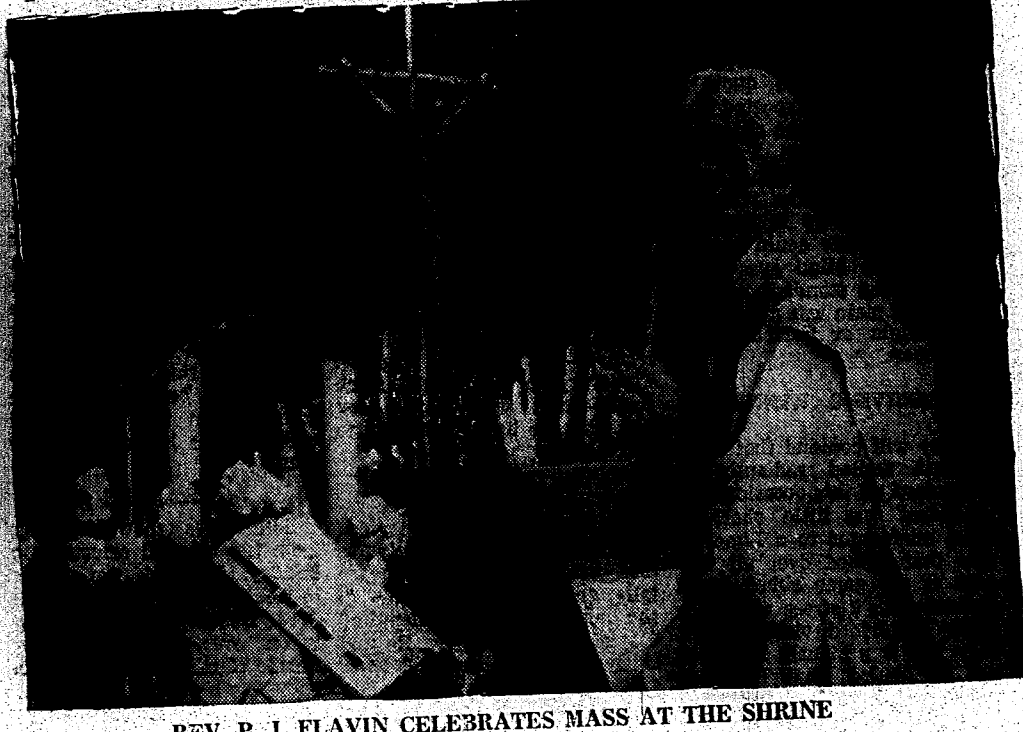

Correction

In a report in last week's issue on the monthly meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council, we reported Mr. P. Whelan as saying that a third family had moved into a Council house after the Council had considered the housing report.

This statement was in fact made by the Town Clerk, and we apologise to Mr. Whelan for the unintentional error made.

BOARD INVESTIGATIONS HELD IN CAMERA

For three hours on Tuesday night last the Officers of the Western Board carried out investigations into the incidents during and after the abandonment of the Colligan Rockies/Kilgobinet hurling championship game at Dungarvan on May 30th. It was agreed that the affair after the abandonment brought the Association into disrepute, and so by rule, has been referred to the senior Board—the Co. Board—whose meeting will be held on Monday night next.

Present at Tuesday night's investigations were the Chairmen, Secretaries, Treasurers and captains of both clubs, and Kilgobinet, as requested by the Board, gave the name of the player that refused to leave the field when requested to do so by the referee. This player, it was stated by the Chairman, Mr. Nicholas McGrath, would be dealt with at the next meeting of the Western Board.

Regarding the alleged illegality of the Kilgobinet team, Mr. McGrath informed Kilgobinet that the matter would be dealt with at the next meeting of the Western Board when the required information would then have been obtained. Footnote:—The members of the Press were not allowed to attend last Tuesday's meeting. They will, it is understood, be allowed attend next Monday's meeting of the County Board, however, when the whole affair will be fully discussed.

TUG-O-WAR COMPETITION The draw for the tug-o-war, which is being held in conjunction with the carnival at Quanns (sponsored by Abbey-side Boy Scouts and Dungarvan C.Y.M.S.), is as follows: Ballyduff A v. The Geese; Kilrossanty v. Ballyvoile A; Faha v. Ballyduff B; Ballyvoile B v. The Creamery.

The first rounds will be held on Tuesday 15th June, and the semi-finals and final on Friday, 18th June, at 8 p.m.

Dungarvan Humble Mt. Sion in Rice Cup

Dungarvan C.B.S. atoned for some recent defeats on Tuesday last by deservedly beating a strong Mount Sion side in the Rice Cup. Mount Sion side no doubt have a big effect on this young team, for up to this they had been able to do almost everything except win. Now that the tide has turned one can look forward confidently to seeing some really good hurling from them.

The result must have been a rather bitter pill for Mount Sion to swallow, for they made no secret of the fact that they were more effective than others, none outdid any other in spirit and determination. The real spirit is running through this Dungarvan side now and any team that comes up against them will know they've been in a match! Heroes there were in plenty in this grand victory, but none more so than Patsy Hackett, Hubert Hyslop, "Fox" Quinn, Brian Steele, Larry Sheridan, Anselm Hayes, Martin Sandford "bundle of energy" Mossie Keane.

This is probably the smallest and lightest side ever to represent Dungarvan in the Rice Cup. Yet it is doubtful if there has ever been a more enthusiastic team than this one. Last Tuesday they were a much smaller team and played the game on a greasy sod with a heavy ball and yet they proceeded to give their opponents a real roasting. It was noticeable too that both teams had slowed down almost to crawling pace at the end of the hour, yet Dungarvan managed to get to the ball faster and were completely on top right to the end. Mount Sion looked to be a team of all the talents in the beginning but before long it was obvious that they did not relish the crisp tackling of the local boys. There was much pre-match talk of them breaking the "Dungarvan Spell," for it is no secret that the field behind the school has become the graveyard of many fond hopes of visiting teams. Now they have their fingers crossed that the luck of the draw will obviate the necessity of having to play the boys in blue at home in either the semi-final or final. Dungarvan—P. Hackett, K. Quinn, H. Hyslop, J. O'Donnell, M. Moylan, M. Dunford (capt.); M. Croity, B. Steele, J. Phelan; L. Sheridan, M. Sandford, L. Egan, L. Sandford, M. Keane and A. Hayes. Subs.—M. Power and N. Duggan. Dungarvan have their next game on Sunday next at 8 p.m. Lismore are the visitors this time—the team which recently beat Dungarvan in a welter of excitement. This could prove to be a great clash.

Late Scores Gave Waterford Ticket To Semi-Final BUT ATTACK MUST BE IMPROVED

Waterford 3-8 Limerick 2-9

THE hour had almost run its course. Limerick, their hurling now hall marked unmistakably with a brand of confidence which had not hitherto been so glaringly evident, were 3 points to the good with only as many minutes left in the game. Waterford's exit from the Munster senior hurling championship seemed inevitable — the end in fact of a truly golden era. But then the 'impossible' happened. During those moments that remained Waterford became a transformed side, sensationally snatched an equalising goal, and then even more dramatically notched the scores that gave them a slender but deserved victory.

For Limerick it was another case of so near and yet so far. The Deise hoodoo that has clouded their every effort since 1956 looked at last as though it would be laid to rest, but in a thrilling finish, they were again agonisingly pipped at the post. The belatedness of Waterford's match-winning effort must automatically tag them as fortunate winners, but whilst that is a view to which I do not subscribe entirely, there can be no gainsaying the fact that Sunday's form would be grossly inadequate against Cork in the Provincial semi-final at Limerick on July 4th.

That spell-binding finish expected, however, this clash failed to produce the quota of thrills invariably expected from these rivals when the championship chips are down. True, the closeness of the scoring ensured that the outcome remained in doubt right up to the final whistle, but he could no possibly turn a blind eye to the fact that the standard of hurling in the main was not as high as it might or indeed should have been.

DESERVING WINNERS

Many will contend that dame fortune smiled radiantly on Waterford on this occasion. But if defeat was little short of cruel misfortune to a Limerick side that looked over all winners as the game ebbed to its entirety, this I stress was not a lucky Waterford victory. That they left it perilously late cannot be denied; that Limerick would not have been flattered with a draw is a contention I would not disagree with, but for all that, Waterford were on the run of play, deserving winners.

They met a spirited if not too skilful Shannonside challenge, but in the end it was a case of craft and experience again overcoming youth, speed and exuberance.

Now however that this first obstacle has been surmounted, mentors face many headaches before deciding on the fifteen to do duty against Cork. This Limerick game revealed many weaknesses, principally in attack, and unless drastic steps are taken to bolster up this sector, then they may find the Leeside opposition too powerful to overcome.

On Sunday last the failings of the attack were truly alarming. Frankie Walsh and John O'Brien to a lesser extent, were the stars of the sector, but the remaining quartet made little or no impression.

The game itself, whilst interesting the whole way through was also disappointing in many other aspects. True the thrilling consuming finish did much to raise the game, but during the remainder of the hour there was more than an average share of negative hurling.

In recent years it has been a Waterford tendency to start slowly, automatically giving the Limerick defenders that formed a human wall across the goal. But there was Frankie Walsh to crash the rebound to the net, and the sides were again locked in scoring equality. And that score was the signal for a complete Waterford take over. Now it was Limerick who were hurled back onto defence, and doubtless would have settled for a draw there and then. But it was not to be and first Cheasty, and then his midfield partner, Jimmy Byrne fired over glorious points that gave Waterford their entry to that semi-final.

Victory was undoubtedly the main objective of the day, and that much accomplished, was gratifying in itself. But this was not the Waterford we had expected, and they made extremely hard work of defeating a Limerick side that has a long way to go before raising the county from the doldrums in which it has languished for so long.

CHANGES

Both sides showed changes from the original selections on Sunday. Limerick were forced to field without star midfielder, P. J. Keane, whose berth was taken over by half forward Bernie Hartigan, and Tony Moloney was brought from the substitutes to fill Hartigan's berth in attack.

Rumour was rife for some days before the game that the recalled Duck Whelan would not be lining out, and this was confirmed shortly before Sunday's game. Into the breach stepped John Kirwan, flanked on either side by Power and Grimes.

THE SCORING

Limerick, playing with whatever slight breeze there was, were into full stride almost immediately, and lost a great chance of taking a first minute lead when Liam Moloney foolishly went for a goal from a 21 yard free. But the Shannonsiders were not to be long denied and Bernie Hartigan put them in front when he pointed a free. A minute later Liam Moloney snapped up a weak clearance and duly pointed, and six minutes later Pat Murphy had point number three. At this stage it was completely one way traffic, and when Tom Bluett raced through for a great goal in the 16th minute the writing was clearly on the wall for the Deise. In fact so porous was that Waterford defence at this stage that Joe Condon was placed at centre back, and an off-form Martin O'Morrissey at left full-back.

Immediately the change had the desired effect. Condon opened out those shoulders of his and displayed the brand of their defence. On Sunday last the rearguard was superb, and undoubtedly took the greatest share of the honours.

Between the posts Ned Power gave yet another of those displays which he invariably reserves for the big occasion. Limerick have good reason to regret his net minding brilliance on Sunday.

The Western men in the full line, Tom Cunningham and Austin Flynn have never played better—and that is saying something. In fact I would go so far as to say that it was the best game I have ever seen Cunningham play. At left corner back Joe Condon never put a foot astray, but it was when transferred to centre back that the Erin's Own man turned on a tremendous display of hurling and skill.

Wing-halves Larry Guinan and Jim Irish, the latter particularly, also excelled, but once again Martin O'Morrissey was well below his best form.

The experimental midfield pairing of Tom Cheasty and Jimmy Byrne was an even greater success than one could possibly have envisaged. Cheasty was back to his brilliant best, as was Byrne after a slow start, and it was fitting indeed that both should send over the two match-winning points.

It was in attack, however, that weaknesses were so evident on Sunday. Once again Frankie Walsh was the star, and John O'Brien showed he can take his scores. But the remainder were out of things for long periods, and at all times it was left to Walsh and O'Brien to carry the brunt of the forward responsibilities.

On a Limerick side that came so very near to snatching victory, best were defenders Tony O'Brien, Ned Rea and Kevin Long, midfielders Bernie Hartigan—best man of the thirty—and Eamonn Cregan, and forwards Tom Bluett, Pat Murphy and Eamon Carey.

GAELIC JOTTINGS

INTERMEDIATE HURLERS FACE LIMERICK AT DUNGARVAN

For the second Sunday in succession, Waterford meet Limerick in a Munster hurling championship game. On Sunday next the intermediate hurlers meet the Shannonsiders in the provincial semi-final, at Dungarvan, and aided by ground advantage, followers will be looking to a Waterford side qualifying for a first Munster final so far this year.

Already in this championship Waterford scored over Clare, also at Dungarvan, but on that occasion the team failed to impress to any extent, and nothing short of a 100% improvement will be good enough on Sunday. Limerick are reported to have quite a good side bolstered up in many sectors by players with senior inter-county experience.

Not too surprisingly then the Waterford team for Sunday shows changes from the one that overcame Clare. In defence Joe Daly, Bob O'Leary, and in attack, Donnell Mahon takes over from Ger Mason (Cappoquin).

Ned Power by virtue of the fact that he played in the senior championship on Sunday last is no longer eligible for the intermediate team, and his place on Sunday next is taken over by Mount Sion clubman Tony Flynn, who played with the Waterford minors last Sunday. The latter was far from impressive in the under 18 grade and will have to step up on that form on Sunday. John Kirwan will also be missing from the attack, having played senior on Sunday last.

It is going to take a maximum all out effort if Waterford are to win this one on Sunday. Ground advantage is bound to be a big help to them, and if the expected improvement is forthcoming, they may just be good enough to master the Shannonsiders.

The following is the Waterford team: A. Flynn (Mt. Sion); T. Walsh (U.C.C.), Sonny Walsh (De La Salle), E. Hickey (Ballyduff); O. Wilkinson (Tourin), J. O'Donnell (Ballyduff/Portlaw), F. Corcoran (Shamrocks); J. Whelan (Ballyduff/Portlaw); J. O'Gorman (Ballyduff Upper); M. Regan (Kill), K. O'Ryan (Fourmilewater), D. Barry (Ballyduff).

MINORS FAIL NARROWLY

Limerick — — — 7-5; Waterford — — — 6-5.

ONCE again, Waterford's minor hurlers have failed to get beyond the first round of the Munster championship. At the Athletic Grounds, Cork, on Sunday last, they went under to Limerick, but in truth to tell, this was a game they should in fact have won with something to spare.

Yes, defeat was cruel luck on a Waterford side that dominated this game for so long, and which, on the run of play, fully deserved their place in the semi-final. But a complete collapse for a brief spell in the second half was the beginning of the end for them, and from which they never fully recovered. Nor can one overlook the fact that goalkeeper Tony Flynn by his persistency in batting away balls instead of catching them, presented Limerick with two gift goals, and I have no doubt that had Dungarvan's Michael Donnelly been between the posts, then Waterford would have triumphed.

Waterford turned over with an interval lead of a point—2-4 to 2-3—but in actual fact this was a very poor reflection on the superiority they enjoyed during that opening half. But many fine scoring efforts met with cruel luck, and on two occasions only Limerick uprights kept the ball out.

But Waterford restarted with a flourish and when they scored two goals without reply in the first six minutes—the latter a spectacular effort by Timmy Healy (Dungarvan)—the Deise boys seemed all set to record a great victory.

Then suddenly the complexion of this game underwent a drastic transformation. First Flynn blundered badly in the Waterford goal, and allowed a trickling ground shot to go all the way to the net. That goal seemed to give Limerick new hope and almost immediately they cut their deficit to a point with another goal. Slowly they got well on top, and with only nine minutes left, were two goals clear.

Waterford then hit back with a goal, but almost immediately Limerick replied with a like score. But as the final seconds ticked by, Waterford again surged upfield, and Limerick clubman Michael McGrath put another bulge in the Limerick rigging with a great goal. But try as they might in the half minute that remained, they could not work through for an equalising goal, and at the fall of time they were frustratingly the losers in a fine game.

Limerick can thank two men above all others for their victory—Eamonn Grimes, when moved to centre-forward, and midfielder Paddy Doherty. Others, however that contributed to victory were J. Hehir, M. Toomey, M. Grace and D. Manning.

For Waterford, goalkeeper Tony Flynn (Mt. Sion) made some fine saves, but nevertheless blundered on at least two occasions for Limerick goals.

In defence, Noel Kelly, Michael Norris and Moses Power were best; Paddy Walsh tried all he knew at midfield, and in attack Michael McGrath (also at midfield), Seamus Dwyer and Paddy O'Grady were best.

MINOR FOOTBALL GAME

The minor footballers of Dungarvan and Na Piarsaig (Valley Rovers) meet in the second round of the championship on Sunday next—the game acting as a curtain raiser to the Waterford-Limerick game at Dungarvan. Dungarvan beat Abbeyside in the opening round, but were most unimpressive in doing so, and they must step up on that form if they are to beat the boys from Derrinlaun.

AT CAPPOQUIN

Three championship games are down for decision at Cappoquin on Sunday. At 2 p.m., Ballinacourty and Kinsalebeg meet in junior football, and another bulge in the Limerick rigging with a great goal. But try as they might in the half minute that remained, they could not work through for an equalising goal, and at the fall of time they were frustratingly the losers in a fine game.

This game is followed by the meeting of St. Mary's (Melmeray) and Colligan Rockies in junior hurling. Like Ballinacourty, the Rockies must rely on their second string for this game, and St. Mary's, though not as good as in former years, should advance with something to spare.

KILROSSANTY FANCIED

The final game at the Cornerstone venue is an evening one—at 7.30 p.m.—between Kilrossanty and Geraldines in junior hurling. Kilrossanty should win here comfortably.
