Heated Exchanges at Health Authority Meeting

CHAIRMAN AND
VICE-CHAIRMAN
RE-ELECTED

Mr. Charles Curran (F.F.) Clashmore, and Mr. Norman Walsh (F.G.), Cappoquin, were unanimously re-elected Chairman and Vice-Chairman respectively of Waterford County Council for the fifth successive year, prior to the adjournment of the Council's annual meeting on Friday last. Mr. Curran was proposed by Mr. P. Cahill and seconded by Mr. J. Fahey, T.D.

Returning thanks for re-electing him again, Mr. Curran said he did not think he deserved such an honour. The members of the Council were all doing their duties excellently. He wished to pay special tribute to the Vice-Chairman, Mr. Norman Walsh, who was always very helpful and kind whenever he had occasion to consult him. He also thanked the Officials and Council Staff and the members of the Press for the excellent and fair coverage of their meetings. On occasions the Press criticised them, but constructive criticism was a good thing and was only right.

Thanking the members for his re-election, Mr. Walsh said this term of Office was but an extension and they would be only caretakers for the next twelve months. He did not think that he had to act as Chairman once during the last twelve months, as Mr. Curran was always present. This was a sign of an excellent chairman, he added.

The County Manager, Mr. S. J. Moynihan, congratulated both on their re-election.

THERE were heated exchanges between Mr. Thomas Lannon and Mr. John Griffin during a meeting of Waterford Health Authority on Monday last. Both clamoured loudly at each other, and at one stage a member appealed to the Chairman, Mr. P. Browne to restore order.

Referring to the minutes of the previous meeting, Mr. Lannon said that at the last meeting during a discussion on a motion by Mr. P. Cahill seeking an increase of £1 a week for Home Assistance recipients, Mr. Griffin made certain remarks which he resented. One of them said Mr. Lannon was that he (Mr. Griffin) was suspicious.

"What was he suspicious about?" continued Mr. Lannon. "That is what I would like answered, and I take exception to that remark. I missed that remark at the meeting, but I saw it reported in the newspapers."

Mr. Griffin said that as far as he could recall, he never used the word "suspicious" at the meeting.

Mr. Lannon said he read it in the papers. He had always opposed reckless spending, but it was disgraceful that the Health Authority should turn down a few shillings for the poor which would have helped them to keep body and soul together. He always voted according to his conscience, and he was not tied up with anyone or any particular party.

Mr. Griffin immediately jumped to his feet exclaiming that he regretted having to refer to this matter again. At the last meeting when he made a remark which Mr. Lannon termed insulting he immediately apologised to him for it, adding that no insults had been intended. At that last meeting he never mentioned any individual, whilst the proposer of the resolution (Mr. Cahill) saw no offence in what he had said. That was as it should be because there was no offence intended. He did, however, say that the motion seeking the £1 increase for all the Home Assistance recipients was a tempting one—a temptation for each member to vote for it, and so appear to be giving money to the poor.

Mr. Lannon said that to implement the proposal would have cost £26,000, but most of the members were against it. Yet, within a short time, those same members wanted to give £20,000 to twenty men and there was no word about it.

Then followed some very heated exchanges between Mr. Lannon and Mr. Griffin.

Mr. Galgey then appealed to the Chairman, Mr. P. Browne to restore order and be a proper Chairman.

Mr. Browne said it would be best if both Mr. and Mr. Griffin left matters as they stood. To continue the argument would do no good and the meeting would only get completely out of control.

Mr. P. Cahill said he was now three months since he had proposed that the Home Assistance recipients be given the £1 a week increase. They had not got their money.

The Secretary, Mr. J. A. Hynes, replying, then read a report from the Supt. Assistance Officer stating that as and from July 3rd, graded increases ranging from 12½% to 100% would be given to these recipients. In winter time the old people would also receive other assistance.

ADJOURNED

The annual general meeting of Waterford County Council was adjourned on Friday last as a mark of respect to the late Michael Ahearne, Knockanore, father of County Councillor, Declan Ahearne.

Mr. C. Curran (Chairman) said this was a sad occasion for them. The late Mr. Ahearne, he said, was one of the finest citizens county Waterford ever produced and soldiered in the fight for Independence.

Mr. Norman Walsh said Mr. Ahearne was a highly respected and esteemed farmer in west Waterford. He answered the call in 1916 for freedom and remained loyal to that cause to the very end. The other members also joined in the expressions of sympathy.

Colr. Ahearne thanked them all for their kind remarks.

A vote of sympathy was also extended to Senator Liam Ahearne, on the death of his wife, and to Rev. D. Byrne, C.C., Dungarvan and the Byrne family, Roundhill, Lismore.

LATE JAMES PATTERSON

Mountain Villas, Dungarvan

It is our sad duty to record the passing of one of Dungarvan's most popular gentlemen in the person of James Patterson, late of Mountain Villas, whose death took place in the early hours of Friday morning at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, after a rather protracted illness. He was a gentleman of the highest degree and his gentle and jovial manner made him a general favourite. He had been attached to the Accounts Dept. of the local E.S.B. offices prior to his retirement.

He was a life member of St. Marys Parish Choir and President of the Dungarvan Musical and Choral Society and Committee member of the Dungarvan Brass and Reed Band.

To his heartbroken wife, daughter, grandchildren, sister, nephews and relatives sincere sympathy is extended.

The removal took place on Friday evening with the Dungarvan Brass and Reed Band playing the dead march, leading a huge cortege. His remains were blessed and received at the Church gates by Rev. D. Byrne, C.C., assisted Sheila Moriarty, Miss Ann Moriarty and Sean Moriarty (grandchildren). (J. Kieley and Sons had charge of funeral arrangements).

John O'Brien Cries Off

JOHN O'BRIEN is off the Waterford team to play Cork on Sunday next. That is the bad news we learnt just before going to Press, and as yet, a replacement has not been named. O'Brien is presently on holiday in the Isle of Man, but is out of Sunday's game because of a broken nose received in the challenge match against Wexford last week when struck by the ball.

by Ven. Archdeacon Power, P.P. V.F., Rev. J. Murphy, C.C. and Rev. R. O'Shaughnessy, O.S.A.

Requiem Mass was celebrated on Saturday for the happy repose of his soul and subsequently the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. Rev. D. Byrne, C.C., imparted the final absolution at the graveside assisted by Rev. J. Murphy, C.C. and Rev. R. O'Shaughnessy, O.S.A. A decade of the Rosary was recited by Rev. Fr. O'Shaughnessy.

Another very large concourse was present. The immediate chief mourners were: Mrs. Nora Patterson (widow); Mrs. J. Moriarty Longford (daughter); Mr. J. Moriarty (son-in-law); Miss

Car Rally
A very successful and well supported rally was held on Sunday last, in conjunction with the Gala Week in Dungarvan. Fifty two drivers, both ladies and men, took part in a rally which covered a 63-mile circuit through some of the most beautiful scenery in the County and which offered as well, driving problems which tested the driver's capacity under varying conditions.
The rally got off to a good start about 2 o'clock and the last competitors were back about 6 o'clock. The task of compiling the score sheet from observers' sheets was then undertaken and the result was announced to a large number of interested spectators in the Courthouse. There were three prizes for men and three for ladies and the winners were: Ladies—1st, Miss Kitty Connolly, Fourmilewater; 2nd, Miss P. O'Keefe, Kilmeaden, and 3rd, Miss Carmel O'Sullivan, Dungarvan. Men—1st, Mr. Ian Power, Kilminton; 2. Mr. T. Lynch, Friar's Walk, Dungarvan; 3rd, Mr. T. Dolan, O'Connell St. The award of the 3rd prize was only made after scrutiny of the marking because there was a tie in total marks between Mr. Dolan and Dr. Cusack but on an examination of a number of the more difficult sections of the rally check points, Mr. Dolan was the winner by one mark.
The very best thanks of the organisers go to Messrs. Tyresoles who so generously sponsored the rally and provided the prizes for it. Particular thanks are due to the Garda Authorities who were so generous in their assistance and to the Automobile Association who signposted the route and gave every help. A special word of praise to Mr. Noel Prendergast for the effort he put into organising it and last but not least to all the stewards who went out and spent the afternoon watching other drivers enjoying themselves and checked on their performance and especially to Messrs. E. Hill, Kilmeathomas, C. O'Farrell, Dungarvan, Noel Moynihan, do. and P. Clarke, do. who were good enough to come forward and use their own cars to take the stewards to the different locations.

Member calls to Abolish "Authority"

"ABOLISH the Health Authority altogether and let the Minister make all the decisions," remarked Mr. E. Collins at the monthly meeting of Waterford Health Authority on Monday last, when the Secretary, Mr. J. A. Hynes informed the members that the appeal of the Senior Dental Surgeons for a salary increase had been upheld by the Minister.

At the outset, the Secretary, Mr. J. A. Hynes, said that the Health Authority turned down the proposed increases for these Senior Dental Surgeons. They appealed to the Minister and the appeal was now upheld. The increases—approved on by arbitration board—are retrospective to October 1st, 1963. The maximum for the senior dentists is now raised from £1,899 to £2,295 and for the others from £1,650 to £2,070.

Replying to Mr. D. F. Madden Mr. Hynes said the arbitration board consisted of the Unions concerned and the County Manager's Association. Mr. Madden said the Health Authority was not a party to it at all.

Mr. M. Galgey asked if there was anything to show that the Health Authority was represented on that arbitration board. Mr. C. Curran said the Arbitrator was a Mr. Cook and he was certainly very one-sided in his decisions.

Mr. Hynes said Mr. Cook was the Chairman of the arbitration board and independent of both sides.

Mr. Lannon: From the awards recommended by him to-date, I would not say he was independent to both sides. Some of his awards have been outrageous. I propose here and now that the money be not provided for these increases. This will break the country if it is allowed to continue.

Mr. Hynes said they would not be able to fill future vacancies if these increases were not granted. At the moment they could not get physiotherapists just as they had not been able to get dentists at first.

Mr. Collins said dentists in England were earning between £4,000 and £5,000 a year.

Mr. C. Curran asked what was being done at the children's dental clinics. "I know," he said, "of a child with very bad teeth who was examined six months ago and nothing had been done since, and the child is in constant pain."

Mr. Hynes said they had four dentists and all were working extremely hard.

Mr. Lannon said the Secretary was saying the dentists were working very hard, yet when asked what they were doing he could not give an answer.

At this stage, it was decided on the suggestion of Mr. Curran to deal also with the nine other arbitrator's awards which were on the agenda. They would probably get a fright when then were told what effect arbitrator's award would have on their financial position. They were getting completely out of hand, he added. It was no wonder there was so much unrest and frustration amongst the working people to-day.

At this stage, Mr. J. Power proposed and Mr. P. Cahill seconded that all the arbitrators awards be sanctioned.

Mr. Hynes said the increases had already been paid by the Minister. The proposals to-day were simply to regularise the salary positions when future vacancies would have to be advertised.

Mr. J. Fahey, T.D.: It is an extraordinary thing to have a

Gala Week Great Success

DUNGARVAN'S second annual Gala Week, which was officially opened on Sunday last and which will continue until next Sunday, has to-date been a spectacular success. Blessed with beautiful weather conditions thus far, the town has been crammed tight with people—visitors and locals, all of whom are enjoying the splendour of the Gala to the full. Everything to date has gone according to plan, the varied items have proved a great "take" and the over all verdict is that this year's event is every bit as good as last year's memorable effort.

The Gala was officially opened on Sunday last at 12.30 p.m. on the Square by Mr. John Pickard, Marketing Manager of Beamish and Crawford Ltd. First there was a parade of bands (the Dungarvan Brass and Reed Band under the able baton of Michael Hennebery and the Dungarvan Pipe Band) and then followed the official opening, performed in brilliant sunshine and before a huge gathering.

Other speakers included Mr. T. A. Kyne, T.D., who extended a welcome to all their visitors; Mr. A. L. Cusack, Manager of the South Eastern Tourist Organisation, and Mr. Jerry O'Leary, Assistant Hon. Secretary of the Gala Committee.

Then right through Sunday evening followed a most attractive programme of entertainment. With every minute the influx of visitors grew, until finally by Sunday night one could scarcely get parking space for a car.

At 9.30 came the highlight of the day with the parade of the eight finalists in the Beauty Queen of the Deise contest. They were escorted on a specially decorated float to the Town Hall for the Festival Ball. Later in the night, Miss Monica Drohan, of Waterford, was selected by the judges, Messrs. Dermot Breen, Paul Russel and Mrs. Dorothy Tubridy, as the Beauty Queen of the Deise, thus earning for herself a trip to New York's World Fair.

And right through the week the fun and jollifications have continued unabated. Races and novelty items of every description, have been staged. The Royal Aces, The Fugitives and Comhaltas musicians have held open air "sessions" on the Square, whilst on Tuesday night Dungarvan Musical and Choral Society gave an unforgettable performance in the own Park.

And for the remaining nights there is every bit as good a programme of events arranged. Yes, without doubt, Dungarvan's Gala Week Committee have proved themselves second to none, and their efforts have indeed been fruitfully rewarded, they have indeed proved for the second year running that Dungarvan Gala Week is truly "Ireland's Gayest Festival."

MOUNT SION FOR FINAL

Dungarvan ..... 2-3
Mount Sion are in the final of the Rice Cup, but they must still be wondering how they got there. Dungarvan C.B.S. led them a merry dance for most of this game—it went to extra time—and yet were pipped at the post. Dungarvan were by far the finer hurlers and the cause of their defeat can be summed up in one word—"grass"! It was the condition of the ground in Kilmacthomas which finally proved to be the downfall of as gallant a group of young hurlers as ever left the C.B.S. It was really in the nature of a tragedy for these boys—yet they went out fighting to the bitter end for the scores that would not come.

Every man on the side was a hero and those who turned up for the match were rewarded with as thrilling a game of hurling as they are ever likely to see. As one neutral was heard to remark—"Waterford hurling is in safe keeping with lads like these."

WELCOME HOME

Rev. Mother M. Antonia Troy is paying a visit to her native home. She is flying from Johannesburg at 6.45 p.m., by jet plane on Thursday, 30th June, via London, Dublin, and expects to reach Cork Airport at 4.45 p.m. She was born in Helwick and was educated at Ring N.S., and Mercy Convent, Dungan.

While still a young girl she joined the foreign missions at the Convent of Mercy, Mafeking, South Africa, where her sister was already professed.

She has recently celebrated her Golden Jubilee. She will be spending about two months with her family and cousins. It is her second trip home. On her last visit she came in quest of postulants and to transact business for her community.

We welcome Mother Antonia home from the Foreign Missions and wish her a very enjoyable holiday.

National Livestock Committee Meeting

The National Livestock Committee at its meeting in N.F.A. House during the week discussed a number of urgent matters:—

Warble Fly Scheme.—The Committee were pleased to note that the representation already made to the Dept. of Agriculture for a compulsory scheme this year has been successful. While it is readily conceded that wonderful work was done on a voluntary basis last year, when more than 2,000,000 cattle were dressed, nevertheless, compulsory measures will be necessary to complete the scheme efficiently and speedily. This view has been strongly put forward at many N.F.A. branch and county meetings in recent months.

Marketing Boards who will be answerable to their fellow producers through their Association, is putting forward Mr. T. J. Maher, Chairman of the N.F.A. National Dairy Committee, and Mr. M. Howard, N.F.A. National Hon. Treasurer as candidates in the forthcoming election. We feel that the calibre of Messrs. Maher and Howard, working as a team with the other members of the Board can serve the farmers' cause well. Too often in the past have we experienced the position where little or no liaison exists between people who are elected on Marketing Boards and producers.

He added "Anyone buying agricultural land at 150 an acre, the kind of price ruling, is definitely certifiable unless he is a market gardener, or has a tip that the County Council is about to acquire land."

"As a status symbol a farm is much too expensive; far better a Rolls Royce. On the other hand, if a middling farmer can find a mug who will offer him this kind of money, he should sell at once, but keeping his house, become a farm labourer or better, invest the thousands he gets for the land at 6% and live happily after."

The foregoing coming from such an economic expert further confirms the N.F.A. arguments repeatedly put forward that substantial increases in farm prices are necessary if our agricultural industry is to progress to the extent needed for a healthy Irish economy. It is obvious that only for the fact that many of our Irish farmers appear to have a great capacity for punishment, there would be a greater exodus from the land.

DECLINE IN FRENCH FARM INCOME

A recent meeting of the Commission set up in 1960 in France, to consider the annual agricultural returns revealed that the gross value of agricultural returns decreased from 1963 to 1964 by 2.9%. This drop is contrary to official forecasts and more in line with the apprehensions of the farming sector where an 0.9% rise was anticipated.

TELEFIS FEIRME

The N.F.A. is pleased to note that starting on October 12 next Telefis Eireann will broadcast a weekly series of half-hour programmes in a new programme titled "Telefis Feirme." It is intended that this programme by arrangement, can be viewed by groups as a means of overcoming the lack of television units in country areas. Recent surveys have revealed that only some 35,000 Irish farmers own television sets. For this very reason community viewing is desirable if the modern medium is to bring its full impact to bear on the Irish agricultural community.

"Telefis Feirme" will be transmitted each Tuesday evening at 7.45 p.m. Macra na Feirme will arrange for the registration of groups for viewing in local halls throughout the country. Participation will be open to all young people in rural areas, whether they be members of "Macra" or not.

"Telefis Feirme" will complement the N.F.A. fully supports projects such as the Glencolumbkille sheep project which can bring about a very significant betterment in the income position to farmers in the area. However, it is vital that projects of this nature receive the necessary assistance, especially credit.

Various projects, such as home crafts, vegetable growing, initiated by Fr. McDyer are, it is good to see, going quite well. Results to date indeed augur well for possibilities in the future.

The cost this year to the farmer will be 3/- per bush and an individual certificate will be furnished showing that every beast has been dressed. It is also expected that an indemnity scheme against death or loss that can be attributed to the effects of the warble fly dressing will be in operation.

Suckled Calves.—The Single Suckled Calves Producers' Association has completed arrangements for three sales for single suckled calves this year. The first sale will be held at Maynooth by Messrs. J. P. & M. Doyle, on the 29th September. The second sale will be conducted by Messrs. Ganly & Son Ltd., at their Usher's Quay premises on the 3rd October; and the third sale will be held on 23rd October by Messrs. T. E. Potterton Ltd. Intending sellers of suckled calves can sell at any of these sales. Entry forms will be available in due course through the auctioneers and any information concerning the sales can be obtained from the auctioneers or the Secretary of the Single Suckled Calves Producers' Association, 27 Earlsfort Terrace, Dublin 2.

AN N.F.A. Ambassador.—The coming of the bulls brought us another "ambassador" in the person of Frank Young, an N.F.A. staff man, who travelled from Ireland with the animals. From the time he set foot on Indian soil, Frank endeared himself to everybody he met. My wife and I were delighted to have him as our guest at Diephall. He washed dishes, cycled into villages, made friends with coolies, clerks and cabinet ministers, attended State functions and ate Indian food with an openmindedness, a sense of humour and an appreciation which commended him everywhere he went. Since he went home one of the questions I am invariably asked from village to village is: "How is Frank?" I hope he comes back to India. We could do with a dozen men like him."

KNOCKLONG MILK SUPPLIERS MEET DIRECTORS OF DAIRY DISPOSAL COMPANY

For some considerable time now suppliers of milk to the Dairy Disposal Company Creamery at Knocklong, Co. Limerick and its branches, have been dissatisfied at the price which they are receiving for milk.

Recently meetings of suppliers have been held and arising from these, the N.F.A. was requested to arrange a meeting on behalf of the suppliers with the Directors of the Company. This meeting has now taken place. The Suppliers' representatives pointed out that the price paid by Garyspine and Mitchellstown, both for butterfat and skim, is substantially in excess of the price being received by the Knocklong suppliers and that this difference in price represented a substantial loss to these suppliers.

While conceding that there was a price differential in favour of Mitchellstown, the Company representatives could give no hope of being able to rectify the matter. A further meeting of the suppliers will be held in the near future to review the position.

The dissatisfaction on price issues and other matters pertaining to Dairy Disposal Board Creameries is by no means confined to the Knocklong Group. Suppliers to many of the Dairy Disposal Creameries complain that little or no liaison exists between producers and the Creamery Suppliers, in many instances, feel victimised by not having the opportunity of voicing their opinion at any level on policy matters of Dairy Disposal Board Creameries.

In the final analysis the objective must be that all Dairy Disposal Board Creameries are co-operated in accord with the recommendations made by Dr. Dnapp, following his survey of the Co-operative Movement in Ireland.

BORD BAINNE ELECTION

N.F.A. was one of the prime movers behind the establishment of An Bord Bainne through the Association's first President, Dr. J. N. Greene, who was Chairman of the Government Advisory Committee on the marketing of agricultural produce. The Association is adamant that properly constituted Marketing Boards play a very vital role for effective marketing. Bord Bainne has, in its time of existence, served a very useful purpose and must in the years ahead assume an even greater role.

The N.F.A., being very conscious of the need for having producer representatives on sales until that time. Further sales will be arranged in the coarse wool areas later in the season.

INVESTMENT IN LAND GIVES POOR RETURN

Dr. Roy Garry, Director, Economic Research Institute, Dublin, speaking at the first meeting of the Social Study Congress in the National Stadium last week stated that some years ago he did a rough exercise to find out the return on capital in the farming industry having remunerated farmers and relatives assisting, merely at the minimum wages obtained for paid agricultural workers. He found that it was less than 1%.

He added "Anyone buying agricultural land at 150 an acre, the kind of price ruling, is definitely certifiable unless he is a market gardener, or has a tip that the County Council is about to acquire land."

"As a status symbol a farm is much too expensive; far better a Rolls Royce. On the other hand, if a middling farmer can find a mug who will offer him this kind of money, he should sell at once, but keeping his house, become a farm labourer or better, invest the thousands he gets for the land at 6% and live happily after."

The foregoing coming from such an economic expert further confirms the N.F.A. arguments repeatedly put forward that substantial increases in farm prices are necessary if our agricultural industry is to progress to the extent needed for a healthy Irish economy. It is obvious that only for the fact that many of our Irish farmers appear to have a great capacity for punishment, there would be a greater exodus from the land.

This drop is contrary to official forecasts and more in line with the apprehensions of the farming sector where an 0.9% rise was anticipated.

However, it is vital that projects of this nature receive the necessary assistance, especially credit.

Various projects, such as home crafts, vegetable growing, initiated by Fr. McDyer are, it is good to see, going quite well. Results to date indeed augur well for possibilities in the future.

Among the people to whom particular tributes were paid by Mr. McCourt, Director General Radio Eireann, at "Feis Feirme" Press Conference on the 21st June, for the encouragement and advice on agricultural education given to his Department, were Mr. Sean Healy, General Secretary N.F.A., and Mr. Brendan Power, Assistant General Secretary, N.F.A.

N.F.A. PRESIDENT VISITS GLENCOLUMBKILLE

N.F.A. President, Mr. Deasy, was greatly impressed with the improvements he saw during a recent visit to Glencolumbkille, Co. Donegal. The marked improvements brought about in the area are a true reflection on the efforts of Fr. McDyer. It was encouraging to see the groups of teenagers busily engaged in planting vegetables and watering celery. In this area more young people of a working age were engaged at home than in any other area in the West of Ireland. The very marked improvements that can be noted in dwelling houses in the last three years indicates that people in this area through the leadership of Fr. McDyer, are anxious to live normal and full lives in their native Donegal.

The great potential for development of hill grazing is evidenced by the fact that at present an area of approximately 15,000 acres stocked at the rate of less than one ewe per acre. However, effecting significant improvement in this direction will necessitate large-scale programmes. This is absolutely essential if the land between the hill areas is to be brought to the standard necessary to provide winter keep for sheep.

The N.F.A. fully supports projects such as the Glencolumbkille sheep project which can bring about a very significant betterment in the income position to farmers in the area. However, it is vital that projects of this nature receive the necessary assistance, especially credit.

Various projects, such as home crafts, vegetable growing, initiated by Fr. McDyer are, it is good to see, going quite well. Results to date indeed augur well for possibilities in the future.

Touraneena YOUGHAL NOTES

ANNUAL COLLECTION

The Touraneena Labour Party Branch will take up their Annual Collection at the Church Gates, Touraneena, on Sunday next, 4th July.

NUPTIAL

St. Laurence's Church, Four-milewater, was the scene of a very pretty wedding recently, when the contracting parties were Mr. Thomas Wall, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wall, Touraneena, Nire Valley, and Miss Philomena McGrath, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael McGrath, Touralaw, Ballymacarby.

The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing was performed by Rev. J. Bracken, C.C., Fourmilewater, assisted by Rev. J. Walsh, C.C., do., and Rev. Fr. Griffin, C.C., Touraneena.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Bridget Fennell as matron of honours; the child attendants were the Misses Marie Ryan and Patricia Fennell (nieces of the bride), and Mr. Michael Wall (brother of the groom) was best man.

Following a reception held at Hearn's Hotel, Clonmel, where upwards of seventy guests were entertained, the newly-weds left on their honeymoon touring the west of Ireland.

We join with their many friends in wishing the happy pair many years of health and happiness.

ANNUAL OUTING

On Thursday last week, the pupils of Touraneena National school, accompanied by their teachers Mrs. Cullen and Mr. Dalton, travelled by special bus to Cork on their annual educational tour. Considering the vagaries of the weather, they were favoured with a fine day for their excursion. They journeyed to the airport in the morning and following dinner at the Imperial Hotel, went on a tour of the city; then on to Cobh, where they enjoyed a trip around the bay in a motor launch.

On the homeward journey they stopped at Youghal a night and spent a very pleasant two hours at "Perks Amusements" on the strand. They arrived home around 10.30 p.m., with plenty material for the following day's composition.

WEDDING BELLS

The marriage was solemnised recently in St. Mary's Church, Touraneena of Mr. David Corcoran, Crooke, Passage East (second son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Richard Corcoran), and Miss Sheila Howell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Howell Bleantis, Ballinamult.

The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, was performed by Very Rev. Fr. Walsh, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. Griffin, C.C., Rev. Fr. Judge and Rev. Fr. Cowhig.

The bridesmaid was Miss Patricia Boyle (Dublin) niece of the bride, and Mr. Michael Corcoran, brother of the groom, was best man.

Following a reception held at the Minella Hotel, Clonmel, where eighty were entertained. The happy pair left for their honeymoon on a tour of the beauty spots of Ireland.

We wish Mr. and Mrs. Corcoran every success and happiness in the years ahead.

LATE MICHAEL AHEARNE KNOCKANORE

Deep regret has been caused over a wide area through the death, which occurred in Dungarvan Hospital, on 22nd June, of Mr. Michael Ahearne, Ballyphilip, Knockanore. He was father of Mr. Declan Ahearne, M.C.C., and brother of Sr. M. Susanna, Mass., U.S.A. From his boyhood he was devoted to the national cause and on the formation of the I.R.A. he became a member of that body and took an active part in the fight for freedom.

Very large numbers were present when the remains were removed to Knockanore church on Wednesday and the huge attendance at the burial in the adjoining cemetery on Thursday was a fitting demonstration of sorrow at the passing of this fine character. The coffin was draped with the tricolour and escorted by a guard of honour of old I.R.A., marshalled by Edmond Healy, Ballylane, Cappoquin and Michael Landy, Knockanore. The oration at the graveside was delivered by an old comrade in arms, Mr. S. Daly, B.E., Youghal. The Last Post was sounded by Mr. F. Prendergast, Talow, and a decade of the Rosary was recited by Mrs. Dunne of Cumann na mBan. Clergy present were Rev. S. Nugent, C.C., Knockanore, and Rev. M. O'Brien, Stranally, of the African Mission.

Among the immediate mourners were: Declan, Patrick, U.S.A. (sons); Mrs. D. Ahearne, Knockanore; Mrs. P. Ahearne, U.S.A. (daughters-in-law); and grandchildren.

(Funeral arrangements by A. Walsh and Sons, Cappoquin.)

HIGH WATER WEEK ENDING 10th JULY

Table with 3 columns: Day, Morning, Evening. Rows for Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday.

SALMON FISHING

With only three weeks left before the close of the netting season for salmon, the number of grise taken so far is most disappointing. Some boats have done fairly well, but the majority are having a rather lean time all over the district. The few odd salmon that are being taken are good quality fish, averaging 14 lbs., while the grise average 5 lbs. It is now fairly certain that grise catches will not be as good as the previous three years, unless of course they turn up in large numbers in the closing weeks of the season.

The official returns for May last was: 3,955 salmon of 39,282 lbs., and 56 grise of 168 lbs., of which 3,495 salmon of 35,357 lbs., and 53 grise were taken by rods. The recorded catch for the corresponding month last year was 4,619 salmon and 55 grise.

The price last week to net men was: salmon 6/; and grise 3/6.

SEA ANGLING COMPETITION

Youghal Sea Anglers' Club held its second competition on Sunday last in ideal weather conditions, when 20 boats took part. The main prize was "The Island Trophy," presented by Mr. W. K. Nolan, B.D.S., for the heaviest catch, which was won by the Club's Secretary, Mr. Paul Watson, with 120 points. The Club prize for the second heaviest catch was won by Mr. Anthony Lupton, with 75 points. The Blackwater Hatchery Cup, presented by the Hatchery Com-

U.D.C.'s NEW CHAIRMAN

At the annual meeting of the Urban Council, Mr. P. J. Linehan (Chairman) stated that he was not seeking re-election. Mr. Linehan then proposed Mr. B. Lupton and was seconded by Mr. Hennessy, as Chairman for the coming year. Mr. S. P. Daly then proposed Mr. Sean O'Sullivan, and was seconded by Mr. Lynch, by way of amendment. Voting on the amendment resulted: For—Messrs. Lynch, Daly, Sullivan and Hickey (4); Against—Messrs. Linehan, Good Hennessy, Lupton and Lawlor (5). The Chairman then declared the amendment defeated by 5 votes to 4 and the proposition carried by the same voting. Mr. E. P. Lynch was unanimously elected Vice-Chairman on the proposition of Mr. Linehan and seconded by Mr. Hickey.

SUNDAY'S C.I.E. EXCURSION

C.I.E. had its first regular excursion trains on Sunday last and they will continue for the remainder of the season. The day was very warm and over 700 passed the turnstiles at Youghal. In addition, many hundreds poured into the town by private car, where on the Promenade, they were parked bumper to bumper. Despite the large crowds, the gardai kept the heavy traffic moving smoothly.

At a meeting of the Urban Council, presided over by the Chairman, Mr. Lupton, Col. J. Good said that "it was frustrating sitting here at Board Meetings waiting for something to happen" when he complained that no action was taken to speed up the strand development scheme. He said: "We have two development schemes, first the development scheme for Claycastle, which is with the Department for over two months in regard to which sanction is awaited, and the Coast Erosion Scheme, which was submitted by the County Council to the Office of Public Works three years ago and still nothing has been done." In reply, the Acting Co. Manager, Mr. M. J. O'Mahony stated that as regards the latter, Youghal is included in the list to be attended to.

The Assl. Commissioner of the Garda Síochana submitted to the Urban Council a draft of the parking by-laws for Youghal, which, by the Council agreed, except that the Council was of the unanimous opinion that parking on alternate weeks at one side of the street is better than parking on alternate days and with that exception, the draft was approved of by the Council.

MAGNIFICENT MILE BY PAT COLEMAN

At the N.A.C.A. Open sports meeting at Barber on Sunday last, the centrepiece of the meeting was the mile, which was a clash between the local boy Pat Coleman, Dick Buckley (Grange) and R. Hodgins of U.C.C. Of a field of eleven it was indeed a three man race. In the back straight Buckley moved into third place, but faded out as Hodgins and Coleman fought out the lead and coming into the last bend Coleman fought out the lead and coming into the last Coleman forced himself to the front and held off Hodgins by two yards, in the of 4.14.3, six seconds outside the Irish record and the fastest mile in the south for some time.

On his return to his native Youghal after his ordination for the Diocese of Cloyne at Maynooth, Rev. Pat. Hannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Hannon, South Main Street, Youghal, celebrated his first Mass at St. Mary's Parish Church, and following which he imparted his blessing to parents, members of his family and the large congregation. Fr. Hannon received his early education at the local Christian Bros. Schools, and later at St. Colman's Fermoy, and Maynooth.

YOUGHAL LABOUR PARTY

At the annual meeting of the Youghal Labour Party, presided over by the Chairman of I.T. & G.W.U., Mr. T. C. Hickey, the following officers were elected: Chairman, Mr. T. C. Hickey, U.D.C.; Hon. Secretary, Mr. P. Myers; Hon. Treasurer, Mr. S. Daly. Committee: Messrs. D. Desmond, P. Feehan, W. O'Connell, P. J. Sullivan, T. Nunn and T. Linehan.

LATE MRS. ELLEN HOURIGAN (nee Costin)

It is with sincere regret we chronicle the death of Mrs. Ellen Hourigan, Ballinacourty, Old Parish, which occurred on Sunday evening, 27th June, at her residence, after a short duration of illness, but at the allotted span. She was a member of a very widely known and highly esteemed Old Parish family of the farming community. She was very popular in the area due to her gentle and retiring disposition. Her remains were removed on Monday evening to Old Parish Church, and were followed by a large and representative cortege, and were blessed and received by Rev. M. Kennedy, C.C.

Requiem Mass was offered on Tuesday morning for the intentions of her gentle soul and the funeral took place to Hacketts town cemetery, where her interment took place, thus fulfilling her wish for interment there. Rev. Fr. Kennedy, C.C., English Mission, imparted the final absolution at the graveside.

The chief mourners were: Michael Hourigan (husband); Cornelius Hourigan, Ballinacourty; Patrick Hourigan, England (sons); Michael Costin, Ballycreen, Old Parish (brother); Mrs. Mary Costin-Curran, Dungarvan (sister); Mrs. Bridget Hourigan (daughter-in-law); Michael Nugent, Ballycreen, Monagoush (nephews); Mrs. Joan Bailey, Dungarvan (niece). (Funeral arrangements by J. Kiely & Sons, Shandon, Dungarvan.)
