Road Materials From Outside Counties

WILL NOT EFFECT LABOUR CONTENT
— County Engineer

ALTHOUGH it was stressed by the County Engineer, Mr. J. D. Hally, that it did not effect their labour content, Deputy T. A. Kyne strongly condemned the action of the County Council in purchasing road materials from outside the County at last Monday's meeting of the County Council.

Deputy Kyne said that included in the Manager's orders for this meeting were items regarding the purchase of road materials from outside the county and a quotation for the drilling of rock by a Co. Ros common firm. This was surely infringing on local labour and he was vehemently opposed to both these items in the Manager's orders. This he regarded as being the first step in purchasing everything from outside the County. He asked was it true that in two years' time they would not be carrying out any quarry operations in their own county.

Mr. Hally said that was not true. Deputy Kyne said he would oppose very strongly any attempt in this respect whereby Waterfordmen would be deprived of employment. He was objecting to the two items referred to and he was quite sure that they did not have to go as far as Roscommon for quotations. Hewished to dissent from this section of the Manager's orders.

Mr. P. Cahill—So do I. Mr. Milo Galgey said when a man got work in his own county he spent his money in the county. In the long run it was not economical to go outside the county for contractors even if they quoted cheaper.

"Can't go to Mass because of Road Conditions"

These roads are so bad that I can't even go to Mass, stated Mr. P. Cahill, at last Monday's meeting of Waterford County Council when moving his notice of motion "that he would ask the Acting County Manager what the County Council proposed to do with regard to the condition of the roads in Kilmeaden, Kill and Butlerstown areas, and he would ask the Council to appoint a committee of three to see the roads."

Mr. Cahill said there roads were so bad that if something was not done to them the rate collector would have a very hard job in collecting the rates. With regard to Mr. Cahill's request to appoint a committee of three to go and see the roads, Mr. Norman Walsh said they would be creating a very dangerous precedent by doing this. They could have requests from Eastern members to visit roads in the west and visa versa.

No decision was taken on the notice of motion which drew the remark from Mr. Cahill; I might as well resign altogether from this Council.

PRESIDENT'S PRIZE AT BALLINACOURTY

DUNGARVAN GOLF The President's Prize, kindly presented by Mr. J. Foley, will be played for next Sunday week, 26th September. The competition will be over 18 holes, stroke. There will also be prizes for the runner-up and best gross.

The presentation of prizes will take place at the Clubhouse at 9 p.m. on Sunday night and this will be followed by a film of the Carling World Championship 1964. This film is kindly made available to the Golf Club by Messrs. Beamish & Crawford Ltd., Cork.

Members and their friends are cordially invited to the presentation of prizes and film show.

The Chairman, Mr. Charles Curran said he would give an assurance that they would be no loss of employment.

Deputy Kyne—How can you give an assurance like that. Mr. Thomas Lannon said weren't there attempts under way to sell their own quarries.

The Co. Engineer said negotiations were going on about two quarries at present. He was negotiating so that he could be given an assurance about the employment content before making a decision.

Mr. Lannon said they tried to sell a quarry that they would get very little for.

Mr. Hally said no move would be made without first bringing it before the Council.

Mr. Norman Walsh asked if it was right that the County Council had sold Kereen quarry.

Mr. Hally—No. Deputy Kyne—Isn't it being used by a private firm at present.

Mr. Hally—Yes, on a royalty basis.

Mr. Wm. Dower said they were given to understand that Kereen quarry had been exhausted and yet a private firm was now using it. There was something very inconsistent in that.

Mr. Lannon asked why they had to go outside the county at all for stone when they had their own quarries.

Mr. N. Walsh said they were told Kereen quarry had been exhausted. Then a private company come in and gets stuff from it.

Mr. Hally said the company concerned had got permission from the adjoining landowners to go into their property and work on it.

ing we sell all our quarries in gwe sell all our quarries would we not be then left at the mercy of private individuals in the buying of stone. Would it not be more businesslike to retain in reserve the quarries. Hasn't it also been said that the Lismore quarry (Glenshank) would be closing down."

Mr. Hally—I have nothing on that.

Mr. Cahill said there was stuff coming in from outside counties and it was only dirt. Mr. Hally said they were buying from the best possible market and this did not effect their quarries on their labour content. Unless they wanted to go into quarry production in a big scale it would not be economical to go into it on a small scale.

Deputy Kyne said there was a time when they never went outside the county for any materials.

Mr. Hally said from between 5% to 10% of the materials were purchased from outside the county.

The Chairman (Mr. Curran) said Mr. Hally should have a written report on this for the next meeting. It was very important that the employment aspect.

Mr. Hally said he wished to make it quite clear that they had not sold Kereen quarry. Also he would not dream of making any move in connection with their two major quarries, Glenshank and Woodhouse, Stradbally, without first consulting the Council.

Deputy Kyne said he had no objection as people to the firm that took over Kereen quarry, and they were giving good employment locally. But he was objecting to other cases of outside firms getting contracts. By this there would be a wastage of ten workers a year that would otherwise be recruited and in ten years that would amount to one hundred men.

The discussion then ended pending a full report from the County Engineer which will come before the next monthly meeting of the Council.

C.I.E. WINTER TRANSPORT SERVICES

C.I.E. winter (timetable) schedules for both rail and road services will come into operation on Monday next, 20th Sept. The extra trains and buses which were provided to holiday and seaside resorts during the summer months will be withdrawn but principal mainline trains will remain unaltered. Additional connection will be provided to and from these services and some extra stops will be made.

There will be some minor alterations in departure times of trains from Kerry and from Dublin to the west of Ireland. Provincial bus services will also be altered to suit winter travel requirements.

As the present pattern of sailings between Fishguard and Rosslare Harbour will continue up to and including Saturday, 25th September, the existing boat train services to and from Rosslare will be maintained up to that date. The sailings from Fishguard will then revert to a daily service (Mondays excepted) up to 2nd October, and to a thrice weekly service from Tuesday, 5th October. C.I.E. boat train services to and from Rosslare will be adjusted accordingly.

Throughout the period of the winter timetable there will be a morning and evening train services on Sundays between Dublin (Amiens Street) and Cork and Limerick. There will be a morning train from Amiens Street to Waterford with a return evening service from there. On the Midland section there will be morning trains from Westland Row to Sligo and to Galway with evening return services from these points. There will be no Sunday train services on the South-Eastern section but boat trains from Rosslare Harbour to Dublin will run on Sunday 19th September, and Sunday 26th October. Sunday train services to and from Belfast will be the same as at present except that the 12 noon Belfast to Amiens Street and 6 p.m. Amiens Street to Belfast will be withdrawn.

DUNNE (3rd anniversary) — In loving memory of Mrs. Mary Dunne, Ballyharrahan, who died on 21st Sept., 1962. Merciful Jesus grant her soul eternal rest. Immaculate Heart of Mary intercede for her. —R.I.P. —Always remembered by her husband, family and brothers.

KIELY (nee Torpey) 13th anniversary—In loving memory of my dear wife, Bridget Kiely, late of Glendalligan, who died on Sept. 18th, 1952. R.I.P. Do not ask us if we miss her. Only we can know the pain. Life's been so empty since we lost her. We did not know that morning. What fate the day would bring. The bitter loss, the shock severe. To part with one we loved so dear. She bade not one a last farewell. Or even said goodbye. For she had gone before we knew. And only God knows why. —Sadly missed and never forgotten by her loving husband and family.

KIELY (nee Torpey)—13th anniversary—In loving memory of my dearest mother, Bridget Kiely, late of Glendalligan, who died Sept. 18th, 1952. R.I.P. If aching hearts could bring you back. Or tears could make you smile. You would not be in that lonely grave. But home here by my side. You always thought of others. As loving, kind and true. I often sit and wonder do others think of you. When I am sad and lonely. And everything goes wrong. I seem to hear you whisper. Cheer up and carry on. Each time I see your picture. You seem to smile and say. Don't cry I'm only sleeping. We'll meet again some day. —Too dearly loved to be forgotten by your loving son, Seamus, Sally and family.

MCCARTHY — (24th anniversary) — In loving memory of Mary Catherine (Poll) McCarthy, late of 8 Western Tce., who died on 14th September, 1941. Masses offered. Will kind friends who think of her to-day. A simple prayer to Jesus say. —(Always remembered by her brothers and sister).

Dangerous Period For Stock

The next few months will be a dangerous period for cattle and sheep in areas that are favourable to the development of liver fluke.

A survey carried out by veterinary officers of the Department of Agriculture and Fisheries, in collaboration with the Meteorological Service, indicates that there will be more fluke disease during the present autumn and winter than there was last year.

Wet weather in May, June and July this year has created conditions favouring large-scale survival and spread of the tiny mud snail which is an essential link in the life-cycle of the fluke.

Farmers are therefore advised to keep cattle and sheep off land known or suspected to carry fluke.

If Black Disease has occurred before in any area, sheep should be vaccinated against it now.

FOR SUCCESS OF VATICAN COUNCIL

Holy Mass was celebrated in St. Mary's Church, Touraneena on Tuesday night by Rev. Fr. Walsh, P.P., for the success of the Vatican Council, which opened in Rome on Wednesday.

COURSING NEWS

At the annual general meeting of the Aughavoulinian and Fournilwater Sunday Coursing Club, held recently, at the Bridge House, the following officers were elected:

SYMPATHY

Sincere sympathy is extended to the Flynn family, Reanadampau, Ballymacarbery on the death of their brother, Martin which occurred at the Dungarvan district hospital, on Monday of last week.

WEDDING BELLS

The marriage was solemnised in St. Mary's Church, Newcastle, on Thursday of last week of Mr. John Francis O'Shea, son of Mrs. Mary O'Shea and the late Mr. J. O'Shea, Prieststown, Balinamult, and Miss Alice Lonergan, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Lonegan, Roon, Newcastle.

The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, was performed by Rev. Fr. Walsh, C.C., Fournilwater and Newcastle.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her nephew Mr. Tony Fitzgerald, Nottingham, England, was attired in a gown of blue brocade with matching head-dress. She was attended by her niece Miss Anne Boland, Rathfarmham, Dublin, who was similarly attired in pink.

Mr. Bernard O'Shea, Cappoquin, brother of the groom, was best man.

Following a reception held at the Ormonde Hotel, Clonmel where over fifty guests were entertained, the happy couple left for Dublin where the honeymoon is being spent.

YOUGHAL MAN'S TRAGIC DEATH

Deep regret was felt in the town when it was learned that Thomas P. Aher, aged 54 years, of 9 Mount Nebo Avenue, Cork, had lost his life when he was crushed beneath a consignment of steel sheets during the course of his employment at the premises of the Cork Iron & Hardware Company, Cork.

SYMPATHY

Of an old-established Youghal sea-faring family, the deceased was brother of Rev. John Aher, C.C., Gibraltar, and father of the well known Cork cyclist, Mr. John Aher, treasurer of the Cork Cycling Club. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mamie Aher, formerly Miss M. Rebins of Church Street, Youghal and a family of eight, to whom sincere sympathy is extended.

LATE MR. JACK MURPHY

The death took place recently of a well known member of the community, at Youghal Cottage Hospital, in the person of Mr. Jack Murphy, of 6 South Main Street, Youghal.

YOUGHAL E.S.V. GRANT WILL BE £700

Mr. Frank Moloney, Town Clerk, informed the Youghal Urban Council that he had been informed by the Dept. of Local Government that this year's E.S.V. grant would amount to £700, which is subject to a local contribution of £60, making a total of £760.

WEDDING BELLS

The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, was performed by Rev. Fr. Walsh, C.C., Fournilwater and Newcastle.

Messrs. Gerry and John Murphy (sons); Mrs. Joe McCarthy (daughter); Mrs. M. Moynihan, Coachford (sister); Mr. T. McCarthy (nephew); Misses Ethne and Mary McCarthy (nieces); Mrs. John Murphy (sister-in-law); Mr. Joe McCarthy (son-in-law).

CLOYNE DIOCESAN CHANGES

Amongst the recent clerical changes made by His Lordship Most Rev. Dr. J. J. Ahern, Bishop of Cloyne, are: Rev. P. De Barra, P.P., Clondrohid, to be P.P. at Killeagh, who is being replaced by Rev. D. O'Connell, C.C., Youghal, and who will be replaced by Rev. D. O'Connell, C.C., Youghal.

FIRE BRIGADE ALERTED

The local Fire Brigade, under Station Officer Michael Roche, was summoned to the farm attached to St. Raphael's Hospital where growing barley was on fire. The brigade, on prompt arrival, found that volunteers had the outbreak under control.

Letter from Vicar Message of Thanks Council to Appoint Capitular from California Additional Engineer

The following letter was read at all the Masses in the Diocese last Sunday morning:

Bishop's House, John's Hill, Waterford, 4th September, 1965.

Very Rev. and Rev. Fathers and dear Brethren—

On Tuesday, 14th September, the Fathers of the Second Vatican Council will reassemble in Rome for the fourth and probably the final session of that Council. The weeks and months that follow will be heavy with responsibility for the Fathers and most of all for Our Holy Father the Pope. Many matters of tremendous importance for the Church and the world will come up for discussion and decision, e.g. the schemes for Religious Liberty, The Church in the Modern World, The Missions, The Lay Apostolate, Divine Revelation and many others. In studying and discussing these momentous questions of doctrine and of conduct and in setting forth the answers to them those who teach the doctrine of Christ must take into account not what doctrine would be most pleasing to men, not what would be the most popular, but what is the law of God in this matter, what is the teaching of Jesus Christ, what is in keeping with the Divine Will? The Holy Spirit of God will indeed continue to guide the Fathers of the Council in their deliberations and decisions, but we, the People of God, have an obligation to pray earnestly for that guidance.

Pope Paul himself has called for "a wave of prayer and penance" throughout the Catholic world, and he and the Council Fathers will set the keynote on September 14th by walking in a great penitential procession, in which the relics of the crucifixion will be carried from the Basilica of the Holy Cross to the Basilica of St. John Lateran.

In this Diocese we will join theirs for the successful completion of the Council's work. On the evening of September 14th, at a convenient hour, Mass will be offered in each public church in the Diocese; and to provide the people with an opportunity of receiving Holy Communion at this Mass confessions will be heard on the Monday of the 13th for some fixed time.

On Sunday, September 19th, all are asked to share the enormous cost of gathering the Bishops of the world and their assistants for the fourth successive year in Rome by contributing to a collection which the Bishops of Ireland have organised to lighten the burden of the Holy Father. The Holy See's expenses are principally due to the provision of travelling expenses and accommodation in Rome for a large number of Bishops especially those from missionary countries and from behind the Iron Curtain. Bishops from well-established dioceses, including the Irish Bishops, have of course, paid all their own expenses. We feel that we would be doing our part if we contributed the equivalent of the annual Peter's Pence collection.

Throughout this session of the Council, the saying of the prayer DE SPIRITU SANCTO at Mass and the PRAYER FOR THE COUNCIL at other services will help to remind us of the continuing need for prayer and for penance. Yours very sincerely in Christ,

MICHAEL BARRON,
Vicar Capitular.

THE EDITOR,
"Dungarvan Observer"

Dear Sir,
Through your newspaper — on behalf of the members of the California Girls Choir I would publicly like to thank your newspaper for the excellent coverage of our short visit in your town during the latter part of June. The choir arrived in California safely, Saturday, August 21.

To bother Hegarty a special vote of thanks for arranging our concert on such short notice. It was our good fortune that we were able to come to your town and the friendliness of your people there and the full cooperation of the Christian Brothers and Mercy Sisters left a deep and favourable impression on us. In fact I enjoyed being there so much that at the present time I have included Dungarvan in the future plans of our next tour. Looking and thinking I don't know who or which persons were enjoying themselves the most—the audience or members of the choir. Backstage after each of our group of numbers, I had to quiet them down because they kept repeating "what a wonderful group of people" and "gosh, I allow for an expenditure of $50,000 that would mean 15 years work for an engineer. He felt this post should be made permanent."

As we left Dungarvan, it was easy for me to read their thoughts because of their silence. Usually as we leave a town or city there is a great deal of talking about various phases of the previous day or days but this particular morning they were silent for a long time. If I read their thoughts they would be saying to themselves—"Why did we have to leave?" — Will I ever have a chance to come back?

The people of your town showed that Eire is rich in friendliness which is needed throughout the world today.

To those who also took part in the program that night — "you were terrific" and I hope the next time I bring a group over, we will see each other again.

Again, thanks to your newspaper, your photographer, Brother Hegarty, the Christian Brothers, others who took part in the evening's program and their encouragement with their applause.—Sincerely —

JOHN VAZNAIAN,
Director,
California Girls Choir.

LATE THOMAS HALLAHAN
Monatrea

We regret to announce the death, at a comparatively early age, of Mr. Thomas Hallahan, Ballysallagh, Monatrea, Kinsalebeg. A member of a well-known family, deceased was of a quiet and retiring disposition and was very popular among all sections of the community. To his bereaved wife, children, brothers and other relatives deep sympathy is extended in their great loss.

The remains were removed to Piltown Church and the accompanying cortege was of extremely large and representative proportions, while there was again a very large attendance at the funeral to Ferry point cemetery.

Very Rev. David Canon Power, P.P., Clashmore and Rev. E. Tobin, C.C., officiated.—R.I.P.

By eleven votes to two, Waterford County Council decided at its meeting on Monday last to appoint an additional permanent Assistant County Engineer to carry out the water supplies programme in the county.

The Chairman (Mr. Charles Curran) said the County Engineer (Mr. Hally) had stated that this additional appointment was absolutely necessary. Because of their decision not to go ahead with the regional water schemes in the county they would be saving about one and a half million pounds and extra staff was now needed to carry out all the minor schemes that would have to be undertaken.

Mr. W. Kenneally T.D., proposed and Mr. F. Roche seconded that they make the appointment.

Mr. Hally said this additional engineer would devote his entire time to the water supply programme in the County. There was a total of 700 houses in the rural areas in the county and it would be reasonable to assume that approximately two thirds of these needed water. That meant about 400 houses needed water. Putting the figure at £200 a house that would bring the total cost to £80,000. Allow for an expenditure of £50,000 that would mean 15 years work for an engineer. He felt this post should be made permanent.

Mr. Thomas Lannon said he was opposing it because he felt they should be able to do the work with the staff they had at present.

Mr. Norman Walsh said it was not often that he disagreed with Mr. Lannon but he would have to on this occasion. It was very seldom also that he agreed to appointing additional staff but until such time as the water schemes were completed they could not say they were developed. In order to expedite the water schemes and so that water would be given to all rural homes they should try to hasten that day. He believed they should get this additional engineer devoting all his time to the water supply programme.

The proposal to make the appointment was then put and carried 11-2.

The voting was: For—Colrs. Curran, Dower, Kyne, Drohan, Fahey, Roche, Dowd, N. Walsh, Cahill, Galgey, Kenneally.

Against—Colrs. Lannon, O'Ryan.

N.F.A. NOT AGAINST RURAL WATER SUPPLIES

The Editor, "Dungarvan Observer"

Dear Sir—
May we refer to your report of the special meeting of the Waterford County Council to consider the water supply policy in the county.

References to N.F.A. by some Councillors would give the impression that this organisation is against rural water supplies. We would like to emphasise that this is, of course, not so, though this Executive have fought against extravagant piped "regional" schemes which would have imposed a heavy financial liability on the county, and, in particular, the ratepayers while at the same time would not provide an economic supply of water to the majority of farms and houses.

In a county where abundant water is available in most areas an increasing number of farmers have availed, and are availing of the facilities and grants to supply their own water by means of well and pressure pumps.

In the case of dwellings, supplies—either private or Co. Council—can be installed at minimum cost using local sources of water. It is estimated that the cost of these local schemes is considerably less than half that of the "regional" pipelines, which, in any case, would only provide water for a portion of the sparse rural community.

We would also like to emphasise that this Executive is anxious to give every assistance and encouragement to individuals and groups seeking water supplies, while we can see no reason for undue delay in providing the means with the help of modern methods (a well a day is now normal boring practice) and equipment.

Finally, in spite of the very high cost, the extensive piped "regional" schemes which have already been installed have not proved to be satisfactory to many users, who have complained of shortage of water and also its unsuitability for dairy purposes, particularly for milk cooling.

Yours faithfully,
BRIAN PEARCE,
Secretary,
Waterford Co. Executive,
Council—can be installed at N.F.A.

In recent months the C.S.M. Ballroom Clonea, has really emerged as a most popular dancing centre. Many of the top bands have played there and on Wednesday night next, Sept. 22 there should be another gala occasion when Tony and he and his fabulous Graduates make a return visit there. Remember their last visit, when a packed hall enjoyed every minute of their top class performance. This is the outfit that made such a tremendous hit with "Kelly" and in the near future they will be releasing yet another smash hit record.

Incidentally for this dance there will be free buses plying between Dungarvan and Clonea. See advt. in this issue for fullest details. But remember, this is a dancing attraction not to be missed.

He has done a lot of meritorious work for the Irish population in Liverpool. We wish Mr. Foley and all other founder members of the Centre continuing success in their fine work.

Decision Deferred on Abandoned Game

At a meeting of the Western Board in Dungarvan on Wednesday the referee (Tom Ryan, Ballymacarby) report on the abandoned junior hurling championship game between Shamrocks and Lisamore at Tallow on Sunday last was considered.

The referee in his report stated the sportsmanship was the worst he had ever seen and he hoped he would not ever see it like again.

However, no action was taken by the Board because of some confusion over the report and it was decided to send back the report for clarification. A special meeting of the Board will now be held tonight (Friday) in Cappoquin when the entire matter will be finalised.

WESTERN FINAL DATES
The Western Intermediate hurling final between Dungarvan and Geraldines was fixed for Lisimore on Sunday, October 10th and the Western Intermediate football final between Clonmore and Affane or Ballinacourty was fixed for Cappoquin on October 17th.

T.D.'s Query on Scholarship Awards

At last Monday's meeting of Waterford County Council, Mr. T. A. Kyne, T.D., asked the County Secretary Mr. J. G. Dowling if it was true that by order of the Minister they had to keep a number of the County Council scholarships for the "no means test" group. There was a great deal of talk, he said, in Dungarvan about scholarships won by children of wealthy parents at the expense of children of poor means.

The Secretary said that not more than quarter of the number of scholarships available could be awarded to children whose parents did not comply with the means test. The County Council this year awarded 50 scholarships with a total value of £2,000, and 37 of these went to children whose parents complied with the means test.

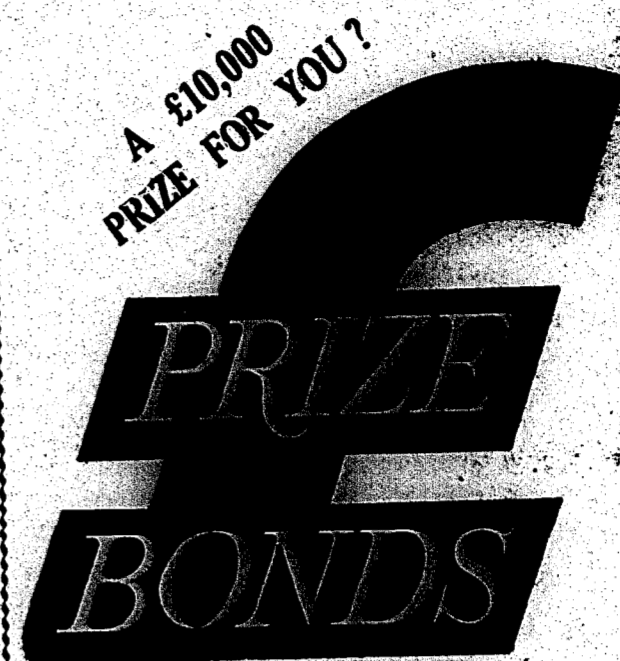

Deputy Kyne said it was most desirable that these facts should be made public.

GAELIC JOTTINGS

KILL OUST STRADBALLY
Kill, as was generally expected, proved superior to Stradbally in last Sunday's senior football championship at Dunhill and at the end of a hard-fought hour had four points to spare.

But whilst none can deny Kill's right to advance in this championship they were made fight every inch of the way by a Coveside team that will be heard of in the very near future. This basically was a young Stradbally team, but the manner in which they extended Kill to the very limit suggests that the Reds are on the road back to former glory and greatness.

Yet, can anyone deny Kill's right to the honours, and if anything they must now be favourites to go the entire distance this year. Their man of the match was towering midfielder Martin Kennedy, who mastered a succession of different opponents, whilst forward, however, received a nasty injury before the end which deprived him of fielding with Waterford Co-Op. Society against Dunlops later in the day at Dungarvan.

TIPP TO PLAY IN DUNGARVAN

At a meeting of the County Board on Monday night last dates and venues were announced for Waterford's games in the National hurling and football leagues.

Major attraction will be the visit of All-Ireland champions Tipp, and this game has been fixed for Dungarvan on October 24th. Right now one can give it as a guarantee that the attendance record for the Fraher field will go by the Boards on that occasion.

Waterford's other hurling league fixtures are: v. Killkenny, away, on October 3rd. On November 7th they receive a bye for which they receive two points. In February away to Laois; on March 3rd at home to Wexford. National Football League: v. Carlow at Dungarvan on October 17th; v. Killkenny away on October 31st; v. Wexford at home on November 14th.

LISMORE GOT RAW DEAL

Certainly the most significant feature of these selection committees is the scurrilous raw deal which the Lisimore club has got. This year the Cathedral town's minor hurlers battled their way to the county final losing gallantly to Mount Sion after a great decider. But what happens when it comes to deciding on selection committees. Lisimore are completely ignored, whilst Cappoquin (whom Lisimore annihilated) and Ballyduff (who didn't even field a minor hurling team this year) are both represented.

In minor football the champions, Mount Sion, have two representatives whilst the runners up, Ardmore, have one. This system applied for both minor hurling and football last year, but now Lisimore are left completely out in the cold. A grave injustice has been done indeed, and those responsible have no credit reflected on them for their action.

CO-OP HOLD DUNLOPS

TO DRAW
Waterford Co-Op. Society put up a magnificent performance in their inter-firms football tournament clash against a highly rated Dunlops (Cork) team at Dungarvan on Sunday last and the visitors were extremely fortunate to escape with a draw. The replay will take place in Cork in the near future.

Certainly the Co-Op proved on Sunday last that they are going to be a match for the best. They were without such stars as Martin Kennedy (Kill), Paddy Cummins and Donal Verling, but even without these they looked a fine side.

Throughout the first half, inspired by the magnificence of Monty Guiry, they outplayed Dunlops and it was only in the closing quarter that they lost the initiative.

This game certainly proved beyond all shadow of doubt that the Co-Op can take their rightful place in any tournament of this nature. There are, it is true, some rough edges to be knocked off their play, but that comes with experience, and the progress of this team will be watched with more than average interest.

MINOR SELECTORS FOR 1966

The minor selection committees were decided on at a meeting of the County Board on Monday night.

Dungarvan Musical and Choral Society

At the annual general meeting of the Dungarvan Musical and Choral Society, the following officers were elected: President, Rev. F. O'Brien, O.S.A.; Vice-President, Miss G. Morrissey; Hon. Secretaries, Miss C. Morrissey and Mr. L. Comerford; Hon. Treasurer, Mr. P. Walsh. Committee: Miss C. Ryan, Miss M. Allridge, Miss M. Power, Miss P. Desmond, Mrs. J. Brennan, Messrs. M. Nagle, T. Lynch, T. Crotty, S. Deering, M. McCarthy, J. O'Keefe, J. Curran. Musical Director: Mrs. G. Morrissey; Librarian: Miss P. Desmond.

Great regret was expressed at the departure from Dungarvan of Rev. R. O'Shaughnessy, O.S.A., who had given endless time and energy to the Society since its inception, and to whom the success of last year's record-breaking show was to a great extent due. It was decided to honour Fr. O'Shaughnessy by making him an honorary life member.

The annual dinner of the Society will be held at Lawlor's Hotel, on Sunday, 17th October and Fr. O'Shaughnessy will be the guest of honour on that occasion.

This year's show will be a "White and Black" Minstrel Show, and will be much more elaborate and spectacular than last year's.

Members should note that practice will commence for this show on Monday next, September 20th, at the C.B.S., at 8.15 p.m. Those desiring to join the Society as active members should see the Musical Director on or before Monday, and those wishing to join to be associated with the work of the Society are asked to communicate with the Hon. Secretaries.

The next chapter in the story brings us to the Dail Chamber on the afternoon of May 11th, where the new Minister for Finance, Mr. Jack Lynch was presenting his first budget statement. A hushed audience, which included many farmers, were shocked at the way in which agriculture was "boycotted". The only mention of the industry was to bring farmers making ex-farm sales within the tax net.

The calls being flooding the N.F.A. telephone switchboard and within hours N.F.A. Headquarters condemned the Budget as "The Great Betrayal". Special County Executive meetings followed throughout the country and on May 20th the National Council of N.F.A. met to assess the whole position.

Again the Budget was condemned as a completely negative document for agriculture and the Council instructed the President and the Vice-Presidents to seek a meeting with the Government and to put five specific questions to them. The answers received would reveal the Government's attitude to the country's main industry. The questions dealt with the Government would take to assist the small farmer, and further queries on rates, dairying, pigs, the development of horticulture and cash crops, and the expansion of agricultural employment.

N.F.A. NEWS

The Facts About The Annual Review

Just what are the facts behind this year's Review between the N.F.A. and the Government? The Review, which sprawled its way over nearly five months of tedious negotiation and correspondence, has come in for much criticism from farmers around the country. "Was it all worthwhile?" and "Was N.F.A. led up the garden path?" are some of the questions farmers have been asking themselves and their representatives on the National Council of N.F.A.

Farmers themselves will have to supply the answers to both questions. All we intend doing here is setting the facts before them. They can then come to their own decision. But of one thing they can be certain—no limit can be put on the dedication and sheer hard work which their team put into the "ask".

The 1965 Annual Review started to a very promising note, around a conference table in the Department of Agriculture on the morning of March 10th last in the presence of the Minister for Agriculture. After 24 meetings it came to an equally encouraging conclusion on 2nd April with the confirmation by the Taoiseach and the Minister for Agriculture that it was "Government policy to narrow the gap between agricultural and other incomes to the greatest possible extent".

Everything seemed rosy in the garden, but on the 6th May the first storm cloud appeared on the horizon with the publication by the Department of Finance of the prediction that farm incomes would increase by £12 million during 1965. N.F.A. immediately condemned the forecast as an "airborne calculation".

It is no exaggeration to say that the N.F.A. Review Team were incensed by this prediction by the Department of Finance at the same time that N.F.A. was forecasting a drop of £2 million in their negotiations with the Department of Agriculture.

In fact, at a meeting between N.F.A. and the Minister for Agriculture on April 30th, Mr. Haughey admitted that he did not think at that stage that the Department of Agriculture would substantially disagree with the N.F.A. estimate for farm incomes.

The next chapter in the story brings us to the Dail Chamber on the afternoon of May 11th, where the new Minister for Finance, Mr. Jack Lynch was presenting his first budget statement. A hushed audience, which included many farmers, were shocked at the way in which agriculture was "boycotted". The only mention of the industry was to bring farmers making ex-farm sales within the tax net.

The calls being flooding the N.F.A. telephone switchboard and within hours N.F.A. Headquarters condemned the Budget as "The Great Betrayal". Special County Executive meetings followed throughout the country and on May 20th the National Council of N.F.A. met to assess the whole position.

of a savage bureaucracy which can only destroy the goodwill being built up between the farmers and the Corporation in recent years. This decision cries out for sympathetic reconsideration and we would hope that the Board of the Corporation will be in a position at an early date to indicate to these farmers that they may proceed with the loans offered to them," said Mr. Power.

RURAL IMPROVEMENTS OFFICE NOT ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS.

The credit squeeze again? N.F.A. received word during the week that the Rural Improvements Office is not accepting any more applications for the present. The Office explains that the suspension of the operation is temporary and will be withdrawn as soon as possible. The stated reason for the new development is that the Office "has sufficient cases already on hand for their staff to cope with for some time to come".

But it seems all too evident that the present restriction of credit is having its impact in one more direction. The Rural Improvements Office administers grants in respect of private roads; if a group of farmers get together to construct a road to serve their farms they are entitled to a grant. The Office also administers a certain amount of grants in respect of drainage, but not to any great extent.

THE THREE MILE CLAUSE IN THE LAND ACT

In response to the many enquiries which have come into N.F.A. House regarding the implementation of the three-mile clause in the Land Act, we reproduce here a letter on the matter from the Minister for Land to Mr. Richard Deasy, President of the Association:—

"During the discussion in my Department recently, when Mr. Haughey and I met yourself and members of the N.F.A. Officers Committee, I undertook to write to you confirming my verbal assurance about the recent Land Act.

"Having already repeated in substance many times during debates in the Dail, Senate and elsewhere, I am glad of this further opportunity to confirm categorically that the Government do not intend (and never intended) the Land Act, 1965, to constitute any threat to the security of working farmers. This assurance applies generally to all the provisions of the Act, but especially to the three mile limit clause in Sections 35 and 42.

"As you know, I have had long professional experience of agrarian conditions and complex litigation about acquisitions, etc. From my experience both as solicitor and Minister, I was, and remain, wholly convinced that it was essential in the general interest to write the three mile limit into these sections. This was necessary so that the Land Commission would not be generally frustrated by absentee owners (including non-nationals) in proceedings for lands urgently required for the relief of congestion, especially in Western districts.

"It was never intended by the Government that the three-mile clause should be operated against the out-farms of working farmers and I can assure you that it will not be operated in that way by the Land Commission."

"We are not prepared to accept that the Board of Agricultural Credit Corporation is responsible for enforcing this clause, although farmers cannot be convinced that this is not so. Farmers who have been ruled out by this clause are feeling very irate and threats of taking legal proceedings against the Corporation are quite common. Senior Counsel has advised that the action taken in these cases is a breach of contract.

"The heartless action taken in these cases reflects no great credit on the people responsible. The people who took this decision know quite well that the delay in completing these loans in the majority of cases did not rest with the farmer applicants and we cannot accept that the Land Registry was entirely blameless.

NEWS FLASH FROM MAYO

The farmers of the west are to stage a big protest demonstration in Castlebar on October 16th next. This was decided at a meeting of the western counties in Claremorris this week.

The Castlebar demonstration will be the first of a series of protest meetings to be held in other centres throughout the country in order to highlight the anger of farmers with the result of this year's Annual Review and with the present credit restriction.

At the Claremorris meeting, Rev. P. Brady, N.F.A. Vice-President for Connacht repeated the Association's demand for an inquiry into fertilizer prices and for the establishment of a Prices Advisory Committee, with N.F.A. representation on it, to conduct the inquiry.

Referring to the campaign to keep Nitrigin Eireann out of the production of complete concentrated fertilisers, Fr. Brady said that it was important that the farmers' position in this matter be made perfectly clear. "We must insist," he said, "that our interests be placed first and that nothing be allowed to prevent the introduction of fair competition into the fertiliser industry."

The meeting endorsed his views and added the view that ground limestone prices should also be taken into consideration in any Prices Inquiry.

Kilmacthomas Notes

Obituary.—The death of Mr. Peter O'Rourke, at an advanced age, has removed an old familiar figure from Shanakill, Kilmacthomas. A man of many kindly attributes, his death is deeply mourned by a large circle of friends and relatives on both sides of the Mahon. A very large funeral procession accompanied the removal of the remains from Ardkeen general hospital to St. Anne's Church, Ballylanaan, on Monday evening, 6th inst.

Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated at 10.30 a.m., on Tuesday by Rev. M. Wall, C.C., Kilmacthomas, and the burial took place immediately afterwards in the adjoining cemetery. Again a large number attended to pay their last respects.

Many Mass cards, letters, floral tributes and messages of sympathy were received.

To his widow, sons, daughters and other relatives, deep sympathy is tendered.

Feast Day.—A huge assemblage were in attendance at the Mass celebrated by Very Rev. Patrick Farrell, P.P., Stradbally on Tuesday, 14th inst., feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, to which the Church is dedicated. To mark the occasion the pupils of the Convent of Mercy and boys' national schools received a free day from school.

Holidaying.—Our highly esteemed curate, Rev. John A. Flynn, C.C., Ballylanaan, is now on his well deserved annual leave, and the parishioners hope that he will have a good time. Mrs. Julia Power, Horsepasture, Powerstown, Clonmel, is currently spending a holiday with her daughter, Mrs. T. Lenihan, Garranurton. She also visited another daughter, Mrs. M. Phelan and grandchildren, at Ballinabogue. Incidentally, her son, Rev. Fr. T. Power, O.S.A., has only returned to Sydney, Australia, lately, after six months in Ireland. She is also mother of Sr. Mary Michael, Convent of Mercy, Waterford.

Obituary.—A member of a respected family, has passed away in the person of Mrs. Mary Kate Keane, of Grouse Lodge, Kilmacthomas. Predeceased by her husband, she belonged to a well known and popular family—the Walshs of Kilrossanty—and her untimely death occasioned deep regret over a wide area. She was a kind and generous person and an exemplary Catholic and had attended morning Mass the day she died. That Sunday night, however, she suddenly took ill and she passed peacefully away.

The remains were removed to Stradbally parish church, where they were received and blessed by Very Rev. P. Farrell, P.P. After Mass in Stradbally parish church, the interment took place in the adjoining.

She is survived by her son William, daughter-in-law Roseleen, grandson Michael; brothers Vincent, Comeragh and John Joe Walsh, Coolubrid; nieces, nephews and cousins. To all, heartfelt sympathy is extended.

Exam. Success.—Two lucky Kilmac' girls are to be congratulated on their success on being called to Teachers' Training college. They are the Misses Monica Barron, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Monnie Barron, Main Street, and Miss Judith M. Kiely, Ballinabogue, only daughter of Mrs. Mary and the late George C. Kiely. Both girls obtained high honours in the Leaving Certificate this year, and they also passed their "Easter Orals" last April. Monica will train at Mary Immaculate College, Limerick, while Judith has been called to Our Lady of Mercy College, Carysfort Park, Biscrook, Dublin.

The girls received their primary education at the Convent of Mercy, Kilmac', and they attended the Convent of Mercy secondary school, Dungarvan together. Their teachers are to be highly commended on their efforts with both girls, and we felicitate Monica and Judith for having achieved this success.

Award.—Young Paddy Hegarty, North Main St., Youghal, was last week rewarded for being a model schoolboy. When he returned to St. Augustine's College, Dungarvan, after the summer recess, the priests pronounced him Head Prefect of the College. Paddy was unanimously elected because of his honesty, integrity and thoroughness; and he surely will give good example to the other students. He is well known in this locality because he has made many friends while visiting his uncle, Mr. Dan Tobin, Ballyvaughan, Stradbally, who is justifiably proud of his nephew's appointment.

Reception.—Great were the celebrations at the convent of the Missionary Sisters of Our Lady of the Apostles, Ardfoyle, Cork, when some postulants were received into the order. One was Miss Mary Geraldine Power, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Power, High Street, Kilmacthomas, who is their

WEDDING BELLS: PENNY - LAWLOR

The wedding took place recently, at St. Joseph's Church, Toomevara, Co. Tipperary, of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. Penny, Inch, Thurles, and Miss Mary Ellen Lawlor, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Lawlor, West St., Lismore.

The ceremony with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing, was performed by Rev. J. O'Brien, C.C., Toomevara. The best man was Garda Tom Corcoran and the bridesmaid was Miss Eileen Delaney (cousin of the bride). The child attendants were Miss Eileen Lawlor (sister of the bride) and Miss Sadie Young (niece of the groom).

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a full length gown of white printed satin, with train and full length tulle veil, held in place by a pillbox and she carried a bouquet of red roses, while the bridesmaid wore a knee-length frock of light blue silk and carried a bouquet of sweet pea. The child attendants also wore frocks of light blue silk and each carried a basket of glowers.

The reception was held at the Ormond Hotel, Nenagh and the honeymoon is being spent touring Northern Ireland. Going away the bride wore a turquoise costume with matching hat and black accessories.

WOMEN'S CONFRATERNITY

The monthly meeting of the women's branch of the Sacred Heart Confraternity, will be held on this (Friday) evening in St. Carthage's Church, at 7.30 p.m.

DEATH OF MRS. E. CROTTY

It is with deep and sincere regret we record the death of Mrs. Ellen Crotty, Main Street, Lismore, which sad event occurred at her residence on Sunday morning last, 12th September.

The deceased lady, who was a member of an old and highly esteemed family, was the owner of a very flourishing bar and grocery business in Lismore for a long number of years. Possessing a very quiet and gentle manner, she had countless friends everywhere, and her sudden death, even though in the fullness of years, has been received with much regret.

To her sorrowing sister, sons and daughters and all other relatives we tender our deepest sympathy.

The remains were removed to St. Carthage's Church on Monday evening and were received and blessed by Very Rev. Canon Dunphy, P.P., V.F., assisted by Rev. Fr. Quailly, C.C., and Rev. Fr. Slattery, C.C. and the burial took place on Tuesday in St. Carthage's cemetery, the same clergy officiating at the graveside. Large and representative corteges attended both funeral and burial.

VOTES OF SYMPATHY

Votes of sympathy were extended at last Monday's meeting of Waterford County Council to Mr. Thomas Crotty, Lismore, and his brothers and sisters on the death of his mother and to the relatives of the late Mr. Buttimer, Coolnav.

Mr. Dowling said all the Banks held the same view. Mr. C. Curran (Chairman) said the cause of it all was that the country was living beyond its means.

Mr. H. R. Dowd said that over the years they had been borrowing far too much. As a result of this they had a colossal bill for interest from the Bank each year.

The County Engineer, Mr. J. D. Hally, said the cottage repair money which they now had would only last until November.

The Secretary said the interest on loans last year amounted to £6,300.

Mr. N. Walsh.—The financial position in this country is very serious at the moment.

Mr. K. O'Ryan.—Yes and in this country as well.

Mr. Curran.—There is no one blameless for that.

Mr. O'Ryan.—I wonder.

TALLOW NOTES

NARROW ESCAPE

Mr. John Ronayne (farmer), Templevalley, Tallow, had a narrow escape from serious injury on Thursday night of last week. Whilst returning from a friend's house by car he was involved in a collision with wandering horses on the road, a short distance from his home. It appears that the horses were running in front of another car. Mr. Ronayne stopped his car and one of the horses jumped across the bonnet and another tried to jump over it and landed on the hood of his car. This animal was killed outright and the other died some time later.

Mr. Ronayne's car was completely wrecked, but luckily he himself escaped with only a slight cut in the wrist and some bruises.

LISMORE TEAM WALK OFF FIELD AFTER FRACAS

In the junior hurling championship game played at Tallow pitch on Sunday last, between Lismore and Shamrocks, the game was abandoned after 28th minutes, when the Lismore team walked off the pitch after a free for all. After referee, Mr. Tom Ryan, Fourmilewater had restored some semblance of order and with the game about to continue the Lismore team walked off the field. The referee then awarded the game to Shamrocks. The score at the time was: Shamrocks, 2-3; Lismore, 1-2.

HOME FROM U.S.

Mr. Patrick Leahy, formerly of Chapel St., Tallow, is presently spending a holiday here from the United States.

HOME FROM ENGLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Allen and their child, are at present at home on holidays at Ballymote, Tallow. Mr. John Dooling, Killebegs, Tallow, is also home on holiday from England. We wish them a pleasant time.

CARDINAL CUSHING GETS GLENCAIRN HONEY

Whilst at a luncheon, given in his honour by His Lordship,

Health Authority's Consultative Committee

A meeting of the Waterford Health Authority's Consultative Committee was held in Waterford on Friday last. Mr. J. Griffin, N.T., T.C. (Chairman), presided and the members present were Messrs. C. Curran, M.C.C.; T. Lannon, M.C.C.; J. Power, T.C.; E. Collins, B.Comm., T.C.; R. I. Gallagher, B.D.S.; T. Gallagher, T.C.; Dr. F. L. Corrigan, R.M.S.; Dr. T. Lynch, R.M.S.; Dr. P. G. Dooley, and Mr. J. J. Glanville, Secretary.

Amongst matters discussed were Orthodontics, Disablement, Allowances, General Medical Services, Maternity Services, General Institutional Services and Preventative Health Services.

The question of an E.C.G. unit for West Waterford was also considered.

Late Mrs. Mary Kirwan

Boolvonteen, Ballinamult

It is with feelings of the deepest regret we record the death of Mrs. Mary Kirwan, which occurred at her residence on Thursday, September 2nd, after a rather short illness, but at an advanced age. The deceased lady was a most popular member of the farming community and relic of the late Roger Kirwan.

We extend our deepest condolences to her sons, daughters and relatives at the passing of a wonderful mother.

Her remains were removed on Friday evening to Touraneena Parish Church, followed by a huge cortege and were received and blessed by Very Rev. P. Walsh, P.P., assisted by Rev. R. V. Downey, S.J.B.

Requiem Office and High Mass was sung on Saturday morning for the happy and eternal repose of her soul and the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. Another very large concourse were present. Rev. Robert V. Downey, S.J.B., assisted by the full choir of clergy, officiated at the graveside and imparted the final absolution.

Very many spiritual Mass bouquets were received by her family and relatives.

The chief mourners were: Edward and Thomas Kirwan, Boolvonteen and Michael Kirwan, Dublin; Percy Kirwan, Lismore; James Kirwan, Knockmeal (sons); Mrs. J. Kirwan, Knockmeal; Mrs. T. Scannan, Cappoquin; Mrs. P. Walsh, Touraneena; Miss M. B. Kirwan, R.G.N., Dublin (daughters); and a large circle of nephews, nieces and grandchildren.

(Funeral arrangements by J. Kiely and Sons, Dungarvan.)

Most Rev. Dr. Lucey, Bishop of Cork and Ross, His Eminence, served with honey. He liked it so much he enquired where it was got. On being told it was from Glencairn Abbey he straightaway ordered a crate of Honey to be sent to him. This was duly done and he received it before his return to the States.

RETURNED TO ENGLAND

Mr. and Mrs. F. Keyes and family, Kilmore, returned to England last week-end after spending a holiday at home.

Congratulations to Mrs. M. Morrison, New Lins, Tallow, on winning £45.91 in the M.H. Pools recently; also Mrs. W. Geary, Green Road, who won a Cork prize in the R.T.B. Pools recently. Mrs. E. Lynch, West St., is agent for both pools.

BLACKBERRIES

Blackberries are being bought in Tallow and district at 6/- per stone. That is an all time high price for the food which is extremely scarce this year.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Mr. Timothy McCarthy who has been some months in Ardkeen Hospital with a leg injury, the result of a fall in the street, was discharged last week end. We wish him a speedy recovery to full health again.

COMMITTEE THREATEN TO TERMINATE ARCHITECT'S EMPLOYMENT

On a proposal of Mr. Norman Walsh, seconded by Mr. Charles Curran, County Waterford Vocational Education Committee, at its meeting on Tuesday last, unanimously instructed the C.E.O., Mr. Rushe, to write to Mr. O. Morrissey, Architect, Clonmel, threatening to terminate his employment unless he submitted the detailed specification documents for the proposed new Kilmacthomas school within a fortnight.

Mr. Rushe said that since the last meeting they could report no progress on the proposed Kilmac' school. The Dept. awaiting the detailed specification documents and they would be submitted not later than to-day.

Mr. Michael Morrissey said the day had come when this must stop. The architect had been appointed on the recommendation and proposal of Mr. Fahey, T.D., and Deputy Fahey should now be asked to go to the Minister about him. The architect was only pulling the wool over their eyes.

Mr. J. Fahey, T.D., said they received only one application for the post of architect and they gave it to Mr. Morrissey. Now the people of Kilmacthomas were disappointed and bewildered, and now they found there was going to be a further delay.

Mr. Norman Walsh said they should get the C.E.O. to write a very strong letter to the architect.

The C.E.O. said this was done as far back as April last. He stated in a letter to Mr. Morrissey that they considered him most unsatisfactory.

Mr. Fahey said he already brought the matter up with the Dept. and they told him they were awaiting documents from the architect.

Mr. Walsh: Can we terminate his employment?

Mr. Rushe: I certainly think we could. We employed him and therefore we can terminate his employment, as we consider him unsatisfactory.

Mr. Curran: We will have to do something.

The C.E.O. said they could threaten to terminate his employment.

Mr. Walsh then proposed this and Mr. Curran seconded, and it was agreed to give him another fortnight to submit the documents.

Still Awaiting Sanction

Departmental sanction has not yet been received for the proposed new Vocational school for the Gaultier area. At last Tuesday's meeting of County Waterford Vocational Education Committee, the C.E.O., Mr. J. Rushe said he had received a letter from the Department stating that before any decision could be reached, the Department would have to carry out a survey of the needs for Post Primary Education in this rural area.

Dungarvan School Caretaker Resigns

A letter of resignation from Mr. John Kiely, Caretaker at Dungarvan Technical school, was read by the C.E.O. and accepted by the members at last Tuesday's meeting of the County Waterford Vocational Education Committee. Mr. Kiely is the former Waterford All-Ireland hurling star.

Mr. J. Rushe (C.E.O.) said he received the letter of resignation on August 27th and Mr. Kiely left on September 10th. He took up duty on November 23rd last year and occupied the post for a little short of ten months. He suggested they advertise the post next week.

When Mr. Michael Morrissey suggested that they select an interview Board with final powers to make a recommendation to the Committee, Mr. Norman Walsh said that last year he was a member of an interview Board with Mr. Kyne, T.D. and the C.E.O. and they unanimously made a recommendation that was not accepted by the Committee, and Mr. Kiely, who was only sixth on their list was given the post. He did not mind going on an interview Board provided their recommendation would be accepted by the Committee. Last year it was a tragic farce and reflected no credit on the Committee.

Mr. M. Morrissey proposed that an interview Board with final powers be appointed. They he said, would interview all the applicants and their recommendation should then be accepted by the Committee. Ven. Archdeacon D. Power, P.P. (Chairman) seconded.

Mr. C. Curran said it was his view that it was the Committee that had the say in selecting a man and they could not delegate their powers to a sub-Committee.

Mr. Walsh said it was ridiculous selecting an interview Board if their recommendation would not be accepted by the Committee.

Mr. J. Fahey, T.D., said he agreed with Mr. Curran. It was the Committee who would make the appointment. He would not guarantee here and now to abide by a recommendation of a sub-Committee.

Mr. Walsh: If that is so there is no point in having an interview Board.

Mr. Curran proposed that the appointment be made by the Committee without an interview Board and that the appointment be a simple majority.

Mr. J. Fahey, T.D., seconded. Mr. Walsh then proposed that an interview Board be appointed and that final selection be confined to that short list.

Rev. Fr. T. C. Butler said he thought that an excellent proposition, and seconded it.

Mr. Curran and Mr. Morrissey both agreed to withdraw their proposals in favour of Mr. Walsh's and it was passed unanimously.

Mr. Walsh, Mr. Curran, Mr. Fahey, T.D., and Mr. Kyne, T.D. were then selected to comprise the interview Board, and Monday, October 4th was selected as the date for interviewing candidates.

Mr. Walsh said this was done as far back as April last. He stated in a letter to Mr. Morrissey that they considered him most unsatisfactory.

Mr. Fahey said he already brought the matter up with the Dept. and they told him they were awaiting documents from the architect.

Mr. Walsh: Can we terminate his employment?

Mr. Rushe: I certainly think we could. We employed him and therefore we can terminate his employment, as we consider him unsatisfactory.

Mr. Curran: We will have to do something.

The C.E.O. said they could threaten to terminate his employment.

M. & L. BANK REFUSES LOAN TO COUNCIL

The Munster and Leinster Bank Ltd. has refused a request from Waterford County Council (described by one member of one of the best customers) for the borrowing of £15,000 for the cottage repair programme. This was the starting news revealed by the County Secretary, Mr. J. G. Dowling at the Council's meeting in Dungarvan on Monday last.

Mr. Dowling said he had received a letter from the Munster & Leinster Bank Ltd. stating that the Council's request had been placed before their Board but in view of the present financial policy they were not able to accede to it.

Mr. Norman Walsh asked how much they borrowed from the Munster & Leinster Bank in the year. They must be their best customer, he added. This was a serious matter indeed.

MITCHELS, ARDMORE, 'SION FANCIED

But Shock Results Likely

FOOTBALL completely dominates the Waterford Gaelic scene on Sunday next, with six teams, constituting three games, battling for places in this year's senior championship semi-finals. Tramore stages two of these ties, with Ardmore and Mount Sion endeavouring to dispose of the respective challenges of Gaultier and Erin's Own. But to the writer the most appealing and glamorous game of all is scheduled for Dungarvan's Fraher Field, where Aelish Geraldines meet worthy foes in John Mitchels.

This latter encounter undoubtedly stands out, and certain it is that a huge crowd will converge on the Dungarvan venue. For a start it is a unique pairing—unique by virtue of the fact that never before have they met in any grade or competition. Form must inevitably mean the installation of Mitchels as favourites, but with Geraldines one can never be yet they had five points to spare at the call of time. Geraldines also impressed in their opening engagement, making light of the Valley Rovers challenge.

The Aglishers hope to have a new face in defence on Sunday, whilst all those other dependable regulars, Johnny Grady, Jim Davis, Jim Kelleher and co., will not be easily circumvented.

It goes almost without saying that their midfield hopes will rest firmly on the shoulders of Mick Tobin, and he, no doubt, will be one of their key players.

Up front, Stylo Riordan will surely operate on the forty, and if this superb dual performer can play as well as he is doing at the sister code, just now, then it can mean nothing but trouble for the Mitchels defence. Another of the veteran squad, Patsy Kenneally, will be on the fringe of the square, certain, and I can say with certainty that these Aglishers fancy their chances more than a little on Sunday next.

M. DOWNEY (Geraldines)

At the moment, of course, they are riding on the crest of a hurling wave, and have already qualified for the Western Intermediate hurling final. But don't be misled. They are mighty football conscious as well, and their preparation for Sunday's encounter has been both diligent and exacting.

Mitchels, on the other hand, look with supreme confidence to this year to provide them with that first senior title. Since branching from the Kilrossanty fold the club has been amongst the foremost in the county, without, however, reaping any real "harvest." But they are playing really well just now, and as present holders of the Phelan Cup, will be extra keen to bring off the big double.

In the first round they met stern opposition from a surprisingly good Dungarvan side,

WALLY CONNORS (Mitchels)

ARDMORE UP AGAINST IT

The tow game programme at Tramore should also provide many thrills, and from a Western viewpoint, greatest interest here will centre on Ardmore's clash with Gaultier. This is a game that Ardmore can, with justification, treat with a degree of trepidation. Firstly, they themselves have not been playing with the same confidence as last year, and, secondly, it is generally conceded in all quarters that having to travel into Eastern territory also makes their task that much more difficult.

Greatest weakness in this Ardmore team is their attack, which last year cost them the senior crown. To date there have been no indications of this being rectified, and certainly their first round display against Tramore left a lot to be desired. They were in fact, lucky to have survived that obstacle and unless there is considerable improvement on Sunday, they could well suffer defeat.

There is nothing at all wrong with their defence, as Eddie Mooney, Tommy Power, Paddy Carlton and Bertie Hallahan are really accomplished defenders.

But up front the failings are there for all to see. I will not be surprised should the selectors play John Joe Carlton in their half line in preference to midfield, in an effort to improve the sector. As individuals Fin Hallahan, Mickey Carlton and Jim Rooney are as good as the best, but for some inexplicable reason, they are not hitting it off together.

Caultier are by no means a great side, but the Tramore venue will be to their liking. And encouraged by their two-goal victory over Emmets in the first round, they are confident of advancing a stage further.

This will be a very close affair, but believing that the Seaside can raise their game, I take them to get by narrowly.

MOUNT SION FANCIED

A senior championship clash between Mount Sion and Erin's Own immediately revives epic hurling memories. But on Sunday next these great rivals clash in the football code and this is indeed an intriguing pairing. Erin's Own are reigning intermediate champions, and now they are bidding to add the senior crown to their list.

Sion of course can claim the scalp of the champions Kilrossanty—a feat achieved in the opening round against all the odds and pre-match predictions. That performance entitles them to favouritism on Sunday, but in such a rivalry-keen contest as this anything can happen. In fact, whilst Sion may be the general fancy, I will not be at all surprised should Erin's Own come out on top.

ABBEYSIDE UNITED DEFEND CUP ON SUNDAY

Abbeyside United, holders of the Casey Cup make a defence of it on Sunday next when they meet Portlaw in the first semi-final of this year's tourney at Kilmaethomas.

But up front the failings are there for all to see. I will not be surprised should the selectors play John Joe Carlton in their half line in preference to midfield, in an effort to imprise by mastering a highly fancied Portlaw eleven, and it now goes without saying that the Tannery town side are extra keen to gain revenge on Sunday.

They will again start favourites to come out on top but United's desire to retain the trophy for another year is great and it all adds up to a thrilling tie.

BLUES ON TOP IN LAST QUARTER

Now Meet Geraldines In Final

DUNGARVAN 7-6; CAPPOQUIN 3-5

FOR three quarters of an hour on Sunday last, Dungarvan's Intermediate hurlers on the confines of their own Fraher Field, failed to shake off the challenge of a gallant and better than average Cappoquin side. But suddenly the vast and true potential of this Old Boro team manifested itself radiantly and in the closing quarter pulled out all the stops to qualify unmistakably for a Western tilt with the Aglish Geraldines.

But make no mistake about it, this win was far more hard earned than a final thirteen point winning margin would seem to indicate. That so heavy a defeat should be inflicted on them was in fact unflattering to say the least to their heroic efforts, as they were still in this game with a good chance ten minutes from time. Still none can deny or even attempt to deprive Dungarvan of the honours of the hour. They started off on the wrong foot when conceding an early goal and quite obviously did not relish the heavy underfoot conditions caused by the pre-match rains. But their hurling during that vital closing quarter was right out of the top drawer and good and all though Geraldines may be, they are really up against it in this Behind McGrath, centre-back forthcoming divisional decider. Tom Cunningham and his brilliant Sunday's game was a tough one from the opening whistle. The exchanges were keen, and on one or two occasions tempers tended to become frayed. But for all that, and mindful of the fact that conditions could have been much better, the standard of hurling was more than satisfactory. The valiant efforts to recover shattered composure. But rampant forty-five minutes ensured that the outcome remained in doubt and even if the closing stages became one-sided, there was much to admire in Dungarvan's quality hurling.

SENT OFF And still nineteen minutes from time, who but super Dungarvan optimists could have envisaged an Old Boro victory. At the interval they deservedly led by 3-3 to 2-2 but with Cappoquin playing their finest hurling of the hour immediately lieve was a game they would not have won at any rate.

Dungarvan can feel eminently pleased with their overall display. The Cappoquin challenge was one that most would have found difficult to dispose of, and it surely speaks volumes for the Blues that they should end decisive victors. That defence of theirs has tightened up considerably; midfield has plenty of ability, and to date the forwards have been performing their foremost duty—that of notching the scores.

THE SCORING

Cappoquin had a tonic start with Arthur Murray whipping a grounder to the net in the 3rd minute followed by a point by ace forward Mickey Fraher. But soon Dungarvan took over and a goal by Sean McGrath and a superb eighty yard point by Ray Lannon brought equilibrium. Not a puck of the ball now separated the sides and exchange of minors by Mick Bowen and John O'Donoghue had them still locked in scoring equality by the 20th minute. A minute later however, the losers were back in front when Roger O'Shea smacked another past goalkeeper M. Donnelly.

But the remainder of the half belonged entirely to the Blues. Tolly Quelly started the resurgence with a point and then in nipped wily corner forward Jim Walsh for a goal. Then just on the half hour Eamonn Kieley snapped up a half clearance and he belted yet another to the Cappoquin net.

But if Dungarvan now thought they were well and truly on the road to victory, a rude awakening awaited them early in that second half. Cappoquin restarted in brilliant fashion, and soon the home-sters were playing second fiddle. Within a minute Mee Kelleher had a point but almost immediately Sean McGrath goaled at the other end.

SERIOUS TROUBLE

Then came undisputed Cappoquin dominance. A John O'Donoghue pointed free was followed by a Mickey Fraher goal. Now it was Cappoquin who reigned supreme at midfield and when Fraher tapped over another minor the issue was an open book. Then came Moylan's dismissal and Dungarvan looked in serious trouble.

But almost immediately following his departure, Dungarvan became a side transformed. Out came Sean McGrath to midfield and from then on Cappoquin never got a grip in this sector. On the three quarter hour Cunningham pointed a free and Bowen added a like score. It was now completely one-way traffic and a goal by Quelly, a point by Lannon, and further goals by Jim Walsh and Eamonn Kieley merely hammered further nails in the Cappoquin coffin.

PLAYED WELL

This entire Dungarvan team played well on Sunday, but to the writer greatest credit lies with the defence. Goalkeeper Michael Donnelly once again gave a capital display, and top-class displays by full-back Mick Fitzgerald, playing a real captain's part, and his "sidekicks" Conor Curran and Michael Lewis ensured Donnally maximum coverage. But it was the out-of-the-ordinary really dominated the game. Tom Cunningham in everything he did was the hurler supreme—the rock on which so many promising Cappoquin attacks perished.

Little behind however, were his flankers Brendan Crowley and Tony Mountain. Crowley, in fact turned in a really blistering performance with a display par excellence.

The original midfield pairing of John Moylan and Ray Lannon fared quite well. Moylan did more than his share until his premature departure, whilst Lannon, as against the Rockies turned in a blistering final twenty minutes.

The attack amassed a tally emphasising the scoring power of the sector. But standing out was corner forward Sean McGrath, the scorer of two very valuable goals. Later when transferred to midfield he more than anyone else was responsible for ascertaining the dominance that brought about the Cappoquin downfall. Jim Walsh, Eamonn Kieley, Tolly Quelly also notched vital scores whilst Sean Power who replaced Jim Byrne also played well.

ECLIPSED

As already stated Cappoquin remained very much in this game for three quarters of the journey. But finally their challenge was eclipsed and a well-beaten side at the finish. Their star was unquestionably Mickey Fraher, who roamed dangerously all over the field. Listed as left half forward he never confined his activities to this area of operation alone, and wherever he went was a constant menace to the Dungarvan defence.

They had an excellent goalkeeper in Frank Whelan, who however, had to work at times without protection. But in defence Thomas Lonergan, Charlie Cullen, John Fraher and that great veteran Paddy English all played their parts.

Ger Mason was in top form at midfield ably assisted by John O'Donoghue but apart from Mickey Fraher in attack, only Roger Shea, Maurice Kelleher and to a lesser extent Eddie Fraher made any impact.

Dungarvan—M. Donnelly; C. Curran, M. Fitzgerald, M. Cunningham, T. Mountain, J. Moylan, R. Lannon; J. Byrne, M. Bowen, E. Kieley, J. Walsh, T. Quelly, S. McGrath. Sub—S. Power for Byrne.

Cappoquin—F. Whelan; C. Cullen, J. Fraher, E. Cahill, A. O'Keefe, T. Lonergan, P. English, J. O'Donoghue, G. Mason, E. Fraher, M. Kelleher, M. Fraher, P. Fraher, R. O'Shea, A. Murray. Subs—M. O'Connor for M. Fraher; M. Fraher for O'Connor.

GAME IN TALLOW ABANDONED

The sparks flew in a big way at Tallow Sportsfield on Sunday when Shamrocks and Lismore met in the junior hurling championship. Almost from the start this was a real needle affair and the first half never ended because referee Tom Ryan abandoned it when an ugly fracas developed. At the time of the abandonment Shamrocks were leading by 2-3 to 1-2, but the issue was still wide open.

The referee's report of the game was considered at a meeting of the Western Board on Wednesday night and if received in time the Board's action will be published elsewhere in this issue.

NEXT SUNDAY'S JUNIOR FIXTURES

The only Western fixture at Dungarvan on Sunday next is the junior hurling meeting between Abbeyside and Brickey Rangers. Both clubs will be fielding their second string for this encounter but as Abbeyside appear to be much better served in reserve material they should advance with something to spare.

AT CAPPOQUIN

The meeting of the Nire an Ballinacree in junior football at Cappoquin is wide open. Both have had good victories to date—Ballinacree at the expense of Lismore, and the Nire overwhelmed a work C.R. team from the Nire.

There should be little or nothing in this at the end but I have a slight preference for the men from the Nire. At the same venue Tallow were down to meet the winners of last Sunday's abandoned tie between Shamrocks and Lismore and it now seems probable that this game will be unable to go on as scheduled.
