Opening of New Mercy Convent School

Group pictured at the opening and blessing of the new Mercy Convent Primary School, include Right Rev. Monsgr. Dean Barron, Vic. Cap. Ven. Archdeacon Power, P.P., V.F., Mr. G. O. Sulleabhain, Div. Inspector, representing Minister for Education, Rev. Mother M. Vincent, Rev. Mother M. Plus, F. O'Sullivan, Singing Inspector and T. A. Kyne, T.D.

IN surroundings resplendent, a new £65,000 Primary school at the Convent of Mercy, Dungarvan, was officially opened and blessed on Wednesday. The Blessing was performed by Right Rev. Mgr. Dean Barron, Vicar Capitular, and the official opening was performed by Mr. Gearold O Sulleabhain, representing the Minister for Education.

Speaking at the Official opening, at which Ven. Archdeacon D. Power, P.P., V.F., presided, Mr. O'Sulleabhain said it was the duty of the Department of Education and of the teachers, religious and lay, to convey the best of the heritage of the past as Irish people and Catholics to the pupils of the present day. Without however the whole-hearted co-operation of the church, the state and the people there would be no such schools as that which they had just opened.

At 11 a.m. Mass was celebrated in St. Mary's Parish Church by Rev. W. Power, C.C., at which Rt. Rev. Monsignor Barron presided in the presence of a packed church, of Mercy and Presentation Convent and C.B.S. pupils and townspeople. Dungarvan Brass and Reed band under the baton of leader Ml. Henneberry, paraded from their band room to the church, and also played at the opening in the school grounds, accompanied by the school choir.

Addressing the pupils and townspeople in the school yard, Dean Barron paid tribute to the wonderful work the Mercy Convent Sisters were doing. This, he said, was a great day for them, also for the school pupils and people of the town. The nun, he said, could now continue the great educational work in more pleasant surroundings. Very Rev. Archdeacon Power said the words of the Holy Scripture were most apt on this great day: "This is the day the Lord hath made, let us exult and rejoice."

Later addressing the assembly of guests at the reception, Archdeacon Power paid fitting tribute to the wonderful work the Rev. Mother and Nuns of the Mercy Order were doing in Dungarvan, both in the religious and education spheres. He outlined the Order's illustrious history in Dungarvan.

He went on to congratulate the architects, builders, workmen, Mr. Nick Parle, town-planer, and others connected in any way with the magnificent children whose education had been sadly neglected in this town as in others all over Ireland in Penal Days. This school began in one room, the poverty of the community being extreme. Year after year numbers increased, alterations and extensions were added. In 1862 the building which the senior primary pupils have just vacated was built. This too proved inadequate and in 1879 a separate infant school was deemed essential.

Many young boys who passed through this Infant School fill important posts in life, a big number in the greatest callings—the ranks of the priesthood. The girls too, have done their part. Among the past pupils are many mothers of good Catholic families, nuns, teachers (Primary, Secondary and Vocational), Civil Servants and expert musicians. Four of the earliest pupils, natives of Dungarvan, went to open a Convent in North Queensland, Australia. The seed has borne fruit and now the one survivor of the Pioneers can count fourteen flourishing branch houses with boarding and day school attached.

The pupils of 1965 who have now moved into a most modern building are indeed more fortunate than those of 1854. It contains nine bright airy classrooms, a domestic science

AN APPRECIATION BY A PAST PUPIL

1954—1965

Across the golden years between Rich fulfilment of a mystic dream The urgent wish of a dying child Echoes within the corridors of time And on this happy day Bears full fruition To our beloved Ann Carbery Child-bearer of the heavenly decree We speak a Te Deum And to the Daughters of Mother McAuley Whose humble beginnings and arduous ministry is crowned to-day in joyful history Our dear Sisters of Mercy In the minds and souls of generations Planted the seeds of wisdom and of grace

COUNCIL DISCUSS ITINERANT MERCY CONVENT PROBLEM 1854-1965

FOLLOWING general complaints that itinerants were a traffic hazard and a danger to Public Health, Dungarvan Urban Council at its monthly meeting on Friday night last decided to prohibit itinerants from camping in certain parts of the town.

At the outset the Town Clerk, Mr. P. Doyle, said the Council had power to make an order prohibiting the erection of temporary dwellings but they had to be satisfied that health was endangered or a traffic hazard would be caused. Mr. Doyle added: "We have a report from the Supt. of the G. which states: 'It could not be said with certainty that the itinerants interfered with public health to an unreasonable extent.'"

The Acting Chief Medical Officer reported that in her opinion temporary camps were prejudicial to the amenities of the locality, whilst the report of the County Engineer stated the camping of itinerants did not interfere to an unreasonable extent with traffic.

In a report from the Acting County Manager, Mr. J. G. Dowling, it was stated that there was very little evidence that the site now used by itinerants in the urban area caused actual danger to public health or constituted a nuisance within the meaning of public health or sanitary legislation. If the Council made an order prohibiting camping in certain areas the only problem this policy would serve was to make life as difficult as possible for itinerants without really benefiting the community as a whole.

Estuary may be Reclaimed

Dungarvan Urban Council, at its meeting on Friday night, agreed in principle to a proposed suggestion by the Town Engineer, Mr. P. Walsh for the reclamation of portion of the estuary above the river Colligan to the north of the Causeway along Strandside North, Abbey-side.

Mr. Walsh said it would be very easy to reclaim about 17 acres of land at very little cost spread over a number of years. He said that one source of material for trunking would come from the excavations that would be carried out in the widening and re-alignment of the Waterford road at the Burgery, and if they asked the County Council he was sure they would deliver it for them.

Continuing, Mr. Walsh said that when the site would be reclaimed it could be used for amenities for the town, such as playing fields, tennis courts, and a small lagoon for boating that would be very attractive for visitors as well as the townspeople. The maximum cost over a number of years would be £400 a year. He also felt sure that amenity grants would be available for this from the Government.

(Forestry Division)

FORESTRY ACTS 1946 and 1956

WHEREAS on the 15th day of September, 1965, the Minister for Lands made an order in respect of the lands comprised in the Schedule hereto under Section 26 of the Forestry Act, 1946, vesting the said lands in him on the 19th day of October, 1965, NOW THEREFORE TAKE NOTICE that the said Vesting Order with map annexed thereto may be inspected on any week-day at the Offices of the Forestry Division, 22 Upper Merrion Street, Dublin, during the hours the said offices are open for the transaction of business.

Mr. T. A. Kyme T.D., Chairman, said it was proposed to prohibit camping at Shandon and Fr. Twomey's road. He believed the itinerants should camp beyond the quarry at Shandon and they would then not interfere too much with the amenities of the town. To be very honest, he said, he did not have too much sympathy with the itinerants. They had the same rights as any citizen but they did not have the right to interfere with the amenities of the people of Dungarvan.

The Town Clerk (Mr. P. Doyle) said he recently visited a camp of itinerants and of the four families there, two were willing to take houses. The remaining two were not interested in houses because they were horse traders.

Finally, on the proposal of Deputy Kyme, seconded by Mr. T. Lee, the Council unanimously decided to prohibit camping at Shandon and Fr. Twomey's road subject to the sanction of the Minister.

Anti-Litter Campaign Starts in Dungarvan

Council May Get Tough

DUNGARVAN Urban Council at its monthly meeting on Friday last decided to issue an appeal—and a warning, to the business people and residents of the town to help keep Dungarvan tidy. An anti-litter campaign has now been started, and when the members were told that the town had slipped further back in this year's Tidy Towns competition there was severe criticism of the littered streets and pavements by several of the members. During the discussion that followed it was hinted that a get tough attitude would be adopted if the general condition of the town did not improve.

All schools in Dungarvan have been asked to co-operate in the campaign and short talks will be given to children by their teachers.

Mr. T. A. Kyme, T.D. (Chairman) said he felt that a very good effort had been made by those responsible for keeping the streets clean. But the business people of the town swept the litter from their shops onto the street and this was wrong. It was now a question of how tough the Council would get with these people. They would either have to adopt a tough attitude or forget about the whole thing.

Mr. P. Walsh (Urban Engineer) said the chief streets of the town were cleaned every morning. Recently at about 9 o'clock after Grattan Square had been cleaned, he saw a number of business people cleaning out cabbage leaves and papers onto the street. When people would come into there was no mention of the town later in the day they would not think the street had ever been cleaned by the Council. The business people of the town should practice tidiness, he added.

Mr. T. Lannon said they should first appeal to these people to keep the streets tidy. Failing that they should then adopt a tough attitude with them.

Deputy Kyme said he had no desire to harm anyone, but it was in the interests of the shopkeepers to keep the streets clean. He appealed also to the Press to give the campaign publicity.

The Urban Engineer said if the town was kept clean it would encourage tourists to stay in town and Dungarvan would benefit from it.

Referring to the report of the Tidy Towns competition on Dungarvan, Mr. Thomas Lee said there was no mention of the Congress Villas housing estate. The houses there were a disgrace, he said, and the shutters were blocked and overgrown with grass.

Mr. P. Doyle (Town Clerk) said the Urban Council paid £1,400 to the County Council for the maintenance of roads in the Urban area.

Mr. P. Whelan said they should find out how much the Council spent on cleaning the streets of the town. They were not getting value for money and the County Council should be asked to weed the streets and keep them clean.

Mr. Lannon said some people in Dungarvan were doing wonderful work for the town and the Council should support these people. He made special reference to the Committee of Dungarvan Gala Week. They should encourage people to come to Dungarvan and it was their duty as public representatives to keep the town as clean as possible.

The Town Clerk said one of the chief complaints made by tourists was the absence of litter bins in the town.

Deputy Kyme said he noticed that the litter bins in Virginia (the over-all winner of the tidy towns competition) were only ordinary oil cans that had been painted and they served the purpose. He suggested they ask the Management of the local leather factory for 20 or 30 oil drums and they could be used as litter bins throughout the town. The Tidy Towns report on Dungarvan was a very good and constructive criticism of the town as it pointed out the faults and good points.

The discussion then ended.

Tenants of New Houses Make Complaints

REFERRING to complaints from tenants now living in the new Boreenatra housing scheme, Colr. Paddy Whelan, at last Friday's meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council said tenants were paying rent of £2 a week and they wanted value for money. He was there to see they got that.

Mr. P. Doyle (Town Clerk) said he had received the usual complaints that would normally be received from tenants of a new scheme. The Clerk of Works had gone to every house and after discussion with the Architect he was satisfied they could be settled from the amount of retention money that had been held from the Contractors.

He said the complaints received mainly concerned settlement of cracks, chipping plasters and faulty wiring.

Colr. Whelan said the wiring was very dangerous. In some cases plugs had come out and the lightings would not work when switched on. He received complaints also about the water creeping through the back doors. The people were paying for the inside repairs them selves and on top of that there was the very high rent of £2 a week. They wanted value for money and he was there to see that they got it.

Mr. Walsh (Engineer) said that before the retention money would be paid over to the Contractors, he would go with the architect and examine all the houses. All genuine complaints would first have to be put right before he would accept the houses on behalf of the Council.

"DUNGARVAN OBSERVER"

CREDIT UNION NEWS

In last week's issue, we published a report of a meeting of the South East Chapter of Credit Unions in which the office hours of the Dungarvan Credit Union were given as 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. on Fridays.

The local Hon. Secretary has asked us to inform our readers that the hours quoted were those of another Credit Union and that in fact the office hours in Dungarvan remain unchanged, i.e., from 5.45 to 6.30 p.m. and from 8.30 to 10 p.m. each Friday.

Members of the local Credit Union have asked us to stress the following points for the benefit of those who have not yet joined. Any man, woman or child may apply for membership; savings as little as one shilling a week are welcome; savings may vary from week to week; loans, in proportion to savings, are given for most purposes (house furnishings, holidays, medical, school expenses, Christmas and other seasonal expenses are a few that come to mind). The manner in which any member buys shares or takes out loans will be regulated to suit his or her particular circumstance — there is no rigid procedure because a Credit Union is run by the people for the people.

The best way to discover how you would benefit from membership is to call in at the Courthouse during the hours set out above and have a chat with the staff—there is a special room for those who wish to have a private discussion. (This unique insurance scheme which makes your savings more valuable and protects your next of kin against repayment of loans taken out by you is in itself worth knowing about). If, after such a discussion, you are not convinced that every week you delay in becoming a member is a loss to yourself and Dungarvan, you will at least be satisfied that the Credit Union movement is a sincere effort to give practical expression to community self help.

Local Happenings WILL BE ASKED TO REMOVE E.S.B. POLES

ANNUAL RETREAT

The annual Retreat for the Children of Mary, Mercy Convent, will be conducted by Rev. Fr. E. McHugh, C.S.S.R., beginning on the evening of 11th October. Past pupils and others interested are cordially invited. (9-10)

BADMINTON NEWS

At the annual general meeting of the Dungarvan Badminton Club the following officers were elected: President, Mr. N. Haughey; Secretary, Alicia Browne; Treasurer, Mr. F. Comerford; Captain, Mr. D. O'Brien. Committee—Messrs. T. Dawson and J. Power.

Members who wish to rejoin should give their names to the Secretary, at the Town Hall on Monday, 4th Oct. Applications for membership may also be made on that night. Badminton practice commences on Monday, 4th October at 8 o'clock and thereafter on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday nights.

POLES

Because the members feel that because of these poles it was very difficult to get lorries into either of these streets. In a letter to the Council, the County Engineer, Mr. J. D. Halley, said the E.S.B. poles, were causing difficulty to people to get to their premises and they should ask the E.S.B. to remove the poles at no cost to the Council.

Mr. T. Lannon said he had received several complaints

LOSS ON GALA WEEK

At the annual general meeting of Dungarvan Gala Week on Monday night, it was disclosed by the treasurer, Mr. P. Murphy (M. & L. Bank) that there had been a loss of £175.19.4 in the running of this year's gala. The gala cost £2,050.18.9 whilst the total income amounted to £1,874.19.5

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

FOR APOSTOLIC WORKERS— A CALL TO ARMS

Arms for us, are our Needles! So on Tuesday, Oct. 5, D.V., we resume our needlework sessions; the venue, as last year—the Mercy Convent School.

All members and intending members of the group earnestly requested to be present, so that the fruits of next year's labours will surpass, please God, those of last year. The zeal and generosity of last year's workers was evident last June in the magnificent exhibition of work which was a revelation and inspiration to so many. Our Lady, Queen of Apostles, will surely watch over and be with us in our work. A special word of gratitude to all who so generously gave their wedding frocks. The prayers of the Missioners will be yours to the end of time.

The local club has ended its field activity for the present season and perhaps the most noteworthy occasion for the remainder of the season will be the intermediate hurling divisional final between Geraldines and Dungarvan, which will be played at Lismore, on October 10th. Plans for the holding of a Christmas Festival in the town were considered at a meeting of the Development Association on Monday night. Though the project is yet only in the preliminary stages, it seems to promise a busy and exciting Christmas period in the town. The Committee are to be congratulated on their initiative and energy.

LEGION OF MARY

Lismore Curia of the Legion of Mary held its annual outing recently, when Legionnaires from Lismore, Cappoquin, Ballysaggart, Mount Mellery and Ballyduff visited beauty spots in Kerry and South West Cork.

LISMORE'S TIDY TOWNS REPORT

The report of the adjudicators on Lismore in this year's Tidy Towns Competition, was read and considered at a meeting of the Lismore Development Association on Monday last. The town was awarded 71 marks less than last year.

The adjudicators marks were awarded as follows (maximum marks in each section are indicated in brackets): effort involved (30); 20; general cleanliness and tidiness (15); 12; condition of streets and sidewalks and paved and grassed areas (15); 11; appearance of public, private and commercial premises (10); 8; colour, colour harmony and general appearance (10); 6; appearance of planting, gardens, trees, shrubs and flowers and standard of fences and walls (10); 7; absence of unsightly objects (10); 7.

In the Report it was stated that the approach road, travelling down from the Vee Gap has well maintained margins and where it joins the main road leading to the town there is a pleasant roadside flower garden opposite a petrol station. It seems that the flower garden & one other one on the Waterford road are provided by the petrol station. The margins on the approach from Waterford are reasonably well-kept, but the hedgerow could do with some trimming.

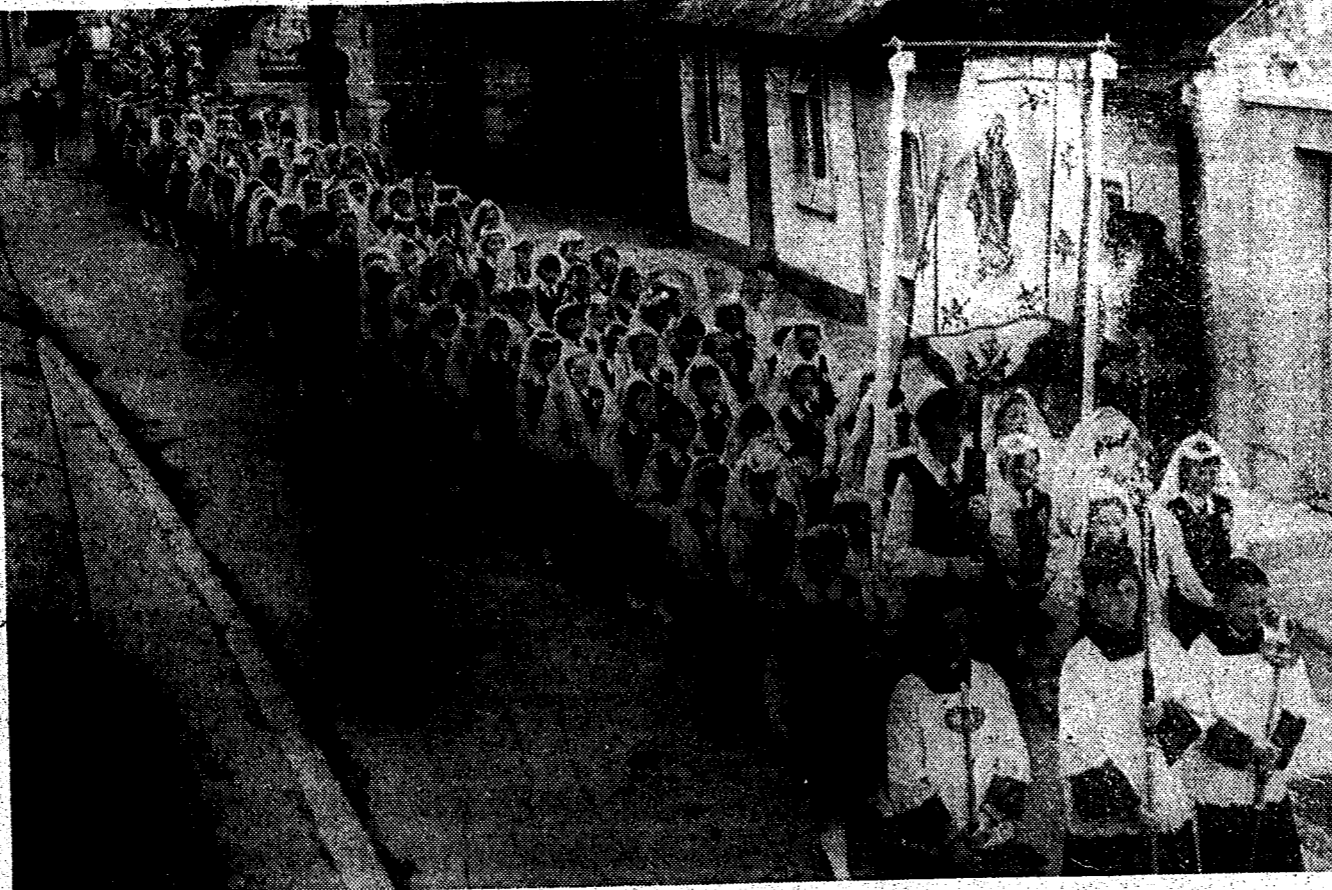

Lismore Castle, of course, dominates the town. It is a pity that some of the walls outside the grounds are badly foyposed indeed there was 'tattered fly-posting to be seen in several places. Kerbs and gutters seem- sional final between Geraldines and Dungarvan, which will be played at Lismore, on October 10th. This is definitely the "plum" game of the competi- tion and should attract a record crowd to the Castle Farm Ground.

While there was some litter, this was not in any great quantity. As remarked last year, in a town the size of Lismore, it is a pity that there are no names on the streets. Margins and kerbs on the approach road to Tallow need attention. There is a Christian Brothers School here, where the road forks with splendidly maintained grounds with wonderful displays of colourful flowers.

Margins on the road to the Station need attention. The grounds of the Catholic church bordering this road were reasonably well kept, but the grass was quite long and needs cutting. There are a number of small terraced cottages here that have managed to provide splendid flower displays with tiny front gardens. There is an imposing approach to the Church of Ireland church. The gates of the church need re- painting and the pathways outside are badly overgrown. How- ever, the grounds seem reason- ably well-kept and the hedges and shrubs are clipped. As noted last year, it is a pity that this splendid approach is being used as a playground for children. Surely some other place could be found within the environs of the town.

A number of roadside benches provided in or about the town have been repainted. The bench surrounding the little monument in the central area is badly in need of repair and redecoration. Some properties in Lismore have been repainted but quite a few, while well maintained, are rather colour- less. In addition a number of buildings are badly in need of redecoration. The margins on the approach road to Fermoy were in need of attention. Here the pathways were badly overgrown with weeds and in some places had almost disappeared.

Lismore is a centre with plenty of character. However, it is not presented to the best advantage and if it is to maintain its position in the competition, with rising standards elsewhere the people of the town will have to give their full support to their committee in future years.

Letter to the Editor

SAFETY FIRST

Extending the scheme already in existence, the Safety First Association has appointed four new Road Safety Officers. It is my pleasure to take up duty in the Kilkenny area, being responsible for the counties Wexford, Carlow, Tipperary, South Riding, and Kilkenny.

Of the huge accident toll inflicted by last year's traffic, this area contributed 33 killed, 563 injured. It must be obvious to all that if only the most elementary precautions were observed, this appalling figure would never have been reached.

To explain the essentials of good road behaviour to the greatest possible number of people, I will address groups, organisations and schools, give film shows and advise on specific problems. It is my aim to improve the standard of driving in all possible ways, but especially by encouraging firms with professional drivers to enrol in the Safe Driving Competition. Each year thousands of these drivers receive awards for remaining free of the slightest culpable accident. It is right that they should be acknowledged as the greatest group of road users making a positive contribution to safety.

The private motorist will be well advised to consider the fitting of Safety Belts to ensure his own protection and that of his front seat passenger; the most vulnerable to serious injury.

I am hopeful that my efforts in road accident prevention will be well received by all sections of the community, and that the spirit of cordial co-operation I have experienced in dealings with the clergy, the gardai and the local authorities may begin to bear fruit.

Finally, I would appeal to the motorist who crosses the continuous white line, who follows too closely the car in front, who drives with his reactions slowed down with a few drinks, to remember that he is gambling against blood and agony and sudden death.

LATE HANORA DALTON

KILCOONEY, BALLINAMULT

It is with feelings of deep regret we record the death of Mrs. Hanora Dalton, which occurred on Sunday evening, 26th September, at her son's residence, Clonegale, Ballinamult after a very short illness, but at the fullness of years. She was relict of the late Patrick Dalton and a general favourite in her native area. She was of a gentle and retiring disposition and was extremely popular.

We wish to tender our deepest condolences to her sons, daughters and grandchildren on their great loss.

Her remains were removed on Monday evening to St. Scotland, Patrick, John, Marie and Nuala Dalton, Clonegale, Mary's Parish Church, Touraneena followed by a very large cortege and were blessed and received by Very Rev. P. Walsh, P.P.

Requiem Office and High Kiely and Sons, Dungarvan.)

Mass was celebrated on Tuesday morning for the happy and eternal repose of her soul and the interment took place subsequently in the adjoining cemetery. Rev. M. Griffin, C.C., officiated at the graveside, assisted by the full choir of clergy present. Another very large concourse were present.

Large sheaves of Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy were received.

The chief mourners were: Patrick, Steady, Jack, Clonegale, Maurice, Kilcooney (sons); Mrs. Mary Foley, England, Miss Margaret Dalton, Limerick (daughters); Miss Moira Dalton, Scotland; Patrick, John, Marie and Nuala Dalton, Clonegale, Patrick, Thomas, John, May and Christina Foley, England (grandchildren).

LATE MRS B. CUMMINS

Dungarvan and surrounding district was shocked almost beyond belief on Wednesday evening of last week, Sept. 22nd when news broke of the death of Mrs. Bridget Cummins, Ballycullane, in Jervis St. Hospital, Dublin, after a short illness.

Only in her thirty second year, Birdie, as she was so affectionately known to all, was an outstandingly popular lady, and the overflowing corteges that were present for both her funeral and burial furnished perhaps the most striking proof of the esteem in which she was held.

The deceased was ill for only a very short time. Prior to that last indisposition she enjoyed excellent health, and even now it is difficult to realise that the hand of Providence has snatched her so prematurely from her husband, four young children and other relatives. She was truly devoted to the family home and we join in extending our deep and sincere sympathy to her next of kin—the ones who feel most her regretted and tragic demise.

The remains were removed from Jervis Street hospital on Thursday, Sept. 23rd, and on arrival at St. Mary's Church it seemed as though the entire Dungarvan populace had turned out to meet the remains.

They were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. W. Power, C.C., and other clergy in attendance were Very Rev. Archdeacon D. Power, P.P., Rev. Fr. D. Byrne, C.C., Rev. J. Roche, P.P., Abbeyside; Rev. M. Walsh, C.C., do.; Rev. Fr. Madden, C.C., do.; Rev. Fr. Farrell, C.C., Kilgobinet and Rev. P. Flavin, Chaplain, Carriglea Convent, Solmen Requiem Office and High Mass was celebrated on Friday morning for the happy repose of the deceased's soul. The celebrant was Rev. Fr. W. Power, assisted by Rev. Fr. M. O'Farrell, C.C., and Rev. Fr. M. Walsh, C.C.

Rev. W. Power, also officiated at the graveside in the presence of yet another huge concourse of mourners and sympathisers that was truly representative of all sections of the community. The chief mourners were: Michael and James (sons); Anne and Patricia (daughters); Mrs. Whelan, Ballycullane (mother); Mrs. M. O'Reilly, London; Mrs. Anne Smith, do.; Mrs. Joan Whelan, Cappagh; Mrs. Alice O'Sullivan, Cork; Mrs. Mgt. Harrington, Youghal (sisters); Willie Joe Whelan, Ballycullane, John Whelan, do. (brothers).

'CLUB 65'

"Dancing with a difference" is the motto of the newly-formed "Club 65", which came into being through the efforts of a group of young men who are anxious to promote "the big band sound" in dancing. The Club has expressed its concern at recent trends and developments in this field of entertainment and is determined to translate this concern, which the club feels is held by the vast majority of dance-age fans, into an active and sustained approach towards its rectification.

"Club 65" is planning a series of Monday night dances in the Collins Ballroom, Clonmel, commencing on the 4th October with the Maurice Mulcahy 15-piece orchestra. Other bands which the Club have engaged include the Jimmy Dunne Orchestra, Billy Kenrick and the Jim Farry combination.

CLUB RULES

The newly-formed committee's first task was to formulate a set of rules which will be strictly enforced. The right of admission is reserved and will be refused to the following without favour: (a) all those under 18 years of age; (b) anyone improperly dressed; (c) those under the influence of intoxicating drink; (d) and others at the Club's discretion.

The bands which have been engaged for October are noted for their presentation of the orchestral arrangements and the popular numbers of the day. The tastes of all patrons will be adequately catered for and the success of this dancing series is already assured.

Protest demonstrations over rates

The National Council of N.F.A. at its meeting in Dublin this week adopted a campaign for deferring the payment of rates during the second moiety which begins on October 1st. A final decision as to the exact implementation of the implementation of the campaign was left to the National Executive which is meeting on Saturday.

An overwhelming majority voted in favour of the proposal which emanated from resolutions by a number of County Executives. The National Council also gave its blessing to the holding of mass demonstrations in the four provinces. The first of these demonstrations will be held in Castbar on October 16 and will be followed by a second in Drogheda in early November and others in south Leinster and Munster.

The decision on the rates means that the National Council and the officers of the Association will back to the full those counties which implement a campaign to hold back payment to the local authorities. The decision was anything but unexpected following months of farmer agitation against falling farm income, rising rates and inadequate commodity prices. Farmers are particularly angry with this year's Budget, which held out so much hope and then resulted in a damp squib.

But nothing has annoyed the farming community to such an extent as the generous treatment which the higher Civil Servants accorded themselves a few months ago—on the eve of statements of economic crisis by the Government.

In fact it so incensed Mr. Dan Berrin of Leix that, at the National Council meeting he called for the holding of a sworn inquiry on how the experts in the Dept. of Finance arrived at a prediction of £12 million as an increase in farm income this year, while at the same time the N.F.A. was giving its prediction as a £2 million drop. "Why not give themselves increases of up to £20 a week when, according to themselves the farmers were going to make another £12 million this year?" he asked.

Mr. John Orpen expressed the following viewpoint: "If we are to fight at all, now is the time. The country is running into the distressing situation where the Trade Union Congress is dictating policy and where the Government is not doing what it should to give fair play all round." He considered that if the Association went ahead with its rates campaign "we will be assisting the Government in bringing a counter pressure to ensure that there is fair play."

less than £400 and yet for this relatively small amount a complete break-through can be achieved."

There are 128,000 farmers in this country who would qualify for participation in the scheme, which envisages them working to a three or five year plan, drawn up between the farmer and the local agricultural adviser. There is no question of money being automatically made available to shysters. Grants would only be made available on achievement. In other words a grant for a sow would only be paid after the farmer had got the sow.

The farm-home is not being overlooked in the scheme either. There will be scope for such activities as cottage industries or adapting the farm home to farm holiday purposes.

If the scheme is accepted by the Government it will mean an immediate increase in output, in farm income on smaller farms and an immediate increase in national prosperity. Mr. Llewellyn visualises it as instilling new hope into the more depressed farming area. "It would be," he added, "a considerable help in revivifying our decaying rural towns and villages by injecting badly needed spending power into them."

All in all it should get a whole-hearted welcome from both farmers and the Government.

FARMER REPRESENTATION ON COUNTY COMMITTEES OF AGRICULTURE

Farmer representation on County Committees of Agriculture, which comes into being for the first time this year, was considered at the National Council meeting.

Mr. Joe Dunphy of Sligo said that the Association should be working with the Minister to ensure that the best possible farmer representatives got on the Committees.

Mr. Deasy felt that it was a matter for discreet discussion at County level.

Mr. Sean Healy, General Secretary said that the scheme was not as simple as it looked. "It is County Councils that will nominate the farmers," he said.

Mr. John Orpen said that the ideal way of handling the situation was for N.F.A. and Macra na Feirme to draw up a panel of names for submission to the County Council in each case.

Following a short holiday among his relatives and friends in his native Touraneena Rev. Fr. Robert Downey, S.D.B., returned last week to California, where he has been ministering for a number of years.

WEDDING BELLS

The marriage was solemnised in St. Mary's Church, Touraneena, on Tuesday last, of Mr. Patrick Walsh, only son of Mrs. Catherine Walsh and the late Mr. James Walsh, Monarur, Dungarvan and Miss Catherine (Cait) O'Grady, youngest daughter of Mr. Martin O'Grady and the late Mrs. O'Grady, Tinelra, Ballinacult. Very Rev. Fr. Walsh, P.P., performed the ceremony and celebrated Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing.

Given away by her father, the bride was attractively attired in a full-length gown of white brocade with waist of mixed carnations and maidenhair fern.

Following a reception held in the Minella Hotel, Clonmel, where a large number of guests were entertained, the happy pair left for London, where the honeymoon is being spent.

To the Dalton family, Killooney we tender our sincere sympathy on the death of their mother, Mrs. Norah Dalton (nee Christopher) whose death took place rather suddenly on last Sunday evening.

Widow of the late Patrick Dalton, the deceased, who had reached her ninety-fifth year, was one of the "old stock," whose family connections in Sliabh Gúa are centuries old. The remains, accompanied by a very large concourse of relatives and friends, were removed to Touraneena Church on Monday evening, and subsequent to Solemn Requiem Office and High Mass on Tuesday morning interment was made in the family burial plot in the cemetery adjoining.

Tivoli House, the scene of last Thursday's evening arrests, which aroused country-wide interest, was closed on Monday morning. Accompanied by their children, Mrs. Jennings (wife of Peter Somers Jennings) (alias Call), and Mrs. White, wife of Harold Locke White, left for Cork Airport, en route for England. The departure of the ladies ended, as far as can be gathered, their occupation of the mansion. We understand that Jennings, who declared at the Court proceedings that he would look for a writ of Habeas Corpus presented his case before the High Court on Tuesday morning. Consideration of his case was adjourned for ten days.

We join with their hosts of friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Barry the best of good luck and happiness.

PATRON DAY AT GLENDINE

Wednesday, 29th September, the feast of St. Michael, was Patron Day at Glendine. Mass was celebrated at 9 a.m., by Rev. Sean Nugent, C.C. There was a large congregation present. The parish of Glendine was, in pre-Reformation days, known as Templemichael and the Church of Ireland, which stands in the Old Graveyard at Templemichael, was then the Roman Catholic Church. The last recorded parish priest of Templemichael was a Rev. D. Quinlan.

The Abbot of Moland Abbey, which stands on an island on the Blackwater at Ballinacorney, was, up to the time of the suppression of the abbey, parish priest of Templemichael, which at that time was a separate parish and not joined to Kilmacomas or Knockanore. The former is the only one of the three to retain its old name, as Knockanore was then known as Killocockin parish. The three parishes at that time were Tallow, Kilmacomas and Killocockin. The above names are still retained in the Church of Ireland.

KILMAC' NOTES

Omission. — Inadvertently omitted from our "success list" of intermediate certificate pupils published in last week's issue of this paper, was the name of Master Ed. Flahavan, of the Bungalow, Bonmahon, whom we now wish to congratulate.

Music Classes. — Classes for the tuition of music have recently begun and will continue every Monday night at the Rainbow Hall. Many are availing of this wonderful opportunity to learn and improve their knowledge of music. The classes are being conducted by the very capable and talented Rev. Fr. Bracken of Ballymacabry.

Appointment. — We cordially congratulate Miss Deirdre O'Brien, eldest daughter of Mr. Bart O'Brien, Director, Irish Tanners, Portlaur, who resides in Bonmahon, on her appointment as qualified manicurist and beautician. Deirdre was educated at Ursuline Convent, Waterford and St. Mary's Convent of Mercy, Dungarvan. Afterwards she pursued a course in the Metropolis, and has joined the staff of Cesar Hair Fashions, Waterford. Good luck to the popular young lady.

Award. — At a function held at Mary Immaculate Training College for national teachers, last week, one of the eighty girls awarded certificates in teaching and cookery instruction was Miss Agnes Guiry, N.T., of Kilmadec. Congrats Agnes, and best of luck in your new position as teacher at Newtown National School, Kilmacomas. We are also pleased to felicitate popular Miss Mary Moore, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Moore, Whitestown, Clonca Power, who has also been successful in her final exam. at Our Lady of Mercy Training College for Teachers, Carysfort Park, Blackrock, Dublin and is now a fully-fledged N.T. Mary was educated at St. Mary's Convent of Mercy, Dungarvan.

Wedding. — The marriage, with Nuptial Mass and Pappal Blessing, took place in London recently, of Mr. Francis Ivory, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ivory, Kilmacomas, North Cork, and Miss Mary O'Brien, Carrickphillip, Kill. Mr. Ted Ivory, brother of the groom, was best man, and Miss Stella O'Brien acted as bridesmaid. The child attendants were the Misses Helen O'Brien and Miss Marilyn Flavin.

We wish the young couple every happiness in the future. Masterpiece. — Three years of patience and work have been rewarded; Mr. Michael Reilly, Glen Road, Faha, has just accomplished a noteworthy feat. From used matches which he collected, he has constructed a miniature church. With great dexterity he has produced a truly wonderful piece of art. The structure is about 3 feet in length, and resembles a church even to the minutest hinges. Michael even made tiny hinges and the main doors of his "church" can be opened. In the porch there is a collection table. Directly in front, as one looks inside is the high altar. Seats of match sticks are arranged at either side of the aisle. There is even a staircase which leads to a gallery, which also has seating accommodation.

There are "confessionals" and a "pulpit" in the church too. Adjoining the main part of the church is a sacristy and there is also alcoves for tiny statues. Tiny "stations of the cross" are around on the walls. Outside the main door is a "holy water font" of match-sticks. There is also a match-stick belfry which contains a little bell, and this can be rung from the porch.

Skilled man that he is, Michael has also wired up the church with tiny lights. Telecine of Eireann will show pictures of this to viewers in the near future. Many visitors are amazed to see the flawless work, and by their warm praise and true appreciation talented Michael is deservedly rewarded.

Called to Training. — We have just heard that Master Donal Lynch of Kerry has been called to train as a national teacher in Dublin. Donal is a brother of popular Miss Maureen Lynch, N.T., Fews, Kilmacomas.

Wedding. — St. Nicholas's Church, Ring, was the scene of a very pretty wedding recently, when members of two highly-respected families were united in Holy Matrimony. They were Mr. Thomas B. Walsh, 22 Ard na Creine, Waterford, and Miss Breda Walsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Walsh, Post Office, Ring.

The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Pappal Blessing, was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Kennedy, C.C., assisted by Very Rev. J. O'Donnell, P.P., Ring.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was tastefully attired in a full-length empire-line gown of white tulle with a veil of pink and white silk illusion, held in place by a crystal coronet. She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. Miss Myra Mooney, who acted as bridesmaid, wore a full-length gown of pink wild silk and she carried a bouquet of mixed carnations. Child attendant was Miss Bernadette Walsh (sister of the bride), who looked lovely in a full-length gown of green wild silk. Mr. Noel Sullivan was best man.

Many guests were entertained at a reception held in Lawlor's Hotel, Dungarvan. The honeymoon is being spent touring Ireland.

The bride is well known in Kilmac, where her uncle, Mr. Mick Murphy, St. Anne's Tce., resides. Her hosts of friends wish the young newly-weds every future happiness.

Inter. Success. — Miss Kathleen Mullins, a pupil of the Presentation Convent, Dungarvan, was among those successful in the recent intermediate certificate. Well done Kathleen!

Sympathy. — Deepest sympathy is extended to the O'Connell family, Ballygarron, Kilmacomas, on the death of a relative Mrs. Cummins, and to the Bowden family, Kilmacomas, on the death of their uncle, Mr. John Bowden, N.T., Carrigtohill, which occurred recently. — R.I.P.

When the Church of Ireland at Villierstown was recently handed over to the Catholic Church Authorities, it was mentioned that this building had been built and noted by the Villiers-Stuart family. It is of interest to note that the Catholic Church at Mountstuart was also built and donated by the same family. It is surely unique in Irish family history to have the same family construct two churches (one Protestant and the other Catholic) in the same parish. For a number of years also the Villiers-Stuarts contributed a sum of £45 annually to the parish priest for time being of Aghlish.

Plans are now in hand to reconstruct and renovate the church at Villierstown. Subscriptions should be addressed to the Church Committee, Villierstown Church Renovation Fund, Villierstown, Cappoquin. No doubt many people will wish to be associated in a practical way with this happy development.

CONDITION OF ROAD The County Engineer has addressed the following letter to Mr. C. Curran, M.C.C.:—"Re: Kilmeeady Road—I refer to your representations about this road, which was graded and rolled some months ago. I have inspected it in the last day or two and find that the grading and rolling which was carried out has considerably improved it, but that on one or two flat sections pot holes have developed which are unfortunately inseparable from this type of road. Flooding has done some damage in the upper section where the ground on both sides of the road is much higher and where drainage presents substantial difficulties.

"However, I do feel that the work that was done has considerably improved the section of the road that was done and I hope that further work in the future will continue the improvement."

FASHIONABLE CLASHMORE WEDDING The wedding took place at the Church of Our Lady of Good Counsel, Clashmore, of Mr. Edmund Quill, The Pike, Dungarvan and Miss Margaret Mansfield, Lickeybeg, Clashmore. The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Pappal Blessing, was performed by Very Rev. D. Canon Power, P.P., Clashmore, assisted by Rev. E. Tobin, C.C., do., and Rev. J. Murphy, C.C., Dungarvan.

The best man was Mr. N. Quill (brother of the groom) and Mr. J. Quill (do.) was groomsmen. The bride was attended by Mrs. D. O'Boyle (sister) and Miss Paula Harvey (niece). The ushers were Messrs. Dan O'Boyle and Morgan Sheehan.

The reception, attended by about 60 guests, was held in the Majestic Hotel, Tramore and later the happy couple, who were the recipients of numerous congratulations and felicitations, left for Jersey on their honeymoon.

VILLIERSTOWN CHURCH—ONE FIMLY'S CONTRIBUTION When the Church of Ireland at Villierstown was recently handed over to the Catholic Church Authorities, it was mentioned that this building had been built and noted by the Villiers-Stuart family. It is of interest to note that the Catholic Church at Mountstuart was also built and donated by the same family. It is surely unique in Irish family history to have the same family construct two churches (one Protestant and the other Catholic) in the same parish. For a number of years also the Villiers-Stuarts contributed a sum of £45 annually to the parish priest for time being of Aghlish.

Plans are now in hand to reconstruct and renovate the church at Villierstown. Subscriptions should be addressed to the Church Committee, Villierstown Church Renovation Fund, Villierstown, Cappoquin. No doubt many people will wish to be associated in a practical way with this happy development.

CONDITION OF ROAD The County Engineer has addressed the following letter to Mr. C. Curran, M.C.C.:—"Re: Kilmeeady Road—I refer to your representations about this road, which was graded and rolled some months ago. I have inspected it in the last day or two and find that the grading and rolling which was carried out has considerably improved it, but that on one or two flat sections pot holes have developed which are unfortunately inseparable from this type of road. Flooding has done some damage in the upper section where the ground on both sides of the road is much higher and where drainage presents substantial difficulties.

"However, I do feel that the work that was done has considerably improved the section of the road that was done and I hope that further work in the future will continue the improvement."

FASHIONABLE CLASHMORE WEDDING The wedding took place at the Church of Our Lady of Good Counsel, Clashmore, of Mr. Edmund Quill, The Pike, Dungarvan and Miss Margaret Mansfield, Lickeybeg, Clashmore. The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass and Pappal Blessing, was performed by Very Rev. D. Canon Power, P.P., Clashmore, assisted by Rev. E. Tobin, C.C., do., and Rev. J. Murphy, C.C., Dungarvan.

The best man was Mr. N. Quill (brother of the groom) and Mr. J. Quill (do.) was groomsmen. The bride was attended by Mrs. D. O'Boyle (sister) and Miss Paula Harvey (niece). The ushers were Messrs. Dan O'Boyle and Morgan Sheehan.

The reception, attended by about 60 guests, was held in the Majestic Hotel, Tramore and later the happy couple, who were the recipients of numerous congratulations and felicitations, left for Jersey on their honeymoon.

CLASHMORE PRIEST HONOURED Congratulations are extended to Very Rev. Michael Canon Ward on being appointed second Vicar Capitular of the Archdiocese of Glasgow. The recipient of this unique distinction is a native of Clashmore. PRIEST CONCLUDES HOLIDAY Following a holiday in his native Clashmore, Very Rev. Fr. William Hynes, has returned to Creescent City, California, U.S.A. He was seen off at Shannon by relatives and friends.

POPULAR TEACHER'S DEPARTURE Miss Elna O'Keefe, N.T., has resigned from her post as teacher at Clashmore N.S., to take up a similar appointment in Cork City, where she will also attend University lectures. She is very popular in her native district and pupils, parents and the general public regret her departure. All join in wishing her well in her new sphere of duty.

THOSE TICKETS — WHERE DO THEY COME FROM!

What a shameful, disgraceful racket this All-Ireland ticket business has become. On Sunday morning last I stood outside Barry's Hotel in Dublin for over an hour watching these "touts" offering for sale a seemingly unlimited number of stand tickets at outlandish prices.

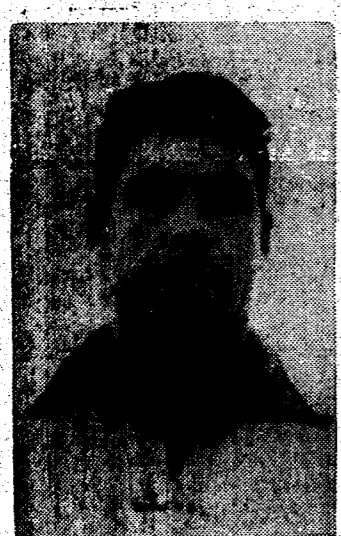

For example I saw two Hogan Stand tickets (lower deck) being sold for three English fivers—the grand sum of £7.10.0 per ticket. A Cusack stand ticket (I have its number) went for 4 and another (I also have its number) fetched £3.10.0. This distasteful procedure is unfortunately gaining momentum each year and will have to be stamped out soon if it is not to have disastrously detrimental effects.

Surely Central Council is well aware of what county or counties were issued with these tickets. That much done then it can be ascertained through the Secretary of the Board in those counties what clubs they were distributed to. Then the local club secretaries should without difficulty be able to reveal the persons who actually got those tickets.

This I think is a simple way of finding out the ones responsible for flooding the market with these five-times-the-cost tickets. Once they have been found out never again should they be allowed the good fortune of coming into possession of them. In this county alone there are men who have given years of invaluable service to the Association and because of the acute ticket shortage had to do with Hill Sixteen.

● AFFANE-BALLINACOURTY CLASH WIDE OPEN

Whilst the senior championships take a back seat on Sunday next, there should be no great shortage of thrills. This should be particularly true at Dungarvan where Ballinacourty and Affane do battle in the Intermediate football championship for the right to meet Clashmore in the Western final.

This is a game that has evoked tremendous appeal not alone within the confines of the participating clubs but throughout the entire Division. Both have trained assiduously for this vital hour and not surprisingly neither will hear of defeat.

It is being said in many quarters that Affane hold the "Indian Sign" over Sunday's opposition. It is a contention that cannot be completely ignored or regarded as eye wash. For was it not Affane who last year—their first incidentally in the Intermediate grade, shocked Waterford Gaelicdom by defeating Ballinacourty in the opening round by a point and victory, he it remembered was achieved without the services of their top defender, John Healy.

TCM SCANLON (Affane)

Then came a meeting between the sides in the Winter league and a makeshift Affane team put "Corry" to the pin of their collars to survive. If memory serves me correctly they had but two points to spare on that occasion snatching a lucky victory with belated scores.

Little wonder then that Affane are being hailed as the Ballinacourty bogey side. But all this will add to their decentration and determination and they are intent on proving this time that Affane hold no fears for them. It is an appealing background to a most attractive tie, the outcome of which should remain in the melting pot right up to the final whistle.

For weeks past, Ballinacourty have been in strict training, but as the hour of decision approaches, mentors are worried about the injured Danny Barry. Barry has been to his doctor, but at this stage is a doubtful starter. However, a final decision is being deferred to much later in the week. Affane, on the other hand, have no such problems. They too have been through the rigours of training these past few weeks and thought fully alive to the difficulty of the task confronting them, are supremely confident as to how it will end. They are the defending champions and certain it is they will defend that crown with everything they've got.

Both sets of selectors have decided on a waiting game, for when I probed the respective camp for likely teams, I was politely told they would not be announced until later in the week. That cautiousness alone is an indication of the respect each has for the other.

Should Barry be available he will be in defence or at midfield. That regard of theirs is very solid, with Brian O'Connor a highly capable goalkeeper, fronted by excellent footballers in Mick Kiely, John McGrath and Pat and Liam Enright. Pakie Hogan is another who is playing great stuff right now but whether the selectors will play him in the half back line or on the half-way line remains to be seen.

Up front too there is plenty of scoring power, with Pat McGovern, Johnny Hogan, Donald Whelan and Jack Elstead likely to be ever dangerous.

And what of Affane? They are ready to meet what will be the toughest obstacle they have faced to date in this championship. Like Ballinacourty they will probably select along usual lines, preferring to rely on the "fried and true" in so vital an encounter.

With John Healy the inspiration in defence, it is a solid sector and carries considerable football ability in the persons of Danny Coughlan, Tom Scanlon and Paddy McGrath, the pivot.

At midfield too, they are more than adequately served by the second Paddy McGrath and county minor Pat Denn. Whatever pairing Ballinacourty may decide on they cannot expect things easy from this Affane partnership.

As for the forwards, Affane's attack will be at its most menacing to the defence with the menace to the defence of John and Eddie Shea and Mandy Scanlon posing a big problem. But three men cannot carry out the full duties of an entire attack and much will depend on how the other three perform.

That then is a preview to this most intriguing of games. Ballinacourty might be slight favourites but with Affane providing the opposition one never knows, I will be close and exciting and beyond that I'm not prepared to say.

CURTAIN RAISER

As a curtain raiser to this tie Ring and Strabally meet in the winter hurling league. ● THE NIRE FIANCED AT CAPPOQUIN

Waterford Experiment at Nolan Park

KIKENNY PROVIDE STERN OPPOSITION

AN accurate assessment of Waterford's present-day status in the hurling world should be duly forthcoming at Nowlan Park Kilkenny, on Sunday when the County opens its 1965/66 National League campaign against the Noreiders. This year more than ever before, the revised league grouping will make this major tournament all the more difficult to win and certainly Waterford could hardly have got a tougher assignment for their initial outing in the campaign.

Right now people, myself included, are in a quandary as to the merits and demerits of Waterford hurling. Beaten in the championship by Cork, the Leesiders were themselves subsequently humbled by Tipp. In the Munster final. Yet, it is fairly general opinion that Waterford would have provided far stiffer opposition to Tipp had they advanced that far.

But if nothing else that championship proved beyond all doubt that father time had caught up with many of the veterans who for so long served the County with distinction.

Now it comes as no surprise that heads should roll for the new season just dawning. The great Mount Sion pair Seamus Power and Phil Grimes have been omitted, whilst the other big news is the retention of Ollie Wilkinson in defence following his impressive senior debut against Sunday's rivals in the Piltown tournament.

There can be no denying the fact that the County's hurling prospects need a shot in the arm right now. Sunday could well indicate future prospects and victory would certainly prove an excellent start to what is going to be an arduous road.

Nowlan Park will, of course, be to Kilkenny's advantage, but this I think will be a sharp, keen and highly determined fifteen representing the Deise County and will I feel confident acquit themselves well. Failure to do so will only plummet the county to the depths.

Not surprisingly they fielded at full strength and who can honestly deny the potency of a team that includes such as Pat Flynn, Roy Battye, Don Casey, Shane Pender, Sonny Power and Dungarvan man Jackie Sandford.

United make only one change from their semi-final winning eleven, Paddy Power coming on at outside right. On the other flank of attack, Tom Cowman, presently holidaying across channel, has been selected and is expected to be home before next Sunday.

The defence performed heroically against Portlaw and it comes as no surprise that the selectors have retained it en bloc. John McGrath continues in goal and the inside trio in attack are Peter Power, leading the line with John Beresford ing to field at full strength, and with several training sessions behind them are hoping to advance to the semi-final.

The Nire were one of my original fancies in this championship but now emigration has taken toll of their playing strength and on Sunday next they will greatly miss the services of several who would have been automatic choices had they been available. The Nire was always quite a football stronghold and its many a fine footballer emerged from that area. Under prevailing circumstances it is not easy for them to keep going but thanks to their dedication they are still up there with the best in this junior grade. Had they been at full strength I would give them a confident vote on Sunday next, but even as it is I have a slight preference for them.

Ground advantage will be a considerable help to Kilmac, but if United can reveal their semi-final form and given the necessary slices of luck so essential in a final of this nature they could make it two Casey Cup wins in a row.

● BUS FROM ABBEYSIDE

In connection with the above game a special bus will leave Crotty's Corner, at 2.15 p.m. Seats 3/6 each.

Undoubtedly the chief talking point of this somewhat experimental Waterford team is the placing of Martin Og Morris-have already referred to and he is flanked by John Kirwan and Mick Flannelly.

At the time of writing the Kilkenny team has not been selected. But they are unlikely to treat this Waterford challenge lightly and can be expected to field at full strength. Their Leinster final defeat by Wexford was a shattering blow and though they have since reversed that result were most unimpressive in doing so. Consequently they will too, be more than keen to restore some of the considerable lost confidence of the past few months.

Kilkenny will undoubtedly start warm favourites to collect the points but for Waterford this could well be the crucial and acid test. The chosen side has it in them to rise to the occasion and at worst should extend the Kilkenny men to the limit. In fact if an all out effort is forthcoming from all sectors they could well shock them in their own domain.

YOUGHAL NOTES

HIGH WATER WEEK ENDING 9th OCT.

Table with 3 columns: Day, Morning, Evening. Rows for Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday.

BRILLIANT YOUGHAL STUDENT

Congratulations to Mr. John L. Doyle, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Doyle, of North Main Street, Youghal, who has been successful in obtaining a Co. Council Scholarship to the U.C.C. at St. Colman's College, Fermoy, valued £250 for four years. He had formerly attended Youghal C.B.S., where he had got his Inter. Cert. with honours.

LATE VERY REV. M. TWHIG, P.P.

His many friends in Youghal will have learned with regret of the death, during the week, of Very Rev. Michael Twohig, P.P., Mounsebbey, who was brother of the late Mr. P. Twohig, of Mulladun, Youghal. A native of Clondrohid, he was curate at Youghal for some years up to 1951, when he was appointed as P.P., Mounsebbey. He was ordained in 1910, when he spent eleven years at Newcastle-on-Tyne and was then recalled to the Cloyne Diocese, where he served at Cloghroe, Dromina, Conna and Malloy.

LATE WILLIAM NORRIS

We regret to record the death which occurred at the weekend, of a member of an old established Youghal family, in the person of Mr. Willie Norris, which took place in London after a short period of illness. The late Mr. Norris, prior to leaving for England in the early forties, was well known in G.A.A. circles being a prominent member of the local hurling team. He served with the Irish Contingent in the Spanish Civil War. He is survived by his widow (formerly Miss B. Aherne of Youghal), three sons and two daughters, his father, Mr. Michael Norris and sister, Mrs. E. Hurley of The Mall, Youghal, to whom sincere sympathy is extended. The funeral took place on Monday last at Shepherd's Bush Cemetery,

FIRE BRIGADE ALERTED

On Tuesday of last week, the local Fire Brigade was alerted to a fire outbreak at the farmyard of Mr. Ed. Lynch, Clonmaine House, Ladysbridge, some 10 miles from Youghal. A large quantity of hay, estimated at 100 tons, blazed furiously in a stone wall shed with corrugated roof, and in which there were tanks of oil and machinery. The efforts of both the Youghal and Middleton Brigades were hampered by the absence of an adequate water supply. After they had exhausted their two 600 gallon supply of water the Brigades were powerless to act even though they got a small supply of water from a stream about half a mile away.

The dwelling house, some 30 feet from the fire escaped, as, luckily, the wind took the flames in the opposite direction. The damage caused was very extensive and the Youghal Brigade did not return home until 12 hours after the alarm was raised.

CONGRATULATIONS

At a recent meeting of the Urban Council, hearty congratulations were extended to Rev. D. O'Connell, on his appointment as Parish Priest of Clondrohid. Fr. O'Connell was senior curate at Youghal parish

Late Miss Margt. McGrath

PARKMORE, MODELIGO

The death occurred in Waterford of Miss Margaret McGrath, Parkmore, Modeligo, sister of the late Mr. James McGrath, Co. Council and Mr. Michael McGrath, Parkmore, who predeceased by some years.

The funeral took place to Modeligo church on Monday and the burial took place in the adjoining cemetery on Tuesday. The chief mourners were: Mrs. C. Tobin, Chapel Rd. (sister), nieces and nephews.
