Cemetery where the interment took place in the family plot.
Rev. Fr. D. McGrath, P.P., Kilgobinet officiated at the graveside, assisted by Rev. M.
O'Farrell, C.C., do.

The chief mourners were:
Mrs. Margaret Quealy (widow);
Miss Cora Quealy, Ballinamuck (daughter); Thomas Quealy, Barraclare, William Quealy, Queensland, Australia (brothers); Mrs. S. Connor, Affane;
Mrs. M. Lynch, Rathrough,
Clonmel and Mrs. K. Power, Lackendarra (sisters).

Sincere sympathy is extended to popular local curate, Rev.
Daniel Byrne, C.C. Dungarvan, on the death of his brother, Mr. David Byrne, V.S., which occurred in Cork on Sunday morning last, at a comparatively early age. The deceased was a native of Lissacree and his passing is all the more poignant by reason of the fact that his sister, Mrs. Liam Ahern, predeceased him by only a short time.

P.O.A. for Dungarvan Brothers

In the light of the fact that they had behaved themselves well since, Judge Mac D. Fawsitt, at Dungarvan Circuit Court on Tuesday, allowed the appeal of the brothers John O'Riordan, 19 Shandon, Dungarvan, and David Joseph O'Riordan, 29 Cathal Brugha Place, against the sentences of three months imprisonment imposed on them by District Justice Skinner at Dungarvan Court when convicted of assaulting Liam Whelan, Cathal Brugha Place, on September 9,
Dr. D. Counahan, State Solr. said, on Sept. 9th, 1964, the two appellants assaulted Whelan. They were before the District Court on that date on a charge of assaulting Whelan.
That case was adjourned on they giving an undertaking not to interfere with Whelan until the case was heard again. But on leaving the Courthouse the two O'Riordan's assaulted Whelan. They were brought back to the Court and after hearing evidence Judge Skinner sentenced the brothers to three months' imprisonment.
Dr. Counahan said that when this appeal came before Judge Fawsitt in November, 1964, the Judge adjourned it for 12 months to see if the appellants would behave themselves and keep the peace. The had done so and the cause of the friction between them and Whelan had also been resolved.
Mr. E. Comyn B.L. (instr. by J. F. Williams & Co.) for the appellants, said they had never been in trouble prior to this and had kept the peace during the past twelve months.
Judge Fawsitt said that in the light of the facts, and that the cause of the friction had been settled, he would apply the P.O.A.

16-YEAR YOUTH FATALLY INJURED

LATE DECLAN BUTLER,
Kiladangan

A gloom was cast over the entire Dungarvan area on Monday last when news broke of the tragic death of sixteen year old Declan Butler, Kiladangan, Dungarvan, following an accident near Ballyneely Cross.

Declan, son of Mr. and Mrs.
Brendan Butler, was on his way to work in Dungarvan, where he was employed as an apprentice mechanic. He was driving a motor cycle which was collision with a van near Bally-neely. He was attended on the scene of the accident by Dr. C.
P. O'Connell, Dungarvan and
Rev. Michael O'Farrell, C.C., Kilgobinet, but was dead on admission to Dungarvan district hospital.

A young boy of unblemished character and immense popularity, his passing under such appallingly tragic circumstances has quite understandably caused widespread grief. Quiet and unassuming, he was a tremendous favourite, something which was fully borne out by the huge concourses at both his funeral and burial.

To his bereaved parents, brothers and sister and other relatives we extend deepest sympathy on this sad occasion.

The remains were removed to Kilgobinet Parish Church on Tuesday evening, followed by one of the largest corteges ever seen in the area. The remains were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. O'Farrell, C.C., Kilgobinet, assisted by Very Rev.
D. McGrath, P.P., Kilgobinet.
Following Requiem Masses on Wednesday morning, the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. Very Rev. Fr.
McGrath officiated at the graveside, assisted by Rev. Fr.
O'Farrell. Another huge concourse, representative of all sections of the community, was present.

The chief mourners were:
Mr. Brendan Butler and Mrs.
Bridget Butler (parents); Billie and Brendan (brothers);
Maura (sister).

Unexpected Passing of Well Known Local Man

LATE NICHOLAS QUEALY
Ballinamuck, Dungarvan

It is with feelings of profound regret that we record the death of Mr. Nicholas Quealy, which occurred most unexpectedly at his residence in Ballinamuck, Dungarvan, on Monday evening last, 29th November. Although in his seventies, his passing was a little premature and was learned with considerable regret and sorrow by all sections of the community.

A native of Barraclare, Ballin-muck, the late Mr. Quealy was widely known throughout this and other counties. It is not often that one meets with men of the integrity and honesty of the deceased, and truly can it be said that it was a privilege to have known him. Never was he known to have uttered a harsh word against anyone, and his unassuming yet jovial manner gained for him widespread popularity and esteem.

His dynamic leadership in business fields was evident from the prosperity of all concerns he was intimately connected with.

For over forty years he was the invaluable Chairman of Ballinamuck Co-Operative Societies. He was Secretary of the Co. Waterford Sheep Breeders Association, and he more than anyone else was responsible for the stupendous successes of their Annual Show and Sale. He was a founder member of the reputable auctioneering firm of

"Quealy and Bailot," and later-ly "Quealy & Co.," whilst he also served efficiently and courteously as Rate Collector for Waterford County Council prior to his retirement.

Nor did his unique business acumen end there. He was Chairman of the Cork Cooperative Marts Ltd. (Dungar-van Branch) and was a shareholder in Clover Meats Ltd.

A devout Catholic, he was, too, a loving husband and a kind and understanding father.
In fact the criterion of his popularity could best be gauged from the attendances at both the removal of remains and burial—attendances that well and truly reflected on the esteem in which this genial man was held.

The remains were removed
on Tuesday evening to St.
Mary's Parish Church and were received and blessed by Rev. J.
Murphy, C.C., Dungarvan, assisted by a very large choir of local clergy and visiting clergy.
Requiem Office and High Mass was sung on Wednesday morning, the celebrant of which was Rev. J. Murphy,
C.C., assisted by Rev. W. Power
C.C., Dungarvan (deacon) and Rev. Fr. Michael Walsh, C.C., Abbeyside (sub-deacon), with Venerable Archdeacon D.
Power, P.P., V.F., Dungarvan
presiding.

In the choir were: Rev. Fr. P.
Dower, C.C., St. Mary's Clonmel (brother-in-law of the deceased); Very Rev. John Canon Ahern, Carrigtwohill; Very
Rev. Canon D. Power, P.P.,

TALLOW NOTES

DEATH OF MR. M. O'KEEFE
 We regret to record the death of Mr. Maurice O'Keefe, Newport, Knockanore, which occurred at Dungarvan District Hospital, on Wednesday, 24th November, following a brief illness and at a comparatively early age. The late Mr. O'Keefe was a well-known fisherman on the Blackwater. Of a quiet and inoffensive nature, he made many friends, who now deeply mourn his loss.

The remains, accompanied by a large cortege, were removed to the Church of the Sacred Heart, Knockanore, and the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery following Requiem Masses at 10 a.m. and 10.30 a.m., on Friday, 26th November. Very Rev. Michael Power, P.P., Knockanore, assisted by Rev. Sean Nugent, C.C., Glendine, officiated.

To his brother and relatives we extend our deepest sympathy.

SALE OF TILLAGE LANDS
 Mr. Norman Walsh, M.I.A.A., Cappoquin, conducted a successful sale of tillage lands for the Irish Land Commission, of portion of the Heaborough Estate, on Thursday, 25th November. It realised from £3 to £4-10-0 per acre. This may appear a very low price for tillage lands, but it must be realised that the lands in question had been tilled and cropped over the past few years.

PRIEST'S LECTURE
 Rev. Fr. Timothy Twomey, Palatine Order, who is on a six months holiday from the Mission field of Tanganyika, Africa, gave a lecture illustrated with lantern slides, at Dungourney Hall, recently. The lecture dealt with the missionary work of the Order in Africa. Fr. Twomey is brother of Miss M. Twomey, Chapel St., Tallow.

SYMPATHY
 We wish to extend our deep sympathy to the O'Farrell family, Ballyduff, on the death of their mother, which sad event occurred last week.

LATE MRS. O'BRIEN
 We regret to record the death of Mrs. M. O'Brien, Park, Youghal, which occurred at her residence, last week. Deceased was a member of an old and highly respected Ballynoe family. She was relict of Mr. Thomas Henry O'Brien, who was the last lineal descendant of the Marquis of Thomond, in this part of Ireland. There was a large and representative cortege at the removal of the remains to St. Patrick's Church, Inch, and at the funeral and interment in the North Abbey Cemetery, Youghal.

£250 Decree for Lismore Driver

An accident between two motor cars on the Vee road between Clogheen and Lismore had a sequel at Dungarvan Circuit Court on Wednesday, when Philip Kennedy, c/o Favourite Cafe, Cahir, claimed £140 damages against Cornelius Willoughby, Mechanic and Hackney Driver, Ballyrafter, Lismore. Willoughby counter-claimed £231-16-5 for damages to his car and a further £100 for car depreciation. Judge S. Mac D. Fawcitt dismissed Kennedy's claim, allowed Willoughby's counter claim for car damages, but only allowed £25 for car depreciation.

Mr. F. Morris, B.L. (instructed by E. A. Ryan & Co., Solrs.) for Kennedy, said on March 23rd last, his client, who was employed by the Dept. of Agriculture, was travelling over the Vee to Lismore. He rounded a sharp turn doing only about five miles an hour and in second gear. Having rounded the bend he then accelerated and went into third gear and then into top. He had travelled between 400 and 500 yards up the hill, doing about 37 miles an hour when he saw the defendant's (Willoughby) Mercedes car. There was a heavy fog and he only saw it when it was about 25 yards away. It was coming on its incorrect side and in the agony of the moment his client jerked to the right, but there was an impact. The impact took place about 10 inches on his client's incorrect side, but the reason for that was that Mr. Kennedy had to jerk his car to the right to avoid the Mercedes. The damages claimed in his client's bill amounted to £410-10-0.

The Plaintiff, Mr. Philip Kennedy, in evidence, said he was an employee of the Dept. of Agriculture. On this morning about 9.15 a.m. he was coming up the Vee on his way to Lismore, driving an Anglia car. He went round the sharp bend in second gear doing about five or seven miles an hour. It was foggy and visibility was down to about 25 yards. Having rounded the bend he accelerated away and was on his correct side of the road. He then saw a car coming for him straight in his path and on its incorrect side. It was a Mercedes Benz car. He swerved to the right to avoid it, but he could not and there was an impact. The accident occurred about 10 inches on his own incorrect side of the road because he had to swerve to the right to avoid the other car. He subsequently had the car examined and it was a complete write off. He sold it for scrap value and got £50 for it.

Replying to Mr. E. Comyn, B.L., for Mr. Willoughby, witness admitted that he was slightly late that morning, but he was not driving faster than he should have been because of this. He could not remember what happened after he (witness) swerved over to the right to avoid Willoughby.

Mr. James Wyse said he examined Kennedy's car after the accident. It was a 1962 Anglia and he would value it at between £325 and £350. After the accident he bought it from Kennedy for scrap value and paid £50 for it.

The defendant and counter-claimant, Mr. Cornelius Willoughby, said he was driving a passenger car that morning. There was thick fog and he was doing about 25 miles an hour going down the steep hill. Just before the accident he was driving his Mercedes Benz inside the mark of the new surface on the road where it had been widened considerably, leaving the old surface completely free for all oncoming traffic. Suddenly an oncoming car seemed to come at him at a right angle across the road and hit his car. He could not avoid him and he was afraid to swerve to his left because he might have gone in over the small wall of stone and clay, where there was a sheer drop. The Anglia car was travelling on its incorrect side and he seemed to be coming very fast. He (witness) drove over this road in fog and fine weather and knew it well. For that reason he was going very steadily. His Mercedes was being repaired at the moment and his claim was for car damage and depreciation.

Replying to Mr. F. Morris, B.L. (for Kennedy) witness said there was no part of his car on its incorrect side. Kennedy seemed to come at him from an angle.

Mr. M. Sargent, (Jnr.) of Michael Sargent & Sons, Ltd., Cappoquin, said he examined Mr. Willoughby's Mercedes and estimated the cost of repairing it at £231-16-5. There would also be considerable depreciation and he would estimate this at £100. It was a 1961 car and cost £1,250 new.

To Mr. Morris he said the pre-accident value of the car was £600 and when finally repaired he would value it at £500.

Summing up, Judge Wawrha said the onus was on the respective parties to prove their respective claims. After the accident Mr. Willoughby's car was on its correct side and Mr. Kennedy could not really say how it got there. Mr. Kennedy endeavoured as best he could to relate what happened, but it was his (Justice) opinion that Mr. Kennedy did not really know what happened. He preferred the story of Mr. Willoughby, but this was not to say that Mr. Kennedy had committed perjury. He would have to dismiss his claim however Mr. Willoughby's counter-claim was entitled to succeed. He would not, however, agree to his claim for £100 for car depreciation, and he assessed this at £25. He then gave a total decree for £256-16-0—£231-16-0 for car damage, as claimed, and £25 for car depreciation. He also allowed Willoughby costs on the counter claim and 25 guineas cost towards the actual claim.

He allowed a stay, under the usual terms in the event of an appeal.

Chairman's Casting Vote Decides INCREASE FOR TOWN ENGINEER

Despite objections from some members of the Dungarvan Urban Council the local Town Engineer, Mr. Patrick Walsh is to get a salary increase. It was decided on the casting vote of the Chairman. At their monthly meeting in Dungarvan on Friday night last three members were for a new scale of salary rising from £920 to £1,140 a year for the part-time engineer, and three voted against it.

Mr. T. Lee said he thought the town engineer's salary at the moment was big enough as it was only a part-time position. He would not approve of giving more money to him as the ordinary man in the street was put to the pin of his collar to meet his rates, rent and other commitments. He did not want anybody to think that he was up against the town engineer but he felt that he was getting enough money as it was.

The Town Clerk, Mr. P. Doyle, said that the granting of the increase was subject to the approval of the Council. Other engineering personnel had received increases with effect from October, 1963.

If granted, he said, the increase would mean an increase in the rates in Dungarvan of about 4d. in the £.

The Chairman (Mr. T. A. Kyne) said that if the Council did not grant the increase to the engineer he would have the right to appeal to the Minister for Local Government. He thought that the engineer in Dungarvan was entitled to the increase seeing as all the other engineers throughout the country had got it.

Mr. R. Walsh said he was against the type of increases before the meeting as they attempted to make the rich richer and the poor poorer. However, the work of the town engineer must have increased considerably over the last few years and he always found him a very courteous official to the members of the Council. He thought they should keep in line with the wages granted to engineers in other towns as it was not fair they would get third rate engineers when they advertised for one. If they did not grant the increase it would be given over their heads by the Minister.

Mr. N. Hackett said it was funny that a woman who served meals in the Christian Brothers Schools in Dungarvan had been refused an increase in her wages. She was getting 4/- a day for serving meals and the Co. Manager had turned down her increase. The money she was getting would not be given to a messenger boy. He could not see how the Co. Manager could refuse one increase and pass on to the Council another one.

The Chairman proposed and Mr. Walsh seconded that the increase be granted to the town engineer and three members voted for the increase and three against. The Chairman then used his casting vote to carry the proposal.

The voting was: For—Colrs. Kyne, R. Walsh, Kelly, against—Colrs. Lee, Whelan, Hackett.

Mr. Hackett proposed and Mr. Lee seconded that the salary of the woman who served the meals in the C.B.S. be increased by 10/- a week and this was passed.

Thomas Jones (20), of 33 St. Mary's Tce., Fermoy, appealed against a one-month jail sentence imposed on him at Tallow District Court on October 10th when convicted of assaulting an attendant at the Arch Ballroom, Tallow, on the night of Sept. 7th.

Dr. D. Counahan, State Solicitor, had on the night in question, Jones had an amount of drink taken and at 11.45 p.m. was anxious to gain admission to a dance in the Arch Ballroom in Tallow. One of the attendants, Patrick Buckley, tried to prevent his entry, and Jones struck him in the mouth. A Garda Sergeant was present and he was taken to the Garda Station. He was then sentenced to one month's imprisonment by the District Justice. There was nothing against him previously.

Mr. E. Comyn, B.L. (for the appellant) said he would be asking for leniency. His mother was a widow and one of his sisters was an invalid. He was presently in employment earning £6 a week and gave his mother £3 of that which was her only income. His father died five or six years ago. Jones wished to apologise to the Court and to Mr. Buckley.

Mr. Comyn went on to state that on this night Jones bought an "all-in" ticket for the dance which included the charge for bus and dance. He visited a married sister in Tallow and he and his sister's husband had about five pints. When he went to the dance hall he would not be admitted. He had a character reference from his Judge Fawcitt: I want this man to learn a lesson. Mr. Comyn: I think he has learnt that lesson. His previous good character should I think come to his rescue now. He was not with a gang that night, but went out drinking with his brother-in-law.

In reply to a question by Judge Fawcitt, Sgt. Griffin said these incidents were only temporary in this area.

Judge Fawcitt said he would give Jones a chance this time. He imposed a fine of £5 instead and allowed him one month to pay.

Then addressing Jones, Judge Fawcitt said: "I will remove the sentence, but you are very lucky the Sergeant had that report to make about these kind of incidents in his area."

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

CAPPOQUIN BACON FACTORY SOCIAL CLUB
 The annual general meeting of the above was held recently at Conway's Hotel, Cappoquin, and the interment in St. Declan's Cemetery took place on Friday, Very Rev. J. Canon O'Meara, C.C., officiated on both occasions. The large attendance at the obsequies testified to the esteem and regard in which the deceased was held. The chief mourners were Mrs. E. Spillane (widow); Mr. Denis Spillane (brother), Mr. J. E. Crowe (brother-in-law). (Funeral arrangements by A. Walsh and Sons).

DEATH OF W. L. DOYLE
 We record with very deep regret the death of Mr. Wm. H. Doyle which took place at his home on Friday morning after a brief illness. Eldest son of the late Mr. B. F. Doyle, he was a member of one of Cappoquin's oldest families. In his youth he and his brother David, now resident in Cork, were prominent as oarsmen. His duties as a postal servant brought him into contact with a large section of the public by whom he was held in much regard and esteem. His widow and son have been the recipients of many expressions of sympathy in their bereavement. The remains were brought to the Parish Church on Saturday evening followed by a large cortege and the burial in St. Declan's Cemetery on Sunday was attended by a very large number of mourners. Very Rev. J. Canon Kenneally, P.P., and Rev. M. O'Meara, C.C., officiated at the obsequies. The chief mourners were: Mrs. Doyle (wife), Bartholomew (son), David, Nicolas and Batt (all of Cork (brothers)); Mrs. J. Santry, New York; Mrs. E. Kelly, Summerhill, Cork; Mrs. E. Black, Rushbrook, Cove, and Mrs. K. Lupton, Youghal (sisters). (Undertaking by A. Walsh & Sons, Cappoquin).

DEATH OF MR. J. SPILLANE
 The death of Mr. John (Jack) Spillane of Tivoli Terrace, took place at Lismore District Hospital on Wednesday, 24th Nov. News of his passing was received over a wide area with much regret and his many friends extend their sympathy to his bereaved wife and brother. He was a veteran of World War I in which he was decorated for bravery receiving the Military Medal and the Distinguished Conduct Medal. The remains were removed to St. Mary's Church on Thursday and the interment in St. Declan's Cemetery took place on Friday. Very Rev. J. Canon O'Meara, C.C., officiated on both occasions. The large attendance at the obsequies testified to the esteem and regard in which the deceased was held. The chief mourners were Mrs. E. Spillane (widow); Mr. Denis Spillane (brother), Mr. J. E. Crowe (brother-in-law). (Funeral arrangements by A. Walsh and Sons).

How to enjoy Christmas in the kitchen...

and have a happy, modern New Year

Let's face it. Like most mothers you probably see more of turkey, stuffing and pudding on Christmas Day than you do of your family and friends. True, a modern Kosangas cooker like this New World 43XU won't completely end all that; but it will make Christmas cooking a lot faster, easier, and more economical (and maybe even tastier) than you've ever known it before. And you'll have more time to relax outside the kitchen.

A gift that isn't over with Christmas

Take a look at the modern, everyday advantages of the New World 43XU. The large, quick-heating grill is at eye level, so there's no bending. The four burners light automatically and are instantly ready to boil or simmer. And that large, drop-door oven (naturally, it will take your Christmas turkey) has a special low setting for warming plates and keeping food hot.

Time to drop a gentle hint

Tell your husband your Kosangas dealer will put the New World 43XU in your kitchen in time for Christmas, for just £4.15.4. down (including 2 cylinders of Kosangas) and 36 monthly payments of £1.11.5. Total Hire Purchase price £59.11.6. (excl. gas). Cash price £47.17.4. (inc. 2 cylinders of Kosangas). If that doesn't convince him, you could mention that a Kosangas cooker is more economical to operate than any other modern cooker. If he's still adamant, tell him his meals will be more delicious than ever. That should do it!

Ask your local dealer for the new Kosangas Christmas Recipe Leaflet.

You can trust the cheerful blue flame of

APPRECIATION

Mrs. W. Condon, Ballinacuck wishes to express to the present pupils, the parents and the past pupils of Killishal N.S., her sincere gratitude for the very wonderful gifts recently presented to her, on their behalf.

A special word of thanks to Very Rev. Fr. Quinlan, P.P., and to the organisers, who went to so much trouble to ensure the success of the presentation.

These wonderful gifts symbolise the friendship and co-operation which always existed between the people of the district and their teacher during her long association with them.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

CROKE. — Patrick J. Croke, Stella Maris, wishes to thank all who sympathised with him on the death of his brother, Tom, U.S.A. (R.I.P.) and also those who sent Mass cards. As a token of appreciation, Holy Mass will be offered for their intentions.

IN MEMORIAM

AHEARNE and VEALE—(15th Anniversaries)—In fond and loving memory of our dear mother Catherine Ahearne, Monastery Lodge, Dungarvan, who died on 4th December, 1950, and her sister, Bridget Veale, who died on 14th November, 1950, and their friend Essie McCarthy, who died on 5th December, 1960. On their souls Sweet Jesus have mercy. Masses offered.

Will those who think of them, to-day,

A little prayer to Jesus say—
(—Inserted by Ada, Gretta and Terry)

MAHER—(5th Anniversary)—In loving memory of Edmund Maher, Ballygagh House, Dungarvan, who died December 4th, 1960.
(—Inserted by widow and family)

MCCARTHY—(8th Anniversary)—In loving memory of our dear father, Thomas McCarthy, late of 18 St. Thomas' Terrace, and U.D.C., who died on 5th December, 1957. Also our grand mother, Catherine McCarthy, whose anniversary occurs on 8th December. Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal and St. Anthony intercede for them. R.I.P. Masses offered.

Memories are something no one can steal. Death is a heart break, no one can heal. Some may forget you now, you are gone, Dad. But we will remember, no matter how long. Though heaven and earth divide us. And distance seems a lot. There's a flower that blossoms between us. The sweet "forget me-not." Whatever else we fail to do, We'll never forget, Dad, to pray for you.
(—Always in our prayers—Kitty, Philomena and Pauline)

IN MEMORIAM

MAHONY (3rd anniversary)—In sad and loving memory of Thomas Mahony, Coolroe, Old Parish who died on Dec. 31st, 1962. On his soul Sweet Jesus have mercy. R.I.P. Masses offered.

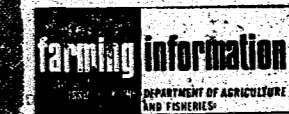

Will those who think of him to-day,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(—Inserted by his loving wife and family)

STONE (1st anniversary)—In loving memory of Mrs. Constance M. Stone, Tou-nore, Dungarvan, who died 9th Dec., 1964. On her soul Sweet Jesus have mercy. Masses offered. R.I.P.—Will those who think of her to-day,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(—Inserted by her loving family)

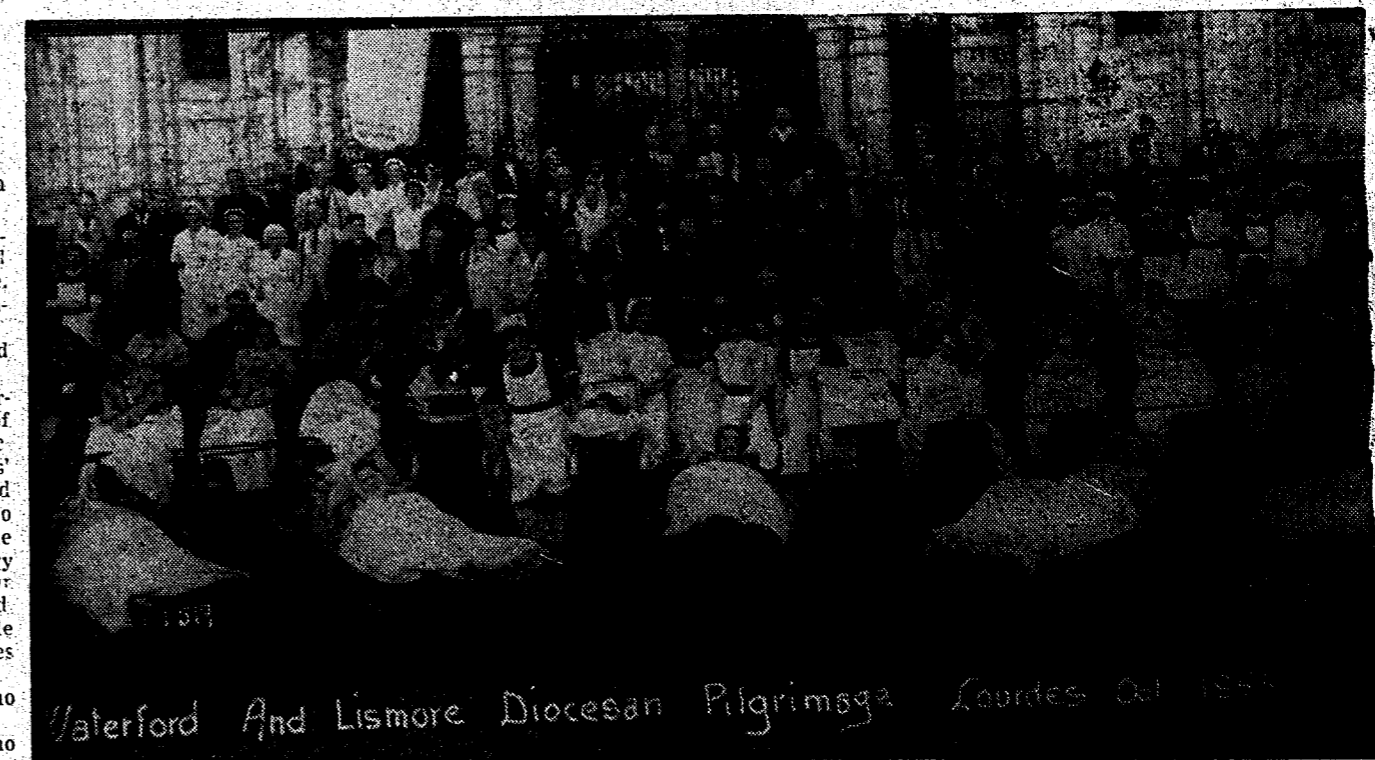

Let this year be Lime Year

- Ground Limestone means heavier crop yields.
- It improves grassland and helps you to carry more stock.
- The Government pays the cost of transport to your farm.
- Credit facilities, including the Land Project Fertilizers Scheme, are available.
- This is an ideal time of the year for liming.

Why not call in your local Agricultural Adviser now — he will tell you what you need.

Driving Suspension Lifted

A driving suspension of six months, imposed by District Justice L. B. Skinner at Tallow, on Mrs. Joan O'Donovan, Knockanore, Co. Waterford, was removed on appeal to Judge Sean Mac D. Fawsitt at Dungarvan Circuit Court on Tuesday. Judge Fawsitt, however, allowed the District Court fine of £3 to stand, and warned her that she should not appear before him on a dangerous driving charge again.

Dr. D. Counahan, State Solr., said Mrs. O'Donovan was convicted of driving a car at a speed and in a manner dangerous to the public at Tallow Court. She was fined £3 and her driving licence was suspended for six months.

Mr. Philip Murray, a farmer of Ballyphilip, Knockanore, said on June 21st last, he was driving his car, in which his wife was a passenger. Between Tallow and Youghal, approaching a bend coming down hill, he saw a car coming which he thought was very much on its incorrect side. He pulled in as far as he could to the grass margin. The other car was pulling a horse-box, and whilst he avoided the car he could not avoid the horse box. The win of his car was ripped off. The horse-box wheel got punctured and it flew off. He spoke to the other driver (Mrs. O'Donovan) and she did not claim to be all that wrong.

Replying to Mr. S. Brosnan, (for Mrs. O'Donovan), Mr. Murray said he did not see the horse-box before rounding the bend. If she had not got a horse-box he did not think there would have been any accident. He had been compensated in full for the damage to his car.

Garda Francis M. Breen, Tallow, said he visited the scene of the accident and saw a car there with a horse-box attached on its incorrect side. The road at this point was less than fourteen feet wide and it was raining heavily at the time of the accident.

The following day, Mrs. O'Donovan called to Tallow

Garda Barracks. She made a statement in which she said she was driving at about 25 miles an hour and thinking the road was clear she cut the bend somewhat.

Mr. Thomas Moloney, a passenger in Mrs. O'Donovan's car, said Mrs. O'Donovan was on her incorrect side and he did not think Mr. Murray would have had room to get by.

In direct evidence, the appellant Mrs. Joan O'Donovan, said she was driving her car that day and was towing a horse-box. As she came to the bend she cut the corner because her car was an old one and she wanted to give it as little strain as possible. That was her reason for cutting the corner.

Judge Fawsitt—If you had not taken the short cut this accident would not have happened.

Mrs. O'Donovan said when she saw the other car she pulled in as far as she could. She thought she was clear and was surprised when there was an impact.

Mr. S. Brosnan, B.L. (for Mrs. O'Donovan) said he would submit that it was careless driving by his client. There was no evidence of speeding and it was really an error of judgment.

Judge Fawsitt said he would dismiss the speeding section of the charge. The evidence in this case was clear and even Mrs. O'Donovan herself had very fairly stated that she had cut the bend. She was in the wrong and the question now was what would the penalty be. She made every effort to get out of the way of the other car and was unlucky in not being able to do so. There being no frightful amount of damage done, he thought that justice would be done in finding her guilty of driving carelessly. The financial penalty of the District Justice would stand, but he would not impose any driving restriction on her. He would recommend, however, that she would not appear before him again on a dangerous driving charge.

DUNGARVAN MUSICAL AND CHORAL SOCIETY

On Sunday last, Telefis Eirann producer Adrian Cronin rehearsed the Society for its appearance on the "Late, Late Show" on Saturday, 10th December and expressed his complete satisfaction with the singing and dancing routines. In addition to the "Late, Late Show" presentation, the Society is currently rehearsing for their annual concert which will be held early in January. This is not a repeat of last year's highly successful concert but an entirely new programme, if anything, more colourful and spectacular than the first Minstrel Show. Full details will be given in a later issue.

NO OBJECTION TO OFFICIAL USING IRISH

There was no objection to the officials using Irish where possible during their work but it would be crazy to have applications for grants in Irish as the people would not know what they are, said Dep. T. A. Kyne, T.D., Chairman at Friday night's meeting of the Dungarvan Urban Council when a circular letter was read from the Secretary, Dept. of Local Government.

The circular urged officials and members of local authorities to use the Irish language in the administration of the affairs of local authorities when possible.

The Town Clerk said the circular urges the members and staff of the Council to take a more positive approach to the revival of the Irish language and to use the language in day to day activities.

Mr. T. Lee said that some of the children in the schools nowadays did not know either Irish or English.

Obituary.

It is with deep sorrow that we record the unexpected passing of Mrs. Katie Mason, Kilmacthomas, which sad event occurred at Ardkeen Hospital, Waterford. She was mother of Michael, James and Pauline, all of whom reside in London. Possessed of a bountiful supply of good humour and kindness, these characteristics won for her very many friends.

We extend our condolences to her heartbroken sons, daughter and grandchildren on this sad occasion.

The remains were removed on Wednesday, 24th November to St. Anne's Church, Ballylance, followed by a large cortege and were received and blessed by Rev. M. Flynn, C.C. Requiem Mass was offered on Thursday morning for the repose of her gentle soul and the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery amidst every manifestation of profound sorrow. Rev. M. Flynn, C.C., officiated at the graveside.

A large number of Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy were received by her family and relatives.

Lectures.—Mr. P. J. O'Sullivan, Instructor in Horticulture, delivered some very interesting lectures on shelter, fruit and vegetable growing. Lectures were held at Stradbally and Newtown national schools.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. Michael White, Dunhill, the well known athlete and hurler on his recent election as chairman of the County Waterford Board, N.A.C.A.

Question Time, under the auspices of St. Anne's Guild, Muintir na Tire, will be held at Spring Valley Hall, Bonmahon, on Tuesday, 7th December. You are cordially invited to attend, so make a note of the date.

Sympathy.—Miss E. Power, Dunhill, who died last week, was sister of Mrs. M. Walsh, Railway View, Kilmacthomas, to whom we tender sincere sympathy.

Sincere Gratitude.—On last Sunday at the Masses in Ballylance, the priests announced that the following donations had been received from parishioners: £70 towards the new Confessional; £10 towards the Sanctuary Fund; £11.10.0 towards the Sanctuary Fund, and £1 from the school-children towards the Sanctuary Fund.

In making these announcements, Very Rev. Father Farrell and Rev. Fr. Flynn thanked the donors for their kindness and generosity.

Trees on road.—In the small hours of Monday morning, a large tree was uprooted and fell across the main road near Stafford Lodge, Kilmacthomas. Traffic was diverted for some time.

Wedding.—On the feast of Our Lady's Saturday, Miss Nora Morrissey, Opposite Post Office, Kilmacthomas, was married to Mr. John Dwan, Bonmahon, at Newtown Parish Church. The ceremony was performed by Very Rev. Fr. P. Power, P.P., Newtown, in the presence of relatives, friends and well-wishers.

A reception was held at Dooly's Hotel, Waterford, where upwards of 50 guests were entertained.

The happy couple left later for a tour of Ireland. Many costly and serviceable wedding gifts were received by the happy couple. We wish the popular couple many years of wedded bliss.

Vehicles will be Blessed.—The Blessing of vehicles in the parish of Stradbally will take place after both Masses on Sunday next.

Council's Congratulations

At the monthly meeting of the Dungarvan Urban Council on Friday night the members passed a vote of congratulations to the new Bishop Elect of Waterford and Lismore, Most Rev. Dr. Russell on his appointment as Bishop.

Council defer Right-of-Way Issue

He thought that the little cove at Lamliscend, just outside Dungarvan Town was one of the beauty spots of West Waterford, said Mr. T. A. Kyne, T.D., Chairman at Friday night's meeting of the Dungarvan Urban Council when the members discussed the right of way to the cove.

The Town Clerk (Mr. P. Doyle) said that he had received an application from four men who proposed to build four dwelling houses in the area of the cove. What the Council was concerned about was preserving the right of way to the strand and the men who were building the houses had offered the Council less than an acre of land for £650 to be used as a right of way.

On the suggestion of the Chairman, it was decided to appoint a three-man deputation—Dep. T. A. Kyne, Chairman; Mr. P. Doyle and Mr. P. Walsh, town engineer—to meet the four men and discuss the matter.

ARDMORE PRIESTS' LECTURE

"Ecumenism was the long-term policy which missionary minded Christians had developed to remove the scandal of Christian disunity so that the world might believe" said Rev. Fr. M. Hurley, S.J., at the Catholic Graduate Lectures in Newman House, Dublin.

CLASHMORE G.A.A. CHRISTMAS MEET

The usual Christmas season joint meet of the West Waterford and Dungarvan Harriers will take place at Clashmore this year on Monday, 27th Dec. at 12 o'clock. A big day is assured in the historic centre.

SAFETY FIRST QUESTION TIME

As already announced the big question in connection with Safety First week will be held at Kinsalebeg Hall on Tuesday night next, 7th Dec. Three teams from Clashmore and Kinsalebeg will compete and £10 will be awarded in prizes.

BRIDGE IMPROVEMENT

Work on the extension of the bridge and easing on bent at Renaboola has begun. This important work will be welcomed by all. It is understood that the estimated cost is £1,100.

NEW SCHOOLS

The construction of the new schools at Clashmore and Ballycurrane is well advanced. The former is a three-room building and the latter a one-room building and one of modern design.

DEATH OF MR. T. J. VEREKER

Deep sympathy is extended to Mrs. Maureen Vereker on the recent death at an early age of her husband, Mr. Timothy J. Vereker, of Provincial Bank, Cork, and a native of Tramore.

DEATH OF MR. MICHAEL LOMBARD

We regret to announce the death, following a brief illness, of Mr. Michael Lombard, Drumgalane, Grange. A popular and respected member of the agricultural community, deceased was noted for his many amiable characteristics.

TRIBUTE TO LATE MR. COSGRAVE

At a recent meeting of the Youghal U.D.C., Colr. Hickey proposed that the meeting adjourn as a mark of respect to the memory of the late Mr. W. T. Cosgrave, a great Irishman and soldier who fought in 1916 and was the first President of the Executive Council of the Irish Free State.

SEVERE GALES AND RAIN

Over the week-end Youghal has had its heaviest rain of the season with a 12-hour torrential downpour. It was not confined to Youghal area but was widespread throughout the rural area.

Deep regret was occasioned at the death last week after a brief illness of a well-known member of the community and a highly esteemed Youghal family in the person of Mrs. Catherine Geary which took place at her residence 1 Water Street, Youghal.

TABLE TENNIS

The Parochial Hall Table Tennis team defeated Christchurch in Cork last week by 5 games to 4. On the Youghal team were Mr. J. Coppithorne, Miss Flo Ellis and Miss Lynda Gleeson.

COUNCIL OFFICERS CONGRATULATED

The Urban Council tendered its congratulations to the Asst. Co-Engineer, Mr. T. D. Buckley, B.E., and the Co. Council Foreman, Mr. P. McGarthy on the very excellent work done in removing the bottle-neck at the Loretto Convent road where the road is widened to such an extent that no matter what the traffic the road can safely accommodate it.

YOUGHAL STRAND PROTECTION

Recently blame was placed on the Board of Works for the delay in the Strand improvement scheme which seemingly was shelved for a considerable time. Originally the work of planning etc. was the function of the County Council but it was transferred to the Board of Works.

LATE MISS M. O'DONNELL

Miss M. O'Donnell, Glenshank, Lismore, who has died was a member of a very well-known West Waterford farming family. She was predeceased some months ago by her brother, Mr. Patrick O'Donnell.

CONTROVERSIAL GOAL Cross-Bar Saved BEAT AFFANE Ardmore

DUNHILL RALLY SNATCHED LATE VICTORY

DUNHILL 4-6; AFFANE 5-2

THE record books in time to come will reveal that Dunhill annexed the county junior hurling championship for 1965 with a one-point victory over Affane. But that self same historical manuscript will never reveal the heart-break hour this was for Western champions Affane, who sensationally surrendered an eight point lead when it seemed nothing could deprive them of a magnificent victory.

There can be no going round the contention that this was a final Affane "threw out the door." Right through the vital second half of last Sunday's decider at the Dunmore East ground they held undisputed mastery—until that fatal crack up when the belated scores were conceded and which turned this into a hurling calamity for them.

As a spectacle the final could not have been better. The standard of hurling left nothing to be desired and indeed seldom can any decider have produced so pulsating and spell-binding a finish.

CONTROVERSIAL GOAL But whenever this final is recalled—as it most definitely will, the main point of conversation and discussion will undoubtedly be the sequence which led up to Dunhill's first goal of the second half. Affane at this stage were in rampant mood and had just stretched their lead to 3-2 to 0-6 through a goal by Danny Coughlan. Then Dunhill's Paddy Hally centred a well-directed ball but as the leather dropped dangerously goalwards, the Affane "keeper Coughlan was unquestionably impeded with, and there was substitute Mce Dunphy to crack the ball to the empty net. In the writer's opinion this should most definitely have been a free out to Affane, and in the final analysis this score had quite a bearing on the final outcome.

Affane too, were further, handicapped when forced to lineout without ace-forward Mossie Connors because of injury. At half-time this All-Ireland medal holder was pressed into action but a further aggravation of his injury again slowed him down completely and nullified the threat he would undoubtedly have presented to the Dunhill defence.

When Dunhill fired over three points within the opening eight minutes it seemed as though the Western titleholders were in for a real drubbing. But such was not the case and Eddie Shea opened their account with a their account with a the 10th, and three minutes later Bob Troy equalised when he literally "buried" a 21 yard free. Hannigan and Power replied with a brace of Dunhill points but again Affane hit back and Tony McCarthy pointed a close-in free. Affane mentors then made a really shrewd move by placing Bob Troy at full-forward and no sooner had he taken over in that sector when he again had the ball nestling in the Dunhill net. Thus Affane turned over leading by 2-2 to 0-6 at the interval.

Their hopes soared still further early in the second half when Danny Coughlan goal and shortly afterwards came the Dunhill controversial goal—a score that should never have been allowed. But again Affane surged upfield and goals by Michael Cahill and Pat Denn by the 11th minute gave them a really commanding eight point lead.

In the 19th minute Francie Drohan had a Dunhill goal, but when Affane were still five points clear entering the closing five minutes a memorable Affane victory looked all "sewn-up."

Then came tragedy with a capital T for them. Substitute Dunphy banged home another major, and then two minutes from time full-back Paddy Power who moved to full forward, slammed home the decisive and winning goal.

MEMORABLE For Dunhill of course it was a memorable triumph. And if this win was tinged considerably with luck and good fortune, it took a side of tremendous fighting spirit to come from behind as they did. It was in short, the acid test of this side.

They were excellently served in goal by Robbie Power, and in defence full-back Paddy Power was superb, and crowned a great display by snatching the winning score. Their half-back trio of Jim Dunphy, Willie Power and Michael Barry also shone.

For half an hour Michael Hannigan and Paddy Hally were tops at midfield and in front substitute Maurice Dunphy, Francie Drohan and Eddie Power were the heroes.

Affane, though defeat was their bitter portion, did themselves, and the Western Division, proud, in this final. They went under eventually in heartbreaking fashion, but whilst they can continue to have displays of this quality, their supreme hour of achievement cannot be long delayed.

Their defence tried all it knew, and I have particularly in mind full back Paddy McGrath, corner man Tom Stapleton and half backs Sean Buckley and Eddie Shea.

Paddy McGrath and Bill Flynn had some great moments at midfield, particularly in the second half and they by no means let the side down.

And the attack too snapped up scoring chances in expert fashion. Just as in the Western final, Bob Troy was the real danger man, and he was given great assistance by Danny Coughlan, Michael Cahill and Pat Denn.

Dunhill—R. Power; P. Murphy; P. Power; P. Lyons; J. Dunphy; W. Power; M. Barry; M. Hannigan; P. Hally; F. Drohan; E. Power; O. Fleming; F. Power; J. Casey; F. Crowley.

Affane—J. Coughlan; T. Stapleton; P. McGrath; J. McGrath; M. Scanlon; S. Buckley; E. O'Shea; P. McGrath; B. Flynn; D. Coughlan; B. Troy; P. Denn; M. Cahill; T. McCarthy; B. Burns.

Referee : Mossie McGrath (Dungarvan).

But Draw Fitting Result

OLD PARISH 1-3; ARDMORE 0-6

THE intervention of a cross-bar was sufficient to deprive gallant Old Parish of an hour of football glory at Dungarvan's Fraher Field on Sunday last. Time was almost up in an exciting Western Junior final and these great neighbouring rivals were locked in scoring deadlock. But then Old Parish were awarded a free about thirty yards out and on this kick the whole result quite obviously hinged. But to the frustration of the huge Old Parish following the effort of Harry O'Donnell came thudding off the cross bar, and Ardmore had lived to do battle in a replay at the same venue on Sunday next.

Yet, unfortunately though they Western final provided spectators with a fine hour's foot of outright victory in the ball. The standard of play was dying moments, even Old Parish themselves will I'm sure concede that a draw white heat of battle, earned in all the circumstances was the most fitting result. For the exemplary sportsmanship this was a game in which neither of two fine sides de- served to taste defeat, and that way at the call of time, replay will now be even more eagerly awaited.

Viewed in any light, this these finalists were. In the game's preview I opted for an Ardmore victory, but as anticipated the Old Parish men rose to the big occasion in wondrous fashion, and now that this drawn game will have boosted their morale still further, they must command the utmost respect.

TONIC START

The Reds had a tonic start being a goal up within ten seconds. From the throw-in mid-field possession put them on the offensive and an Ardmore defensive blunder was capitalised on by Maurice Wade who calmly planted the ball in the net. An exchange of points followed and Old Parish still held that valuable goal advantage. But then as half-time approached Ardmore took definite control and a string of well-taken points had the sides level—1-1 to 0-4 at the half-way stage.

But if that opening half had been brimful of incident and thrills, what followed the change of ends was even of a more pulsating nature. The lead interchanged hands in a welter of ever mounting excitement, with first Old Parish and then Ardmore hitting the front. Then with the clock ticking over the 57th minute came the first of two vital Old Parish frees. The first one saw Harry O'Donnell loft over the equalising point and then almost on the hour-came the second from which only the cross-bar saved Ardmore.

But as already stated it would have been a real tragedy of justice had either side gone under. This draw was unquestionably the most equitable of results, and certainly if next Sunday's replay is only half as good then patrons will be well satisfied.

Pre-match opinion rated Ardmore warm favourites. They had swept aside all other opposition with almost ridiculous ease and quite truthfully Old Parish, on their way to the decider did not produce anything that suggested they could halt the Seaside's. But how very wrong they proved us all to be. They turned in their best, display of the year when the occasion demanded it of them and certainly made all their other displays look mediocre in comparison.

Their defence outplayed the Ardmore attack over-all, with Michael Mahony, full-back John Terry, Dick Murphy and centre-back John Dower all outstanding.

At midfield Michael Joseph Power had a fine second half, while his partner Pat Flavin was in dominant form throughout.

Their attack however, hard though all six tried, was up against a really solid Ardmore defence. The half time of O'Donnell, Leahy and Langan presented the greatest threat, but Maurice Wade took his goal in expert fashion.

And what of Ardmore? On Sunday they surely got more than they themselves bargained for, yet, when pressure was at its greatest they too were not found wanting.

The star of their defence was undoubtedly centre-back Pato Keever's who towered over friend and foe alike, and was well supported by Gerry Dwyer and Pat Flavin.

At midfield Michael Reilly and Diarmuid Cashman, particularly Reilly, had some fine moments of prominence, but up front they too found the Old Parish rearguard in uncompromising vein. Full forward Matty Cronin was the star of the sextet and little behind him were Brian McManus, whose fielding was superb and Michael Troy.

Old Parish—P. J. Morrissey, M. Mahony, J. Terry, J. Terry; D. Murphy, J. Dower, M. Terry; M. J. Power, P. Flavin; H. O'Donnell, J. Leahy, P. Langan, T. Hallahan, T. Curran, M. Wade. Subs.—J. Mansfield for Murphy; Murphy for Mansfield.

Ardmore—M. Hallahan; C. Troy, G. Dwyer, D. Murphy; P. Flavin, P. Keever, R. Hennessy; D. Cashman, M. Reilly; B. McManus, T. Mooney, M. Troy; R. Lincoln, M. Cronin, J. Quinn.

Sub—N. Rooney for Hennessy. Referee : Billy McGrath (Dungarvan).

GAELIC JOTTINGS

ARDMORE REMAIN THE CHOICE

The replayed Western junior football final between Old Parish and Ardmore has the stage entirely to itself on Sunday next, and with no counter attractions around, there should be a bumper attendance at the Fraher Field, Dungarvan, for this second game between them.

When on Sunday last Old Parish held the highly fancied Seaside's to a draw, it could well be termed a shock result. For despite Old Parish's great tradition, they were undoubtedly the rank outsiders on the occasion. How superbly they met the challenge confronting them is now well known, and this replay is now wide open.

The drawn game was a real thriller and given another favourable day on Sunday I fully expect this replay to live up to the highest of expectations. No doubt the sides are very well matched and certain it is that the issue will be a closely fought one. Old Parish will have reaped immense benefit from the first game and they will be an even more formidable force for Sunday.

Yet, I have a slight preference for Ardmore. True, prior to the first game they were my choice unhesitatingly, but I just cannot overlook Old Parish's superb display. However, Ardmore now know what exactly they are up against and I expect they to step up considerably on their display on Sunday last.

On that assumption I take them to win—but only after a

MOUNT SION FACE GLEN ROVERS IN CLUB FINAL

There should be a hurling classic at Cashel on Sunday when Glen Rovers of Cork and Waterford champions Mount Sion meet in the final of the first ever Munster club championship.

Here are two teams bristling with inter-county stars, and what a wonderful opportunity for Mount Sion to give Waterford hurling a morale boosting uplift.

The Glen will be led by the peerless Christy Ring and this game should tell whether or not the great maestro has finally left his inter-county days behind him. Nor is the Glen side without other big names, for Gerry O'Sullivan, Denis Riordan, goalie Finbarr O'Neill Bill Carroll and Patsy Harte are all in the top bracket.

Unfortunately troubles are piling up for Sion as the big day approaches. Frankie Walsh out of hurling since his club's defeat of Ballyduff-Portlawn in the championship semi-final, may not be able to take up duty on Sunday next either.

Further troubles however, are the injuries to Philly Grimes and Jerry Guinan and at the time of writing it is not known definitely if they will be able to play.

However handicapped though they may be, Mount Sion are always at their best on the big occasion. They will I know rise to the occasion again on Sunday, and provided they can field at anywhere near full strength they can I believe become the first winners of this championship.

SEAN NORRIS (Dublin) a native of Dungarvan, created a new Irish record in the middleweight division with a total of 760 lbs. at the All-Ireland senior weightlifting championships at Clonmel last week end.

ABBEYSIDE BEATEN IN MINOR CUP

CRUSADERS 4; Abbeyside United 3

ABBEYSIDE UNITED are out of the F.A.I. minor Cup after the very first round. This was the outcome of their game against Waterford City side, Crusaders, at Abbeyside on Sunday last, but in defeat the locals, unfancied in all areas, put up a magnificent display that certainly merited a better and more rewarding fate. This thrilling game went into extra time, and analysed fairly, a draw would perhaps have been a more fitting result.

From the very start on Sunday last this was Cup tie stuff at its most thrilling best, with both sides enjoying their moments of dominance. Play swung from end to end rapidly and both goalmouths on a number of occasions bore charmed lives.

Abbeyside, before the game were given little chance of even extending this Crusaders eleven. But magnificently, splendidly they rose to superb heights and played their part nobly in making this such a fine game. Certainly if any team ever earned honour and glory in defeat it was Abbeyside on Sunday last.

The game opened sensationally with Abbeyside taking up the running and justice was done when diminutive winger Tommy Flynn opened the scoring amidst tremendous excitement. But then the City

Crusaders again snatched the vital goal lead and this just saw them through to the second round of the competition.

There can of course be no denying the fact that Crusaders were the better footballing side. They showed the more deft touches and will no doubt take a deal of beating from here on.

But as already stated, from a local point of view this game belonged to Abbeyside. The result apart, they captured the bulk of the honours and certainly for a first ever season in competition surpassed the expectations of even their ardent supporters.

The entire eleven could not be faulted on the score of endeavour as all tried game, to the very end.

In defence, however particularly brilliant was the half line of centre-half Billy Kyne and wing men Seamus Fitzgerald and Tommy Casey. Fulls Christy Power and Finbarr Dunphy made no errors and goalkeeper Michael Mc Govern was always sound.

The attack too played its part notching three fine goals in the process. Wingers Tom my Flynn and Brian Kennedy at times opened lanes in the winners defence; centre forward Donovan was always probing and his inside colleagues Liam Waters and Larry Cliffe were equal to all demands.

WEDDING BELLS

LANNON - HANLY

The wedding took place on Saturday, last, November 27th, at Monkstown (Dublin) Parish Church, of Raymond Lannon, second son of Mr. Thomas Lannon, M.C.C., U.D.C., and Mrs. E. Lannon, Abbeyview, Dungarvan, to Miss Kay Hanly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanly, Dun Laoghaire. The ceremony was performed by Mgr. Patrick Lannon, Whitey, Yorkshire, uncle of the groom, assisted by Rev. Fr. A. Lehane, Rockwell College, and Rev. Fr. A. Walshe, Bethnal Green, London.

The bride, who was radiantly attired in off-white wool gown, hand embroidered with pearls and head-dress, and matching full-length veil, was given away by her father, Mr. Frank Hanly.

The best man was Mr. Patrick Lannon (brother of the groom), and Miss Ann Hanly (sister of the bride) acted as bridesmaid.

The reception was held at the Royal Marine Hotel, Dun Laoghaire, and the honeymoon is being spent touring Italy.

The groom is a very popular figure locally and is a prominent playing member of Dungarvan G.A.A. Club. The bride, prior to marriage, was a Radiographer in Ardenkerry Hospital, Waterford.

They have been the recipients of many beautiful wedding gifts and we take this opportunity of wishing them both every happiness in their future life together.
