Regretted Passing of Well Known Dungarvan Personality

LATE EDMOND SPRATT, P.C.

O'CONNELL STREET, DUNGARVAN

The news of the death of Mr. Edmond Spratt, P.C., M.I.A.A., O'Connell St., Dungarvan, which took place at Dungarvan District Hospital on Monday last 24th inst., after a rather protracted illness, was received with feelings of deepest regret, not alone in his native district, but throughout the county at large, where he was a well-known and much respected personality.

Aged 68 years, he was a native of Coolcormack, Dungarvan. He was founder and head of the well known firm of Edmond Spratt and Son, Auctioneers and Valuers, Estate Agents, Dungarvan and Wexford. He was one of the leading figures in the business and cultural life of his native county, and his tremendously appealing personality made him a great favourite with all sections of the community.

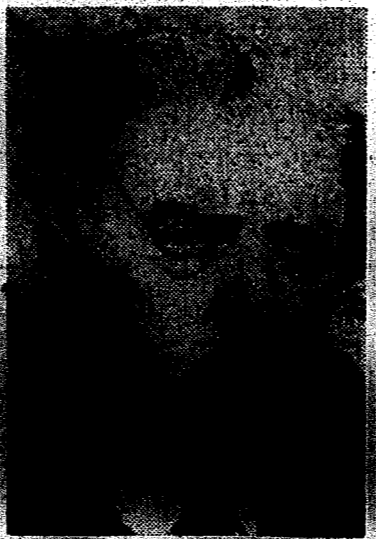

He was educated at Carrigea N.S. and St. Augustine's College, Dungarvan, and was a founder member of the St. Augustine's College Past Pupils Union.

A man of very strong National ideals and aspirations, he was not found wanting in the country's fight for freedom. He was a prominent member of the West Waterford Old I.R.A. Brigade, in which he held the rank of Brigade Transport Officer. He joined the Volunteers as a young man and from 1916 to the cease fire in 1923 was a prominent and active figure in the fight for freedom. At the time of the Treaty he remained with the Republican army and was interned for a period in Mountjoy Jail. He was a member of the West Waterford I.R.A. Memorial Scholarship Committee, and was also a founder member of the Liam Lynch Memorial Committee.

Almost inevitably, his great national ideals brought him in close contact with the G.A.A., and he was a member of that Association since boyhood. In his youth he was a footballer and hurler of more than average ability, and had the distinction of representing his native county in senior football championships in the 1930's as a goalkeeper. During those years he also won a junior football championship medal with the Brickey Rangers Club (of which he was President for a time), and a Junior hurling championship medal with Dungarvan. When his playing days ended he turned to the administrative side of the Association and was the first Chairman of the West Waterford Board. He also acted for a term as Vice-Chairman of the Co. Board, and represented Waterford at Munster Conventions and Congress.

His tremendous business acumen is truly mirrored in the successful business which he established in Dungarvan. Under his guidance, and leadership it progressed to the flourishing state that it is in today.

But above all it was the type of down to earth person that he was that was his most endearing trait of character. One could not but hold him in the highest admiration, and the best illustration of the esteem in which he was held, was given by the huge concourse, which turned up for his funeral and burial.

The removal of remains took place to St. Mary's Parish Church on Tuesday evening, followed by one of the largest and most representative corteges ever seen in the town. The remains were received and blessed by Mgr. John McCarthy, P.P., Australia (cousin of the deceased), assisted by a large number of parochial and Augustinian clergy.

Following Requiem Mass on Wednesday the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery in the presence of another huge concourse. The attendance on both occasions included Public Representatives and Officials, as well as Officers of the G.A.A. in Co. Waterford. His Old I.R.A. Comrades in the West Waterford Brigade formed a guard of honour on both occasions and the coffin was draped in the tricolour. At the graveside, Mgr. McCarthy also officiated, assisted by a large choir of clergy.

The immediate chief mourners were: Mrs. Ita Spratt (wife); Thomas, New York, and Donal, Dungarvan (sons); Mrs. Una Van Dessel, Arklow (daughter); Mr. Patrick Spratt, Coolcormack, Dungarvan (brother); Mrs. D. Spratt (daughter-in-law); Mrs. P. Spratt, Mrs. Cassie McGrath, Mrs. Bessie Sage, Miss Monica Stokes (sisters-in-law); Mr. Tom Stokes, California, Mr. George Stokes, Kent (brothers-in-law); Mr. Van Dessel (son-in-law).

(Funeral arrangements were carried out by Jas. Kiely and Sons, Undertakers, Dungarvan).

CHAMPION TYPIST

Miss Anne J. Maher, the winner, said the Dept. Church Street, Dungarvan, a student of Dungarvan Technical school, who secured first place in Ireland in Typewriting (Elementary Grade), and was presented with a cheque by the Dept. of Education, was congratulated by the members of the Co. Waterford Vocational Education Committee at last Friday's meeting in Dungarvan.

Mr. T. F. Maher, Acting C.E.O. (whose daughter was the winner), said the Dept. of Education had awarded a cheque for £3 to Miss Maher for her win.

Mr. Thomas A. Kynne, T.D., said the Dept had broken its heart in giving £3 for a first place in an All Ireland exam. It reminded him, he said, of the meagre £5 given to centenarians.

The members of the Committee also congratulated Miss Gracie Patterson,

50 PER CENT INCREASE FOR PART-TIME TEACHERS

Part time teachers with the Co. Waterford Vocational Education Committee are to be paid an hourly rate of 22/6—the revised rate to be retrospective to Sept. 1st last.

At last Friday's meeting of the Committee in Dungarvan, Mr. T. F. Maher, Acting C.E.O., said a circular had been received from the Dept. suggesting that a uniform rate be paid to part time teachers. They recommended a sum not exceeding 22/6 an hour, and that may be paid back to 1st Sept., 1968.

Mr. Maher said there were seven part time teachers employed by the Vocational Committee and their present rate was 15/- an hour. They had been receiving this rate for the past twenty years and had received no increase during that time.

Mr. Maher said the Committee had tried to increase the rate in the past but the sum was not given by the Dept. Mr. Liam Comerford said in an adjoining county a rate of £1 an hour was paid to part time teachers for the last eight years. 22/6 an hour did not seem to be an unreasonable amount, particularly where night classes were concerned. They should have received this increased rate years ago, he said.

On the proposal of Mr. Comerford the Committee unanimously agreed to grant the increased rate.

CANNOT PURCHASE LAND FOR LEASING TO CLUBS

Having obtained legal advice on the matter, the Town Clerk Mr. J. P. Robinson told the members of Dungarvan Urban Council at last Monday night's meeting that the Council had no power to purchase land for the specific purpose of leasing it to clubs or other organisations.

Mr. Robinson said at a previous meeting of the Council, Mr. Thomas Wade tabled a notice of motion calling on the Council to purchase land to lease to any clubs or organisations that might require it.

The Co. Manager at that meeting expressed the view that he did not think the Council had the power to do this, and the motion was deferred pending legal opinion on it. The Council could however, lease any land that they had to clubs, which they would not require immediately.

The Chairman, Dep. T. Kynne said they had in fact two portions of Council land leased at the moment to local clubs. The discussion ended.

BORD NA MONA TAOISEACH'S LETTER "THIRTY YEARS TOO LATE" SCHOLARSHIPS FOR MACRA MEMBERS

A letter from the Taoiseach Mr. Lynch, urging all authorities to play their parts in the comprehensive campaign being mounted by the Government for the strengthening of the Gaeltachts and the fostering of the Irish language, which was read at last Friday's meeting of the Co. Waterford Vocational Education Committee in Dungarvan, was described by Michael O'Donnahill, Head of the Irish College in Ring, as a letter which had come about thirty years too late.

Mr. Dermot C. Lawlor, Bord na Mona's Managing Director, said that the Board was very pleased to be associated with Macra na Feirme in this educational project. He said that that production for horticultural use was a rapidly expanding business and on this account Bord na Mona had quite a substantial interest in the progress of the horticultural industry. "We are, therefore," he said, "vitaly concerned with the factors which effect its future success. While production and marketing are the twin problems which are likely to receive most immediate attention, they cannot be successfully tackled in the long term unless those young people entering the industry tomorrow have the educational background and specialised training to enable them to succeed under conditions of intensified international competition. To meet the needs of the future, therefore, horticultural education and training must be given priority treatment.

"The fundamental philosophy of Macra na Feirme is to help its members to help themselves. From its involvement with the rural community comes its main objective - the development of agricultural education including that of horticulture. The sponsorship by Bord na Mona of these two scholarships is closely aligned to this objective." Mr. Lawlor also expressed the gratitude of Bord na Mona to the staff of Warrenstown Agricultural College and to the Irish Country Women's Association at An Grianan for their co-operation in the project.

The lower age limits for candidates for the scholarships will be 16 years on 1st August in the year in which the scholarship is awarded in the case of girls, and 15 years on 1st September in the case of boys. The scholarships will be awarded on the results of a written examination and interview conducted jointly by Warrenstown College and An Grianan.

ATHLETIC NEWS

Dunhill A.C. set a testing 6-mile course for the senior Cross Country Championship, but it proved no great obstacle to the all-conquering Lismore Club. Led by their captain and front runner, John Barry, the West Waterford Club added the senior title to their U18, Novice, and Junior Championships.

Best of the Deise A.C. runners was Jimmy Coetia whose training was interrupted for the last few weeks by pressure of work. He ran well, but was obviously not fighting fit. The Under-16 championship provided a surprise result when the strongly-fancied Friary A.C. team was pipped by one point for the championship. Once again the strong Kilrossanty runner, Pat Tobin was too good for all challenges and took the county title for the second year. His team-mates however ran well below their form and the failure of such experienced athletes as Seamus Fox and David O'Dwyer is well nigh inexplicable.

The last of the Cross Country races, the Under-12 championship, will be staged on Easter Sunday by the Friary A.C. and the spotlight will switch to track events. COMING TRACK EVENTS May promises to be a big month for organising clubs in Dungarvan. On 4th May, St. Mary's A.C. will stage all the girls' C.C. Championships for U-13, U-15 and U-17's. On the following Sunday Deise A.C. hold a boys and mens sports, and later in the month Friary A.C. will stage the Waterford Colleges championships. Are you ready, Boots, start running!

DOMINIC SAVIO YOUTH CLUB

The Civil Defence Hall was again full last Wednesday night. The main item of the evening was a Question Time, with Mr. Eamonn Mansfield as the Question Master. The two teams which took part were: team A, Jim Dunford, M. Earley, Joe Lennon and John Hourigan; team B, Eileen McEneaney, Helen Feeney, Elaine Neylin and Pat Kenneally.

The answering on both sides was excellent as was the answering from Tony Egan and the boys at the back. Team B won by a small margin. As well as the usual activities Charlie and the boys held a dart tournament. Among those who reached the semi-finals which will be held next Wednesday night were Martin Kiely, Liam Foley, John Tobin and John Walsh.

On Saturday night we held "Is Fishing Cruel?" was read by Charlie. The members were divided into groups of five or six and freely discussed the motion. Each group elected a leader who wrote down points made by his or her group. Having discussed the motion each leader in turn read out the views of his or her group on the subject. The winning group which was chosen by Mr. O'Mahony was under the leadership of Nuala Cotter. Thanks to Mr. Mansfield for acting as question-master and to Lawlor's Hotel for the use of the room.

Request for Site for Handball Alley

It seemed ironical that they knocked down a handball alley and now they were being asked to provide a site on which to build a new one, said the Chairman of Dungarvan Urban Council, Mr. T. A. Kyne, T.D., at this week's meeting, when an application was received from the Dungarvan Handball Club for a site to build a new alley.

The Club requested a site measuring 100 feet by 50 feet at Shandon, near the new Telephone Exchange building, where they proposed to build a new Covered Handball Court.

Deputy Kyne said he did not think there should be any trouble about giving the Handball Club a site in that particular area. It did seem ironical however that they were now being asked for a site to build a new alley when they knocked down one only a few years ago.

On the proposal of Mr. Declan Goode it was agreed that the Town Clerk and Town Engineer discuss the matter with the Handball Club.

Engineer to Report on Quann's Site

At this week's meeting of the Co. Waterford Vocational Education Committee in Dungarvan, the Acting C.E.O., Mr. Thomas F. Maher, stated that the Town Clerk had received a correspondence from the Junior Chamber of Commerce in connection with the site at Quann's, where it was proposed to erect a children's playground at one end and a band room for the Dungarvan Pipe Band at the other. His main reason for raising this matter he said was to know if both the J.C.C. and the Pipe Band could be accommodated there.

The Town Clerk Mr. Robinson said he had received correspondence from the Junior Chamber of Commerce a few days ago and had referred the matter to their Engineer for a report.

Mr. Patrick Whelan said the Pipe Band would prefer their site at the end of Quann's where they also intended to build a lean to for old people. The band members would be practising in the open there and they would be farthest away from the housing sites and the noise would not be heard.

Colr. Goode: But is it possible to have the two projects there?

Colr. Whelan: It is, and I think it is a very good thing to have the two sites at Quann's. In the summer time when the children will be using the swings, the band members will be parading and practising and they could keep an eye to things and see that there would be no vandalism. They should get this report from their Engineer as soon as possible, because with the long evenings now approaching the Band members were anxious to make a start on their Bandhouse.

At this week's meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council, the following resolutions of sympathy were passed: to the wife and family of the late Edmund Spratt, O'Connell St.; to the Co. Manager, Mr. Charles O'Connor, on the death of his mother; to the wife and family of the late Domal Lynch, South Tce.; to Colr. N. A. Instructor Overworked so Committee to Appoint Another

Because their lone Building Instructor was overworked, the Co. Waterford Vocational Education Committee at last Friday's meeting in Dungarvan unanimously decided to seek Dept. sanction for the appointment of an additional Permanent Building Instructor.

Mr. C. Curran said their present Instructor, Mr. Gerard Whelan was working very long hours and he did not think that one Instructor was adequate for the whole county.

Mr. T. F. Maher, Acting C.E.O., said Mr. Whelan was kept very busy, and spent a considerable amount of time drawing plans. He felt they should have another Instructor based in Kilmacthomas.

Mr. Curran said their present Instructor was working 12 hours a day, six days of the week, and he was of inestimable value to the people and to the Committee. He was giving more service than any other individual in the county.

The demand for another instructor was coming from the National Organisation, and he proposed that they appoint another one.

Mr. L. Comerford seconded and it was unanimously decided to seek Dept. sanction for this extra appointment.

Development of Gaeltacht

The Minister for Local Government, Mr. Kevin Boland, and the Minister for the Gaeltacht, Mr. P. Faulkner, have invited Mr. C. Curran, Chairman Waterford County Council, to meet them in Government Buildings, Dublin on Friday, 14th April, to discuss with them comprehensive plans for the development of the Waterford Gaeltacht.

Cost Council £2,659 for Sites

The members of Dungarvan Urban Council were informed by the Town Clerk, Mr. J. P. Robinson, at this week's monthly meeting that it would cost the Council £2,659 for the 22 sites at Thomas Tce., which had been procured by means of a Compulsory Purchase Order. The sites were obtained for a 20 house scheme for Old People, which is presently being built.

In a report, the Town Clerk said there were 22 sites involved, and the amount originally claimed for them by the respective owners was £14,600. The Council offered a total of £1,345, but the Arbitrator's Award was for £2,659.

Mr. Robinson said this worked out at about £133 a site, excluding the cost of demolition and site works which were carried out for the most part by the Council, and amounted to an average of an extra £25 per site. The Council's Solicitor was now being asked to have title cleared to this property as soon as possible and payment of the compensation would then be made when this was done.

School Sanction

At this week's meeting of the Co. Waterford Vocational Education Committee in Dungarvan, the Acting C.E.O., Mr. Thomas F. Maher, stated that the Town Clerk had received a correspondence from the Junior Chamber of Commerce in connection with the site at Quann's, where it was proposed to erect a children's playground at one end and a band room for the Dungarvan Pipe Band at the other. His main reason for raising this matter he said was to know if both the J.C.C. and the Pipe Band could be accommodated there.

Instructor Overworked so Committee to Appoint Another

Because their lone Building Instructor was overworked, the Co. Waterford Vocational Education Committee at last Friday's meeting in Dungarvan unanimously decided to seek Dept. sanction for the appointment of an additional Permanent Building Instructor.

Mr. C. Curran said their present Instructor, Mr. Gerard Whelan was working very long hours and he did not think that one Instructor was adequate for the whole county.

Mr. T. F. Maher, Acting C.E.O., said Mr. Whelan was kept very busy, and spent a considerable amount of time drawing plans. He felt they should have another Instructor based in Kilmacthomas.

Mr. Curran said their present Instructor was working 12 hours a day, six days of the week, and he was of inestimable value to the people and to the Committee. He was giving more service than any other individual in the county.

The demand for another instructor was coming from the National Organisation, and he proposed that they appoint another one.

Mr. L. Comerford seconded and it was unanimously decided to seek Dept. sanction for this extra appointment.

Development of Gaeltacht

The Minister for Local Government, Mr. Kevin Boland, and the Minister for the Gaeltacht, Mr. P. Faulkner, have invited Mr. C. Curran, Chairman Waterford County Council, to meet them in Government Buildings, Dublin on Friday, 14th April, to discuss with them comprehensive plans for the development of the Waterford Gaeltacht.

Dungarvan Badminton News

At Monday night's meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council it was unanimously agreed to enter for the Tidy Towns Competition again this year. The Chairman Deputy Tom Kyne said at least it was costing them nothing to enter the competition.

Indiscriminate dumping at Youghal Road was a strongly criticised by Mr. Patrick Whelan, who said that the place was absolutely filthy because of this unauthorised dumping. (Something should be done about it, he added.

Mr. Declan Goode said the narrowing of the road at Youghal Road was also a grave danger, and should be removed as quickly as possible. It reminded him on the road at Ballinacook which had been improved, but only after there was a fatal accident there. The local papers had been agitating for the removal of the wall at Ballinacook for the past 12 months, he said.

Council Will Not Burden Pensioners

A call to exempt Old Age Pensioners and those living on Home Assistance from the proposed 2/6 weekly increase on the rents of the Council's "fixed rents" houses, was made by Mr. Patrick Whelan at this week's meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council.

Mr. Whelan said that under the proposed new rents system to be implemented by the Council, all rents currently on fixed rents would have their rents increased by 2/6. There were Old Age Pensioners and people living on Home Assistance involved, and he would strongly oppose any such increase on them. They should be exempt from the 2/6 increase, he said.

The Town Clerk, Mr. J. P. Robinson said they had made it quite clear when introducing the revised rent system, that anyone on fixed rents could, if they so desired, opt for the differential rents system, whereby their rent would be assessed on their income. They already had some applications from Old Age Pensioners about this, and in their cases it would have meant a rent reduction, or at worst the same rent, by they going on the differential rent system.

The Chairman, Mr. Thomas A. Kyne, T.D., said if there was any genuine case, no Council would wish to impose a hardship on these people. There would be only half a dozen or so involved and they could deal with them individually if the occasion arose.

The Council agreed to Dep. Kyne's suggestion.

Distinguished Guest At J.C.C. Function

Dungarvan Junior Chamber of Commerce played hosts to a very celebrated gathering on the occasion of a Regional Meeting held in the Devonshire Arms Hotel, on Sunday evening last. Guests at the meeting were the Chambers World Vice-President of Operations, Mr. John Magill from South Africa; Mr. J. Harrington, National President; Mr. Michael McConnell, National Vice-President, and other members of the National Executive.

Mr. Magill's speech was a pleasant surprise to most in that it was very much concerned with the everyday business of Junior Chamber. He stressed that these basic duties were the foundations of a chapter and had to be done well to ensure a healthy chapter. People would be involved in projects in which they were interested, and which suited their varying abilities, or otherwise they would become disinterested and disillusioned, and would probably leave the chapter.

The choice of new projects was of maximum importance, as was their availability, and Mr. Magill advocated that a selection of projects, must be made available to all chapters by the National Organisation.

A chapter is only as good as its President, as projects are carried through his motivation and enthusiasm, and so it was vital that a chapter carefully selected its President. New projects should constantly be sought and older ones dropped, thus ensuring continuing challenge to members.

The meeting was followed by an excellent dinner and a most enjoyable get-together. During the meeting the Ladies Programme took place and consisted of a Fashion Show, arranged by the Vogue, Main Street.

DUNGARVAN BORN MONSIGNOR HOME ON HOLIDAY

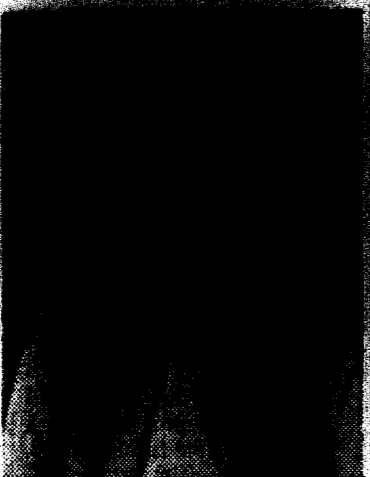

At present on holiday in Dungarvan is Monsignor John McCarthy, P.P., of the Parish of Rosalie in Australia. Mgr. McCarthy, son of the late John and Johanna McCarthy, Ballycullane, Dungarvan, is staying with his brother Patrick McCarthy, Clonety Tea, and will return to Australia next July.

Mgr. McCarthy was ordained on 15th March, 1919, and on March 15 last celebrated the Golden Jubilee of his ordination. He received his early education at Glenbeg National School, the Convent of Mercy and Dungarvan C.B.S., before proceeding to Mount Melleray Seminary, Cappoquin. He was specially chosen to go to Rome by the late Archbishop James Dubhig, Archbishop of Brisbane, to conclude his study at the Irish College, and he was ordained in St. John Lateran Basilica, on March 15, 1919, by the late Cardinal Pompili. He went to Australia almost immediately, serving there on 26th January, 1920, to serve at Bundaberg. Subsequently he was at Coorparoo (six years), Kangaroo Point (two years), Gordon Park (10 years), and Wynnum (six years) until his appointment as Parish Priest at Rosalie.

When at Gordon Park in the depression years (it was then but a small parish), he had to get up with great hardships which have become quite a legend. There were times when three meals a day were not forthcoming and he yet was a notable giver to all in need. Signal achievement of his early days at Rosalie was the building and paying off of the debt incurred by building the Marist Brothers College. The Mgr. has never spared himself and has been assiduous in the discharge of all his duties.

GREAT LOVE FOR NATIVE LAND

He has always retained a great love for his native land, to which he has made several visits and to say his Golden Jubilee Mass in the Irish College, Rome has ever been a desire close to his heart. On March 10th this year Mgr. McCarthy and a number of his relatives flew to Rome to celebrate the Golden Jubilee of his ordination. Mgr. McCarthy himself was guest of the Columban Fathers in Rome who treated him magnanimously, and his relatives were the guests of the Mater Dei Convent, Piazza Espana in Rome, who also acted as excellent hosts. On the moring of 15th March—the Golden Jubilee date of his ordination—he went to the Catacombs of St. Callistus and there at the Altar of the Chapel of the Popes he celebrated his Golden Jubilee Mass, after which the Mgr. and his relatives enjoyed a Roman Breakfast. Later that day the Columban Fathers entertained the party to lunch and also procured for Mgr. McCarthy His Holiness Pope Paul's congratulations and blessings.

During his fifty years in the Priesthood the quiet spoken Irish Mgr. had devoted himself almost entirely to the workings of the Church. Perhaps the most suitable tribute to him was spoken by the late Archbishop Dubhig when in March 1944 he preached at Mgr. McCarthy's Silver Jubilee Mass in the Church of the Guardian Angels, Wynnum, when he said: "John McCarthy has given of his best to the people of this Archdiocese and wherever he has exercised his ministry, whether as pastor or curate, he has always been the priest after Christ's own heart—patient, considerate, zealous and charitable, feeding the flock from a full heart and a well stored mind."

Such a priest could not but win merely the golden opinions, but what is much more precious, the sincere love and confidence of his people, and the esteem of his fellow priests.

Praise indeed for a truly wonderful Pastor, and we take this opportunity in extending to him a cordial welcome to his native land and wish him a very happy holiday amongst his relatives and friends.

Mgr. McCarthy is brother of Mother Evangelist, Convent of Mercy, Parlaw, and Sister Patricia, Notre Dame Convent Liverpool. He is also brother of Patrick McCarthy, Clonety Tea, Dungarvan and of Thomas McCarthy who resides at the family home in Ballycullane.

INCREASE IN RATE?

The Chairman of Dungarvan Urban Council, Mr. Thomas A. Kyne, T.D., hinted at last Monday night's meeting of the Council that the ratepayers of the town would be faced with a hefty rate increase when the Council meets to strike a rate on 21st April next, for the coming year.

When Mr. Austin Deasy said that the housing schemes at Abbeyside and Scrammie's Lane were nearing completion and suggested that the Council might start thinking of beginning another scheme, Deputy Kyne said they should at least wait until their estimates meeting. He felt that the members would be more in favour of selling rather than buying property when they saw the estimates of expenses for the coming year.

Colr. Deasy agreed to wait until the Estimates meeting before seeking a further housing scheme for the town.

PASSING OF GREAT GAEL

(BY OUR G.A.A. REPORTER)

The death took place this week in Dungarvan District Hospital, of a man who gave almost a lifetime of service to the Gaelic Athletic Association. I refer to Eddie Spratt, Dungarvan, the first ever Chairman of the Western Board and a former Vice-Chairman of the Co. Board. He was also President of the Brickey Rangers Club for a spell, and served as a County Board Delegate at Munster Conventions and at the Association's Annual Congress.

In his playing days he was a footballer of outstanding ability, and played in goal for the county's senior footballers. In the 1930's he won a football championship medal with Brickey Rangers and a hurling one with Dungarvan, both in the Junior grade, and his ability was matched only by his truly wonderful sportsmanship. His playing days over he turned to the administrative side of the Association and for many years he continued to serve it with distinction.

He was in every sense of the word a true Gael and a true Irishman. Men of Eddie's calibre are all too rare, but even though he will no longer grace the streets of his native town, his memory will remain an abiding one for many, young and old.

INCREASE FOR CLERICAL OFFICER

A wage increase of 9% was unanimously approved for the Clerical Officer employed by the Co. Waterford Vocational Education Committee in Dungarvan at this month's meeting of the Committee. The Acting C.E.O., Mr. T. F. Maher said the increase, which had been agreed on after consultation, would be retrospective to 1st June last. It was also agreed after consultation that no other wage claim would be made in respect of this clerical officer before 31st May, 1969.

The increase was proposed by Mr. Ted Buckley, N.T., and passed unanimously.

THREE DUNGARVAN MEN JAILED

Threatened To Wreck Bar

INCIDENTS in a Dungarvan licensed premises on Saturday night last during which malicious damage to the extent of £19.7.6 was caused, and a man was assaulted and kicked, had a sequel at Cappoquin District Court to-day (Thursday) when three young Dungarvan men

Michael McCarthy was charged with (1) assaulting Patrick Organ, 73 Murphy Pl., Abbeyside, thereby occasioning him actual bodily harm on March 22nd, and (2) assaulting Mrs. Ann O'Reilly, c/o Enterprise, Grattan Square, by pulling her arm behind her back. John and James Costigan were charged with assaulting Mr. Organ by butting him in the face with their heads, knocking him to the ground and kicking him, and occasioning him actual bodily harm. John Costigan was further charged with causing malicious damage to the extent of £19.7.6 to the Enterprise premises.

Witness said Dr. John Ballot took him to his surgery where he had two stitches inserted in a head wound. An infection had since set into the wound and he had been out of work since.

Garda Tadh O'Donovan said he was on duty on this night and he heard of the incidents at the Enterprise and went there. The two Costigans and McCarthy were there and there was general disorder. The defendants were in a fighting attitude. Mr. Organ was also there and he had a wound on the back of his head about one and a half inches long and it was bleeding. He asked the defendants to leave the premises, but they told him to — off, and that no — Guard would make them leave.

Garda O'Donovan said when they did go outside they came back again and John Costigan said he had lost his watch and that no one was going to stop him from finding it. Eventually with the assistance of other guards they took them to the Garda station.

Garda Patrick Noctor said he went to the scene on getting a report, and he saw Garda O'Donovan in the middle of a crowd that seemed to have adopted a hostile attitude. He asked the defendants to leave the premises but they refused. They said they had lost a watch and wanted to find it. Eventually they had to be removed forcibly from the premises. He (witness) subsequently searched the bar for a watch but could not find one. When he put his hand on McCarthy when he was being taken to the Station he (McCarthy) resisted violently and went berserk. John Costigan gave himself up voluntarily.

Garda Dan Galvin said he was Station Orderly on Saturday night last when he got a phone call and went to Grattan Square. There was general confusion outside the Enterprise. When the defendants were arrested and taken to the Station they asked for a doctor and solicitor. Mr. Lavan came, but they rang Dr.

for a drink. Miss O'Reilly told them they had enough and one of them said he would wreck the place if he didn't get a drink. Their language was very bad, and an ash tray was then thrown through a mirror. He (witness) intervened and asked them not to use bad language to Miss O'Reilly. John Costigan grabbed him and butted him in the face a few times. He was knocked to the ground and did not remember anything after that.

Mr. Lavan, defending, said John Costigan had come home from England for the burial of an aunt. He had been in England for the past five years and was to have gone back on the night of these incidents. He was persuaded to remain over for the week-end. The defendants became annoyed when they were refused a drink in the Enterprise and they could not see any reason for being refused. McCarthy had nothing to do with the row but did get annoyed when he was being arrested. John Costigan did admit that he lost his temper, but it was all because of drink, and he asked the Justice to deal with them as leniently as possible.

Justice Skinner sentenced each defendant to three months imprisonment and fixed recognisances in Dungarvan. The late Mr. Lynch had been on the teaching staff at Dungarvan Technical School for the past thirty five years.

The vote of sympathy was proposed by Mr. Charles Curran who said that the late Mr. Lynch had been a wonderful servant to the Vocation Committee, and they all deeply regretted his unexpected passing.

The Chairman, Ven Archdeacon D. Power, P.P., V.P., said the late Mr. Lynch was a thorough Irishman and a very efficient teacher. They would find great trouble in adequately filling his place.

The Acting C.E.O., Mr. T. F.

were each sentenced to three months imprisonment by Justice L. B. Skinner. Before the Court were John and James Costigan, 15 Cathal Brugha Place, and Michael McCarthy, 41 Cathal Brugha Place, who had been remanded in custody since Saturday night. All three pleaded not guilty to the charges.

Justice Skinner said they automatically remained in custody until the recognisances had been met.

The defendants did not appeal however and they were removed to Limerick jail.

New Bye-Laws for Dungarvan Park

New Bye-Laws for the Dungarvan Town Park overlooking the Swimming Pool were adopted by the members of the Urban Council at their monthly meeting on Monday night last. Their adoption was proposed by Mr. Declan Goode, who urged that the new bye-laws be rigidly enforced.

Mr. J. P. Robinson said they would now be sent to the Department and when approval had been given they would then become law.

The new bye-laws governing the Park are many and varied. Public meetings cannot be held there unless with the prior approval of the Council. The same applies to musical recitals, whilst the making of wireless apparatus will also be illegal.

SCOUT NOTES

THE WATERFORD BOB-A-JOB

(11th WATERFORD)

Bob-A-Job started in 1914 when British Scouts had a good time day of work for the blind. Thirty years later they had a Bob-A-Job day to finance the Scout Relief Service. This service puts teams totalling 100 Scouts into Europe and the Far East after the war to assist refugees and displaced persons. In 1946 it became an annual week and the scheme was adopted also in Ireland and other countries.

Points of Interest.—So Scouts for our forthcoming Bob-A-Job, everyone must play his part, and by that I mean giving value by doing a good job. Finally, remember, the 11th Waterford will be represented in everything you do. Already ruthless has it that break has been asked to wash the S.M.'s "Roll" would you believe mend the puncture in his "Jag".

For the first time in many weeks we held our ordinary meeting, and great emphasis was put on mapping and nature study. We held our usual Quiz with Neil, Jim C., Sean C. and A.J. and John O'M. running out winners.

SCOUT JOTTINGS

D did you know that today, Thursday, 27th March, is the Troop's First Birthday?

Membership of C.B.S.I. last year (1958) was 9,958 compared with 8,715 in 1957.

Congratulations to Tony on a brilliant display in Cork, on finishing 3rd and leading Waterford to the team prize, and also for his display in Dunhill. And to Jim on his election as captain of the local under 14 soccer team.

WELCOME HOME

All of us in the 11th Waterford are delighted to see Bernard of the 4th Waterford home again after his stay in hospital. With Bernard's help last year our first camp at Courtown was made much easier and more enjoyable.

RUMOURS

That Pudge has joined the Athletic Club so we can expect him to break many records. Last week he broke "Wages of Love".

I hear that Johnny and Kieran have both acquired new dogs. Here's hoping they take good care of Topsy and Louis.

— "CAMP FIRE."

4th WATERFORD B.B.S.I. (ST. JOSEPH'S, ABBEYSIDE)

There have been a lot of activities here recently, but most of them seem to be unofficial. Michael, Cossie and Barry are really breaking out but don't worry if they are using the Three Musketeers motto: "One for all and all for one" but it is quite plain that Barry's motto is: "All for one and none for them." But the moment of truth must be drawing nigh.

Congratulations to John Browne and his partner, who won the final of the Waterford Open Badminton championship. Well done John—we need a good coach! By the way, when will Badminton flourish once more in the den? You may think it is all a "racket" but it sure takes "guts." Don't worry if the net is never fixed back. They also serve who only stand and wait.

Two members of the Troop qualified for the final of the Question Time for individuals last Friday night. They are Padraig de Burca and Padraig de Facite. They are going great guns but they will now be shooting each other down. Padraig is bound to be the better of the two!

Bob-a-job week will be here soon, so if you've got a job to be done don't bother to do it. The Troop needs the money at the moment, so with the combined effort of the scouts and the public, we hope to do very well this year. The Patrol which collects the largest sum of money will have a new tent for camp this year, so with that refreshing thought before them, the lads should do well.

Points of Interest.—Sean's semaphore still has not improved. How does he expect Michael to learn properly if that is the kind of example he is giving?

The lads were rolling out the barrels last Sunday. Tom and the lads were going strong the other night. They are bound to be fit for the Bob-A-Job.

Tony and Felix are rising to great heights lately. It's too late Cossie, the writing is on the wall.

Willie is protesting a lot more lately. I'm sure he is really delighted though. "Methinks the lady doth protest too much." Think about it Willie, thank!

— "LONGFELLOW."

TALLOW NOTES

LATE MISS LENA BOOHE

The much respected death of Miss Lena Boohe at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. T. O'Sullivan, Convent St., Tallow, on Sunday, 24th March, was a sad loss to her family and to the community. She was held in very high regard by all who knew her and was of a quiet and unobtrusive disposition. Her death, at a moderately advanced age, is deeply regretted.

There was a large and representative cortege and the remains of the late Miss Boohe were interred in the adjoining cemetery.

She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. T. O'Sullivan, Convent St., a son resident in England, and grandchildren, to all of whom we extend our deepest sympathy.

(Very Rev. Fr. O'Brien, P.P., Tallow, and Rev. Sean Nugent, C.C. officiated at the removal of the remains and at the interment.)

POOL WIN

Congratulations to J. O'Sullivan, C.O. Mrs. E. Lynch, Newmarket, West St., Tallow, who won $125 in the M.H. Pools last week. Also to Mr. Michael Tobin, Tircullen, Tallow, who won $5 in the Ciste na Ban-Ban Pools recently.

COMMEMORATION

AT LISMORE

Easter Sunday will be a big day at Lismore for the surviving members of the West Waterford Brigade Old I.R.A. when memorials will be unveiled to four local patriots who died in the fight for independence. The honours are: Edward Landers, William Fitzgerald, Pat Magan and Tom Greehy. The latter was killed at Moorehill, Tallow in 1923, near the close of the Civil War.

A bobby trap was set at the entrance to an arms dump at Moorehill Wood by Free State forces and exploded and mortally wounded him. The body lay in the woods for two days as he had been alone at the time he approached the dump and was not found until the late Mrs. O'Brien, Moorehill, noticed the body while getting water from a well in the wood. The body was removed by the late Mr. Maurice Roan, Tallow, an ex-Irish Guardsman of the British Army, who had seen action in World War I. He brought the remains on a pony and cart to the Old Cemetery Kilwatermy where it was interred by night, uncoffined. On the following night the late Mr. Frank Ryan (the famous Tallow tenor) acquainted the late Mr. Tom Higgins, Carpenter, Tallow, who procured a coffin and proceeded to the cemetery, where the body was exhumed and placed in the coffin and re-interred.

After the Cease Fire the remains were again exhumed and taken to his native Lismore for re-interment. The occasion was the largest cortege ever seen in the district. The Cork Volunteers Pipe Band headed the cortege from Kilwatermy to Lismore, playing funeral laments. The late Alderman Sean French, Lord Mayor of Cork delivered the oration at the graveside. A cross today marks the spot at Moorehill Wood where this brave soldier fell and a beautiful Celtic Cross will be unveiled at Lismore over his grave on Easter Sunday.

Tom was only 19 years old when he met his death.

Easter Sunday's Parade will assemble at the Mall, Lismore at 3 p.m.

RETREAT

The Annual Easter Retreat will commence in the Church of the Immaculate Conception Tallow, on Sunday and will continue during the week and will be brought to a solemn close on Easter Sunday.

SYMPATHY

We wish to extend our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Anna O'Donovan, Knockanore, on the death of her aunt, the late Sister Gertrude Presentation Convent, Lismore.

EXILE CONGRATULATES TALLOW G.A.A.

Mrs. Cathleen Meade, a native of Tallow has sent a message of congratulations to Tallow G.A.A. Club on their magnificent achievements during the 1968 season. Mrs. Meade is sister of Mr. Mick Curley, Convent Street (the former Waterford county goalie).

LABOUR SOCIAL

There was a good attendance of Tallow supporters, at the Labour Party Social held at Lismore Hotel on Sunday night. Mr. Corish, T.D., leader of the Irish Labour Party and Mr. Sean Treacy, T.D., were guests of honour on the occasion.

PRIZE BONDS

As will be seen from our advertising columns, Prize Bonds are on sale again, and can be purchased until Friday, 11th April, by persons of 16 years and upwards at a cost of £5 each. They may be bought, without limitation as to amount, not only by individuals, but also by clubs, societies, companies and other bodies. Bonds may also be bought by two persons jointly, for instance, husband and wife.

Prize Bonds are a popular investment with all classes of the community and more than £30 million is invested in them at present. They do not earn interest but instead, participate in draws for tax-free cash prizes. Bonds bought now will be eligible with existing bonds for inclusion in the Draw which will be held next September. They will also be eligible for inclusion in the special monthly draws from July, 1969, onwards.

At the 17th March draw the beginning of March the prize fund was over £200,000 and there were more than 2,500,000 draws are held every month except March and September and five prizes of £1,000 each are distributed at each special monthly draw.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

EDITOR

Dear Editor,

I would be very pleased if you would publish this letter on your paper this week.

Oh Selectors! Are you just a name or a reality? Do you know you have been chosen to pick the best team in the county to represent the county as it was and should be represented?

Were you serious that the team that played Wexford was the best we could produce? Now don't tell me you did your best with what you had. Do you realise you didn't consider Tom Landers, a man who has trained at his own expense and at the expense of his Club for six weeks? You can't tell me he's not good enough, but I think I can say that he's not good enough because he comes from the Easton man he'd be there long ago.

Look selectors, forget playing men just because they are recommended by the chairman on the News & Star, but take advice from a fool from a fool for a change and forget those half-hearted players that we saw last Sunday. I don't say all of them are half-hearted, but you know yourselves.

Would you put men in men's places for a change. I wonder selectors did you ever hear of Liam Liam Canning, Bernie Scallan, Fatsy Quinn, Mick Conolly and others. There are just a few to help you in case you didn't know they were there. If you want to keep blue and white flags flying change from your present way of thinking.

Pressing The Farmers' Case

Five farm organisations, representing 150,000 farm families, meeting in Dublin unanimously agreed that farmers were not prepared to be left behind while other sections of the community were conceded substantial wage and salary increases.

farmers here not seeing as much of the British subsidy as had been anticipated. Those are the improverables and must be recognised. But on the whole the Price Review was a good one for Irish cattle and sheep producers and our farmers are fortunate that the beef subsidy increases have been given almost entirely on carcase beef.

The cost of living had been allowed to outrun incomes and the politicians themselves, along with the public sector, started the spiral, while now they demand of those who can least bear rising costs that they tighten their belts and forego their just claims for compensation.

Authority in a true democracy does not want overvisions like these in normal times to maintain law and order. If democracy is threatened in days of national crisis the Government has the right to pass special legislation to prevent mob rule.

At a time when the basic quota for Irish butter in Britain remains the same as last year and we have not succeeded in maintaining our expansionist programme in the sale of Irish cheese, the annual British Price Review brought a measure of compensation for Irish farmers.

What has happened to Mr. MacEntee is that he has lost touch. In his lympan in Dublin South-East he sees rural Ireland as the base of subversive elements. He sees only big farmers and property owners in the N.F.A. when in actual fact, the majority of the 130,000 members are small farmers.

Mr. Cledwyn Hughes, the British Minister of Agriculture, announced a 15/- cwt. rise in the guaranteed price of beef. This is designed to increase home beef supplies and to turn the British farmers' attention away from any deliberate increase in milk production.

The beef price increase will benefit the Irish dead meat trade. The increase of 15/- per lb. on mutton and lamb should also help the sheep industry. The N.F.A. is adamant that the full benefit of the U.K. subsidy on beef and lamb be passed on in accordance with the Anglo-Irish Free Trade Agreement to the primary producers here.

But there are improverables where the store cattle trade is concerned. Factors outside our control might well alter the prospects. There could, for example, be a build-up in Argentine meat; there could be a temporary relaxation in demand in Britain, a price drop in the British open market, resulting in a loss of confidence on the part of British store buyers which would be reflected in our

HERE AND THERE The N.F.A. expressed disappointment that our butter quota of 26,000 tons remains unaltered. If it had been raised, said an official statement from the Association, by even two or three thousand tons it could have helped the situation for Ireland's 110,000 dairy farmers at a time when difficulties are being experienced in other markets.

LAST SUNDAY'S LEAGUE GAMES

The most interesting of the Winter league games played in the Western Division on Sunday last was undoubtedly the meeting of The Nire and Eire Og at Ballymacanby. The expected victory went to The Nire, but they were made fight desperately hard for victory before eventually winning by 15 to 12.

It was a victory the Nire just about deserved, but the honours of the day must go to the Dungarvan men. They are a championship grade lower than The Nire and on this form are going to be very live contenders for junior championship honours this year.

It was a game in fact that Eire Og might well have won on Sunday. The Nire led by 03 to 02 at the interval, but within minutes of the restart Eire Og had a great chance of taking the lead when they awarded a penalty. But against the advice of some of his colleagues, Pat Walsh took the kick and shot it tamely at the 'keeper, and thus a great chance was lost. Later on in the game The Nire had a penalty awarded to them and they made no mistake from the 'spot.'

The big men in this Nire win were their inner county defenders Jim Wall and Mick Connolly, and without them on Sunday the side could scarcely have avoided defeat.

For Eire Og Michael Woods at centre back had a great game, and little behind him were Peter Feencomb, John Woods, Charlie McAllister in goal and 'Peanuts' Walsh.

AT BUSHY PARK

Old Parish pulled out all the stops in their football league tie against Mahon Rovers at Bushy Park, and ran out 4-12 to 0-1 winners.

The victory apart, the manner of its achievement stamps this Old Parish side as a very good one indeed, and I will be more than surprised if they fail to make a big impact this year. Against the Rovers they turned in a power packed display, and the Fabas men, outclassed and out-thought had simply no answer to it all.

In the hurling league tie at the same venue, Ballysaggart, as expected, retained their unbeaten league record with a victory over Ring.

In the remaining hurling league tie of the day at Cappoquin, Kilmobinet confirmed recent good form with a decisive win over Ballinacree, who are still awaiting their first win in the competition.

Waterford's N.H.L. Hopes Shattered

WEXFORD 7-13 WATERFORD 1-11

LET'S be strictly honest. The real moment of truth for Waterford's senior hurlers arrived at New Ross on Sunday last when their National League aspirations were well and truly buried by All-Ireland champions, Wexford. The difference in class, in hurling standards between the sides was alarmingly great, and no amount of allisbs can gloss over or minimise the substandardness of Waterford's display. On the evidence of this hour in fact a continuation in the hurling wilderness seems imminent, and certainly one cannot look to the immediate championship with even a glimmer of hope.

To many this game with the champions was looked upon as the one that would provide the answer to the County's present standing. It did just that but alas the answer was what many of us had suspected for some time past. Wexford made them—at least most of them, look less than senior standard and the twenty points that separated the sides at the finish in no way flattered the Waterford superiority.

And yet Waterford started this game as though they were going to put it up to Wexford in a big way. Within five minutes of the start they had raced into a three points lead and looked good enough to match Wexford at the way. With ten minutes of the first half remaining the sides were level, but then things began to happen, and soon Waterford resistance had crumbled. First, Paul Lynch as he has so often done, slammed a 21-yard free to the net and two minutes later he repeated the act and shortly before the break Jack Berry had goal number three and Wexford were poised for victory when they lead 3-7 to 0-7 at the break.

The third quarter was one of complete disaster for Waterford. Wexford restarted with a flurry of points and fullforward Tony Doran soon found the net for goal number four. Phil Wilson rammed home two more and John Quigley added to the growing mound with a seventh. Waterford's lone goal came from Danny Mahon in the 21st minute but by then the issue had been well and truly decided and Wexford were again in full command when referee Tommy Foran "called it a day." Even allowing for the poverty of Waterford's display, this Wexford side is one that is clearly going from strength to strength. They are a better team now than at any stage last year and one can hardly oppose them for ultimate league honours.

Pat Nolan, though seldom tested, was safe in goal, and Tom Neville, Willie Murphy and Dan Quigley were the pillars of a solid defence.

Mick Jacob and Dave Bernie without ever mastering their opposites at midfield, played competently and in an attack that went on a real scoring spree, Phil Wilson, Jack Berry, John Quigley and Paul Lynch were the real stars.

It is difficult to refer to Waterford without being critical. This was a most disappointing display considering the importance of the occasion and quite a deal of hard work lies ahead of all-players and mentors, before the indoor training undergone by the players, the response from the field is less than what was expected and this was one of the County's hardest hours. On Sunday one could only have pity for goalkeeper Mick Foley. He made some brilliant saves in the face of Wexford's non-him. But even a 'keeper of Foley's class cannot hope to perform miracles behind a yielding defence.

The full backs were never able to cope with the Wexford inside trio and Frankie Whelan alone at centre back emerged from the game with reputation intact. To give midfielders Michael McGrath and Liam Enright their due, they upheld their sector pretty well, and mid-field was one of the very few sectors where Wexford failed to gain a firm upper hand. Both McGrath and Enright struck some great balls and are well worth persevering with.

The attack too, was less than impressive after a bright start and Danny Mahon, Tom Walsh and John O'Brien fared best in the sector.

Wexford—P. Nolan; T. Neville, E. Kelly, E. Colfer; V. Staples, D. Quigley, W. Murphy; M. Jacob, D. Bernie; J. Quigley, P. Lynch; P. Wilson; J. Bolger, T. Doran, J. Berry. Sub.—T. O'Connor for V. Staples.

Waterford—M. Foley, J. McGrath, R. Power, J. Condon, J. Greene, Whelan, T. Hearne; P. Enright, M. McGrath; M. Hickey, J. O'Brien, J. Foley; T. Walsh, W. Walsh, D. Mahon. Sub.—N. McGrath for J. Foley.

UNDER 21 GAME

In an under 21 hurling challenge which preceded the senior game, Wexford completed a double when they beat Waterford by 4-6 to 3-0.

UNDER 21 FOOTBALLERS PLAY CLARE

Waterford step into the Munster championship arena for 1969 on Sunday next when the under 21 footballers travel to Kilrush to play Clare in a difficult first round tie. To beat Clare in any grade or code on their own ground is a difficult task, and with Banner county football fortunes at their highest point for a long time right now, Waterford will do well to avoid defeat on Sunday.

The Waterford side was selected this week and contains a number of footballers with senior club experience. But missing too are some very fine Under 21 footballers, and the absence from the side of a player of the calibre of Valley Rovers Colman Walsh is mystifying to say the least.

Indeed the selecting of these under age sides is a source of disturbance to me for some time past, because candidly some of the selectors simply know "naught" about a goodly number of the players playing in this grade. The trouble I feel starts when certain individuals are proposed (democratically of course) at the Board meetings, and they are oft times chosen without opposition. Again, with the county's under 21 hurling side there are two or three inexcusable omissions from the panel, which speaks very poorly for those whose duty it is to pick the best available teams.

AT LISMORE

The following is the football team for Sunday: B. Fleming (Tramore); J. Crotty (Kilrossanty); R. Hearne (Stradbally); T. Sweeney (Tallow); J. Flynn (Gaultier); R. Fitzgerald (Bonnahon); M. Kirwan (John Mitchels); J. Moore (Clanna Gael); M. Hickey (Ballyduff/Portlao); P. Terry (Old Parish); T. Sullivan (Gaultier); V. Kirwan (John Mitchels); F. Lonergan (Clanna Gael); M. Coffey (Stradbally); P. Morrissey (Ballymacanby); G. Cliffe (do.); M. Curley (Tallow); T. Power (Mahon Rovers).

This tie is followed by the hurling meeting of Dungarvan and Fourmilewater and it would be a major surprise were Fourmilewater to suffer defeat. They will be without the injured Kieran Ryan, but nonetheless, should prove far too strong for a Dungarvan side that will be considerably weaker strength and which has already been beaten in the competition by Clashmore-Kinsalebeg.

Following their victories of Sunday last, Kilrossanty and Geraldines meet at Dungarvan on Sunday next (3.30 p.m.) in the Western section of the 1968 Phelan Cup competition, and for the winners there's a place in the final proper next month.

PHELAN CUP TIE AT DUNGARVAN

Of the two, Kilrossanty looked the more impressive when beating Ballinacourty on Monday night's meeting. It Sunday last, but to dismiss is timed for 8.15 p.m.

PUBLIC MEETING

The County Board is holding a public meeting in the Court on Sunday next (3.30 p.m.) in the Western section of the 1968 Phelan Cup competition, and for the winners there's a place in the final proper next month. This is the one aspect of the Association's activities which has been neglected in this county and all interested persons are asked to attend when being Ballinacourty on Monday night's meeting. It Sunday last, but to dismiss is timed for 8.15 p.m.

DUNGARVAN OUT OF YOUTHS' CUP

Dungarvan 2; Wexford 4

Before a large crowd at Springmount on Sunday last Dungarvan Youths team slumped to defeat, to Wexford, in the area semi-final of the F.A.I. Youths Cup. In fact they won far more decisively than the scoreline might suggest and were in command for most of the game.

Dungarvan started well and went ahead after ten minutes through Anselm Hayes. This score should have proved a real tonic to the locals, but instead of improving their game they allowed the Wexford boys to dominate the exchanges after this. Wexford equalised midway through the half and deservedly went ahead before the break, when an attempted back pass to his side's keeper Michael Houlihan, by full back Michael O'Donoghue, went astray and the Wexford outside right had the simple task of pushing the ball home to the unguarded net.

It was expected that Dungarvan would improve in the second half, but Wexford soon dispelled any such hopes and playing great football they increased their lead to 4-1. With the ticket for the final safely within their grasp, the visitors slackened slightly towards the end, and Hayes had another goal for Dungarvan, but this was the last bit of leeway the homesters were allowed and the game finished on a very lame note with Wexford well and truly the masters.

Houlihan in goal for Dungarvan was in great form and had many good saves to his credit and in fact but for him the tally against his side would have been even greater. But the man of the match from Dungarvan's point of view was undoubtedly left half Liam Frazer. He literally ran himself into the ground in an effort to inspire his colleagues and it was no fault of his that he was on the losing side. Martin Sandford was the pick of the rest of the defence, while Hayes and Pat Morrissey were the pick of a front line which had to play second fiddle to a very efficient Wexford defence.

As already stated, Wexford fully deserved their place in the final. They showed plenty of skill, and their turn of pace was simply too much for what seemed like a sluggish and unfit home side, with, of course the exception of Frazer. Dungarvan.—M. Houlihan; M. O'Donoghue, J. Houlihan; M. Lennon, M. Sandford, L. Frazer; C. Murphy, L. Sandford; P. Brett, A. Hayes, P. Morrissey. Res., D. Kiely for L. Sandford.

To Represent V.E.C. at Congress

Messrs. Patrick Kenneally, Ted Buckley, N.T. and Frank Roche, together with the Acting C.E.O., Mr. T. F. Maher, will represent the Co. Waterford Vocational Education Committee at the Annual I.V.E.A. Congress to be held in Limerick from 26th to 29th May.

At last Friday's meeting of the Committee it was also unanimously decided to nominate Senator Sean Ormonde for a place on the Committee of the Irish Vocational Education Association.

KILROSSANTY BEST IN PHELAN CUP

KILROSSANTY 1-8 BALLINACOURTY 1-3

For half an hour of this Phelan Cup (1968) game at Abbeyside on Sunday last, Ballinacourty matched Kilrossanty in every facet of the game, and in fact more than held their own. But the Comeragh men improved considerably in the second half, when they took a firm grip on the exchanges and ran out deserving winners.

The first half was undoubtedly the most interesting with Ballinacourty forcing the pace from the very start. They deservedly led by 0-3 to 0-2 at the interval, and but for pretty glaring weaknesses in attack, would surely have been more advantageously placed at the break.

In the second half however Kilrossanty were a different proposition. They began to assert dominance in the key outfield berths, and with Tom Riordan in particularly fine form in attack, did not take long to wipe out that halftime deficit. A Riordan goal finally settled the issue, and though the game ended eight minutes prematurely, it had no effect on the final result.

Kilrossanty, without some regulars, took some time to settle down in this game, but when they eventually took control, played quite well. Tom Riordan was their top scorer, and best forward, although Foley and Mitters Gacy also played well in the sector.

The Walshs also played some fine football at times, and overall it was a pretty convincing Kilrossanty display.

Ballinacourty's ills, on the evidence of this display, are in an attack, and their tally on Sunday was shared by Michael Power and Irony Mansfield.

Their outstanding performer was youthful midfielder Paddy Cashin, who is rapidly developing into a fine footballer, and in a defence that did not concede scores easily, Greg Fives, Larry Cliffe and Joe Power shone. Referee: Mossey McGrath (Dungarvan).

Shock Defeat for Stradbally

GERALDINES 1-5; STRADBALLY 0-4

Clearly Stradbally have not yet mended their football ways or solved the forward ills that have so distressingly beset them for some time past. On Sunday last in the Western semi-final of last year's Phelan Cup competition at Dungarvan, they had enough of the play against an understrength Geraldines side to have won with reasonable comfort, but in reckless fashion their forwards kicked themselves out of the competition and were mastered by an Aglish fifteen that simply took whatever chances came their way.

Were this game to be decided on the amount of territorial possession won or a scoring chances created, then the Reds would surely have won by the proverbial mile. They must have had at least 70% of the play and had so many chances that I lost count of them long before the hour was over.

But any team that can so wastefully abuse so many gilt-edged chances simply does not deserve to win, and Stradbally to put it bluntly did not deserve to triumph on Sunday. Whereas they fielded practically at full strength—Pat Whelan alone was missing, they met a Geraldines side minus a number of regulars. But the Aglishers, with a minimum of chances took them in fine style, and for that very good reason they now meet Kilrossanty in Sunday's Divisional final of the competition.

Stradbally's paltry reward for a first half of almost continuous pressure was a Tom Cunningham point—and a string of inexcusable misses. In marked contrast, Geraldines made infinitely better use of their chances, and a brace of points by Johnny Grady and one by Joe Bally gave them an interval lead of 0-3 to 0-1—a lead they never relinquished.

The second half saw Stradbally mentors indulge in a series of switches—all designed to improve a very inept attack. Pat Clancy, outstanding at full-back, was moved to centre forward and Michael Coffey took over in the number three berth. But despite all the efforts of Clancy, the sector still sagged and sapped for the remainder of the hour.

Within six minutes of the restart, Joe Bally stretched the Geraldines lead with a point, and a minute later Sonny Landers added another. But then for about the first time in the game Stradbally seemed to rid themselves of the squandermania that had so troubled them up to this and they set about wiping out their four points deficit. Michael Coffey pointed a 12th minute free and a minute later John Kiely obliged from another placed ball. The Reds were now firmly in command and when another pointed free by Kiely cut the deficit to the minimum in the 19th minute, Geraldines seemed booked for defeat.

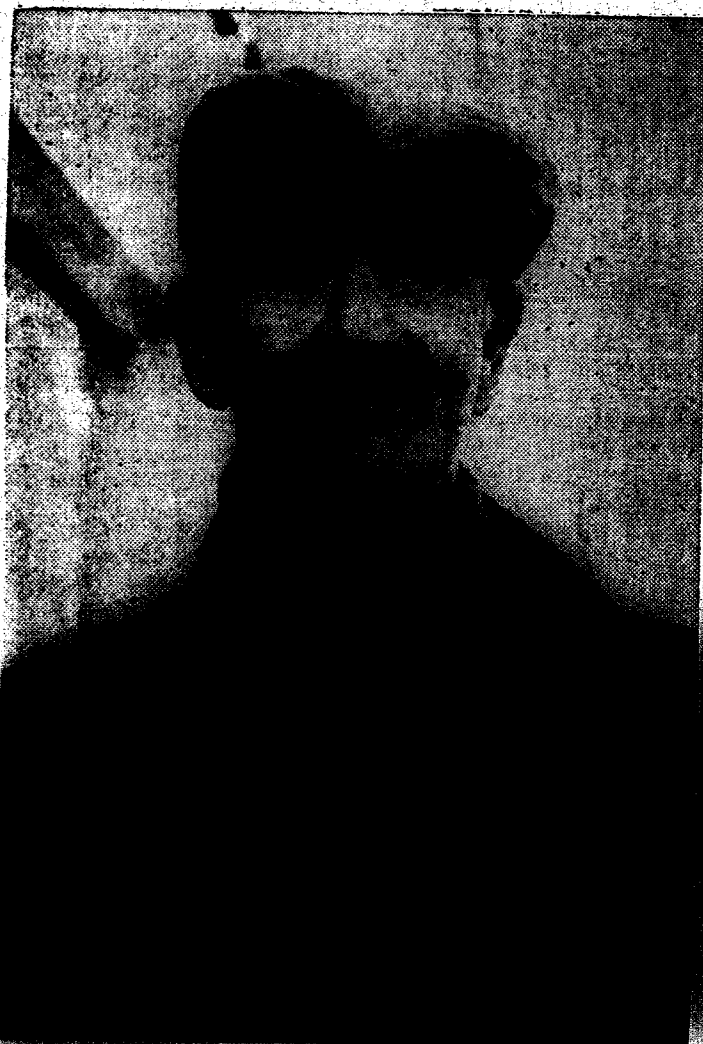

But just four minutes later came the game's decisive and all important score. Paddy Keaneally's superbly taken '50' dropped into the Stradbally goalmouth and keeper Terry Guiry dropped the ball and it wound up in the net from the ensuing melee. That left the Aglishers four points clear and hard though Stradbally tried to the end they never looked likely to overhaul an Aglish side that had gained in confidence as the game progressed.

DOWNING RETURNS

This game marked the return of Geraldine's Mickey Downing after a lengthy absence through illness, and in the key centre back position he had a fine game. At full back Paddy Kenneally, despite the "newness" of the surroundings, also turned in a capital display and the Merlins, "Feeney", Jim and Brendan also played well.

Without ever gaining a midfield grip, Ben Mernin and Johnny Cotter tried hard in the sector and the honours in attack went to Mick Tobin, Johnny Grady and Joe Bally. To describe Stradbally's display as disappointing would be even understating it. Once again they indulged in this no progress short passing type of game that has cost them dearly in the past and the finishing of their forwards was about the worst I have seen from them for a long time—and that's saying something.

The Men in Question

Pictured above: John "Lord" Duggan, Dungarvan (left), and Jackie Bumster, Balinroad, the principals in our current correspondence controversy as to which of them was the better footballer. When interviewed by our reporter both quipped in Casius Clay like fashion "I was the greatest."
