NEW AGRICULTURAL H.Q. WILL

COST £29,117

The Dungarvan Building Contracting firm of Messrs. E. O'Brien and Sons have successfully tendered for the building of the New Headquarters cum Offices at Shandon, Dungarvan, for the County Waterford Committee of Agriculture. Their tender of £29,117.13.1 was the lowest of four received and was unanimously accepted at last Tuesday's meeting of the Committee in Dungarvan.

The following were the tenders received: Messrs. E. O'Brien & Sons, Dungarvan, £29,117.13.1; Messrs. Burke and Clancy, Galway, £30,855.1.6; John McGrath, Dungarvan, £32,676.7.11; Wm. Trehy, Clonmel, £45,410.12.4. The new building will have seven offices, a Conference Room and Home Farm Management Kitchen and will replace the Committee's existing building in the Courthouse.

The C.A.O., Mr. George T. Frost said the tenders had been submitted to the Archiects who studied them. The members of the Committee then met the Architects before the meeting and the Architects recommended to them the tender of Messrs. E. O'Brien and Sons.

Replying to Mr. Kieran O'Ryan, Mr. Frost said O'Brien's tender would provide the Committee with the building they had envisaged. He told Mr. Declan Ahearn that that tender could not be subsequently increased, and the £29,117 would be the maximum cost of the new building.

The Chairman, Mr. John Fahey T.D., said a start would be made on the building in about two months time, and it would take 8 or 9 months to complete.

The acceptance of Messrs. E. O'Brien and Sons tender was proposed by Mr. Charles Curran who said they were a local firm and a very competent one. Mr. Patrick Kenneally seconded and it was accepted unanimously.

Deputy Fahey said Messrs. O'Briens should be congratulated on successful tendering for the building.

Scholarships for Young Women

The County Waterford Committee of Agriculture is awarding ten scholarships to young women this year, and interviews will be held at the end of this month.

At Tuesday's meeting of the Committee in Dungarvan the Chief Agricultural Officer, Mr. George T. Frost said that last year only girls accepted the scholarships, despite the fact that ten were again available. So far this year, however, they had received seven applications for them.

£10 SUBSIDY APPROVED

On the proposal of Mr. Kieran O'Ryan seconded by Mr. John Keane, the County Waterford Committee of Agriculture at Tuesday's meeting in Dungarvan unanimously decided to give a £10 Subsidy to Waterford and Wexford Branch of the Irish Dairy Shorthorn Breeders Society in respect of their annual Bull Show and Sale held in Waterford on April 1st.

ATTENDED GAELTACHT MEETING

The Co. Manser, Mr. C. A. O'Connor, Co. Secretary, Mr. J. G. Dowling, and Mr. Charles Curran, Chairman, represented Waterford County Council at a meeting in the Customs House Dublin, on Monday last with the Ministers for the Gaeltacht (Mr. Pádraig Faulkner) and Local Government (Mr. Kevin Boland) to discuss future plans for the Development of the Gaeltacht areas.

A new development plan was outlined in detail and submissions were sought from those present. In the case of Co. Waterford, particular reference was made to the Breac Gaeltacht areas. The Ministers agreed to consider sympathetically the cases of these Breac Gaeltachts.

The meeting lasted close on two hours.

Vote of Sympathy

As a specially convened meeting of the St. Laurence's Parish Hall Committee, Ballinacorney, a vote of sympathy was passed with the relatives of the late Thomas Hayes. He was a valued and loyal member of the Parish Hall Committee.

ARDMORE CONCERT

The Ardmore Hall Committee is proud to be able to present the Cahir Dramatic Society with their outstanding production of Troubled Bachelors (3-act comedy) also a one-act comedy sketch entitled Barney O'Brien and the Common Market.

This Society has won several Festival Awards and the producer has also written several plays.

The Committee can promise an evening of high class entertainment on Sunday, 20th April.

MR. THOMAS F. POWER, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Power, O'Connell Street, Dungarvan, and MISS GERALDINE A. MURPHY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Murphy, 181 Pearse Road, Sallynoggin, Dublin, who were married recently.

Members Call To New Instructor

Abolish General Appointed

"A grand damn holiday and a waste of money," was how Mr. Norman Walsh described the General Council of Committees of Agriculture when he called to have it abolished at this week's meeting of the County Waterford Committee of Agriculture in Dungarvan. Mr. Walsh who proposed that the Council be abolished, said it had no statutory powers. The Minister had nonetheless agreed to meet the Council on a number of occasions although he had refused to meet the elected representatives. The members of the Council were paid over night expenses in Dublin and it was all a grand damn holiday and a waste of money.

Mr. Kieran O'Ryan seconded. The Chairman, Mr. John Fahey T.D., who is the Committee's representative on the General Council, said it was a very excellent body and if he was to list all the advantages it had procured for the farming community it would be a lengthy list. The members' expenses were very small and would hardly pay their way to Dublin.

Deputy Fahey said the General Council had proved itself an excellent body in every way and whose main ambition was to improve the lot of the farming community.

He asked Mr. Walsh to withdraw his proposal and after considering it Mr. Walsh agreed to do so.

Seamus M. Lillis, Bird Ave., Clonskeagh, Dublin, B.Agr.Sc Hort., was appointed temporary instructor in Horticulture to the County Waterford Committee of Agriculture at Tuesday's meeting of the Committee in Dungarvan. Mr. Lillis replaced Thomas Walsh Ballynacorney, who recently left to take up a permanent post with another Committee of Agriculture. Mr. Lillis is presently employed in a temporary capacity with the Westmeath Committee of Agriculture.

The C.A.O., Mr. George T. Frost, said they had advertised the post and Mr. Lillis was the only applicant. He had the necessary qualifications.

On the proposal of Mr. M. Harty seconded by Mr. P. Kenneally, the appointment of Mr. Lillis was approved. Messrs. Kieran O'Ryan and Norman Walsh dissented, having previously opposed any appointment being made. Mr. Lillis who will take up duty shortly will operate in the mid portion of the County.

RE-APPOINTED

The Committee unanimously reappointed Mr. Fergus Mulcahy, Temporary Instructor in Agriculture for a further six months period. Mr. Mulcahy, whose reappointment was proposed by Mr. John Keane, is based in the Kilmacthomas area.

TENNIS

The Dungarvan Lawn Tennis Club is in danger of closing and the members of the outgoing Committee make an earnest appeal to all who have the interest of Tennis at heart to attend a Final Meeting to be held in the Tennis Pavilion on Wednesday, 23rd April, at 8 p.m.

Two attempts have already been made at having an Annual General Meeting, but due to poor attendance it was not possible to elect a Committee. An appeal is made to those who, for one reason or another were unable to attend the previous meetings to make a special effort to come.

It would be a great pity if this facility for young people were to be closed due to lack of support from those who should be interested, so members and intending members and all interested, please come.

The National Dairy Council has announced details of its biggest ever sales promotion drive to increase milk consumption in Ireland.

This promotion is now getting under way and will be conducted on a nationwide scale, so that every housewife in the country will have an opportunity to win one of many prizes which will be awarded to people who buy extra milk during the next five weeks.

Four pretty "Milk Maids" will travel throughout the country during the promotion period, visiting homes in every city, town and suburb. These homes will be selected on a completely random basis, ensuring that every housewife will have an equal chance to meet a "Milk Maid" and take part in this novel promotion.

When the "Milk Maid" calls the housewife will be asked if she has purchased extra milk. If she can show the "Milk Maid" two full pints of milk and pass a test of skill, which is to find a password by rearranging a number of letters on a board, she will win a prize of £50.

Everybody who can show the "Milk Maid" the required amount of extra milk and find the password will win £50.

The scale of this promotion can be judged from the National Dairy Council's announcement that a minimum of £2,000 will be available as the prize fund and it is estimated that during the five weeks of the promotion the "Milk Maids" will travel 20,000 miles in their specially decorated white Hillman Hunter cars.

Not only will this be the biggest sales promotion to be organised by the Irish dairy industry to date, but it will be the biggest promotion of its kind ever run in this country.

ADDITIONAL PRIZES

While the N.D.C. feels that the test of skill which the participants in the scheme will be asked to solve is not difficult, they will ensure that nobody who is called upon by a "Milk Maid" will be disappointed. Everybody visited will receive a gift of a beautiful earthenware milk jug, made by Ceramics Ltd., Kilmush.

THE MILK MAIDS

Four pretty blonde haired girls have been chosen as "Milk Maids". They have been selected because of their personality and charm and because of their personality and charm and because they all like to drink milk.

The girls are: Judy Hill, Carol Crawford, Elaine Ryder and Lorraine Kavanagh and they are engaged in either modelling or acting careers.

Their uniforms, which were produced by Emor Designs Ltd., consist of pinafore dresses, cloaks and beret style hats in a distinctive shade of bright red Irish tweed and soft white Balina blouses. The girls will be very easily identified by these striking outfits and of course from their gay rosettes proclaiming "I'm a Milk Maid."

The Council regards this promotion as an idea which milk drinkers throughout the country should enjoy participating in because of the happy atmosphere. It is, however, a serious attempt to solve the urgent problem of disposing of more dairy produce on the home market, which is so vital to the National Economy.

LOCAL SOCCER CLUBS' MEMORABLE ENGLISH TOUR

FROM every point of view the English tour by the Dungarvan and Abbeyside Soccer Clubs over the Easter period was an unqualified success. That fact I think has been firmly established and the five games which the tour party played resulted in two wins, two defeats and one draw. This was a creditable record against first class opposition and considering also that many of the leading players from both clubs were unable to undertake the tour.

The Juniors played two games, losing the first 4-1, but exacting sweet revenge in the second also by a 4-1 margin. That first game was played on Good Friday against one of Birmingham's leading Amateur sides, Paget Rangers. The actual playing pitch was Wembley-like and the ground was flooded in all the circumstances the Visitors did very well to hold the opposition to 4-1.

Dungarvan started disastrously and their defence was twice caught "all at sea" as Paget went into the lead with two headed goals in the opening quarter. They led by these goals at the interval, but Dungarvan/Abbeyside got right back into the game on the restart when centre half John Woods moved up into attack and notched a great goal. They piled on the pressure for about a further quarter of an hour and on more than one occasion came close to equalising. But as the game entered its closing stages a much fitter Paget side again took control, and a further brace of well taken goals gave them their fully deserved 4-1 win.

This was no disgrace for the loers however, and certainly in John Woods, Monnie Lennon and Billy Kynne they had heroic defenders. Pat Donovan and Seamus Fitzgerald also played well, as did Birmingham's John Fleet (organiser of the tour on the English side) who turned out at full back for the visitors.

ENTERTAINED After the game the tour party were entertained in the Paget Club's beautifully appointed and superbly laid out Clubhouse. This clubhouse was of a standard that few, if any of the semi-professional clubs here in Ireland could boast of and the hospitality of the Paget Rangers Club members and officials certainly left nothing to be desired.

DECISIVE WIN But on the Sunday the visitors exacted sweet revenge for that Good Friday defeat. This time the party travelled to Minworth, outside Birmingham to take on a North Birmingham league selection, and pulled out all the stops to register a smashing 4-1 win.

Dungarvan/Abbeyside were backed by a wind of near gale force proportions, but though they attacked relentlessly for the first forty five minutes all they had to show for it was a solitary goal, scored by right winger Joe Musty. The cross bar kept out several goal worthy attempts, and the home keeper repeatedly brought off near fantastic saves.

But even against the wind in the second half the visitors still continued to enjoy the better of matters. Yet, within minutes of the restart North Birmingham got on level terms when a high job deceived goalkeeper Tommy Bell. But then it was that the visitors pulled out all the stops and goals by John Woods, Seamus Fitzgerald and John Fleet gave them their thoroughly deserved win.

This was a really fine display by the winners and to single out anyone for particular mention would be doing an injustice to others. Suffice to say that both in defence and attack the team clicked, and very deservedly gained their first win on English soil.

YOUTHS THREE GAMES The Youths played a total of three games, and the last-against St. Vincent's—was undoubtedly the best. In this game Dungarvan/Abbeyside trailed 4-2 at half time, but turned in a superb second half display to win 7-5. Their scorers in that game were Michael Earley (3), Pat Morrissey (2), Michael Sheridan and Timmy Taylor (a Birmingham lad who seemed to throw in his lot with the party from the moment of their arrival) one each.

The opening game was against the Great Barr School Boys, Birmingham, who are no strangers. They have already visited here under the guidance of John Fleet and in fact twice lost in games to Dungarvan.

JOHN A. MURPHY

This game was a real thriller however, and fittingly ended in a 2-2 draw. Great Barr opened the scoring midway through the first half, but shortly afterwards Michael Sheridan put Dungarvan/Abbeyside on level terms. Again Great Barr regained the lead and deservedly they led 2-1 at the interval.

But the visitors forced the pace right from the restart. On more than one occasion they came close to snatching an equaliser, but justice was eventually done when Pat Morrissey—the star of the game—cracked home a glorious goal from fully thirty-five yards. And only the cross bar prevented him from gaining outright victory for the side with a similar "block buster" of an effort shortly before the end.

The Dungarvan/Abbeyside team was: M. Houlihan; M. O'Donoghue, M. Earley; J. Foley, M. Lennon, P. McGrath; J. Walsh, M. O'Keefe, M. Sheridan, T. Taylor, P. Morrissey.

Their remaining game was against another North Birmingham league selection and this time brought about their only defeat. After a most entertaining game they went out 4-2.

At half time the English side led 4-0 but a Michael Sheridan goal levelled matters shortly after the interval. The homesters then took control and went into a 4-1 lead, and though Timmy Taylor again cut the deficit, a fourth goal clinched victory for the home side.

SOCIAL SIDE OF TOUR The games apart, the social side of the history making tour was also memorable in every way. The party's "base" was John Whelan's premises "The Flabob" in Digbeth, and this Abbeyside native and his Leitrim-born wife certainly went out of their way to make everyone feel happy. This, believe me they succeeded in doing.

There were visits to three First Div. soccer games for the party—West Bromwich Albion v. Everton; West Brom v. Tottenham Hotspur, and a trip to Wolverhampton for the Wolves v. Manchester City tie. Birmingham's John Fleet did everything laid on for the party, and specially booked coaches transported them wherever they wanted to go.

The sights of Birmingham were fully explored (day and night); there was a massive assault on the giant Bull Ring Shopping Centre by the tour party members on Holy Saturday, and really everything worth seeing and places worthy of a visit were undertaken.

For the adults too there was a Saturday night visit to the Irish Centre in Birmingham where a real welcome was afforded them.

There waiting to greet them were Dungarvan men Tommy Woods and Mikeen Lyons, who travelled up from London and stayed with the party for the weekend.

And what a farewell night there was in "The Talbot" on the night before departure. Dungarvan's Jim Duggan was there, complete with Piano Accordion, and boy how this talented musician could perform. Jim incidentally has his own band in Birmingham and is kept going seven nights a week. We chatted at length with him and though happily married in the city of the "Bummie," I could not help detecting a slight longing for the homeland.

There too was "Bella" Beatty of Abbeyside a nephew of Jackie Bumster. Bella has been in Birmingham 24 years, and during that time has paid only two visits home. But his voice remains as talented as ever, and his rendering of "The Holy City" literally "brought down the house."

Also there was Jim Hackett, brother of Noel, U.D.C., whilst Pat Earley and his wife (Abbeyside) also paid a brief visit.

On Wednesday, farewells spoken, the four party headed by Tour Manager Danny O'Connor, left on the return journey home. The flight to Dublin took just 50 minutes, and they were then taken by coach to the Old Boro.

Thus ended a truly fabulous tour. Every member of the party enjoyed themselves to the full, thanks in the main to the unbelievable kindness and hospitality of John Fleet. Another tour seems imminent next Easter, for truly it would be a great pity if this brilliantly successful initial venture was not to fall through in the future.

P.S.—On Wednesday morning a few hardy members of the Party were taken by John Fleet for a "Turkish Bath," where much unwashed flesh and fat was shed. But somehow I doubt if they will be too anxious to return for another in any great hurry.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir, During the week as we were discussing the Jackie Bumster—Lord Duggan episode and while we agreed that they were both great Gaels and great players in their own right, we started reminiscing about other great men of that period.

We decided we would go back and pick what in our opinion, were the best fifteen hurlers playing in the Dungarvan/Abbeyside area in the late 1920's and early '30's.

We came up with the following team which, we suppose will not meet with the approval of all but, which we think was best: Mick Morrissey; Pat Byrne; Pakie Whelan; Jimmy Burke; Frank Houlihan; Lord Duggan; Percy Brett; Jackie Noonan; Ben Beatty; John Murphy; Tom Cowling; Nick Noonan; Mick Frazer; Jimmy Clancy; Paddy Dooley.

We would like to hear other readers' opinions as we consider that these men were fit to take their place in any company.

Yours truly, OLD BOROUGH GAEL.

N.F.A. TO HOLD MEETINGS ON Co Board Thousands Budget

At a meeting of Waterford County Executive N.F.A. held on 10th April, the prospects for Agriculture in the forthcoming Budget were discussed at length. A report was given to the meeting by the Secretary on the recent two day talks between the Association and the Minister for Agriculture and it was pointed out that further talks would be held on Monday, 14th April. Mr. J. Ryan asked what the reaction of N.F.A. would be if the Budget proved unsatisfactory. On the proposal of Mr. T. Corcoran it was unanimously agreed that all branches in the County be instructed to hold meetings on the night after the Budget to give members the opportunity of discussing the provisions for Agriculture in the Budget and also what action might be taken in the event of an unfavourable Budget.

A discussion took place on the recent proposal by the Minister for Agriculture that veterinary surgeons be allocated blocks of farms for T.B. Testing. The meeting was totally against such a move and felt the present position allowing each farmer to nominate his own vet. was quite satisfactory. On the proposal of Mr. E. Phelan, seconded by Mr. J. Ryan it was decided to seek an increase in the maximum price for reactors to £125 and for pedigree stock to £250. This increase was considered necessary to cover the increased cost of replacement.

Mr. J. Molloy referred to the need for unlimited livestock haulage in this country. Following a discussion the meeting agreed unanimously to a proposal by Mr. Molloy, seconded by Mr. P. Power, that the Executive make representations to T.D.'s in this area for unlimited livestock haulage and that H.Q. be asked to notify other counties to do likewise. Arrangements were made to have the T.D.s. in this County approached. The meeting also felt that any farmer who gets the opportunity of meeting his T.D. should seek the T.D.'s support on this important issue.

The annual general meeting was fixed for Thursday, 1st May, and it was decided to invite Mr. Raymond Smith, P.R.O. at Head Office, to the meeting.

The attendance at the meeting included Mr. K. G. Purcell (Chairman) who presided, Messrs. P. Hallahan and J. Ryan (Ballinacourty), T. Corcoran and P. White (Coolnamear), E. Phelan (Dungarvan), J. Molloy (Penor), P. Power (Gaultier), P. Wall (Kill), E. Cheasty (Kilmeaden), M. Hallahan, J. Troy (Kinsalebeg), M. Kiely (Old Parish), T. Claxton, J. Fennell (Stradbally), G. ## YOUGHAL NEWS

HIGHWATER (YOUGHAL) Week Ending April 26th — Morning, Evening — Sunday, 8.23, 8.41. Monday, 8.55, 9.15. Tuesday, 9.29, 9.54. Wednesday 10.09, 10.40. Thursday, 10.59, 11.39. Friday, 11.50, 12.07. Saturday, 12.58, 1.31

SALMON FISHING There is a very welcome improvement in the catches of salmon by net all over the district which is now long sought and the price to fishermen last week was 12/9 and 13/- One boat last week operated by a lone fisherman captured eleven excellent salmon in one single operation. On the whole the season, now nearing its half-way stage is not up to its usual standard, still the catches for February and March are a vast improvement on the same period in 1968.

YOUNG FARMER KILLED Deep sympathy is extended to a well known farming family, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Lawton of Knockadon, whose son, Martin (26) was killed on Tuesday last when he was involved in an accident with a tractor. He was sowing beet in a field at the time. The deceased and his family are well known and highly respected in the district DUMPING PROBLEM

At a recent Urban Council meeting a discussion took place on the question of filling in the quarry situated at the north end of the town at Quarry Road and it could serve as a potential playground. Colr. Good stated it should be borne in mind that the strand development scheme would soon be under way and there would be a greater need for filling there.

Sunday's Dancing Attraction at Kilmac

All roads lead to the Rainbow Hall, Kilmac on Sunday night next when the Pike Social Club holds its Annual Dance. This is invariably one of the social highlights of the year, and with the talented Rm Shot Stradbally on the Rostrom this time, it will come as no great surprise if the attendance record for this popular dancing centre is broken.

The Pike Social Club always commands great support, and intending patrons can be assured of a great night's entertainment. For all details see advert in this issue.

Arrangements were made to have the T.D.s. in this County approached. The meeting also felt that any farmer who gets the opportunity of meeting his T.D. should seek the T.D.'s support on this important issue.

The annual general meeting was fixed for Thursday, 1st May, and it was decided to invite Mr. Raymond Smith, P.R.O. at Head Office, to the meeting.

The attendance at the meeting included Mr. K. G. Purcell (Chairman) who presided, Messrs. P. Hallahan and J. Ryan (Ballinacourty), T. Corcoran and P. White (Coolnamear), E. Phelan (Dungarvan), J. Molloy (Penor), P. Power (Gaultier), P. Wall (Kill), E. Cheasty (Kilmeaden), M. Hallahan, J. Troy (Kinsalebeg), M. Kiely (Old Parish), T. Claxton, J. Fennell (Stradbally), G. Moloney (Tallow-Knockanore).

MISS WATERFORD FINAL

The "Miss Waterford" final dress for International Select of Ireland's Ms Beauty Contest, presented by Slincea in association with Creation Group and organised by Messrs. Promotions, will be held in the Arch Ballroom, Tallow, on Wednesday, 27th April.

This contest is to select an "International Beauty Team" which will represent Ireland in the Miss World Contest in London; Miss International in Tokyo; Miss Universe Contest in America; and Miss Europe in Morocco, and will be one of the largest contests to be held in the United Kingdom and undoubtedly the biggest to be held in Ireland, with 1,000 girls competing for entry into the Grand final through 162 heats and 32 county finals.

The competition will be presented by Slincea Ltd., manufacturers of Slincea low calorie, high protein bread, and in association with Creation Group, and will be organised by Messrs. Promotions, the Contest.

The final for the 1969 Competition will take place in the Plaza Ballroom, Belfast, on Tuesday, 6th May, but will alternate with Dublin each year, i.e., 1969 Belfast; 1970 Dublin.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

J.C.C. ANNUAL DINNER Rev. Professor Peter Dempsey, M.A., D.D. L.S.S. was the guest speaker at Dungarvan Junior Chamber of Commerce annual dinner at the Devonshire Arms Hotel on Friday last. He laid emphasis on the fact that Enterprise was the key to our national development.

Other speakers were Mr. Mooney President, Austin Ballahan, Vicedo; John Harrington, National President and Peter Wilson; Vice-President; British J.C.C. Mr. T. Ryan was toastmaster.

WON SWEEPSTAKE Mr. Johnny Byrne's Gals Babe and Gals Twan were 1st and second in the final of the Waterford Sweepstake at Kinsale Park on Saturday night. He sold the former at Shelburne Park sales on Wednesday.

GAELIC JOTTINGS

CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES ON SUNDAY The Junior football championship gets under way on Sunday next with three first round games down for decision.

At Cappoquin a two game programme has been listed beginning with the meeting of Ardmore and Old Parish at 2 p.m. This will be followed by the Ring v. Cl. Kinross/Kinsalebeg tie.

In all cases the clubs involved will be fielding only their "second string" fifteen, thus forecasting the likely outcome is high on the scale. Similarly, the Brickey Rangers—Mahon Rovers game at Dungarvan brings out sides of unknown qualities. Incidentally, this game also has a 2 p.m. start.

INTERMEDIATE HURLING TRIAL In preparation for their 1st round Munster Championship game on Sunday week, the Waterford Intermediate hurling selectors have arranged a full scale West v. East trial at Dungarvan on Sunday next at 3.15 p.m. (With places on the county side to be won, this game should have the bite and enthusiasm more associated with a championship, and could prove a rewarding visit to the venue for patrons.

MINOR FOOTBALLERS MEET CLARE On Sunday next at Emly (Co. Tipperary) Waterford meet Clare in the final of the special minor football league for the recognised "weaker" Munster football counties. In the semi-final Waterford scored an impressive win over Tipperary, and a reputation of that form could be good enough to give them victory again on Sunday.

The following is the Waterford team: S. Crowley (Tallow); D. Flynn (Affane), P. Hegarty (Tallow), E. Dunphy (Gaultier); M. Fives (Ballinacourty); V. Tobin (Affane); S. Hannon (Tallow); P. Lane (Erin's Own); P. Tyrrell (Clanna Gael); T. Casey (do.); J. Harrigan (Tallow); T. Doyle (do.); P. Morrissey (Affane); M. Hanrahan (Ballinacourty); A. Heffernan (Terrybank); Subs., J. Dunford (Dunmets); P. Moore (Clanna Gael); T. Reid (Carrickbeg); P. Power (Mt. Sion) and B. Flood (Gaultier).

There was a great need to promote the Farm Holiday scheme in Co. Waterford, stated Mr. John Bailey, T.D., Chairman of the Co. Waterford Committee of Agriculture when he proposed at Tuesday's meeting in Dungarvan, that they appoint an additional temporary Advisor in Home Farm Management.

Deputy Fahey said he had placed this matter on the agenda for consideration because he had been made aware of the need for this type of service in the county, with particular emphasis on the promotion of the Farm Holiday Scheme. In this county he said, where so many people passed through in the summer they should try to promote this scheme and keep the money within the county, rather than having it being spent elsewhere. (This scheme he said, was a very good source of income for the farming community who were finding it hard at the present time to make things meet.

Mr. Norman Walsh said year,

There was merit in the Chairman's proposal, but it was his view that a farmer should be a farmer. Also if the present Minister for Agriculture forgot about the North and the Border and left that to the Taoiseach and gave thought to the farming community he would be doing better. He also wondered if the implementation of this Farm Holiday scheme would put across Hoteliers and Guest Houses in the towns.

Deputy Fahey said he did not think this would happen because the hotels would not be watering really for the type of person likely to be using this scheme.

Finally, on the proposal of Deputy Fahey the Committee unanimously agreed to advertise for another Temporary Home Farm Management Advisor.

The C.A.O., Mr. G. T. Fyost said they would be able to meet the extra cost within their estimate for the current year.

What Will The Budget Hold?

What can farmers expect in the forthcoming Budget? The recent television and radio broadcast of the state of the economy by the Minister for Finance, Mr. Haughey, was a clear indication in itself that even though there is a General Election in the offing, this promises to be a restrictive Budget. And that means, in effect, that the Minister will not be digging deep into the State coffers to send everyone to the polling booths in a happy frame of mind.

There is a danger in the present situation that the Government will be tempted to cut back spending on agriculture. This could be a very short-sighted policy, especially when we take into account that but for the £109 million realised by cattle beef and dairying exports last year, our balance of payments position would be even more serious now.

The N.F.A. is adamant that in the long term the Government would be wise to make the maximum of development funds available for agriculture in the Budget. And it must be borne in mind that excellent opportunities now present themselves for increasing cattle and sheep exports.

The most important need is for the Government to give every possible incentive in the Budget to increasing production of cattle, sheep and pigs. And going hand-in-hand with this must be a willingness to give sufficient incentives to the 110,000 dairy farmers in the country to enable them to keep this vital sector of the industry in a buoyant state.

There is a tendency to divorce agriculture from the industrial arm, as if benefits for agriculture must be at the expense of other sectors. This is an entirely wrong approach as the two are closely interdependent. If the farmers prosper then the nation must prosper, for agriculture is our principal industry. And expanding agricultural industry will generate the demand that will bring employment for many workers (new buildings, for example, will be needed and also services of one kind or another). If agriculture is held back the industries that depend on raw materials that have their base in agriculture must naturally be affected in the long run.

So the N.F.A.'s claim on behalf of the farming community for an increase of 10% or 24% a week for each family member working on the farm must be regarded as quite reasonable in present circumstances. The farmers must be able to meet rising costs and have sufficient funds left over, if they are to have the capital for re-investment in their business. Without that re-investment, there cannot be real progress.

Increased Social Benefits - AND TAXATION? The indications from informed quarters in Dublin are that the Minister may decide to spread what benefits he has to give widely and selectively - rather than giving them heavily in any one area.

"Therefore it might be 'A Little For Everyone' Budget - and when all the benefits are added up the burden on the Exchequer will be found to be not at all heavy in one year. On the surface it may appear that a lot is being given, when in actual fact the real concrete value will be small in most instances.

Social benefits are almost certain to be increased - this with an eye to winning the cities. Old age pensions will probably rise and there could be a change in the age limit. It is said that there will be benefits for the sheep sector and the guaranteed price of pigs will go up in the Autumn. The Small Farm Scheme is expected to be reviewed and the Government may act on the N.F.A. proposal for an increase in the annual incentives. Liquid milk prices may be increased and it is expected that there will be assistance too for the dairying sector, though what form it will take, no one is able to predict with any certainty. It is said that the emphasis may well be on equality incentives this time.

Taxation - maybe direct, but definitely indirect - will be increased and the Minister certainly has an unenviable task facing him in trying to balance the books. How long can certain luxuries keep on taking a wallop in each Budget? LONG-TERM PLAN NEEDED? The suggestion made at the annual meeting of the Irish Fresh Meat Exporters' Society Ltd., that there was urgent need for a long-term plan to step up beef, cattle and sheep production needs careful examination by the Department of Agriculture and by all other interests involved in this vital sector of the agricultural industry.

The Irish Fresh Meat Exporters' Society has already made certain submissions to the Minister for Agriculture and it is to be hoped that there will be action to ensure a healthy and efficient meat industry. The big problem at the moment in this sector is the situation of over-capacity and under-supply. Capacity in the industry is capable of a 1.25 million kill, yet in 1968 only 600,000 cattle were handled. The capacity position is expected to worsen in the next twelve months when it is expected to be approximately 1.6 million.

Mr. William Harnett, outgoing Chairman of the Society said that a full-scale effort must be made to increase stock numbers and he called on the Government to give further thought to beef incentives. While the increase in the grant under the Beef Cattle Incentive Scheme from £8 to £12 was welcome, it was no substitute for a long-term plan and would not solve the industry's immediate problem.

The Annual Re-Union of Cumann Iar-Scolairí Colaiste Abhtáin will be held on Sunday, 27th April. A football match between Past and Present pupils will take place at the Friary Field at 1.45. The Annual Dinner will be at Lawlor's Hotel at 8 p.m.

The local committee are sponsoring a big dance in the Town Hall that night in aid of the Friary Building Fund. For details see advert. Pict Pupils who may not have been otherwise notified should take this notice as official.

DUNGARVAN GOLF CLUB Sundry next final round of competition for "free sub." Draw for Cup match will take place on Sunday evening. Second round of four ball match will be completed by Sunday next.

What can farmers expect in the forthcoming Budget? The recent television and radio broadcast of the state of the economy by the Minister for Finance, Mr. Haughey, was a clear indication in itself that even though there is a General Election in the offing, this promises to be a restrictive Budget. And that means, in effect, that the Minister will not be digging deep into the State coffers to send everyone to the polling booths in a happy frame of mind.

There is a danger in the present situation that the Government will be tempted to cut back spending on agriculture. This could be a very short-sighted policy, especially when we take into account that but for the £109 million realised by cattle beef and dairying exports last year, our balance of payments position would be even more serious now.

The N.F.A. is adamant that in the long term the Government would be wise to make the maximum of development funds available for agriculture in the Budget. And it must be borne in mind that excellent opportunities now present themselves for increasing cattle and sheep exports.

The most important need is for the Government to give every possible incentive in the Budget to increasing production of cattle, sheep and pigs. And going hand-in-hand with this must be a willingness to give sufficient incentives to the 110,000 dairy farmers in the country to enable them to keep this vital sector of the industry in a buoyant state.

There is a tendency to divorce agriculture from the industrial arm, as if benefits for agriculture must be at the expense of other sectors. This is an entirely wrong approach as the two are closely interdependent. If the farmers prosper then the nation must prosper, for agriculture is our principal industry. And expanding agricultural industry will generate the demand that will bring employment for many workers (new buildings, for example, will be needed and also services of one kind or another). If agriculture is held back the industries that depend on raw materials that have their base in agriculture must naturally be affected in the long run.

So the N.F.A.'s claim on behalf of the farming community for an increase of 10% or 24% a week for each family member working on the farm must be regarded as quite reasonable in present circumstances. The farmers must be able to meet rising costs and have sufficient funds left over, if they are to have the capital for re-investment in their business. Without that re-investment, there cannot be real progress.

Increased Social Benefits - AND TAXATION? The indications from informed quarters in Dublin are that the Minister may decide to spread what benefits he has to give widely and selectively - rather than giving them heavily in any one area.

"Therefore it might be 'A Little For Everyone' Budget - and when all the benefits are added up the burden on the Exchequer will be found to be not at all heavy in one year. On the surface it may appear that a lot is being given, when in actual fact the real concrete value will be small in most instances.

Social benefits are almost certain to be increased - this with an eye to winning the cities. Old age pensions will probably rise and there could be a change in the age limit. It is said that there will be benefits for the sheep sector and the guaranteed price of pigs will go up in the Autumn. The Small Farm Scheme is expected to be reviewed and the Government may act on the N.F.A. proposal for an increase in the annual incentives. Liquid milk prices may be increased and it is expected that there will be assistance too for the dairying sector, though what form it will take, no one is able to predict with any certainty. It is said that the emphasis may well be on equality incentives this time.

Taxation - maybe direct, but definitely indirect - will be increased and the Minister certainly has an unenviable task facing him in trying to balance the books. How long can certain luxuries keep on taking a wallop in each Budget? LONG-TERM PLAN NEEDED? The suggestion made at the annual meeting of the Irish Fresh Meat Exporters' Society Ltd., that there was urgent need for a long-term plan to step up beef, cattle and sheep production needs careful examination by the Department of Agriculture and by all other interests involved in this vital sector of the agricultural industry.

The Irish Fresh Meat Exporters' Society has already made certain submissions to the Minister for Agriculture and it is to be hoped that there will be action to ensure a healthy and efficient meat industry. The big problem at the moment in this sector is the situation of over-capacity and under-supply. Capacity in the industry is capable of a 1.25 million kill, yet in 1968 only 600,000 cattle were handled. The capacity position is expected to worsen in the next twelve months when it is expected to be approximately 1.6 million.

Mr. William Harnett, outgoing Chairman of the Society said that a full-scale effort must be made to increase stock numbers and he called on the Government to give further thought to beef incentives. While the increase in the grant under the Beef Cattle Incentive Scheme from £8 to £12 was welcome, it was no substitute for a long-term plan and would not solve the industry's immediate problem.

What can farmers expect in the forthcoming Budget? The recent television and radio broadcast of the state of the economy by the Minister for Finance, Mr. Haughey, was a clear indication in itself that even though there is a General Election in the offing, this promises to be a restrictive Budget. # Waterford Late Rally Gave Kill a Draw

WATERFORD 4-15 WATERFORD 2-3

WATERFORD hurling was virtually confined and limited at Portlaoise on Sunday last, when following the lead of Wexford a few weeks back, Offaly dealt similarly with them in a game which Waterford man will want to forget as quickly as possible.

It was surely the County's darkest hour in over a decade of hurling. It is true that the regulars were absent, but at least ten of the substitutes could be termed regulars, and they were simply not up to the task of the current league campaign. The game was a humbling one for the county, and it is doubtful if the county can shake itself from this hour of utter humiliation.

From start to finish it was a one-sided and unequal contest. Offaly were rampant and dominating, and they simply played ducks and drakes with what must have been one of the poorest sides ever to represent the County in a league outing.

At half time the midlanders were comfortably by 2-7 to 1-2, and not even the harsh half-time lecture given to them, which sent Waterford to any extent, was of any use. The result was a continuation of Offaly's dominance, and superior play, and the Waterford side could muster in the half only a solitary goal. In marked contrast the winners forwarded strongly, and by the time the game was over they had scored almost as many goals as the losers.

From showing for the pitiful opposition presented, this was undoubtedly a fine Offaly performance. In Damien Martin they had a goalkeeper from the top bracket, and an unflinching defence completely out of Waterford's attack. Declan Hanrahan did superbly well as he liked at goal, and brilliant at the back, spearheaded by Paddy

KILL ..... 0-3 KILROSSANTY ..... 0-3

ARCH rivals Kill and Kilrossanty must meet again to decide the destination of the 1968 Phelan Cup. On Sunday evening last at Dungarvan's Fraher Field they played an exciting and entertaining draw, but it was only an all out belated Kill rally that saved off their first defeat in major competition within the County for some time past.

It was a final Kilrossanty could and quite emphatically should have won. Yet, in the end it was Kill who came closest to gaining outright victory—a victory let me add that they would scarcely have deserved on the run of play over the hour.

Territorially this was Kilrossanty's game. They seemed to play with far more purpose and zeal than the county champions, and not for the first time the Kilrossanty men also raised their game considerably in the face of this Kill opposition. But the old story of attacking deficiencies cost them dearly, and they squandered enough chances to have won this game by a reasonably comfortable margin.

Kill, on Sunday, presented a somewhat mysterious image. Firstly they lacked the services of a number of regulars, and secondly they seemed incapable of matching strides with the Comeragh men for long spells. Yet at a time late in the game when they looked overall a beaten side they rose to the challenge, and pulled out all the stops to secure scoring equilibrium in the closing stages.

No doubt Kilrossanty will be feeling quite pleased with themselves at having held Kill to a draw. But they can couple those feelings a little of regret, for they played well enough to have taken the trophy. Certainly they were a vast improvement on the Kilrossanty I saw in that shambles of a game with Geraldines, and there is certainly more than a grain of substance to the contention that Kilrossanty match strides with Kill better than any other opposition. But, for all that, I cannot help thinking that they may have lost their great chance, and that Kill may prove a vastly different proposition by the time of the eagerly awaited replay.

ATTACK BLUNTED Kill had first use of the very helpful breeze, but it was soon evident that Kilrossanty's close marking defence was in no way give-away mood. Indeed, seldom have I seen the champions attack so blunted, and Kilrossanty played for most of that opening half like a winning side.

Kill did lead early with points by Seamus Keavans and Michael Regan, but then Kilrossanty assumed almost complete control and three points from free, by midfielders Mitters Casey and another from play by Tom Keating gave them a deserved 0-4 to 0-2 lead by the 25th minute. Kill came again however just before the interval, and points by Keavans (free) and Monty Guiry left them somewhat flattering on level terms at the half way stage.

But with the breeze behind them in the second half, the odds now looked stacked in favour of a Kilrossanty win. And when Mitters Casey pointed three frees "on the trot" in the third quarter, Kilrossanty's grip on the trophy had tightened still further. An exchange of points between Keavans (free) and Tom Riordan did nothing to help Kill's cause, and thus with eight minutes left and the county champions trailing by three points, a major shock seemed inevitable. But that was truly reckoning without the fighting and skilful qualities of Kill.

GURRY'S ROLE It was at this stage that Monty Guiry took on the role of their rampaging saviour. With Keavans absolutely lording it at midfield, and Guiry opening wide gaps in Kilrossanty's defence from the mid-fielder's service, the pacemakers had no option but to concede a succession of frees. From three of those Keavans got his side back on level terms by the 25th minute, and it was the champions who came closest to snatching a winning score in those remaining hectic five minutes. All credit then to Kill for salvaging a game they seemed certain to lose for so much of the hour. They can justly point to the absence of such as Tom Kirwan, Pat McMahon, Paddy Duggan, Michael Lennihan and Donal McGrath as a contributing factor to their failure to sparkle as brightly game: Only spasmodically was Gerry Mooney seen at his best, but Keavans was seldom beaten over the hour. Kill's attack however got little change from an opposing defence that played some fine football. But once again their talented Monty Guiry thundered on the scene when it most mattered, and he, John Regan and Mike Flynn, were easily best of the sector.

Satisfaction mixed with disappointment must surely be Kilrossanty's after match reaction. They played far better than I have seen them do for a long time, but for all that it is an indictment of the side that they failed to gain outright victory from so much possession.

As so oft in the past, their man of the match was Noel Walsh at left back, and the more I see of the Glendalligan man the more convinced I am that he is possibly the most accomplished footballer in the county at the present time. Tony Coffey at centre half was also a tower of strength, and behind them Tony Baldwin gave nothing away.

Both Tom Walsh and Mitters Casey played well at midfield, and Casey's accuracy from frees yielded him a per-

BOARD CONSIDERS PHELAN CUP GAME INCIDENTS

INCIDENTS in the recent Phelan Cup game between Kilrossanty and Aglish Geraldines had a sequel at this week's meeting of the County G.A.A. Board in Dungarvan when the Chairman and Secretary of both clubs, as well as three Geraldines players were ordered to appear before the meeting. But while the officers of the Kilrossanty club attended the meeting, none of the Aglihanes turned up. The Club's Secretary, Mr. P. Kenneally, however, informed the County Secretary of his inability to attend the meeting.

In his report on the game the Referee, Sgt. Vincent Mulligan, Dungarvan, said the first half was sporting, played except for the fact that some of the Glendalligan players did not accept decisions in favour of Kilrossanty. In the second half J. Mearin, one of the chief offenders in this respect again questioned his decision and he sent him off. What took place after that was best forgotten.

The report continued: "Elbows and boots flew indiscriminately and I sent off another Geraldines player, Michael Tobin. I had to call both sides together, and such was the fierceness of the Geraldines play that I was approached by a Kilrossanty official who suggested that I call off the game because he feared for the safety of his team. Coming from the field at the end of the game I was booed by Geraldines supporters and some were thrown at me. One of them struck one of my supporters, Mr. Billy McGrath." The Chairman, Mr. Fanning, said he had requested that the officers and players mentioned in the report attend this meeting so that the matter could be dealt with without delay. But Geraldines were not represented at this meeting. At this stage a number of delegates said that although the name of J. Mearin appeared in the referee's report as being one of the players sent off, it was in fact N. Mearin who was sent off. The Chairman said this was a very serious matter, and they would have to ascertain exactly who was ordered off. It was agreed that the referee be again asked to supply the full names of the players sent off. The Chairman also ruled that the three players, Mearin, Tobin and John Grady, who were not sent off, but who were mentioned in the referee's report, should be cautioned, and suspended until the case is fully considered at the Board's next meeting. He further ruled that Geraldines senior football team shall not engage in any competition until and unless the County Secretary is notified by the Club of the identity of the officers and players mentioned

Chairman raps players who fail to field for county

SOMETHING of a fighting spirit had been created in this County and he was not going to allow it to be smashed now, warned the County G.A.A. Board Chairman, Mr. Pat Fanning, on Monday night's meeting of the Board in the Courthouse, Dungarvan. The Chairman hit out strongly at an apparent lack of interest by some players who had been selected for inter-county games, and added that an explanation would be expected from those who had failed to turn up for games.

Mr. Fanning said for last Sunday's league game against Offaly in Portlaoise, six players on the original panel cried off. And on Sunday morning he had to go around and get hurlers out of bed and ask them to travel to Portlaoise.

Mr. Fanning said the Ballygunner car turned up with a Selector and no players for the club, and they vainly tried to get Ballygunner players to travel. The senior hurling selectors would be meeting in Waterford this week, and all players would be asked if they wished to serve their county. On the basis of the replies received the championship panel would be drawn up. They had created something of a fighting spirit in this county, he said, by players who were prepared at all times to accept discipline and he was not going to allow that spirit to be lost now. There were still players of the right stuff in the county, but this present attitude would not do.

Mr. Fanning went on: "From now on any player called for inter county duty will have to give his all or forget about it. This present attitude cannot

PHELAN CUP REPLAY ON SUNDAY

There should be a great turn out of football followers at Dungarvan's Fraher field on Sunday evening next, when Kill and Kilrossanty replay the 1968 Phelan Cup final (7 p.m.). The sides played an exciting draw on Sunday last, and prospects of at least an equally good hour now are very bright. Kilrossanty on the run of play, should have clinched victory in that draw, but it remains to be seen if they have in fact had their great chance of inflicting defeat on the county champions.

Both sides will be without at least one player who figured in the drawn game. Kill's Martin Kennedy and Kilrossanty's Pa Walsh, ordered off in that tie, were each suspended for a month at Monday night's Board meeting, and replacements must be found for them.

But Kill however will be strengthened by the return of top forward Paddy Duggan, whose suspension has expired, and it also seems probable that the Clere and Munster star Pat McMahon will have sufficiently recovered from injury to take his place on the side. This rally should prove a decided acquisition to them and mindful again though I am of Kilrossanty's ability to rise to the occasion against Kill, I do feel they missed the bus last Sunday.

Kill are bound to benefit from Duggan and McMahon's probable inclusion, and fully versed also in the strength of Kilrossanty's challenge I feel we will see a vastly improved Kill this time.

It should again be close, and remember Kilrossanty above any other side, can shake Kill. But for all that, given the vote to win what should be a game well worth seeing.

CHAMPIONSHIP DRAWS A meeting of the Western Board was held in the Courthouse, Dungarvan, on Saturday night last, and the following championship fixtures were made: Minor Hurling: Tallow v. Cappoquin, at Lismore; Abbeyside v. Dungarvan, at Dungarvan; Lismore v. Colligan Rocks, at Cappoquin; Stradbally v. Fourmilewater, at Dungarvan; Geraldines v. Ardmore, at Dungarvan.

All the above games will be played on the Sunday, 4th May and for the first time ever, there will be a losers group to this championship. Those who should be a losers group in the minor football championship: Minor Football—Brickey Rangers v. Stradbally, at Dungarvan, April 25th; Dungarvan v. Kilrossanty, at Dungarvan, April 24th; Ballinacorney v. Na Piarasigh (Valley Rovers), venue to be decided, April 27th; Ardmore v. Ring, at Dungarvan, April 27th; Lismore v. Tallow, at Tallow, April 27th; Afrane a bye. Juvenile Hurling—Stradbally v. Dungarvan; Abbeyside v. Ardmore; Lismore v. Four-

Cappoquin Win Under 21 Replay

CAPPOQUIN 2-6 ABBEYSIDE 2-2

Cappoquin under 21 players made no mistake at the second attempt in replay last when at the 10th minute they advanced to score two of the Division Championship with a second and thoroughly impressive goal, victory over Abbeyside. The winners were somewhat unfortunate to have been held to a draw at the previous meeting, but justice was done on Sunday night as they overcame their problems in this game.

Cappoquin laid their victory foundation on the opening half when they played some top class hurling against the breeze. They had a tonic start with a goal and two points within six minutes, and when they led 2-3 to 2-1 at the interval, they were clearly poised for victory.

Abbeyside's credit however they bled violently through that second half, and continued to the very end, as all they could muster by the end of the hour was a Paddy Cogan point, and there could be seen glimpses of the justice or equity of the final result.

GREAT START The game was a mere three minutes old when Cappoquin made a lead they never subsequently relinquished, and Mick Cogan's goal was a really brilliant effort. In the 15th minute Nobby Moran scored two points, and Abbeyside's first goal was clearly score came in the 10th minute when Raymond Cantwell goal, and a Marty Kieley point and another goal by Kevin Fleming, to which Cappoquin replied with a goal, left the winners just one point (2-2 to 2-1) in front at the break.

Abbeyside's resistance was at its best in that second half but it was plain to see also that their raids were also infrequent. Territorially that second moiety belonged to the winners, and points by Morrissey (2), Vin Tobin and Martin Arrigan to which Abbeyside's lone reply was a Paddy Cahan point, left Cappoquin thoroughly deserving winners.

This was principally a team effort by the winners, and believe me there are very few weak links on the side. All fifteen players turned in first class displays, but no one can quib if particular reference is made of the truly superb hurling of lads like Frank McCarthy (what a hurling stylist he is), Martin Arrigan, Denis McCarthy, Pat "Nappy" Morrissey and Mick O'Neill.

For Abbeyside none played better than Brendan O'Brien in goal, defenders Mickey Fives (their outstanding player), Larry O'Leife and the entire full line of Felix Shields, Greg Fives and Mickey Hourigan. The midfield partnership of Paddy Cahan and Maffey Hanrahan was also an excellent one, but in an attack that got little freedom from a close-marking defence, only Brian O'Connor, Kevin Fleming and Marty Kieley measured up to expectations. The absence of Peter Flynn was a severe blow to them, albeit I doubt if even he could have turned the tide for them on Sunday. Referee: Jimmy O'Gorman (Tourin).

Gate Jetties

Old Parish, Cappoquin, Tallow. Dates and venues were decided on a recent Juvetile Football—Dungarvan v. Kildubbin, Stradbally v. Kilrossanty, Afrane v. Na Piarasigh (Valley Rovers), Old Parish v. Tallow, Lismore v. Ardmore, Ballinacorney a bye.

Dates and venues for these games will also be made at a future meeting of the Board. The 1968 Phelan Cup, which is being run on a league basis for the first time, will be held on Tuesday, 5th May, with three matches being played down for deciding the county competition. It begins with the Special Football League, and a good turn out is expected.

At Dungarvan, Geraldines and Stradbally will meet, and here Stradbally will be very anxious to reverse a recent defeat by the Aglihanes in the 1968 Phelan Cup competition. Geraldines will be without some key players through suspension, and it will be a major surprise should the Reds fall on this occasion.

AT ABBEYSIDE Ballinacorney and Kilrossanty will also renew Phelan Cup rivalry at Abbeyside, and Aglish County will be endeavouring to reverse a recent defeat by the same opposition. This could well be the best game of the night for Aglish county were ceremonial consideration to be given to Kilrossanty in the '68 competition. However, the Comeragh men are always a very hard side to beat, and though the loss of Pa Walsh is a severe one, I still give them the vote to come through.

AT CAPPOQUIN The third time on Tuesday night is at Cappoquin, where Ardmore make a welcome return. At the premier grade when they meet Brickey Rangers, both these sides will be hoping for a good championship run this year, and will be anxious to start the year with a win. Brickey however, are not nearly as strong as they were a few years ago, and Ardmore should make a winning debut on their return to senior ranks.

All three games are fixed for 7 p.m. LATE STARTS CRITICISED At Monday night's meeting of the Co. Board, the Central Council Representative, Donal Whelan said that the rule regarding the late start to games should be enforced. Last Sunday night's Phelan Cup tie should have got under way at 7 p.m., but was over 20 minutes late in starting.

The Chairman, Mr. P. Fanning, said he was insisting that all future games start on time and if not the prescribed penalties would be imposed. Mr. Whelan said teams and clubs should be made aware of the fact that there was a rule governing the starting time of games, and it should be applied in future.
