Pensioners Rates Relief Scheme Condemned WOULD INCREASE URBAN RATE BY 3/-

THE method of financing this scheme is diabolical and the rest of the ratepayers were being held up to ransom. Mr. Austin Deasy stated at last Monday night's meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council when he strongly criticised the proposed financing of a Rates Relief Scheme to be introduced by the Dept. for the current year. The scheme will cost the Council an estimated £2,500 which would increase the town rate by a further 3/- in the £.

In a report on the proposed scheme the Town Clerk Mr. J. P. Robinson said that the following persons will be eligible to be considered for full or partial relief from rates under this scheme: Non Contributory Widows and Orphans Pensioners; Non Contributory Old Age Pensioners; Disabled Persons drawing Maintenance Allowance; Blind Pensioners; Persons drawing unemployment Assistance, and those drawing Home Assistance.

Mr. Robinson said the scheme would apply to Urban Council tenants and the relief granted in such cases will take the form of a reduction in the increase in rent payable in lieu of rates. The scheme would also apply to tenants of Small Dwellings, provided they were eligible under the categories to qualify for the scheme.

The Town Clerk went on to state that the scheme would cost an estimated £2,500 to implement and the Council would have to approve of expenditure for this amount. The full cost of the scheme would have to be borne by the Council and would represent a rate increase of about 3/- in the £.

Mr. R. Walsh said the scheme was a welcome one in so far as it would help deserving cases, but it was cockeyed in as much as the Dept. suggested that the Council would have to pay for it.

The Town Clerk said they had carried out a survey on the cost by working on those obtaining Free Fuel and those on Home Assistance, and they believed this Rate Relief Scheme would cost £2,500.

Mr. Patrick Whelan said the Dept. should at least contribute so much towards the cost of implementing the scheme.

Mr. Thomas Wade said to scheme because it would help the underprivileged. But was the Town Clerk certain of his figure of £2,500 for the scheme. Could it cost in excess of that, he asked.

Mr. Robinson said it could cost anything up to £500 but he believed the absolute maximum cost would be £3,000. Some of those to apply for the relief might not qualify and he would say that £2,500 to £3,000 would be the approximate cost of the scheme. Those not benefiting from the scheme would have to pay for those that would benefit from it.

Mr. Declan Goode: I wonder if this scheme will satisfy those who may be walking over the rate increases? Mr. T. A. Kyne (Chairman) Not them all.

Mr. Deasy said the fact remained that the method of financing this scheme was diabolical and the rest of the ratepayers were being held up to ransom. There should be a huge subsidy for this type of scheme and they should protest to the Dept. about the financing of it.

The Town Clerk said the Dept. had stated clearly that this scheme would have to be financed by the Local Authorities, and that would be made compulsory on them. However, he felt they should send a resolution to the Dept. about it.

Mr. T. A. Kyne said he felt the cost of the scheme should be recouped from the Dept. thus taking the burden of additional 3/- in the £ rate increase off the backs of those ratepayers that would not qualify for the relief.

Mr. Deasy said he found it hard to think that any Minister in his right mind would impose such a penal tax on the people.

Mr. Wade said they all favoured helping the poor, but the Dept. was trying to give the impression of helping the needy, but then put the cost on the other local tax payers. This scheme should be paid for by the Dept., he added.

The Town Clerk said a rate increase of 3/- in the £ would represent a weekly increase from 6d upwards on the ordinary Council house.

Mr. Kyne: And if the other stages of the Town's Sewerage Scheme are undertaken, and they will have to be done, it will increase the rate by another 3/- or 4/- in the £.

Mr. Whelan: We could be facing a 100/- rate next year.

Mr. Kyne: At the very least, I suggest that we pass a resolution asking the Government to subsidise this scheme 100% and that we adjourn further consideration of it until legislation has been brought into that effect.

Mr. Deasy said it was a low mean way of financing the scheme by asking the local ratepayers to pay for it. The thinking behind the scheme was as low as he had ever seen. If they did not adopt the scheme, he said, they would be accused of not helping the old and the pensioners, but if they passed it they would be taking more money out of the pockets of the Ratepayers.

Further "Offers" Towards Chain of Office for Council Chairman

Following the gesture of Dungarvan Junior Chamber of Commerce in offering £15 towards the purchase of a Chain of Office for the Chairman of Dungarvan Urban Council, two further offers of contributions have been received by the Council.

Mr. J. P. Robinson (Town Clerk) told Monday night's meeting that Rev. Fr. Madden of the Augustinian Order had called and told him that they would like to be associated with it and said his Order would be prepared to donate £5 to it. They, on the Council staff, said Mr. Robinson would also like to be associated with it and would donate £5.

Mr. T. A. Kyne (Chairman) said they should express their appreciation to the Augustinian Fathers and the Council Staff, but he suggested that the matter be left for a while because things were "under way" in this respect.

In T.V. TROPHY FINAL

After a great win at 10/1 in 43.33 secs. at Shelbourne Park on Monday night last, Mr. Tim Fennessy's Be Grateful contests the final of the Television Trophy on Saturday night. She is drawn in trap 6. HORTICULTURE INSTRUCTOR RESIGNS

Mr. Seamus Lillis, recently appointed Temporary Instructor in Horticulture to the Co. Waterford Committee of Agriculture, tendered his resignation to the Committee at last Friday's meeting in Dungarvan.

In his letter of resignation which will take effect within a month, Mr. Lillis said he had secured a permanent post in another county. He thanked the Committee for affording him the opportunity of working in the county and gaining valuable experience.

Mr. George Heskin said they hadn't enough Agricultural or Horticultural Instructors in the county and any money spent in this respect would be money well spent. He also urged that they appoint a permanent instructor to replace Mr. Lillis.

Mr. Patrick Kenneally said they should appoint someone to replace Mr. Lillis because there was a great need to have a Horticulture Instructor in the area.

It was agreed to place the matter on the agenda for the next meeting for consideration.

WEDDING BELLS FITZGERALD - LAVAN

The marriage, with Nuptial Mass and Paoal Blessing, of Mr. John A. Fitzgerald, only son of Mr. William A. Fitzgerald and Mrs. Fitzgerald, Farmlea, Waterford, and Maeva Lavan, third daughter of Mr. M. J. Lavan and Mrs. Lavan, Bridge St., Dungarvan, took place at Holy Cross Church, Tramore, on 5th July. Rev. R. Liddane, C.C., officiated assisted by Rev. C. Lavan.

The bride was given away by her father and was attended by her two sisters. Mrs. Des Broderick was Matron of Honour and Miss Levinia Lavan was child attendant. The best man was Mr. Daniel Hourigan.

The bride wore a full length gown of satin cut on empress line with top and sleeves of ribbon lace, the full length train and veil were also trimmed with lace with head dress to match. She carried a bouquet of orchids, fresas and fern.

The Matron of Honour and child attendant wore full length dresses of silk in pastel shade of turquoise with matching head dress.

The reception was held at Corballymore House, Dunmore East. Going away on the honeymoon, which was spent in Elba, Italy, the bride wore a light weight coat and dress in tangerine, with contrasting accessories.

Festival Ends On Successful Note

ON Sunday last Dungarvan's Eight Day Shark and Shanty Festival ended on a highly successful note. Just as it began, blazing sunshine greeted that closing day and many thousands thronged the town to see the annual event draw to a close. Organised by the town's Junior Chamber of Commerce it certainly proved a financial bonanza for some of the traders and we are also very glad to report that the general display of conduct throughout the week was exemplary.

The finale to the festival took place at the dancing marquee on Sunday night when the Festival Beauty Queen "Miss Mermaid" was crowned. The honour fell to a Co. Waterford nurse, Miss Cait Keating, Kilrossanty, who is nursing in Ardkeen who was chosen from the ten finalists. She was presented with a sash and a cheque for £50 by Mr. J. Doyle, of the Amusement Centre, Dungarvan, who sponsored the event.

SPECTACULAR SUCCESS

Undoubtedly however the success story of the week centres around the £200 "Seven-Up Steps to Stardom" Talent Competition sponsored by Messrs. Kiely's Bottling Co., Tipperary, manufacturers of "Seven Up."

The talent received for this competition attracted bumper attendances for the heats to the Friary Hall and when final night arrived on Saturday night, the hall was literally bursting at the seams. Incidentally no small part for the success of this competition was played by Mr. Vincent Byrne, P.R.O. of the Junior Chamber of Commerce who did all the organising, all the sweating and all the worrying that is part and parcel of a venture of this magnitude. He also did a very fine job of comparing the heats and the final.

The winner of the senior section (First Prize £75), was Waterford City Mime Artist Mike Williams, whose miming of Al Jolson Numbers was first class. The runners-up were the In-Laws Cabaret Group, Dungarvan, namely Michael Walsh, Coolinagour, Lena Malone, Piltown, Mary Walsh, Coolinagour, Noel McGee, Derry and Jerry Mellerick, Conna, whose performance of vocal harmony was excellent. In joint third place came Kenneth McBride, Waterford (Piano and Vocals) and the Mooncoin Band-show.

In the Ballad Group section the lone prize (£60) was won by the Menapia Folk Group, Enniscorthy, and in the Under 16 category, Martin Turner, Thurles (Irish Sten Dancing) took first place, with Richard O'Mahony (vocalist), Tallow, second. A consolation prize was awarded to Dungarvan finalist Finbar Keohan, Main Street. A special prize was also awarded to Mrs. Annette Geoghagan, Dungarvan, as the best solo item other than the winners.

The prizes were presented by Vincent Byrne who paid tribute to the winners and all who had taken part. He praised especially the Press for the extensive coverage given to the event.

Other results were : Carling's Barman's race, 1, M.L. Keyes; 2, Jim Kelleher; 3, Gerry Cummins.
 Rings tournament final—Park House, Dungarvan beat Ned Hanley's Specialists.
 Soccer Cup Final—Dungarvan 'A' 2; Dungarvan B. 1.
 Seven-a-Side Football Final—Army Cadets 9-6; Affane 2-3.

TALENT FINALS IN DUNGARVAN

This week, on Thurs., Fri., nights and the Grand Final and Sat., at the Friary Hall will be held on Saturday. Th Jeremy Ward presents the whole show will be backed by The Sombre Rhythm.
 The snowball Talent contest round West Waterford.
 An interesting item of the show will be the introduction of 3 new songs by the Noonan Sisters, one of which will be entered for the National Song Contest for the Eurovision Song Contest later in the year.

The Noonan Sisters are being promoted by Andrew and Jeremy Ward jointly. "I hope that Dungarvan will be represented in the National Song Contest," he said during the week, "because as I said before, there is plenty of talent here and there is no reason why one of these songs should not be accepted by R.T.E."
 The semi-finals will be held on Thursday and Friday

EXCITING KARTING PROGRAMME

Kart Racing in Dungarvan last Sunday exceeded all expectations in fine conditions. Dry warm weather provided an excellent track, which proved to be very fast. Lap averages were timed at speeds in excess of 60 m.p.h., which meant that the Karts were exceeding 90 m.p.h. on Mary St.
 The local club was well represented in the results, as can be seen below. Perhaps the heroine of the meeting was Miss Heather Large of Dublin, who won the All-comers Race. Heather, who is the Irish Ladies champion, proved she is worth her title when she beat the men.
 The meeting was opened by Mr. John Coleman, Chairman of the J.C.C. Festival Committee, followed by 1 minutes silence as a mark of respect to the late John Brett. Also, the Dungarvan drivers wore a black band on their helmets as a mark of respect.

OBTAINED B.A. DEGREE

Mr. Liam O'Connell, Executive Officer, Dept. of Education, Dublin, has recently obtained his B.A. Degree at U.C.D. Mr. O'Connell is son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O'Connell, Eagle House, Doneraile, Co. Cork.
 Liam is a grand nephew of the late Wm. Canon O'Connell of the Waterford Diocese.

ANNUAL VILLERSTOWN GALA

The Annual Gala Day at Villerstown will be held this year on Sunday, August 3rd, at Villerstown House, by kind permission of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Merrill, commencing at 2 p.m.
 Organised by the local Development Association this Annual event has steadily gained in popularity, and the picturesque West Waterford Village should be thronged for the occasion. Certainly no amount of effort has been spared by such as Chairman Laurence Cotter, Secretary Mrs. Rita Ronayne and willing helpers like Jack Treacy, Tommy Lyons, Jimmy Morrissey, Breeda Crowe and Mrs. Merrin.
 This year's event will include all the past attractions such as Ladies Football, Children's Sports and Fancy Dress Parade and Dancing Competitions. It is also hoped to entice along a Fortune Teller for the occasion.
 The Gala will be rounded off with a Social in the Hall that night.

 "Let us never forget them"

The Cutty Sark, the most famous of all the clippers. This three masted, fully rigged ship of 963 tons was built at Dunbarton in 1869. She made some remarkable passages in the eighties, including the run from Sydney to Ushant in 67 days. Sold to Portuguese owners in 1895 and renamed Ferreira, she was discovered and bought by Captain Downes in 1922 and was finally installed in dry dock at Greenwich for preservation as a national monument. Your ship could come home too — with a fortune.

Mountain Lamb Subsidy Scheme, 1969 and Mountain Hogget Ewe Subsidy Scheme, 1969

Conditions for Payment of Subsidy of £1 per head

- The schemes apply only to suitable lambs and hogget ewes of the Blackface Mountain ("horny") and Cheviot breeds in mountain flocks in the State. For purposes of the scheme a hogget ewe means one with not more than two permanent incisor teeth.
- To qualify, all lambs and hogget ewes must have been dipped in the period 1st June to 7th August, 1969. They must also be of good quality and type. The Minister for Agriculture and Fisheries reserves the right to withhold payment of the subsidy in respect of any hogget ewe adjudged to be unsuitable for breeding or any lamb adjudged to be unsuitable for breeding or fattening, by Inspectors appointed by him, whose decision in this respect shall be final.
- Inspections will be carried out at centres appointed by the Minister. Lambs and ewes which are not presented for inspection at an appointed centre will not be considered for subsidy.
- Lambs and ewes accepted for subsidy shall be permitted to be marked by officers of the Minister in whatever manner the Minister may decide.
- The amount of subsidy payable shall be £1 per qualifying lamb and £1 per qualifying hogget ewe. No animal shall qualify for more than one subsidy payment in 1969.
- Subsidy shall be payable to the flock-owner in respect of sheep which are accepted by an Inspector as suitable for subsidy, provided the flock-owner
 - has mountain grazing within the State;
 - produces a certificate of dipping as provided for in the Sheep Dipping Orders; and
 - makes a declaration on the appropriate form in respect of (a). Flock-owners may be required to provide evidence that they have mountain grazing.
- The Minister's decision in all matters relating to the Schemes shall be final.

N.B. Under no circumstances will subsidy be paid on sheep in respect of which a dipping certificate for the period 1st June to 7th August, 1969, is not produced.

CHAMPIONS WIN —BY A POINT

TALLOW 3-5
ABBEYSIDE 3-4

Tallow the champions are through to the Western minor hurling final again, but what a fright they got from a very young and determined Abbeyside team in a thrilling hour's hurling at Cappoquin on Saturday night last.

From start to finish this was a game that lived up to all pre-match expectations, the marking was close and hard and first time striking was the order of the day and with the issue in doubt right up to the final whistle the attendants had plenty to shout about.

Tallow, who fielded short T. Doyle and P. Hegarty, jumped into an early lead with a goal from M. Walsh. Then Abbeyside began to find their form and points from V. Tobin (2) and M. Kiely put them level, defences on both sides being on top. Then John Fraher goalied to put the Villagers ahead at the break (1-3 to 1-0).

On the re-start J. Hartigan broke through for a Tallow goal and they were level again. John Fraher put Abbeyside ahead again with his second goal, but M. Walsh did likewise for Tallow to again level the scores. J. Hartigan and M. Kiely exchanged points and with 10 minutes to go the sides were still level.

Then S. Hannon rallied his team and Tallow scored four points per J. Hartigan, M. Walsh and S. Hannon (2) to leave them four points clear and only five minutes to go to full time. But then Abbeyside produced a magnificent effort and John Fraher gained possession and from 25 yards out, crashed the ball to the net. Abbeyside kept up the pressure, but Tallow held on to that vital one point lead.

Best for Tallow were: S. Hannon, P. Norris, L. O'Brien, J. Treacy, S. Cronin, N. Sheehan, S. Curley, M. Walsh, J. Hartigan.

Best for Abbeyside were: goalie Jim Kiely (despite a rather shaky start); Michael Fives, Felix Shields and Jim Fraher in defence, and Matty Hanrahan and Marty Kiely at midfield, and forwards John Fraher, V. Tobin, P. Barron and B. Lynch.

Facile Stradbally Win

It was "never a contest" in the truest meaning of the words. For Stradbally it was a virtual cakewalk to the Western Under 21 football championship final, but for spectators at the Dungarvan venue on Sunday it was a one sided affair in which the outcome was never in the slightest doubt.

The winners reigned supreme in practically every sector, and with Virgie Power doing as he liked against inferior opponents, Stradbally scored with almost consummate ease. By the half way stage they had built up a 2-6 lead, and so superior were they that the issue was well and truly determined by that stage. The second half was an exact replica of the first, as the Reds, but particularly Power "went to town" on the opposition. But unfortunately the needle which was very obviously in the exchanges from an early stage grew to serious proportions shortly before the close when an ugly brawl involving almost a dozen players broke out near the Tourin goalmouth. It was an incident in which no holds were barred, and how referee Mossie McGrath, whose handling of the game otherwise was excellent, could not see fit to issue marching orders to at least two players, was incomprehensible.

So facile was this Stradbally win that one might easily tend to exaggerate the side's worth. But even so, with several firmly established seniors spread around in key sectors, they will make a bold bid to annex the Divisional title.

Virgie Power was easily their most accomplished player and his personal tally of 2-9 speaks for itself. He received most assistance in attack from Michael Coffey and P. J. Coleman. Tom Halpin's dominance at midfield was pronounced, and in a defence that was never seriously tested, Robin Ahearne, John Kiely and Alo Gurrán looked best.

Tourin's stars were few and far between, and but for the efforts of Berric and Peter Scanlon, Ritchie and lucky Ormonde and Sean Barry the tally against might have been the dazzling display given by Paddy Sullivan, Pierce Casey and Donal O'Connor.

Referee: M. McGrath (Dun garvan).

All Set for Dungarvan Show

ON Thursday next, 31st July, the year's largest gathering of the agricultural community in the area will take place at the Dungarvan Agricultural Show where prizes totalling more than £1,000 are to be won, in addition to numerous cups and special awards.

The pattern of the Show is too familiar to need elaboration to regular attenders but to those attending for the first time, it is worth noting that there is something for every taste—and not all of it is confined to those engaged commercially in agriculture; there are displays of flowers and fruits and vegetables, decorative arrangements, jams, fruit, cakes and pastries, home crafts of all descriptions and art. There is also the Comic Dog Show (for which there is still time to enter) which will be judged by Charles Mitchell, the doyen of T.V. news readers, whose career and accomplishments would fill many lines of an Irish Who's Who.

SHOW JUMPING

Ten days ago there were fears for the going for this event but the recent rain and the immaculate condition of the Gaelic Field in which it is held have ensured that the course will be in tip-top condition. That the course will be testing and imaginative may be taken as certain with this task in the able hands of Capt. T. D. Morgan, one of the foremost designers in the country, whose services are sought by shows all over the country. Four members of the Irish Army Show Jumping team will take part in at least two of the events, so the standard will be high, with all the top riders using Dungarvan to put a final polish on their horses before the Dublin Show the following week. The Phoenix Beer Open Championship for the Dungarvan Perpetual Challenge Cup alone has prizes worth £150, while the Guinness Speed Competition always an exciting event to watch has prizes down to sixth place.

HORSES

In this renowned horse rearing area it is not surprising that prizes are valuable and the competition keen. There are twenty-one classes for horses this year.

CATTLE

There are six Challenge Cups and five Special Prizes in this category, apart from the pure monetary reward which is not inconsiderable. Entries are better, however, and with the general improvement of cattle in the area which has been going on over the last few years, there should be some very fine beasts on show.

SHEEP

Sheep entries are well up this year . . . a great tribute to Mr. Brennock and his enthusiastic committee.

COMIC DOG SHOW

This event has proved a great attraction since its inception, providing as it does for all types of dogs, pedigree and non-pedigree, and the judge has always been someone of distinction. This year the organisers, Mrs. Howell, a well-known breeder of greyhounds and whippets, and Miss Twyman, M.R.C.V.S., breeder of Irish Wolfhounds (one of which was reputed to have patrolled Trumann after an attempted assassination) have secured their judge for this year probably the best known personality in Ireland, Charles Mitchell, who brings the events of the world, good and bad, into our homes with equal urbanity; he will doubtless exhibit the same charm and grace to winners and losers alike. Practically any dog would appear to come within the scope of the nine classes of the Show.

HORTICULTURE, CRAFTS, HANDCRAFTS AND ART
These classes have been well supported by entries, especially the flowers. The entries in the Crafts Section which are judged the day before, are on sale on Show day.

With everything in apple pie order in the capable hands of Tom Phean, the new Secretary and Mrs. Jessie Coward (in charge of the Home Industries section) all we need now is a fine day to have a very successful Show.

The Show dance will be held at the C.S.M. Clonea, that night with the Clipper Carlton Showband.

Schoolboy Soccer News

Dungarvan soccer club's Under 14 team had two further great wins to their credit during the past week. On Wednesday week last they had a great cup win over Bohemians (Waterford), at Springmount, and on Saturday last, in Waterford, they beat Phoenix 6-2 in a league encounter.

A feature of both displays were the dazzling displays given by Paddy Sullivan, Pierce Casey and Donal O'Connor. This U-14 side are a really good combination and are unbeaten all season and if they can sustain this form, then, both league and cup are well within their grasp.

U-16's BEATEN
Dungarvan's U-16 team went down 2-1 to Bohemians last week, at Springmount, but this result could easily have been reversed as, football wise the locals more than held their own.

However with time running out and with the score at 1-1, Bohs pulled out just that little extra effort and were handsomely rewarded, for when scoring the vital winner.

Best for Dungarvan were Eamonn Kiely (who can, with training, yet prove to be a great keeper), Martin Geoghegan and Pat Morrissey.

YOUTHS

The next couple of weeks are going to prove exceptionally busy for Dungarvan's Youth team who are strongly bidding for league honours and have a cup final date with either Tramore or Wex-

Dungarvan have got together a very nice side in this grade and are top of the league table with city side Johnville and the vital clash between these sides took place in Waterford last (Wednesday) night. Then on Friday night Dungarvan are at home to Hibernians, and if Dungarvan can win these two they would become red hot favourites for their first ever Youths title.

Council Rejects Idea of Footbridge

Instead of erecting a footbridge on the Southern side of the existing Causeway Bridge linking Dunganvar and Abbeyside, as has been suggested by the Co. Engineer, Mr. J. D. Hally, Dunganvar Urban Council is to ask the Co. Engineer if it is possible as an alternative to widen the existing footpath on the bridge by two feet, and erect a railing for the benefit of pedestrians. That Mr. T. A. Kyne stated at last Monday's meeting of the Council, would be far better than destroying one of the most beautiful bridges in Ireland.

In the report to the meeting, Mr. Hally recommended that if the footbridge was to be erected, it should be placed on the southern side of the existing bridge. It could be painted to blend with the surroundings and that would not make it so conspicuous. Mr. Hally first mooted this bridge because he considered the Causeway bridge an increasing danger to pedestrians.

Mr. Kyne (Chairman) said it would be far better to widen the existing footpath on the bridge and erect a railing on it than to destroy one of the most beautiful bridges in Ireland.

Mr. Tommy Wade said the Chairman's suggestion would be inclination for the children to climb up and down on the railing. The safest proposition was the erection of the footbridge and they had to take human life into consideration also. The footbridge was the only answer.

Mr. Kyne said they were all interested in human life, but if his suggestion was not possible he would prefer to do away with the bridge altogether and build a new one like Youghal Bridge.

The Council's Engineer, Mr. P. Walsh said if the bridge was widened it would retain its present architectural features. However, he did not believe that a footbridge would be used in the winter at night time.

Mr. Kyne said he had asked housewives about it and they told him they wouldn't use the footbridge for £1,000.

Mr. A. Deasy said the present situation wasn't good however and it was very dangerous.

Mr. Kyne said that even by widening the footpath on the Bridge by another two feet, he was satisfied that two lorries could pass on the bridge at the same time. He would not favour anything that would destroy the architectural features of the bridge, and he was satisfied that the erection of the footbridge would do this.

It was finally agreed that they ask the Co. Engineer if it was possible to widen the existing footbridge and erect a railing, or alternatively widen the bridge, or falling that, replace it altogether.

New Kilmac' School Caretaker

A 30 year old married shopkeeper, Donal Casey, Corner Shop, Kilmacthomas, has been appointed Caretaker of the new Vocational School opening in Kilmacthomas next September. Mr. Casey, who defeated Terence Kent, Main Street, Kilmac' by 10 votes to 3 for the post, will take up duty on 1st August.

Mr. T. F. Maher (Acting C.E.O.) said there were originally five applicants for the post, but only two of these filled up the necessary forms and submitted them. Both had the necessary qualifications, he said. Casey was aged 30, married with two children, and Kent was aged 36 and single.

Senator Sean Ormonde said both applicants were pupils of his and good friends of his, and both would fill the post adequately. He had been approached by Casey about the job and had promised to support him. He was a young married man with a family and lived within 100 yards of the school. He would not have given that promise however had he known that Kent was going for the job, and he only learned of that on his way to the meeting. Kent, however, would also be admirably suited for the job.

Mr. Liam Comerford said he would support Casey, because he was a married man with a young family. Asked if Casey was doing well in his shop, Senator Ormonde said he was not.

Mr. Comerford then proposed and Mr. Declan Ahearne seconded the appointment of Casey.

Mr. Michael Heaneberry, who said Kent had no job, proposed him and Mr. Ted Buckley, N.T., seconded. Casey was then appointed on a 10-3 vote, and he will take up duty on 1st August.

TEACHING APPOINTMENTS MADE

A number of teaching appointments were made by the Co. Waterford Vocational Education Committee at last Monday's meeting in Dunganvar.

Mr. T. F. Maher, Acting C.E.O., said they had failed to get any applicants for the posts of Domestic Economy Teacher, teacher of French and General Subjects, or a teacher of Maths and General Subjects. Last Friday the Committee's Interview Board met in Dunganvar to consider the applicants for the other posts and they had come up with a number of recommendations.

Mr. Maher said that four applications had been received for the position of Rural Science teacher in Dunganvar, and the Board had recommended the appointment of Kevin Hefferan (23), Garryduff, Youghal who had 12 months teaching experience in Co. Co. Cork.

The Board also recommended the appointment of Edmond Hartery, B.A., Butlerstown, Co. Waterford, as Temporary Wholtime Teacher of History and Geography and General Subjects at the new Kilmacthomas School, and of Mrs. Annie Mulcahy, Dunganvar, as Permanent Wholtime Commerce teacher in Kilmacthomas.

On the proposal of Mr. Declan Ahearne, seconded by Mr. Patrick Kenneally, the Committee unanimously approved of the appointments.

Abbeyside Win on Penalties

Abbeyside 1; Mooncoin 1. Abbeyside made heavy work of defeating 3rd Div. side Mooncoin in the Portlaw Tournament, on Sunday last, and in fact it took a bout of penalty kicks to separate the sides, after they had finished level at full time.

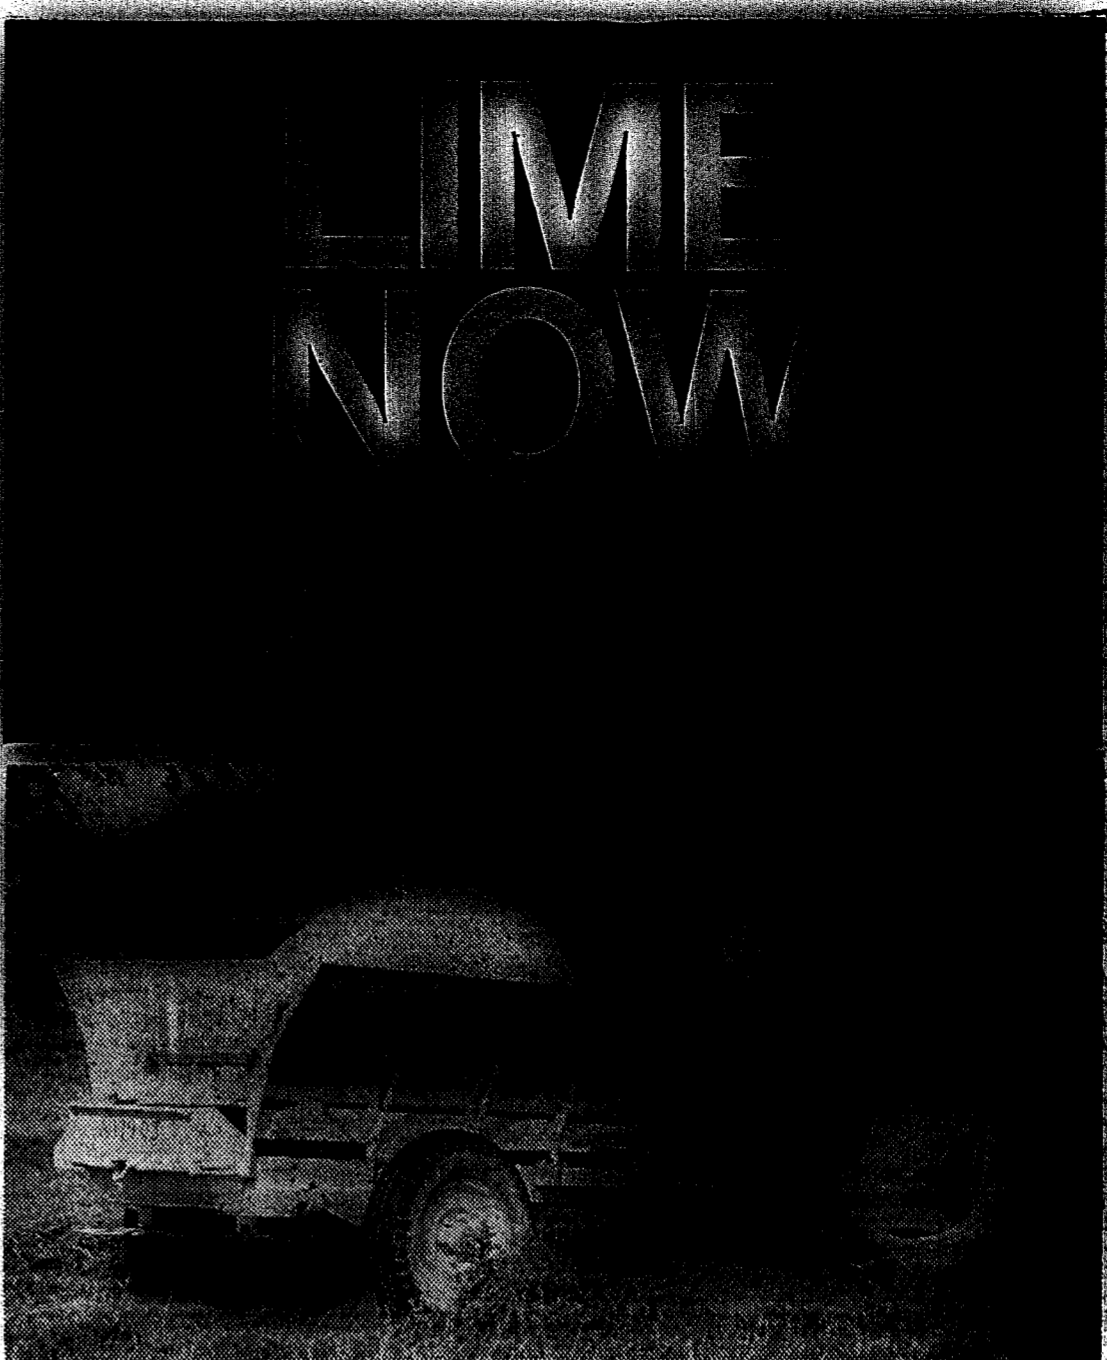

Some of the Abbeyside players were suffering from an overdose of festival spirit and as a result the team's effort was quite disjointed. They showed slackness in defence when the Kilkenny side hammered home the lead goal after ten minutes, and can count themselves lucky not to have conceded a few more goals to a side that showed plenty of energy and football ability, despite the sizzling conditions.

However, the Villagers should have had a hatful of goals themselves before they finally equalised midway through the second half, when McNulty's searching drive beat the Mooncoin defence, and Rufus Flynn just got his head to the ball to beat the onrushing keeper.

Both sides subsequently had plenty of chances to grab the winner, but by full time there was no further score. Both sides then took three penalties each, and both converted two. In the next series Mick Brett shot home two more, but Mooncoin struck the woodwork with their last two kicks, and Abbeyside were gratefully in the semi-final, in which they meet the winners of Dunganvar v. Evergreen.

Pat McNulty put in a powerful stint at right half for Abbeyside, and for whom Mick Brett and Mick Keohan also stood out.

The Abbeyside team was: McGrath; Egan; Kyne, McNulty, Brett, Keohan, Morrissey, Walsh, Needham, Flynn, Langan.

Lowest Tender Not Accepted for B.T.S. School in "Real Danger"

The lowest tender was not accepted when the members of the Co. Waterford Vocational Education Committee at last Monday's meeting considered the tenders submitted for the provision of Garden Equipment.

The Acting C.E.O., Mr. T. F. Maher said the lowest tender in a sum of £119-14-0 had been submitted by Browne-Thompson, Academy St., Cork. Power Seed, Waterford had submitted a tender for £127-9-9. These were the two lowest received.

Mr. Charles Curran said he had no hesitation in proposing acceptance of Powers tender. There was only a few pounds in the difference and the Waterford firm was giving good employment in the county.

The Committee unanimously agreed to accept the higher tender of the two.

Office in Dunganvar

At last Friday's meeting of Co. Waterford Committee of Agriculture, Mr. Kieran O'Ryan requested that they endeavour to have a sub office for the Bovine Tuberculosis Scheme set up in Dunganvar, where there were no facilities at present.

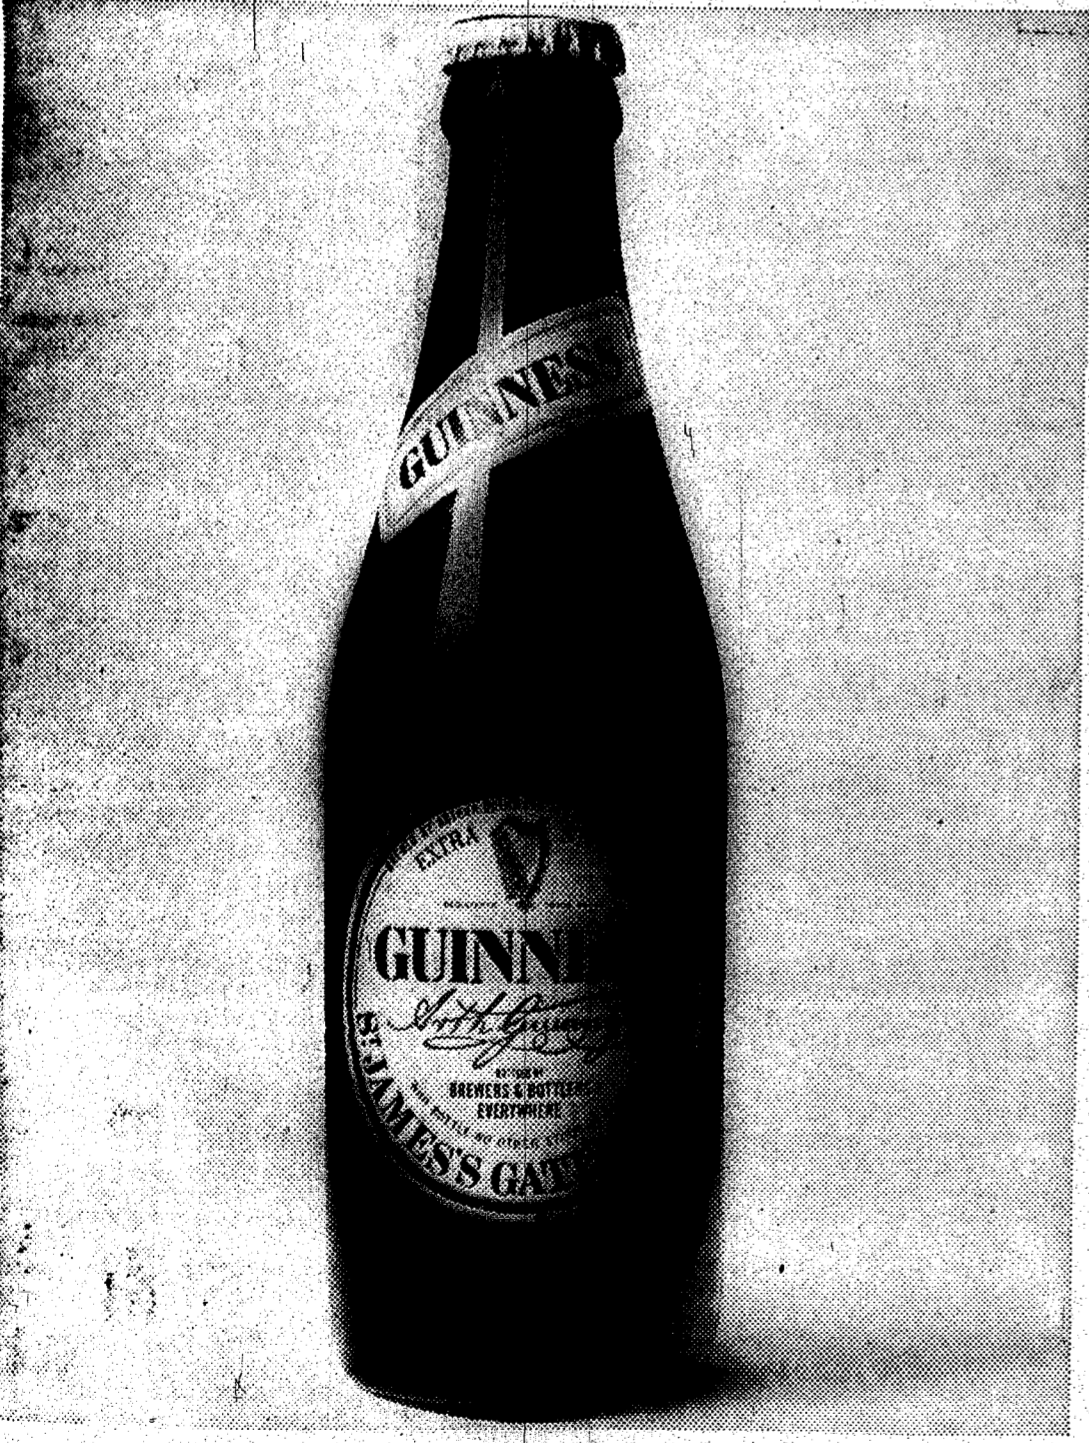

Mr. O'Ryan said farmers in West Waterford had to travel 60 miles to Waterford for Blue Cards and it would be far more convenient if there was a sub office in Dunganvar, where the Land Project Office and Co. Committee of Agriculture Offices were.

The Committee unanimously agreed to try and have a sub office set up in Dunganvar.

Because the present wiring system at Dunganvar Technical School was highly dangerous, the Vocational Committee is advertising for tenders this week for the installation of a complete new electrical installation system in the school.

At last Monday's meeting of the Vocational Committee Mr. T. F. Maher, Acting C.E.O., said they would be advertising for tenders this week, and the latest date for receipt of those tenders would be August 8th. It was hoped to get the work done as soon as possible after that date.

Mr. Charles Curran said this work would have to be done quickly because the present wiring system was highly dangerous. They couldn't allow the present position to obtain any longer because the school could be burned down.

COUNCIL TO RETAIN "SHAMBLES" INTERNATIONAL ANGLING EVENT SITE

MR. PARK WASH, Urban Engineer, told the members of the Dungarvan Urban Council at last night's meeting that they would be made to choose the Council's site for the "Shambles" International Angling event. The Post Office Authorities, who would not consider anything less than £10,000 for the site, had previously been heard by the County Waterford Libraries Committee which the Council to provide them with part of the site.

The discussion on the matter has been held in Committee at Monday night's meeting, but Mr. Thomas Wade proposed that the Council should be allowed to remain on the site. He was in favour of excluding the site from any of their discussions.

Mr. T. A. Kyne (Chairman) said he had no objection to the Council remaining on the site, but he had one definite objection to the site should be put in the Press at this stage. However, if the Council were present for the discussion then they had the right to publish it.

Mr. Declan Goode said he understood this Shambles site had been left to the people of the town by the late Duke of Devonshire and he wondered if the Council had the right to claim it at all.

Mr. Kyne said it was decided by an Act of Dail Eireann that it was Council property which they wished with it.

Mr. Goode then proposed that Mr. T. Wade seconded that they give the site to the Library Committee for the town's new library.

Mr. Kyne said a proposition such as that was all very fine, but he would like all the facts in relation to this site to be known. He looked on this site as if it was his own property for which he would seek the highest bidder. In view of the fact that the Library would be an amenity building he would be prepared to give an allowance for it, and he would take that allowance from the offer of the highest bidder and then say to the Libraries Committee "you can have it for that amount." He stressed again that they were present, would have the freedom to divulge the figures involved if they so wished.

Mr. J. P. Robinson (Town Clerk) said the site was 5,200 square feet and they had asked the Post Office Authorities if they would pay £5,000 for the site. They said they definitely would not and added that their value had put a value at slightly more than £5,000 on it.

The Town Clerk said the Co. Manager had asked a local auctioneer if he thought he would get an interested party if the site was offered for sale and he said he had no doubt that he could. The Auctioneer subsequently told him that a Commercial firm in the Supermarket or Drapery Line would probably give £1 per square foot for the site. That meant a total of £5,200 and they would probably raise that figure to £5,500 if it was put up on the open market.

The Town Clerk went on to say that the Manager was also negotiating with the Library Committee and they were hoping that the Council would give the site for a nominal sum. They had also stated that they would not require the entire site.

Mr. Robinson said the Manager had asked him to put the following position before the members: The Library Committee would only be able to pay a very nominal sum for the site; they could put it on the open market; they could sell it to the Post Office for their offer, or take into consideration whether it would be a feasible site for a supermarket, taking into account the car parking problems that would arise.

IT WOULD BE MADE
The Council's Engineer, Mr. Patrick Walsh said the Shambles site embraced the Council's Yard, and he must stress that if they sold the site they would have to re-build that yard and that would entail a minimum cost of £20,000 or £30,000. They would be made to dispose of the site for the figures mentioned at this meeting, and he felt they should not dispose of it at all. Dungarvan was a developing town and the site was in the centre of it, and the figures mentioned were ridiculous. He would not consider anything less than £10,000 for it.

Mr. Whelan said they were here meeting after meeting and trying to keep rent and rates down and here now they were being asked to give away this valuable site for practically nothing. They must also think of the ratepayers of the town, he said.

Mr. Deasy said as much as they were in favour of promoting culture, the fact was that this site was very valuable property and as Mr. Whelan had stated, they must consider the ratepayers.

Mr. Wade said it was all right to say the site was worth £10,000, but it was another thing to get that amount for it. The Library Committee would have a very imposing building there and they would be promoting culture. He felt it would be far better to do this than to get £5,000 from the Post Office people who could compete in any market. That was why he moved in favour of the Library Committee and it would pay dividends over the years to give them the site.

Mr. Robinson said from the Library Committee's finance they would be able to pay them only a sum far less than £1,000. They had been given a free site for the Library beside the Provincial Bank, but they did not consider it a suitable site.

Over 100 anglers from Ireland, Great Britain, West Germany and the Netherlands, took part in the three day International Gold Medal Sea Angling competition in Dungarvan on Friday, Saturday and Sunday last and the major event was a tremendous success. Over the three days too, Irish anglers met with considerable success, and the Olympic style gold, silver and bronze medals were presented to the winners at a function in the Devonshire Arms Hotel, on Sunday night.

The three day event was officially opened on the Thursday night by Mr. Seamus Davin, Field Sports Officer, Bord Failte, who performed the traditional hoisting of the tri-colour to signify that the event was officially opened.

Addressing the big attendance, Mr. Davin said Dungarvan had everything to make it a first class sea angling Centre. The local club had an excellent fleet of boats and it was the intention of Bord Failte to give the club financial assistance towards purchasing more boats of a type now used throughout Europe.

The Chairman of the Dungarvan Sea Angling Club, Mr. Michael Moloney, speaking in Irish and English, extended a welcome to all their competitors. It was and had been the ambition of their club to launch a unique competition and this competition was not alone unique to this country and to Europe, but to the world in that they were offering Olympic style Gold, silver and bronze medals. They were offering to the anglers of the world a competition and prizes that would be honoured and respected, and Dungarvan in the years to come would be unable to contain the number of anglers wishing to compete for the trophies they would have to offer. The international class entries for this three day event was recognition of Dungarvan as being one of the finest Sea Angling centres in Europe. He thanked Bord Failte and Dungarvan Junior Chamber of Commerce for the financial assistance given to them to run the competition.

The President of the J.C.C. Mr. Austin Hallahan also spoke and said his Chapter was proud to be associated with this Sea Angling Olympics.

The official closing ceremony on Sunday night was performed by Capt. C. P. O'Toole, President of the Irish Federation of Sea Anglers, and he also presented the prizes at the function in the Devonshire Arms Hotel.

The following are the results: Heaviest Shark: 1. M. O'Hara (Irl.); 2. C. F. Massett (GB.); 3. D. Conside (Irl). Heaviest Conger: 1. J. Doherty (Irl.); 2. P. J. Sweeney (do.); 3. J. Wood and M. Farrell (do.). Heaviest Ray: 1. Herr Rechner (West Germany); 2. J. L. Frewin (G.B.); 3. M. Ayto (do.). Heaviest Pollock: 1. F. Mulcahy, Dungarvan; 2. R. Martin (G.B.); 3. P. J. Gleeson (Irl.). Heaviest Gar Fish: J. L. Frewin (G.B.). Ladies Prize: Mrs. Moyra Baumann (Dungarvan). Nations Trophy: Ireland 19 pts., 1st; G.B., 7 pts., 2nd; West Germany, 3rd. Team Prize: Ireland—P. J. Sweeney, J. Doherty, J. Monahan, P. J. Meally—all members of the Kilkenny Angling Club.

Special Prize presented by Nimrod (G.B.) S.A.C.—M. O'Hara (Irl.). Over the three days a total of just over 2,000 lbs. of fish was landed, but this was disappointing. The main reason was the adverse weather conditions.

To Increase Lectures in hope of Attracting Industry
The Co. Waterford Vocational Education Committee is to increase from the usual two to four the number of Royal Dublin Society Lectures to be given in the county during the coming year in the hope that it will provide the stimulus it gets "off the ground."

At last Monday's meeting of the Committee in Dungarvan, Mr. Austin Deasy said he would like to see a lecture being given in an area where it might act as a stimulant for vegetable growing. On the one side of them in Cork there was a Vegetable Industry and on the other side of them in Wexford a Fruit Industry whilst they in Waterford were more suited for both. This area should be given some stimulus in an effort to get an industry off the ground. He believed these lectures could be of immense benefit.

Mr. T. F. Caher (Acting C.E.O.) said it was proposed to hold one lecture in Kilmacthomas, and this was agreed by the Committee. On the proposal of Mr. Declan Ahearne, seconded by Mr. J. Quirk it was also agreed that Tallow be given a lecture.

Replying to Mr. Deasy, the C.E.O. said each lecture cost the Committee £5. Mr. Deasy suggested that a Horticulture Lecture be held in such areas as Ring and Ballinacorney. It would be a good thing to speculate a few pounds, because it might snowball successfully.

Mr. C. Curran said it might not be a good thing either to hold too many lectures, because in the past some of them had fallen through because of lack of attendance. He suggested however that a lecture be given to Kinsalebeg, where they were always guaranteed an attendance from 80 to 100. Every lecture held there he said, put about £5,000 in the pockets of the farmers.

It was agreed to hold lectures in Kilmacthomas, Tallow, Ballinacorney and Kinsalebeg, and depending on how successful these prove, the position in relation to other areas will be considered fully for next year.

SYMPATHY
At last Friday's meeting of the Co. Waterford Committee of Agriculture, a vote of sympathy was extended to the parents, brothers and sisters of the late John Brett, Colligan.

CONRADH NA GAELIGE

RE-ORGANISATION

Dungarvan Branch Conradh na Gaelige, has recently, in cooperation with the new Conradh na Gaelige Tír na nÓg (Promoter / Organiser) for this area, Tomas C. Breathnach, re-organised its whole system of working. This re-organisation, which necessitated getting the general public more involved in the revival effort and in getting our Branch members more involved in the social and other aspects of the life of the general public, was effected at two public meetings held in Dungarvan on 26th Bealtaine and 10th Iúil, 1969 respectively.

These two meetings, which were attended by the Tír na nÓg Branch, officers of the Waterford Co. Board, members of the Branch, and members of various local organisations, including the Dungarvan Junior Chamber of Commerce, decided to appoint six sub-committees, comprised of members of the public and members of the Branch, under the chairmanship of a member of one of those groups.

These six sub-committees, together with their chairmen are as follows: Publicity and Membership Sub-Committee: Chairman, Eamonn MacMurchu; Members—Sean O'Brien, Rosemary Logue, Bean Uí Sheasail, Bean Mhic Craith.

Faoinne Promotion Sub-Committee: Chairman, Bioraid Breathnach; Members—Pádraig Ó Fiannuasa, Sean O'Donnahill, Maire Ní Urnuimha, Seamus O'Coibthaigh.

Social and Entertainment Sub-Committee: Chairman—Sean Diring; Members—Donal O'Faolain, Tomas De Freine, Mairead Bean Uí Fhaoilain, Seosamh O'Fathgáin, Doris Ní Choimín, Tomas O'Cuinn, Eamonn O'Fiacháin, Michael O'Gáin and two members of Dungarvan Junior Chamber of Commerce, Beaird O'Foghlu and Liam Mac Gearailt.

Young People's Sub-Committee: Members—Elean Nic Choshaigh, Elean Ní Mhaoldomhnaigh, Aine Ní Cheilteachair, Gibhlin Ní Chaoimh, Caitlín Ní Chobhthaigh, Brid Ní Chobhthaigh, Maire Ní Chobhthaigh.

Masses, Services, etc. in Irish Sub-Committee: Chairman, Tadgh O'Loinsigh; Members—An Brathar Orlmh O'Faolain, Pádraig O'Conaire, Pádraig Ó Urnuimha, Diarmuid Mac Chóitín.

Magazine Distribution Book-Club Promotion Sub-Committee: (Chairman and members to be appointed).

The newly-appointed Committees are spearheading a new drive in Dungarvan to re-instate Irish as the Premier language in the town, and we are glad to report that the sub-committee for Social and Entertainments has already made its presence felt in a spectacular manner and the group of entertainers formed under its aegis "Ceolteoirí na nDeise," having performed in Eochall on 21st June, at the opening of the Youghal/Rochdale Festival Week having agreed to provide an "Oiche Gaelach" (the best of our traditional songs, music, dance, languages, etc.) for visitors, tourists, etc. in Dungarvan's hotels during July, August and September, and having also contributed an evening's entertainment at the Friary Hall, during Festival Week.

GLOR NA GAELIC COMPETITION
The town of Dungarvan has been entered for the 1969 Glor na nGael competition, and it is confidently anticipated that when the above-mentioned sub-committees get into full swing in their work, the town will be well on the way towards achieving a high mark in the competition. The Glor na nGael competition is a community programme held annually to discover the town which has done most to promote and encourage the use of Irish in its every day life, and the total prize fund for the competition exceeds £1,000.

All organisations, and many individuals in the town have already been circumscribed in this matter, and it is expected that those who have not already done so will send a representative to the next meeting of the sub-committees, to be held at Lawlor's Hotel on Aoinne, 25th Iúil. Everyone who supports the revival of our ancient, noble and beautiful native tongue, whether he or she speaks it or not, should attend this meeting, and lend a shoulder to the wheel.

"Ní neart go chor le cheile."

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Sir, Firstly, may I congratulate Mr. Charles Curran on his election as Chairman of Waterford Co. Council. I am sure, with his large repertoire of hackneyed clichés, that he will continue to fill the post in the best traditions of old-style politics. He is able to throw such phrases as "doctrinaire socialist policies," "massive subsidisation," "penal taxation," about with mastery eloquence and one wonders, in view of the continued success of himself and his Party, if anyone ever bothers to question these catchphrases.

While in the present debate I have busied myself in explaining why I think my opinions are correct, Mr. Curran has defended his corner by loading his non-argument with such phrases, which are meaningless without further clarification, and by making a series of declarations and statements which are (at least to the discerning reader) also useless, because they are not justified in the form of constructive criticism.

In his latest waste of the Observer's valuable space (19th July) Mr. Curran implied that I am a doctrinaire socialist, and that therefore I am "dangerous." I can assure Mr. Curran that I am one of the least dangerous men imaginable, and my friends (I actually have some) will vouch for my concern for Ireland and its people.

Mr. Curran's Party has thrived on the idea that Socialists are people driven on by ulterior motives, determined to crush the people under their foot. This notion is quite ridiculous. Most Socialists (if not all) are extremely sincere men who can see great inequalities and injustices in the existing society, and wish to do something about it. Nothing can be more noble ideal. I myself could hardly be described as what Mr. Curran would call a "doctrinaire socialist," but I do believe in the type of Christian Socialism practised in Denmark, based on co-operation and local democracy, rather than central dictation, whether from a ruling government.

Unfortunately, Fianna Fail has developed in this country a tradition of selfishness, one-upmanship and greed which makes the promotion of co-operation very difficult, and the continuation of the present regime will make the ultimate conversion of the social system to a true Christian one increasingly difficult.

Mr. Curran resents my attack on the farmers of Ireland. Well, I strongly resent the utter contempt which he obviously shows for the "Just Society" policy. This document was formulated by some very sincere and conscientious people, and I abhor any derisive attitude to it. Anyone who has ever spoken to Declan Costello, or heard him speak, could hardly doubt his great concern for the present state of the country, and for the need for reform. Such men are dangerous! All Mr. Costello and his colleagues want is that the ordinary people should have a say in their own affairs. Such a policy is "dangerous" God help Ireland!

Mr. Curran states that I would tax the farmers heavily. Where on earth did he get that idea? I am a firm believer in the "ability to pay" policy as regards taxation, and I say that if a farmer makes the same income, then he should be taxed to the same extent. Nothing could be simpler or fairer.

Now I realise that most farmers do not keep accounts so that it is difficult to establish what their income is, and I admit that the best alternative is to tax the farmer community according to the valuation of land. This system can also be justified in that it encourages the farmer to be an efficient as possible.

At this stage, I would like to point out that in the discussion on paying for health from the rates, I was concerned primarily with rates imposed on urban dwellers, whose income generally can be established much more easily, and who, I believe, should be taxed according to that income.

In his last paragraph, Mr. Curran accuses me of muddled thinking, when it is obviously he who is suffering from the defeat. I advocate higher taxation on farmers (not all, but those able to pay). I also think that the very idea of property owners paying for health services is ridiculous. This is not the contradiction it seems. Property owners should of course pay for health ser-

KILMAC' NEWS

SILVER JUBILEE
Heartly congratulations to Sister Mary Teresa (Tobin), Convent of Mercy, Kilmac' who celebrated the silver jubilee of her reception into religion recently. The joyous occasion was marked by celebrated Mass by seven priests in the Convent Chapel, two of whom were her brothers, Rev. Fr. Tobin, Glasgow and Fr. Tobin, Clonmel.

Members of her family and other friends were later entertained at a dinner at the Hotel Minella, Clonmel.

ENGAGED
Congratulations to Mr. Edmond Whelan, Rathmeadon, and Miss Margaret Griffin, Kilmacragh, on the occasion of their recent engagement.

VISITOR
Student Nurse Joanne Power, Ballinasloe, visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. M. Power, High St., Kilmacthomas, recently.

PATTERN
Sunday of last week was the traditional feast of SS. Cuan and Brogan, and the annual pilgrimage to Mochel Shrine attracted a record attendance for recent years. The Rosary was recited by Fr. O'Brien, C.C., Clonca and hundreds took part in the practice of "walking the stream."

WON SCHOLARSHIP
Cordial congratulations to Michael Walsh, second son of Mr. John and the late Mrs. J. Walsh, Mahonbridge, who has gained a scholarship to Rockwell College, where he will take a five year course in catering, at the end of which he will qualify as a Chef. Mikie is a past pupil of Kilmac' Vocational School.

We wish the enterprising young man every success.

HOME
Home on holiday from London with his brother Thomas in Kilmacragh, is Mr. Albert Cotter, Old I.R.A. Mr. Cotter travelled over with his daughter Mollie and her husband Anthony Cleary, who are staying in Kilmacragh.

Looking extremely well is Mrs. Hyland (nee Foley of Fahá) who is home from America and is staying at the residence of her sister Mrs. Nellie Downey, Walsh Place, Mrs. Hyland is also sister of Mr. John Foley, Graw.

Mrs. Worsley of England is visiting her sister Mrs. Keating of Mahonbridge.

POSITIONED
Miss Eileen Shelley, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Shelley, National Bank, Kilmac' has qualified as a physical training instructor at Ling College of P.T., Dublin. In September Eileen takes up a position as instructor at Regina Mundi College, Cork.

CLEAN UP
The graveyard at Ballylance is now spick and span after the voluntary clean up by parishioners, in preparation for the pattern day of St. Anne, on Saturday.

LATE MR. A. KIRWAN
Widespread regret was occasioned by the death of Mr. Andy Kirwan, Boatman, which took place in a Dublin Hospital, after a period of ill-health. Andy was a member of the well known Bonhamon family.

The remains were removed to Tramore parish church and burial took place on Monday, after Requiem Mass. Heartfelt sympathy goes out to this sorrowing wife, sister, brothers and other relatives. R.I.P.

TOUR
Over fifty people enjoyed the Bonhamon I.C.A. annual outing, which took place on Tuesday. This year the trip included a visit to Johnston's Castle.

HOME
Miss Joan Dunphy, a student teacher in Scawby College of Education, Doncaster is enjoying her summer vacation at her parental home in Breenan, Stradbally.

OUTING
The Tramore Branch of the Red Cross Society took a party of senior citizens of Tramore for a bus trip on Thursday. The guests thoroughly enjoyed the drive through Carrick, and via the Comeragh road to Stradbally for tea. The schoolhouse was kindly loaned by Canon Clarke for the use of the party, and food gifts, etc. were donated by Tramore and Stradbally friends.

DEATH OF MRS. M. GRIFFIN, CLASHMORE

It is with deep regret that we record the death, at an advanced age, of Mrs. Mary Griffin (nee Casey), Kilmore, Clashmore. A popular and respected figure, deceased, who was a lifelong nationalist, was a member of a well known family. We join in extending deep sympathy to her bereaved sons, daughters and other relatives.

The funeral to Clashmore Cemetery was of extremely large and representative proportions. Very Rev. David Canon Power, P.P., and Rev. Michael Kennedy, C.C., officiated.

POST OFFICE BREAK-IN

Widespread sympathy is extended to Misses Nora and Mery O'Shea, Post Office, Kinsalebeg on their terrifying ordeal when their premises were forcibly entered in the middle of the night recently. Both ladies are very popular in this area.

LOCAL TEAM'S WIN

Congratulations are extended to Kinsalebeg-Clashmore on their success in the Intermediate football championship. They can now be relied upon to do well in the competition.

POLICE OFFICER ON HOLIDAY

On holiday in his native Grange at present is Mr. Michael O'Brien, who is accompanied by his wife (nee Lenane, Clashmore) and their son Michael. Mr. O'Brien is an officer of the English Police Force and Michael (Junior) recently qualified as a teacher.

ARDMORE "PATTERN"

The annual "Pattern" in commemoration of St. Declan, patron of the area, will commence in Ardmore on Sunday next. During the octave devotees of the Saint will perform the "rounds" in the grounds of the old cathedral, which is situated on the village, and patake of the waters of the Holy Well nearby.

Church ceremonies will also be held to mark the occasion and a Festival will take place from 24th to 27th July.

DOMINIC SAVIO YOUTH CLUB

With Gala Week and the Concert over us, we are now back again to the old routine. The concert on Monday night was a great success and congratulations were received all round. The choir singing songs such as "Dungarvan My Home Town," "The Happy Wanderer" etc., formed the main item.

The Ballad Group, with Eugene Moloney on guitar and Eileen Mehan and Helen Feeney accompanying him, were an outstanding success as were the individual singers: Danny Byrne, John Tobin and Breda Tobin. Humphrey Kelleher on the violin and the Hallahan School of Dancing completed the evening's entertainment.

Thanks to all those who took part and especially to Gerard Cummins, who did a wonderful job as M.C., and Pat McGrath, who helped to organise the concert.

There will be a 'Hop' at the Tennis Pavilion every Tuesday night. Club nights will be held as usual on Wednesday nights at the Pavilion and I hope to have news of future hikes, outings and projects for you next week.

LAST MINUTE POINT SAW CLASHMORE THROUGH

BALLYDUFF-PORTLAW FAVOURITES TO BEAT ABBEYSIDE

MITCHELS AND KILL

Those who went to Walsh Park, Waterford, on Sunday last expecting to see Kill and Mitchels serve up "the goods" in their losers group senior football championship clash, were not disappointed as these two highly fancied sides fought out an exciting 0-6 all draw. In the end it was about an equitable result, but on the score of the balance rested with the Mitchels.

The game however, will be remembered by most as a tragedy for the Kill's never say die forward Paddy Dugan, who broke his leg—the second time such misfortune has befallen him in championship competition against the Mitchels. In the 1937 county final he broke the leg, and on Sunday last in what was a complete accident he again broke it. It is cruel luck indeed on one of the best forwards the Kill Club has ever produced, and it surely puts an end to the career of this fine, sporting young man.

BALLYDUFF WIN RUGGED ENCOUNTER

There was no room for football frills at Dungarvan on Sunday night last, when Ballyduff surprisingly inflicted a 2-6 to 0-2 defeat on last year's Divisional Junior champions—Mahon Rovers (2nd) in the first round of the Intermediate football championship. Ballyduff's victory in itself was not a major surprise, but the huge margin of victory was, and the tough, rugged, and, above all, uncompromising side could now take a deal of beating in this grade.

Almost from the very start this was a real bruising battle, and at times the tackling was nothing short of dangerous. Tempers became frayed far too often, and many players must today deem themselves very fortunate that they did not end up prematurely on the sidelines. The winners full back Pat Hegarty was sent off in the second half, but long before that others who had "blamed" just as gravely got off the field.

As for the game itself, the outcome was seldom in any doubt. Mahon Rovers never touched the close markings of Ballyduff, and when the winners led 0-5 to nil at the interval a Mahon Rovers victory looked highly improbable.

The second half if anything saw Ballyduff even more on top and with Shammy Hannon, Pat Hegarty, until his dismissal, Jimmy Quinn and particularly Moss Walsh in top class form, they simply brushed aside the home opposition.

Although they lost some of their best players to the Intermediate side, Eire Og's junior hurlers should take yet another successful step towards the retention of their Divisional title on Sunday next, when they travel to Ballymacarby to take on the home side Fourmilewater.

Despite the loss of such as Jimmy Coward, John Woods and Michael Phean, Eire Og can still call on many useful players, and it will come as a surprise to the writer that they fail to come away from the venue with yet another victory to their credit.

LOCAL MINOR FOOTBALL DERBY

Dungarvan and Abbeyside's minor footballers meet in a championship "local Derby" at the Fraher field this Saturday night (7.30) and if past meetings between the clubs is any indication then this should be a game well worth watching.

Dungarvan caused a big surprise when they beat Stradbally in the first round and though they will again be outsiders, they are not without a chance of further success.

Their key players are Andy Dalton, Billy Kelly, Michael Clancy, Noel Sheehan, Monny Whelan and Pa Sheehan and much will depend on how these perform. However, to me, Abbeyside look the better equipped side, and I expect the power of Matty Hanrahan, Mickey Fraw, Felix Shields, Marty Sheehan, Humphrey Kelleher and John Hourigan to pave the way for an Abbeyside success.

SEAFIELD'S WIN FOR QUALLY

St. Anne's N.S. Seafield captured the coveted Qually Football Cup (donated by Peter Qually, Bonmahon) recently when they defeated Stradbally N.S. by 1-7 to 1-3 in the Schools league final.

The winners, who lead 0-4 to 0-1 at the interval were shocked when within minutes of the restart Stradbally levelled with a goal, and going great guns at that stage edged two points in front. However the Seafield boys remain unruffled, and recovering their poise of the first half regained the lead with a well taken goal and then added three further points without reply for a deserved lead.

This 11 a side league proved a tremendous success, and we trust it will be only the forerunner for many more.

The St. Anne's team was: Joe Roche; Tom Ahearne, G. Wall, M. Keane, Tom Landy; Michael O'Donnell, Jimmy Kiely; Frank Walsh, Pat Kiely, P. Roche, P. Roche, Subs., G. Mearns, N. Weldon, E. Phean, G. Keane, P. O'gan, Billy Walsh, W. O'Connell.

CORK—TIPP, MUNSTER FINAL

It should be like "old times" again in Limerick on Sunday next, when Cork and Tipperary meet in the Munster senior hurling championship final. Given a fine day at all, an attendance of very close on 50,000 can be reasonably expected to throng the Ennis Road grounds.

Not for a long time have Cork hopes been so high of beating Tipperary in a Munster final, and the Leesiders will undoubtedly enter the decider as favourites to take over from Tipperary as champions of the Province. Cork are the reigning National league champions, and on their way to that victory they met and beat Tipperary in Thurles. They also have the psychological advantage of that Oireachtas final meeting with Tipperary in Thurles last October, when only the brilliance of goalkeeper John O'Donoghue deprived them of a victory which over the hour they richly deserved.

Cork too find themselves in the happy position of having all players in the pink of physical condition. But Tipperary are plagued with injuries and Mick Burns is a definite non-starter. Liam King, chosen at right full back, is also extremely doubtful because of a toe injury.

However, to dethrone them on Sunday, Cork will have to pull out all the stops. Tipperary in a Munster final are a law unto themselves, and they will gain confidence with the ease with which they have beaten Cork in recent Munster finals.

Yes, it promises to be a mighty struggle for supremacy between these greatest of hurling rivals. The mind says Cork, but the heart Tipperary, but either way it should be a game worthy of the great occasion.

Camogie Co. Final

The Co. Waterford Camogie final takes place at Gaultier this Saturday night (8 p.m.) when Ballymacarby throw down the Gaultier to the home club.

Ballymacarby literally cruised to the decider when scoring a facile 6-2 to 0-1 win over St. Otteran's and so well did they play in that game that they will provide stern opposition for Gaultier even at their own venue. Gaultier beat Portlaw in the second semi-final by 1-4 to 1-0, so the stage is set for a decider that can hardly do other than boost the game within the county.

To Surface Right of Way

On the proposal of Mr. Thomas Wade, Dungarvan Urban Council unanimously decided at last Monday night's meeting to spend a sum of £100 on the surfacing of the right of way at Keating Street.

The Town Clerk Mr. Robinson said this was the right of way that the tenants cleared themselves. Their Engineer had estimated that it would cost £100 to surface it now. The Right of Way was 80 yards long and 10 ft. wide. They had not provided for it in the current year's estimate.

Clashmore/Kinsalebeg ... 0-8

Emmetts 1-4

LESS than a minute remained in last Sunday's first round Intermediate football championship game at Dungarvan's Fraher field, and with the sides locked in scoring equality, it looked odds on a replay. But then midfielder Vinny Tobin became the Clashmore hero when he lofted over a well taken point from forty yards, to give his side a victory which, on the run of play, they richly deserved.

Indeed the only reason why this game was still in the balance to the very end was because of the ineptitude of the Clashmore attack. Territorially the winners enjoyed a marked advantage, but so wasteful were their forwards that they very nearly paid the full penalty for that inexcusable wastage.

As a spectacle it was a game that never got off the ground, and not even the closeness of the scoring could compensate for the mediocrity of the football. But for most of the hour Clashmore/Kinsalebeg looked the better equipped outfit, and anything less than victory for them would have been a travesty of justice.

Emmetts on the other hand, reserved one of their poorest ever displays for Sunday last. Never before have I seen so many of their established players play well below par, and although they were eventually beaten by a very belated minor, I don't think they can argue too strongly about the outcome.

The first half was a bore in the sun that yielded only three points, and two of these came from frees. Clashmore drew first blood with a pointed free by Noel Murray after a minute, and after missing many chances of stretching that lead, Emmetts came away for an equaliser from a free by Paddy Walsh in the 16th minute. Martin Crotty had a second Emmetts point within seconds from half time, and at the break they led by this 0-2 to 0-1.

But if Clashmore had failed miserably up front throughout the first half, they clicked for a lucrative ten minute spell on the restart. Within a minute Vinny Rourke had the equaliser from a free, and then a string of points from Liam Rourke (2, one from a free), Pat Rourke and Claudie Fitzgerald gave them a deserved 0-6 to 0-2 lead.

At that stage Emmetts looked a well beaten side, but a fortuitous goal entering the closing quarter got them right back into the game. Martin Crotty had pointed, but referee Billy McGrath whistled up for a 14 yards free instead, and from it Dick Tobin crashed the ball past a wall of Clashmore defenders. Shortly afterwards Crotty pointed and the sides were again level. An exchange of points from frees between Liam Rourke and Paddy Walsh still left them level, but when a draw seemed imminent, midfielder Vinny Rourke rescued his side with the point that gave them their passage to the second round.

As already stated, it was a well deserved victory, but if they hope to make further progress then a sharpening up in attack is imperative. Liam and Pat Rourke and Noel Murray were best of the sector, but were I a Clashmore mentor I would be gravely worried about the overall performance of the team on Sunday.

Vinny Rourke was the dominant figure at midfield, where John Hogan also had his moments, and in a defence that gave nothing away, soft, Jimmy and "Pablo" O'Rourke and Jimmy Roche starred. Behind them John Hurton was a safe and competent keeper.

Emmetts can have no quibs about the outcome, for they disappointed greatly. Their top performer was goalkeeper Anthony Walsh, who replaced the injured Paddy Fitzgerald after a few minutes, and Donal Connolly, Jack Kiely and Jim Ahearne were best in defence.

They were never happy at midfield, where Colm Bannon and Percy Ahearne have both played infinitely better in the past, and in a weak attack Dick Tobin, John Ahearne and Martin Crotty accomplished most.

Clashmore/Kinsalebeg: J. Hurton; J. Daly, J. Roche, W. J. Lenane; J. Rourke, P. O'Neill, P. Rourke; J. Hogan, V. Rourke; B. Dunne, L. Rourke, P. Bourke; N. Murray, C. Fitzgerald, D. McGrath.

Emmetts: P. Fitzgerald; D. Connolly, J. Hickey, P. Walsh; J. Kiely, P. Hickey, J. Ahearne; C. Bannon, P. Ahearne; J. Ahearne, P. Walsh, M. Crotty; F. Tobin, D. Tobin, S. Kirwan. Subs., J. Dunford for J. Ahearne; J. Ahearne for Kirwan.

Referee: Billy McGrath (Dungarvan).

Shock Result in All-Dungarvan Final

Were one talking in racing parlance, then it would be apt to say "what a turn up for the books." The all-Dungarvan final of the Dunabney Soccer Cup on Saturday night last, at Springmount Park saw the recognised "second" eleven outplay and outscore the first team in a decider that suffered from an indifferent start, but which produced some fine football subsequently.

This was a game both sides wanted to win very much, but from an early stage it was quite evident too that the "seconds" were going to triumph. Much younger, and apparently fitter, they literally ran the first side into the ground, and the 3-1 margin of victory was in no way flattering to them.

They came very near to scoring on more than one occasion before they eventually took the lead when Jackie Sandford slammed the ball home from a perfect cross from right winger Pa Brett, and they led by this lone score at the interval.

Within minutes of the restart the winners went two up when the cross bar twice kept out great drives, but at the third opportunity Liam Simms crashed the ball to the net. Clearly the losers were in dire straits, and though they enjoyed a far greater degree of possession from that to the end, their cause was a lost one.

The winners were content to allow their midfield possession, but then rolled back in defence and thwarted all attempts for scores.

The winners relied now on sporadic raids and from one such beyond all doubt with a third goal. That score very definitely clinched the issue, though the losers did get one back when Anselm Hayes converted a penalty.

Every member of the winning side played his heart out, but the defensive powers of Tony Mountain, Jim Houlihan, Joe O'Brien and Willie John Curtin, and the forward craft of Jackie Sandford, Liam Simms and Pa Brett really paved the way to victory. For the losers, none tried more valiantly than Tommy Mooney, Jimmy Healy, Liam and Martin Sandford and John Beresford.

Dungarvan "2nd" — J. Clancy; W. J. Curtin, J. Houlihan, T. Mountain, J. O'Brien, M. Lennon; P. Brett, L. Simms, M. Lyons, J. Sandford, P. Morrissey, Res., B. Walsh.

Dungarvan — M. Sandford, L. Sandford, J. Healy, J. Walsh, T. Mooney, L. Frazer; A. Hayes, J. Beresford, M. Donnelly, J. M. Duggan, M. Sheridan, Res., J. Woods.

Mr Tommy Barry (Waterford) proved an excellent referee. The cup and trophies were presented at an impromptu function that night at Paddy Foley's, Grattan Square, sponsors of the tournament.

WHAT bids fair to be a real hurling showdown has been scheduled for Dungarvan's Fraher Field on Sunday next (7.30) when Abbeyside and Ballyduff/Portlaw meet in the quarter final of the senior hurling championship. Both are seeking their first ever title in the grade; both have gone very close to the big breakthrough in the past and both are quietly confident that '69 could be their year.

Were one to take a line on recent form of course then the odds would be stacked very much in favour of Ballyduff/Portlaw. Since the amalgamation of the two clubs they have been right up there at the top, and in the past two years have undoubtedly been the unlucky side of this championship.

This year, imbued with a fierce determination to atone for past lapses, they are the choice of many to take over the mantle of champions from Ballygunner. In the first round they trounced De La Salle and their form generally has been most encouraging.

But in marked contrast the Villagers have been going through an uncertain and totally unimpressive phase. Their first round form when struggling for most of the way against Dunhill left an awful lot to be desired, but the side really hit rock bottom last week, when an understrength Youghal side decisively beat them in a tournament final. In that light there could only be one result, but Village mentors to whom I have spoken regard that indifferent form of late as something of a blessing in disguise for Sunday. For one thing it leaves them very much the underdogs and that is how they like it best, particularly in the championship.

The Dungarvan venue will undoubtedly be to their liking, and with an intensive training spell behind them, and the players determined to prove that recent form has been "all wrong," I am confident that we will see a different Abbeyside in action on Sunday. But whether it will be good enough to overcome an untruffed and consistent Ballyduff/Portlaw is another matter.

So overrun was a their defence against Youghal that one awaits with considerable speculation the deliberations of their selectors when they sit to pass judgment on the players. For one thing the half line was most unsettled with the exception of Rogie Cashin, and it would not surprise me at all to see Cashin take over at centre back with John McGrath moving to wing half.

Changes too are inevitable in attack, as more than one of the forwards failed to measure up to expectations against Youghal. For one thing, Tony Mansfield, omitted for the start of that game deserves a berth in the sector, and he was their most enterprising forward against Dunhill in the first round. The return of Donal Whelan, an absentee against Youghal seems imminent, and he is likely to take over at full forward.

Who must be omitted is of course, another question, but certainly I will be surprised if there are not changes in practically all sectors from that uneventful game with Youghal.

One can take it for granted that Ballyduff/Portlaw will select a side that virtually picks itself. The competence of the Whelans, Jackie and Frankie, the brilliance of John Kirwan and Martin Hickey and the inspiring leadership of a still effective Tom Cheasty all help to make them a first class hurling combination.

On the face of it then one must go for Ballyduff/Portlaw, even at the Dungarvan venue. But in declaring my hand, I must stress that I expect to see Abbeyside at their best or something very much approaching it on Sunday, and should they rise to the occasion and enjoy the breaks then they could confound the odds and the predictions and march on to the semi-final. But for what it's worth, it's Ballyduff/Portlaw to advance.

The city men subsequently launched several dangerous attacks, but inaccuracy and the sheer brilliance of McGrath kept them out, and it was Abbeyside who eventually took the lead with only 7 minutes remaining. A free from the right wing was headed out to McGovern and the inside right volleyed a left-footed shot to the net.

But Johnville were not to be fooled. They forced a corner on the right and the flag kick was headed to the net through a crowded goalmouth by Butler for the equaliser; only four minutes from time.

Extra time failed to produce a further score despite the transfer of Mick Brett to centre forward for Abbeyside even though it added considerably to the strength of the villages forward line.

As already stated, John McGrath was the star for Abbeyside, but he was not the only one to stand out. Denis Egan and Billy Kyne never wilted under pressure, and the latter had a particularly fine game. Mick Brett was also in top form both at centre half and centre forward, while Mick Keohan turned in another powerful performance at left half. Up front, Rufus Flynn was again the star player, although Amby McGovern improved considerably on the previous game, and, of course, scored two fine goals. But once again, the inherent weaknesses in this division were again painfully obvious which is a pity, for the Johnville defence is not a very strong one, despite the individual brilliance of Curran and Butler.

Abbeyside: McGrath; Egan, Kyne, McNulty, Brett, Keohan; Morrissey, McGovern, Waters, Flynn, Langan.

SOCCER LEAGUE SAGA STILL STILL UNRESOLVED

JOHNVILLE 2

ABBEYSIDE and Johnville must meet once again to decide the destination of the Second Div. (Saturday) Championship. A further 110 minutes play failed to separate the sides in the second replay of their play-off, at O'Leary Park, on Friday night last. A total 290 minutes of play has now been played in this marathon tie without a result.

Friday's game was a much better affair than the previous games, for despite the wet conditions and the greasy ball, both sides concentrated more on playing football, and it was only an isolated incident that saw the dismissal of Johnville right-winger O'Keefe late in the game.

The city side have obviously realised that they cannot outright the feak tough Abbeyside men, and in a game that produced some fine bursts of football they were much more successful in breaching their opponents defence. Fortunately for the Villagers their skipper John McGrath was in magnificent form between the posts and constantly thwarted the efforts of the home forwards.

Johnville, driven on by the tremendous Jim Curran at midfield, controlled the play to an alarming extent at times, yet they had to rely on their brilliant 16 year old centre half Butler to score both their goals. Abbeyside's first time efforts were inadequate against the excellent anticipation displayed by the front, Curran and his colleagues, and as a result the Villagers were constantly being driven back onto defence. It now seems as though they will have to start holding the ball in the centre if they are to become champions ultimately.

Yet, despite their periods of dominance it was Johnville's turn in this game to come from behind with a late equaliser just when it seemed as though Abbeyside would finally take that elusive title.

The Villagers got off to a great start, and referee
