Unexpected Death of Well Known Farmer and Sportsman

LATE JAMES FITZGERALD

SHANBALLY, LEAMYBRIEN

A very great gloom was cast over a wide county area at the announcement of the death of James Fitzgerald, Shanbally, which occurred unexpectedly on Monday evening January 24, at his residence. He had returned from Dungarvan Mart a short time previous.

The late James Fitzgerald was a kind and charitable person and a perfect gentleman by any standards.

He was well known in sporting circles, but his greatest interest was in the greyhound. He was the breeder of many outstanding dogs, ranging from the great Future Cutlet in the early 80's to his most recent track winner Half Grange, and he won many trophies on the coursing brofield with his well known "Future" prefix dogs. He was also keenly interested in horse breeding and racing and was Treasurer of the Co. on Waterford Horse Breeders' Association and also had held many official positions with the Committees of Dungarvan Show, Dungarvan, Point-to-Point and Dungarvan Coursing Club. He was also a founder member of Dungarvan Cattle Mart.

Our deep and most sincere condolences are extended to his sorrowing brothers, sister, nephews, nieces and relatives, who now mourn their great loss.

His remains were removed on Tuesday evening to Kilrossanty Church, followed by a huge cortege, representative of all sections of the community and many sporting organisations, and were blessed and received by V. Rev. Jas. Canon Hart, P.P., Cahir, V. Rev. M. Condon, P.P., Kilrossanty, Rev. P. Ahearne, C.C., do., Rev. M. Curran, C.C., Modeligo, Rev. W. Hart, C.C., Newtown, Kilmacthomas, and many visiting clergy.

Requiem Masses were offered on Wednesday morning for the repose of his gentle soul and the interment took place in the adjoining family plot. V. Rev. M. Condon, P.P., imparted the final absolution at the graveside, assisted by V. Rev. Jas. Canon Hart, P.P., V. Rev. D. O'Byrne, P.P., Fourmilerwater, Rev. E. Keohan, C.C., Bantry (cousin), Rev. P. Ahearne, C.C., Rev. W. Hart, C.C., and Rev. P. Quealy, C.C., Lismore and many visiting clergy. Another huge concourse were present. Large sheaves of Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy were received. Some beautiful floral tributes were placed on his grave.

The chief mourners: Miss Marcella Fitzgerald, Shanbally (sister); William Fitzgerald, "Cremona," Abbeyside, Thomas Fitzgerald, Shanbally (brothers); and a large circle of nieces, nephews and relatives. (Funeral arrangements were by Jas. Kieley and Sons, Undertakers, Dungarvan.)

FOUND in Shanbally Yard on Tuesday evening last—Lady's Fur Neck Stole. Apply: Fitzgerald's, Shanbally.

NIRE VALLEY NEWS

SCOR '72 FINAL

There were unprecedented scenes of excitement at Clonlea on Saturday night last, when the results of Scor '72 were announced, with Fourmilewater the winners of the Figure Dancing and neighbours Sliabh gCua in the Set Dance.

Scor '72 was a wonderful success thanks to the efforts of an efficient committee and a hard working, tireless Secretary, Cait Ni Grainne, who spared neither time nor effort in this venture.
On arrival home the Set Dance champions Sliabh gCua were greeted by huge bonfires that lit up the night sky.
The Ballymacarbry dancers have been congratulated all round and a special word of thanks is due to their wonderful teacher, Mr. Monnie Hallahan and to their accompanists Mr. Pat Melody and Miss Maura Melody.

RE-ELECTED

As we predicted two weeks ago in this column, Mr. K. O'Ryan, M.C.C., and Mr. Thomas Walsh, were both re-elected Chairman and Treasurer of the West Waterford G.A.A. Board, by big majorities.

We congratulate both on their re-election.

QUESTION TIME

Fifteen teams competed in the first ever Question Time, sponsored by Ballymacarbry Youth Centre, held on Sunday night week last. After an interesting contest Kilrossanty Youth (represented by Miss Mary Crotty, Miss Mary Drohan and Mr. John Kiely) were the winners, with Mr. Francis Nugent, Old Parish N.F.A. the best individual winner.
Mr. K. O'Ryan, M.C.C., was a very efficient Question Master.

DONATED CUP

That very well known Ballymacarbry businessman, and Gael, Mr. Tony Dooney, has donated a cup for their forthcoming Question Time, on February 24, to the Fourmilewater Hurling Club.

300 DRAW

A new idea, a 300 Confined Draw, will be held by the Newcastle and Fourmilewater United Parishes for parish funds, each month, with £200 in prizes.

P.T.A.A. NEWS

The Nire G.A.A. Club will hold a victory dance on Sunday night, February 6, at Ballymacarbry. During the dance the 1971 Western and County Intermediate football medals, and the 1967 Western and County juvenile medals will be presented.

SEAMUS DRUMMY, JOHN HARTY, RAY TREACY and JIMMY COSTIN, the scoring members of St. Nicholas A.C. who won the Jowney Cup on Sunday last.

Need For Revival of Folklore and Custom

At a time when much of this county's folklore and custom is being carelessly neglected, there is an urgent need for some kind of revival. As I feel that any such revival should begin at the parish level, the following article is intended to arouse a sense of tradition within the county.

No doubt the Comeraghs in themselves constitute a wealth of local history, but the following relates only to a parish which lies in the shadow of the Comeraghs. The reference is of course, to the parish of Kilrossanty and it is hoped that this attempt will not only bring back fond memories but also arouse new interest in our parochial traditions.
An appropriate place to begin is the Old Churchyard, in which remains to this day the ruins of the old church. Within this ruin is an artificial cave once used as a retreat by various hunted men and also as a refuge by typhus-stricken families in Black '47. To the present day the cave is regarded with awe as the tomb of Valentine. An Augustinian Friar in Penal days, he is believed to have conformed to the established church to retain a family estate in Ballinavouga where he resided until he died.
Adjacent to the Old Graveyard is a trio of Holy Wells, dedicated respectively to Our Lord, His Holy Mother, and St. Brigid. Many parishioners still visit the Wells, particularly on St. Brigid's Day.

In an attempt to revive the old custom in Kilrossanty, V.P. Rev. Maurice Condon, P.P. and Rev. Peter Ahearne, C.C. are arranging to make St. Brigid's Day the holiday which it has been in former years. Church services will be held and the social events include a monster ceil to be held in the Parish Hall on Tuesday night.

Waterford First Open Drama Festival

Drama history will be made in Dungarvan on Sunday, February 6, when His Lordship Most Rev. Dr. Russell, opens the first ever Open Drama Festival to be held in this county.

The Festival will cater for seven full length plays representing counties Waterford, Tipperary and Cork. The opening night play is 'The Price,' by Arthur Miller. This modern play by the author of 'The Crucible' is set in present day New York and will be presented by a group from Carrick-on-Suir. The producer of this play is Mr. Pat Power who also has a leading part in it and is a member of the National Executive of the Amateur Drama League of Ireland.

Other plays which will be presented at the Festival are: Brian McMahon's 'The Bugle in the Blood'—set against the background of internment. This play is a must for all who wish to get a better understanding of Irish Republicanism.
J. B. Keane is no stranger to any one interested in Drama and two of his best plays will be seen during the Festival—that evergreen tingling musical 'Many Young Men of Twenty' and the famous 'Year of the Hiker.'

'Sunset in the Valley' should cater for those who like Irish comedy with a rural flavour and Louis D'Alton's 'The Money Doesn't Matter' should also provide great entertainment. The latter will be presented by Mitchelstown Dramatic Society.

A very talented Drama group from Fethard, Co. Tipperary will present a beautiful English play by the famous J. B. Priestley entitled 'When We Are Married.'
All in all there should be something for every taste in this Festival. The Adjudicator will be Aileen Coughlan, Drama Critic of the Irish Times and founder of the Athlone Little Theatre.

The Festival is being organised by Waterford Federation Muintir na Tíre and will be directed by Michael O'Byrne, C.C., Knockanore. The organisers wish to thank all who donated prizes for this Festival. These beautiful trophies are now on view at Bowmans, Jewellers, Mary St., Dungarvan and booking for the Festival is now open at John Casey's, Main Street, Dungarvan.
Patrons are reminded that all plays will start at 8.30 p.m. sharp and latecomers may not be admitted.

WATERFORD NEWS P.T.A.A. News

The Social organised by the Regional Council on Tuesday night last, turned out to be a fantastic success and a most enjoyable evening was had by all who attended. I can gladly say that all centres showed just how active they are by coming in such great numbers.
The next meeting of the Council will be held at Coolnacarr on February 8, after which the first semi-final of the Question Time will be run.
The teams for the competition that night are as follows—Kilgobinet, Stradbally, Cappoquin and Abbeyside. All are requested to attend.
—Sean Tobin (Sec.)

Public Lighting at Stradbally

At a recent meeting of Waterford Co. Council, Mr. J. D. Hally (Co. Engineer) replying to a question by Mr. Phil Cusack concerning public lighting from Stradbally village to the church, stated that the above light would be included for consideration in the coming financial year.
Mr. Hally also informed Mr. Cusack that the present water system at Kilmacthomas was adequate, but stated that if ever there was an industry established in the village he would immediately take steps to improve the water system.

GARRYOWEN CUP

The first round match in the Garryowen Cup will be played against Clanwilliam in Tipperary town on February 20.

Ballinroad Qualify for League Semi-final

By beating Slieverue 4-1 at their home venue on Sunday last, Ballinroad qualified for the semi-finals of the Div. 3 league.

In an interesting and exciting game Ballinroad forged ahead in the last quarter to win convincingly in the end. From a pass from M. Fraher, John Lenders opened the scoring after 35 minutes of the first half.

Ballinroad then turned on the pressure and goals from L. Lenders, Peter Power and Lenders again, put the issue beyond doubt.

Ballinroad have now gone unbeaten in their 13 games in the league and it will take a good team to stop them from taking league honours.

Last Sunday's team: J. Kealy, E. Tobin, M. Breen, P. Power, J. Fraher, M. Veale, L. Lenders, J. Eickard, V. Tobin, J. Power, M. Fraher.

Worker Killed as Wall Collapses

A 24 year old builder's labourer, Mr. John Ahearne, Teer, Alish, was killed instantly, shortly after noon on Wednesday last, when part of a 40 ft concrete wall collapsed on him.

The tragic happening occurred at the Dungarvan Plant of Waterford Co-Op. Society Ltd., where a new new store is being built for the Society.

Five workmates of the deceased had a remarkable escape. They were working nearby when they heard the wall crumbling and four of them rushed to safety before it hurtled down. The fifth man sheltered in the corner of the partly constructed store and watched helplessly as the blocks crashed down on the deceased.

BALLINAMEELA A.G.M.

The annual general meeting of the above club was held recently at the Parish Hall. The meeting was very well attended and the interest shown by the youth of the parish was especially encouraging. All officers were returned on bice.

Undoubtedly the burning question at the meeting was whether the club would stay amalgamated with the Brickeys for the coming year or not. After much discussion on the subject the meeting decided that the club should once again go it alone. From the meeting it is obvious that everyone concerned is determined that Ballinameela will once again be a force to be reckoned with.

Slattery, Lismore, Dungarvan (sister); John and Brendan O'Flynn (nephews); Denise and Grainne Flynn (nieces), and other relatives.

SOCCER
 Lismore got back on the winning trail in Div. 11 of the Waterford League, when at Portlaw on Sunday last they came out on top by the odd goal in five. This was a hard hitting game, with no quarter asked or given, and at times Dungarvan referee J. Beresford was put to the pin of his collar to stamp out the rough play.

Weather conditions were not suitable for football and the underfoot conditions were very sodden. Having had two scores disallowed on each occasion for offside, the home side eventually took the lead in the 30th minute with a goal from a direct free kick. Lismore then scored from a spot kick through Landers, but the referee disallowed same, judging that one of the forwards was inside the penalty area. Just on half time Ormonde levelled for the visitors from the spot, but immediately Portlaw again went ahead with a very good goal. Portlaw held this lead until six minutes from time and it looked odds on a home victory, as they had taken all that the visiting side could produce, with their keeper saving another spot kick from Ormonde.

However, showing great fighting spirit Lismore scored twice within five minutes to gain a hard earned win. This was entirely a team effort and full marks to all. Lismore: Cunningham, O'Donoghue, Cooke, B. Landers, O'Sullivan (capt.), Ormonde, Bennett, Pollard, Foley, J. J. Landers, and Morrissey. Res., Mason for Pollard.

ENGAGEMENTS
 Congratulations to the following who have recently announced their engagements: Mr. Liam Murphy, West St. to Miss Fionnula M. O'Donoghue, S.R.N., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. O'Donoghue, 7 Greenlea Drive, Terenure; to Mr. Bobby Begley, Coolclane Lismore (now resident in Dublin) to Miss Valerie E. Woods, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Woods, 111 Lr. Baggot St., Dublin.
DEATH OF MR EDDIE FORDE
 We regret to announce the death of Mr. Eddie Forde, late of Town Parks, Lismore, which sad event occurred in England over the week-end. Funeral will be held to Lismore later in the week and full obituary in next week's issue.

SLIABH GUA AGAIN IN THE LIMELIGHT
 Heartiest congratulations to our group of Set Dancers, on winning the county final in Scor 72 at Clonca on Saturday night last.

Eighteen groups from all parts of the county originally took part and great credit is due to those who finally won through. The members of the group were: Tomay Hickey, John Keenan, Ned Burke, Maurice Dalton, Peg Dalton, Brad Hoolahan, Alice Burke, and Winnie Mallinan.

Music was supplied by the trio, Eddy Nibent, Tom O'Donoghue and John Chiffe. The dancers were expertly coached by Marnie Hoolahan, the well known Dancing Instructor, who also taught the winners of the Figure Dancing—the Ballymacarbury group.

The results were greeted with tumultuous applause and scenes of wild excitement were witnessed when the Slabh Gua dancers arrived home.

The victorious group wish to thank Marnie Hoolahan who they credit for their success, to the Ballymacarbury (Figure Dancing winners) Group for their help and support, and not forgetting the multitude of enthusiastic supporters from all over Slabh Gua who cheered them to victory.

The now compete in the Munster semi-final against Cork and Tipperary at Clonca on Friday night February 18.

Scoreless Draw at Progress Park
 Fews Rangers 0; Johnville 0
 Fews Rangers and Johnville had to be content with a point each from their Div. 11 league game at Progress Park on Sunday last. This was a game of missed opportunities by both sides, Tony Whelan hitting the crossbar and Johnville missing a penalty with only five minutes left for play.

Players found it hard to keep their feet with the slippery state of the pitch after the recent heavy rain. However a feature of the game was the great display by the opposing goalkeepers, Pat Morrissey, playing for the first time in goal for Rangers, brought off some really great saves.

Ollie O'Connor and Tony Whelan were sound in Rangers defence, while up front V. Power, T. Power and J. Walsh were best.
 Fews Rangers: P. Morrissey, J. Whelan, O. O'Connor, J. Whelan, L. Power, J. Walsh, A. Power, V. Kirwan, R. O'Connor, T. Power, P. Ahearne.

These athletes of St. Nicholas A.C. between them have won the Muckley Cup and Downey Cup recently. Back: John Hart, Ray Treacy, Seamus Drummy and Jimmy Costin. Front: Jimmy Walsh and Paddy Kelly.

CHAMPIONSHIP REVIEW

This week we review the intermediate football championship, in the first round of which the Nire made heavy weather of overcoming Ballyduff, while Colligan Emmetts defeated Old Parish and this reversed their defeat of the previous year at the hands of the same opposition. Emmetts came close to causing an upset, by holding the defending champions Nire to a draw at Cappoquin and in an exciting replay the champions came out on top and advanced to the divisional final.

At the other end of the draw their great rivals Ardmore found themselves in serious trouble against Ring in the first round and if the Gaeltacht men had possessed a reliable place kicker then it would have been they who would have advanced to the second round and not Ardmore. Eire Oge came out on top against Valley Rovers, while Ardmore had it easy against Dungarvan and then accounted for Eire Oge to qualify for the Divisional final, and the Western final certainly lived up to expectations.

Ardmore made the early running and when they broke through for a goal the champions appeared in real trouble. However, in the second half the champions proved their worth and when P. J. Ryan crashed the ball to the net the excitement was intense, and with Jim Wall, Mick Connolly, Tom Crotty, Mick Ryan, Phil Harte, P. J. Ryan, Jim Ryan and Martin Walsh now dominating the exchanges the Nire men edged in front. John Hennessy and company were far from finished and with time running out only a point separated the sides.

But the Nire defence held firm and the champions survived by the minimum margin. In the county final the Western champions proved much too good for a disappointing Erin's Own fifteen and the bon fires of victory lit up the night sky in Ballymacarbery and the Nire Valley to welcome home the first Nire team to win a county championship in 28 years.

Their's was a most popular victory.

It would be wrong not to mention last year's league final in this grade, which produced a great hour's football from Nire and Ardmore and resulted in a draw. Incidentally the replay will take place in February.

1971 YEAR BOOK

It is expected that Waterford's first ever year book will be published inside the next week or so and by all accounts it's going to be a well produced effort. The man behind this latest venture is County P.R.O., Jim Brennan.

SCOR '72 COUNTY FINALS

As expected a huge crowd turned up for the county finals of the Scor '72 talent competition at Ocean View Hotel Clonea on last Saturday night. The finals provided some top class performances and competition was razor keen. There was a dramatic incident in the Set Dancing competition when one of the Clashmore competitors suffered a cramp and they were allowed to carry on with a substitute. As it was they were narrowly defeated for the title by Sliah gCua.

These competitions have been a major triumph for the G.A.A. in Waterford, especially when one considers that the attendance figures for the semi-finals and final were approximately 3,500.

The county final winners now go forward to the Munster semi-finals, which will be held at Clonea on February 18. Their opponents will be Cork and Tipperary.

Waterford county champions: Instrumental Music—Humphrey Kelleher (Abbeyside/Ballincourty); Recitation—Pat Kennedy (Kilgobinet); Solo Song—Martin Galvin (Portlaw); Motion Speaking—Pat Walsh (Kilrossanty); Ballad Group—Coffey Sisters (Abbeyside/Courty); Question Time—Mt. Sion; Figure Dancing—Fourmilewater; Set Dancing—Sliah gCua.

It is expected that two new competitions which will in the main follow the Scor '72 pattern will commence shortly. The first one will be an u-18 competition and the second will be an inter-club competition in which each club will be asked to provide one hour's entertainment. The entries have surpassed all expecta-

MINOR TEAMS

We hear that the Ballyduff Upper Club who captured junior hurling honours last year are affiliating teams in the juvenile, minor and u-21 grades this year. A few years back Ballyduff were a major force in the under age competitions and they brought the u-16 and minor hurling divisional titles to the parish in 1963.

WESTERN AFFILIATIONS

The Western Board will hold its draws and fixtures meeting on Saturday, February 12 and it is to be hoped that we will be spared the spectacle of clubs arriving at this meeting and handing in their affiliations at the last moment. It's time this nonsense stopped and well organised club should have its teams affiliated well in advance of February 12.

Another item which will most likely be tightened up on this occasion will be re-grading, as there is little point in any club re-grading 12 and sometimes as many as 15 players. Certainly a number between six and eight is understandable. Clubs of course have the right to object to the re-grading of any player.

Another point which all existing clubs should be seriously considering is the affiliation of minor and u-16 teams. Of course most of our clubs have always entered teams in these grades, but there are some clubs who are conspicuous by their absence in these grades.

Surely any club which is serious in its commitment to our national games and indeed to its own survival, must look after the needs of the youth in its area. Success in the under age grades is something which is often wrongly judged in terms of titles won. Success in these vital grades might be better judged in terms of the effort put in.

PHELAN CUP

The returns for the Phelan Cup competition for '71 reached an all time low figure of £207 and no wonder as the present arrangement whereby many of these games are played in the depth of winter ensures that there is little or no public interest in this competition at present.

The original idea behind this competition was that it would provide clubs with some games prior to the championship and when it was first run on a league basis in '69 this was especially true, as clubs were provided with at least six games in late March, April and into early May.

Now, however, the committee in charge has seen fit to commence this year's competition last December, when all the major venues here in the western division are closed, and most clubs were resting. Also, some were not prepared to risk their younger players on confined pitches in the depth of winter.

It's time that a fresh look was taken at this competition as during the last two years it has ceased to be an attractive competition.

RETAIN U-21'S

One recommendation of the Special Commission's report on the G.A.A., which is most unlikely to find favour is the one which suggests the abolition of the inter county u-21 championships. This would be a retrograde step in my opinion as they have proved most attractive since introduced in the Sixties and I feel that they should be retained.

The Co. Board G.A.A. Annual Convention will be held at Dungarvan on Sunday next. As yet it is not certain if we will have a contest for any of the eight positions which have to be filled. The only real certainty is that the outgoing Treasurer Paddy Kenneally (Erin's Own) will be returned for another year as he is unopposed.

It is certain that there will be a contest for the position of Registrar, as Cappoquin's John Fraher will oppose the outgoing man here Michael Dowling (Erin's Own). Both Tom Cunningham (Dungarvan) and Seamus O'Brien (Abbeyside/Ballincourty) are nominated for the post of Secretary, but it is unlikely that there will be any contest and it seems certain that Seamus Grant will be returned unopposed.

The outgoing Munster and Central Council delegates, Tom Cunningham, Seamus Power and Donal Whelan will, in the event of contests, start as firm favourites to be returned once again, as will the outgoing chairman N. McGrath. Both Noel Dalton (De La Salle) and Pat Coffey (Portlaw) are also nominated for this position, but it seems unlikely that there will be a contest. However, as we stated prior to the Western Convention, one can never be certain about any contest and one only gives one's opinions.

MOTIONS

There are no less than 55 motions on the agenda for discussion and it could be quite a lengthy session. A total of 31 of these motions are in the names of Mt. Sion and Portlaw clubs and these all deal with the recent recommendations of the Special Commission of the G.A.A.

Of the motions dealing with local affairs the one from an Gaeltacht which asks for the re-introduction of the group system for the purpose of the u-21 championships, but it goes on to say that the system is to be decided by the Co. Board prior to the draws, and this motion will certainly provoke discussion as many feel that far too much is being left to the Co. Board already. The club's other motion: "That minor clubs be permitted to sponsor u-21 teams" could find favour.

Cappoquin ask that the county colours be changed to all blue with white cuffs and collars, instead of all white with blue trimmings as at present.

Two motions ask for a change in the method of appointing selection committees. These are sponsored by Shamrocks and Portlaw. Erin's Own request that the Co. Convention be held at an Eastern venue every second year, will also provide a lively discussion and this is a motion which could very well be passed. Much will depend upon how many delegates are present when the vote is taken.

Stradbally's motion which seeks to have the Losers Group in the senior championship discontinued, should also provide some lively discussion, while Mt. Sion requests that the Co. Board shall ensure the right of all teams to "limber up" prior to the commencement of any game in any field within the county.

Two other motions on the agenda, sponsored by the Ballyduff Lower Club are also of importance. The first seeks to reduce the number of players on a team to 13, while the second requests that the age for minor competitions be raised to 19 years.

STATEMENT OF ACCOUNTS

The Co. Board can certainly look back with pleasure on 1971 finance wise, as its senior championships brought in record gate receipts. The final figures are as follows with the 1970 returns given in brackets:—

S.H.: £3,611 (£802); S.F.: £3,061 (£1,698); share of National League pool £1,636 (£966).

The gate receipts for the senior hurling final county were £929, while the replay was an all-time record of £1,190. The biggest return in the S&F. championship was from the double fixture at Dungarvan on Sept. 9 (Kill v. Tramore and John Mitchels v. Dunhill) which were £767, while the returns for the final were £702.

In all, total income for the year came to £11,170 (£5,930 in '70), while expenditure rose by £836 to £8,550.

The net result of the years working was a surplus of £2,620, as against a deficit of £1,974 last year.

The most heartening feature has of course been the record receipts. The hurling side is understandable as we lost two major gates in 1970 due to the difficulties which arose in relation to the Erin's Own v. De La Salle game and this was a bad bio financially. However, the football returns, which are up by £1,363, clearly show that support for Gaelic games in Waterford is as strong as ever and that good publicity pays off.

And on this matter of publicity, one must understand that despite contributing almost nil in advertising revenue to local papers, G.A.A. affairs in the county receive more coverage than any other sport.

SECRETARY'S REPORT

In his report, Co. Secretary Seamus Grant said the year '71 will be recalled by future generations as one of momentous decisions in the long history of Gaelic games. It was a period of soul-searching and painstaking reappraisal of all that is best through attachment to an ideal, deep-rooted and racy of the soil.

We as custodians of a great abiding heritage, would play false to the past, ignore the present, and scorn the future, if we allowed this Association to adopt any other course. Such thoughts are prompted by the amount of permissiveness cultivated in some areas since the removal of the "ban" rules. Allegiance priority would seem to be waved all too easily nowadays, and those who would have it so, might do well to think again of what membership of the G.A.A. really entails.

This Association, which has successfully weathered many a crisis in the past, is facing itself to meet every new challenge, but it can only continue to succeed, if we for our part, fully live up to the responsibilities entrusted to our keeping.

Any incident which endangers the dignity and prestige of the Association must be ruthlessly dealt with. The club official who fails to reprimand the players who resort to rough and dangerous play, is failing in his duty to his club. The latter unit which condones through inaction, such misconduct, is failing in its duty to the Association.

Boards also possess major responsibility in this regard, and failure to act impartially and firmly as incidents of misconduct come before them can in the final analysis lead to a complete breakdown in authority.

The increase in social activity at club level in recent months had been very gratifying and a step in the right direction. It must be remembered however that where such activity is limited to the annual Dinner, it falls far short of what could be achieved if the G.A.A. is to fulfil itself in the vital sphere of community effort.

No review of 1971 would be complete without reference to two important happenings on the national scene. The first in sequence of time was the removal of the "Ban" Rules, and the second was the Report of the Special Commission of far more reaching dimensions to the welfare of the Association.

Regarding the deletion of certain rules from the Official Guide, we must in the light of experience, seriously ask ourselves has this eradication resulted in a strengthening of the Association, or has it in any way created a situation where the very structure of this organisation can be undermined or impeded. There is no major evidence, that either is the case in this country, but there is certainly no cause for complacency. On the contrary, there is need for greater vigilance in many spheres, so that the "old maximum" of "Irish games for Irish youth" shall not alone be maintained but strengthened. After many months of exhaustive study and intensive research, the Commission set up by Annual Congress 1970, issued its findings and recommendations in the latter months of 1971. This represents all facets of Association working with particular reference to Structure, Finance, Youth Grounds, Communications, Hurling, Discipline and Sponsorship. The basic unit of this Association occupied the central theme of the report. It now remains for the clubs themselves to study, examine and delve into all aspects of the Commission's findings and thus help to create the Association of the future.

Throughout this county there is ample evidence of a strong and virile Gaelic game structure. One has only to take cognizance of the Divisional Reports before us for adoption to fully understand the current trend.

1971 has now departed into the realms of yesteryear. History perhaps will recall it as one of the most momentous years in the annals of Gaelic games. It was widespread activity in field and forum, and it was highlighted by many major decisions at the highest level of the Association.

Last year also saw the departure from the office of this Board of Declan Goode, after a record-breaking uninterrupted 33 years as Secretary. No words of mine can adequately sum up this era of outstanding service of a man who became synonymous with Waterford Gaelicdom and everything it expounds. The Gaels of the county paid him a signal honour by spontaneously and unanimously electing him Hon. President of the Association in the County immediately on his retirement last January. It was a fine tribute to a man who served his county as a player and an administrator for nigh on half a century.

At the other end of the draw their great rivals Ardmore found themselves in serious trouble against Ring in the first round and if the Gaeltacht men had possessed a reliable place kicker then it would have been they who would have advanced to the second round and not Ardmore. Eire Oge came out on top against Valley Rovers, while Ardmore had it easy against Dungarvan and then accounted for Eire Oge to qualify for the Divisional final, and the Western final certainly lived up to expectations.

Ardmore made the early running and when they broke through for a goal the champions appeared in real trouble. However, in the second half the champions proved their worth and when P. J. Ryan crashed the ball to the net the excitement was intense, and with Jim Wall, Mick Connolly, Tom Crotty, Mick Ryan, Phil Harte, P. J. Ryan, Jim Ryan and Martin Walsh now dominating the exchanges the Nire men edged in front. John Hennessy and company were far from finished and with time running out only a point separated the sides.

But the Nire defence held firm and the champions survived by the minimum margin. In the county final the Western champions proved much too good for a disappointing Erin's Own fifteen and the bon fires of victory lit up the night sky in Ballymacarbery and the Nire Valley to welcome home the first Nire team to win a county championship in 28 years.

Their's was a most popular victory.

It would be wrong not to mention last year's league final in this grade, which produced a great hour's football from Nire and Ardmore and resulted in a draw. Incidentally the replay will take place in February.

Modeligo Area Water Supply

Mr. Sean Treacy, T.D., has received the following letter from Mr. J. G. Dowling, Co. Secretary, Waterford County Council:—

"I wish to acknowledge receipt of your representations regarding a water supply for Modeligo. I wish to point out that a scheme for the Modeligo area is not on the present list of schemes with the Department of Local Government for approval.

I will have the question of the provision of a minor scheme for this area investigated with a view to adding it to the Council's priority list of water schemes."
