At the very successful St. Patrick's eve dance on Friday 16th the final draw of the 1972/73 season was made, with another popular Bank Manager, Mr. Tom Boyd netting the main prize of £50. A full list of the winners is contained in the advertisement in this issue.

Kilmacthomas Youth Club Concert

For the past few weeks rehearsals have been in full swing for the local Youth Club concert being staged at the Rainbow Ballroom on Thursday next, March 29th. Considering last year's splendid performance by all the participants, this again should be a night to be remembered. The three local National schools are taking part again this year, Mercy Convent, Currahaha and Newtown. If their performances are of the high standard they were last year, the local schools could well be stars of the show.

Direct from the Scor '73 Munster final, is Martin Galvin, also taking part are Mergo Gallagher and John Whelan. The members of the Youth Club will present two side splitting sketches. As an extra bonus, Gerdie of Herdman's fame and the other members of the Hymac, have come together and with such a combination reeking of talent, the evening should be a most enjoyable one. No concert in Kilmac would be complete without the very enjoyable Michael Walsh and we all look forward to hearing his latest recitation.

Not to be outdone, the clergy are contributing — no, unfortunately Fr. Harty is not dancing a jig, but his friends from St. John's College, Waterford have a great ballad ready in readiness for the occasion. The talented teenage celli band from Clogheen who played the Presidential Salute in the St. Patrick's Day Parade in Dublin are back again. Pat Sheridan from Waterford is master of ceremonies and will have a great evening's entertainment.

KINSALEEG-CLASHMORE HARBORS
The annual dinner dance will be held at Monaree Hotel on this Friday night (23rd) and a record attendance is assured. This fast running pack is having a great season. The popular master is Mr. James Fitzgerald, Clashmore.

Another big event on this Friday night is the big dance in Clashmore H-1 in aid of much-regretted. Sincere sympathy funds. The major attraction will be the famous showband, Nicky Carols and the Superstars.

LATE MRS. K. FITZGERALD ARDMORE
The death occurred recently while on a visit to England of Mrs. K. Fitzgerald, Ardm. Ardmore. Relict of Ed. Fitzgerald (nee Foley) was popular among all sections of the community and her demise is in much-regretted. Sincere sympathy is extended to her bereaved family. The funeral to Ardmore cemetery was of large and representative proportions. Rev. Fr. O'Gorman, C.C. officiated.

POPULAR POSTMAN RETIRES
Mr. Timothy Foley, Newtown, Kinsaleeg recently retired as postman in Ardmore area and to mark the occasion the people of the area made him a series of presentation. At a pleasant function the presentations were made by Mr. John Cashman N.T. who, with other speakers, paid many and striking tributes to Mr. Foley's many outstanding qualities and to his long and efficient service.

Mr. Foley, who was loudly applauded, suitably repaid and thanked the people of Ardmore for their generous and magnificent gesture.

During his many years of faithful service, he cycled over 250,000 miles. In the performance of his duties he was noted for his honesty, integrity, efficiency and dedication to his duties at all times and in all weathers. As a youth he took part in the fight for freedom.

What price peace of mind?

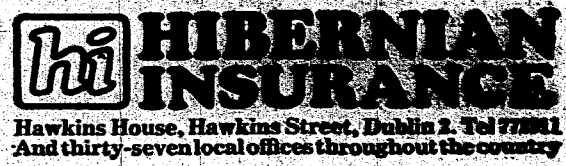

Priceless!

Peace of mind is priceless to a family man. It comes from knowing that you're covered by Hibernian Insurance - and that you've taken care to cut down all risks to your property.

You see, the best insurance policy of all is the one you never use. Because insurance only softens the blow.

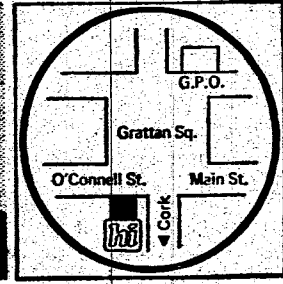

Actually replacing property which has been stolen or destroyed by fire can sometimes be impossible. So it makes sense to do your best to prevent the worst happening.

Peace of mind is priceless, but you can afford it with Hibernian Insurance - and a little care.

Make peace of mind your policy in DUNGARVAN.

Contact Mr. R. A. Treacy, Manager, 32 Grattan Square, Dungarvan, Tel. Dungarvan 654.

FAREWELL, JOHN

"John Kent is dead"
The cry went round
We hoped it could not be
His stately figure at the door
Alas, no more we'll see
A man of tolerance and wit
His presence graced the town
A 'mile fallite' on his lips
So very rare the frown
He'll be remembered for the poor
He buried, without fee
And also for the part he played
To let his country free
We're poorer for his passing
And keenly felt the loss
When, with a grim finality
The hearse set out for Ross
He's back now on his native heath
Beneath a Wexford sky
But we will not forget you, John
Your memory will not die.

TREE PLANTING TIME

Coolnasmear Muintir na Tire undertook a most worthwhile project when on Tuesday, March 20th, at the Coolnasmear N.S., a shelterbelt of trees were planted around the grounds of the school. When it became evident that amalgamation was to take place at Coolnasmear it was decided that something should be done to give added beauty to the district. The school which faces the Cruachain peak of the Mountains is comparatively new, having been built in 1963. It replaces the old school which existed for more than 100 years of which Muiris Brennock N.T. was a principal for many years until his retirement in 1968. This school saw many excellent teachers in former days and present day Ireland.

Official Opening of the Devonshire Arms Hotel, Dungarvan, Entertainment Room

Mr. Tom Kyne, T.D., Mrs. and Mr. Percy and Mrs. Tom Kyne, toast the opening of the New Ballroom at the Devonshire Arms Hotel, Dungarvan.

At a reception given by Mr and Mrs. T. Percy, Props., to the members of the staff at which Deputy and Mrs T. A. Kyne were guests, Mr. Kyne paid tribute to the enterprise of Mr. Percy in providing such a magnificent ballroom. Mr. Kyne went on to welcome them to the town of Dungarvan, both as a Dail Deputy and as Chairman of the Urban District Council. In providing the entertainment room, Mr Percy filled a want in the town for additional facilities to cater for the young people of the area. It was, he said, very desirable that this should be done by private enterprise rather than depending on the ratepayers of the town through the local Council. He wished Mr. and Mrs. Percy many long years of prosperity and happiness in their new undertaking and they all look forward to the time in about six or seven weeks when the hotel would be fully equipped to cater for guests and social functions. A number of flashlight photographs were taken by Mrs. H. Beresford of the Dungarvan Observer staff.

Due to the heavy flow of traffic on the Waterford/Cork road, it is considered dangerous and the demand for houses is not great in the area.

LATE JOHN KENT

On Monday of last week the death occurred unexpectedly of Mr. John Kent. Deceased was a leading Kilmackthomas businessman who ran a successful grocery, licensed premises and undertaking service. His passing evoked feelings of deep regret especially as he was so recently pre-deceased by a brother.

The remains were removed from his residence to All Saints Church, Newtown, on Tuesday. After Requiem Mass on Wednesday the funeral left for Tennerath Cemetery, Co.

Wexford for burial in the family plot.
He is survived by his widow, sons, John, Philip, Michael and Terence, daughters, sons-in-law and daughters-in-law, grandchildren and other relatives—R.I.P.
PROJECT
Rev. Michael Enright C.C. has enthusiastic ideas for a children's playground in Bonmahon. To raise an estimated £500 a silver circle is being held in the area in the near future.

An Appreciation

The passing of Myles Burke which occurred recently at a London Hospital evoked widespread regret amongst his wide circle of friends. Myles was he was popularly known, hailed from a family that played a major part in the foundation of the Abbotside G.A.A. Club. He donned the Village colours on many occasions and thus proved his worth on the hurling arena. A most unassuming personality, always ready to help a team mate. He was possessed of sterling qualities. He was also known for his love of music. He had few peers as an accordion player. He usually excelled in this domain at the Pattern of Abbotside. Myles had been in indifferent health for some time. He bore his illness with Christian fortitude.

A likeable person in every respect. He always had the good word. As I stood by the graveside at Hounslow West Cemetery memories came flooding round me of great days in Abbotside hurling. Yes, we shall miss his pleasant personality which pervaded any company he moved in. We know how much he loved his native Villase and the people who lived there.

May the sod of Albion's clime Lay gently on his breast.

CAPPOQUIN NEWS

LATE MRS. MARGARET McGRATH

We record with deep regret the death of Mrs. Margaret McGrath, Camphire Bridge, Cappoquin which occurred after a protracted illness at Ardkeen Hospital Waterford on St. Patrick's Day. The removal took place on Sunday to the Church of The Sacred Heart Knockanore where the remains were received and blessed on arrival by Very Rev. T. Dreaper P.P.

The burial took place in the adjoining cemetery after Requiem Masses on Monday 19th March. Rev. J. Griffin C.C. assisted by Very Rev. T. Dreaper P.P. Rev. J. McGrath Geary Youghal.

The deceased who was relict of Robert McGrath, was in her seventieth year. Her husband had predeceased her by some years. The mother of a very large family among which her sons Bob, Johnny, George and Paddy won fame on the hurling field, will not be forgotten by her family and her wide circle of friends who deeply mourn her passing. She was nee Nicholson and a native of Billeenagh, Knockanore. She is survived by her sons, daughters, two brothers and a sister.

DEATH OF POPULAR CAPPOQUIN LADY

It is our sad duty to record the death of Miss Nellie O'Shea E. de M., Barnack Street, Cappoquin, who died after a brief illness at Ardkeen Hospital on Monday 19th March. The remains were removed the same evening to St. Mary's Church, Cappoquin. A large and representative gathering was present at this lady was held in the highest esteem. (Full obituary next issue).

(Funeral arrangements by Aidan Walsh and Sons, Undertakers, Cappoquin).

CEOLTOIRI LE CEILI

We extend our sincere thanks to all the groups that participated in the Oiche Ceoil the local groups from Scoil Naomh Aine and the Youth Club. To Mossy Morrissey and Griffin T.D. All are welcome.

to members of the Youth Club who have helped in many ways on this and on other occasions this year, a special word of praise goes. This is the co-operative that is needed to forward the national culture in Ireland today.

Comhaltas Ceoltóirí Ceilteach Chuanagh (Fourmilewater) we say go raibh maith agubh. Their performance of the Set, their rendering of national ballads was inspiring. A unique item in the programme was the Daly family group from Glendine. Mrs. Daly played some very inspiring traditional music, while her children, James a Half Set in very traditional style. Other members of Comhaltas Ceoltóirí in the group who contributed musical numbers included Mick, Dalton, Willie Joe Morrissey of Ardkeen, Ceili Band and Sean Ó'Sullivan Dun na n-Éireann. The only disappointing feature of the night was the small attendance.

A local branch of Comhaltas Ceoltóirí is being formed in the parish. Let us hear from anyone interested with help.

G.A.A. NEWS

We congratulate the team on a very fine performance for Waterford in a hurling match against Clontarf at 15min. on Sunday last. Pat, who has represented Waterford in minor and under-21 hurling and at long senior, should definitely polish himself as a regular in the side for the coming season. Aside from his general play Pat's achievements were the feature of the otherwise mediocre game.

SPOTLIGHT ON KILGOBINET

Will 1973 be Kilgobinet's best year? Well Noel Fleming, K. Connie Kelleher, Simon Hanley are not without hope, that the men in green and white will achieve their ambition this year.

It is now eleven years since the Kilgobinet club last tasted championship success, a fact which will make the present day players all the more determined to succeed in 1973. In 1960 their hurlers reached the Divisional final, only to lose to Glashmore. Again last year they were defeated Divisional finalists, when the eventual county champions Ballysaggart, by virtue of a great performance from John Willie O'Gorman, came out on top.

This year Kilgobinet have been strengthened by the transfer to the club of Martin Walsh, Mick Brett, Tony McCarthy and Liam O'Rourke (hurling) and provided they survive their first round local Derby clash with St. Mary's, Touraneena, they are certain to be very strong contenders once again for the elusive title. With the players already mentioned they also have accomplished performers in P. Dunford, Mick Keohan, M. Fraher, Tom Lenders, Michael Ryan, E. Byrnes, Peter Power, Willie Power etc. and they must be rated as one of the best junior hurling teams in the Division.

In football Kilgobinet have been faring quite well in the current league and it may well be that they will also stage a strong challenge in this code. On the under age front Kilgobinet have joined forces with Colligan in the U-14 and U-16 grades and this move is certainly a very praise-worthy venture indeed. Last year the Kilgobinet players trained very hard for all their important championship games and a continuance of this policy could pay rich dividends this year.

Next week we will turn our spotlight on another local club.

Sean Sheehan, on behalf of the Park House Darts team, receives the Phelan trophy from Mr. John Phelan.

Junior Football Final Sliabh gCua no Match for Tramore

Tramore ... 2-13; Tramore lead by 1-5 to 0-1; Sliabh gCua ... 0-2

Tramore junior footballers turned on a power-packed display in last Sunday's (1972) county final played at Walsh Park, Waterford. From start to finish the Eastern champions were in full control and they treated the big attendance to a delightful display of combined football and in truth the issue was never in doubt.

NEXT SUNDAY'S GAMES

In next Sunday's football league games main interest will centre around the top of the table clash between Lismore and Old Parish, and what a game this should be. Old Parish are improving with every outing, while Lismore are unbeaten to date.

Ring will be firm favourites to account for Eire Og, Ballinacoola should continue their winning streak by defeating Melleray, who have also shown improvement. Shamrocks fresh from their hurling triumph should defeat Ballysaggart, Kilgobinet with home advantage could account for Tourin. While the meeting of local rivals Sliabh gCua and Colligan Emmetts should attract a big attendance to the Touraneena venue.

BORD NA BOG NOTES

The Western end of Board na Bog will meet in Dungarvan on Wednesday, April 4th to make its championship draws and fixtures for the U-14 hurling and football championships. Already the dates for the county finals in these grades, hurling on June 17th and football on June 24th. Therefore the Western championships must be completed by early June at the latest, while the remaining games in the special football league must also be completed and it is also intended to hold a primary schools' competition. This will be like the one which was held last year. It is hoped that more schools will take part in this competition this year.

SARGENT CUP

At Walsh Park on Sunday last Shamrocks playing their first ever competitive game, in the senior grade, scored a fully deserved four point victory over city side Erin's Own. This was a fine effort by the Shamrocks men and they are now in a very good position going into the second leg, which incidentally will be played in Tallow. Remember the team with the biggest aggregate score from the two narrow victories. Best for the Reds were Bill Dunford in Stradbally and Kill. Local goal Jamie Fennell and Liam Carroll in the back line R. Dunford and Pat Power played well at midfield up against inter-county men Eugene Dunphy and Joe Flynn. Well done and Hickey showed promise in the full forward line. All members are requested to be at the new playing pitch on this Saturday at 2 p.m. to pick the remaining stones.

NIRE WIN

In this first leg Phelan Cup tie played at Ballymacarby on Sunday last, Nire scored a clear cut victory over Brickey Rangers on the score of 1-9 to 0-2.

FAHA INTERMEDIATE

The result of last Sunday's junior final means that Faha will now be participating in this year's Intermediate football championship.

NOT PLAYED

The second leg tie between Lismore and Cappoquin hurlers in the Sargent Cup was not played on Sunday last.

FOOTBALL LEAGUE FIXTURES

For Sunday, 24th March
Ring v Eire Og; Melleray v Ballinacoola; Lismore v Old Parish; Kilgobinet v Tourin; Shamrocks v Ballysaggart; Sliabh gCua v Emmetts.

AT NOWLAN PARK

Waterford's quarter final clash with Wexford will be played at Nowlan Park, Kilkenny on Sunday April 8th, as Wexford refused to lose, as suggested by Waterford between Walsh Park and New Ross venues.

Stradbally GAA Notes

Draw, 5th week, held on Monday, 19th March. £10—Miss Mary Lonergan, Carrick-on-Suir, p. Angela Heane.

Stradbally senior football team played a very entertaining challenge game Sunday will be played. The highlight game between the two narrow victories. Best for the Reds were Bill Dunford in Stradbally and Kill. Local goal Jamie Fennell and Liam Carroll in the back line R. Dunford and Pat Power played well at midfield up against inter-county men Eugene Dunphy and Joe Flynn. Well done and Hickey showed promise in the full forward line. All members are requested to be at the new playing pitch on this Saturday at 2 p.m. to pick the remaining stones.

HURLING CHALLENGE AT CAPPOQUIN

Senior and minor hurling challenge games at Cappoquin on Sunday next 25th — Mount Sion (Waterford) v Sarsfields (Cork). Minor hurling will commence at 2.30; senior at 3.45. Both teams are fielding at full strength in preparation for forthcoming championships.

GOOD DISPLAY BY HURLERS

In last Sunday's senior hurling challenge game played in ideal conditions before a good attendance at Lismore, Waterford gave a good display, in defeating a Cork selection 4-12 to 3-6 and in doing so, they gave further evidence of their growing confidence in preparation for their clash with Wexford in the League on April 8th. At nowlan park, Cappoquin's Pat Pean in his first outing for the county seniors gave a promising performance while John Moran (Poumte) also impressed at night half back. It is good to see young players being given a chance to gain experience at this level of hurling. Tom Russell (Parlow) also had his moments in attack.

PHELAN CUP

At the time of writing these notes I have no definite information in respect of the Phelan Cup competition which is expected to commence on Sunday next. One of the assumptions that these games will be ahead on Sunday, they in all a total of seven games

OUR FORECAST CORNER

Football League—Six games — Ring, Kilgobinet, Shamrocks, Emmetts, Ballinacoola. Phelan Cup—Seven games — Stradbally, Nire, Dunhill, John Mitchells, Gaultier, Tramore and Kilrossanty.

AN DEISEACH

To date Waterford's second ever Year Book "An Deiseach" has been selling like hot cakes and rightly so as it is a really top class publication which includes special features on two of Waterford's most famous hurling clubs, Mount Sion and Erin's Own while Mick Morrissey of London and Abbeville, a well known contributor to thmi paper has paid a tribute to his own Hurling Wave Brothers and the Affane Cappoquin Clubs are well covered in a special article by Denis McGrath. All in all it is a most interesting and readable book

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

A Chara— Now that the County Board has bought the Fraher Field for £40,000, which will be opened on the owners receiving £10,000. This amount could be got if each club was prepared to pay £5.00 each, along with the Divisional Boards being prepared to forfeit one third of their gate receipts. The Board could also ask business firms if they would be prepared to advertise their goods on the pitch. In the event of the field being open in the near future, I and others will voluntary give our services to sell tickets, prepare the playing pitch for matches or do anything to keep the field in a firstclass playing condition.

Yours faithfully,

DIVISION 1 SOCCER

Dungarvan 2; Clonmel Bohs 1

Clonmel Bohs, Division 1 champions 1971 and again in 1972, played for the first time at Springmount on Sunday last and were fancied to take both points but lost to an inspiring Dungarvan eleven.

The game was played on the best day of the year to date and did not fail to entertain, as it had three goals plus some great football.

After ten minutes the home side went one up. Great defensive play by Dungarvan after the interval kept Clonmel out until the 60th minute when they equalised but Dungarvan fought back for M. Walsh to head the winner.

Dungarvan now have seven games from their last four games.

Dear Sir— I lived in Dungarvan for some years and am anxious to get the words of a song I often heard sung here. The title is "The Great O.D.V." I am also anxious to know who composed it. If any readers of the "Observer" can help I would be very thankful.

Yours faithfully,
