Cappoquin News

GREYHOUND WIN

Congratulations to Mr. M. Murphy on the success of his greyhound, Handsome Day, at Youghal Track on Friday night last.

SUCCESSFUL TRAINER

We are pleased to report on the recent successes of local trainer, Mr. Peter Casey. He has had tremendous success with Hillside Abbey, owned by Mrs. Horgan, Conna. Hillside Abbey has won four races in a row at Waterford, Clonmel and Youghal greyhound tracks. A unique feat indeed and bears out Peter's quality as a top-class trainer.

RECORD BREAKER

John Treacy of Villierstown who has had many outstanding athletic achievements under his belt, still maintained his magnificent standards when winning the 3,000 metres at the B.I.O.E. track and field championships at Santry Stadium on Sunday last. John won in the terrific time of 8 mins. 45.8 secs, bettering the old record by 5 seconds. Truly a remarkable achievement for a 16-year old. Well done John. G.A.A. NEWS

Cappoquin Sportsfield held a triple-decker programme on Sunday last and the matches resulted in victories for Tourin and Tallow (junior hurling championship) and Ballyduff (intermediate football championship) over their respective opponents, Dungarvan, Clashmore and Lismore.

Affane senior footballers meet Portlaw on Sunday next in the County senior football semi-final at Dungarvan. Affane should win this one as they had undergone a stiff training stint and their form in recent challenges without some of their regulars has been most encouraging.

FIRE

The local fire brigade were called into action in the early hours of Friday morning last when the Abbey at Glencarn caught fire. Their prompt action quickly prevented the fire from extensively spreading. The arrival of other brigades from various centres soon had everything under control. Fortunately where the blaze occurred it was the section under reconstruction and was unoccupied. But the advantages of having a fire brigade close at hand were forcibly borne out on this occasion and we can be thankful that the local brigade is such a competent one.

LATE PATRICK FLYNN

We record with deep regret the death of Patrick Flynn, Kereen, Aglish, which occurred at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan, on Thursday, August 16th. The remains were removed to Aglish Church on Friday, August 17th, where the coffin was received and blessed by Rev. P. Fitzgerald C.C.

The interment took place in the adjoining cemetery on Saturday 18th August after Requiem Mass. Very Rev. M. Kelleher officiated at the graveside assisted by Rev. P. Fitzgerald C.C.

The deceased who had reached his middle eighties was a quiet, unassuming, inoffensive man. He was always neat and impeccably dressed. He is survived by one brother, Maurice, who is the last remaining member of the family and three nieces one of whom is a nun. (Funeral arrangements by Aidan Walsh & Sons, Undertakers, Cappoquin).

LATE RICHARD A. FRASER

It is our sad duty to record the death of Richard A. (Dick) Fraser, late of Main Street, Cappoquin, who died at Arkeen Hospital, Waterford, on Monday, August 20th. The removal took place on Tuesday to St. Mary's Church, Cappoquin, and the burial took place on Wednesday in St. Declan's Cemetery. To his sorrowing brother, sisters, nephews and nieces, and relatives sincere sympathy is extended. (Full obituary next week).

(Funeral arrangements by M. J. Noonan & Son, Undertakers, Cappoquin).

NIRE VALLEY NEWS

HAIL THE CHAMPIONS

At Lismore on Saturday evening last, The Nire U-16 footballers made history by defeating Dungarvan in the Western final. It was a thrilling game and The Nire boys led from the start and at halftime were 2-5 to 0-2 in front.

The second half provided some great football and although the Nire had two disallowed goals, they won by 2-10 to 0-6. There were scenes of excitement when the final whistle blew as the Nire boys were carried off shoulder high. Mr. J. Murphy Chairman of the Western Board presented the Cup to Walter Kearney, captain of the Nire team.

On arrival back in Ballymacbray, bonfires blazed to welcome home the young heroes and the Cup was full of time and again. The winning team was Jim Denton, Jim Loneragan, Pat Halley, Michael Halley, Paddy Cooney, Oliver Power, Deenan Grady, Billy Walsh, Declan Fitzpatrick, Joe Ryan, Sean Guiry, Tommy Hallinan, Liam Kelleher, Pat McCarthy and Walter Kearney (capt). Substitute, Michael Whelan for W. Kearney.

BUS TO GALWAY

There are a few vacant seats on the Ballymacbray Youth Centre's trip to Limerick to Lahinch, Cliffs of Moher and Salthill on Saturday next. Buses leave at 8 a.m.

PAROCHIAL DRAW

A grand drawing of prizes in aid of the Fourmilewater and Newcastle Parochial Fund, will be held at Newcastle on Sunday evening next. First prize a frisian heifer.

TOURNAMENT GAME

There was a thrilling finish to a senior tournament game at Newcastle on Wednesday evening last when the Nire trailed Kilsheelan by 2-4 to 0-3 but came storming back to snatch a draw, 1-9 to 2-6.

HARVEST

Although later than in former years, harvesting operations began in the area over the weekend and yields are reported to be up to average.

LADIES FOOTBALL

Ballymacbray and Stradbally drew in their tie at Stradbally, 1-3 to 0-6. The draw for the semi-finals was made on Monday night last and Kilrossanty (holders) Stradbally and Ballymacbray are all confident of winning the title.

FRETTY WEDDING

St. Laurence's Church, Fourmilewater, was the scene of a very pretty and interesting wedding on Wednesday morning, August 15th (Feast of the Assumption) where the members of two well known local families were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

The contracting parties were Mr. John Fitzpatrick Knockmeal, Ballinamult, and Miss Theresa White, Castleknock, Ballymacbray. The ceremony with Nuptial Mass and Pupal Blessing were performed by Very Rev. D. O'Byrne, P.P., Fourmilewater assisted by Very Rev. T. O'Brien, P.P., Touraneena and Rev. J. Bracken C.C., Dungarvan.

Miss Hannah Fitzpatrick (sister of the groom) was bridesmaid and Misses Catherine and Geraldine Hennessy (nieces of the bride) were flower girls, with Mr. Declan Fitzpatrick (brother of the groom) best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Lawlors Hotel, Dungarvan, where upwards of 120 guests were entertained following which the happy couple left on their honeymoon on a motoring tour of the country.

Both bride and groom are very popular members of the community, the groom being a prominent member of the Slabh gCua hurling and football clubs.

In Memoriam

McGOVERN (6th anniversary)—in fond and loving memory of my dear wife Mary, who died on the 25th August, 1967.

Sweet Heart of Jesus have mercy on her soul. Remembered daily in my prayers. Masses offered. All alone I wait and pray Until will come the happy day When God in his mercy bids me come To meet you in his Heavenly home. —Inserted by her loving husband.

WEST WATERFORD NEWS

LATE MISS M. POWER, CLASHMORE

The death occurred recently in a Waterford hospital of Miss Mary (Molly) Power, Ballinamultina, Clashmore, and formerly of Kilcooney, Ballinamult. Of a quiet and inoffensive nature, deceased was popular among all sections of the community and her demise is much regretted while much sympathy is extended to her bereaved sisters, nephews and other relatives. The funeral took place to Touraneena cemetery.

NEW P.C.

The recent appointment by the Minister for Justice, Mr. Coony, of Mr. Martin Colbert, Aglish, as P.C. for Co. Waterford and adjoining counties has proved very popular in this area among Government supporters and the public generally. It is a worthy recognition of his work.

STRIKING FUNERAL TRIBUTE

On the occasion of his funeral, a touching tribute was paid to the late Richard Tobin, Clashmore, by his former comrades in the Old I.R.A. and G.A.A. The coffin was draped in the tri-colour and four of his former team mates, Messrs. R. Murray, J. Cunningham, P. O'Brien and P. O'Rourke, wearing club jersey, bore the remains from the hearse to the Church.

SUCCESS IN EXAMINATION

Congratulations are extended to Miss Ann Walsh, Ballinacash, Clashmore, on her success, with honours in the Leaving Certificate examination. Ann, who is very popular in this area, is only 16-years old and has no doubt a brilliant future.

SALMON FISHING CRUX

Rumours that next year's salmon fishing season is to be further shortened has caused considerable concern among traditional fishermen in this area who realise that their livelihoods are now in jeopardy because of circumstances outside their control. It is pointed out that traditional drift and drift net fishermen catch only a tiny percentage of all fish taken in any season.

LOCAL HAPPS.

SACRISTIAN'S COLLECTION

On Sunday next, 26th August, the annual collection for the Parish Sacristan will be held at all Masses in St. Mary's Parish Church. Owing to the steep increase in the cost of living you are requested to subscribe generously. BREEDER UNKNOWN

Sir— I would like to correct a statement made by Brian MacSweeney in Friday's (August 10th) Irish Independent. He states that Manhattan has not a known breeder. I would like to inform him that this wonder horse was bred by Mr. Maurice Christopher, of Ballyswan, Stradbally, Co. Waterford.

Pattern of Modeligo and Affane

Blessed with glorious sunshine and just bearable heat, the Pattern this year was not only a sports meeting with original competitions and entertaining football games—it was a meeting-place for the parishioners home on holidays from various parts of Inland as well as for the exiles from overseas—England, Germany, America, Nigeria—whose nostalgic reminiscence of the Patterns of other days provided entertainment for the younger listeners. We were happy to have in our midst Very Rev. Nicholas and Michael Walshe, Farnane, P. O'Brien, Graigue, Nicholas McCarthy, Churchquarter and Rd. Fitzpatrick O.S.A. who is home from the Mission Fields of Nigeria.

Having enjoyed the fancy dress parade, there was high class entertainment in the sports events where many novelty items were introduced. The afternoon programme concluded with a very lively and closely contested football match between the married and single ladies of the parish—the latter winning by a slight margin. After tea we were entertained to some brilliant football in the game between married and single men. Despite the trojan efforts of well-known footballers of other years—Jimmy McGrath, Tommy Byrne Sean Buckley, Paul Killigrew, Bill Flynn, John Lonergan, the singles were again victorious.

The highlight of the evening was yet to come with an exhibition of set dancing at an open-air stage at Millstreet given by locals: Misses Anne Walsh, Carmel McCarthy, Chrissie O'Donnell, Betty Cliffe and Jim Cliffe, Paddy O'Donnell, Roger and John McCarthy. The neighbouring champions from Slah gCua also entertained us and a treat in step-dancing was given by Modeligo School girls (pupils of Monnie Hallahan).

Music and dancing by the young and not so young continued at the stage until midnight. Though tired, yet happy, all agreed it was the best Pattern yet.

Thanks from the Committee is extended to Mr. Ed. Wynberry, that well-known personality from Waterford City who judged the fancy dress and was the capable starter in the sports events, to the many sponsors of sports, games, fancy dress, to the musicians at the stage and to genial Sean Walshe who so willingly gives us his field at many times during the year and without whose co-operation with that dynamic Sports Committee such a successful Pattern would not have been possible.

Adult Education and Evening Classes

OUR programme of Adult Education is a striking example of the ability of our schools to respond to local needs and interests. These classes are not confined to the schools themselves; tractor maintenance and boat-building, for example, cannot be fully dealt with in a classroom. In addition to the schools there are various other centres in the county which are geared solely to Adult Education, bringing evening classes to the people of Portlaoise, Tramore, etc. — some of these centres are permanent, others are used on a temporary basis. The variety of courses provided by the Committee is so great that it is not possible to detail them all, but some indication of the range they cover is informative:—

PRACTICAL: Typewriting, Shorthand, Building Construction, Cookery, Woodcraft, Welding, Home Decoration, Car Maintenance.

RECREATIONAL: Foreign Languages, Art, Horticulture, Crafts, Photography, Physical Culture, Archaeology, Local History, English and Irish Literature.

Other types of course cannot be grouped in this way. For example, the facilities provided for the study of single subjects for Leaving Certificate, occasional lectures, or short demonstration courses on topics such as Law, High Class Cookery, or Book-binding.

These classes are based on popular demand and where a course is requested every effort is made to make it available. If you have never been to an Evening Class try it for yourself! The ladies' classes are particularly popular. Many women who have never used their hands to mend a door or put an arrow have been pleased to learn how to do these things, better themselves. For instance, Woodcraft night classes, always popular in Co. Waterford, have now been graced by the ladies. Visit a class in Portlaoise, Tramore, Kilmathomas or Dungarvan and you can see a Nun cutting a mortise for an occasional table, a mother of four making a bedside locker, or a young married couple supplementing their household furniture with a well made teak table. There is a warm, friendly social atmosphere — laughter and conversation are not drowned out by the sounds of hammers and saws.

Building Construction

IN ORDER to improve the standard of housing conditions in rural areas, in the 1950s, the Department of Education trained specialist teachers of Building Construction, who were then appointed by Vocational Education Committees. There are three of these teachers based in Co. Waterford and a fourth will be appointed soon. These teachers conduct classes in building construction where practical information and demonstrations are given on Foundations, Concrete, Blockwork and Brickwork, Plastering, Carpentry, Roofing, Sewage Disposal, Insulation, etc.; as well as some of the requirements in good planning and layout. This classroom, combined with practical instruction on the site, makes it possible for an individual to carry out a building project from scratch. Outside the actual class the teacher prepares a properly planned drawing for each project, whether this is a complete new building or the reconstruction of, or addition to an existing dwelling. For those who need new or improved buildings and who, for various reasons, are not prepared to carry out the work themselves, the class instruction gives an informed approach to any building work they commission.

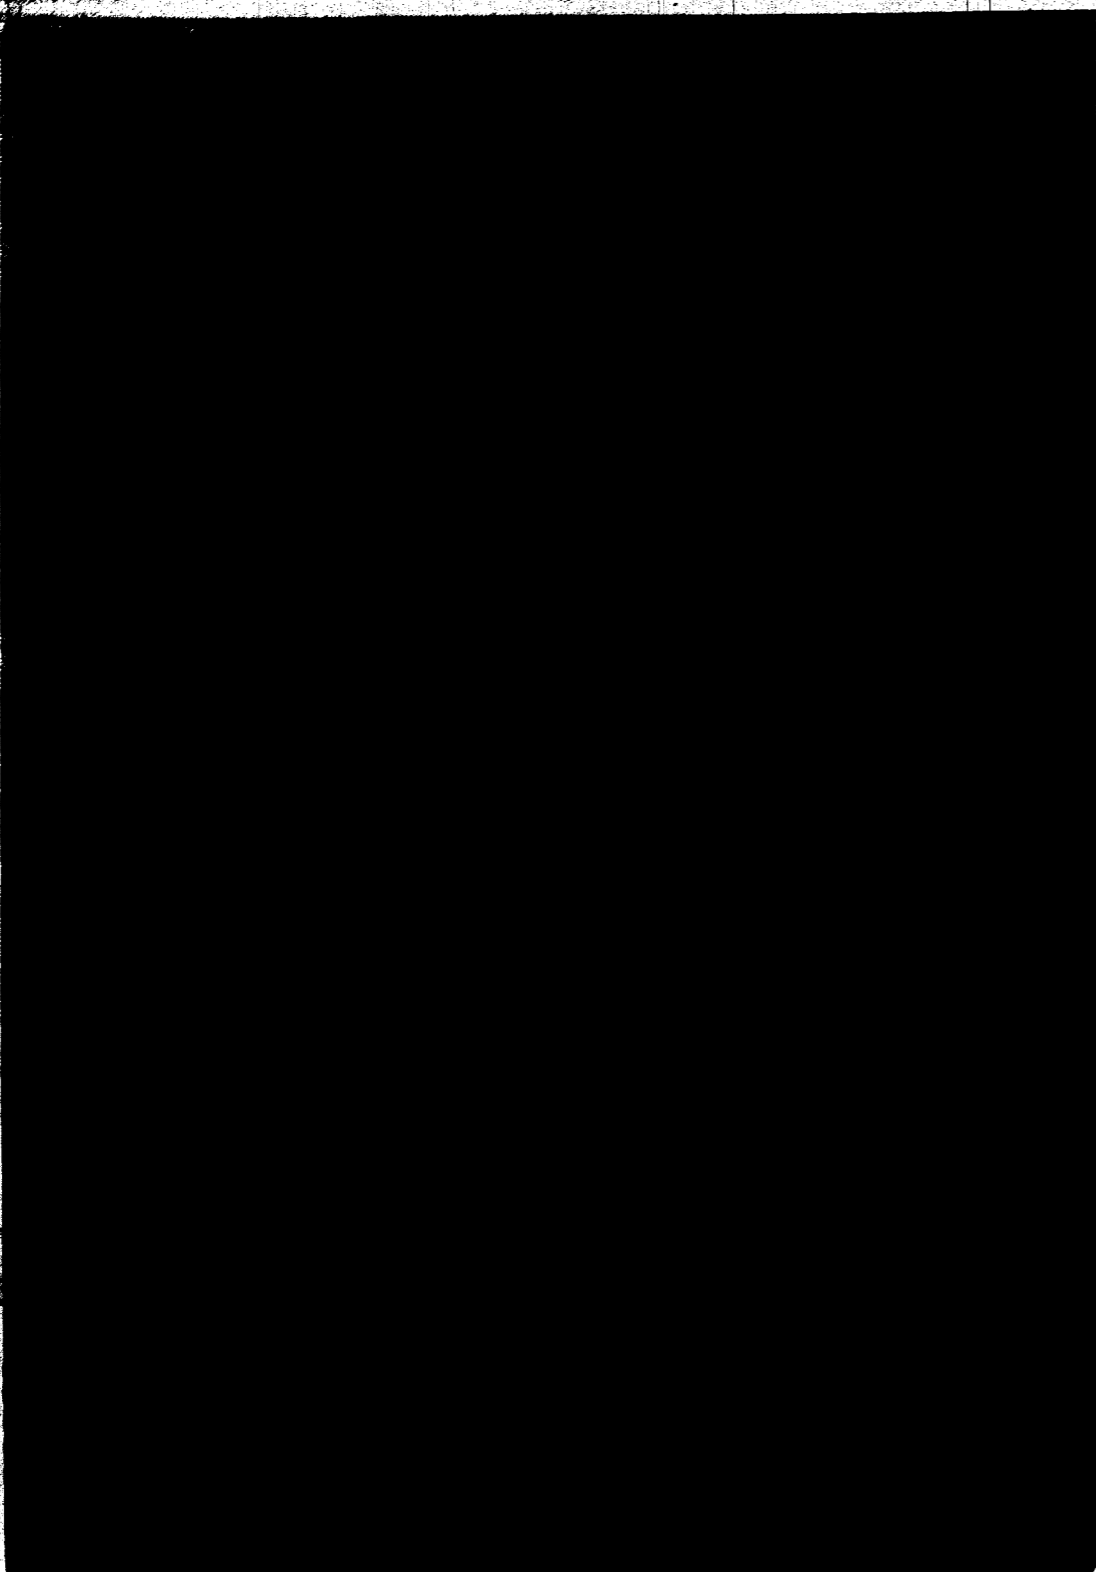

Although living conditions in rural areas have greatly improved since the 1950s, proper planning is still a priority, skilled tradesmen are still in short supply and while money is more readily available it is still true that urgently needed work could not be undertaken at all in many cases unless carried out by the householder himself. The importance of this service is illustrated by the following letter typical of the response we get:—

"As I needed a house and having got estimates for same, I discovered the labour cost was far greater than the materials. After a lot of deliberation, I decided to undertake the job of building my own bungalow. In the meantime a Building construction course was about to start at the Technical School, Dungarvan, which I availed of. It consisted of one night class per week for approximately 6 months. Every aspect of building construction was given in detail, and the teacher visited the site frequently. These classes are a most help to anyone interested in building."

A prominent Co. Waterford building contractor writes:—
"Having completed the Building Construction Course at the Technical School, Dungarvan, I wish to state that it helped me immensely as a builder. I acquired more knowledge and a greater understanding of the Building Technology."

Kilmacthomas School was planned in the early 1930s, but did not materialise until 1969. Since then the initial enrolment of 89 students has more than doubled — proving the Vocational Education Committee and the Department of Education correct in their selection of Kilmacthomas as an additional centre for vocational education.

Together with the other Vocational Schools and non permanent centres, these two schools provide post primary education for up to 400 day pupils and 1214 Adult Students and have a combined staff of 23 full-time and 42 part-time teachers.

Vocational Education in the '70s

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION plays an increasingly vital part in the post-primary education system. The Vocational School provides first class tuition in the full range of technical and academic subjects, which gives our pupils a degree of choice not readily available in any other type of school. Parents are quick to realize that the best way to discover what their child's true abilities and interests are, is in the modern Vocational School. The combination of practical and theoretical subjects ensures a balanced education, and guarantees to each pupil the opportunity to specialise in whatever subjects or skills suit that pupil best. Many pupils and parents are satisfied with the attainment of the Group Certificate, others aim beyond it to Intermediate and Leaving Certificate. We provide the facilities, the teachers and the encouragement to cater for these needs, and the recently established Regional Technical Colleges offer further opportunity in pursuing studies beyond Leaving Certificate level.

What's so Special about Technical Schools?

CURRENT ideas for making education more democratic by involving parents and debates on discrimination in education have very little bearing on technical schools. Ever since these schools were established, in the 1930s, they have been democratically administered and absolutely non-discriminatory. The democratic nature of vocational education has been outlined in the Chairman's opening remarks, but other special features are worth noting. For example, Technical Schools have non-selective intake. This means that admission to our schools does not depend on parents' income or social position, nor is there an examination or interview to decide whether a child is "suitable". Discrimination on the basis of a pupil's religion does not exist — we are the only post-primary institutions which are completely non-sectarian. The educational importance of co-education is now well established and recent research has proven its value as a preparation for successful marriage — it has always been a feature of Vocational Education.

These factors, as well as the obvious merits of combining technical with academic education, are what make technical schools special.

University Diploma Courses

SINCE 1946 University College, Cork has led the field in providing Adult Education. This service has gone from strength to strength; starting with casual lectures, then two-year courses for Trade Unions, followed by two-year courses for the farming community, until now there are four diploma courses available.

The constant and increasing demand for these courses indicates the success of the movement. Many of the 4,000 participants to date, have reached high positions in their trade unions, political parties, or voluntary organisations. The courses emphasize the role of the citizen through the study of Sociology, Economics and other subjects and aim to develop a critical awareness of the society in which we live.

Waterford City and County have enthusiastically participated in adult education since 1948, when the first diploma courses became available outside Cork City. The demand for these courses has increased in recent years, and this is met by an average three to four courses in the county. Since the first Trade Union Courses in Waterford, in 1948 five hundred and fifty people have been successful. A further five hundred people undertook part of the courses, but did not complete the two-year cycle.

Because of its location, University College, Cork relies completely on a very happy partnership with Vocational Authorities to provide its special type of education. No authority surpasses those of Waterford County and City in their co-operation with the University.

This year it is proposed to organise courses at five centres throughout the county.

National Manpower Service

AMONG its other activities, the National Manpower Service makes students and teachers aware of the kind of jobs available, or becoming available in their own areas or county, by means of its Placement Officers. In the course of their interviews with school leavers our Officers find too many young people aiming for jobs that are in short supply and ignoring other opportunities. For example, only a small proportion of the school girls who would like to pursue Nursing are successful and the same is true of those who wish to become National Teachers.

We find a definite prejudice against industrial employment among school leavers. This could be due to a lack of appreciation and knowledge of what industrial employment in modern conditions is like, and of the opportunities for advancement and promotion which are available. It could equally be a stigma attached to this type of work by some parents and teachers. Whatever the cause, our Director, Mr. Collins asserts: "too many sixteen to eighteen year old boys are seeking clerical posts, that year by year are falling in number. clerical work, as such for men is on the way out. Boys should not look down on industrial employment; the promotional opportunities are there, and the pay can be better than for office work."

The National Manpower Service is keen to stress the advantage of continuing studies after the minimum school leaving age and is full of praise for vocational school courses. We feel that, wherever possible, students who have passed the Group Certificate should stay on for the Vocational School's leaving Certificate.

Changes for the Better

AS every parent knows, schools have changed tremendously in recent years, and further changes are inevitable. Vocational Education thrives on this process of change. This is because of the built-in flexibility of our system. For example, in response to parents' wishes, both at school level and through the Vocational Education Committee, Careers Guidance is becoming increasingly important in our schools. In response to the need of local industries and commerce, course content changes and pupils are swiftly equipped to take advantage of fresh employment opportunities. The size of the schools increases to accommodate more pupils and new subjects, as does the number of teachers and the type and quantity of equipment and facilities. The most striking and perhaps basic changes in recent years however, have been those involving teaching methods and course content. Exciting new test books take a great deal of the drudgery out of study; more choice in examination syllabuses, and the mixture of technical and academic subjects in our schools, ensure interest and stimulation; modern teaching-aids, such as tape-recorders, endiscoscopes, overhead-projectors, films and transparencies, inject interest into subjects which many pupils found dull and uninteresting under the chalk and blackboard system. Pupils are encouraged more than ever before to take an active part in their own education. Education is beginning to move out of the classroom to include field-trips, factory visits, etc. Parents are becoming more involved in finding out about and helping in their children's education.

Courses

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION offers a very wide range of options through the variety of courses it makes available. The many distinct subjects can be broadly grouped as follows:—

ACADEMIC subjects include the full range of courses common to most post-primary schools, such as Languages, Geography, Art, History, Civics;

COMMERCIAL subjects would describe Secretarial, Science, Commerce, Accounting, etc;

TECHNICAL subjects are Workshop Theory and Practice, Domestic Economy, Woodwork and Metalwork, Building Construction, etc.

Various combinations of these subjects form courses which prepare pupils for State Examinations (Group Certificate, Intermediate Certificate, Leaving Certificate), and the selection examinations of various bodies such as, Civil Service, Post Office, County Council, Banking, E.S.B. These courses allied with Careers Guidance, have ensured profitable employment in very worthwhile jobs for all our past pupils. (Further information on the courses available and the opportunities they lead to can be easily obtained from the School Headmasters or from the Chief Executive Officer at the addresses given at the end of this feature).

Sport and Recreation

A FULL-TIME Physical Education Teacher, a wide range of supervised and expensive sports equipment, development plans for an enlarged gymnasium and the acquisition of a large playing-field show clearly the importance we attach to sport and recreation in our schools. Apart from the obvious benefits to students given by these facilities, the idea of Community Recreational Facilities is fast becoming a reality, and adult evening classes in Physical Culture have played a large part in smoothing the way for this development.

Plans are now being finalised for the development of a Communal Sports Complex in Dungarvan, which anticipates the future sports and recreational need of adults as well as school pupils. The complex will provide a complete range of sports facilities and tuition, and will serve the town of Dungarvan and a major part of the County. In addition the complex will offer Physical Education facilities for the schools both Primary and Post-Primary in the area.

Chairman's Introduction

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION in Co. Waterford means to the people. It is administered by means through the Vocational Education Committee, whose members are fully representative of the people of the county. Our schools are Community Schools in fact as well as in spirit, having been democratically controlled since vocational education was introduced over forty years ago.

To-day vocational education is improving on its long and proud record of service to the community. In Co. Waterford this has meant the construction of a new school, modernized teaching methods and equipment, increased pupil accommodation and expanded recreational facilities. These are not simply buildings and equipment — they represent opportunity for our boys and girls to discover their talents, to improve on them and to profit by them. I would like to point out the magnificent opportunities open to young people who have been educated in our Vocational Schools, (in the present, accelerating industrial expansion in Co. Waterford).

This newspaper feature provides some indication of what is happening in vocational education in Co. Waterford, and what is planned for the future. The Committee invites your comments, your criticisms, and above all, your participation, so that we can improve our service to the community together.

The Schools

ALL DAY and Evening Classes in Co. Waterford are provided in two main centres: The Vocational School, Dungarvan and the Vocational School, Kilmacthomas. In addition a wide range of courses mainly for adults, is provided at the Vocational Schools in Tramore and Portlaoise, and the Adult Education Centres at Knockanore and Ballinacorney.

The present Dungarvan School was built in 1927, and has given many years of service to the Community of Dungarvan town and district.

WARBLE FLY ERADICATION SCHEME, 1973

This Scheme will be operated on the same general lines as the Warble Fly Eradication Scheme, 1972.

The treatment period is from 15th August to 15th November, 1973.

The charge for treatment is 24p per animal.

Each herdowner will be notified in advance by his Artificial Insemination Station of the arrangements for treating his herd. On the appointed day he should have

- * all cattle housed or in a yard
- * help ready for the operators; this is essential if the job is to be done satisfactorily
- * the correct blue card for each animal or
- * a list of the ear tag numbers of animals for which blue cards are not available
- * water, soap and a towel.

Untagged animals will be tagged at the time of treatment.

IMPORTANT - This year, it will be necessary to have warble treatment certificates at all times, even during the treatment season.

Herdowners should keep their 1972 certificates until the cattle have been treated and certified in 1973.

Defaulters will be liable to prosecution and, where appropriate, will be debarred from benefit under the Beef Cattle Incentive Scheme.

Cappoquin Ground Rent Controversy

The Cappoquin owners, leaseholders and tenants' association which has been formed by the people of Cappoquin to fight ground rents, is believed to be the first group outside Dublin to challenge the ground rent system. It intends to ally itself to ACRA, the Dublin based Association of Combined Residents Associations, whose campaign against ground rents is now spreading throughout the country.

At a recently held meeting strong criticism of the terms of new leases offered by the Keane Estate to certain tenants in Cappoquin was voiced.

Mr. Norman Walsh M.C.C. stated that the 1967 Landlord and Tenant Act would have to be amended as this did not prevent the creation of further ground rents.

Mr. J. McCarthy said that he had been prevented from purchasing his own lease by a clause in the 1967 Act which stipulated that the valuation should not exceed the ground rent. Criticising the terms of new leases offered to the tenants he emphasised that if the law permitted such settlements then it was time for a change. Ways and means would have to be found, he concluded, to force amending legislation.

When it was pointed out that ground rents had successfully been withheld in a similar situation in North Cork, newly-elected Chairman of the Association Mr. John Murphy said it would be premature to consider stepping outside the law at this stage. He stated that he would do everything possible to further the interests of the association but only within the law.

Other officers of the association elected were Mr. N. Walsh, vice-chairman; Mr. F. Walsh, Hon. Sec. and Miss I. Hayes, Hon. Treasurer.

One way of getting there -

Motor Car

In 1885 Carl Benz was the first to apply a high-speed spirit engine to light practical motor vehicles. Later, with Mons. E. Roger, he successfully marketed this 4-wheeler 3-wheeler with wooden wheels in Paris. Two gears provided speeds of 5 and 10 m.p.h. There are many ways of getting where you want to go. Drawing a horse in the Irish Sweeps Cambridgeshire could be your way of getting there.

JOHN TREACY WINS IRISH TITLE IN RECORD TIME

John Treacy of Villierstown and St. Nicholas A.C. bade farewell to juvenile athletics in a blaze of glory at Santry Stadium on Sunday last. He won the U-16 Irish title for 3000 metres in record time and so ends an era which he has stamped his class in no uncertain fashion. In wretched conditions this was a tremendous performance and no doubt his time would even have been better in more suitable conditions. He was followed home by Der O'Leary of Cork who must be sick of having John always finishing ahead of him. In third place was Paul Craig of Derry, another great rival of young Treacy, who was making a comeback after breaking his angle during the cross country season. The only other Waterford winner was Kevin Tyrrell of John's Park A.C., who set record figures in the shot putt.

On Sunday next Waterford Glass are promoting an open sports at their recreation Centre on the Cork Road and there are only plenty of races for senior and juvenile athletes. The following is the full list of events: 100, 200, 400 and 800 metres plus the high jump (senior ladies). Senior Men — 100, 200, 400, 800 (invitation), 1500 and 3000 metres; long jump, high jump, 800 metres novice confined to Waterford. Boys U-12 — 800 metres; Boys U-14 — 1500 metres and boys U-16 — 800 metres. Girls U-12 — 800 metres; Girls U-13 — 1500 metres. His Lordship Most Rev. Dr. Michael Russell, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore will be present at the annual Convention of Waterford County Board at De La Salle College, on Tuesday, September 4th at 7.30 p.m. He will present his own trophy to the most promising athlete of the year as well as meeting all the athletes from the various clubs who have been successful in winning Munster and All-Ireland titles during the past year.

The following are the officers for the coming year for Dungarvan A.C. who held their Annual General Meeting last week: President, Con Roche; Chairman, Paddy Whelan; Vice-Chairman, John Meehan; Secretary, Mrs. Rosaleen Sheehan and Treasurer, Mrs. Violet O'Brien. St. Nicholas A.C. also held their Annual General Meeting recently and the following officers were elected:— Chairman, Mick Walsh; Vice-Chairman, Jack Treacy; Secretary, Miss Margaret Moloney and Treasurer, John Harty. Best wishes to Jimmy Costin of St. Nicholas A.C. who is to be married on Saturday to Margaret Dunlea of Cork. Congratulations also to Tony Ryan of Dungarvan A.C. on his good results in the Leavine Cert. and we hope now that the study is finished we will see him make a welcome return to the athletic field.

LISMORE NEWS

LATE MR. SEAN O'DONNELL

With the death of Mr. Sean O'Donnell, Monastarive, Lismore which occurred in the Dungarvan Hospital on Tuesday morning last, a popular and well liked personality has been removed from our midst. Sean was in his 73rd year, but indifferent health for quite some time did not dampen his lively spirit and he will be sadly missed by his brothers, sisters and relatives. The remains were removed to St. Carthage's Church on Tuesday evening, where they were received and blessed by Very Rev. D. McGrath, P.P. and Rev. Fr. P. Quealy, C.C. and the burial took place to St. Carthage's Cemetery on Thursday with the same clergy officiating. Chief mourners:— Dick, Monastarive and William, U.S.A. (brothers). Mrs. Lil Ryan, Lismore; Mrs. Mary Walsh, Florida; and Mrs. B. Martin, Boston (sisters). Mrs. Ann O'Donnell, U.S.A. (sister-in-law). Mr. James Martin, Boston; and Mr. E. Walsh, Florida (brothers-in-law). John Ryan, London; M.L. Bristol; Noel, Cambridge; Tony and Dick, New Zealand; and Maurice Ryan, London. Mike O'Donnell, Monastarive (nephews). Mrs. M. Scanton, Coventry and Mrs. Kathleen Flanagan, U.S.A. (nieces), and relatives. Deceased was also an I.R.A. veteran and the coffin was draped with the tri-colour.

LISMORE FESTIVAL
Lismore is a quiet town now that the annual Festival has come and gone, but

I'm sure that when the Hon. Treas. presents his balance sheet for the week all the hard work that Hon. Sec. and committee members put into it will be justified and it is hoped that the coffers of the Community Hall Funds will have benefited considerably. Once again the weather played a major part in the week's events and although it was anything but kind on quite a few nights, still with one or two exceptions, all of the events were run off on time and to the Hon. Sec. Tom Murphy must go the credit for ensuring that this was so. The publicans and shop-keepers benefited considerably too, particularly the former from the high attendances each night, happily a few of them showed their appreciation of the efforts of the Festival Committee by sponsoring or contributing towards some of the events. Would that some of the remainder would follow suit, because they and not the committee are benefiting.

LISMORE FOOTBALLERS

Lismore footballers, fancied by many to advance a step further at the expense of their neighbours, Ballyduff, came a cropper on Sunday last, when they went down by three pts. Congratulations to near neighbours Tourin, who really surprised many by their overwhelmingly defeat of Dungarvan. Continued success to them and may they now go all the way.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

New Line, Abbeyside, Dungarvan, Aug. 18.

Dear Sir,

At a recent meeting of the County Council, Mr. Charles Curran made an unwarranted attack on what he called "the executives of Liberty Hall" for calling for a tax on farmers. Mr. Curran seemed to imply that these "executives" were acting on their own initiative, when in fact they represent the largest single body of organised labour in this country. If Mr. Curran lived in an industrial area, he would realise just how strong is the resentment of ordinary workers to having their own modest weekly wage packets falling victim to the tax man, while so many obviously wealthy farmers continue to escape scot-free. It must be particularly galling to know that much of the tax being paid by non-agricultural workers has been going in the form of subsidies to those same wealthy farmers, making them even richer. There is also a particular resentment against the ridiculous racket, whereby the working wives of prosperous farmers are also exempted from paying tax.

At least Mr. Curran says he favours an equitable income tax for farmers. I don't think there has been any serious suggestion that a "punitive" tax, as Mr. Curran calls it, should be imposed. All that is demanded is that the many farmers who realise incomes which would be liable to taxation in any other sector of the economy, should in fact, be taxed accordingly. Granted there are quite a few farmers whose incomes are very low; equally it cannot be disputed that there are quite a few who have long been making an unnecessary mint while hiding in the shadow of propaganda about farmers being "the backbone of the economy."

Your Sincerely,
FRANCIS WALSH.

Ballinroad Soccer News

Ballinroad ... 2; Stradbally ... 1.
In a game where good football was more conspicuous by its absence, a defeated Ballinroad XI overcame a gallant Stradbally side 2-1 in the Quarter final of the Dungarvan run tournament, on Friday evening last. This was a game which Ballinroad completely dominated but poor finishing, coupled with dour defensive play by the Reds kept the game in the balance until ten minutes from time when Christy Power raced through on his own to score the eventual winner.

Previous to this Joe Power has shot Ballinroad into the lead after 20 minutes of the first half, but Stradbally were quick on parity when their inside left scored with a great right footed drive to the left hand corner. Ballinroad also missed a penalty when O'Connor shot well wide of the right hand post. This was a game which Ballinroad will quickly want to forget as a repeat performance will prove disastrous against Dungarvan when the two clash on this Thursday evening. Kick off 7 o'clock. With the knowledge that Ballinroad will raise their game to the level expected then an exciting game seems assured.

Ballinroad team: O'Connor, Fraher, Breen, Butler, Fraher, Harty, Power, Landers, Power, Tobin, Elstead. Ref: F. Walsh.

Training will commence on Tuesday, August 28th and all members of the panel are requested to attend, as only players who train will be considered for selection. We would also like to thank all who gave so generously on our recent house to house collection.

In the period between now and 1975 the Electricity Supply Board, with Government approval, will be engaged in a special programme to give applicants for electricity supply in each of the 792 Rural Electrification areas one further opportunity of getting a supply on subsidised terms.

In order to carry out this programme it will be possible to offer the opportunity of subsidised supply only during one specified period in each area between now and 1975.

In those areas in which work under the Rural Electrification post-development programme has already been carried out, applications for supply will be invited by advertisements in local newspapers and posters displayed in prominent places.

This programme is designed to give supply to the greatest number of people in the shortest possible time. Its success depends on the co-operation of all who desire supply. In particular it is essential that application for supply should be made during the period which will be announced for each area.

ELECTRICITY SUPPLY BOARD

Affane for Final!

ON SUNDAY NEXT at Dungarvan's Fraher Field, Affane senior footballers will play in the semi-final of the county championship for the second time since they won promotion to senior ranks in 1966, when they defeated Portlaw in that year's Intermediate county final at Dunhill. In their first semi-final appearance in 1969 they lost narrowly to the eventual champions Tramore.

On this occasion the opposition will be provided by Portlaw, shock winners over Kilrossanty and Ardmore and I am sure that the Affane men will regard this fact as a good omen in their favour for Sunday.

* INTRIGUING ENCOUNTER

Portlaw have proved in their games against Kilrossanty and Ardmore that they are an exceptionally fit team who play their own brand of football and they will be all out to become the first club to qualify for both senior county finals in the one year, since Mount Sion last achieved this unique feat in 1961. So they have everything to play for as like Affane they will be attempting to qualify for their first ever appearance in a senior decider.

For Sunday's game they will be strengthened by the return of Peter Whelan and J.

Power and when one adds on such players as Tony Russell, Mossey, Frankie and Jackie; Whelan, John Kirwan, Hugh Maher etc. one considers that Portlaw must be in with a very good chance of winning here.

* DEDICATED PLAYERS

Affane are a club who have come up the hard way. In 1963 they won the junior county title. In 1964 they won the Divisional Intermediate title and then in 1966 they won the Intermediate county title. In 1969 they lost to Tramore in their first appearance in a senior championship semi-final and since then they have never been a team to under-rate in a championship. Last year Affane captured the U-21 county title and this victory has whetted their appetite for further success.

Already their sister club, Cappoquin, has won their way through to the Divisional Intermediate final, a fact which goes to prove that the Affane/Cappoquin combination are now beginning to reap the reward for all the hard work they have put into the under age grades over the years.

At present their club is served by a group of exceptionally dedicated players. Indeed I doubt if many clubs in the county are as well served in this respect. In the first round Affane accounted for Brickey Rangers. Then in the second round they caused quite a stir by defeating last year's county finalists, Kill, and now that they are presented with an even money chance of qualifying for their first ever county final. We can be certain that Peter and Michael Hackett; Pat, Lar and Shamie Denn; John Coughlan, Sean Brackett; Danny Flynn; Ger Mason; Denis McCarthy; Paddy McGrath; Pat Egan; Jim Joe Landers, Mickey Fraher; Vinny Tobin and company will produce an extra special effort on this occasion, certainly they will need to, as in Portlaw they face very worthy opponents.

Summing up, these sides should serve up a very exciting hours football as both teams have the incentive to pull out that little bit extra on this occasion and while one is always reluctant to commit oneself, I feel that providing Affane re-produce the spirit they displayed against Kill, that they can go through to their first ever senior decider.

CHAMPIONS OUT

John Mitchells, the glamour team of Waterford football are back in business by virtue of a shock three point victory over the reigning champions, Stradbally, at Dungarvan on Sunday evening last.

Mitchells are the team with the big names and they also possess the attraction which never fails to draw the crowds and now with only four teams remaining in contention for the title, they have now become the clear favourites to win out. Indeed, of the four they are the only team to have won a title, as Affane, Portlaw and Ballinacourty are all still seeking to win their first crown, a feat which Mitchells achieved in 1970. On Sunday, Affane and Portlaw met in the first semi-final and Mitchells will play Ballinacourty in the second semi-final also at Dungarvan on Sept. 16th.

U-16 H.C. COUNTY FINAL

ABBEYSIDE v. ST. MOLLORANS
Abbeyside youth U-16 hurlers travel to Walsby's, Waterford, on Sunday next to play eastern champions, St. Mollorans, in the county final and by all accounts they face what is considered an impossible task in juvenile circles in the East. Mollorans were positively brilliant when defeating Mount Sion by 8-7 to 7-5 in a truly epic Eastern decider on last Saturday night. It was without doubt one of the best games ever seen in this grade within the county.

St. Mollorans are big fast and strong, indeed they would do credit to a minor team and believe you me they hurl and are truly one of the best teams in this grade. Abbeyside have emerged as shock winners of the Western title and they have scored wins over Ballinacourty, Tallow and Shamrocks. Last year the villagers won the U-14 county title and while they undoubtedly face a mammoth task on Sunday next, nevertheless their young team are capable of rising to the occasion. Then there is Abbeyside's great tradition of not a fainter never to be discounted. So while St. Mollorans are firm favourites, Abbeyside should still give a good account of themselves.

NIRE'S TITLE

Nire by virtue of a 2-9 to 0-5 victory over Dungarvan captured their second Western U-16 football championship title at Lismore on Saturday night last and they now go forward to play the Eastern champions in the county final which will be played at the Fraher field this year. Windgap who are the football counterparts of St. Mollorans are through to the Eastern final where they will play Mount Sion. However, I have been informed that there is a possibility of an objection arising from one of the games which has been played in the East and if this prediction should prove to be correct then county final could be delayed. Much credit for the Nire club's latest success must go to those unassuming mentors in the persons of Tom Crotty and Tony Ducey and this win is a fitting reward for their untiring devotion to the youth of the Nire region over the past number of years. While I am told that Railway Cup star Jim Wall also lent valuable assistance.

M.F.C. — BALLYDUFF V. ABBEYSIDE

The first semi-final of the Divisional Minor football championship takes place at Cappoquin on Tuesday night next when Ballyduff will be strongly fancied to repeat their hurling win over the "Villagers". This game is due to commence at 7.15 p.m.

SYMPATHY

Through our column we extend sincere sympathy to Portlaw's Frankie Cullinane on his sad loss. For several years Frankie has served as Portlaw's efficient secretary and he is also more than a useful hurler and footballer. Readers will remember his great goal against Ardmore in this year's championship.

ALL-IRELAND TICKETS

The executive committee of the County Board were to meet in an emergency session this week to discuss the crux which appears to have arisen in respect to the county's allocation of All-Ireland tickets and it is to be hoped that there will be a satisfactory outcome to this vexed question.

MINOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

The key game of this year's Divisional minor hurling championship takes place this Saturday night at Cappoquin, when defending champions, Tallow take on arch rivals Lismore and many people feel that to all intents and purposes this week's game will decide the destination of this year's title, as without any shadow of doubt, here we have two big guns of this year's campaign.

The Lismore/Ballyduff combination are certainly coming with a strong run and they could very well dethrone the champions. Yet on the other hand, Tallow have already lost their two U-16 titles and they are certain to make a supreme effort to win here and Lismore will face a determined opposition in Kieron Ryan, Pat Daly, Eric Curry, Tom McCarthy, Eddie Coakley, O'Neill, Tobin, Kelly etc.

In the Losers Group final, Ballinacourty and Cappoquin will try confusions and Cappoquin will be fancied here and the winners will go forward to play the winners of the four-mile-water/Dungarvan tie in the second semi-final. The odds seem to favour a Tallow/Four-mile-water final.

MAJOR FORCE

Following their big win over Abbeyside in the minor hurling championship it is now quite clear that new force has arrived on the minor championship scene, in the persons of the Lismore/Ballyduff combination. In hurling they play under the Lismore flag and in football in the Ballyduff colours. They include players from the Lismore, Ballyduff, Ballysaggart and Tourin areas in their line out.

In hurling they will now meet the defending champions, Tallow, in the Divisional semi-final and what a game that should be. In football they are also through to the Divisional semi-final where they will again play Abbeyside and if they continue to impress then Richie Walsh, Eamonn Hannan, Tom Shanahan, Joe Bennet, Pat Geoghegan, Pat Morrissey, Michael Walsh, Pat O'Donnell and company could yet land the elusive Divisional double. Their biggest rivals will be Tallow in hurling and either Tallow or Nire in football. The concluding stages of the minor championship should provide us with at least a few games in which the fare will be up to the accepted standard for this grade.

CORK QUALIFY

The stage is now set for a Cork-Galway All-Ireland Football final on September 23rd, when we will all be hoping for a repeat of the 1958 classic served up by these counties. Incidentally it has quite rightly been pointed out to me that Cork's last appearance in a senior decider was in 1967 when they lost to Meath, they may have better luck on this occasion.

PHELAN CUP SEMI-FINAL DUNHILL v. STRADBALLY

The curtain raiser at the Dungarvan venue on Sunday next will be provided by the Dunhill and Stradbally senior footballers who meet in the second semi-final of the Phelan Cup competition and with both clubs now out of contention in the race for the county title we can be sure that both teams will be anxious to seek some measure of compensation by winning here and qualifying for a final meeting with Tramore. Therefore, this one promises fare to be a real cracker, so my advice is to make it early to the Fraher Field on Sunday.

TICKET DRAWS

The draw for the Brickey Rangers All-Ireland Ticks will take place at Glenbeg School, on Monday night next at 8 p.m.

Members of the Abbeyside/Ballinacourty club who wish to participate in the draw for the club's allocation of All-Ireland Hurling Tickets are requested to notify any member of the committee on or before Monday, 26th August.

J.F.C.—DUNGARVAN v. EIRE OGE

Local rivals Dungarvan and Eire Oge meet in their postponed Junior football championship game at the Fraher Field on Sunday evening next at 7.15 p.m. When we last previewed the game we gave a reasonably confident vote to the Dungarvan men to advance. However, on this occasion their moral has just suffered a crushing blow at the hand of a resurgent Tourin team in the hurling championship and much will depend upon how well they have been able to maroon frow well they have been years. As shall their forces over the past few years. As no doubt the Eire Oge men will feel that they are in with a much better chance on this occasion. Nevertheless, despite their in-ant effort of last Sunday, Dungarvan should still just about win this one.

BEST WISHES

Through our column we send best wishes for a speedy return to active service to popular club personality Denis Fitzgerald, who is at present re-cooperating in Ardkeen Hospital, Waterford.

Football epic expected

CLASHMORE v. RING

The Western Board stages its glamour game of the Intermediate football championship on Sunday afternoon next at Cappoquin, when local rivals Clashmore and Ring meet in what is confidently expected to be the game of the year in this grade. This game has tremendous appeal for football fans in the Division, as both teams have really impressed in their games to date this season. Orinions are evenly divided as to the likely outcome of what is expected to be a football epic.

In their first round victory over Colligan Emmetts Ring really impressed and they were automatically installed as clear favourites to win the Divisional title. However, Clashmore after an easy win over Eire Oge really turned on the power against Old Parish a few weeks back and following their impressive performance in demolishing the "Shocks" even Ring players and supporters began to sit up and take notice, as it was obvious to one and all that Clashmore had emerged as very serious challengers to the Gaeltacht club's title ambitions.

TEAM WORK

Ring have improved their team work with every outing to date this year and they have been nothing if not consistent. They have prepared assiduously for Sunday's vital test and certainly they should not fail for the want of fitness.

Likewise Clashmore also stepped up considerably on their training programme in recent weeks and officials are confident that they will be able to match the Ring men in this respect.

Ring's strength lies to a great extent in the team work of Tom Whelan, Sean Linnane, "Bilest" Murray, Jim Mahan, Seamus Maher, Michael Drummy, Donal Murphy, Tom Harty, Syl Murray, T. Curran, Tom Kelly and company.

Clashmore's effort will be spear-headed by mid-fielder star Vinny O'Rourke, whose duels with Tom Kelly could very well decide the issue. While Pat Neill, Pablo O'Rourke, Liam O'Rourke, Jimmy O'Rourke, Timmy O'Neill, "Duckey" O'Rourke are others who could inspire Clashmore to victory.

Here we have two clubs with football traditions all of their own, both of whom will be extra keen to win their way back to championship success. Who will win? Well we will have to wait until Sunday to see if Ring's fit and accomplished side can master this determined and strengthened Clashmore team.
