KILMATHOMAS HEADMASTER DISMISSED - PUPILS ON STRIKE

Pupils on strike outside Kilmathomas Vocational School

SEQUEL TO CLAUDIA ARMS TRIAL

STUDENTS at Kilmathomas Vocational School, both yesterday and to-day, did not attend any classes due to what they term as the "unjust dismissal" of their headmaster, Mr. Donal Whelan, Skehacrine, Dungarvan. There are 185 students attending the Vocational School and early yesterday morning the majority of them congregated outside the school, many of them carrying placards, bearing such inscriptions as "Protest on here", "We want Duck", etc. Traffic passing the school was forced to a crawl because of student protest. They intend to carry on protesting until Mr. Whelan is back in his old position, or until a constructive answer is obtained.

Yesterday evening a meeting of over two hours duration of the county's Vocational Teachers was held in Kilmathomas, but speaking to Mr. J. Timmins, Vice-principal, he refused to make any statement on the course the discussion had taken, but termed it a "private meeting."

Section 34, subsection 1 of the offences against the state Act, 1939, states, that if a person paid monies by the Oireachtas or a Local Authority and if convicted by a Special Criminal Court, he shall immediately on such conviction forfeit such office and the same shall forthwith become and be vacant. This runs for seven years, but Section 34, subsection 5, states, that the Government may at their absolute discretion remit in whole or in part, any forfeiture or disqualification incurred under this section and restore in whole or in part the subject of such forfeiture as from the date of such remission. Section 34 (1) of the offences against the State Act, 1939, is that which applies both to Mr. Whelan and Mr. Murphy, who was employed as an engineer by Waterford County Council.

At the Co. Waterford Vocational Education Committee meeting in Dungarvan on Monday last, from which the Press were not debarred, but it resolved itself into committee on the basis of a long standing understanding between the Vocational Education Committee and the Teachers Association, that when a private matter relating to a staff member is being discussed in the first instance, it shall not be made public. The matter relating to Mr. Whelan was termed private.

Yesterday, I learned from a most reliable source that the committee decided to seek an immediate meeting with the Minister for Justice and it is understood that the members of the Oireachtas who are also members of the committee were appointed to discuss the matter with the Minister. The committee also requested the Government under Section 34, subsection 5 of the offences against the State Act, 1939 to remit in whole the forfeiture of his post incurred by Mr. Whelan, the remission to be effective from the date forfeiture came into operation.

A meeting of Waterford Co. Council scheduled to be held on Monday next, it is certain that Mr. Murphy's case will be up for discussion.

Abbeyside Soccer Notes

Abbeyside suffered their second defeat since entering Div. 2 when they were beaten 2-0 by last season's 2nd Div. champions, Tramore, at Tramore last Sunday. This was a repeat of the previous Sundays result when they went down 3-0 to the Waterford side. Crusaders at the home venue.

Excuses can be made as Abbeyside had not their full regular side on duty. However from now on they expect to have a full panel of players available, so all that is needed is to get the full panel training together.

There are three training nights a week—Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday commencing at 6.30 p.m. Team manager Denis Egan warns that it is only players who train that will be considered for the team so he is hoping for a full turnout.
150 DRAWS
Promoters please note that the monthly draw recommences on Monday next 24th September. So please have all cash in not later than Saturday 22nd.

Ballinroad Soccer Club Notes

Ballinroad 4; Hibernians 4
Two goals down after 15 minutes of play, Ballinroad looked set for their second defeat on the trot but then showing all the fire and spirit which had characterised their play last season, they stormed back into the game in the 20th minute when Landers placed Tobin who although looking marginally off-side was allowed on and he smartly placed the ball past the advancing keeper. It was Tobin again who set up the second goal when he rounded the centre-half before unleashing a powerful drive which the visitors keeper failed to hold and Kiely followed through and smashed home from close range. The home side roared into the attack immediately after the restart and were rewarded in the third minute when from a Richie Harty taken corner Kiely rose high above the visitors' defence to head home a picture goal. Not satisfied Ballinroad pushed forward in search of more goals and in the 20th minute Landers chipped in a high ball into the box for Vince Tobin to nod on to John Troy who blasted home from six yards. The visitors pulled one back five minutes from time but although they pressed hard in search of a point they failed to pierce a solid home defence. This was an encouraging display by Ballinroad and must have pleased new manager R. Cantwell who was in charge of the team for the first time.

NOTICE

To all my patrons, factories and many friends, to whom I have given electrical services for the past fifteen years or so in County Waterford, I regret to be forced to announce that I will no longer be able to work as an electrician. As Union Electricians are now strictly enforced not to enter premises in which electrical work has been carried out by non Union Electricians. In short this means that a new installation will be connected, and an existing installation could be disconnected if any work is executed by a non Union Electrician.

Unfortunately, I am not a not a member of an Electrical Trade Union, I sincerely thank all who have given me work throughout the years in Co. Waterford.

I am especially very sorry for any inconvenience caused to patrons who are waiting for my services at the moment, but I am sure they will understand that it is much more serious than an inconvenience for me.

LISMORE NEWS

LISMORE TOILET—The Lismore public toilet saga was taken a step further at the September meeting of the Lismore Town Commissioners, when Mr. Darragh referred to a newspaper report of the County Council. As previously, the Commissioners maintained their stand that the County Manager had given a guarantee that the toilets would be erected on the original site procured by the Commissioners, at the July County Council meeting that there must be some doubt that the Manager had given a guarantee and that he considered the Commissioner's letter to the Council an insult to the Council, the Manager and the people of Lismore. The Chairman, Mr. T. Murphy, stated that it was his clear recollection that the Manager had given such a guarantee, and he felt that the Commissioners should reiterate their conviction to the Council. Mr. A. Drohan stated that the fact that no action had been taken with regard to the derelict building, fire hazard in the Main St., was typical of the neglect of the area by the County Council.

LATE MR. CHRISTOPHER CASEY—The death has taken place at the Lismore District Hospital, on Wednesday last the 12th, of Mr. Christopher Casey, Fernville, end late of Waterford city. Deceased who was in his early 70s had been in indifferent health for quite some time. For years he had been a faithful employee of a well-known city bakery and in this capacity was well-known throughout the county. This most popular and gentle person will be sadly missed by his many friends. The remains were removed to St. Carthage's Church on Wednesday, where they were received and blessed by Very Rev. D. Canon McGrath, P.P. V.F., Lismore; and Rev. Fr. Quealy, C.C. and the burial took place to St. Carthage's Church on Friday afternoon with the same clergy officiating.

Chief mourners: Mrs. N. Casey (widow), Mrs. E. Mason (sister-in-law), Rev. Fr. Wm. Whelan, C.C., Cahir (cousin) and relatives.

SYMPATHY—We extend our deepest sympathy also to Mr. John Kennefick, Main St., the regretted death of his sister, Mrs. N. Nugent, Coole, Ballysaggart.

G.A.A.—Cappoquin under 21 hurlers had four points to spare over Lismore in their championship game at Lismore on Sunday last. But truth to tell, this was a poor game and thought victory was deserved by the Cornerstone, they cannot fancy their chances of making further progress unless they improve considerably. They made heavy weather of beating this make-shift Lismore side who gave them a great run and they thank centre half back, Frank McCarthy, for all round steadiness and his two well taken goals for their win. Lismore too, can thank Billy Landers who kept them in this game to the very end, on hurlers of the calibre of Egan, Flynn,

Gaelic Football in Waterford

I was reflecting recently on the future of the game in the county. A few years ago we seemed to be reaching the heights but at present our county team are in the doldrums. I have for many years advocated a football Board for Waterford. It was the setting up of such a Board that put Galway in the top flight. I also think the trouble with Waterford is club before county. For many years various clubs have won Waterford senior football titles, with little or no benefit to the county. I would say to clubs winning titles in the future, to strive might and main to put the county team on the map.

We have the material in the county, but will have to completely change our approach to training and coaching. It must be admitted that our present system has failed. I have learned from coaches from other counties that tactics are most essential and one of the basic factors of a football team, are a good half back line. I could go on and on. Oh! for the days of Cal Keane, Clashmore; Bill Organ, Fox Greany and Lugs Loughlin, Dungarvan; or Paddy McGrath, Kilrossanty's flying winger. I am optimistic for the future as I believe that with the right spirit and dedication we can put Waterford on the football map.

In the forthcoming National League, we should give a chance to new players who might well get us out of the rut.

but whereas the winners could also call Phelan and newcomers Cunningham and Scanlon, not to mention forward McCarthy, who impressed all through, Lismore carried far too many unfit passengers. Final score Cappoquin 3 goals, 7pts.; Lismore 3 goals, 2 pts.

In the second game, Tallow can consider themselves lucky to have achieved a good win when they beat a very promising Shamrocks side in their junior hurling championship tie. A soft goal to the winners early on made life difficult for the Shamrocks all through, and whereas they matched Tallow in all phases throughout the field, they fell down in the process of taking their chances. Tallow's marksmanship from side line balls and frees was first class and they did not waste many if any chances.

NEW AGREEMENT ON MARTS

THE Irish Agricultural Organisation Society, the Irish Farmers Association and the Irish Banks Standing Committee have agreed on new minimum conditions for the establishment of new livestock marts.

This was announced by the I.O.A.S. in an agreed statement. The following is the text of the statement:—

"Following a meeting in the I.A.O.S. headquarters on Wednesday, September 5th, between the I.A.O.S., the I.F.A. and the Irish Banks Standing Committee the following are the agreed minimum conditions considered reasonable by the three bodies in relation to the viability of new mart development."

"The primary consideration will be the location of proposed new marts in relation to existing livestock marts. A catchment area, defined as the total area which is nearer to the proposed mart than to any existing mart with a minimum radius of 10 miles, will be required. This radius will be such that there will be a distance of at least 20 direct miles between the proposed mart and existing livestock marts providing a worthwhile service to livestock producers."

"In addition the catchment area will have a minimum total cattle population of 50,000 and sufficient sheep and pigs generate average weekly sales during the peak season of 700 adult cattle units."

"A minimum share capital figure of £30,000 from participating members, in the case of new developments "trying-up" with existing Co-operative groups, will be required, while a minimum of £50,000 share capital in the case of developments proceeding independently of existing groups is considered necessary."

"The I.A.O.S. and I.F.A. are agreed that they will require the following conditions to apply in relation to the establishment of new Co-operative livestock marts in addition to the criteria which the Banks will apply:—

- 1. A minimum of 500 shareholders.
- 2. A majority of the shareholders, will be full-time farmers.
- 3. New Livestock Marts must be located at a reasonable distance from population centres and have sufficient acreage of land for effluent disposal if they are to avoid problems of traffic congestion, pollution, and general public inconvenience, while at the same time providing ample space for the expansion of facilities for Mart customers."

"In arriving at the revised figures the I.A.O.S. and the I.F.A. wish to emphasise that their primary consideration is that of livestock producers."

Farmers to clamp down on poachers

FARMERS throughout County Waterford are greatly perturbed at the vast number of guns coming each year out of towns cities and shooting indiscriminately without any regard for game preservation and strong and decisive action will be taken to stop it in an all out effort to clamp down on poachers.

It was the unanimous opinion of delegates at a recent meeting of Waterford County Executive of the Irish Farmer's Association where game preservation was discussed that strong action must be taken in an all out effort to stop indiscriminate shooting by those who deign to poaching and also over-seas visitors who shoot over farms as if they owned them.

Mr. Tom Murphy, Cappoquin branch and a member of Waterford Regional Game Council, exhorted all farmers to acquire their game rights and exercise them, farmers, he said, should not allow people to walk all over their land. Game rights can be acquired.

Mr. James Ryan, Ballinacoola said farmers in areas between rivers, mountains etc. should preserve their land in Block. Poachers and Continentals who practised indiscriminate shooting should have their licence withdrawn. Mr. Ryan also mentioned the amount of expense and effort put into game preservation by gun clubs and the Regional Game Council, young birds were bought by the thousand, release pens are provided, wermen has to be destroyed. Poachers have been operating in the bird sanctuary at Carriglea wood.

Putting in game without preserving it does not make sense and it is the responsibility of each and every farmer to contribute towards bringing an end to poaching in the month ahead by preserving his land and his God given right to decide who shall trespass on it.

FIELD OFFICER

Mr. Michael Guiry, Rathgormack, Carrick-on-Suir has been appointed Field Officer to County Waterford Executive I.F.A. and started duty on September 3rd. Mr. Guiry comes to I.F.A. from East Cork Foods where he was employed as a purchasing officer, holds a Leaving Cert and Honours Cert in Agriculture obtained at Clonakilty Agricultural College.

ESTATE DUTY

Mr. D. J. Coghlan spoke on Estate Duty and said that Death Duties included Estate Duty, Legacy Duty and Succession Duty. The latter two are fairly low, the rate varying according to the relationship with the deceased person, the further out the relationship, the higher the rate.

Estate Duty is the tough one, more especially on land and property, as inflation has driven the value of this to a very high level. Prior to the election, the present Government gave a commitment to the I.F.A. to remove Estate Duty. The I.F.A. believe this commitment went a long way to winning the election for them. This election occurred just after the campaign on Estate Duty had reached a peak and farmers were never better informed on the matter. Needless to say they were appalled at the consequences this brutal tax could have on their families and it is not surprising that party allegiance failed to hold them when it came to voting.

Since the budget farmers have felt let down, and were bitterly disappointed because they felt this promise had not been fulfilled. The Minister for Finance and others repeated this commitment since the budget and explained the delay in implementing it but this made very little impact, possibly because farmers were so upset at the appalling consequences to the family if the owner died.

The Government have stated it as their intention to abolish Estate Duty entirely in town and country. Legacy and Succession Duty will remain but at a low level, where succession to the property is within the family. These levels will rise steeply if left to outside relations. A yearly wealth tax will be levied on the very wealthy and it is hoped to re-coup in these ways the loss involved in abolishing Estate Duty. The delay is explained by the fact that it takes considerable time to draft legislation of such a far reaching nature. It is to be strongly hoped to these families who are in real trouble because the owner of the farm happened to have died during the past three years, during which period Estate Duty largely grew to its present totally unjust proportion. It would be quite wrong to ignore these people as they would have been asked to paytax, random in nature which is quite beyond their ability to pay by any standards of equity of justice.

REPORT FROM NATIONAL DAIRY COMMITTEE

James Ryan said, Dr. Cunningham in his report from the sub-committee on Dairy and Beef breeding pointed out that the largest part of increase in yields over the past ten years is due to the change over from Short-horn to Friesian cows. While our average yield per cow is one of the lowest in Europe — work in Moorepark has shown that it is possible to increase yield per cow to at least 50% above current levels without moving off the conventional grass based productive system. This big increase can be achieved by the use of better bulls in A.I. stations. It is necessary to have large numbers of bulls under test to achieve this.

Milking speed is a character of increasing importance as herd sizes increase as it is highly variable and highly heritable progeny testers should look more closely at it.

Evidence from several countries suggest that North America Holstein Friesians would have much more to offer on Dairy merit. It is of vital importance that the emphasis is kept on the dairy industry. The high incidence of Brucellosis in this country was discussed and is cause of concern to many.

During the discussion on European milk surplus many views were held in relation to the C.A.P. married price suggestion.

FIRST MEETING OF I.F.A./I.C.M.S.A.

The first meeting of the European Affairs Co-ordinating Group, representing the Irish Farmers' Association and the Irish Creamery Milk Suppliers' Association, took place in the Irish Farm Centre, Dublin. After the meeting a statement was issued by Mr. T. J. Maher, President of the I.F.A. and Mr. James O'Keefe, President of the I.C.M.S.A., on behalf of the Group. They stated that the farmers of this country are now, for the first time, joined together in close unity, in the European context, for the betterment of all Irish farmers.

In order to obtain this objective, both Presidents expressed their desire that all farmers will realise that to reap the full benefits from our membership of E.E.C., they must have the best representation possible in Europe. Therefore, both Messrs. Maher and O'Keefe stressed that it is essential that all farmers must contribute adequately to the funds necessary to finance this undertaking. They said: "Never before has there been such goodwill between all farming organisations, and particularly between the members of this European Group."

Items on the agenda for discussion were Common Agricultural Policy, the new directive from Brussels on harmonisation of V.A.T., dairying, cattle and beef, sheep and beet.

KILDARE FARMERS' VIEW ON HORSE INDUSTRY

The victories all over Europe by the Irish bred but English based show jumper, "Penwood Forge Mill", has exposed the inefficiency of the non-thoroughbred horse industry in this country. This is the view of the members of Manorkilbridge, Co. Kildare, I.F.A. Branch.

At a recent meeting of Kildare County Executive the following resolution was passed and has been sent to the I.F.A. Horse Committee.

"The I.F.A. Horse Committee should request the Horse Board to set a date from which they propose to implement a realistic scheme for: the preservation and expansion of the Irish Draught; keeping a stud book in order that those wishing to register their halfbreds may do so; a scheme for lip tattooing or some other form of identity marking of these horses; much more information regarding the age and type of horse required by the various markets, together with frequent guide-lines on prices that can be expected from foal stage upwards."

MYSTERY TOUR.—The last outing of 1973, from the area will be a mystery Tour on Saturday, September 29th, which will end with a ballad session, at a very well-known venue. There are still a few vacant seats.

LADIES' FOOTBALL.—Four members of the Ballymacarby team helped Waterford to a 14 pts. win over Offaly, on Sunday week last at Stradbally. Anne McCarthy, Breeda Kelleher, Peg Kelleher and Carmel Ryan. Sharp shooting Carmel Kelleher scored 5 goals and Kilrossanty's Brigid Behan, 1 goal and 5 pts. What a combination in any forward line.

Annual Report from the Sheep Committee

The year 1972 was quite a good year for Irish sheep farmers in terms of returns to producers although exports of mutton and lamb were down by about 60,000 head (a decrease of 16 per cent) as compared with 1971. This is stated in the annual report on I.F.A.'s National Sheep Committee by Lorcan Blake, Secretary to the Committee.

The French market, which our most lucrative market, imported about 40 per cent of our total lamb exports as compared with 20 per cent in the previous year. The Belgian market absorbed about 58,500 cwt. of lamb and great Britain, our traditional market, took up about 32 per cent as against 65 per cent of our lamb in 1971. The increase in live sheep exports was mainly due to the development of trade with Italy which continues since early summer. The export figure for the whole year is estimated at over 45,000 head, consisting of cull ewes, fat lambs and rams. This introduction of an additional element of trade competition had a very significant effect in maintaining the strengthening prices.

Probably the most notable feature of the sheep trade in 1972 was the firm demand and the relatively high prices for lambs that resulted in comparison with 1971 although the breeding ewe trade was disappointing. Indeed, this was particularly the case during the course of the summer months and again in the latter months of the year. Easier access to the French market, which resulted in a change in the distribution of exports, was, without a doubt, them an causative factor. In addition, the fantastic increase in beef prices contributed to a greater demand for mutton and lamb generally and this resulted in the upward pressure on prices.

Although the Irish lamb trade was satisfactory during the course of 1972, the Livestock Enumeration shows a decrease of 30,000 head in total sheep numbers over the year, with a particular decrease of 18,000 head with regard to potential breeding stock.

Letters to the Editor

Rosmore House,
Kilmactomas,
Co. Waterford.
September 16th, 1973.

Dear Sir,
Regarding Francis Walsh's letter in your paper last week dealing with farmers and taxation, I would suggest to him that his ideas are an over-simplification, a fish's eye view, rather than a bird's eye view of the situation.

It is not enough to say that farmers should pay income tax because it applies to all other, this is the fish's eye view, simple and limited. The bird's eye view takes in the national situation and it is in this context that one must argue.

To draw a conclusion one must examine basic facts such as: we are basically an agricultural country, our agricultural exports are vital to us, no other industry here has the potential for expansion that farming has. The products of this expansion are all for exports to good markets, servicing the products of expansion will provide more and more jobs outside agriculture. It is for those reasons only that we joined the E.E.C.

Taking a broad view of the farming community we find, they are hard working, thrifty, more likely to use extra earnings to expand output, than to spend it foolishly. They have shown in recent times, that given money incentives they will produce what is needed in abundance. They need an investment of one thousand million pounds to bring the land to full potential and most of this comes from increased earnings.

The broad facts on taxation are:— Income tax is a bad tax on people as it discourages extra effort. If farmers must be taxed it will discourage extra effort and will reduce the amount available for investment. This we cannot afford as a nation. If farmers must be taxed the rates on land must go, as happened in the North and in England. Thus if we take Mr. Walsh's £25 million as the amount farmers would pay in tax and set against it the £20m. rates paid on land we would only have £5m. left and again take from this the cost of expanding the tax collection structure to deal with farmers and you could lose on the deal.

To my mind this clinching fact is:— a foreigner can come in here, get grants to build a factory and if his products are for export, get up to 20 year remission of tax. Why should farmers, who can contribute much more and all for exports, be treated differently?

Now Mr. Walsh, if you were a member of the Government and having to take a broad view for the greatest good of the nation, would you still tax us?

Your sincerely,
D. J. Coghlan.

A Chara,

In connection with the matter of farm output and income, Mr. Francis Walsh, says that he does not understand my figures and he is entitled to have them explained to him. I note that he states that the "essence" of his submissions "was not a matter of fact but a matter of opinion". As far as possible I confine myself to facts.

Mr. Walsh, misquotes me as follows:— "I find it difficult to make sense of Mr. Curran's statement that farmers produce 30 per cent of the national wealth, but only 16 per cent of the national income."

What I actually said was:— "Farmers produce 30 per cent of the national wealth and in return receive only 16 per cent of the national income". This is explained as follows:— Farmers, who comprise 25 per cent of the population, produce 30 per cent of national wealth (GNP) and earn 16 per cent of the national income i.e. 16 per cent of the gross income of all people in gainful employment. This would indicate that the average income of half the farmers is less than 50 per cent of the national average.

I am glad that Mr. Walsh appears to be of the opinion that the present income tax code is inequitable and unjust and imposes severe hardships on workers and persons on fixed incomes. Here our views are similar.

I suggest that Mr. Walsh, shared his undoubted talents towards persuading the Government to introduce a more equitable taxation system — income related and with a reasonable tax free allowance for all.

Mise le meas,
C. Curran, M.C.C.

CAPPOQUIN NEWS

CAPPOQUIN MACRA NOTES—Now that summer has gone Macra activities have resumed after a short recess. At a recent well attended meeting of the Cappoquin club, a programme was drawn up for the months ahead. As we are entering our 21st year as a Macra Club all members have pledged to make this one the most successful. Some of the activities undertaken for the coming Autumn include our annual dance on October 21st (Sun.) and of course our 21st annual dinner/dance in November and numerous others.

The immediate concern of the club is to help organise an Adult Education course designed to broaden one's knowledge of life as we know it. It is a two year course at the end of which a diploma will be conferred on successful participants. Plans are at a very early stage yet and the first priority is to acquire the names of anybody interested, in order to assess interest. There are absolutely no conditions and is open to everybody young and old. So anyone who might be interested in pursuing such a course, can contact Jennifer Murphy, Knockanore.

CONRADH NA GAELIGE—CLUICHU—Ní féidir linn an Ghaeilge a dhealú ón spórt agus an caitheamh aimsire go háirithe i gcás na nóg. Is i gcomhar le ceol cluichí, amhánaíocht is fearr a théann áilleacht na Gaeilge i bhfeidm orthu seo. Seo sí éifeachtach chun labhairt na teanga a leathadh agus a fhoghlaim leis.

This coming session, an effort will be made to create "Na hÓcaídi Beaga" (The small occasions) when two or three will come together in some place usually frequented by them and speak some Irish among themselves. There is no reason why most people who have Irish could not arrange a little informal get together once a week or a fortnight and speak Irish for five or ten minutes or half an hour or longer if circumstances allow. Those ócaídi beaga need no formality or organisation of any kind. Therefore they provide a very neutral method of propagating the spoken language outside of school. It is hoped that this idea will be taken through-out the Deise, during the coming year. In Ceapach Chuinn on occasion of this kind is provided each Wednesday night, when young people come together for a game of leadog Boird. The inter-club leadog Boird competition has been very successful and will be resumed during the month of October.

ABSENCE OF LITTER BINS—It is distressing to report that from the Convent School to the main Street there is not a litter bin to be seen. This situation will have to be rectified immediately. It would be ashamed to revert to our old lackadaisical approach to keeping our town tidy. A wonderful effort was made this year. Let us continue the good work. But first of all new litter bins will have to be erected if we are to do so.

BOWLING NEWS—Big news for bowling enthusiasts is that after many years, "The Richie Ryan Cup", that beautiful bowling trophy will once again be thrown for. The Tournament will begin shortly. Entries for the "Richie Ryan Bowling Tournament" are now being taken. This magnificent trophy will bring out the best in the competing bowlers and some exciting "scores" are forecasted.

G.A.A.—In a hard fought game at Lismore on Sunday last, Cappoquin emerged victorious over the home side by a four point margin, in the under 21 hurling championship. While this was a worthwhile victory, a considerable improvement is needed if Cappoquin are to annex Western honours. Ml. Phelan, Sean Brackett, Frank McCarthy, Pat Egan, Danny Flynn, John McCarthy all starred, but the most encouraging displays came from two lads who don't normally play hurling, Sean Denn and Thomas Scanlan. They gave a rare display of good hard first time pulling. This type of play wins matches. If this ground hurling is persisted with we could be county champions, this year.

Risk and decision making on the farm is commonsense enough in the

EEC

Roscommon Man's Book

MOST Irish farmers have to fill the role of manager, accountant, technical expert and labourer in their own business — and often enough financier as well. This might not be too an order in a small manufacturing business, but a farm even of 40 acres is very complicated and sophisticated plant. There is no doubt that the average farmer is in business parlance an executive and has at his command extraordinary abilities as a manager, quite apart from his technical knowledge. What those abilities are is spelled out in a new book by Professor Robert O'Connor, a native of County Roscommon and one of the most respected Irish authorities on agricultural economics and farm business management.

His in fact is the first book to deal comprehensively with business and management in Irish farming. It describes how the farmers observes, analyses, comes to decisions, puts them into action and — last but by no means least — accepts responsibility for them.

It gives a realistic account of the problems (and their solutions) facing Irish farmers, large and small, in their attempt to improve levels of efficiency and achieve greater profits.

Farm Accounts—O'Connor recommends a simple rather than elaborate system of detailed farm records. If the farmer does not want to become submerged in a mass of irrelevant material, he says, he must do what experience and commonsense dictate: he must concentrate his attention on the important fact (which means first recognizing them), and disregard the rest. After explaining the basic rules and principles of accounts, shows how the farm accounts should be kept and how the account books can be used to examine the efficiency of the farm. This is followed by a section on planning the farm business, either using fairly simple calculations or more advanced methods. The examples used are realistic Irish farms of about 45 acres and upwards. The farm as a business—Has the farmer anything to learn from the expert in business analysis and management? Yes, says O'Connor, and in fact his book (Principles of Farm Business Analysis and Management just published by Irish University Press at £5.00) goes on to set out many of the systems and formulae of modern business practice, not in theoretical form, but adapting each to the real problems of farming analysis and decision-making.

In meeting such problems and showing how the acute farmer can take advantage of some of the short cuts of modern business practice, Robert O'Connor helps bridge the gap which the farming theorist and the working farmer, the desk agriculturalist and the farmer with a family to feed.

For instance there is never any shortage of advice available to the farmer on the vexed problem of borrowing capital — and a good deal of the advice is usually in a form that bankers and financiers would understand, but which leaves the ordinary man wondering if he dares ask the obvious questions. O'Connor comes up with figures that exactly answer the question, for instance of the creamery milk and tillage farmer with 100 to 200 acres, whether he can afford to borrow £6,000 and repay it in 5 years at 9 per cent (the answer is incidentally no; if he could keep living expenses down to £1,000 a year he could just borrow £4,400 at that rate, while the dry-stock farmer of the same acreage, even with the same modest living expenses, could not afford to borrow any capital at that interest and repayment rate).

Systems of Farming—The last three chapters take up in turn and in some detail the economics of producing cattle, milk, sheep, pigs, poultry and cash on Irish farms. The book contains a lot of information on surveys of farming carried out by the Agricultural Institute and the Central Statistics Office, and farmers can judge their own efficiency against the average results in these surveys.

Theory—Anything can be proved by statistics, they say, but Professor O'Connor is not setting out to prove theories in his book. Since 1954, when he became Chief Farm Accounts Officer in the Central Statistics Office, he has played a major role in the development of statistics that really mean something to Irish farming. Now Research Professor in the Dublin Economic and Social Research Institute, he is one of those rare writers who will not 'talk down' to his less expert readers or baffle them with figures. He has the figures that farmers want, and he knows how to present them, pulling no punches and making no concessions to those who want quick and easy answers.

Sections of the book would require some acquaintance with economic principles, but these sections can be left to your agricultural adviser. The book as a whole would repay study by farmers and farm managers themselves. Certainly those of us who took expensive conacre land this year would be more cautious after reading Professor O'Connor's views on cattle production (within or without the Common Market).

Finally, the approach to farming envisaged in this book is most relevant to the farmers of the coming decade — it is already clear from the Landmark series how seriously continental farmers take their business. Those farmers who bemoan the 'rush from the land' could do worse than give their sons a copy book, or see to it that local young farmers organization or the local library has a copy. The greatest need in farming today is perhaps for education. This book is a major contribution to that education.

O'Connor's book will certainly be welcomed by farmers and agricultural advisers as a major step in the direction of a more business like approach in Irish farming. This in turn is the road to greater profits for the farmer. The book is especially timely as we adjust to our first year of

Late Daniel Fitzgerald

Gates, Old Parish

It is our sad duty to record the death of Daniel Fitzgerald, late of Gates, Old Parish, who died during the early hours of Tuesday morning, September 11th, at the District Hospital after a duration of illness but at the allotted span. The deceased was one of nature's gentlemen all his life and a man of great qualities which deeply endeared him to his legions of friends.

To his sorrowing wife Bridget, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends we tender our deep sympathy.

His remains were removed on Wednesday evening to Old Parish Church followed by a cortege of great dimensions and were blessed and received by Very Rev. Fr. L. Walsh, P.P. Requiem mass was offered on arrival. Requiem masses were also offered on Thursday morning for the intentions of his gentle soul and the interment took place in the adjoining family plot. Another concourse were present. V. Rev. Fr. L. Walsh, P.P. assisted by Rev. Fr. Egan C.C. officiated at the graveside.

Very many mass cards were received. Floral tributes were placed on his grave. (Funeral arrangements by J. Kiely & Sons).

Notes

Time once again to put pen to paper and herald in the beginning of another season of squash at the popular Abbeyside venue.

As yet, many members have not started to get down to the serious business of training and practising after the summer recess. The first A.C.M. of the club will be held in Lawlors Hotel, on September 25th (Tuesday) at 8.30 p.m. All members are cordially invited to attend. This meeting the most important to date, as we have a full season this year and the out lining of various activities, matches, coaching etc must be fully discussed.

The limited memberships available must be completed in the period October 1st to October 15th inclusive. So present members take note! To those of you with experience of the "Ladder System" of playing games, within memberships, I must point out that this will commence only when membership is completed.

In the meantime, however, members are asked to train diligently to become match fit as soon as possible.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. U. O'Brien, Michael is a most popular young man and we join in wishing him success and happiness.

MARRIED—The wedding took place in the Church of the Sacred Heart, Glauraun, Co. Cork of Mr. Gerard Murray, B.D.S., Wilton Gardens, Cork and a native of Clashmore and Miss Rosemary Fitzgerald, B.A., H.D.E., Ashton Grove, Knockraha, Co. Cork. We join in wishing Gerard and his young bride happiness and success.

MUNSTER SET DANCING—In the final of the Munster Junior Set Dancing (under 16) Championship, Clashmore, representing Waterford, came second with 86 and two third marks, while the winners, Kerry secured 87 and one sixth marks. Clashmore were trained by Mrs. Phyllis Halloran.

TIDY TOWNS RESULTS—In this year's National Tidy Towns Competition, Ardmore, with 113 marks, secured 1st place in Co. Waterford and Clashmore (108 marks) came second. This is a very commendable achievement for this remote part of the country and is a tribute to all responsible. At both centres valuable marks were lost because of unsightly objects and litter on streets — a factor which is inexcusable. With 88 marks, Villierstown did very well and is improving each year.

POPULAR CHURCHMAN HOME—On holiday in his native Clashmore at present is Right Rev. Mgr. N. Ward, P.P., V.G., Glasgow. Mgr. Ward is an outstanding Churchman and is very popular in his native area. He is brother of Mr. Maurice Ward, Clashmore, Mrs. C. Ahearn, Tintur.

SALE OF WORK-A Successful Sale of Work and Home Produce was held at Clashmore, in aid of Mentally Handicapped Children. It was organised by the Clashmore and Pittown Branch. Thanks to all concerned.

POPULAR ARDMORE LADY WEDS—Congratulations to Miss Ann McGrath, N.T., Ardmore on her wedding to Detective Officer John Dullea, Macroom, Co. Cork. Rev. Fr. N. O'Gorman, C.C., Ardmore, officiated.

NO HOUSES—About 18 months ago it was announced that the County Council proposed to build 8 houses at Ardmore to meet local demand and this was welcomed by the people of the area. However, no progress has been made due to a series of unexpected obstacles and Department red tape. Local people are understandably critical of the delay.

LOCAL FAMILY BEREAVED—Sympathy is extended to the Mulcahy family, Rath, Kinsalebeg, on their recent sad bereavement, occasioned by the tragic death of their nephew, Mr. Michael Kelly, Killeagh. Deceased was well-known in the area.

MITCHELS QUALIFY FOR CO. FINAL

John Mitchels ... 4-5; Ballinacourty ... 0-9.

JOHN MITCHELS qualified for their fourth County Senior Football championship decider at Dungarvan's Fraher field on Sunday last when they came from behind to defeat local side Ballinacourty, in an exciting encounter which produced enjoyable fare for the big attendance.

As in their victory over Stradbally, Mitchels strongest card was their ability to snatch goals at vital periods in the game.

GOOD FOOTBALL

Both teams were a slow to settle. John Moloney had the opening score, a point in the sixth minute for Ballinacourty. The next thirteen minutes were scoreless with the Mitchels missing some gilt edge chances. Then Pat Enright soloed his way through for a brace of well taken points and now Ballinacourty were playing really good football. Greg Fives' drive went over for a point, off the cross bar. Seamus Fitzgerald and Marty Kiely added points. Mitchels first score even with the assistance of the breeze came in the 27th minute, when Pat Morrissey crashed a great shot to the net. Yet one felt that on two counts, that a free out should have been awarded and the half-time score was Ballinacourty 0-6; John Mitchels 1-0.

GOLDEN GOALS

Ballinacourty continued to dominate the exchanges on the resumption and Marty Kiely and Seamus Fitzgerald exchanged points with Pat Morrissey and Vinny Kirwan. Joe Power added another 'Courty' point. Then came the score which re-assured Mitchels. When a side line ball, which was being covered by the 'Courty' defence was flicked by Tom Gough into the goal area and in the resultant scramble the ball went into the net. Many thought that the ball had been wide, but the fact that matters is that a goal was flagged and this score brought new life to the Few's men. They added a point to draw level then Tom Whelan put them ahead with a point and when Vinny Kirwan scored a third goal, Mitchels were on the high road to victory. Ballinacourty mounted a series of attacks on the winners, however, it was the Mitchels who had the final say and they added a further goal and a point to leave them eight points clear at the final whistle.

IN FOURTH FINAL

John Mitchels are now through to their fourth final appearance since their club was formed eleven years ago in 1962. Throughout the first 45 minutes they were out paced and out played. They came more into the picture at centre field at the end of the third quarter and from that point onwards they caused the 'Courty' rear-guard no end of trouble. Tom Hunt made no mistakes between the posts. Tom and Joe Whelan, Wally Connors and Mick Barry were best in defence.

Tom Gough played his best football in the last quarter, while up front ace strikers Vinny Kirwan and Tom Morrissey were well supported by the hard working Mick Martin Kirwan and the non stop Tom Whelan.

Ballinacourty, despite losing by eight points played some of the best football that we have seen from them in the senior grade. In the first half they out paced and out played the winners and they were very much in contention entering the final quarter, when they lost their grip on the game to a revitalised

Mitchels side and all their players had their moments with Jim Fraher, F. Shields and John Burns forming a good half back line. As already stated they held their own at centre field until the final quarter. Their attack was always dangerous with every one of the sextet playing well and Pat Enright in particular had a blinder. It was without doubt his best ever display for Ballinacourty.

Of the remainder Mick Mernin, Seamus Fitzgerald, John Moloney and Joe Power were best.

John Mitchels:— T. Hunt; M. Whelan, Tony Whelan, J. Whelan; M. Barry, W. Connors, J. Walsh; T. Gough, S. Kelly; R. Connors, Tom Whelan, M. M. Kirwan; P. Morrissey, S. Reilly, V. Kirwan. Sub. N. Kirwan for S. Reilly.

Ballinacourty:— J. Kiely; M. Fives, N. Cashin, M. Mernin; J. Burns, Jim Fraher, F. Shields; P. Cashin, J. Moloney; P. Enright, J. Power, M. Kiely; R. Hanrahan, G. Fives, S. Fitzgerald; Sub M. Kelly for M. Fives.

Referee: J. Dunphy, Dunhill

STRADBALLY WIN PHELAN CUP

STRADBALLY

Gaelic Jottings

Stradbally ... 2-11; Tramore ... 1-3.

STRADBALLY Senior footballers gained a measure of compensation for their exit from this year's championship by scoring a great victory over Tramore in the 1973 Phelan Cup final.

From start to finish, Stradbally dominated this final and Tramore who had been strongly fancied to win this one were never in with a real chance. Stradbally were quickly into their stride and an early goal from Pat Butler gave them the confidence they needed and they were in front by 1-6 to 0-1 at the interval.

They maintained their supremacy throughout the second half and a great goal from Tom Cunningham put the issue beyond doubt. Stradbally were well served by Robin Ahearn, Aio Curran, Pat Clancy, Liam Carroll, John Power, Pat Butler, Sean Ahearn and Michael Coffey.

Stradbally scorers:— P. Butler (1-3), M. Coffey (0-4), T. Cunningham (1-0), J. Keane (0-2), P. Clancy (0-1), R. Dunford (0-1).

Stradbally:— B. Dunford; J. Power, R. Ahearn, J. Kiely; A. Curran, P. Clancy, L. Carroll; J. Power, J. Keane; R. Dunford, T. Cunningham, S. Ahearn; P. Butler, M. Coffey, T. Halpin. Referee: J. Regan, Kill.

Minor Title For Four-mile-water

Four-mile-water ... 5-10; Erins Own ... 3-8. Hail the champions! Four-mile-water minor hurlers fresh from their shock victory over Tallow in the Divisional final, repeated the dose at Walsh Park, Waterford on Sunday last.

Playing with great spirit and courage the smaller and younger Ballymac' boys never allowed the strongly fancied Eastern team to get on top and playing wonderful hurling they swept to a glorious triumph by capturing their club's first ever county title in this grade. After the game there were scenes of excitement when Captain Willie Ryan was presented with the cup and certainly 1973 will go down as one of the greatest ever years in the proud history of the Four-mile-water club. The winners had outstanding hurlers in Willie Ryan, who gave a regal display, D. Fitzpatrick, A. Burke, Sean Guiry, S. Grant, P. McCarthy and M. Ryan. We extend our congratulations to all concerned with this victory.

Referee: J. J. Landers, Cappoquin.

LAST GAME

Fr. Michael Power, played his last game for his club, Tramore, in last Sunday's Phelan Cup final at Dungarvan. At the function for the New York hurlers in Tramore on Sunday night, the County Board fittingly made a presentation to Fr. Power in recognition of his services to the county team.

HURLERS WIN LEAGUE TITLE

Waterford ... 1-17; New York ... 3-8. Waterford senior hurlers made heavy work of accounting for New York at Walsh Park, Waterford on Sunday last, in the final of Division I B, of the National League.

At half time, New York were in front by 2-6 to 0-8. On the resumption Waterford were quickly into their stride and a goal from Stephen Greene and a point from Andy Heffernan put them on level terms after 27 minutes and from that point onwards Waterford always had matters well under control and they ran out deserving winners of a very well contested game and thereby collected the trophies. This game will prove to have been an invaluable work out for their opening game against Galway, in the 1973/74 N.H.L., which will be played shortly. Best for Waterford were Pat McGrath, Jim Greene, Seamus Hannon, Mossey Whelan, John Galvin, Andy Heffernan, Martin Hickey and Stephen Greene.

Waterford scorers: S. Greene (1-2); M. Hickey (0-5); A. Heffernan (0-4); L. Canning, J. Greene, M. Whelan, P. McGrath, M. Geary and John Galvin (0-1 each).

Waterford: M. Foley; D. Duggan, P. Coady, S. Hannon; J. Galvin, J. Greene, P. McGrath; A. Heffernan, M. Whelan, M. Hickey, J. Kirwan, T. Reid; S. Greene, L. Canning, M. Geary. Sub. J. Morgan for T. Reid.

SPORTING GESTURE

Following last Sunday's Phelan Cup final, the Stradbally players in a grand sporting gesture shouldered Tramore's Fr. Michael Power off the field.

WESTERN BOARD MEETING

At last Monday night's Western Board Meeting in Dungarvan, Chairman, J. A. Murphy, congratulated the Four-mile-water Club on winning the County Minor Hurling Title and the Abbeyside/Ballinacourty club their victory in the U-16 Hurling championship.

SUSPENSIONS

Arising from the recent Dungarvan, Kilgobinet Junior Football Championship, the imposed suspensions on four players as follows: J. Landers (Kilgobinet) six months; J. Cooney (Kilgobinet) two months. While E. Byrnes (Kilgobinet) and M. Norris (Dungarvan) received the minimum two weeks suspension.

COMING FIXTURES

The curtain raiser to the county senior football final on September 30th will be the county U-16 football championship final between Western Champions Nire and the Eastern champions, The Nire Valley boys will be assured of plenty of support in this one. The Western Board will stage an attractive double header at Cappoquin on October 7th, when Tallow and Abbeyside will meet in the Western minor football final and Ring junior footballers meet Tallow to decide who will be Dungarvan's opponents in the Divisional final.

The county senior hurling final replay has been set for October 7th, while the Intermediate hurling final between Four-mile-water and Ballydurn goes ahead on October 14th.

There could be changes in county final dates depending upon when the Waterford v. Galway N.H.L. tie is played.

STRADBALLY FIELD

One evening last week I had the pleasure of viewing the Stradbally club's new playing pitch, which is without doubt a credit to the club. Former Stradbally great, John O'Meara holder of no less than five county senior football championship medals kindly showed me around and brought me up to date with the club's plans for this excellently laid out spacious venue, where no doubt we will see many exciting games in the coming seasons.

ALL-IRELAND FOOTBALL FINALS

Sunday next is All-Ireland football final day, which without doubt the biggest sporting occasion of the year. To say that tickets are like gold is putting it mildly. Will Cork bring the Sam McGuire home to the Leese-side for the first time since 1945, or will a new generation of Galway footballers take up where their famous team of the sixties left off in 1966.

Well on Sunday next the eyes of the nation will centre on the headquarters of the G.A.A. in Dublin, Croke Park.

When Cork last won the title in 1945 they were considered very lucky to defeat Tipperary with a last second point from Jimmy Cronin in the Munster semi-final played at Dungarvan's Fraher field. Full back on that famous team was the late 'Weeshie' Murphy who became the first player from Bere Island to win an All-Ireland medal.

All Munster fans will be hoping for a Cork victory on this occasion while Tyrone will start favourites to win the minor title.

SENIOR FOOTBALL FINAL

John Mitchels and Affane will meet in the 1973 County senior football final at Dungarvan's Fraher field on Sunday, September 30th and an exciting encounter it should be with Mitchels now in full cry for their second title and Affane chasing a historic first.

U-21 HURLING

Cappoquin ... 4-7; Lismore ... 4-4. This U-21 hurling championship second round game played at Lismore on Sunday last was a real thriller in which the pre-match favourites, Cappoquin, withstood a great second half rally by a galant Lismore team.

J.H.C.—Tallow ... 1-8; Shamrocks ... 0-3.

Tallow junior hurlers came out on top in their local derby clash with Shamrocks at Lismore on Sunday last. They now go forward to play Kilgobinet in the Divisional semi-final.

GATE RECEIPTS

The Gate Receipts at Walsh Park on Sunday last were £868, while the takings at the Fraher field were approximately £500. By all accounts there was a surprisingly big attendance at the Western Board's double header at the Lismore venue.

ABBEYSIDE/BALLINACOURTY LEAGUES

The final of the Club's U-14 Parish hurling league will be played on Saturday, 29th September, between Sarsfields and Fenians. It should be an exciting encounter.

On Saturday afternoon next the club's annual U14 football commences. Any boy U-14 years of age who is interested in football should attend at the club grounds on Saturday afternoon next. Since the club commenced these leagues in 1969 they have had their fair share of success in the U-14 and U-16 Juvenile championships. In all the club has won three county and five Divisional titles in this period, a fact which goes to prove that nothing succeeds, quite like hard work.

Fixtures, Saturday, 22nd September — Fenians v. Wolfe Tones (2 p.m.); Sarsfields v. Emmetts (3.15 p.m.).

Four-mile-water make History

FOUR-MILE-WATER minor hurlers made history, at Walsh Park, Waterford, on Sunday last, when they defeated Erins Own in the County Final by 5 goals 10 points to 3 goals 8 points in a thrilling game.

Over 200 supporters made the journey and each score was greeted with a tremendous roar. Erins Own were the first to score a point, then Johnny Halpin shot the equaliser and from then on Four-mile-water took complete control to lead by 3 gls. 3 pts to 5 pts. at half time.

The second half was a cracker, but Four-mile-water held on to their big lead and won by an 8 pts. margin.

All the sports writers must eat their words as they all gave Erins Own to win, but Willie Ryan and company had other ideas: Man of the match was Declan Fitzpatrick who shot 8 pts. and goal-keeper W. Ryan, but everyone of the fifteen played their hearts out.
