KILMACTHOMAS SENIOR CYCLE CONTROVERSY

Kilmacthomas Vocational school first mooted in 1931, and which came to fruition only four short years ago in 1935, is the subject of a controversy which could well mean its success or failure. The present controversy is due to the fact that no senior cycle education is available there presently.

HISTORY

The idea of a vocational school at Kilmacthomas was first mooted in 1921. The site was purchased in 1927, planning permission was granted and plans were drawn up. The estimated cost of a three-roomed school was £2,500 at that time. However, it was then decided to wait until after the war to go ahead with the school. By 1945 the cost had risen to £6,500 and the plans were deferred indefinitely by Waterford County Council.

In 1959 a survey was carried out and the result proved there was need for a vocational school and that the Department of Education was also fully aware of this. 1,114 pupils were attending 14 National Schools in 1965, within a six mile radius of Kilmacthomas and taking it that 10% of those would be attending the proposed new school, over 100 would enrol each year.

The original estimated cost of a five-roomed school was £25,000 but in 1966 the cost had soared to £50,000 and it was said at that time that the school was no nearer a reality than it had been some years before. The then CEO, Mr. J. Rushe, said that the estimated yearly potential in Kilmacthomas was 90 and if that estimate became a reality the envisaged 5-roomed school would not hold them. The feelings at that time were mixed as to whether it should be a full comprehensive school or remain a vocational school. It was felt that if it was a full comprehensive school catering for secondary education it would hinder greatly secondary schools in towns like Dungarvan and Carrick-on-Suir.

Work commenced on the school in 1968 and it was completed in 1969 at a cost of over £50,000 with a capacity of holding 120 students. Equipment was installed at a cost of over £9,000.

In 1969 there were eighty-eight students attending the school, while there are over 170 attending this year. The number is almost 50% over the total capacity the school was designed for.

Due to overcrowding three prefabricated buildings were erected and two bicycle sheds were converted for use at certain times. The school's walls were specially strengthened to take an additional floor which was thought to be necessary one year ago.

TWO-STAGE DEVELOPMENT

The school was planned as a two-stage development programme:

1. A ground floor specially fortified to take a second storey when required and also to be a complete school at the same time.

2. The building of a second storey. If development follows the general pattern it has been following for the past few years it is inevitable there will be an increase in population. Kilmacthomas will therefore be in the centre of an industrial triangle with Carrick-on-Suir on one side, Waterford on another and Dungarvan on the other. The estimated cost of a second storey was in the region of £75,000 to £90,000 last year.

N.T.S' ADVICE

Mr. Ted Buckley N.T., at last Monday's meeting of Co. Waterford Vocational Education Committee, stated that if parents asked him for advice he would strongly advise them not to send their children there, due to the non-availability of a senior cycle. He was also contemplating sending his own children there but now that a senior cycle has not been granted he will not.

Mr. Sean Ormonde N.T., also expressed the same view as Mr. Buckley, stressing the same reason.

WHICH COMES FIRST

The question now arises as to which comes first, a senior course or the number required for it?

It is reasonable to state that if the senior cycle is not made available primarily the sufficient number of students will not attend the school. The senior cycle must come first and when it does come, there can be no doubt but that the number of students will increase.

It has been the policy of the Vocational Committee that a senior cycle will be available at the Kilmacthomas School and next month a deputation is travelling to the Department of Education in connection with this. Surely, now that the agreement for purchase of the land adjoining the school has been initiated (we learn from a reliable source) the Department will not refuse the deputation's requests.

In all probability the provision of a senior cycle is on the table for Kilmacthomas School.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE REPLIES TO POLLUTION ALLEGATIONS

A request from Colr. P. Whelan for a report on milk powder discharge from Waterford Co-Operative Society Ltd. at this month's meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council was the subject of a lengthy discussion. At the outset, Mr. T. A. Kyne, T.D., Chairman, stressed the importance of the fact that over 400 were employed there.

Mr. Whelan said he had been approached by a number of towns people to raise the matter at the Council, as they were annoyed with the release of the substance at frequent intervals.

LETTER FROM CO-OP.

Mr. B. White, Acting Town Clerk, read a letter from Mr. S. O'Connor, Chief Executive, Waterford Co-Operative Society Ltd., concerning the effluent.

The letter says that an enquiry has been emphasised by the recent article that appeared in a local paper (the Observer, Oct. 6th) to the effect that excess amounts of milk powder have been discharged at regular intervals near the town area.

The letter continues: Any allegation that milk powder has been so discharged either in excess amounts or at regular intervals is not correct. Waterford Co-Op. have been manufacturing powder since 19% and from 1957 the processing factories have been extended at intervals to manufacture various types of powder, the most recent expansion being this summer. The processing plant is the most efficient and modern being manufactured in the world. With the installation and expansion of such industrial plants it should be obvious that until the plant had developed to its peak of efficiency there may occur some slight escape of finished product.

If any inconvenience has been caused to the public you can be assured that it is of the greatest concern and I regret to our Society and I would like to assure you that all possible steps are taken at all times to assure that no such inconvenience is caused. In this connection I can assure you that our Society has taken expert advice on the purchase of suitable equipment for the recovery of the maximum practicable degree of what little quantity of milk powder dust which may escape from time to time. As soon as located, the optimum equipment, no matter how expensive, we will immediately proceed with its installation.

Referring to the article in the "Observer" the letter says "Apart from reference to air pollution (there was no comment on this matter), the article referred to harbour pollution by reason of the large quantity of water used by the Society in connection with food production plants. As your Council knows, approximately 95% of this water is used solely for cooling the processing plants and never comes into contact with our milk products at all. With reference to the small amount of water used by plant washing your Council in granting planning permission for the installation of such machinery have laid down a strict limit to the amount of milk solids that can be permitted in such washing water and we can assure you that such limits are strictly adhered to. This effluent is in future to be carried out to the outer harbour by means of your new sewerage scheme.

The letter says that approximately 1100 people are employed by Waterford Co-Op., 470 directly in Dungarvan. The annual wage bill in Dungarvan in 1973 will be £1,000,000 while the overall wage bill will be in the region of £2 million.

Colr. D. Goode said the reply for fortright but that the nuisance hadn't abated.

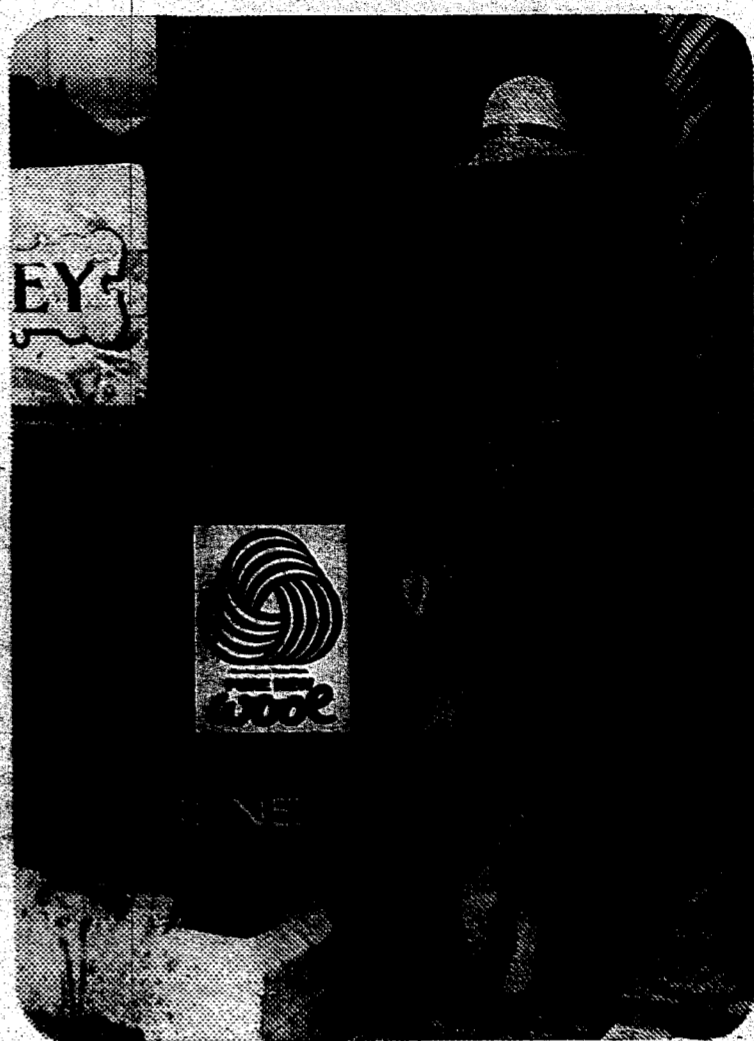

Colr. T. Waide stated that the people who were talking of pollution don't know what pollution is.

Senator Austin Desay stated there has been pollution and that he was informed the Society were prepared to spend quarter of a million pounds in efforts to stop it.

Colr. Waide stated that at one stage Quigley Magnesite had been accused of polluting the area; the accusation has now been switched to Waterford Co-Op. and he concluded, if any other industry were to start in the town they would also be accused of polluting the area.

Deputy Kyne concluded the discussion by stating that the Council must be vigilant and make sure any pollution that might occur be minimised. He was happy they were doing their best to eradicate the problem.

Waterford Co-Op. to Purchase Five Acres

Waterford Co-Operative Society Ltd. are to purchase almost five acres of land from Dungarvan Urban Council at a cost of £2,000 per acre. The Urban Council has approximately 7 acres of land at Shandon. This land was formerly known as Williams' Marsh and has been reclaimed by the Urban Council by controlled dumping over a long number of years. An area of two acres of road 10 square perches is being retained for possible road construction.

This purchase would enable the Society to join their present property at Davitt's Quay with that recently purchased from C.I.E. and Misses Foley. The sale was approved of unanimously by the Council.

 Clanwilliam 16; Dungarvan 3
 Dungarvan travelled to Tipperary Town on Sunday last to take on the local XV. Clanwilliam R.F.C. Short two of the selected team Dungarvan were slow to settle down and paid the price in the form of two Clanwilliam tries within 15 minutes of the start. Clanwilliam were also aided by the strong breeze during this period. They scored a further try close to half-time making the score 12-nil at the interval.

On resuming Dungarvan settled down much better but they had to be content with 3 points from a penalty by J. Lynch. Clanwilliam won 16-3.

NATIONAL MENTAL HEALTH ASSOCIATION PUBLIC MEETING

A public meeting will be held on Thursday, October 25th, in the Mercy Convent Hall (new Primary School) at 8.30 p.m. The purpose of this meeting will be to assess the feasibility of setting up a branch of the Mental Health Association for West Waterford.

NEED FOR EDUCATION

The attitude of the average person to the problems of mental health has nearly always been that of a guarded nature due to a lack of knowledge on same. It is not possible to over-stress the necessity for the education of all communities towards all the aspects of mental health.

It is probably true that the attitudes of people can be changed by the media and by national educational programmes, but it is vital that these efforts be complemented in local areas with a view to eliminating prejudices if they exist, against mental illness.

Success depends on tapping the latent goodwill which must surely exist in the community, overcoming initial lack of knowledge of what the reality of life in a mental hospital is like and by pursuing a big educational programme geared towards the general public in breaking down barriers regarding mental illness. Your involvement is needed.

The panel of speakers will include a psychiatrist, a member of the National Mental Health Association, Dublin and the Chairman of the Waterford Mental Health Association.

BARNAWEE LAKE PROJECT ABANDONED

Dear Sir—

At an extraordinary meeting of Dungarvan Rowing Club it was decided to cease developments on the Barnawee lake project because of tolerance and unreasonable pressures on our club and club members.

The principle reason for making the lake was to ensure the absolute safety of our oarsmen as the precise level of the weir was calculated to give an average depth of 2½ feet of water and not to flood land or poison cattle as some people would have you believe. In fact all land flooded by occasional spring tides would never be flooded if the project was completed. The feasibility of this whole project was based on a similar project carried out ten years ago in Rosscarbery in West Cork which has proved a tremendous asset to the town.

What an asset Barnawee Lake would be to this town, also not alone the rowing club was to benefit from this project as it would be ideal for coarse fishing, canoeing, pleasure boating and a general recreational area for all the local community and it is suitable as a wild bird sanctuary. In fact arrangements had been made by the local angling club with the Inland Fisheries Board to stock the lake with a wide range of coarse fish—a facility with tremendous tourist potential as well as seeing to the needs of the local angler who has to travel great distances for a similar facility.

This potential was recognised by Waterford County Council when they drew up a priority list of amenity projects in the County in 1971. In a list of forty such projects, Barnawee was number three in order of priority and £5,000 was passed to finance the project. When it became apparent that the Council could not get as far as the third project two years after the list was drawn up (due to present levels of grant allocation) we decided to go ahead and finance the project ourselves. The intolerable situation as we see it was that built into the planning permission which we received from the County Council was a clause which rendered the club and its members liable if any damage should arise. Seeing as this project was not going to cost the ratepayer anything and that the whole community was to benefit from the development it is completely unreasonable to ask one small club or its individual members to bear such a responsibility.

We are quite sure that there would be no flooding of land and that where cattle go to water that there would be no salinization. On the latter point as a double guarantee to these farmers we offered to put water troughs on their lands—this we thought more than reasonable. Also considering there was a guarantee under the terms of the planning permission that if there were any signs of damage resulting from the lake that we would have to take down the weir forthwith, it was unreasonable not to give us a chance to prove that the project would work.

Not anticipating opposition (some of the members of the club received threatening solicitor's letters) we spent almost £1,000 on the development, levelling the Boat-house site, building the boat-house, dredging the river bed and buying the channels. There was three years' hard work put into this development and it is a public disgrace that it should come to this sad ending.

Remember ours is just a voluntary body who have committee quite a deal of our spare time for the benefit of our young people and we have very little to gain.

Who did the job in Ross Carberry? Cork County Council of course at the request of the local Muintir na Tire Branch and it would appear that the possible begrudgers there are more broadminded and civic spirited than their counter parts here.

We will continue rowing in the Quay and Bay and even though every precaution is taken to ensure the safety of our oarsmen, accidents can happen and God forbid if this happens, who will be answerable I wonder?—Yours sincerely,

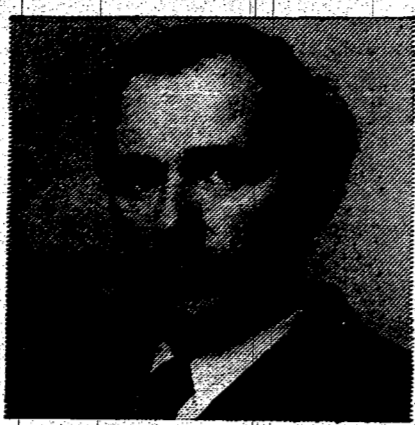

JOHN R. WALSH,
Captain, Dungarvan Rowing Club.

Repercussions of Claudia Discussed

VACANCY NOT FILLED

The case of Mr. Donal Whelan was discussed at this month's meeting of County Waterford Vocational Education Committee's meeting in Dungarvan, on Monday last. The discussion was initiated by Mr. Kieran O'Ryan, MCC, who referred back to their decision of the previous meeting that Oireachtas members of the committee meet the Minister for Justice with a view to having Mr. Whean re-instated.

Senator Austin Deasy referred to what he had said at the County Council and Urban District Council meetings, that the Government had no intention of retracting, stating he had made a point of seeing the Minister.

Mr. Charles Curran said this has an emotional effect on all parties and despite the Act was passed in 1939, there was no precedent of this occasion. Concluding he mentioned the amount of public concern with regard to the forfeitures.

Mr. Liam Comerford stated that Mr. Whelan was a terrible loss to the committee. He has proved himself an excellent headmaster and we can't afford to lose him, he concluded.

Deputy T. A. Kyne said he will take up the matter in the Dail when it resumes on Wednesday (yesterday) and arrange a meeting with the Minister of a joint deputation of parents and V.E.C. members.

Colr. Quirk suggested that Deputy Kyne be left to see to it and if he were not successful they should go up and protest.

Colr. Curran said the situation cannot but afford to be seen from the humanitarian point of view.

The Chairman, Mr. P. Kenneally, said he was aware there will be trouble if something was not done soon.

In reply to a question from Colr. K. O'Ryan Mr. Donal Kelleher C.E.O., replied that the Committee had decided not to fill the vacancy in Kilmachomas at their last meeting and this had been adhered to.

FITZGERALD (Gates, Old Parish, Dungarvan) — The wife, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends of the late Daniel Fitzgerald, Gates, Old Parish, wish to thank all those who sympathised with them in their recent bereavement; all those who sent Mass cards, those who attended the obsequies. A special word of thanks to the Sisters and nursing staff of the District Hospital who were so kind to him during his final illness. As a deep appreciation Holy Mass will be offered for their intentions.

FOLEY—The wife and relatives of the late Michael Foley, M.A., H.Dip.Ed., Sonas Ballinacourty, wish to express their humble gratitude for the sympathy extended to them. His wife, Nora, in particular, cannot ever forget, nor can she ever adequately express the wave of sympathy in which she was submerged by innumerable people. In her irreparable loss she wishes to assure all who were so kind and so charitably motivated that she would have found Michael's death an unbearable thing were it not for their support in her great trial. It was a particularly important consolation that so many went to such lengths to demonstrate that Michael's life's work and total devotion to education was appreciated. So many of his past-pupils sent messages when they could not attend the funeral personally.

To all who attended the removal and burial, who sent Mass cards, wreaths, letters and telegrams of sympathy; to all who so kindly assisted him in his illness, the staff him in his illness, Dr. B. McCarthy, the Nuns and nurses of the District Hospital, Dungarvan; the staff both religious and lay of the Bon Secours Hospital, Cork and to all who helped, prayed or even said they were sorry for our trouble, we wish to say the most sincere "Thank you." In token of this appreciation the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for their intentions and their spiritual and temporal welfare.

Planning Act
 Stradbally Parish Chapel Cemetery (Church of the Holy Cross) — It is proposed to open a previously existing side gate leading on to the public footpath in order to gain access to sections of the old graveyard which is at present remotely situated. The purpose is to provide a means of lessening trespass over graves and afford better facilities for maintenance.—Dr. Louis N. Gleeson.

The official opening of Dungarvan Credit Union's new ultra-modern offices took place on Saturday evening last, situated at Mary Street, the offices were formerly the property of the L. & N. Ltd.

The official opening was performed by Mr. R. A. Walsh, Vice-Chairman, Dungarvan, who deputised for Deputy T. A. Kyne.

Mr. Walsh said there was never greater cause to welcome the spectacular growth of the Credit Union movement in Ireland than at the present time. The Dungarvan branch, he stated, was a young one yet in a few years had made tremendous strides, culminating in the opening of these new offices.

Very Rev. T. Canon Cassidy, P.P., V.F., performed the official blessing.

The attendance included: Very Rev. M. Farrell, P.P., Abbeyside; Rev. Fr. Callaghan, O.S.A., Dungarvan; Sisters Christine and de Lourdes, Presentation Convent; Rev. McGinly, Superior, C.B.S., Dungarvan; Mr. P. Watchthorn, Clonmel Director, Irish League of Credit Union, and Mrs. Watchthorn; Mr. G. Fitzsimons, Carrick-on-Suir, Chairman, Chapter Ten, Irish League and Mrs. Fitzsimons; Mr. W. O'Brien Clonmel, Secretary, Chapter Ten and Mrs. O'Brien; Mr. J. Leonard, Waterford, Auditor, and Mrs. Leonard.

A very enjoyable dinner-dance was later held at Lawlor's Hotel, at which there was a big attendance.

Mon McGrath and Michael Curran at the opening of the new Credit Union Offices, on Saturday night last.

D. Canon McGrath, P.P., V.F. Speaking at the ceremony, Canon McGrath recalled that he had been a founder member of the Lismore Men's Branch in 1945. Afterwards tea was served in Halla Bride and the evening closed with a social in the Town Hall.

The jubilarians are — Mrs. M. V. O'Donoghue, Mrs. Joe Lineen, Mrs. Fitzgerald, Miss E. Morrissey, Miss A. Vaughan, Mrs. Gough, Mrs. E. O'Neill, Miss N. Willoughby, Miss Mary Willoughby, Mrs. O'Connell, Miss B. Fenton, Miss N. O'Connell, Miss M. Noonan, Mrs. E. O'Sullivan, Mrs. K. Wilkinson, Miss C. Prendergast, Miss A. Prendergast, Mrs. Dooley, Mrs. O'Regan, Mrs. Walsh, Messrs. Moss Pollard, Tom Noonan, Kieran Fenton, Jim Stapleton, Dick Doocey, Jim Campion, Pad Lineen, Tom Doocey, Michael O'Donnell, Andy Crotty, Tony Bolger, Tom Barry, Pad Vaughan, Peter Gillen, Billy B. Lineen, Pat Fitzgerald, James Willoughby, Billy O'Brien and Michael Nolan.

ANNUAL FIXTURE—The Lismore Soccer club's annual "fixture" the married v. single players played on Sunday evening last was a most entertaining and exciting one and after a very close game the "singles" won by 2 goals to 1 goal. The home pitch bore up remarkably well to the incessant rain of the week-end and fitness or rather the lack of it showed up early for the majority. The singles opened the scoring in the 15th minute with a rather lucky own goal, when the ball rebounded from the upright on to the keeper's shoulder and into the net and they retained this lead until midway in the second half when they went further ahead with a second score from Ronnie Keating. However, the marrieds pulled one back almost immediately through J. J. Landers and for the remainder of the game it was continuous pressure on the single goal, which held out to the finish. For the winners keeper Walsh was found in goal and was fronted by a very good full back line of Atkins and M. Walsh. However it was the half line of B. Landers, O'Sullivan and O'Connell which really won the game while up front Donal Landers was outstanding all though with Jimmy Veale most impressive at centre forward. For the losers Prescott, Mason, Wade were very sound while Foley, Landers were most prominent up front. They were ably assisted by Ryan, Whelan, Pollard, Cooke and P. Whelan, but all in all a very satisfactory performance from all. Full marks too, to referee Trevor Anderson who handled the game impeccably. Later that night in the Keaneland Hotel, the trophies which were so kindly donated by the Keaneland Hotel were presented to the winning team members by Mrs. A. Keane. club are indebted to all who helped to make this fixture such a success, with particular thanks to the Keaneland Hotel for their generosity.

LATE MRS. ELLEN KEANE — We extend our deepest sympathy to Mrs. M. O'Donoghue, Parks Road and the Keane family, Ballyhamlet, Tallow, on the recent death of their mother Mrs. Ellen Keane, which sad event occurred at the week-end.

There is a beautiful star in Heaven
 That softly glimmers and gleams
 That star is of my dear uncle
 The pride and joy of my dreams
 It shines so brightly above me
 To guide my darkened way
 But there in God's beautiful garden
 I will meet him again some day.
 —Always remembered by your loving niece Mary Fraher.

ON COUNTY TEAM—We congratulate M. Hackett on his performance for Waterford senior footballers in their huge win over Carlow on Sunday last. Operating at full forward, he played some very intelligent football, besides scoring one goal and one point. On this display he can make that position his own.

G.A.A. NEWS—Both games at the Sportsfield on Sunday last provided shock results with Tallow beating Kilkobinet in the junior hurling championship and little fancied Ballyduff accounting for Ring in the Western Intermediate Football final.

WALK OVER—Cappoquin U-21 hurlers received a walk-over from Eire Oge on Sunday last. This is the second year in succession this has happened with Eire Oge at fault each time. This situation cannot go without being punished. The Western Board will have to act on this matter and see that Eire Oge pay all Cappoquin's expenses. Teams cannot get off scot-free all the time.

Stradbally travelled to Fews on Sunday to play the home-side. From the kick off Stradbally attacked and after 5 minutes Weldon had the ball in the net, but it was disallowed. There was a few more near misses before Stradbally scored. After a goal movement the Fews keeper made a bad mistake and Weldon went in to score. Straight from the kick off Bill Dunford hit the number two. Then Fews started to make a comeback and got one before the interval. The second half did not provide any thrills. After five minutes Weldon scored again. Fews then scored a second goal but it was too late.

PORTLAW ARE CHAMPIONS AGAIN

Port Cladhach ... 2-11; Cnoc Sion ... 2-7. A MATCH of hard, often high quality, hurling; close scoring all the way; the issue always in the balance; a great crowd getting more and more excited. It was a game that did the clubs who played in it immense credit, worthy of the county final, and indicative of the great improvement that has taken place in Waterford hurling.

They began with Cnoc Sion in firm control of the championship. They confirmed that supremacy by winning a thrilling Erin's Own tournament match 4-16 to 4-13. Later, in the quarter final of the Sargent Cup at Portlaw, the home side reversed that result 4-13 to 4-7. In the drawn county final, it was obvious that there was nothing between teams. But, in the replay on Sunday, it was clear that Portlaw had drawn away just a little and now stand undisputed champions of Deise hurling.

Allowing for the heavy ground, the hurling was terrific: the guitar-string tension of the drawn match was absent and as a result, everyone hurled with everything he had, no knocks were skirred, none resented and the sportsmanship was a lesson of manly self-control.

This time there was no rush into the

Waterford Footballers Shone

WATERFORD footballers were back to something of the kind of form they showed two years ago in Division 1, when they played Carlow on Sunday last and handed them a really decent beating. The game was to raise the curtain on the county hurling final, but heavy rain over the second half of the week left Walsh Park lush, but as soft as a jelly, so the footballers repaired to the Waterford Glass field at Baile na nDeise — a beautiful pitch in prime condition.

The obviously relaxed nature of the game assisted Waterford in delivering a performance that was brilliant in spots; always progressive; and just occasionally slack — but the slackness could reasonably be blamed on the trend of the game which was always in their favour after the first ten minutes.

This match marked the return to serious football of John Hennessy, Aird Mhor, who had broken his leg against Carlow in last winter's League. And he made his return a 'tour de force'. Having gained an initial grip on midfield and noted that his forwards were jittery and too indirect, losing several chances, he moved in behind attack in ten minutes he followed up four times — scoring 2-1 and going inches wide with his effort. The remainder of the match he spent patrolling the midfield, pushing perfect passes to a forward-line which showed its appreciation by weaving some sweet moves, now much more direct than when they started.

It was a remarkable performance from a player who cannot be more than half-fit, without football for most of a year, and showing a slight limp towards the end. Michael Hackett, a player who showed his potential in the recent county final, also played a fine game, showing his sharpness in finishing and an inventive genius in opening up the defence with swift passes.

While there was a doubt about the outcome of the match in the first-half, the Waterford defence played strongly and promised safety. Injury to M. Kirwan and P. Clancy disturbed the balance somewhat, and they often looked moderate in the second half, back-peddalling too much and unwilling to try cutting off attacks at source by strong challenge outside their own 50 yard line.

Noel Walsh was in a class apart in this defence; the best man to fight a ball and get it; to be always in position; the only one who could drive a powerful ball well into his own forward line; and, as a bonus he carried ball after ball up and fed passes to his attack. Pa Walsh, unusually placed at centre back had a good first half, failed to hold his defence together in the second but came through without any trouble from his knee. Robin Ahearne may have shown the first indications in this match that he will produce the same powerful defensive football in the county jersey that he always produces in Stradbally's red.

Tom Casey played a great deal of good football both at centre-field and in the left-corner of the attack. Vinny Kirwan, captaining Waterford for the first time, switched to centre-field just before the interval, and played his usual good game all through. Sean Ahearne and Joe Flynn knifed well into the second-half moves of the attack, as did Greg O'Neill and Billie Fleming, without ever touching their best form.

Scorers — Waterford — J. Hennessy 2-2; T. Casey 1-3; M. Hackett 1-1; S. Ahearne 1-0; G. O'Neill and J. Flynn 0-2 each; V. Kirwan and W. Fleming 0-1 each.

Carlow — B. McNally 1-3; T. Geoghegan 1-1; D. Byrne 0-3.

Team — Waterford — T. Fleming; R. Ahearne; J. Wall; P. Clancy; M. Kirwan; P. Walsh; N. Walsh; T. Casey; J. Hennessy; J. Flynn; G. O'Neill; W. Fleming; S. Ahearne; M. Hackett; V. Kirwan. Subs. E. Dunphy for Clancy; F. Murray for M. Kirwan; T. Whelan for Dunphy.

Referee — M. Meally, Kilkenny.

lead by Cnoc Sion; Port Cladhach settled at once to their task, their defence taking close order with their opposites, midfield holding the initiative. They had moved into a four point lead before Cnoc Sion pointed a free: when Billie Kiely swung sharply on a ball to rip a cross-shot past Michael Foley, they led 1-6 to 0-2. It looked bad for Cnoc Sion who could not prise any opening up-field. They were, however, gaining more possession in midfield and the introduction of the veteran Martin Og Morrissey to the full forward position brought immediate results with a goal.

Portlaw were back with the next attack, a goal looked likely when a foul held them up; Hickey went for a goal, but Foley saved — a point might have kept their moral advantage, but now Cnoc Sion were back up field to narrow the gap to 1-6 against 1-4 as they went for the oranges.

Portlaw must have been a bit disappointed at the score after their good first half. But, when Martin Geary — who played a tremendously courageous and persevering game all through for Cnoc Sion — hammered in a ball that had been only half-cleared, Portlaw found themselves behind for the first time after five minutes of the second half.

However, they fought back and curtailed Cnoc Sion's chances drastically over the next few minutes when they made heavy weather of getting the equaliser and then regaining the lead from a free.

Mount Sion, tenacious and refusing to accept anything but victory, pushed play forward. A point cancelled the lead; Portlaw rallied again — Frankie Whelan, John Galvin, Jackie Whelan and Peter Whelan hurled with great favour and skill. Hickey fed in ball after ball from the left wing. Foley saved several times under heavy pressure. But, the goal came eventually — another cross-shot from the left, this one by Mick Regan who contributed generously when coming in as a substitute.

From there to the end it was puck for puck — every puck cheered in a manner one has not experienced in a county final since the 40s or early 50s. Cnoc Sion narrowed the gap to two points as O'Grady went for a point instead of a goal from again in a tremendous battle with Frankie Whelan. But, Pickey finally pushed the margin to four points — insurance.

Cnoc Sion's famous late effort was in evidence, of course, but the opponents this time were too steadfast: they had suffered too much in getting their winning lead, and would not surrender it now. The end came with play back around midfield where Galvin had hit some great balls near the end of defence. And with the final whistle, great scenes of delight as Portlaw players and followers embraced and danced with joy on the field, and Cnoc Sion were first with congratulations even though it was a sore loss for them.

Deuglan Guid, Hon. Life President of Waterford G.A.A., presented the Cup to Martin Hickey, after a speech of well-chosen words in the course of which he referred to the golden days when he played with Martin's father.

Jackie Whelan played a major role in steadying the Portlaw defence on this occasion; Frank had a tremendous set to with Martin Geary — two hard and brave men who gave and took with never a murmur. Kirwan and Peter Whelan were seldom overcome; Hennebery and Maher were sound in the crisis; and O'Sullivan kept cool and made some good saves in critical moments.

Mossie Whelan and Galvin were on top most of the game at centre field as well as lending a hand in defence and attack. Hickey went up the left wing time after time in the second half to feed in all the scoring chances. Yet, perhaps, the crucial factor was the manner in which the ageless Tom Cheasty outplayed Jim Greene, playing a lot of the ball and depriving Cnoc Sion of the usual long deliveries of their centre-half back. At this rate Cheasty could still be winning titles in another ten (or even twenty) years.

Pat McGrath and Martin Geary might easily qualify as the best players in the match, but this only tends to emphasise the fact that Cnoc Sion were less than well-served in many other positions.

Scorers — Portlaw — W. Kiely 1-2; M. Hickey 0-2; M. Whelan, D. Long and T. Ryan 0-1 each. Cnoc Sion — M. Geary 1-1; P. O'Grady 0-4; M. Morrissey 1-0; J. Greene and P. McGrath 0-1 each.

Teams — Portlaw — N. O'Sullivan; P. Whelan, P. Hennebery, H. Maher; J. Kirwan, J. Whelan, F. Whelan; J. Galvin, M. Whelan; T. Russell, T. Cheasty, M. Hickey; W. Kiely, D. Long, T. Ryan. Sub. M. Greene. Subs. M. Og Morrissey for O'Brien; B. Frisby for O'Connor; E. Ryan for G. Cunningham.

SHOCK RESULTS AT CAPPOQUIN

Last Sunday produced two major upsets in the Divisional championships at the Cappoquin venue. In the junior hurling, Tallow's second string selection put paid to Kilgobinet's hopes for yet another year and in the big game of the day Ballyduff's intermediate footballers ousted Ring's fancied team in no uncertain manner.

JUNIOR HURLING

Tallow ... 2-5; Kilgobinet ... 1-4. Tallow's young junior hurlers brought off a fully deserved surprise victory over a fancied Kilgobinet team at Cappoquin on Sunday last. At half time the winners lead by 1-4 to 1-2 but it was in the second half that the fitter Tallow team got well on top and with Kieran Ryan, Pat Daly, R. McNamara, John McDonald, Eddie Cunningham, and goalkeeper Denny Cunningham in top form they lead a disappointing Kilgobinet side a merry dance. The only players to play up to form for the losers were Peter Power, Liam O'Rourke, Paddy Lynch and Connie Kelleher.

Tallow will now meet Tourin in the Western final and with five teams still standing in the championship the Tallow club could yet win quite a few titles.

Referee — J. J. Landers, Cappoquin.

INTERMEDIATE FOOTBALL

Ballyduff ... 2-5; Ring ... 0-7. Ballyduff Intermediate footballers who have pulled off some surprise wins in the championship over the past two years, really pulled one out of the bag on Sunday last in Cappoquin, when in sensational fashion they defeated Ring in the Divisional final of the championship. The Gaeltacht team entered this final as the warmest of favourites, no doubt their challenge was affected by the absence of Tomas Maher, Donal Murphy and Jim Harty due to injury. Both Maher and Murphy came on during the game. Yet this cannot take from Ballyduff's wonderful achievement.

The fate in the first half was poor and at the interval the teams were level at 0-2 each. On the resumption J. Hannon scored a goal for Ballyduff and they added a point. Ring struck back with three points and both teams were now going flat out for victory and as the time ebbed away Ballyduff were clinging onto a one point lead 1-5 to 0-7, when following a great movement Richie Walsh blasted home his side's second goal to clinch the victory for Ballyduff. This was the club's first football title since 1964.

There were in no way flattered by their win. They were first to the ball and at all times they played first rate football.

Their best players were Pat Hegarty, Mossey Walsh, Shamie Hannon, Pat Daly, Mossey McNamara, J. Hannon, Richie Walsh and Gerry Guiry. Ring were well served by Tom Kelly, Tom Whelan, B. Murray, Sean Linnane and Liam Maher.

WALK OVER

The opening game at Dungarvan's Fraher field on Sunday last failed to take place as Eire Oge were forced to concede a walk over to Cappoquin in their U-21 hurling championship game. Cappoquin are now through to the Western final where they will await the winners of the second semi-final between Tallow and Abbeyside.

MUNSTER COUNCIL

At last week's Munster Council meeting it was confirmed that Waterford's Nicolaas Mac Craith will continue as Vice-Chairman of the Council until next year's convention, when he will automatically take over as Chairman in succession to the late P. A. "Weeshie" Murphy.

ABBEYSIDE/BALLINACOURTY LEAGUE

Saturday next is football final day at the club grounds when the final of the clubs' special U-14 Parish football league takes place. At stake will be the Mick Higgins Perpetual Club and battling for this prize will be Wolfe Tones captained by Pat Moloney and Emmetts skippered by Tommy Wade. An unusual feature of this final is that four sets of brothers will be on opposite sides on Saturday. Assisting Wolfe Tones will be Donal Looby, Liam Shanley, Michael Riordan and John Keohan and included in Emmetts line-up are Gerard Looby, Brian Shanley, Joe Riordan and Jim Keohan.

When these teams met two weeks ago they played a thrilling draw and while Wolfe Tones will start as favourites to bring home the Cup one cannot rule out an Emmetts victory. In keeping with what has been a most successful competition Saturday's final should be an exciting tussle.

Fixtures — Saturday, 20th October —

Wolfe Tones v. Emmetts at 2.30 p.m.

J.F.C. DUNGARVAN OR TALLOW

On Sunday next the Western Board stages its Junior Football championship final and the meeting of Tallow and Dungarvan should attract a big attendance to the popular Cappoquin venue. Tallow were defeated Divisional finalists in 1972, while Dungarvan who had been the fancy of many were eliminated when they failed to field out against the eventual champions Sliabh gCua.

To date Tallow have chalked up victories over Sliabh gCua (thus gaining revenge for last year's defeat), Tourin and Ring. While Dungarvan have accounted for Briskey, Rangers, Affane, Eire Oge and Kilgobinet.

Over the past eight years the Tallow club has collected its fair share of football titles in the under age grades and sooner or later they are bound to make their mark at adult level. Yet, up till now they have failed to make the breakthrough. On Sunday they will be playing in their second final in succession and we can expect them to be more determined than ever to succeed on this occasion.

Their side is strong in defence where Billy Sheehan, Liam O'Brien, Tom McSweeney, John Russell, Goalkeeper Bernard Pratt are certain starters. While minor stars Tom McCarthy and Kieran Ryan may also be included in this sector.

At centre field, Seamus Treacy and Mutty Curley form a useful pairing while in attack Matt Harpur, Billy Ryan, Tom Doyle, Pascal Prescott etc. will pose quite a threat to the old bore defence.

Dungarvan's main worry rests with the fitness of full back Sean Power who sustained a hand injury early in the Kilgobinet game. George Tutty will again guard their goal and Liam Sandford, Eddie Sheehan, Jim Houlihan, Michael Norris and Jim Curran will be their main stays in defence. Pa Meehan and Mickey Houlihan could give them an even break at centre field and in attack Eamonn Kiely, Michael Whelan, Mick O'Gorman, Mickey Sheridan, Liam Simms, Jackie Sandford and John Moylan will again carry the hopes of the "Blues" supporters.

Tallow will start as clear favourites to take the title on the grounds that they are the more experienced team and they should also have the edge in general field craft and football know how. Their team is one comprised of players who have cut their teeth in the under age competitions and Eddie Cunningham's charges have the ability to win this one.

Dungarvan as a club with a tradition of football second to none within the county have been out of the honours list since 1954 when they last captured the senior crown and certainly their team have plenty of incentive to upset the odds on Sunday. In their semi-final game against Kilgobinet they displayed a certain amount of promise and they are unquestionably a team with plenty of football ability backed up with fitness and more spirit than I have seen in an old bore side in recent years. In my opinion they must be in with at least an even money chance of taking the title.

Under 21 Hurling Championship

Abbeyside ... 2-5; Four-mile-water ... 1-6.

Those who were present at the Fraher field on Sunday last were rewarded with a most exciting encounter between Abbeyside and Four-mile-water U-21 hurlers, in the second round of the championship. Abbeyside had first use of the strong breeze yet they found scores hard to come by against an enthusiastic Ballymac' team which included many of their successful minor team and at half time the Villagers were in front by 2-2 to 0-1.

On the resumption, Four-mile' now had the assistance of the breeze and obviously sensing victory they laid siege on the Abbeyside goal and inside ten minutes they had reduced the leeway to two points and now the battle was joined in earnest. The standard of hurling improved somewhat, even allowing for the high grass and the final quarter was fought amidst great excitement.

Abbeyside held on to their lead and scored what for them was a most important hurling victory. They were well served by Jim Kiely, Jim Kelleher, Mick Hanrahan, Nickey Cashin, Peter Healy, Marty Kiely and wing back Jimmy Fraher. As expected Four-mile-water played some great hurling and make no doubt about it with talent like this at their disposal the Ballymac' club are assured of a bright future.

Their best players were goalkeeper Willie Ryan who made some great saves; P. Whelan; P. Walsh; M. Whelan; T. Halpin; M. Ryan; D. White and P. J. Ryan who scored all his sides points, five from placed ball's and one from play.

Scorers — Abbeyside — M. Kiely (1-1); I. Gordon (0-1); J. Fraher (0-2); T. Butler and H. Keener (0-1 each).

Four-mile-water — P. J. Ryan (0-6); T. Moore (1-0).

Abbeyside — P. McGovern; J. Kiely, M. O'Flynn, J. Kelleher; and Fraher, N. Caslin, P. Healy, M. Hanrahan, P. Whyte; M. Kiely, H. Keener, E. Caslin; T. Butler, I. Gordon, R. Hanrahan.

Four-mile-water — W. Ryan; E. Power, S. English, P. Whelan; P. Walsh, M. Whelan; T. Halpin; M. Ryan, J. McGrath; D. Fitzpatrick, D. Whyte, P. J. Ryan; J. M. Power, T. Moore, J. Halpin. Sub. R. Walsh.

Referee, J. Moran, Kilgobinet

Hurlers To Beat Clare

On Sunday next the main interest will centre on Walsh Park, where Waterford hurlers take on Clare in their second outing in the current national league campaign. Two weeks ago Clare were considered somewhat unlucky to lose to All-Ireland champions Limerick. Indeed Limerick's winning goal did not come until the final three minutes of that exciting encounter. While in the Munster championship Limerick again only had two points to spare over the "Banner" county men. This fact goes to prove that these Clare hurlers are going to prove quite a handful for Waterford on Sunday next.

Following their very promising display against Tipperary in this year's championship and their promotion from Div. IB in last season's League, Waterford hurlers have maintained their improvement with good displays against Limerick in a challenge outing against Cork at the official re-opening of Dungarvan's Fraher field.

In this match, the huge attendance were thrilled by the dashing display in which Liam Canning starred and Martin Hickey's reply to Cork's John Horgan will also be remembered. In their next outing Waterford captured Div. IB League honours by defeating New York and then in their opening game in the top section of the League among hurling's elite, they defeated Galway at Athenry.

However, while the results in these last two outings have been OK, nevertheless they have lapsed in the concentration, vital periods in both game and if they hope to collect two further vital points, on Sunday then this falling will have to be corrected.

The panel of players have been in training two nights a week for the past four weeks and over the last year a great bond of friendship has been built up among the players, selectors and Board Officials. It was a pleasure to hear Tom Cunningham say tribute to County Board Secretary, Seamus Grant, at last week's Board Meeting on the excellent manner in which the arrangements for the Galway game were organised.

WUJING PLAYERS

It is now obvious that the selectors have collected together a willing panel of players who are prepared to serve our county and that's half the battle. Already much has been achieved and nobody knows better than the players themselves that every game in this current league is of vital importance.

A win over Clare on Sunday would go a long way towards securing our position in Div. IA and would give our men extra confidence for their clash with Wexford at New Ross on November 4th. Now that the tension and stresses of the county final are over, I believe that Waterford hurlers have the ability and determination to overcome Clare. At present interest in hurling and our county team is very high as proved by last Sunday's gate receipts of £1,300, despite the reduced charge due to the transfer of the N.F.L. game and let us hope that we will have an even bigger attendance on Sunday next.

TWO CHANGES

The team to do duty on Sunday next shows two changes from the side which did duty against Galway. Portlaw's John Galvin returns to team-up with club mate Mossey Whelan and Pat O'Grady moves to right corner forward instead of Stephen Greene.

Team — M. Foley, M. Kirwan, P. Coady, S. Hannon, D. Duggan, J. Greene, P. McGrath, M. Whelan, J. Galvin, M. Hickey, A. Hannon, T. Reid, P. O'Grady, L. Canning, M. Geary. Subs. — P. Flynn, C. Sullivan, J. Fraher, P. Egan, M. Walsh.
