

FREEHOLDERS' OATHS.

The following are the oaths which were taken by the Electors at the law stood before the passing of the Relief Bill—we shall, in our next, give the new oaths to be taken by a freeholder or twenty pound freeholder, not arising from a Rent Charge.

Oath to be taken by a Freeholder. I, of the County of Waterford, do swear (or if a Quaker, do affirm) that I am a freeholder of the County of Waterford, and that I have a freehold estate in some land or house, or other hereditaments (as the case may be) of the clear yearly value of £10 or more, and that I have a freehold estate in some land or house, or other hereditaments (as the case may be) of the clear yearly value of £10 or more, and that I have a freehold estate in some land or house, or other hereditaments (as the case may be) of the clear yearly value of £10 or more.

Oath to be taken by a Forty-shilling Freeholder. I, of the County of Waterford, do swear (or if a Quaker do affirm) that I am a freeholder of the County of Waterford, and that I have a freehold estate in some land or house, or other hereditaments (as the case may be) of the clear yearly value of £40 or more, and that I have a freehold estate in some land or house, or other hereditaments (as the case may be) of the clear yearly value of £40 or more.

Oath to be taken by a Freeholder. I, of the County of Waterford, do swear (or if a Quaker do affirm) that I am a freeholder of the County of Waterford, and that I have a freehold estate in some land or house, or other hereditaments (as the case may be) of the clear yearly value of £10 or more, and that I have a freehold estate in some land or house, or other hereditaments (as the case may be) of the clear yearly value of £10 or more.

RECEPTION OF THE RUSSIAN AMBASSADOR AT CONSTANTINOPLE.

From the Journal des Debats of Tuesday. Letters from Pera, of the 9th of December, give an account of the reception of his Excellency Lieutenant General Count Orloff, by the Grand Seigneur, at Ramis Tchilik, some interesting details, which we hasten to communicate to our readers.

the Archduke Ferdinand, the other of the corps of Cossacks of the Don, formed the whole of his escort. Arrived at Ramis Tchilik, Count Orloff found one of the Sultan's aides de camp, Avai Bey, who attended him to the principal entrance.

Having been introduced into the Chamber of the Seliclar Aga, Count Orloff found the Reis Effendi, who, after an interchange of polite civilities, announced to him that the Government had felt it to be its duty to give the necessary orders to the authorities of Adrianople to give their best assistance to the sick in our military hospital, to let them remain in the town, having entirely for their use the barracks in which this hospital was established.

Count Orloff testified to the Reis Effendi how much more agreeable this notification would be to the Emperor, as it anticipated all his desires, for it was intended to have made a demand upon this subject, and that it only remained for him to address his thanks to the Ministers of his Highness.

LIMERICK ELECTION.

We refer with peculiar satisfaction to the report in our columns this day of the proceedings at the Limerick Election. We refer to this as a strong proof of the power and honesty of the people, and as peculiarly indicative of what may be expected at the coming Election for this County.

Independent and patriotic Electors of the fertile and luxurious County of renowned Limerick—I have news for you—gratifying news, I presume—the blood-stained Brunswick Massy flag is for ever lowered in this County. Hear, hear! Bigoted intolerance and tyrannical aristocratic power have been shattered into a thousand fragments, and is incapable of ever again uniting to assail the independence of your County. Cheers. The mountain wolf is on the walk, but you despise his ferociousness, and that of the enemies of your native land—old Erin. Are you not aware, that the Massy family were to a man congregated to perpetuate your bondage and degradation? Hear, hear. Who was it that in a most unprejudiced and violent manner started into the Chapel of Rathkeale, and attempted, by sealing the sacred altar of your ancestors, to insult the truly brave, uncompromising, patriotic, and learned Thomas Steele? Was it not a Massy?—(Cries of "It was.") At a period too when this liberal Protestant—this warm-hearted Irishman—was advocating your rights, and manfully assisting to break your chains, Mr. Massy Dawson, I understand, is a good and benevolent man, and I am heartily sorry he has been the dupe of the Aristocratic Junia, who are aiming at stripping our County with eternal degradation. Hear, hear. He is, I am certain, the best member of that family, but like the falling oak, though the trunk may retain some sap, it might be crowded with rotten branches. I am extremely sorry that Mr. Massy Dawson did not keep the place he held in the affections of the people of Ireland, and not vacate his seat for the Borough of Clonmel, to gratify an aristocratic party. Hear, hear, hear. If he intended to serve Ireland, he could have kept his seat; and, instead of agitating this County, and opposing the talented Colonel O'Grady, he could throw himself into the ranks of that party whose only object is the good of the people. Cheers. If his motives were patriotic and sincere, how could he reconcile himself to oppose the nephew-in-law of the most noble—the renowned—the illustrious and brave Marquis of Anglesey? Great cheers. This great discourse of Erin's sons brings the scenes of immortal Clare to my recollection. I never shall forget her fascinating and patriotic daughters and her brave sons—hear—who were instruments in achieving our grand cause. At a moment's warning I am ready to die the green shambrook of Erin with my blood against any of the enemies of the people. Hear, hear. I will be in Waterford—patriotic Waterford—to oppose the Beresfords, if I live. Hear. I have to inform you that one of Mr. Dawson's objects in vacating his seat in Clonmel was to have a hiding hole for the intolerant Lord George Beresford—hear, hear—but I am confident the Aristocrats and the Beresfords will be deceived, and that we will have our own native County Gentleman as our representative, who will behave as bravely in Parliament as he did in the same regiment with his noble uncle-in-law, the gallant Marquis of Anglesey. Great cheers. I fear I have impressed too long on your kind indulgence—cries of "no, no,"—but my feelings are like your own; and, when you are insulted, I feel it, and would sacrifice my life for you and my Country, and say with my last breath, "Old Ireland for ever!"

COUNTY LIMERICK ELECTION.

THURSDAY—FOURTH DAY.

There was no case of interest came before the Assessor this day.

Some serious altercation took place this day in the Assessor's Room, between Mr. Bennett and the junior Sheriff.

Before the Poll was declared, Colonel O'Grady came forward on the hustings, in the County Court, and delivered a very animated address—he hoped the people would stand by him, and he would be always found standing by them.

After the Colonel had concluded, the assiduo were addressed by Messrs. O'Kavanagh and Bennett in a very patriotic strain, after which the High Sheriff came forward and declared the state of the Poll, which was received with loud cheers.

Many consider this majority to decide the fate of the election.

In the course of the day, a the Baron of Lower Connello, a gentleman named Griffin came forward to vote. He was asked whom it was his intention to vote for? He replied for Colonel O'Grady.

It is with sincere satisfaction we have to record the comparative tranquillity which prevails when we consider the immense multitude that are at this moment in the City, and the high pitch to which the popular excitement is up.

FRIDAY—FIFTH DAY.

GLORIOUS TRIUMPH.

The County of Limerick is enrolled amongst the free and independent Counties of Ireland—the aristocracy and their minions put hors de combat, while O'Grady and the honest electors have prevented our beautiful County from being converted into a rotten borough.

For Colonel O'Grady 142 For Mr. Dawson 99 Majority for Colonel O'Grady 43

SATURDAY—SIXTH DAY.

The poll is exceedingly languid, and an arrangement has just been made between the candidates to consume only one hour in polling a tally of five at either side in any booth.

The High Sheriff has just declared this day's poll—For O'Grady 109; for Massy Dawson 22; majority 87. Majority on the gross poll for Colonel O'Grady 210.

Colonel O'Grady thanked the electors in a brilliant speech. The Court was then adjourned till Monday (yesterday).

COUNTY WATERFORD ELECTION.

THURSDAY—FOURTH DAY.

There was no case of interest came before the Assessor this day.

Some serious altercation took place this day in the Assessor's Room, between Mr. Bennett and the junior Sheriff.

Before the Poll was declared, Colonel O'Grady came forward on the hustings, in the County Court, and delivered a very animated address—he hoped the people would stand by him, and he would be always found standing by them.

After the Colonel had concluded, the assiduo were addressed by Messrs. O'Kavanagh and Bennett in a very patriotic strain, after which the High Sheriff came forward and declared the state of the Poll, which was received with loud cheers.

Many consider this majority to decide the fate of the election.

In the course of the day, a the Baron of Lower Connello, a gentleman named Griffin came forward to vote. He was asked whom it was his intention to vote for? He replied for Colonel O'Grady.

It is with sincere satisfaction we have to record the comparative tranquillity which prevails when we consider the immense multitude that are at this moment in the City, and the high pitch to which the popular excitement is up.

FRIDAY—FIFTH DAY.

GLORIOUS TRIUMPH.

The County of Limerick is enrolled amongst the free and independent Counties of Ireland—the aristocracy and their minions put hors de combat, while O'Grady and the honest electors have prevented our beautiful County from being converted into a rotten borough.

For Colonel O'Grady 142 For Mr. Dawson 99 Majority for Colonel O'Grady 43

SATURDAY—SIXTH DAY.

The poll is exceedingly languid, and an arrangement has just been made between the candidates to consume only one hour in polling a tally of five at either side in any booth.

The High Sheriff has just declared this day's poll—For O'Grady 109; for Massy Dawson 22; majority 87. Majority on the gross poll for Colonel O'Grady 210.

Colonel O'Grady thanked the electors in a brilliant speech. The Court was then adjourned till Monday (yesterday).

COUNTY WATERFORD ELECTION.

THURSDAY—FOURTH DAY.

There was no case of interest came before the Assessor this day.

Some serious altercation took place this day in the Assessor's Room, between Mr. Bennett and the junior Sheriff.

Before the Poll was declared, Colonel O'Grady came forward on the hustings, in the County Court, and delivered a very animated address—he hoped the people would stand by him, and he would be always found standing by them.

After the Colonel had concluded, the assiduo were addressed by Messrs. O'Kavanagh and Bennett in a very patriotic strain, after which the High Sheriff came forward and declared the state of the Poll, which was received with loud cheers.

Many consider this majority to decide the fate of the election.

In the course of the day, a the Baron of Lower Connello, a gentleman named Griffin came forward to vote. He was asked whom it was his intention to vote for? He replied for Colonel O'Grady.

It is with sincere satisfaction we have to record the comparative tranquillity which prevails when we consider the immense multitude that are at this moment in the City, and the high pitch to which the popular excitement is up.

FRIDAY—FIFTH DAY.

GLORIOUS TRIUMPH.

The County of Limerick is enrolled amongst the free and independent Counties of Ireland—the aristocracy and their minions put hors de combat, while O'Grady and the honest electors have prevented our beautiful County from being converted into a rotten borough.

For Colonel O'Grady 142 For Mr. Dawson 99 Majority for Colonel O'Grady 43

SATURDAY—SIXTH DAY.

The poll is exceedingly languid, and an arrangement has just been made between the candidates to consume only one hour in polling a tally of five at either side in any booth.

The High Sheriff has just declared this day's poll—For O'Grady 109; for Massy Dawson 22; majority 87. Majority on the gross poll for Colonel O'Grady 210.

Colonel O'Grady thanked the electors in a brilliant speech. The Court was then adjourned till Monday (yesterday).

IMMENSE BANKRUPT'S AUCTION.

OF WOOLLEN DRAPERY, in the greatest variety, SILK MERRICRY, LINENS, SHEETINGS, DIAPERS, DAMASKS, MOREENS, FURNITURE CALICOS, 24,500 Yards of PRINTED CALICOS and MUSLINS. Splendid THIBET WOOL SHAWLS, FUR GOODS, Fur-lined CLOAKS, QUILTS, BLANKETS, MEN'S BEAVER HATS. A MAGNIFICENT DISPLAY OF REAL SURFLEAVE. JEWELLERY, Superior Coloured PLAIN and CUT GLASS, Eau de Cologne, &c. &c. The entire have been valued at £15,000! But every Article must be Sold for any Price that is offered.

COUNTY WATERFORD ELECTION.

THURSDAY—FOURTH DAY.

There was no case of interest came before the Assessor this day.

Some serious altercation took place this day in the Assessor's Room, between Mr. Bennett and the junior Sheriff.

Before the Poll was declared, Colonel O'Grady came forward on the hustings, in the County Court, and delivered a very animated address—he hoped the people would stand by him, and he would be always found standing by them.

After the Colonel had concluded, the assiduo were addressed by Messrs. O'Kavanagh and Bennett in a very patriotic strain, after which the High Sheriff came forward and declared the state of the Poll, which was received with loud cheers.

Many consider this majority to decide the fate of the election.

In the course of the day, a the Baron of Lower Connello, a gentleman named Griffin came forward to vote. He was asked whom it was his intention to vote for? He replied for Colonel O'Grady.

It is with sincere satisfaction we have to record the comparative tranquillity which prevails when we consider the immense multitude that are at this moment in the City, and the high pitch to which the popular excitement is up.

FRIDAY—FIFTH DAY.

GLORIOUS TRIUMPH.

The County of Limerick is enrolled amongst the free and independent Counties of Ireland—the aristocracy and their minions put hors de combat, while O'Grady and the honest electors have prevented our beautiful County from being converted into a rotten borough.

For Colonel O'Grady 142 For Mr. Dawson 99 Majority for Colonel O'Grady 43

SATURDAY—SIXTH DAY.

The poll is exceedingly languid, and an arrangement has just been made between the candidates to consume only one hour in polling a tally of five at either side in any booth.

The High Sheriff has just declared this day's poll—For O'Grady 109; for Massy Dawson 22; majority 87. Majority on the gross poll for Colonel O'Grady 210.

Colonel O'Grady thanked the electors in a brilliant speech. The Court was then adjourned till Monday (yesterday).

BIRTH.

On Sunday, 17th inst., at Ballinacallin House, the Lady of the Rev. E. Brett, of a daughter.

COUNTY WATERFORD ELECTION.

THURSDAY—FOURTH DAY.

There was no case of interest came before the Assessor this day.

Some serious altercation took place this day in the Assessor's Room, between Mr. Bennett and the junior Sheriff.

Before the Poll was declared, Colonel O'Grady came forward on the hustings, in the County Court, and delivered a very animated address—he hoped the people would stand by him, and he would be always found standing by them.

After the Colonel had concluded, the assiduo were addressed by Messrs. O'Kavanagh and Bennett in a very patriotic strain, after which the High Sheriff came forward and declared the state of the Poll, which was received with loud cheers.

Many consider this majority to decide the fate of the election.

In the course of the day, a the Baron of Lower Connello, a gentleman named Griffin came forward to vote. He was asked whom it was his intention to vote for? He replied for Colonel O'Grady.

It is with sincere satisfaction we have to record the comparative tranquillity which prevails when we consider the immense multitude that are at this moment in the City, and the high pitch to which the popular excitement is up.

FRIDAY—FIFTH DAY.

GLORIOUS TRIUMPH.

The County of Limerick is enrolled amongst the free and independent Counties of Ireland—the aristocracy and their minions put hors de combat, while O'Grady and the honest electors have prevented our beautiful County from being converted into a rotten borough.

For Colonel O'Grady 142 For Mr. Dawson 99 Majority for Colonel O'Grady 43

SATURDAY—SIXTH DAY.

The poll is exceedingly languid, and an arrangement has just been made between the candidates to consume only one hour in polling a tally of five at either side in any booth.

The High Sheriff has just declared this day's poll—For O'Grady 109; for Massy Dawson 22; majority 87. Majority on the gross poll for Colonel O'Grady 210.

Colonel O'Grady thanked the electors in a brilliant speech. The Court was then adjourned till Monday (yesterday).

BIRTH.

On Sunday, 17th inst., at Ballinacallin House, the Lady of the Rev. E. Brett, of a daughter.

MUSICAL CHRISTMAS PRESENTS AND NEW YEAR'S GIFTS.

WILLIS and CO., Royal Musical Repository, 55, St. James's Street, London, and 7, Westmoreland Street, Dublin, have just received a great variety of GERMAN JOLLIANS, in various forms, Prices from 2s. 6d. to 10s. 6d. and have this day published the GERMAN JOLLIAN TUTOR, Price 2s. 6d. containing directions for performing on the Chord and Single Note Jollians—to which is added, a Collection of popular Airs, Waltzes, Songs, &c. adapted to the capacity of that highly fashionable instrument.

A Set of CARDS for teaching Children TIME—played in the same manner as Bezique with Neighbour, the Semibreve, Minim, Crotchet, and Quaver, answering for the Ace, King, Queen, and Knave. Price 7s. 6d.

THE PATENT BAR FOLIO, for holding Music, Prints, Pamphlets, &c. on a new and extremely simple construction, and securing the contents as firmly as if bound.

A Collection of popular QUADRILLES and GALLOPAGES, by Wm. Pitt, Maudslayi, Simon, Loxton, and Marlowe. Price 3s. 6d.

All the songs, Duets, and Choruses, in Auber's Opera of Masetto, &c. arranged by H. P. K. Price 1s. 6d.

A Collection of 4th English Words by J. KESSEY, Esq. Also the Dictionary, Music Dramatic Music, and Duets. Complete. Price 3s. 6d.

ROBERT'S Grand Opera, the SIEGE OF CORINTH, with French and English words. Price 2s. 6d.

MINIATURE LYRICS, containing 250 Songs, Duets, &c. by E. H. BERRY, Esq. Price 1s. 6d.

By Messrs. BARNARD, BAKER, BRIDGE, CLARKE, DORRINGTON, HARRIS, LEE, MASSARD, STANBURY, STRENGTH, SMITH, SINGULAR, WARD, and WILLIS. In Three Numbers, 7s. 6d. each, or together, price 20s.

WILLIS'S Juvenile Duets, 2 Numbers, 2s. 6d.

WILLIS and Co. have constantly on Sale a splendid variety of Grand, Cabinet, and Square Pianos—Fortes, Harps, and every instrument pertaining to Music, by the most eminent Makers, at the lowest Manufacturers' Prices.

An extensive Library for the circulation of Music. Pianos, Fortes and Harps lost out on Hire. A FINGER ORGAN (with five barrels), sufficiently large for a Church, cost price 250 guineas, to be sold for 250 guineas.

WATERFORD PORT NEWS, FEB. 1.

ARRIVED.

January 29th—Stockton, Giles, Plymouth, ballast; Grace, Martin, Liverpool, salt.

30th—William, Green, Kingstown, herring, a market; Erin, Brennan, Cork, mackerel; Ellen, David Kinnealy, salt; O'Connell, Chalkcomb, Newport, coals; Lord Edlington, Day, Swanston, do; Barbadoes, Lee, St. John's, N. B. timber, for Dublin.

31st—City of Waterford, steamer, Bailey, Bristol, m. goods and passengers; Gipsy, steamer, Owen, Liverpool, m. goods and passengers; Brothers and Sisters, Brown, Fenby, system; Rossing, Friedrich, Cullin, goods; Sullivan, Ross, London, general cargo; Express, Evans, Llanelli, coals; Conqueror, Cadogan, Cork, flour, for Dublin.

February 1st—Betsey, Stephens, Newport, coals; Three Sisters, Thomas, London, general cargo.

SAILED.

January 29th—Aguis, Evans, Swansea, ballast; Brothers, Evans, Galway, coals.

30th—Sara Creina, steamer, Stacey, Bristol, m. goods and passengers; St George, Muxey, Cork, iron from Newport; Unity, Power, Swansea, hay, from Ross; Friends, Stapleton, Bristol, grain; Carline, Mahony, do. do. and flour; Friends, Newtown, Gloucester, flour and butter; Mary, Owen, Galway, ballast; Ellen and Ann, Hammett, Swansea, ballast; Dove, Veale, do. do. from Ross; Fame, Williams, Newport, ballast.

31st—New Bee, Jones, Arthurstown, ballast, from Newport; Hiram, Gibson, Liverpool, grain, flour, and butter; Royal George, Giverty, Newport, ballast; George the Fourth, Holley, Portsmouth, bacon and butter; Two Brothers, Pearce, Penzance, oats and flour.

February 1st—Sarah and Ann, Rhydderck, Bristol, barley.

We are happy to announce on undoubted authority, that her Grace the Duchess of Northumberland will patronise a Ball at the Rotunda, on or about the first week in March, for the benefit of the Sick and Indigent Roomkeepers' Institute; and that their Excellencies will both appear on the occasion in Irish Manufacture. It is not to be doubted that the opportunity thus afforded of encouraging the produce of the Irish loom, will be eagerly embraced by the Nobility and Gentry, whose wishes correspond with those of their Excellencies, in advancing the interests of our native artisans.—Dublin Evening Post.

Peter Kenney, Apothecary to the Waterford General Dispensary, acknowledges the receipt of one pound each from the Rev. Dr. John Sheehan, and Patrick Morris and Daniel Dunford, Esqrs. for the use of the destitute sick of this City whom he visits in his professional capacity.

