NEW PUBLICATIONS.

In the Press and will be Published next week,
ANCIENT IRELAND,

(A WEEKLY MAGAZINE.)
THE object of this Periodical is to promote the cultivation of the IRISH LANGUAGE, and to originate an earnest inquiry into the LITERATURE and ANCIENT HISTORY of Ireland.

BY PHILIP F. BARRON, ESQ.,
Of the County of Waterford.
Who has been for many years preparing for this, and a series of other works, Illustrations of the History and Literature of Ancient Ireland; a list and description of which will be found in the Magazine.

This Magazine will also be published in PARIS both in French and in English.

It is to be totally disconnected from Politics or Polemics, and purely Literary.

Price of a single Number, 6d.; Annual Subscription, £1 6s. 6d., payable in advance.

Several years have been devoted to the preliminary arrangements for this Publication.

The first Number contains letters of strong approbation from some of the highest and most influential persons in Ireland, and also an extract of a Correspondence from Paris, and Rome.

A circulation of 10,000 copies has been already secured for this Magazine.

Single Advertisements, or Sheets of Advertisements taken.

To be had of all Booksellers, and from Agents in EVERY PARISH THROUGHOUT IRELAND.

All Communications to be addressed, postage free, to "PHILIP F. BARRON, ESQ., Irish Office, Waterford," or "Irish Office, No. 5, Bachelor's Walk, Dublin."

TO THE INDEPENDENT ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY OF WATERFORD.

GENTLEMEN,
An insidious report has been put in circulation, that I intend to withdraw myself from the representation of the County.

Nothing can be more false. I pledge myself to be on the hustings as a candidate for the honour of your suffrages at the approaching Election; and, if necessary, to go to the last man.

Much has been said as to my conduct at the Dungarvan Election. I am, I trust, supported by the best of men, in preference to a total stranger, about whom I know nothing, and who, when I made my enquiries, I found I ought not to have sanctioned, as a Member of the County.

Should any report have given whether he was a person at all entitled to represent a County, so much is said in favour of a Member competent to represent the interests of his Constituents, and other objects of his Constituents, that I am, I trust, supported by the best of men, in preference to a total stranger, about whom I know nothing, and who, when I made my enquiries, I found I ought not to have sanctioned, as a Member of the County.

The Respectable and Independent Electors who differ with me on some Political Questions, and who voted for me at the last Election, have now come forward to renew their assurances of friendship and support.

Under such circumstances, and as from the state of the Registry, there cannot be the slightest doubt of my success, I have, I trust, violated my pledge given by me.

When the dissolution shall have taken place, I will again address you, and state the grounds upon which I shall respectfully solicit the favour of your support.

I have the honour to be, Gentlemen,
Your very obedient servant,
JOHN MATTHEW GALWEY.

EMIGRATION.

NORTH AMERICAN COLONIAL ASSOCIATION OF IRELAND, FORMED IN CONNECTION WITH ENGLAND AND SCOTLAND.

For Purchasing and Colonizing Lands on the Ottawa, in Upper Canada, under safe Transport—Protection, Comfortable Location, and Employment to Emigrants.

ON WEDNESDAY, an Adjourned Meeting of the Merchants, Landed Proprietors, and Citizens, was held in the Board Room of the Harbour Commissioners, to take into consideration the objects of the North American Colonial Association, its plans and prospects.

At One o'clock, one of our Representatives, who is also a Vice President of the Association, took the Chair. Mr. Barron stated, that he had the pleasure to state that he was the subject for which the meeting was called every consideration—namely, how far forming a Branch of the Association in this City could benefit the families or individuals who may desire to Emigrate from the County of Waterford and County of Kilkenny. After a lengthened discussion,

The following resolutions were adopted:—
Moved by William Milward, Esq. and seconded by Simon Newport, Esq. Resolved—That a Local Branch of the North American Colonial Association be now formed, and be called the Waterford and Kilkenny Branch, and its management be hereby placed in the hands of the Vice President of the Association, and the following named Gentlemen as Directors:—John Harris, William M. Ardagh, Thomas Norton, Simon Newport, Wm. Milward, Esq., and that Wm. M. Ardagh, Esq., be requested to act as Secretary to the Local Board.

Moved by William Milward, Esq. and seconded by Simon Newport, Esq. Resolved—That a book be opened at the office of W. M. Ardagh, Esq., in this City, for the subscribers to state their names in which letters of Application for Shares, to be signed by each Subscriber, will be had, to be transmitted by the Secretary once a week, to the Assistant Secretary of the Central Board. That 1,000 Shares only be being allocated to the Waterford and Kilkenny District, and the Local Branch Board will close the Subscription Book on the 10th Day of JANUARY; and if more Shares shall be subscribed for then, than the 1,000, the most generous manner come forward to renew their assurances of friendship and support.

Under such circumstances, and as from the state of the Registry, there cannot be the slightest doubt of my success, I have, I trust, violated my pledge given by me.

When the dissolution shall have taken place, I will again address you, and state the grounds upon which I shall respectfully solicit the favour of your support.

I have the honour to be, Gentlemen,
Your very obedient servant,
JOHN MATTHEW GALWEY.

NORTH AMERICAN COLONIAL ASSOCIATION, 1, BERESFORD PLACE, CAPITAL, £300,000. Consisting of 15,000 Shares of £20 each.

PRESIDENT—EARL FITZWILLIAM.
VICE-PRESIDENTS:
Lord Donnell, Sir J. Coghlin, Bart., H. W. Barron, Esq., M. P., Gen. Evans, Esq., M. P., Robert Chaloner, Esq., Colonel Verrier, M. P., Colonel Brien.

THIS Association has been instituted to improve the system, and direct the progress of Emigration to North America, and to provide a remedy for the evils, distress, and difficulties to which Emigrants from Ireland are now exposed, both on their voyage and on their arrival in a foreign land.

It is proposed to supply the Emigrant, at a small expense, with a safe and commodious passage to Upper Canada, in a First Class Vessel, chartered by the Association. To appoint careful and experienced Agents, who shall receive the Emigrant at the port of destination, and forward him to the location, on the Company's lands.

To supply each Settler, on arrival at his destination with a House and a considerable Farm of Land, of which a small portion will be cleared and sown gratis, and which will be granted to him on certain conditions, in perpetuity, at a trifling rent.

To afford to him employment in clearing the Lands of the Company, building Houses, making Roads, and generally, in performing such public works as the Association may undertake.

To secure Medical Aid to the Emigrants, as well during the voyage as in the Settlement, and to provide Education in the Colony for the Families of all Settlers.

The Shareholder will find this an eligible investment for his Capital, as it is calculated that not more than a small portion of each share will ever be called for; and as the revenue derivable from the rents of the lands will progressively increase with the prosperity and improvement of the Settlement, it will afford him a very liberal interest.

Preliminary arrangements have been made to obtain a Charter and Act of Parliament, to incorporate the Association, and to limit the liability of Subscribers to the amount of Stock for which they shall have subscribed.

Prospectuses may be had upon application, either personally or by letter, post paid, to the Assistant Secretary, No. 1, Beresford-place, Dublin, where the names of Subscribers are, and Deposits on Shares will be received.

CONCERT FOR THE MENDICANT ASYLUM

THE Managing Committee of the Mendicant Asylum beg to inform the Nobility and Gentry of this City and its Vicinity, that Master Keogh, whose great musical talent has excited such universal admiration, intends giving a Concert at the ASSEMBLY ROOMS, on WEDNESDAY EVENING, the 31st Inst. The whole proceeds of which he most generously proposes to give in aid of the exhausted funds of this Institution.

The Committee confidently rely on their Fellow Citizens coming forward to second such extreme liberality, especially when they are invited by such powerful attraction.

Master K., will be assisted by his father Signor Rognoni and several amateurs and professors of this City.

Tickets, 2s. each—at JAMES CARROLL'S on the Quay. Doors open at 7, and performance to begin at 8 o'clock.

EXTRAORDINARY SCENE AT A COURT MARTIAL.

(FROM THE MADRAS GAZETTE OF AUGUST 10.)
A laughably serious circumstance took place about a fortnight or so ago, at Arcot, upon the trial of a hawildar of the 2d Regiment Light Cavalry. This man having been charged with some offence, was warranted of a regimental Court-martial convened to investigate his case, who he appealed from another regimental to an European general Court-martial under a late proclamation. The Court accordingly assembled, and the proceedings were entered upon, but fearing from the turn matters appeared to take, that things were going against him, the hawildar deliberately spat in the face of the officers sitting nearest him.—The Members of the Court stared at one another, paralyzed with astonishment, and the hawildar making the most of his time, regularly scolded them out, throwing his turban at the President, giving one of the members a punch in his vicarious office, and spitting in the faces of the rest. The members of the Court recovering from their reverie of wonder, drew their swords, and in a moment afterwards half a dozen sabre points were presented at the prisoner.—The President, however, desired their swords to be returned to their sheaths, when the hawildar made a dash for the sword of a cavalry officer who was one of the members of the Court. He seized the hilt, and had partly drawn the blade from the scabbard when he was seized. The man was then handcuffed, and is to be tried for the mutiny, but he declares his resolution to die, and swears he will starve himself to death. Down to the date of our intelligence he had been nearly three days without food.—A remarkable feature in this case is, that when he was given his choice of a Native or an European Court to try him for the mutiny, he again preferred to be tried by European officers.—This, we believe, is the first instance of such conduct ever known among sepoy.

SANGUINARY DUEL IN BRUSSELS

The Courier Belge contains the following:—"Public attention is engrossed with a duel which is to take place to-day, between Mr. Hamilton, secretary to the English Legation, and another Englishman, Mr. Wellesley, in consequence of injurious expressions used by the latter respecting Mr. Hamilton. These two gentlemen, who are to fight till one of them falls (qui tombera se battra a mort), are said to have each made their will before a notary of this city."

A duel took place at Boulogne-sur-Mer, on Wednesday last, between two young gentlemen, M. D.— and M. D.— The dispute arose out of the refusal of one of the parties, who was steward to a ball, to give tickets to the other for some ladies of his acquaintance. On Tuesday the gentleman who had applied for tickets met the other in the Grand Rue, and horsewhipped him in the presence of a great number of persons. This led to the challenge. The parties accordingly met, each attended by two seconds, when one of the parties having fired and missed, and the pistol of the other flashed in the pan, the seconds intervened, and the antagonists shook hands, and after their bloodless contest, went to breakfast together.

At a country auction last week the Knight of the hammer concluded a brilliant eulogium on a telescope forming one of the lots, he exclaiming "Here often has the widow's heart leaped for joy when she beheld her husband at a distance, brought near to her by such an instrument as this!"

FIFTE SLAUGHTER AT GURKHEE—OPENING PROCEEDINGS OF THE INQUEST ON THE BODIES OF THE VICTIMS.

(FROM THE SOUTHERN REPORTER OF TUESDAY.)
At an early hour on Saturday the roads leading into Rathcoole, particularly those from the Cork and Fermanagh sides, were thronged with persons of all ranks and conditions—eager to be present at the important proceedings before the Coroners.—The excitement and consternation throughout the country is absolutely indescribable, whilst in the village of Watergrasshill, Kilsanhook, and Rathcoole, nothing was heard but the wailings of the women and the imprecations of the men. From 9 to 10 o'clock, troops of cavalry (the 4th Dragoon Guards) and detachments of Infantry continued to pour into the town, whilst the arrival of the occupying gentlemen were unceasing. At half-past 10 the Rev. Joshua Ryder and his brother-in-law, Mr. Richard Wood, arrived from Cork, under a strong escort of Dragoons.—The members for both city and county soon after appeared; and at 11 o'clock the village at Rathcoole presented an appearance much more like a besieged place, than a quiet industrious little town.—In the middle of the din and confusion created by such a state of things was heard the tolling of the Church bell, which continued, at half minute time, during the day.

The first circumstance of interest which caught our ears was a warm and almost personal altercation between Doctor Baldwin, M.P., and Mr. Coroner Foot. It arose out of some question put by the honorable member regarding the character of the jury list which the Coroner held in his hand. Doctor Baldwin said, he should certainly impeach, before Parliament, not only Mr. Foot, but many other of the Coroners who should betray a feeling of partisanship, or not administer their office in the spirit of impartiality and justice. While this discussion was going on at one end of the town, persons were employed at the other end in getting in gentlemen who had been summoned to attend; and matters were thus circumstanced when the three Coroners—Messrs. Foot, O'Brien, and Jones—(the latter arrived from Malton that morning)—repaired to an apartment in the Court House, capable of accommodating somewhat about twenty persons—and took their places. The movement of the Coroners was discovered, and the little room became filled almost to suffocation in a minute. Our reporter was indebted to Major Miller for the comparatively good position in which he was placed. About half an hour was spent in getting through the waded mass of baggage assembled. It was with great difficulty that the City Representatives made their way to the table; and it was not until Mr. Feargus O'Connor announced himself as seeking admission, was any one of the County Representatives, but as a Counselor for the prosecution, that he got in.

Amongst those present were the Rev. Joshua Ryder, with whom Mr. Standish Barry, M.P., and Mr. Wood of Cork, Gen. Barry, Edward Roche, Esq., Henry B. Mitchell, Thomas Stephen Goppley, Cornelius O'Brien, Gerald Barry, Henry Peard, R. Bowles, John Harty, Rev. J. Edgewood, John Fitzpatrick, Esq.,—all gentlemen of the county. A great number of other gentlemen were also in attendance, and to say that the proceedings excited intense interest would be to give but a feeble notion of the feelings of all present.

Mr. Coroner Foot commenced by exhibiting a list of names of about 36, principally from the town and neighbourhood of Fermanagh. Having gone through it—

Mr. Feargus O'Connor asked if that was the list out of which it was intended the jury should be selected?

The Coroner replied in the affirmative.

Mr. O'Connor was unacquainted with the persons named in the paper; but if he had been instructed rightly, they had been most improperly, unsubstantiated, and partially selected.

Mr. Callaghan, M. P.—It is indeed an awful event. Let us conduct the enquiry in the spirit of impartiality and of justice.

Coroner Foot—You, Doctor Baldwin, handed me in a list of names; and I assure you that list contains more Protestants than the list I issued some weeks for yesterday. I think that M. we should have a fair jury, Mr. Coroner. We must have at least one hundred names.

After a good deal of irrelevant conversation—Mr. O'Connor rose, and said—"Now, Mr. Coroner, I think it high time to stop a conversation which has nothing whatever to do with the subject before us. I shall, very briefly, state to the court the course which I mean to pursue.—First, I beg to correct an error into which, Mr. O'Brien has fallen; he calls the parties who I am concerned the defendants; whereas I am counsel for the prosecution; and in that capacity I mean to tender sworn informants, of respectable persons, against Captain Cooke Collis, Captain Bagley, and the Rev. Mr. Ryder. It will be for the jury to say of what description the homicide was—whether wilful murder, justifiable homicide, or, if the jury which has been selected by Mr. Coroner Foot should be empowered, perhaps, I may receive the appellation of 'praiseworthy'; but be that as it may, I shall tender the informants. It is quite competent for the Coroners to receive them.

Coroner Foot—I will not subject myself to an action for false imprisonment to please Mr. O'Connor, by arresting respectable gentlemen.

Mr. O'Connor.—The law knows no distinction of persons, sir; the course which I propose has been frequently adopted.

The Coroners received the application, and after much discussion, several lists of names were handed on both sides, and the following jury was selected by ballot. The names were drawn by Major Miller, who at first objected, as he might be thought an interested person.

Mr. O'Connor observed, that Major Miller was never considered interested, except to obtain the ends of justice.
